MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Media credentials should be requested via e-mail at least one week in advance of game and will be mailed if time permits. Otherwise, credentials can be picked up at the Media Will Call at the base of the middle elevator shaft on the press box side of Kyle Field on game day. Media Will Call opens four hours prior to game time. The Kyle Field press box seats approximately 120 working media members. Media seating is limited, so credentials will be issued according to the following protocol:

1. Local newspapers, wire services, national publications and newspapers regularly covering the opponent.
2. Other daily newspapers with a preference to those covering A&M on a regular basis.
3. Radio and television personnel reporting but not broadcasting.
4. Scouts from professional teams.
5. Non-daily publications with a preference to those covering A&M on a regular basis.
6. Magazines and newsletters focusing primarily on one team with a preference to those covering A&M on a regular basis.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photo credentials should be requested in the same manner as regular media credentials. Photo vests are required for admittance to the field and can be picked in the press box (level 9). All photographers should register with the Frequency Coordinator in the press box. Camera persons must stay out of the team area on both sidelines or they will be escorted from the stadium. Photographers are required to kneel in the north end zone area and occasionally on the sidelines when auxiliary seating is present. Photo credentials will be issued according to the following protocol:

1. Local newspapers, wire services, national publications, local television stations and newspapers and television stations regularly covering the opponent.
2. Other daily newspapers and television stations with preference to those covering A&M on a regular basis.
3. Non-daily newspapers and other publications with a preference to those covering A&M on a regular basis.

MEDIA PARKING

Parking passes must be requested at least one week in advance of the game and will be mailed if time permits. Requested parking passes may also be picked up at the Athletic Media Relations office in Kyle Field prior to gameday. Limited parking is available for media members in Lot G, located west of Kyle Field between the Student Rec Center and the West Campus parking garage. Permit is required.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

To reach the press box, media members must enter through the gate at the base of the west side of Kyle Field. The radio/TV level is located on the eighth floor, while the print level is on the ninth floor. Photographers, after claiming a photo vest on the ninth level, can reenter Kyle Field with a credential through Gate 10 (northwest corner of Kyle Field). A photo work room, with 10 high-speed internet connection points, is located adjacent to the northwest tunnel in the Burkhart Auditorium.

GAME DAY SERVICES

Play-by-play, halftime and complete team and individual statistics will be provided, along with postgame quotes and notes. In addition, a postgame fax service is available at no charge. Game notes and quotes will be posted on Texas A&M's official website promptly after the conclusion of the game (AggieAthletics.com).

INTERNET ACCESS

Internet access is available in the ninth level press box. Access to the wireless internet requires completion of a Network Access Request Form, which can be obtained from a member of the TAMU media relations staff.

second season at Texas A&M (ninth overall) • 29 years of coaching experience

Mike Sherman took his first steps on the Texas A&M campus in the fall of 1988, a newly-hired offensive assistant looking to make a big mark on a big program in a big football state.

Twenty years later, Sherman returned to College Station as the man leading the charge, but still with the same goals in mind.

A former NFL head coach and executive with deep ties to both Aggieland and college football in general, Sherman enters his second season as the head football coach at Texas A&M.

Sherman was named the school's 28th head coach on November 26, 2007. He had spent the previous 11 years patrolling the sidelines and the coaching booths of the National Football League.

A PERFECT FIT

"I thought Mike was the perfect fit for us," Director of Athletics Bill Byrne said. "First of all, he understands the Aggies. He has experienced what it means, and he's recruited the state of Texas. He understands what the War Hymn means; he understands the spirit of Aggieland."

"I think that given his background and given the fact he has been successful both as a collegiate coach and in the National Football League, he is the person that can take Texas A&M to where we all want to go, and that is to win a national championship."

Sherman brings a wealth of coaching experience back to College Station. His ties and connections to A&M and NFL coaches, players and executives are countless, and his love for Aggieland and desire to win big goes without saying.

"There is no doubt in my mind what can be accomplished here at Texas A&M," Sherman said. "I know a lot of coaches will say the same thing, but I know the landscape here. I know the recruiting base. I know the high school coaches in this state. I know what needs to be done. I know the talent that is out here. I know what this school is all about. We don't just want to win football games, we want to win championships."

Sherman's coaching career began in 1981, when he was a part-time coach at the University of Pittsburgh. From there, he moved on to Tulane, where he coached the offensive line in 1983-84, and then to Holy Cross, where he also coached offensive line in 1985-87 before being named offensive coordinator in 1988.

That December, a long time A&M assistant named R.C. Slocum took the reins of the Aggie program and came calling. He was looking for an offensive line coach, and Sherman was the man for the job.

WINNING CHAMPIONSHIPS IN AGGIELAND

The New England native would spend the next five seasons in Aggieland, where he would develop a love and admiration for the school's tradition, spirit and family-like atmosphere. Sherman would also help develop another tradition—winning championships.

In that five-year span, the Aggies won 49 games and claimed three Southwest Conference titles. Kyle Field also became one of the most feared venues for opponents during that time—Sherman lost only one game at home during his first stint in College Station and, when he left for a one-year stint at UCLA in 1994, he did so having won 20 straight home games.

Returning to College Station for two more seasons, in 1995 and 1996, Sherman saw the Aggies transition from the SWC into the newly-formed Big 12. Following A&M's first campaign in the new league, Slocum promoted him to offensive coordinator. The Aggie offense averaged over 400 yards of total offense four times in his seven seasons at A&M, including a school record 471.1 yards per game in 1990.

Sherman's tenure would be short-lived, however, as the NFL's Green Bay Packers came calling that spring and named him the team's tight ends and assistant offensive line coach.

Sherman held that post for two seasons before leaving with his friend and colleague Mike Holmgren for the Seattle Seahawks, where Sherman was named the offensive coordinator and tight ends coach in 1999.

COACHING STAFF • HEAD COACH MIKE SHERMAN

TITLETOWN USA

The Packers came calling again after that season, offering Sherman one of the most coveted jobs in all of American sports. He was named the organization's 13th head coach on January 18, 2000, where he would eventually guide the team to five winning seasons. Sherman spent all but one of his six seasons in Green Bay as the team's executive vice president, and three of those as general manager as well.

From 2002-2004, Sherman led the Packers to three consecutive NFC North Division titles. His .663 winning percentage (53-27) over his first five years was second only to the great Vince Lombardi in Packers history.

Under Sherman, the Packers offense set numerous team records, including producing two of the four highest-scoring seasons in franchise history. In 2003, Green Bay totaled 442 points, which was just 14 points shy of the franchise record of 456 set in the team's world championship season of 1996. Sherman's troops followed that up with a 424-point season in 1994, which was good for fourth-best all-time.

Sherman's 2004 team set team records with 6,357 total net yards and 4,449 net passing yards. That year, the team surrendered only 14 sacks in 598 attempts, another franchise record. The 2003 squad ranks third in Packer history with 5,798 yards and set a franchise record for rushing yards with 2,558, thanks in large part to running back Ahman Green's franchise-record 1,883 rushing yards. Green Bay also set a franchise record by averaging a whopping 5.05 yards per rush attempt that year.

"I think the world of Mike Sherman and I think he will do a great job at Texas A&M," former Green Bay quarterback Brett Favre said. "He did a great job for us here at Green Bay and really related well to our team.

"He is genuine. He loved this community in Green Bay and I know he loved being at Texas A&M because he talked about it a lot. He loves his family and his players become a part of his extended family. With the great facilities and great fans at Texas A&M, I expect him to do very well."

RETURNING TO TEXAS

Sherman returned to the state of Texas in 2006 when fellow former A&M assistant Gary Kubiak was named the head coach of the NFL's Houston Texans. Kubiak, who worked with Sherman in Aggieland in the early '90s, named him as the organization's assistant head coach. He filled that role for the following two seasons, including the '07 campaign as the team's offensive coordinator, before getting the call from Byrne and Texas A&M.

"We're very proud as an organization," said Kubiak, following the A&M announcement. "Our football team is very happy for Mike and his family. I'm an Aggie, and it just means the world to me to know that he's going to be the guy there leading that program. We're excited for him and it's a great day for him and his family. He'll do a tremendous job. (He's a) Great coach, (and an) even better person. I'm just very happy for him."

Sherman, who played defensive end and offensive tackle at Central Connecticut State University, was born in Norwood, Mass. He and his wife, Karen, have five children: daughters Sarah, Emily, and Selena, and sons Matthew and Benjamin.

WITH THE PACKERS

As the Packers head coach from 2000-05, Mike Sherman led Green Bay to three playoff appearances and a pair of 12-win regular seasons. During his tenure, 10 different players were named to the NFL Pro Bowl, including quarterback Brett Favre, running back Ahman Green, tight end Bubba Franks and offensive linemen Marco Rivera and Mike Flanagan.

SHERMAN QUOTEBOARD

"He knows what it means to play Aggie football. The work ethic he has and the demands he puts on his staff are just really unbelievable. We were thoroughly prepared for anything that happened on game day."

— Chris Dausin, former A&M offensive lineman

"Coach Sherman could get nasty. He could get in your face — and he would do it."

— Hunter Goodwin, former A&M offensive lineman

"He'll get the program back to national prominence."

— Steve McKinney, former A&M offensive lineman

"Look at the record; I think his record speaks for itself. We won a lot of football games with him as our coach. He has a lot of respect around here, and I think around the league."

— Aaron Kampman, Green Bay Packers defensive end

"I enjoyed playing for him. I think the world of him as a person and as a coach. I think he'll do well at Texas A&M."

— Brett Favre, former Green Bay Packers quarterback

"Mike is the type of guy who will be flexible and do the things that his players fit. He'll do the things necessary to move the football and be competitive."

— Shawn Slocum, former A&M and current Green Bay Packers assistant coach

"He recruited me out of junior college, and I played for him at Tulane [in 1984]. Parents will feel comfortable their sons are going to play for him, because he will take care of them. He will make sure they go to school, and they graduate, and they do things the right way. He made an everlasting impression on me."

— James Campen, Packers offensive line coach

"He's a good football coach. Now, the fact that he understands our culture and knows A&M history, that's just icing on the cake."

— Hunter Goodwin, former A&M offensive lineman

"(Mike Sherman is a) very straight-shooter. All the players that have played for him respect him. He doesn't get frustrated or doesn't lose his composure. And he's a really good football coach."

— Jackie Sherrill, former A&M head football coach

"I can't stress it too much. This man knows what we're all about here. He understands our values. He's the right fit."

— Bill Byrne, Director of Athletics, Texas A&M

"I hired him two different times, so that should pretty well tell you what I think about Mike Sherman. Guys who played under Mike, you could almost say they worshipped him."

— R.C. Slocum, former A&M head football coach

"I can see him being more successful here than anywhere he's been, because he's been here before. The most important thing about hiring a coach is how he fits with your situation. The only one I could think of who would fit ours is Mike Sherman."

— John David Crow, former Texas A&M Director of Athletics/
1957 Heisman Trophy winner

"I think it will be a good fit. He brings a determination. He's going to be looked up to because he's been to where a lot of college athletes are trying to get to."

— Mike Montgomery, former A&M and current Green Bay Packers defensive end

"I think the world of coach Sherman, man. He stuck his neck out for me, and I'm forever grateful. He's one coach that I've played for that had total confidence in me, no matter what, and I think he's going to do a great job. I think they hired the right man for the job."

— Al Harris, Green Bay Packers cornerback

"I think he's a very disciplined coach, and he definitely is a good leader. He has a way of getting guys to follow him, and understanding why he's doing what he's doing. If those guys down there just follow him, I think he will lead them to a place they want to be."

— Nick Barnett, Green Bay Packers linebacker

"I think he cares about young men. I think even here, even though it was professional ranks, I think that he still had his guys that he wanted to see do well after football, things like that. I think he'll do a great job. I think that's really one of the critical components of being a successful college coach, caring about your student-athletes."

— Aaron Kampman, Green Bay Packers defensive end

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS BILL BYRNE

Bill Byrne is in his sixth year of Building Champions as Director of Athletics at Texas A&M University.

