THE BUFFALOES: Colorado will be looking for win No. 1,300 in program history. The Buffaloes are 1,299-1,198 in their 116th season of competition.

Colorado improved to 5-1 and has won three straight after an 86-80 win over Colorado State on Dec. 1. Colorado has scored at least 79 points in five out of six games, in large part due to its second half success. The Buffaloes are averaging 50.5 points on shooting 57.7 percent from the field during the second half this season. Against Colorado State, the Buffaloes scored 57 second-half points, tying their season high for the most in any one half. Colorado has scored 50-plus points in the second half in four of six games and the last three.

Wins over Air Force and Portland marked the first time the Buffaloes have scored 90 or more points in back-to-back games since Jan.

Colorado is averaging 90.2 points in its five wins.

The Buffaloes have shot 50.4 percent over the first six games, including 39.6 percent from 3-point range, ranking highly among the nation's best. The Buffaloes are 18th in overall field goal percentage while ranking 33rd in 3-point percentage.

Colorado tops the Pac-12 in scoring margin (+15.7), field goal percentage and rebounding defense (29.5 rpg) and ranks second in scoring (85.8 ppg), rebounding margin (+11.0) and 3-point percentage and third in overall rebounding (40.5 rpg), defensive rebounds (30.5 drpg) and 3-point field goals (8.8 3mpg).

Defensively, Colorado is allowing 70.2 points per game while opponents are shooting 42.5 percent from the field.

Sophomore guard McKinley Wright IV paces the Buffaloes at 14.8 points, 6.0 assists and 1.7 steals per game. He had 18 points and tied his personal-best with 11 assists in the win over CSU. It was Wright's fifth career double-double and fourth of the points-assists variety. His 11 assists, which he achieved twice last season, mark his fourth game with double-figure assists, ranking fifth in CU history.

Wright scored a season-high 22 points against Portland, his seventh career game reaching the 20-point mark. After enduring a three-game stretch where he made 9 of 24 (.375), Wright has rebounded to make 15 of his last 23 attempts from the field (.652).

He is averaging 17.0 points and 9.3 rebounds over the last three games and has his first two career double-doubles in his last two outings.

Siewert had 16 points against CSU and, for the second-straight game, achieved his personal best of 10 rebounds. his free throw attempts, finishing with 17 points.

He has made 32 of his last 56 3-point attempts dating back to last season (.571). On the Pac-12 charts, Siewert is third in 3-pointers made (2.3 3mpg) and 3-point percentage, fifth in overall shooting percentage, 13th in rebounding and 16th in scoring.

Sophomore Tyler Bey leads Colorado at 7.7 rebounds and 1.7 blocks per game while ranking third in scoring at 11.5 points an outing. Bey had a career-high 23 points in the win over CSU to go along with 10 rebounds. It was his third career double-double and first of the season.

Bey set personal bests for free throws made and attempted by going 9 for 9 against CSU. It was the best single-game performance, without a miss, for the Buffaloes this season and best since Derrick White was 12 of 12 at Arizona State in January 2017.

On the Pac-12 leaderboard he is sixth in free throw percentage (.857), seventh in blocks and defensive rebounds (5.8 drpg) and eighth in overall rebounding.

Senior guard Namon Wright is fourth on the team in both scoring (10.7 ppg) and rebounding (4.3 rpg) while shooting 55 percent from the field and 48 percent from 3-point range. In the Pac-12 he ranks seventh in 3-point shooting, ninth in overall field goal percentage and 15th in 3-pointers made (1.8 3mpg).

Junior guard Shane Gatling has started his first six games for the Buffaloes, averaging 9.3 points per contest. He scored 13 points vs. CSU, his best in a Colorado uniform. Gatling is third on the team in free throws made and attempted with 15 of 19, ranking 12th in the Pac-12 in percentage (.789).

Freshman forward Evan Battey is averaging 8.7 points and 4.2 rebounds while shooting 51.2 percent. Over the last two games, he has hit 58 percent, making 11 of his last 19. Battey had 10 points and five rebounds against Portland.

Battey is playing his first meaningful regular season games since his junior year of high school in the spring of 2016. He had eight points on 3 of 6 shooting with one rebound, steal, block and assist in his collegiate debut vs. Drake.

Sophomore wing D'Shawn Schwartz is averaging 5.6 points and is one of six Buffaloes averaging at least three rebounds a game. Schwartz shook off early foul trouble at Air Force to finish with 11 points, his fourth career double-figure game. He made a strong season debut against Omaha. Schwartz registered career highs with 15 points and seven rebounds. Junior guard Deleon Brown is averaging 4.4 points per game while shooting 40 percent from the field. He had five points with two assists and two rebounds against Portland..

