SEASON NOTES

Up Next

- The Buffs will renew their old Big 12 rivalries with Kansas and Missouri this weekend, playing at KU on Friday and MU on Sunday.
- CU played Kansas in 2014 and lost 2-1 in double overtime, but previously had not played since its Big 12 days in 2010.
- CU has not played Missouri both schools were in the Big 12 in 2010.
- This is the sixth season all-time that CU has started 2-0 and the third in Danny Sanchez's fifth year (both previous times CU went on to the NCAA Tournament).
- CU has only started a season 3-0 two times previously: 2013 (started 6-0) and 2014 (started 3-0) and both of those seasons were under Sanchez and both were NCAA Tournament seasons.

Season Opener Notes

- CU is now 11-5-5 all-time in season-opening matches and 4-1-4 in season openers on the road.
- CU is now unbeaten in its past 13 season openers (last loss in 2003 to Portland).

Home Opener Notes

- CU's 2-1 win over Colorado State on Aug. 21 stretched the team's unbeaten streak in home openers to 13 matches and winning streak to eight, while improving the all-time record in home openers to 16-4-1.
- The goal CU allowed in the first half was the first goal allowed in a home opener in 754 minutes and 19 seconds (the previous goal allowed in a home opener was in 2008 against Florida).
- When Taylor Kornieck scored in the seventh minute against CSU, it made this the fourth consecutive season a freshman has scored in the home opener (Erin Greening 2015, Brittney Stark 2014, Brie Hooks 2013).

Kinzner's Late Score

- Sarah Kinzner scored with three seconds left in the first half in CU's season-opening 2-0 win at Air Force for a 1-0 halftime lead.
- It was the latest goal ever scored in the first half by a CU player, besting the previous-latest of 44:44 by Storie Ledger in 2012 at Arizona.
- It was only the fourth goal ever scored in the 45th minute by a Buffs player.

Colorado Cup Notes (complete notes on pages 27-29)

- CU opened the season with two of its three Colorado Cup matches, traveling to Air Force on Aug. 19 (won 2-0) and hosting Colorado State on Aug. 21 (won 2-1).
- Colorado has won the Colorado Cup in four of the five seasons of the competition and finished second in 2013.
- Erin Greening and Mikaela Kraus are CU's two returning players who have scored in the Colorado Cup, each scoring one goal last season (Greening vs. CC and Kraus vs. DU).
- This year Sarah Kinzner, Alex Vidger (both vs. Air Force), Taylor Kornieck and Danica Evans (both vs. CSU) have all scored goals.
- With one match remaining for all six teams in the Colorado Cup, CU is in sole possession of first place and a win against Denver on Sept. 17 will clinch the fifth Colorado Cup for the Buffs.

Below are the past champions (with Colorado's finish in parenthesis)

Year	Team	Points
2011	Colorado	6
2012	Colorado	4
2013	Denver	6 (Colorado-2nd)
2014	Colorado	9
2015	Colorado	7

International Flavor

- The Buffs have five international players on their roster this season, the most ever in school history.
- Through two matches, CU's international players have combined for one goal, two assists and 16 shot attempts.
- Last season, CU had three international players and prior to last season, the most it had ever had was two.
- Junior transfer Hannah Scheid, who will have to sit out this season due to NCAA eligibility rules, is the first Buff to come from Germany.
- Sophomore Sarah Kinzner and freshman Camilla Shymka

both hail from Calgary, Alberta, and are members of the Canada U-20 National Team.

- Senior Kahlia Hogg and sophomore Isobel Dalton are both natives of Australia.

Spring Recap

- CU finished the spring with a 4-0-2 record, defeating Air Force (1-0), Denver (2-1), Colorado College (1-0) and Nebraska (3-1), and tying Northern Colorado (1-1) and South Dakota State (1-1).
- Spring goal scorers: Erin Greening 3, Danica Evans 2, Stephanie Zuniga 2, Sarah Kinzner 1, Joss Orejel 1
- Evans also had two assists
- Scout Watson and Jalen Tompkins split time in goal

Hogg Returns

- Kahlia Hogg is back for her senior season after missing the majority of last season with an injury.
- She started the first six matches last season and led CU to a 4-1-1 record during that time, but the Buffs went 3-9-2 without her in the lineup over the final 14 matches.

National Team Experience

- Colorado has 13 players who have been involved with youth and women's national teams.

United States

- Emily Bruder (U-14, U-17, U-18, U-20)
- Danica Evans (U-17 player pool, U-18 player pool)
- Taylor Kornieck (U-15, U-18)
- Megan Massey (U-15)
- Morgan Stanton (U-14 player pool, U-17)
- Jalen Tompkins (U-15, U-16, U-17)
- Alex Vidger (U-20 training camp)
- Stephanie Zuniga (U-15 training camp, U-18 player pool)

Australia

- Isobel Dalton (U-15-16, U-17)
- Kahlia Hogg (U-17, U-19, U-20)

Canada

- Sarah Kinzner (U-17, U-20)
- Camilla Shymka (U-20)

Mexico

- Joss Orejel (U-17, U-20)

BOLD indicates current team member

National Team Notes

- Kornieck traveled to England in July for two matches and training with the U-18 Women's National Team and started both matches against England.
- Kinzner started all five matches for Canada at the 2015 CONCACAF U-20 Championship in Honduras and scored two goals (one against Trinidad & Tobago and one against Jamaica), helping Canada reach the finals (United States won 1-0). (more details below)
- Shymka also competed for Canada at the 2015 CONCACAF U-20 Championship in Honduras and played in two matches as a reserve, totaling 27 minutes on the pitch.