With more than 25 years experience as a Division I athletic director, Byrne has impressive credentials and a track record for producing champions on and off the field.

Since arriving in Aggieland in December of 2002, the Aggies have won 25 Big 12 Conference Championships in 10 different sports and captured five team national championships in equestrian, two in outdoor track and field, and one in men's golf. The 25 championships won by the Aggies from January 2003 through the end of the 2009 season rank third in the league. The Aggies' 17 conference championships won during the 2006-07, 2007-08, and 2008-09 seasons combined are the second most of any school.

In the prestigious Director's Cup all-sport rankings, Byrne has guided A&M to its four highest finishes in school history. The Aggies best finish was 12th in 2007-08.

Under Byrne's leadership, the department has made significant upgrades in facilities and increased revenue opportunities, while remaining focused on winning on the playing field and in the classroom.

Byrne manages an annual athletic budget in excess of $70 million. During his tenure at A&M, he has overseen the construction or renovation of approximately $60 million in athletic facilities. Byrne teamed with the 12th Man Foundation, the institution's primary fundraising organization for athletics, to develop a comprehensive master plan for A&M's athletic facilities. Together, they secured several major gifts for the second phase of A&M's Championship Vision Capital Campaign.

Citing the need for an indoor football facility and an indoor track and field stadium, Byrne ensured the multi-purpose $36 million McFerrin Athletic Center became a reality in 2007 and 2008, respectively. The complex boasts two full sized football fields, a state-of-the-art hydraulic track capable of hosting national championships, a Magic Carpet system, and seating for 5,000 spectators.

At the same time, Byrne recognized the need for a basketball practice facility that would allow the basketball teams to each have their own practice courts, locker rooms, a weight room, an athletic training room, and offices under the same roof. In the fall of 2008, the $23 million Cox-McFerrin Center for Aggie Basketball opened its doors as part of an expansion to Reed Arena.

Known as one of the most innovative and influential leaders in terms of marketing, Byrne has made an impressive impact in marketing Aggie Athletics. In January of 2006, A&M awarded the school's athletic multimedia marketing rights for 10 years to a joint venture of Learfield Communications, ISP Sports, and FSN Southwest – known collectively as Texas A&M Sports Properties. The agreement is one of the top multimedia rights contracts in the country and provides significant income for A&M athletics throughout the length of the agreement.

The forward-thinking Byrne tabbed the guaranteed revenue from the Learfield agreement to finance the department's ambitious video screen and ribbon board expansion project which included Kyle Field, Reed Arena, and a portable video screen mounted on a 53-foot 18-wheeler. He also expanded the department's nationally recognized television production operation, 12th Man Productions.

Success on the field, coupled with a focus on the school's in-game marketing, helped boost attendance across the board resulting in increased season ticket revenue. Under Byrne's leadership, season ticket sales in football have increased 13 percent since 2003. Season ticket sales for men's and women's basketball have more than doubled since 2003 – men's basketball has grown by 107 percent and women's basketball by an impressive 178 percent.

Increased attendance at home contests has also been aided by the creation of a fan rewards program for frequent attendance. The 12th Man Team Rewards Program is a fan-loyalty program that allows A&M's Athletic Department to thank their most dedicated fans' continued support and attendance at the school's home athletic events. Upon its inception in 2003, attendance records at A&M were immediately shattered. To date, each sport offered at A&M has set at least one new school attendance record.

While at A&M, Byrne has hired nine head coaches in eight sports. Eight of his hires have achieved postseason competition within their first two seasons.

Student-athletes at A&M have continued to excel in the classroom during Byrne's tenure. In the 2009 spring commencement ceremonies, a record number of 120 student-athletes earned their degrees. Academics continues to be a priority within the Athletic Department. In the 2007 calendar year, 225 student-athletes completed their degrees and another 240 earned diplomas in 2008.

Byrne came to A&M after serving as the Athletic Director at the University of Nebraska from 1992-2002. Under his watch, the Cornhuskers won an impressive 83 Big 12 and Big Eight Conference championships. Byrne's 48 Big 12 titles ranked second in the league during his tenure at Nebraska. The Huskers also won 10 national championships, including three in football and two in women's volleyball. Together, Byrne's teams compiled an extremely impressive string of nine straight top 25 finishes in the Director's Cup Division I-A standings.

Nine of the 15 head coaches hired by Byrne reached NCAA postseason play during their first three years.

At the same time, Byrne succeeded in putting the Huskers' finances in the black while increasing the annual athletic budget threefold. A noted fundraiser, he led a $36 million football improvement project for Nebraska's Memorial Stadium. He also completed an agreement to share a $30 million baseball and softball complex with the city of Lincoln. In total, he oversaw numerous facility upgrades valued at more than $100 million.

In 1993, the innovative Byrne added big screens to Memorial Stadium, the first college stadium to undertake such a project. HuskerVision quickly became the model for all collegiate programs for big screen and in-house television production. A primary tool to promote and market all of the Nebraska athletic programs, HuskerVision generated significant sponsorship revenue for the department as well as improving fan enjoyment and atmosphere at games.

Meanwhile, Husker student-athletes excelled in the classroom, and 109 were named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

In 1996, the Big Eight and Southwest Conferences combined forces to form the Big 12. Byrne played a pivotal role in the formation of what has become one of the nation's powerhouse conferences.

Byrne's first role as athletic director was at the University of Oregon from 1984-1992. Byrne arrived in Eugene, Oregon in late 1982, where he served 18 months as an associate athletic director, before being appointed one of the youngest athletic directors in the country in May of 1984.

Under his watch, the Ducks captured 16 Pac 10 Conference championships and four national championships in track and field and cross country.

It was at Oregon where Byrne first earned the reputation for outstanding hiring practices. He also made major changes to the landscape of Oregon's athletic facilities and earned the nickname "Bill the Builder."

Byrne established a full-time marketing and promotions operation which formed the Oregon Sports Network for statewide, in-house production of Ducks games on television and radio. He also spearheaded the formation of Oregon's first Hall of Champions and Hall of Fame, which was later dedicated in his honor.

Byrne began his collegiate career as the director of alumni relations at his alma mater Idaho State and then served as executive director of the New Mexico Lobo Club from 1976-79. He was the assistant athletic director for external operations at San Diego State from 1980-82.

Throughout his career, Byrne has been recognized with the highest awards an athletics administrator can receive. Among his many accolades, honors include the U.S. Sports Academy 2007 Carl Maddox Sports Management Award; the 2002 winner of the National Football Foundation John L. Toner Award; the 1999 Central Region National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Director of the Year; president of NACDA in 1991-92; and the National Athletic Fundraisers Association Fundraiser of the Year in 1985.

Byrne is a 1967 graduate of Idaho State University, where he also served as student body president. He earned an MBA in 1971.

Byrne's wife of more than 40 years is Dr. Marilyn Kent Byrne, who has expertise in leadership development, team building, and executive coaching. The Byrnes have two sons – Bill III and Greg. Bill is a vice president of Visa USA in San Francisco, and Greg is the director of athletics at Mississippi State University. Greg and his wife Regina live in Starkville, Miss., with their sons Nicholas and Davis.

GAME 1: ARKANSAS STATE 18, A&M 14

Saturday, August 30 • Kyle Field • College Station, Texas • Attendance: 78,691

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—Texas A&M junior running back Mike Goodson rushed for 124 yards and two touchdowns, but it was not enough as Arkansas State stunned the Aggies 18-14 at Kyle Field.

The Aggies built a 14-3 lead, before suffering four turnovers, a missed field goal and several errant defensive plays.

Josh Arauco of Arkansas State kicked four field goals, including a 37-yarder with 1:12 left, forcing the Aggies to go for a winning touchdown.

A&M drove inside the Arkansas State 35 in the final minute, but linebacker Ben Owens intercepted a tipped pass by Stephen McGee with seven seconds remaining and the Wolves ran out the clock.

Arkansas State quarterback Corey Leonard threw for 160 yards and a touchdown during the evening.

Early in the third quarter, Arkansas State safety M.D. Jennings intercepted a McGee pass at the Wolves' 41. Arauco kicked a field goal with 5:28 left in the third quarter to bring the score to 14-6.

Three minutes later, Howard Morrow caught a pass and fumbled at the Aggies' 47. Leonard scrambled up the middle for 32 yards on the next play, but the Red Wolves had to settle for another field goal from Arauco to cut A&M's lead to 14-9.

The Aggies got the ball near midfield after an Arkansas State punt early in the fourth quarter. McGee threw a 36-yard pass to Johnson, setting up a missed 25-yard field goal attempt with 9:30 left.

Arnold broke a 32-yard run to the Aggies' 33 early in the Red Wolves' next possession. On fourth-and-4, Arkansas State was called for an illegal block after Leonard scrambled for six yards. Leonard then hit McLennan for 15 yards to keep the possession alive.

Two plays later, Leonard found Jones in the end zone with 4:39 left in the game. Leonard threw incomplete on a two-point conversion try and the Wolves led only 15-14.

Goodson ran for 10 yards on A&M's next play from scrimmage, but then fumbled a third-down carry at the Aggies' 41-yard line with 2:47 remaining. Referees reviewed the play and upheld the call.

After Arauco tacked on his second 37-yard field goal, Jennings tipped the McGee pass that Owens caught to secure the upset.

GAME 2: A&M 28, NEW MEXICO 22

Saturday, September 6 • University Stadium • Albuquerque, New Mexico • Attendance: 28,007 • TV: Versus

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Jerrold Johnson replaced the injured Stephen McGee and threw three touchdown passes as Texas A&M gave coach Mike Sherman his first win with the Aggies, 28-22 over New Mexico.

Texas A&M (1-1), making its first trip to Albuquerque, survived New Mexico's swarming defensive scheme and bounced back from a season-opening loss, 18-14 to Arkansas State.

Johnson completed 10-of-19 for 124 yards in place of McGee, who sprained his right shoulder on the opening series and didn't return. Aggies running back Mike Goodson also left with a sprained right knee, through he briefly returned in the second half.

Rodney Ferguson had 135 yards rushing and two TDs for New Mexico (0-2). He broke free on a 45-yard burst in the first quarter and added a late 1-yard TD run as the Lobos rallied for two scores in the final six minutes.

It wasn't enough to offset Johnson, who performed well under a full day of defensive pressure, and the Lobos couldn't overcome too many offensive mistakes.

Texas A&M made it 21-7 just before halftime, when Johnson threw a 6-yard TD pass to Fuller to cap a 93-yard drive. Fuller muscled the ball away from New Mexico cornerback DeAndre Wright.

The Lobos trailed 14-0 after Donovan Porterie's two early interceptions. He also had a fourth-quarter fumble that led to another Texas A&M touchdown.

Texas A&M's Jordan Peterson returned Porterie's first pick for a 48-yard TD. On the next series, Arkeith Brown took another interception 11 yards to New Mexico's 20 to set up Johnson's 21-yard TD strike to Jeff Fuller.

Still, the Lobos trailed 21-10 in the third quarter and seemed to be gaining traction when trouble struck again.

New Mexico's Ian Clark had a 32-yard punt return into Texas A&M territory but the Lobos couldn't capitalize when Paul Baker fumbled a few plays later. After forcing another Texas A&M punt, Clark broke a 34-yard return.

That's when Porterie mishandled a snap, and Texas A&M's Michael Bennett picked it up and rumbled 37 yards. The burley lineman missed out on a touchdown because he stepped out at New Mexico's 22.

From there, Johnson connected with Jamie McCoy on a 9-yard TD pass to put the Aggies ahead 28-10 with 13:20 remaining.

Porterie was 22-of-35 for 154 yards with two interceptions.

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—Robert Marve threw two touchdown passes and Graig Cooper ran for career-high 128 yards and two scores as Miami downed Texas A&M 41-23.

Marve, a redshirt freshman making his second career start, completed 16 of 22 passes for 212 yards. The Hurricanes (2-1) piled up 398 yards on 57 plays -- an average of 6.98 yards per offensive snap -- and handed A&M its worst non-conference defeat at Kyle Field since a 30-10 loss to Alabama in 1988.