Sophomore forward Alexander Strating grabbed a personal-best six rebounds at Air Force. He had just eight rebounds in his previous eight career games. Daylen Kountz and Eli Parquet, members of Colorado's 2018 signing class, have been gaining valuable early minutes. Kountz enjoyed his first collegiate double-figure scoring game with 11 points on 5 of 6 shooting at Air Force. He is second on the team in assists with 12 (2.0 apg). Parquet is averaging 2.8 points and has hit 4 of his 7 3-point attempts and is one of seven Buffs with at least two blocked shots.

ABOUT THE COYOTES: South Dakota is 4-3 overall, coming off a 68-56 home win over CSU Bakersfield on Dec. 1. This will be just the second true road contest for the Coyotes, the other a 63-57 setback at Baylor on Nov. 17. South Dakota is averaging 67.7 points per game while shooting 43 percent from the field and 74 percent from the free throw line. Defensively, the Coyotes allow only 61.1 points while opponents shoot 42 percent from the floor. South Dakota's defense also averages 9.0 steals per game and has a plus-3.7 turnover margin.

Senior forward Trey Burch-Manning leads South Dakota at 16.3 points and 7.1 rebounds per game while hitting 56 from the field. He tops the Coyotes in 3-point shooting at 63.6 percent (14-22). Junior guard Triston Simpson leads USD in assists (2.9 apg) and is second in scoring at 13.7 points per game. Junior guard Tyler Peterson is second on the team in both rebounds (5.6 rpg) and assists (2.3 apg) while ranking third in scoring at 11.0 point an outing.

Todd Lee is in his first season as the head coach at South Dakota with a record of 4-3. Lee is in his ninth year as a head coach at the collegiate level, with a mark of 158-84.

SERIES RECORDS: This will be the first meeting between Colorado and South Dakota, a member of the Summit League. Colorado has taken on one other Summit League opponent already this season, a 79-75 win over Omaha. Outside its 58-25 series lead over Denver, Colorado is 4-0 against other current Summit League opponents.

RARE TRIO-DOUBLE: Colorado had three players record double-doubles in the win over Colorado State.

Tyler Bey, 23 points (career high), 10 rebounds

Lucas Siewert, 16 points, 10 rebounds (tied career high)

McKinley Wright IV, 18 points, 11 assists (tied career high)

It was the first time Colorado had three players with double-doubles in the same game since Feb. 22, 2003, an 89-68 home win over Missouri.

David Harrison, 15 points, 11 rebounds

Stephane Pelle, 18 points, 18 rebounds

Michel Morandais, 17 points, 10 assists

OFFENSE SOARS AT AIR FORCE: Colorado's 93 points at Air Force was its most in a true road game since scoring 98 in a triple-overtime win at USC on Jan. 29, 2015. It was the most in regulation since a 104-95 loss at Texas on Feb. 9, 2002. The Buffaloes made 14 3-point field goals at Air Force (29 attempts), tying for the fifth-most in a single game in team history and matching their best-ever total on the road. Colorado also had 14 at New Mexico on March 15, 1995, in the Postseason NIT

NONCONFERENCE NUMBERS: Colorado is 81-27 (.750) in non-conference regular season games under head coach Tad Boyle including a mark of 34-10 (.773) over the past three-plus seasons. The Buffaloes were 8-4 during the non-league slate in 2017-18.

Colorado's best nonconference record under Boyle is 11-2, achieved twice. First in 2013-14 and then again in 2015-16. Both seasons ended with NCAA Tournament berths. Boyle also had an 11-win nonconference schedule in 2010-11, his first year at Colorado, as the Buffaloes were 11-4 before beginning their final season in the Big 12 Conference.

ROAD BUFFS: Colorado will play three true road games during the nonconference schedule in 2018-19, and potentially a fourth. After opening with two at home, Colorado played back-to-back at San Diego (Nov. 20) and Air Force (Nov. 24) and will head to New Mexico (Dec. 11).

Colorado is one of just 15 schools from the Power 5 and Big East Conferences to have at least three true road games scheduled before conference play. Stanford leads everyone with four.

If Colorado and Hawai'i have the same result in their respective first round games at the Diamond Head Classic, then the Buffaloes will meet the Warriors on their home floor and join Stanford with a fourth road game.

