THE TRANSFER EFFECT

ASHLEY MECKLEY

Ashley Meckley has become a mainstay in the Buccaneer lineup from the day she arrived on campus. The Hanahan, South Carolina, native has started all 30 games this season at shortstop after transferring into the program from Coker University.

Meckley is hitting .279 through the first 30 games of this season. The junior infielder also leads the team with six doubles, nine homers, 16 extra-base hits, 19 walks and 16 runs batted in, and also leads the team in slugging pct.

Meckley has five multi-hit games and has at least one hit in 17 of CSU's 30 games. In addition, she has reached base in 25 of the 30 games this season, including each of the Bucs' first 13 contests.

Prior to arriving at CSU, Meckley was a standout for Division II Coker University in Hartsville, South Carolina, where she hit .325 with seven homers and 35 runs batted in across 73 games. Despite the jump up to Division I, she is still on pace to put up numbers similar to those she produced during her time with the Cobras.

ONE TO REMEMBER

Holly Clark struck out six in a complete game performance against Cleveland State, giving head coach Christi Musser her first career win in a 2-1 Buccaneer victory on Feb. 20.

Ashley Meckley provided the offense for CSU with a two-run homer to left in the second innings, while Clark allowed one run on eight hits.

WALK IT OFF

Brewington hit a walk-off RBI single in the bottom of the 11th, scoring Ashley Meckley in the process, as the Bucs earned their first Big South win of the season with a 5-4 extra-inning thriller over Radford.

Annah Junge and Alyssa Heinrich combined to allow just six Radford hits in 11.0 innings of work. Heinrich was credited with the win after tossing 3.0 scoreless innings of relief. Junge allowed three earned runs in a career-high 8.0 innings while tying her season high with three strikeouts.

SPLITS

Charleston Southern defeated Coastal Carolina for the first time since the 2017 season when it took the opening game of a midweek doubleheader over the Chanticleers, 8-7.

Erika Cooper had the go-ahead hit with a solo home run in the bottom of the fifth inning. Alyssa Heinrich earned her second win of the season with 3.0 innings of relief work, while Annah Junge allowed four runs in 4.0 innings in her fourth start of the season.

The Bucs also earned a doubleheader split with crosstown rival College of Charleston, taking the second game of the twin bill, 6-4. Ashley Meckley homered against the Cougars, while a four-run second inning provided most of the damage for CSU. Baylee Eaton allowed one hit in 4.0 innings for the win.

RUN RULES

Charleston Southern has a pair of run-rule wins to its name this season, as the Bucs have five-inning wins over both Presbyterian (8-0) and Gardner-Webb (9-1).

The Bucs allowed just four hits and one run in the two games, while recording 20 hits and 15 RBI's in the games.

BAYLEE'S BRILLIANCE

Baylee Eaton threw the first complete game of her CSU career in a 2-1 win over Winthrop. Eaton allowed just three hits in the win over the Eagles, striking out a pair.

LEAD THE WAY

ALL AROUND THE ORDER

Brooklynn Brewington has started every game since she stepped foot on campus prior to the 2019 season. That hasn't changed this year, and the junior is now leading the way at the plate as well.

Brewington has hit all around the batting order for the Bucs this season and has been found anywhere from the leadoff spot to the six spot on head coach Christi Musser's lineup card.

The Andrews, South Carolina, native has rewarded her head coach's trust in her by leading CSU with a .354 batting average through 30 games. Brewington has at least one hit in 24 of the first 30 games this season, including a team-leading 11 multi-hit games.

Brewington also delivered a walk-off RBI single in the 11th inning against Radford to give the Bucs their first Big South win of the season.

A NEW ERA

Charleston Southern softball ushered in a new chapter in program history in January with the hiring of Christi Musser as the 10th head coach in program history.

Musser comes to the Lowcountry with an extensive coaching background and most recently served as the associate head coach at Grand Canyon University in Phoenix, Arizona. Musser was previously an assistant coach on the Grand Canyon staff prior to being promoted to associate head coach. During her time at GCU, the Lopes were ranked among the top teams in Division I in batting average and doubles per game. Musser coached three all-conference players during her time with the Lopes, including a pair of First Team All-WAC outfielders.

Musser previously had a three-year stint as an assistant coach at New Mexico, where she was the hitting instructor for the Lobos. Under her tutelage, the Lobos led all of Division I with 96 home runs in 2012.

Musser got her start in coaching at Kansas, her alma mater, where she spent seven seasons as an assistant. She was the hitting instructor and recruiting coordinator during her coaching tenure with the Jayhawks.

FAMILIAR FACES IN THE FOLD

While Christi Musser is a new face to the Buccaneer softball program, people familiar with CSU softball will recognize the assistant coaches for the Bucs.