The Hurricanes gained 261 yards in the first half on Saturday, nearly doubling what they had in a full game against Florida two weeks ago. The Hurricanes had 12 first downs on 28 plays in the first half and led 24-10 at the break.

Jerrold Johnson threw three touchdown passes for Texas A&M (1-2), but two came after the Hurricanes led 41-10 in the third quarter.

Johnson started in place of Stephen McGee, who sprained his shoulder against New Mexico on Sept. 6. McGee had started A&M's last 29 games.

On the game's first snap, Mike Goodson took a short pass from Johnson, broke four tackles and outran another Miami defender for a 62-yard touchdown.

The Hurricanes took less than two minutes to answer. Marve threw a 29-yard pass to Kayne Farquharson on Miami's first offensive play and three snaps later, Cooper scored on a 19-yard run.

Miami's next possession was more of the same. After Marve threw an 11-yard pass to Sam Shields, Cooper ran untouched for a 51-yard touchdown. Miami gained 121 yards on its first six plays.

Freshman Richie Bean kicked a 38-yard field goal to pull Texas A&M to 14-10 late in the first quarter.

Derron Thomas started Miami's next drive with a 34-yard run. Marve took a hard hit from A&M linebacker Von Miller and left the game after throwing a pass to Farquharson. Freshman Jacory Harris replaced Marve and Matt Boshier kicked a 20-yard field goal for a 17-10 lead.

Miami's Travis Benjamin returned a punt 44 yards to the Aggies' 41 in the final minute of the half. Marve returned and found Thearon Collier wide open in the end zone with 20 seconds remaining.

Early in the third quarter, Marve threw a 36-yard pass to Dedrick Epps to set up another short field goal by Boshier that put Miami up 27-10.

Defensive lineman Eric Moncur made a one-handed interception on Johnson's next pass at the Texas A&M 15.

Marve immediately threw a touchdown pass to Farquharson with 6:36 left in the third quarter to make it 34-10.

On the second play of A&M's next possession, Miami linebacker Glenn Cook swatted the ball out of Johnson's hands as he was being sacked, recovered the fumble and trotted into the end zone to make it 41-10.

GAME 4: A&M 21, ARMY 17

Saturday, September 27 • Kyle Field • College Station, Texas • Attendance: 84,090 • TV: Versus

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—Texas A&M lost quarterback Stephen McGee again and still managed to get a much-needed win.

Jerrold Johnson threw a touchdown pass after McGee re-injured his shoulder and the Aggies stopped Army on a late fourth down in a 21-17 win over the Black Knights.

McGee started at quarterback and threw a touchdown pass to Jeff Fuller before leaving in the second quarter. The senior first sprained the shoulder against New Mexico on Sept. 6 and sat out last week's 41-23 loss to Miami.

Coach Mike Sherman said McGee's shoulder wasn't fully healed heading into Saturday's game.

Johnson sprained his shoulder against Miami and Sherman said he didn't throw at all in practice this week. Sherman said he stopped calling pass plays when Johnson aggravated the injury on Saturday.

Johnson finished 6-for-10 for 53 yards, but suggested that the shoulder injury was minor.

Army's triple-option offense flustered A&M all day, but the Aggies stopped Collin Mooney on a fourth-and-3 from the Army 47 with 3:58 left. A&M (2-2) ran out the clock from there to win for the first time in three home games this season.

Tony Dace and Patrick Mealy had touchdown runs for the Black Knights (0-4), who've lost 10 straight games and 12 in a row on the road. Quarterback Chip Bowden rushed 34 times for 128 yards. Army ran for 280 yards, converted 10 of 17 third downs and won time of possession by more than 13 minutes.

The Aggies looked sloppy and sluggish until defensive end Paul Freeney returned Bowden's fumble 58 yards for a touchdown in the closing seconds of the first half to break a 7-7 tie.

Freshman Cyrus Gray broke a 60-yard run on A&M's first play after half-time to set up Johnson's 11-yard touchdown pass to Jamie McCoy.

Army chewed up more than eight minutes on its ensuing drive, but settled for Matthew Campbell's 24-yard field goal to make it 21-10. The Black Knights then mounted a 13-play drive and Mealy leaped over A&M safety Trent Hunter for a touchdown with 8:46 left in the game.

The Black Knights got the ball back with 6:55 remaining. Army coach Stan Brock challenged the spot after the Aggies stopped Mooney on fourth down, but referees upheld the call after checking a replay.

The Aggies rushed for minus-4 yards in the first quarter and got their initial first down on McGee's scramble with 9:14 left in the half.

McCoy caught a 25-yard pass across the middle that got A&M into Army territory for the first time. On the next play, McGee found Fuller open behind the defense for a 42-yard touchdown.

The Black Knights were aided by three personal fouls on A&M on their answering drive. Dace took a pitch and scored on a 9-yard run with 3:09 left in the half, Army's first touchdown in nine quarters.

McGee took a hard hit from Army defensive end Fritz Bentler on A&M's next series. McGee's right arm hung limp as he trotted off the field. Johnson replaced him and threw an interception to Frank Scappaticci near midfield with 1:01 left.

Three plays later, A&M linebacker Matt Featherston stripped the ball from Bowden on a run to the left. Freeney picked up the ball and ran untouched to the end zone.

McGee was out of uniform and wearing a sling on his right arm when he returned to the sideline for the second half.

GAME 5: (#21) OKLAHOMA STATE 56, A&M 28

Saturday, October 4 • Boone Pickens Stadium • Stillwater, Oklahoma • Attendance: 51,147

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP)—Dez Bryant caught three passes for touchdowns and scored another on a punt return, and No. 21 Oklahoma State took advantage of five first-half turnovers in beating Texas A&M 56-28.

The Cowboys set a school record by surpassing 50 points for the fourth straight game, with some big help from their defense and special teams. Ugo Chinasa and Patrick Lavine each scored on interception returns as Oklahoma State (5-0, 1-0 Big 12) snapped a four-game losing streak to the Aggies.

Both of the interceptions thrown by A&M's Jerrod Johnson tipped off receivers' hands. Chinasa was there to catch the deflection for a 6-yard return in the first quarter, and Lavine brought back another carom for a 27-yard score to make it 28-7 just before halftime.

Zac Robinson added a 23-yard touchdown pass to Bryant and a 6-yard TD run in the third quarter for the Cowboys. Robinson finished 13-of-18 for 186 yards with the three passing TDs to Bryant and two rushing touchdowns.

Mike Goodson scored on runs of 80 yards in the first quarter and 11 yards in the fourth quarter, but missed a stretch of three series late in the first half when the Aggies (2-3, 0-1) still had a chance.

He had his left elbow taped and practiced taking handoffs and keeping the ball secure on the sidelines before returning for A&M's final drive of the first half - after Lavine's score put them in a 28-7 hole.

Bryant then capped Oklahoma State's opening drive of the second half by catching Robinson's 23-yard pass as he fell out of the end zone to add to the cushion.

He added a 19-yard touchdown catch with 12:24 to play to stunt a brief A&M rally and push the lead to 49-21. He earlier had a 29-yard TD catch and scored on a 78-yard punt return, running through an arm tackle and then speeding down the right sideline for the score.

Johnson, making his second straight start in place of injured Stephen McGee, finished with 238 yards on 24-of-43 passing. McGee was in uniform on the sideline, wearing a ballcap.

Oklahoma State came in with the nation's top rushing offense, averaging 340 yards, and figured to have a decided edge against the fifth-worst run defense in the nation. But while the Aggies' defense held Kendall Hunter in check, keeping the nation's third-leading rusher to less than 100 yards for the first time this season, Bryant and the Cowboys' defense picked up the slack.

Hunter ran 21 times for 90 yards, but picked up much of that total as the Cowboys ran out the clock in the final 5 minutes. That snapped a streak of 15 straight games in which Oklahoma State had a 100-yard rusher.

It didn't matter, though.

The Cowboys returned two interceptions for touchdowns in the same game for the first time since Darrent Williams pulled it off by himself against Baylor in 2001. Oklahoma State didn't have records showing whether the team had ever scored three non-offensive touchdowns in a game.

GAME 6: KANSAS STATE 44, A&M 30

Saturday, October 11 • Kyle Field • College Station, Texas • Attendance: 78,669

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—Josh Freeman completed 21 of 26 passes and ran for four touchdowns as Kansas State snapped its five-game losing streak to Texas A&M with a 44-30 win.

Courtney Herndon returned a blocked punt for a touchdown for the Wildcats (4-2, 1-1 Big 12), who moved the ball at will in the first half and led 27-10 at the break.

Sophomore quarterback Jerrod Johnson tried to rally the Aggies, but the comeback stalled when Kansas State's defense stuffed Jorvorskie Lane twice at the goal line midway through the fourth quarter.

Freeman led a 98-yard drive the other way and sealed the win on a short touchdown run with 4:37 left.

Johnson, starting again for the injured Stephen McGee, completed 29 of 41 passes for a school-record 419 yards. He also ran for a score and finished with 487 total yards, also a school record.

The Aggies (2-4) gave up 451 yards and dropped to 0-2 in the Big 12 for the first time.

The Wildcats found the end zone on their opening drive for the fourth time this season. Freeman threw a 32-yard pass to Brandon Banks before scoring on a 12-yard run just over three minutes into the game.

A&M's first drive stalled at the Kansas State 9 and Randy Bullock kicked a 26-yard field goal.

Kansas State again drove to the Aggies' 12, but Freeman fumbled after a hit by linebacker Von Miller.

Kansas State forced a punt by Justin Brantly, who was blocked by linebacker Reggie Walker. Herndon's touchdown made it 13-3. The Wildcats have returned four blocked punts for touchdowns this season.

The Wildcats glided down the field again on their next possession. Logan Dold finished the drive with a 4-yard TD run. Freeman went 6-for-7 and scampered for 12 yards on a fourth-and-1 from the Aggies 28.

A&M receiver Ryan Tannehill fumbled near midfield and Kansas State linebacker Ulla Pomele recovered and returned it to the Aggies' 47.

Freeman finished a quick drive with another touchdown run with 4:20 left in the half. At that point, the Wildcats had 269 total yards and were averaging 7.7 yards per play.

Mike Goodson, who sat out the first quarter, broke a 23-yard run on the Aggies' next play. Howard Morrow, who had only one catch this season, made a diving grab on a deep throw at the Kansas State 7.

On fourth down from the 1, Lane barreled into the end zone for his first touchdown of the season. Lane set two school records with his 46th career touchdown and his 45th rushing. He had been tied with Darren Lewis for first on both lists.

Brooks Rossman kicked a 49-yard field goal for Kansas State in the third quarter. Johnson took the Aggies on a 12-play drive over the next five minutes and finished it with a 5-yard touchdown run. Bullock missed the extra-point attempt.

The Aggies drove to the Kansas State 2 early in the fourth quarter, but Lane was gang-tackled on third and fourth down.

After Kansas State's 98-yard drive, Johnson threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to Goodson. The Wildcats recovered the ensuing onside kick near midfield and Freeman scored again with 1:14 left.

Johnson threw a 55-yard touchdown pass to Tannehill in the final minute.

GAME 7: (#7) TEXAS TECH 43, A&M 25

Saturday, October 18 • Kyle Field • College Station, Texas • Attendance: 86,012 • TV: FSN (National)

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—Graham Harrell threw for three touchdowns and ran for two more and No. 7 Texas Tech beat Texas A&M 43-25.

Harrell completed 44 of 56 passes for 450 yards as the Red Raiders moved to 7-0 - 3-0 in the Big 12 - after beating A&M for the seventh time in eight meetings.

Jerrold Johnson completed 26 of 39 passes for 283 yards for the Aggies (2-5, 0-3 Big 12), who led 23-20 at halftime. A&M gained outgained Texas Tech 274-254 in the first half, but mustered only 32 yards and five first downs in the second.

Michael Crabtree caught two touchdowns and Baron Batch rushed for 87 yards and another score.