WRIGHT ALREADY MOVING UP IN CAREER ASSISTS: Sophomore McKinley Wright IV had 175 assists in 32 games as a freshman which not only set Colorado's freshman record for assists in a season but was the second-best overall season mark in team history since the category became an official statistic in 1974-75.

With three assists against Portland, he became the 28th player in team history to reach 200. He is currently 25th on CU's all-time list and 18 away from reaching the career Top 20.

Colorado Career Assists:

Rk.	Player	Years	Assists
20.	Lynn Baker	1963-67	229
21.	Spencer Dinwiddie	2011-14	227
22.	Dominique Collier	2014-18	221
23.	Nick Mohr	1998-02	219
24.	Michael Lee	1984-88	213
25.	McKinley Wright IV	2017-present	211

Wright's 5.5 assists per game in 2017-18 ranked as the seventh-best single-season average in team history. His current pace, at 5.6 per game, would put him atop list for career average at Colorado. Billy Law currently holds that mark at 5.3 per game from 1990-92.

Wright has four double-figure assists games each resulting in points-assists double-doubles. His three points-assists double-doubles last year tied the school single-season record previously set by Jay Humphries (1982-83 and '83-84) and Toney Ellis (1976-77). Humphries holds the career mark in that category with six.

Wright's four games with 10-plus assists are the fifth most in team history. Humphries holds the record with seven from 1980-84.

RIGHT AT HOME: Colorado has won 37 of its last 44 and 47 of 55 in the friendly confines of the CU Events Center. In the Tad Boyle era, Colorado is a sparkling 117-22 at the CU Events Center (.842). The Buffaloes are 430-173 (.713) all-time at the CEC. Colorado has won at least 10 games at home each of the last nine seasons.

FOR OPENERS: Colorado improved to 81-35 (.698) in all-time season openers, regardless of location. The Buffaloes are 7-2 under Boyle and 34-5 in overall season openers since the 1980-81 season. The Buffaloes are 92-24 all-time in home openers and have won their last 11, making Boyle a perfect 9-0 in home openers. The Buffaloes have won 16 of their last 17.

The Buffaloes' 100 points were their most in a season-opening game since a 113-89 win over Cal State Northridge on Nov. 23, 1990. It was Colorado's most points in regulation since defeating Oregon, 100-91, on Jan. 5, 2014. The Buffaloes scored 112 last season in a double-overtime win over South Dakota State.

Colorado shot 58.9 percent from the floor (33 for 56), its best mark since hitting 59.2 (29 for 49) against Arizona State on March 1, 2015.

LATE START? NOT REALLY: While the majority of college basketball tipped off on Nov. 6, Colorado waited a full week to begin its season on Nov. 13. In fact, the Buffaloes were the last NCAA Division I team to officially tip off their season. There was no rhyme or reason to the later opening date, other than that's the way the Buffaloes' opponents and their open dates fell. Furthermore, Colorado plays three of its games between Dec. 22-25, at the Diamond Head Classic in Honolulu, when much of the country has wrapped up their nonconference schedule the previous week.

But is it really unique to start on that late of a calendar date? Not really. In fact, Colorado started one day later, Nov. 14, just four years ago, beginning with a 65-48 home win over Drexel to tip off the 2014-15 campaign. That season, the Buffaloes also played in the Diamond Head Tournament over the Christmas holiday.

AGAINST RANKED TEAMS: Colorado was 2-4 against ranked opponents last season highlighted by a sweep of No. 4 (AP)/6 (Coaches) Arizona State and No. 14/16 Arizona, January 4 & 6.

Colorado claimed wins over ranked teams in back-to-back outings for the first time since defeating #9 Missouri in Boulder and No. 21 Kansas State in Manhattan Jan 8 & 12, 2011. It's the first time in program history Colorado has defeated AP Top 15 teams in back-to-back games

Colorado's thrilling 90-81 overtime win Arizona State snapped a three-game skid and was Colorado's highest AP ranked win since defeating No. 3 Texas, 93-80, in Boulder on Feb. 4, 2003.

Colorado's 17 wins over ranked opponents in Boyle's eight seasons is by far the best streak in team history. In fact Boyle coached teams, with a record of 17-32, have accounted for 28 percent of wins over ranked opponents (61) since 1949-50.

WALTON TO MISS 2018-19: Redshirt sophomore forward/center Dallas Walton will miss the 2018-19 season after suffering a torn ACL in his right knee in October, during a preseason practice session.

Walton averaged 5.7 points, 3.4 rebounds and 1.1 blocks in just under 19 minutes per game as a freshman in 2017-18. He led Colorado with 34 blocked shots, ranking 10th in the Pac-12 Conference. All but seven of his blocks came during conference play, ranking sixth in the league during that span (1.4 bpg).

