Copyright © 2017, University of Colorado (December 20, 2017)

QUICKLY

It's the first-ever early signing period for football, as the 2018 edition of national letter-of-intent day is now in two parts: the first wave is December 20-22 (7 a.m.-11:59 p.m. local time) and the traditional February date (Feb. 7). High school seniors around the nation were allowed to sign on the dotted line starting at 7:00 a.m. local time on December 20 ... Signed letters are express mailed in, but can be confirmed by FAX or digitally ... The team total cannot exceed 85 scholarships, or a maximum 25 qualifiers any single year (more can sign if a school can count some early enrollees back) ... The list of signees is on the back page of this packet and biographies within.

Here's a look at the preliminary spring numbers when taking a look at the 2018 University of Colorado football roster:

Base Roster (96 players/68 scholarship)— 22 seniors (15 fifth-year), 23 juniors, 24 sophomores, 27 freshmen (25 redshirt/2 true).

THE NUMBERS GAME

Colorado currently has 68 players on scholarship, so with 19 signing, that has CU at the moment two above the NCAA maximum of 85; however, the Buffs have plenty of time to be in compliance due to several factors (attrition, injury, etc.), but have also utilized the "grayshirt" rule where players have chosen to delay their enrollment and thus count ahead to the next class (or the previous one in there is attrition). The latter has occurred with seven players over the last four recruiting classes.

TWO SET TO TRANSFER

Two players have been granted releases to transfer, sophomore WR Johnny Huntley and senior WR Lee Walker. In Walker's case, he is graduating this week and can go anywhere that offers a major field of study that CU doesn't offer. Both saw very limited action at their position but were on several special team units.

RECRUITING REVIEW

Over the past 46 years, the bulk of CU's recruits have come primarily from three states: California (270), Colorado (257) and Texas (137). The below is a look at CU's high school only recruiting numbers since 1973, the first class where students knew they would be able to participate as freshmen. It includes signed recruits who might not have reported to campus for whatever reason, unless that player signed again and counted toward a subsequent class; this prevents double counting. (NDP*—how many members of the class were future NFL draft picks; 1 in every 6.4 CU recruits from 1973-2011 were drafted into the pros, 129 of 834; some seniors from '16 were in '12 class, so number will be updated later this spring):

*—Fairbanks did not become head coach until April 4, 1979; Cortese coordinated recruiting in the interim. In this time frame, 28 percent of all Buffalo high school recruits have come from California, 27 percent from Colorado and 14 percent from Texas. (#)—denotes high school players that counted toward previous class (grayshirts; not included in that year's class).