Texas Tech led 36-25 with 24 seconds left when coach Mike Leach called time out and asked referees to review a run by Shannon Woods to the 1-yard line. Harrell scored a meaningless touchdown on the next play.

Randy Bullock kicked three field goals for A&M, including an early 49-yarder that put them up 3-0. Crabtree then ran back his first career kickoff return 50 yards to the Texas A&M 42. He caught a 25-yard touchdown pass from Harrell six plays later.

Johnson hurt his right knee after leading the Aggies to the Texas Tech 18. Johnson took a late hit from Tech defensive end Brandon Williams after completing a pass to Terrence McCoy. Johnson fell backward over another defender. After trainers checked on him, Johnson walked off the field on his own.

Senior quarterback Stephen McGee, who sat out the last two games with a sprained shoulder, came in and threw a short touchdown pass to Ryan Tannehill. McGee beat out Johnson for the starting job in the preseason. He was hurt in A&M's second game and hadn't played since re-aggravated the injury against Army on Sept. 27.

While Johnson pedaled on a stationary bike, Batch finished a quick Texas Tech drive with a 3-yard touchdown run. A&M's Lucas Patterson blocked Donnie Carona's extra-point kick.

Johnson returned for the next series and got up limping after another hard hit by Williams. But Johnson kept the Aggies on the move, finding Tannehill for a 44-yard gain. Bullock kicked a 28-yard field goal with 9:48 left in the half to tie the game at 13-all.

Crabtree twisted his left ankle on the kickoff and hobbled off the field. Harrell overthrew a receiver and A&M safety Trent Hunter intercepted. Harrell had thrown only three interceptions in 262 attempts coming into the game.

Bullock kicked another field goal with 6:29 left in the half to put A&M ahead 16-13. Crabtree returned for Texas Tech's next possession, which ended on Harrell's 8-yard touchdown pass to Batch.

A holding penalty wiped out a 78-yard touchdown pass from Johnson to Jeff Fuller and A&M punted with just over 2 minutes left before halftime.

Tremain Swindall caught a 37-yard pass from Harrell, then played near midfield. Tannehill made a diving catch for a 40-yard gain on the next play and Mike Goodson's 1-yard touchdown run put the Aggies ahead 23-20 with 23 seconds left before the break.

Harrell went 5-for-6 on the Red Raiders' first drive out of halftime and Crabtree caught a 3-yard TD pass to put Texas Tech in front for good.

Cory Fowler's 25-yard field goal with 2:44 left in the third quarter made it 30-23. The Red Raiders have reached 30 points in 11 consecutive games.

Texas Tech punted for the first time early in the fourth quarter, but the Aggies couldn't get a first down. The Red Raiders held A&M to 12 yards and two first downs on their first three possessions of the second half.

Harrell went 8-for-8 on Tech's next drive and scored on a 1-yard sneak with 7 minutes left. A&M defensive lineman Tony Jerod-Eddy blocked Fowler's extra-point kick and Arkeith Brown returned it for two points to cut Tech's lead to 36-25.

GAME 8: A&M 49, IOWA STATE 35

Saturday, October 25 • Jack Trice Stadium • Ames, Iowa • Attendance: 45,495 • TV: FOX College Sports

AMES, Iowa (AP)—Jerrod Johnson threw for 381 yards and a career-high four touchdown passes as Texas A&M beat Iowa State 49-35, snapping a three-game losing streak.

Johnson was 31-of-39 passing and also ran for a touchdown for the Aggies (3-5, 1-3), who set a season high for points and picked up their first Big 12 win under coach Mike Sherman.

The teams racked up 1,083 yards of total offense, converted 23 of 31 third downs and punted just twice in yet another Big 12 offensive show.

But it was Johnson who provided the difference, finding four different Texas A&M receivers for at least six catches. Jamie McCoy led the way with 110 yards receiving and two TDs as Johnson tore up an Iowa State defense ranked 90th in the nation in pass defense entering play.

Austen Arnaud threw for a career-high 371 yards and a touchdown for Iowa State (2-6, 0-4), which dropped its sixth straight.

Johnson directed two straight scoring drives after the Cyclones got within 28-20 midway through the third quarter. He got Texas A&M moving late in the third quarter with his longest pass of the night, a 43-yard pass to Jeff Fuller, and Jorvorski Lane's 1-yard TD run put the Aggies back ahead 35-20 heading into the fourth quarter.

Johnson's 5-yard TD run with 11:27 left made it 42-20.

Arnaud pulled the Cyclones within 42-28 on a 9-yard TD run midway through the fourth quarter. Johnson answered by hitting Fuller for an 8-yard score with 4:22 left, only to watch Arnaud throw a TD pass to Collin Franklin 52 seconds later.

Fuller had a team-high eight catches for Texas A&M.

Johnson had 215 yards passing and three touchdowns in the first half and Texas A&M led 28-17 at the break.

Johnson snapped a 14-all tie with a 12-yard TD pass to Jamie McCoy, and Cyrus Gray pushed Texas A&M's lead to 28-14 on a 27-yard touchdown run with 1:22 left in the second quarter.

Alexander Robinson scored from 1 yard out to give the Cyclones a 7-0 lead on the game's first possession. Johnson answered quickly, finding a wide-open Terrance McCoy for a 35-yard TD strike to tie the game at 7 midway through the first quarter.

Johnson then hit Jamie McCoy from 37 yards out to make it 14-7 early in the second quarter. Iowa State tied the game on a 1-yard TD run by Jason Scales.

Texas A&M running back Mike Goodson didn't suit up. Goodson, the Aggies leading rusher with 386 yards and five touchdowns, sprained his knee last week in a loss to Texas Tech.

Johnson fell shy of his single-game best of 419 yards passing, which he did against Kansas State on Oct. 11.

R.J. Sumrall had a game-high 143 yards receiving for Iowa State, which lost despite racking up 574 yards of total offense and zero punts.

GAME 9: A&M 24, COLORADO 17

Saturday, November 1 • Kyle Field • College Station, Texas • Attendance: 78,121

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—Jerrod Johnson threw three touchdown passes in the third quarter and Trent Hunter intercepted two passes in the fourth to lead Texas A&M to a 24-17 win over Colorado at Kyle Field.

Johnson shook off a sluggish first half to complete 15 of 31 passes for 214 yards. Freshman Jeff Fuller caught two TD passes and the Aggies (4-5, 2-3 Big 12) won for the second time in six home games this season.

Freshman quarterback Tyler Hansen rushed 16 times for 86 yards, but threw the two late interceptions for the Buffaloes (4-5, 1-4).

Colorado held A&M to 76 yards in the first half and led 10-3 at the break.

Johnson went 4-for-4 on the Aggies' first drive of the second half, finishing it with a 32-yard touchdown pass to Ryan Tannehill. Later in the third quarter, Johnson threw a 59-yard touchdown pass to Fuller down the sideline to give A&M its first lead.

Cyrus Gray broke a 54-yard run on the Aggies' next possession. Gray started for leading rusher Mike Goodson, who sat out the second straight game with a sprained left knee.

Johnson threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Fuller on the last play of the third quarter. Fuller leads the Aggies with seven touchdown catches.

A&M defensive end Cyril Obiozor sacked Hansen on consecutive plays early in the fourth quarter. The Buffaloes gained only 75 yards on their first four possessions after halftime.

Hunter got his first interception with 8:11 left. But after an Aggies' punt, Colorado drove 98 yards in 11 plays and cut the deficit to 24-17 on Demetrius Sumler's 10-yard touchdown run with 2:59 remaining.

A&M punted again, but Hunter made a diving interception along the sideline with 2:29 left to put the game away.

Johnson averaged 361 passing yards and thrown six touchdown passes in the last three games, but he went 6-for-14 for 62 yards in the first half.

After Johnson fumbled on A&M's first series, Cody Hawkins, Colorado's other quarterback, took a lateral from running back Darrell Scott and found tight end Riar Geer down the sideline for a 23-yard gain. Three plays later, freshman Rodney Stewart scored on a 6-yard run to put the Buffaloes ahead.

Hansen replaced Hawkins for Colorado's fourth possession. Coach Dan Hawkins took off Hansen's redshirt three weeks ago and has been alternating Hansen and Hawkins.

Kicker Aric Goodman hit the upright on a 46-yard field-goal try, his seventh consecutive miss. Goodman slipped to 3-for-11 on field-goal tries this season.

A&M's Randy Bullock kicked a 39-yard field goal with 5:43 left in the first half.

On Colorado's next possession, Aggies' linebacker Von Miller was flagged for a horse-collar tackle on Stewart and the Buffaloes' leading rusher sat out the rest of the game with a sprained ankle.

Scott, Stewart's backup, then leapfrogged an A&M defender on a 42-yard run, the Buffaloes' longest play from scrimmage this season. But A&M cornerback Jordan Pugh intercepted Hawkins in the end zone with 2:40 left in the half.

After an A&M punt, freshman Jameson Davis, who handles kickoffs, booted a 30-yard field goal with 3 seconds left.

GAME 10: (#6) OKLAHOMA 66, A&M 28

Saturday, November 8 • Kyle Field • College Station, Texas • Attendance: 85,603 • TV: ABC (Regional)

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—Sam Bradford threw touchdown passes to four different receivers, Chris Brown ran for three scores and No. 6 Oklahoma started fast again and downed Texas A&M 66-28.

DeMarco Murray, Matt Clapp, Ryan Broyles and Juakin Iglesias had TD catches and Bradford had a touchdown run for the Sooners (9-1, 5-1 Big 12), who set a single-game scoring record for an opponent at Kyle Field.

The Sooners have scored 231 points in four games since a 45-35 loss to Texas. Their defense was equally impressive in this one, holding the Aggies (4-6, 2-4) to 26 rushing yards and forcing four turnovers.

Cyrus Gray scored on a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown and set an A&M record with 261 kick return yards. But receiving lots of kickoffs was bad news for the Aggies, who were held to 278 total yards and dropped to 2-5 at home this season.

The Sooners have always struggled at Kyle Field and an unranked A&M team beat No. 1 Oklahoma 30-26 here in 2002. But Oklahoma had no problems in this one, leading 38-14 at halftime and 66-21 after three quarters.

Bradford completed 22 of 33 passes for 320 yards and tied a school record with his eighth 300-yard game of the season. Murray rushed for 123 yards and Brown ran for 117 against the Big 12's second-worst rushing defense.

Oklahoma outscored its first nine opponents 180-27 in the first quarter and needed only 90 seconds to score on the Aggies.

Murray broke a 70-yard run on the Sooners' second play from scrimmage and Bradford scrambled for a 15-yard touchdown with 13:31 left in the quarter. Oklahoma scored on its first possession for the ninth time in 10 games.

The Aggies went three-and-out on their first series and Murray caught Bradford's 35th touchdown pass of the season with 8:05 left in the first quarter.

On Oklahoma's next series, Bradford found Jermaine Gresham for a 23-yard gain to the A&M 22 and Brown scored with 5:44 remaining in the quarter. The 49-second possession was Oklahoma's 13th touchdown drive this season that lasted under a minute.

The Sooners outgained A&M 238-13 in the quarter. A&M coach Mike Sherman gathered his team for a fiery pep talk before the second quarter began, but it didn't make a difference - Bradford threw a 28-yard TD pass to Clapp with 14:27 left in the half to make it 28-0.

Gray returned the ensuing kickoff 67 yards to set up Jerrod Johnson's 20-yard touchdown pass to Jamie McCoy.

Johnson dove into the end zone with 5:11 left in the half to cut Oklahoma's lead to 28-14.

The Aggies were barely stemming the tide.

Broyles took a short pass from Bradford, evaded five A&M defenders and got to the 5, setting up another touchdown for Brown. Oklahoma got the ball back with 34 seconds left and Stevens kicked a 42-yard field goal on the second-to-last play of the half.

The Sooners had 423 yards and 18 first downs in the half, while the Aggies had minus-11 yards rushing and went 2-of-10 on third downs.

Johnson threw his first interception in 213 attempts, tying the Big 12 record, in the third quarter when Oklahoma linebacker Keenan Clayton picked off a pass.