Walton took a redshirt year in 2016-17 in part to continue his rehabilitation and strength training after experiencing two ACL tears in his left knee in a 10-month span during his junior year of high school

COLORADO, ASU TO MEET IN 2019 PAC-12 CHINA GAME: Colorado will play a nonconference game against Arizona State in China, in November 2019.

The Buffaloes and Sun Devils will meet in the fifth edition of the Pac-12 China Game presented by Alibaba Group. Longtime Pac-12 partner Federation of University Sports of China (FUSC), which operates under China's Ministry of Education, will serve as the co-host for the game.

The matchup between Colorado and Arizona State, tentatively scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 9 and for national broadcast in both the U.S. and China, will not count as a conference contest. The teams are slated to meet only once during the 2019-20 Pac-12 regular season as part of the league's annual 18-game rotation model.

This will be the first time the Pac-12 China game has featured two conference teams. The previous editions, including this year's California-Yale contest, has had one Pac-12 team and one from another NCAA Division I conference.

The Pac-12 China Game is the flagship event of Pac-12 Global, designed to grow the global popularity of Pac-12 athletic programs and universities, fostering cultural exchange through sport, and creating unique educational experiences for Pac-12 student-athletes.

This will be the first intercollegiate regular season event for a Colorado Athletics program in China, or the Eastern Hemisphere for that matter. The Buffaloes have played in a handful of regular season events outside the United States. Both basketball programs have played in Puerto Rico; the men in 1998-99 and the women in 2005-06. Colorado's men's and women's golf teams have both competed Mexico and Puerto Rico, and the women will play a tournament in the Dominican Republic in March 2019.

Many Colorado student-athletes have taken advantage of out-of-season foreign tours or World University Games competitions over the last couple of decades. Nine Buffaloes that would be on next year's roster in China were part of the team's preseason foreign tour to Italy in August 2017.

BUFFS SEVENTH IN PRESEASON POLL: Colorado was picked to finish seventh in the annual Pac-12 Conference Preseason Media Poll.

The Buffaloes had 161 points, just behind Arizona State at 165. Oregon was picked to win the 2018-19 Pac-12 title with 288 points and 16 of 25 first place votes. UCLA was second (264) with six first place votes, Washington was third (249) with two first place votes. Arizona picked up the remaining first place vote and was picked fourth overall (205), just two votes ahead of USC.

Colorado returns nine letterwinners to a team that finished 17-15 and tied Arizona State for eighth place in the final 2017-18 Pac-12 standings at 8-10.

USAFA, Colo. – On an afternoon when Colorado's leading scorer was held in check in the points column and its leading rebounder was forced to exit early with an injury, the Buffaloes went to their "go-to-player" – the open man.

Colorado shot nearly 60 percent from the field and four players scored in double figures as the Buffaloes sprinted to a 93-56 win over Air Force Saturday at Clune Arena.

Junior forward Lucas Siewert led a career-high with 17 points to lead four double-digit scorers as Colorado emphatically put an end to a six-game losing streak in true road contests that dated back to last season.

Colorado drilled a season-high 14 3-pointers, hitting 48 percent beyond the arc. Namon Wright had 13 points while D'Shawn Schwartz and Daylen Kountz each had 11.

Leading scorer McKinley Wright IV was held to five points, but dished out five assists and grabbed six rebounds. Tyler Bey played only seven minutes after taking a rough fall on his right shoulder on an alley oop attempt in the first half and did not return.

Step up Siewert, and the rest of the Buffaloes whose depth took center stage. "The go-to-guy on this team is the open man," Colorado head coach Tad Boyle said. "Some nights we're going to need McKinley to score for us and other nights he needs to distribute for us. He rebounded the ball well, especially when Tyler went out."

Siewert was a perfect 6 of 6 from the field, including three from 3-point range. He also matched his personal best with eight rebounds.

HOW IT HAPPENED: Boyle implored his team to put the foot down on the gas pedal, and keep it there. Minus a brief lapse late in the first half, the Buffaloes did just that.

Colorado came out firing from long range, making five of its first six 3-point attempts to build an early 17-4 lead in the first six minutes. Siewert made two of those, with another coming from Bey, the first of his career.

Colorado's first seven field goals were all 3-pointers. Air Force missed 13 of its first 16 shots, which allowed the Buffs to run. When they did, they moved the ball fast, and well, which led to open looks.