Stevi Johnson is in her third season as an assistant coach for the Bucs and is one of the top players in program history. Johnson was a part of CSU's 2014 Big South Championship-winning team and also earned all-conference honors in 2017. She works with the outfielders and as a hitting instructor, with an emphasis on power hitting.

Russell Cooper is also in his third season as an assistant coach, albeit in his second stint with the Buccaneer softball program. Cooper previously spent the 2017-18 seasons on the CSU staff as an assistant coach and works primarily with the pitchers.

Road Swing
Charleston Southern continues its 10-game road trip this weekend with a midweek doubleheader Tuesday at Furman. This is the Buccaneers' first trip to Greenville since the 2006 season.

Furman and Charleston Southern have not played since 2018 and each of the last seven contests between the Bucs and Paladins have been at the CSU Softball Field.

All-Time Against Furman
This will be the 44th and 45th all-time meetings between the Bucs and Paladins in a series which started during the 1992 season.

Overall, Furman has 29-14 advantage in the all-time series, including a 14-3 lead in games played in Greenville. The Paladins won each of the last two contests between the teams, with both of those taking place during the 2018 season. This will be first time the Bucs have played at Furman since the 2006 season.

About Furman
Furman enters Tuesday's games with a 13-20 overall record and a 6-3 mark in SoCon play. The Paladins swept ETSU in their most recent action and still have half of their conference schedule remaining. Furman dropped its most recent midweek games in a doubleheader sweep at South Carolina last week.

Furman has a 1-4 record against common opponents this season. The Paladins split a doubleheader against USC Upstate, lost a single game to Winthrop and were swept by South Carolina in a doubleheader.

Emily Bartlett leads the Paladins with a .343 batting average and is one of four Furman players with an average above .300. Mackense Greico has a team-high seven home runs, 13 extra-base hits and 25 runs batted in.

Sierra Tufts leads Furman in most pitching categories and has a 6-9 record with a 3.69 ERA and 36 strikeouts in 85.1 innings. Bailey Tanner has a 3.88 ERA and four wins in 56.0 innings for the Paladins, while Shelby Basso has a 5.94 ERA, three wins and 31 strikeouts in 68.1 innings. Basso and Tufts have combined to throw 11 complete games between them.

Recapping Last Weekend
The Bucs were swept for the first time since the opening weekend of Big South play when Campbell took all three games of a weekend series over the Bucs in Buies Creek.

CSU was limited to just three runs in the series, as Campbell swept the Saturday doubleheader by scorelines of 10-1 and 6-1, then won a pitchers' duel in the series finale on Sunday, 2-1.

Dominique Mannerino led the way for the Bucs at the plate with a pair of multi-hit games against the Camels, while SeaEnna Satcher and Brooklynn Brewington each had one two-hit game against Campbell. Brewington was the only Buc with a hit in all three games of the series, while Mannerino recorded the lone RBI of the weekend for CSU.

Holly Clark and Annah Junge each threw complete games against the Camels, with Clark allowing just two runs in 6.0 innings of work in Sunday's series finale. Junge tossed a career-high 125 pitches in the middle game of the series and tied her season high of three strikeouts in the process.

Recapping Tuesday
Charleston Southern rallied for a pair of road wins at Georgia Southern. The Bucs took the first game of the doubleheader, 8-7, before a come-from-behind 4-1 win in the nightcap.

CSU hit two homers in the doubleheader, with both coming in clutch situations. Ashley Meckley broke a 7-all tie in the seventh inning of the first game with a solo homer into the bleachers beyond the left field wall and Madison Koger gave the Bucs the lead in the second game with a three-run homer down the left field line in the sixth inning.

Holly Clark tied her season high with six strikeouts in the first game and earned her third win of the season, while Alyssa Heinrich had a season-high five strikeouts in her first complete game of the season in the nightcap, earning her third win of the year.

The Bucs' win in the second game marked the first time CSU won this season when trailing after five innings. Charleston Southern was facing a 1-0 deficit in the sixth inning prior to Koger's three-run home run.

Katelyn Norris extended her on-base streak to 12 games in the doubleheader, while Sarah Brown now has a five-game hit streak. Brooklynn Brewington recorded her 10th multi-hit game of the season in the second game of the twin bill.

Friendly Confines
Charleston Southern began the season with 17 of its first 20 games at home, including each of the first 12 games.

The lone road trip for the Bucs during that span was a three-game Big South series at Presbyterian, where CSU went 1-2.

CSU only plays eight games outside the state of South Carolina this season - all eight are on the Bucs' 10-game road trip to close the 2021 season.

Season Leaders
Brooklynn Brewington is the Bucs' leader among its regular starters in batting average at .354 and hits with 35. .410 on-base percentage.

In the circle, Holly Clark leads the Bucs in ERA at 4.26, strikeouts with 32 and complete games with three. Annah Junge has tossed a team-leading 59.1 innings in the circle for the Bucs. Baylee Eaton has walked a team-low 14 batters in 51.1 innings.