Brown's 28-yard TD run with 8:39 left in the third quarter pushed Oklahoma over 50 points for the sixth time this season. The Sooners topped 500 yards for the seventh time this year.

Joey Halzle replaced Bradford early in the fourth quarter.

Stephen McGee replaced Johnson with 6:23 left in the third quarter. McGee, a senior, won the starting quarterback job in the fall, but he's missed all but one play in the last five games with a shoulder injury.

GAME 11: BAYLOR 41, A&M 21

Saturday, November 15 • Floyd Casey Stadium • Waco, Texas • Attendance: 43,549

WACO, Texas (AP)—With a couple of long passes and some nifty pitches, Robert Griffin helped lead Baylor to a rare victory over Texas A&M.

Griffin threw touchdown passes of 31 and 55 yards and Jacoby Jones ran for two scores after taking late pitches from Griffin in Baylor's 41-21 victory. It was only the second time the Bears won in their last 23 meetings against Texas A&M.

The Aggies (4-7, 2-5 Big 12) came in with slim bowl hopes in their first season under coach Mike Sherman, but had five turnovers. That included two interceptions by linebacker Joe Pawelek, the second coming in the end zone in the fourth quarter.

Jay Finley added a 12-yard TD run for Baylor (4-7, 2-5), which played its home finale for first-year coach Art Briles.

Griffin, an 18-year-old freshman, didn't start the season opener at home in late August. But he entered that game before halftime and has started ever since. The dual-threat quarterback has accounted for a school-record 25 touchdowns (14 passing, 11 rushing).

Jones had a clear path to the end zone along the right sideline for a 12-yard TD that made it 13-0 after Griffin, while shedding a tackler, pitched the ball. Then on a fourth-and-1 late in the third quarter, Jones scored on an 18-yard run when Griffin got rid of the ball just before being slammed to the ground by a defender.

Griffin was 13-of-23 for 241 yards and added 56 yards on 12 rushes. Finley carried 23 times for 116 yards.

The Aggies' Jerrod Johnson was 19-of-30 for 244 yards with four interceptions and a late touchdown. He had only four passes picked off in his first eight games before throwing two in A&M's 66-28 loss to Oklahoma last week.

Jorvorskie Lane scored on a pair of 1-yard runs, increasing his A&M school records to 49 career rushing TDs and 50 overall.

Baylor led 6-0 after Ben Parks had field goals of 42 and 28 yards, the first on the Bears' opening drive of the game and the second after Leon Freeman recovered a fumble caused when Johnson was tackled from behind by Zac Scotton.

Dwain Crawford's interception set up the drive that led to Jones' first TD and included Griffin's 49-yard pass to Ernest Smith to convert a third-and-14.

The Aggies finally scored when Lane plunged in over the left side after Johnson's 51-yard pass to Mike Goodson, who made a leaping, stretching catch between three defenders.

GAME 12: (#4) TEXAS 49, A&M 9

Thursday, November 27 • Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium • Austin, Texas • Attendance: 98,621 • TV: ESPN

AUSTIN, Texas (AP)—Colt McCoy passed for two touchdowns, ran for two more and No. 4 Texas snapped a two-game losing streak to rival Texas A&M with a 49-9 victory.

The 40-point win was the largest in the rivalry since a 48-0 Texas victory in 1898.

McCoy was 23-of-28 passing for 311 yards and he added 49 yards rushing for Texas (11-1, 7-1 Big 12) to earn his first win over the Aggies (4-8, 2-6) in three tries. He also got career victory No. 31, passing Vince Young to set a Texas record for starting quarterbacks.

Cody Johnson ran for 102 yards and two scores for the Longhorns, with most of his yards coming in the fourth quarter when the game was already out of reach.

While the final score was lopsided, the Longhorns quickly found themselves in a physical battle.

The game got chippy even before the start. Shortly before kickoff, dozens of Longhorns and Aggies players were exchanging words in the end zone before coaches and game officials broke it up. After McCoy capped an 80-yard opening drive with a 14-yard TD run, he was sacked three times in the first half and knocked down on several other occasions.

The Texas defense, however, held the Aggies to minus-1 yard on their first three possessions. The Aggies tried to find a spark in the second quarter with backup quarterback Stephen McGee, who beat Texas the last two years.

McGee passed for 207 yards but could only lead A&M to a first-half field goal. Starting QB Jerrod Johnson returned in the fourth.

McCoy's TD passes of 20 yards to Brandon Collins and Quan Cosby made it 21-3 at halftime. The strike to Cosby came three plays after McCoy had been staggered with a hard hit to the chest.

In the third, Texas marched 80 yards on five plays and McCoy got his second rushing TD, this one covering 16 yards. McCoy split two defenders and got spun high in the air when he leaped between them at the goal line.

KYLE FIELD HISTORY/TIMELINE

Regarded as one of the nation's most intimidating road venues, Texas A&M's Kyle Field has been the home of the Aggie football team since 1905.

The Aggies have always been tough to beat at Kyle Field with an all-time record of 367-141-19 (71.4 winning percentage) on their home field.

Likely making Kyle Field an even tougher road venue for opponents was the $32.9 million north end zone expansion, which was completed in 1999. The formation of the Bernard C. Richardson Zone raised the capacity of Kyle Field to 82,600, making it at the time the largest football stadium in the state of Texas.

The Zone opened at full capacity for the first time for the annual Texas A&M-Texas grudge match in 1999 and a state-record football crowd of 86,128 watched the Aggies tally a hard-fought 20-16 victory over the arch rival Longhorns. The stadium record has been broken five times since the 1999 game and currently stands at 88,253 (Texas, 2007).

Kyle Field was named for Edwin Jackson Kyle, who served as Texas A&M's dean of agriculture and athletic council president. Kyle donated a 400 x 400-foot area of the southern edge of campus that had been assigned to him for horticultural experiments.

The permanent seating on the east and west sides of Kyle Field were added in 1927 and the horseshoe was completed in 1929. The stadium was expanded in 1967 to include two decks of grandstands, and the third decks were added to the east and west sides in 1980. The Aggies played on grass through the 1960s, but A&M became one of the many schools that switched to artificial turf in the early 1970s. Grass returned to Kyle Field in 1996 and the Aggies currently play on grass.

The most recent improvement was the "12th Man TV," which is the huge video board in the south endzone. The 3,954 square-foot screen is the second-largest in collegiate sports and measures 54-by-74 feet. Included in the project, which was completed prior to the 2006 season, were 1,130 feet of ribbon board and a concert-quality sound system.

KYLE FIELD TIMELINE

- Spring 1905 E.J. Kyle, professor of horticulture and staunch supporter of Aggie athletics, donates 400X400 foot all-purpose athletic area. Two seats of bleachers were built to accommodate 500 spectators.
- 1906 Grateful Corps of Cadets met in old chapel to express their appreciation for Kyle and named the new field for him. Not officially, but the name stuck.
- 1907 Kyle purchased grand stands from the Bryan Fair Association with a personal check and moved them to Kyle Field.
- 1915 Kyle Field seating is raised to 6,800 according to the Bryan Eagle.
- 1923 Seating increased to 8,500.
- 1927 Construction begins on concrete stands.
- 1929 New $365,000 concrete stadium is complete in time for the annual Texas A&M vs. Texas clash on Thanksgiving. The stadium features 32,890 permanent seats and 5,000 temporary seats.
- 1956 Texas A&M Board of Directors officially named Kyle Field after Edwin Jackson Kyle, '99.
- 1967 Second decks added.
- 1970 Artificial turf installed.
- 1980 Third decks finished, new press box and suites dedicated against Penn State. Capacity 70,016.
- 1982 Seats on east side narrowed. Capacity 72,387.
- 1992 Seats widened and capacity moves back to 70,210.
- 1996 Natural grass returns to Kyle Field.
- 1998 Construction on The Zone is underway, capacity is limited to 58,292.
- 1999 The Zone is complete and capacity increases to 82,600.
- 2008 Refiguring suites places capacity to 83,002.

#6 TEXAS A&M 13, #12 FORDHAM 12

Wednesday, January 1, 1941 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas • Attendance: 45,507

DALLAS—Sixth-ranked A&M used trickery to pull out a close win over 12th-ranked Fordham.

The Aggies used the “hideout pass” to break the scoring ice. Trailing 6-0 at the start of the third quarter, A&M’s Earl “Bama” Smith trotted toward the east sideline while his teammates rushed to their huddle. Smith then took off undetected with the start of the play and hauled in a 62-yard scoring aerial from quarterback Marion Pugh to tie the game.

John Kimbrough scored on a 1-yard run later in the period.

A&M blocked both of Fordham’s extra-point kicks and Pugh converted after Kimbrough’s score to provide the difference in the game.

1942 COTTON BOWL

#20 ALABAMA 29, #9 TEXAS A&M 21

Thursday, January 1, 1942 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas • Attendance: 33,000

DALLAS—If ever a game provided credence to the point that statistics can lie, this contest did.

Alabama made only one down (A&M had 13), gained just 59 yards rushing (to A&M's 115), 16 passing (to A&M's 194), and punted 16 times. But, the Crimson Tide scored 29 points and won the game.

Seven Aggie interceptions and five lost fumbles negated any statistical advantages A&M achieved.

Alabama's Jimmy Nelson was the star of the game with two interceptions, a 72-yard punt return for a score and a 21-yard scoring run.

DALLAS—Student faced teacher as the Aggies capped a Cinderella season by appearing in the Cotton Bowl for the first time in 25 years and making its first post-season appearance in a decade.

A&M Head Coach Gene Stallings met his former college coach, Alabama's "Bear" Bryant, and his Aggies won their seventh straight game. Bryant, facing A&M for the first time since his departure following the 1957 season, gave Stallings a ride off the field on his shoulders after the game.

A&M converted an Alabama interception and fumble into a 13-10 half-time lead. Then, midway through the third quarter, the Aggies turned a short, 28-yard Tide punt into its final score of the game as fullback Wendell Housley bulled 20 yards for a clinching touchdown.

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Emory Bellard's Aggies, seemingly shellshocked after a season-ending 31-6 loss to Arkansas cost them a possible national title shot, were punchless offensively as the Trojans gave Head Coach John McKay a win in his final game as USC grid boss.

USC shook off a four-game losing streak to drop the Aggies to 10-2.

A 65-yard bomb from quarterback Vince Evans to end Randy Simmrin set up a score by fullback Mosi Tatupu. Tailback Ricky Bell, the game's MVP, ran 76 yards with a screen pass for another score.

Sunday, January 2, 1977 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas • Attendance: 33,252

EL PASO, Texas—A&M ended a 10-2 season by dominating virtually every phase of the game in knocking off the Gators.

Placekicker Tony Franklin kicked three field goals, including an NCAA bowl-record 62-yarder, and fullback George Woodard scored three times while rushing for 124 yards to key the Aggies offensively.

A&M raced to a 16-0 halftime lead as Franklin's three field goals sandwiched a nine-yard run by quarterback David Walker.

The Aggie defense forced five Gator turnovers and held them to minus-12 yards total offense in the decisive second quarter. Florida had only 27 net yards and two first downs at halftime and was contained by A&M until the game was out of reach.

Five lost fumbles by the Aggies helped USC gain control of the game after an early 14-0 lead by A&M, which finished 8-4.

DALLAS—The Aggies made their second consecutive trip to the Cotton Bowl one most A&M backers would like to forget by virtually giving Ohio State the victory by way of turnovers.

Quarterback Kevin Murray, in what would be his final game at A&M, tossed five interceptions while completing only 12 of 31 passes as the Aggies ended a 9-3 campaign with a frustrating defeat.

OSU, leading 7-6 at the half, got interception returns for scores by linebackers Chris Spielman and Michael Kee to take the victory.

Aggie fullback Roger Vick rushed for 113 yards on 24 carries and scored once to earn Outstanding Player honors for A&M.