After the early success outside, the Buffaloes began to attack the paint. Evan Battey scored a pair of baskets on post moves and Kountz had a driving layup to give Colorado a 33-18 advantage.

The Falcons made a run toward the end of the first half, after the Buffs had cooled off. Air Force used an 8-0 run to trim CU's lead to seven at 33-26 with 1:31 left in the half.

McKinley Wright IV ended that run with a driving layup with just under a minute left. He finished off the half with a free throw and Colorado's was back up to double digits, 36-26.

Once the second half started, Colorado put down the gas pedal, and left it on for good. The Buffaloes opened on an 18-3 run and doing so at an incredibly efficient pace. Colorado missed its first field goal attempt of the period, but made its next 12 before its next miss.

Schwartz, who played limited minutes early with two quick fouls, began the run with five straight points. From there the floodgates opened. Colorado scored on six of its next seven possessions, culminating with a Siewert steal and coast-to-coast dunk that gave Colorado its largest lead of the game at 55-29.

Gatling hit a pair of 3-pointers, his second capping off Colorado's string of 12-straight made field goals and gave the Buffaloes a 64-38 advantage with 10:19 remaining in the game. Colorado ended up shooting 73.3 percent in the second half (22-30) alone and totaled 18 assists on 34 baskets overall.

BOULDER — Colorado coach Tad Boyle is a firm believer that good defense leads to a productive offense.

The Buffs (4-1) followed that recipe Wednesday night, breaking open a tight game in the second half to run away with a 93-69 win over Portland (5-4) at the CU Events Center. Junior Lucas Siewert scored 18 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for his first career double-double and McKinley Wright IV added 22 points and seven rebounds for the Buffs.

The Buffs finished with five players in double figures, with Evan Battey (10 points, five rebounds), Tyler Bey (12 points, six rebounds) and Shane Gatling (11 points) joining Siewert and Wright. It was Wright's seventh career 20-point game, and the first time in five games thus far that the Buffs have surpassed the 90-point mark.

Josh McSwiggan led Portland with 22 points.

Siewert scored 15 of his 18 points in the first half to keep the Buffs in what was a close game for the first 20 minutes. Wright scored 15 of his 22 after halftime, igniting a 16-1 run that broke open a 51-51 tie game and ultimately sparking a 28-4 surge that turned the game into a rout.

HOW IT HAPPENED: Colorado led by just three at the half, 39-36, after allowing the Pilots to shoot 48 percent from the field (15-for-31). That included a 10-for-14 stretch that led to a 20-7 Portland run that erased a 12-point CU lead.

But following a halftime talk from Boyle, the Buffs produced a much better effort on the defensive end in the second half, which in turn led to an offensive outburst that put the game away. Colorado broke away from a 51-51 tie with 14 minutes to go with a 16-1 run, then built the lead to as much as 32 late in the game.

"I got after them pretty good at halftime and they responded in the second half," Boyle said. "One of the things we talked about at halftime is they have to take ownership of what we're trying to do defensively and I felt like they really did in the second half. It started with McKinley but it didn't end with McKinley. We got some really good defensive possessions, broke the game open, and had a runaway."

Wright started the 16-1 run with a 3-pointer, then added a pair of free throws less than 30 seconds later. Bey added six points in the run and Namon Wright had four, including a steal and breakout dunk.

"Vintage McKinley Wright," Boyle said. "He just says, 'OK guys, it's time to get this train moving,' and the train starts moving."

Fueling the run was a CU defensive effort that held the Pilots without a field goal for more than four minutes.

"Once we get stops, we get out in transition and that's when we're at our best," McKinley Wright said. "We're trying to focus on defense this year. We're one of the best teams in the country when we get out and run."

Colorado finished with a 25-11 edge in fast-break points while shooting 48.4 percent from the field (31-for-64) to go with a commanding 44-27 edge on the boards. The Pilots, meanwhile, shot just 37.5 percent from the field after halftime and finished 27-for-63 from the field.

Siewert continued to be a weapon inside and out, hitting two of his four 3-point tries to go along with three baskets inside and six free throws.

The Buffs threatened to break the game open in the first half, going on a 15-3 run to take a 26-14 lead with just more than nine minutes to go in the period. Siewert, McKinley Wright and Deleon Brown all had 3-pointers in the surge.

But just when it looked like the Buffs might blow the game open, their defense went south. The Pilots battled back with a 20-7 run to take a 34-33 lead with just under two minutes to go, hitting 10 of 14 field goal attempts in the burst.

Colorado finally recovered to regain the lead and take a 39-36 edge at intermission.