What to Watch For
Charleston Southern leads the Big South in stolen base percentage at 96.9 percent. The Bucs are 32-for-33 on stolen base attempts this season, with Brewington's 12 steals leading the way.

Junge and Clark threw complete games in each of the last two games of the Bucs' weekend series at Campbell. It marked the first time this season that Buccaneer pitchers threw complete games in back-to-back contests.

Despite the Bucs being swept against Campbell, CSU had a lead in two of the three games against the Camels. The Bucs opened the scoring in both the series opener and the series finale.

Of the 10 games on this road trip, eight will be played outside the state of South Carolina. Those eight games are CSU's only games outside the Palmetto State this season.

Charleston Southern has at least one stolen base in 13 of its 15 Big South games this season. Brooklynn Brewington leads the Bucs with 12 stolen bases this year, while CSU has only been thrown out once on the basepaths in 2021.

Thievery on the Basepaths
Charleston Southern has recorded at least one stolen base in 13 of its 15 Big South Conference games, including a season-high five steals in the first game of a doubleheader against Gardner-Webb.

The Bucs are 32-for-33 on stolen base attempts this season, with Brooklynn Brewington's 12 steals leading the team. The Bucs are a perfect 23-for-23 on stolen bases against Big South foes this season.

Swing for the Fences
Charleston Southern nearly doubled its home run total for the season in a midweek doubleheader against Coastal Carolina. The Bucs entered the game with six home runs in 10 games but sent four over the fence in the two games against the Chanticleers.

Erika Cooper and Madison Koger both homered in the first game of the doubleheader, while Ashley Meckley and Sarah Brown went yard in the second half of the twin bill.

In addition, Meckley's nine home runs lead the team and account for half of CSU's home run total through 30 games (18).

Adding Local Flavor

CSU took on crosstown rival College of Charleston earlier this season in a doubleheader at the CSU Softball Field.

The Bucs and Cougars split the twin bill at the CSU Softball Field on March 30, with CofC taking the first game, 6-2, and CSU winning the second game, 6-4.

The Bucs and Cougars were scheduled to meet for a second time at the CSU Softball Field on May 4, but that doubleheader has been canceled.

Early Schedule Adjustments
Charleston Southern had to back out of early season tournaments at Coastal Carolina and Georgia this season due to a COVID-19 pause within the Buccaneer program.

The Bucs also had their three-game series against USC Upstate pushed back by one week to allow for more time for CSU to practice following the pause. The Bucs and Spartans played their three-game set on March 12-13.

Christi Musser became the 10th CSU head softball coach in program history after accepting the position in January 2021. She takes over the Buccaneers' reins bringing 17 years of Division I softball coaching experience with stops at the University of Kansas, the University of New Mexico and, most recently, Grand Canyon University.

A four-star master coach as recognized by the National Fastpitch Coaches Conference, Musser comes to the Buccaneers after a six-year coaching stint at Grand Canyon University where she served as the associate head coach from August 2015-May 2020. Her efforts as both the hitting instructor and outfield coach helped pace GCU to becoming one of the top hitting teams in the NCAA in both batting average and doubles.

From 2016-18, the Lopes were ranked among the top-15 hitting teams in the NCAA Division I in batting average, finishing sixth overall in 2016 (.342). GCU also finished in the top-eight in doubles per game, ranking second overall in the country in 2016 (1.88) and fourth in 2017 (1.62).

During her tenure at GCU, Musser was a part of a staff that earned the program's first Division I era victory over a nationally-No. 1 ranked team of any program at GCU (Florida State, March 6, 2019), while also helping the program tally its eighth 30-win season. She coached three All-Conference players with the Lopes, including a pair of First Team All-WAC outfielders in the 2018 season with Laynee Gomez and Bianca Boling both earning the recognition.

Prior to her time at GCU, Musser served as the New Mexico state director for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Over her year and a half with the organization, she helped create the strategic vision plan for the state, while also training and equipping the staff, volunteers, and board members to carry out the organization's ministry goals.

Musser's first collegiate coaching position came at her alma mater, Kansas, from 2003 to 2010. She assisted the Jayhawks on the field as a hitting instructor and served as recruiting coordinator during her tenure. She then joined the staff at New Mexico in July 2010 and enjoyed a successful three-year run that included serving as the hitting instructor for a Lobo squad that, in 2012, led the nation with 96 home runs.

During her playing career at Kansas, Musser earned All-American honors in 2002 as an outfielder and was a four-time All-Big 12 selection. In her senior season, she hit .354 with 35 runs, 30 RBI, and nine home runs, while also earning All-Region and All-Big 12 honors.

During the summers of her college career, Musser played three seasons in the Women's Major for the Arizona Storm, winning a national championship in 1999 and finishing as a runner-up in 2000.

Musser graduated from Kansas in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in sports management.