1988 COTTON BOWL

#13 TEXAS A&M 35, #12 NOTRE DAME 10

Friday, January 1, 1988 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas • Attendance: 73,006

DALLAS—Once again, the Aggies traveled to Dallas to meet a Heisman Trophy winner. And, once again, the Aggies allowed an early moment of glory for him. And, once again, A&M ran off in the second half to a big victory as the Aggies dropped frustrated Tim Brown and Notre Dame in the first meeting ever between the two schools.

In what many call the most important victory in modern times for A&M, the Aggies handed the future national champs a setback behind a powerful rushing game spearheaded by freshman quarterback Bucky Richardson.

Richardson earned Most Valuable Player honors by rushing for 96 yards and two scores while directing a potent A&M offense in the crucial second half. A halfback pass from freshman Darren Lewis to split end Tony Thompson in the second quarter tied the game and turned momentum permanently in A&M's favor.

EL PASO, Texas—Pitt quarterback Alex Van Pelt connected with wide receiver Henry Tuten on a 44-yard touchdown pass with 2:19 remaining to lead Pittsburgh to a dramatic win over the Aggies.

The loss marked the third time the 8-4 Aggies lost a game in the closing minutes.

The Aggies erased a 24-10 third quarter deficit on touchdown runs of 31 and one yards by halfback Keith McAfee and a five-yard scoring trot by Randy Simmons to take a 28-24 lead midway through the final period.

Fullback Robert Wilson gained 145 yards on 16 carries to lead a 252-yard rushing day for Head Coach R.C. Slocum's first Aggie team.

Saturday, December 29, 1990 • Jack Murphy Stadium • San Diego, California • Attendance: 61,441

SAN DIEGO—Aggie quarterback Bucky Richardson, who missed the 1989 season with a knee injury, accounted for 322 yards of total offense (203 pass, 119 rush), rushed for two touchdowns, passed for one score and caught a touchdown pass as A&M trounced the outmanned Cougars.

Darren Lewis ended his college career in fine fashion, running for 104 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

The final statistics illustrated A&M's domination as the Aggies outgained the Cougars, 680-185 and limited them to minus-12 rushing yards.

BYU's Heisman Trophy winning quarterback, Ty Detmer, completed just 11-of-23 passes for 120 yards before leaving the game with a shoulder injury.

#5 FLORIDA STATE 10, #9 TEXAS A&M 2

Wednesday, January 1, 1992 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas • Attendance: 73,728

DALLAS—The Aggies drove through the Seminoles' defense with surprising ease in the early going and appeared poised to take the lead on their first possession when Greg Hill sprinted 39 yards toward the endzone.

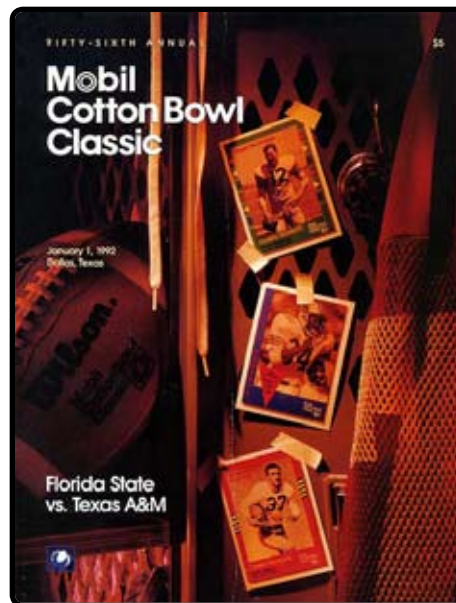

But Hill fumbled the ball out of the endzone as he was hit at the two-yard line and the Seminoles were awarded possession on their own one-yard line. A&M's Quentin Coryatt sacked FSU quarterback Casey Weldon for a safety on the next play, but that's all the scoring the Aggies could muster.

Two possessions later, A&M dropped a sure scoring pass in the endzone.

In the second quarter, safety Chris Crooms returned an interception 42 yards for an apparent touchdown, but Crooms had stepped out of bounds at the 26-yard line.

FSU's potent offense could manage just 10 points and 280 yards against A&M's No. 1-ranked defense, but the Aggies could gain just 180 yards against the Seminoles.

Crooms intercepted Weldon twice and was named the game's top defensive player.

DALLAS—After a brutal defensive struggle for much of the first half, Notre Dame scored on a 40-yard pass from Rick Mirer to Lake Dawson with :36 left in the half for a 7-0 lead.

The Irish carried the momentum into the third quarter and took command with a pair of touchdowns, the first on a 26-yard pass from Mirer to Jerome Bettis and the second on a 1-yard run by Bettis.

A&M added a 41-yard field goal by Terry Venetoulis early in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 21-3, but another touchdown run by Bettis put the game out of reach and handed the Irish a big 28-3 victory.

The Aggies gained just 165 yards of total offense and managed just 11 first downs, while Notre Dame compiled 439 yards of offense and 28 first downs.

Sophomore linebacker Jessie Cox had a big game for the Aggies, posting 17 tackles.

#4 NOTRE DAME 24, #6 TEXAS A&M 21

Saturday, January 1, 1994 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas • Attendance: 69,886

DALLAS—Both teams scored on their opening drives, with Notre Dame striking first on a 19-yard run by Kevin McDougal and A&M finding paydirt on an eight-yard run by Greg Hill.

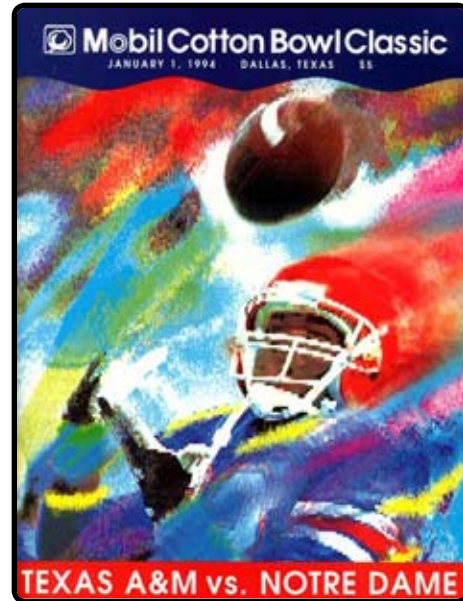

The Aggies took a 14-7 halftime lead after a 15-yard pass from Corey Pullig to Detron Smith late in the second quarter. Notre Dame knotted the game, 14-14, early in the third period, but the Aggies came right back to regain the lead, 21-14, on a short plunge by Rodney Thomas.

The Fighting Irish returned the favor three minutes later with a scort scoring run of their own to tie the game, 21-21.

With less than four minutes to play, Notre Dame's Michael Miller returned an Aggie punt 38 yards to the A&M 22-yard line, the longest punt return allowed by A&M all season. The A&M defense held firm, but Notre Dame managed a 31-yard field goal by Kevin Pendergast to end the scoring.

With just :24 left, A&M narrowly missed a miracle comeback when, on fourth-and-17 from the Aggie 41, Corey Pullig completed a 14-yard pass to Tony Harrison, who attempted to lateral to trailing Leeland McElroy. However, the pitch sailed high and was recovered by Notre Dame, who took home an exciting 24-21 victory.

The Aggies outgained the Irish in total offense, 341-311, as Pullig passed for 238 yards.

#18 TEXAS A&M 22, #14 MICHIGAN 20

Friday, December 29, 1995 • Alamodome • San Antonio, Texas • Attendance: 64,597

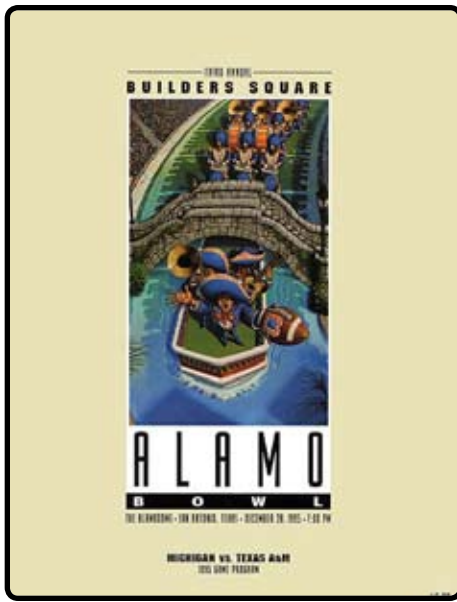

SAN ANTONIO—Both defenses made the going tough for the opposing offenses in one of the closest and entertaining bowl games of the season.

A&M's Kyle Bryant was named the Offensive MVP, kicking five field goals to lead the Aggie attack. Linebacker Keith Mitchell was named the Defensive MVP for his constant harassment of the Michigan quarterback Brian Griese.

A trio of true freshman running backs—Eric Bernard, D'Andre Hardeman and Sirr Parker—subbed for the injured Leeland McElroy and gained 137 yards and scored one TD. Future NFL first-round pick Tim Biakabutuka gained 94 for the Wolverines.

With A&M holding a 19-13 lead and time running out, Aggie cornerback Andre Williams intercepted a pass to set up Bryant's final field goal to give A&M a 22-13 lead with 23 second left to play.

Michigan would complete a hail mary to narrow the score to the final, 22-20.

DALLAS—The game pitted Aggie head coach R.C. Slocum against UCLA head coach and former A&M assistant Bob Toledo as the Aggies were double-digit underdogs.

The Aggies led 16-0 before UCLA could muster any points. Led by two Wrecking Crew scores, the Aggies controlled early. A&M junior linebacker Dat Nguyen was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player as he recorded 20 tackles and a bowl record 15 solo stops.

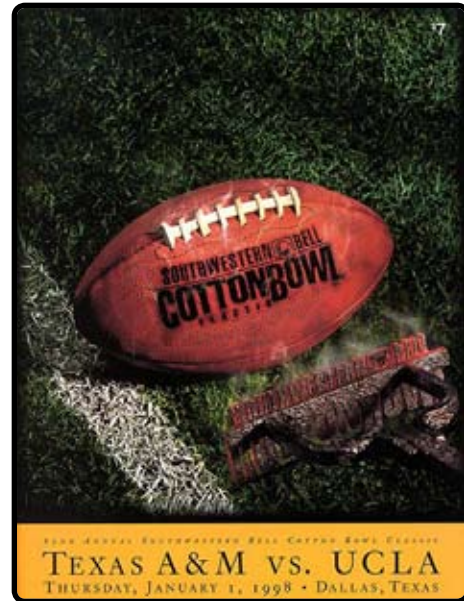

UCLA took the momentum to the locker room at halftime with a late score to trail 16-7.

The Bruins chipped away at the Aggies the entire second half, allowing only one score, a Chris Cole 43-yard reverse for a touchdown.

The No. 5 ranked Bruins outlasted the Aggies by the final of 29-23.

Dante Hall carried seven times for 93 yards and a touchdown.

The Aggies honored former A&M standout Reggie Brown, who sustained a career-ending neck injury in December, by wearing his number under their jerseys.

1999 NOKIA SUGAR BOWL

#3 OHIO STATE 24, #8 TEXAS A&M 14

Friday, January 1, 1999 • Louisiana Superdome • New Orleans, Louisiana • Attendance: 76,503

NEW ORLEANS—Ohio State players, coaches and fans came to the Bayou State with one purpose in mind: To ring in 1999 with a Sugar Bowl victory befitting the Big Easy's nickname.

And in the end, the boisterous, cocksure Buckeyes did indeed get their win. But it wasn't by a big margin, and it certainly wasn't easy. The underdog and under-appreciated Texas Aggies gave their Big Ten-champion counterparts far more than they bargained for in front of 76,503 fans at the Louisiana Superdome.

In fact, for 53 minutes and 25 seconds of play, the Aggies did more than enough to make the Buckeye fans sweat out their New Year's Eve hangovers. Unfortunately for A&M, it was that other 6:35 of play that gave OSU fans a reason to revel throughout all corners of the French Quarter.

"We played a great team, and we played pretty well at times," Texas A&M freshman fullback Ja'Mar Toombs said following the Aggies' 24-14 loss. "They were ranked No. 1 for a long time, and there's a reason for that. They're very talented. But I think we proved we are, too. We just got too far behind."