Kinzner Shines at CONCACAF Championship

- Sarah Kinzner competed for Canada at the 2015 CONCACAF Women's U-20 Championship in Honduras in December.
- Kinzner started all five matches and scored two goals, leading Canada to the finals against the United States.
- Canada qualified for the 2016 U-20 World Cup by finishing in the top three (Canada lost 1-0 to the United States in the finals).

Team Award Winners

- Below are last season's team award winners:
- Offensive MVP: Danica Evans (scored five goals and had three assists, starting 19 of 20 matches)
- Defensive MVP: Madison Krauser (had four assists and started all 20 matches)
- Freshman of the Year: Sarah Kinzner (scored one goal and had two assists in 20 starts)
- Academic Award: Kate Scheele (3.89 GPA, also 1.14 GAA and .747 save percentage in 16 starts as the team's goalkeeper)
- Sports Performance Award: Kenzie Tillitt (recognized as the team's hardest worker in the weight room and conditioning drills by the sports performance staff)

Newcomers Making an Impact

- Last season, freshmen Erin Greening, Sarah Kinzner,

Brooklyn Varnadore, Alex Vidger and Stephanie Zuniga along with Portland transfer Danica Evans each stepped up, playing important roles this season, whether starting or coming off the bench.

- The group of newcomers combined for 50 starts, nine goals, five assists and 106 shot attempts, or 38 percent of the team's goals and 39 percent of the team's shots.
- Redshirt freshman Scout Watson started four of the final seven matches in goal and had a 1.89 GAA and .529 save percentage on the season in six appearances.
- In two matches so far this season, four newcomers have started each of the first two matches and newcomers have combined for one goal and 25 shot attempts.

Recent Returning Starters In Past Decade

- Colorado returns five starters this season and in the four previous seasons when the Buffs have returned seven or fewer starters, they have reached the NCAA Tournament twice and have averaged 11 wins.
- When CU has had to replace its goalkeeper from the previous season, the Buffs have made the NCAA Tournament two out of four times and have averaged 11.3 wins.
- When CU returns its top scorer or a player who has tied for the team lead in goals the previous season, the Buffs have made the NCAA Tournament four out of seven times and have averaged 10.1 wins.

STORYLINES

Community Involvement (Photos and video are available of the EFAA project and Special Olympics clinic)

- CU has volunteered with the Emergency Family Assistance Association (EFAA) in Boulder several times during the past year.
- Each time the team has helped out wherever needed, including assembling a playground for kids, cleaning storage rooms, yard work, organizing apartments for families to live in, and organizing the food pantry.
- EFAA provides assistance to help cover rent, utility bills, minor medical needs and transportation for underprivileged families, along with assisting with basic family needs, housing, case management to help families be self-sufficient, and has programs for children to minimize the effects of homelessness.
- CU and all teams involved in the Colorado Cup partnered with Special Olympics Colorado on Saturday, Aug. 20 with a clinic.

extended CU's unbeaten streak to 13 matches in season-openers with shutouts in 10 of those ... Kinzner's goal was the latest in CU history in the first half (three seconds before half) ... Vidger's goal was the first of her career ... CU outshot AF 16-4 ... Zuniga's assist was the first of her career ... match was delayed 1:45 before kickoff due to lightning

Aug. 21	Colorado State	W	2-1	2-0-0	0-0-0	Prentup Field	1,567	Watson (45-1-1) Tompkins (45-0-1)	Kornieck (6:42/Kinzner) Evans (66:15/Zuniga)
---------	----------------	---	-----	-------	-------	---------------	-------	--------------------------------------	---

Kornieck's goal was the first of her career... CU outshot CSU 29-5 ... only twice last season did CU hold an opponent to five or fewer shots, but the team has now done it in the first two matches of the season ... Colorado's 29 shot attempts were the most since attempting 30 in a 4-1 win over Tennessee-Martin in 2013 ... it is the fourth consecutive season a freshman has scored in the home opener as Kornieck joins Greening (2015), Brittney Stark (2014) and Brie Hooks (2013) ... the goal CU allowed in the first half was the first goal allowed in a home opener in 754 minutes and 19 seconds (the last goal allowed in a home opener was in 2008 against Florida) ... CU improved to 16-4-1 all-time in home openers with its last loss coming in 2003 (13-match unbeaten streak) ... CU improved to 2-0 on the season for the sixth time ever and third time in Sanchez's fifth season

COLORADO CUP HISTORY

How the Colorado Cup Works:

Although all teams do not play each other, a champion is awarded based on overall record in the competition. Each team has three designated Colorado Cup games as agreed on by the six participating programs with one of those games designated as a rivalry game to finish off the cup competition after the first weekend. Similar to the World Cup, teams are awarded three points for a win and one point for a tie. If the teams are tied on points, the first tiebreaker will be goal differential, followed by goals scored.