Ohio State (11-1) used two impressive drives and a key blocked punt to score 21 points in a span of 6:35 in the first quarter. That proved to be enough for the Buckeyes to register a hard-fought win. But it wasn't what OSU had envisioned in the days in weeks leading up to the Sugar Bowl.

The Buckeyes, who spent nine weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation, wanted to destroy the Aggies (11-3) and stake their claim to the national title. That simply wasn't the case, as Texas A&M stood toe-to-toe with Ohio State and frequently had OSU on its heels.

A&M became only the second team this season to hold the Buckeyes to as few as 24 points (Michigan State also held OSU to that total in the Buckeyes' lone loss). And the Aggies became the first team to hold the high-powered Ohio State offense scoreless in the second half.

In other words, it was a struggle for the Buckeyes, not a stroll.

If it wouldn't have been for that little scoring outburst they had, it could have been a whole different ballgame," A&M junior running back Dante Hall said. "But we never panicked, and there in the second half, I kind of thought we might be on the verge of another Kansas State-type comeback."

Even with a convincing 24-7 lead at the intermission, Ohio State coach John Cooper spent plenty of time in the locker room reminding his players about A&M's heroic, late-season comebacks.

"At halftime, we were talking about the Kansas State game," Cooper said of the Big 12 title game in which the Aggies overcame a 15-point fourth-quarter deficit to win in double overtime. "(The Aggies) were getting the second-half kickoff, and we knew what they did in the second half against Kansas State."

Despite the warning, the Buckeyes appeared to be on the verge of buckling several times in the second half. First, A&M quarterback Brannndon Stewart hit Leroy Hodge on a 7-yard scoring pass to cut the lead to 24-14 with 5:24 left in the third quarter.

Then, after stuffing OSU on its next series, A&M drove to as deep as the Ohio State 33, as the Superdome rocked and resembled - in appearance and volume level - Kyle Field with a roof on it.

"We had them on their heels, and this place was going nuts," A&M senior tight end Dan Campbell said. "That's the frustrating thing to me. If we make it 24-21, I really would have liked to have seen (the Superdome) crowd. And I would have liked to have seen how (Ohio State) responded to it."

To the Aggies' chagrin, the Buckeyes never had to deal with that kind of pressure late in the game. A&M's late third-quarter drive into Buckeye territory was halted by a penalty and a sack. Then with the Aggies marching early in the fourth quarter, Stewart's lateral pass to Toombs was recovered by OSU at the Aggies' 48.

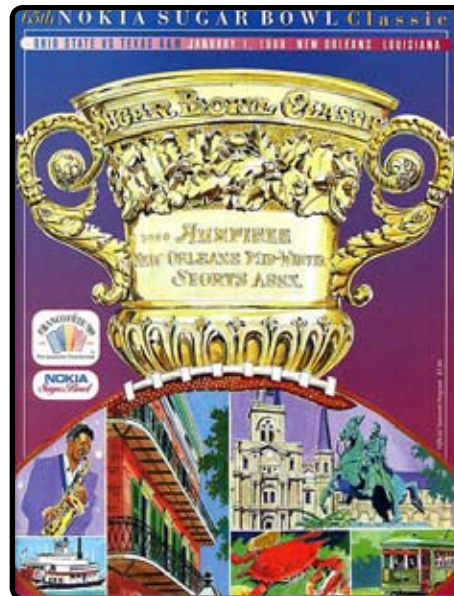

That killed a promising A&M drive and effectively ended the Aggies' comeback momentum. Ohio State simply held on the rest of the way to send the Aggies to their fifth-straight New Year's Day bowl loss.

"(Ohio State) knew they had been in a war," Campbell said. "That much, I know for sure."

The Buckeyes should have sensed that from the opening kickoff. A&M forced OSU to go three-and-out on its first offensive possession of the game, and then A&M went on an impressive touchdown march. A&M drove 59 yards in six plays, with Hall capping the drive with a 9-yard scoring run to give the Aggies an early 7-0 lead.

Then on OSU's next possession, the Buckeyes faced a third-and-15 at their own 24. But OSU quarterback Joe Germaine completed a 28-yard pass to a wide-open Dee Miller to give the Buckeyes a big first down. Three plays later, Germaine hit Reggie Germany on an 18-yard scoring pass, and OSU's touchdown barrage had officially begun.

If that wasn't the key play of the game, then the blocked punt some six minutes later was. With OSU leading 14-7, Ohio State's Derek Ross blocked Shane Lechler's punt, and Kevin Griffin scooped it up and ran 16 yards for the score to put the Buckeyes up, 21-7. It was the first blocked punt against the Aggies since 1993, and it proved to be devastating.

"That was a significant play," A&M head coach R.C. Slocum said. "Being behind 21-7 is a whole lot different than being behind 14-7. Our team settled down and played a whole lot better in the second half, but it took us too long to get it going."

But unlike most games this year, the Aggies' magic ran out in the end, as a brilliant season met with a bitter end. Still, the Aggies proved all year long - and again in the Sugar Bowl - that they belong on the same center stage with the elite teams of college football.

"It's disappointing to end the season with a loss, but I can't say enough about my team," Slocum said. "We were Big 12 Champions, won 11 games and played eight bowl teams. A loss (in the Sugar Bowl) doesn't take away from a tremendous season."

1999 SYLVANIA ALAMO BOWL

#13 PENN STATE 24, #18 TEXAS A&M 0

Tuesday, December 28, 1999 • Alamodome • San Antonio, Texas • Attendance: 65,380

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Rashard Casey passed for a touchdown and ran for one as No. 13 Penn State, ending a three-game losing streak that cost it a possible shot at the national title, defeated No. 18 Texas A&M 24-0 in the Alamo Bowl.

"It seemed like a Hollywood script," All-American linebacker LaVar Arrington said after Penn State's first shutout of the season. "It's too bad it's too late to show what we had—but better late than never."

Penn State (10-3) sent longtime defensive coordinator Jerry Sandusky into retirement with a strong performance, holding Texas A&M to just 80 net yards rushing and 122 yards passing.

"We played like a Penn State defense," said Sandusky, the defensive coordinator since 1977. "We bent, but we didn't break, and people made plays in the clutch. That is what did it. And that's symbolic of the way we played so many, many times."

The defense had carried Penn State to a 9-0 start and a No. 2 national ranking, before the team's title hopes were dashed by losses to Minnesota, Michigan and Michigan State.

Penn State avoided what could have been the first four-game losing streak in Joe Paterno's 34-year career as coach.

As the Lions received their Alamo Bowl trophy, Paterno praised his players and the Penn State fans who traveled to Texas.

"It was a great effort by our team, and I'm very, very proud of them," he said. "Let's go get a shower and have fun tonight, guys!"

Penn State jumped to a 14-0 lead by halftime, then added another touchdown when Casey ran in for the score from the 4 on the first play of the fourth quarter.

A 39-yard field goal by Travis Forney pushed the Lions' lead to 24-0.

Casey had his first start of the season and played the whole game for Penn State, which had used Casey and Kevin Thompson at quarterback this year. Paterno said Monday that Thompson's arm was slightly sore.

"I knew I was going to get the start because coach had told me Kevin had messed up his shoulder," Casey said. "I went and practiced like I was going to be the starter."

Casey was 8-of-16 for 146 yards and Penn State added 175 yards rushing.

Randy McCown of Texas A&M was 13-for-22 for 105 passing yards but threw four interceptions, matching the career high he threw in a loss to Nebraska this season. McCown was sacked three times.

"It was tough to stay positive," McCown said. "We wanted to get a good start and we didn't. You're not going to win many football games playing like that."

Arrington, a junior who might make himself available for the NFL draft, had a big game for Penn State with 14 tackles, including one for an 8-yard loss.

"We had a lot of pressure on the quarterback," Arrington said.

Texas A&M coach R.C. Slocum knew going into the game that Arrington, not to mention his two fellow All-American defensive teammates, would pose problems for his offense.

"He's a great player," Slocum said. "He was up for every postseason award for a linebacker, so this is not the first time he's done it."

The Aggies had only one promising drive in the first half, and it failed when Shane Lechler—also the team's punter—saw his 44-yard field-goal attempt fall short.

Texas A&M looked as though it might get its running game together to start the second half, as Ja'Mar Toombs and D'Andre Hardeman combined for an impressive drive to begin the third.

But when the Aggies got near the end zone, Ron Graham of Penn State intercepted McCown's pass at the 7. Other Aggies mistakes followed, including Bethel Johnson's fumble of a kickoff return in the fourth quarter.

An ocean of Aggies fans packed the 65,000-seat Alamodome, but the loud maroon-clad crowd couldn't keep the Aggies afloat. Some fans started to head for the exits with 10 minutes left in the game.

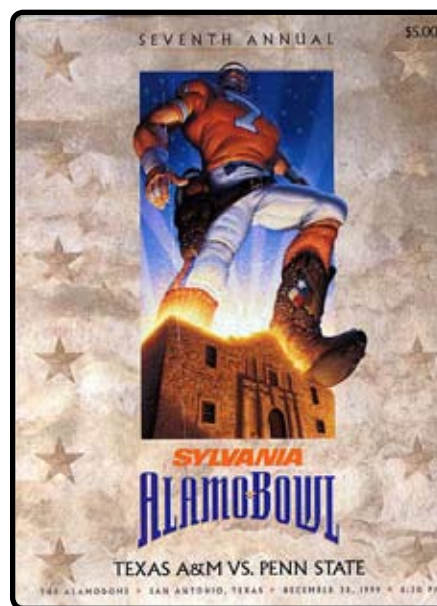

The defeat ended a season of tragedy for Texas A&M (8-4), whose players wore a helmet decal honoring the students killed in the Nov. 18 bonfire log collapse on campus that killed 12 people and injured 27.

The Lions got on the scoreboard early when Derek Fox ran 34 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter after intercepting a pass by McCown.

Earlier in the first quarter, the Lions took points off the board when they opted to take a first down on a roughing-the-kicker call after Forney made a 38-yard field goal. Four plays later, Forney was wide right on a 30-yard field goal attempt.

Penn State drove 73 yards and scored on a 45-yard pass from Casey to Eddie Drummond and moved ahead 14-0 with 8:54 left before halftime.

This was Paterno's 30th bowl appearance, breaking the record of 29 he shared with Bear Bryant of Alabama. Paterno has won more bowl games than any other coach and now has a bowl record of 20-9-1.

2000 SANFORD INDEPENDENCE BOWL

MISSISSIPPI STATE 43, TEXAS A&M 41 (OT)

Sunday, December 31, 2000 • Independence Stadium • Shreveport, Louisiana • Attendance: 36,974

SHREVEPORT, La.—Snow blanketed Independence Stadium prior to the 2000 Sanford Independence Bowl on New Year's Eve and provided one of the most unique experiences for Texas A&M and Mississippi State.

Barely able to make out the yard lines, the teams were forced to concentrate on the ground game. A&M junior running back Ja'Mar Toombs carried the ball 35 times (a school bowl record) for 193 yards and three touchdowns (a school bowl record), while MSU's Dontae Walker netted 143 rushing yards and three touchdowns.

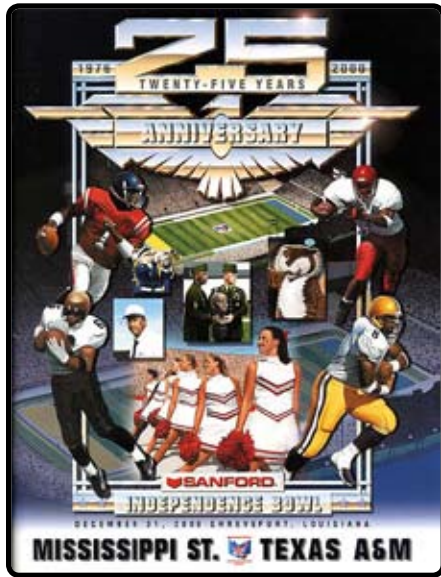

The Aggies held an early 14-0 lead in the first quarter after touchdowns by Richard Whitaker and Toombs. MSU answered with two touchdowns in the second before A&M quarterback Mark Farris connected with receiver Robert Ferguson on a 42-yard TD pass.

The Aggies led 20-14 at the half, but would trail 21-20 entering the fourth. Farris opened the 4th with a 35-yard TD pass to Bethel Johnson and Toombs added another TD run and the Aggies led 35-21.

MSU rallied with two late TDs to force overtime. Toombs scored on the first possession, but the PAT by Terence Kitchens was blocked and returned for two points by Julius Griffith.

MSU's Wayne Madkin scored on the next possession to give the Bulldogs the overtime bowl win.

It set an A&M record for combined points in a bowl game and was the first overtime bowl game in school history.

2001 GALLERYFURNITURE.COM BOWL

TEXAS A&M 28, TCU 9

Friday, December 28, 1999 • Reliant Astrodome • Houston, Texas • Attendance: 53,480

HOUSTON (AP)—Not a bad way to begin a career.

Freshman Byron Jones intercepted three passes in his first start, and Joe Weber scored two touchdowns, helping Texas A&M end a four-game bowl losing streak with a 28-9 victory over TCU in the Galleryfurniture.com Bowl on Friday.

Jones, one of five freshmen in the lineup, helped the Aggies beat their former Southwest Conference rivals for the 24th straight time. A&M won a bowl game for the first time since a 22-20 victory over Michigan in the 1995 Alamo Bowl.

"It was fun to finally win a bowl," Slocum said. "But I haven't beat myself up personally about it. Sometimes we were just playing one of the best teams in the nation and we just weren't good enough to win. Today, the better team won the game."

The Aggies ended the season 8-4 after losing their final three regular-season games. The Horned Frogs (6-6) haven't beaten the Aggies since 1972, and trail the series 56-29-7.

Weber, voted offensive player of the game, broke a 7-7 second-quarter tie with a 2-yard touchdown run and added a 14-yard run that put the Aggies in control with 1:14 left in the third quarter.

TCU's Casey Printers was intercepted four times, including the first three of Jones' career.

Aggies safety Wes Bautovich got A&M's fourth interception. On the next play, Mark Farris hit Mickey Jones for an 82-yard touchdown pass and a 28-7 lead with 14:40 left in the game. Weber broke straight up the middle on his second touchdown, knocking aside two tacklers and running into the end zone. He finished with 59 yards on nine carries.

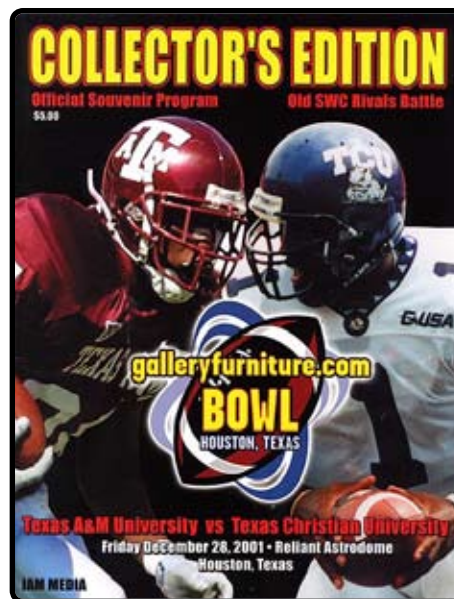

Jones was the game's MVP and also was the defensive player of the game. He had three tackles and ran back his interceptions a total of 77 yards.

Starting in place of the injured Sean Weston, Jones had only two broken-up passes on his defensive chart in 11 games before he returned his first interception 62 yards in the first quarter to the Frogs' 35.

The Aggies couldn't score on that chance, but Jones had a 15-yard interception return to TCU's 1-yard line in the second quarter, setting up Farris' quarterback keeper for the score.

Charlie Owens scooped up a fumble by A&M running back Derek Farmer and returned it 89 yards for a TCU touchdown with four minutes left in the half, tying the game 7-7. It was the second-longest fumble return in school history.

Thomas returned the ensuing kickoff 43 yards, and Carriger, a converted defensive lineman, lumbered 19 yards with his second reception of the season to set up Weber's 2-yard touchdown run with 1:06 left in the half.

2005 SBC COTTON BOWL

#15 TENNESSEE 38, #20 TEXAS A&M 7

Saturday, January 1, 2005 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas • Attendance: 75,704

DALLAS (AP)—Rick Clausen looked nothing like the third-stringer he was most of the season, leading No. 15 Tennessee to five touchdowns in just 2 1/2 quarters, and the defense had its way with No. 22 Texas A&M in a 38-7 victory in the Cotton Bowl.

The Volunteers (10-3) had lost four of their last five bowl games, the last two by a combined 40 points. After never leading in either of those games, they made things different just seven plays into this one when Clausen's short pass to C.J. Fayton turned into a 57-yard touchdown.

Tennessee wound up with the most lopsided victory in its 45-game bowl history. The Vols came within 5:13 of their first bowl shutout since the last time they played the Aggies, way back in the 1957 Gator Bowl.

The rout was as much a result of the Volunteers playing perfectly as it was the Aggies self-destructing. For instance, A&M lost only one fumble in its first seven games, but gave away four this time. Three came in the first half, helping Tennessee stretch its quick 7-0 lead to 21-0 early in the second quarter, forcing the Aggies out of their game plan.

The Vols' plan was excellent, especially on offense.

Instead of relying on the rushing of Gerald Riggs Jr. and Cedric Houston, Clausen came out firing from a variety of formations and showed the poise and patience of a seasoned leader, not a junior transfer who was beaten out by two freshmen and was playing only because they were both hurt.

Clausen was 18-of-27 for 222 yards with three touchdowns, no interceptions and no sacks. He also handled a hostile crowd of 75,704 -- the game's largest since 1978, the vast majority dressed in A&M maroon -- by scampering around the backfield to make sure everyone heard his audibles.

That was the case until he took the crowd out of it completely.

Tennessee gained 306 yards by halftime, even though two TD drives went just 28 and 8 yards thanks to fumble recoveries. The Vols set another school bowl record with 32 first downs.

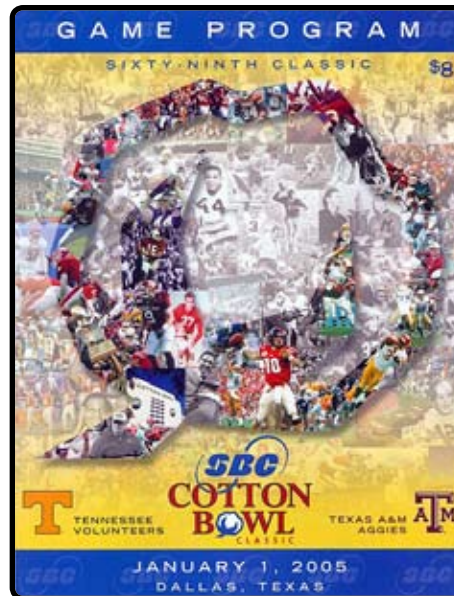

Riggs followed his career-high 182 yards in the SEC championship with 102 and a touchdown on 18 carries. Houston ran 13 times for 62 yards, enough to make him and Riggs the first Tennessee teammates to have 1,000 yards in the same season. He also had a touchdown before leaving with a bruised thigh in the third quarter.

A&M trailed 28-0 at halftime, but had a chance to make it a game when Terrence Thomas ran 54 yards to the 15 on the opening drive of the third quarter. Then quarterback Reggie McNeal was tackled from behind on fourth-and-1 from the 6 and the Aggies hardly threatened again.

They finally scored in the closing minutes on a 5-yard pass to Earvin Taylor.

It was the eighth time in coach Phillip Fulmer's tenure Tennessee has won at least 10 games.

Tennessee wore a small decal on the back of its helmets in memory of former star Reggie White, who died last week. It featured an orange cross with his jersey number, 92, in black across the center.

2006 PACIFIC LIFE HOLIDAY BOWL

#20 CALIFORNIA 45, #21 TEXAS A&M 10

Thursday, December 28, 2006 • Qualcomm Stadium • San Diego, California • Attendance: 62,395

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Marshawn Lynch ran for 111 yards and two touchdowns, and No. 20 California's defense played impressively in a 45-10 win over No. 21 Texas A&M in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl.

Nate Longshore threw for a touchdown and ran for another, and Lynch's backup, Justin Forsett, ran for 124 yards and one score.

Cal (10-3) put an emphatic final touch to its second 10-win season in three years. The Golden Bears had lost to Arizona and Southern California in disheartening fashion before beating rival Stanford and then the Aggies (9-4).

In 2004, Cal was in position to end its long Rose Bowl drought but was leapfrogged in the final Bowl Championship Series standings by Texas. Although the fourth-ranked Golden Bears claimed not to be bothered by the snub, they couldn't even hang with No. 23 Texas Tech in the Holiday Bowl and were humiliated 45-31.

This trip to San Diego turned out a lot better.

Lynch, the Pac-10 offensive player of the year, scored on a 2-yard run in the second quarter to give Cal a 14-7 lead. While Longshore lined up at wide receiver, Lynch was in the shotgun formation, took the snap and bulled into the end zone.

Lynch scored on a 1-yard run in the third, leaping over the line and fumbling as he came down in the end zone. The Aggies recovered and referee John O'Neill signaled first down for Texas A&M, then said the play was being reviewed. Replay official Jim Augustyn ruled that Lynch had possession when he broke the plane of the end zone, making it 21-10 Cal.

While the Golden Bears moved up and down the field, their defense came up big, too.

Jorvorskie Lane, Texas A&M's 274-pound tailback, wasn't much of a factor after tying a 79-year-old school record with 19 rushing touchdowns this year. He was held to 36 yards and no touchdowns on seven carries.

Longshore scored on a 1-yard keeper to tie the game at 7 in the first quarter, eight plays after Texas A&M's Stephen McGee threw a 19-yard TD pass to Chad Schroeder.

Longshore also threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Lavelle Hawkins late in the third quarter. He finished 19-of-24 for 235 yards.

Texas A&M gambled a few times too many. After Bryce Reed gained 7 yards on a fake punt in the first quarter, the drive bogged down and the Aggies went for it on fourth-and-8 from the Cal 32. McGee was sacked by Nu'u Tafisi.

Lynch scored his first TD five plays later.

His second touchdown was set up when Texas A&M's Justin Brantly shanked a punt out of bounds for no gain at the Aggies' 41. Lynch scored four plays later.

The Aggies failed to convert on another fourth-down play in the fourth quarter.

Cal's Eddie Young intercepted Aggies backup quarterback Ty Branyon with 2:25 left, setting up a 3-yard score by freshman tailback Bryan Schutte.

2007 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

PENN STATE 24, TEXAS A&M 17

Saturday, December 29, 2007 • Alamodome • San Antonio, Texas • Attendance: 66,166

SAN ANTONIO—Under interim head coach Gary Darnell and in front of the largest crowd to ever see a sporting event in the Alamodome, the Aggies jumped out to a 14 point first quarter lead but couldn't hold off Joe Paterno's Nittany Lions, 24-17, in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

The Aggies got on the board first as Mike Goodson culminated a nine-play, 70-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown plunge late in the first quarter. On the ensuing kickoff, safety Kenny Brown forced and recovered a Penn State fumble, and Mike Goodson scored on the next play for his second touchdown run in as many plays.

The Nittany Lions would come roaring back however as they reeled off 17 straight points to take a 17-14 lead into the locker room for halftime.

Early in the third quarter after a Stephen Hodge interception, the Aggies put together an 18-play, 78-yard drive resulting in a 38-yard Matt Szymanski field goal to knot the game at 17.

Late in the third quarter Penn State pulled ahead for good with a 38-yard touchdown run from Evan Royster to make the score 24-17.

The teams traded punts to start the fourth quarter before the Aggies embarked on a 93-yard drive to set up fourth and one from the Penn State two-yard line. The Aggies elected to go for it on fourth down but a failed option play turned the ball over to the Nittany Lions on downs.
