Program Quick Notes: The 2019 season will be the 130th of intercollegiate football at Colorado (and the 150th anniversary for college football overall); CU is 705-508-36 all-time, 25th in overall wins and 36th in winning percentage (.579) ... Colorado played five bowl teams in 2018; opponents combined for a 70-80 record (FBS foes were 66-73) ... With the 2019 opener against Colorado State in Denver set for Friday, Aug. 30, the Buffaloes will open the season with a non-Saturday game for the seventh straight year (two Thursday, four Friday and one Sunday since 2012) ... It will be just the ninth game in August in program history ... Colorado has had its last 101 games televised nationally or regionally, upping its total to 279 (out of 358) dating back to 1990 (78%); 62 of CU's last 68 regular season non-conference games (92%) have also been on the tube ... CU has been ranked 304 times in its history, the 26th most all-time... Since 1989, CU has played the seventh most ranked teams in the nation (135), trailing Alabama (153), Florida (152), LSU (150), Ohio State (142), Michigan (141) and Florida State (136) ... CU's 45 wins over ranked teams dating back to '89 are the 20th most in the nation (fifth in the Pac-12, behind USC 69, Oregon 55, Washington 52 and UCLA 51); all-time, Colorado's 68 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history ... Through the Fall '18 semester, the team owned a 2.64 cumulative grade point average and has 16 straight semesters over a 2.5 for the term (data collected since 1996).

STAFF CHANGES Mike MacIntyre was dismissed after six seasons coaching the Buffaloes on Nov. 18, 2018; his teams were 30-44 overall and 14-39 in Pac-12 Conference games. Mel Tucker was then named the 26th head coach in Colorado history on Dec. 5. Tucker brought several of his colleagues from the University of Georgia to fill out his first-ever coaching staff, but did retain three assistants off MacIntyre's staff: Darrin Chiaverini, Ross Els and Darian Hagan. Also remaining on staff are Bryan McGinnis and Scott Unrein (football operations), graduate assistants Dalmin Gibson and Jack Harris, recruiting assistant Cory Hall and the entire strength and conditioning staff under Drew Wilson. (All but one coach who were not retained from the previous staff have found other full-time positions: Mike MacIntyre (Ole Miss), Klayton Adams (Indianapolis Colts), Gary Bernardi (San Diego State), Kwahn Drake and D.J. Eliot (Kansas) and Kurt Roper (N.C. State; Ashley Ambrose is the remaining coach.))

Colorado has 63 lettermen returning for 2019 (62 from the 2018 team, one from 2017); they break down into 30 on offense, 27 on defense and six specialists; the Buffs lose 26 lettermen off the 2018 squad (12 offense/13 defense/1 specialist). CU returns 14 starters from last season (8 offense/6 defense), losing nine (4 offense/6 defense); two players started six games each on defense, so the starter count is based off 12 players instead of the standard 11. The 2018 starters are listed in bold (six or more starts); *—denotes letters earned primarily on special teams. The breakdown:

- PRACTICE ACCESS (MEDIA & PUBLIC): Most spring practices are generally closed; admittance to high school coaches, former players, staff members and donors and sponsors (accompanied by appropriate CU staff) is allowed, provided they register with the football operations office in advance.
- SPRING POLICIES: Media members must wear their CU season credential for any open practices (anyone taking notes or photos must be credentialed media); no cell phones, pets, camera phones, video cameras or pets permitted. Other restrictions may take effect if the weather forces the team indoors.
- PLAYER INTERVIEWS. There is availability after practice (SID personnel are on hand to coordinate). All player interviews must be requested through the SID office (and as always, it is the player's prerogative to grant or not); the SID staff will coordinate interviews at other times of day. The interview window post-practice is generally 15-20 minutes; remember, the players have to shower, change, eat and then have classes either at Noon or 1 p.m. Freshmen are off limits for interviews until the season (non-football requests at the discretion of the head coach).
- PRO-TIMING DAY (March 6; afternoon session with 2018 seniors). Media members who wish to attend need to pre-register with the sports information office.
- CELL PHONE POLICY: Cell phone activity at any practice (other than the spring game) by the media and public is prohibited inside authorized areas during practices. This includes calls, text messaging and live blogging as well as transmissions to social networking sites (Twitter, Facebook, etc.).
- PHOTOGRAPHY RULES: Credentialed photographers will be allowed photo access for about 20 minutes of all practices (longer for open scrimmages, no time constraints); this will usually be somewhere between 8:20-9:00. CU's standard photography guidelines must be utilized (no wide shots to show formations or recording of quarterback cadences; up close and tight as in the fall, and coaches may request additional plays or other things not be filmed or photographed).

PRE-SPRING Q & A WITH MEL TUCKER

March 11, 2018 (from press conference)

Opening Comments

"We are right at the end of our fourth quarter strength and conditioning program which is a nine-week program. I think in the past, the team has worked out for maybe four or five weeks and then started spring ball. One of the first things I wanted to do when I got here was to push spring ball back as far as possible to give us enough time to get these guys in shape. We have done that. Drew (Wilson) has done a great job with the strength and conditioning. When the coaches came off the road from recruiting, the coaches got involved also. The team has really shaped up. They look like they are in really good condition. I think we will be able to have a very efficient and effective spring ball, so I am very excited about that. We are still going to practice in the morning in spring ball and also in the fall. I am really excited to get started. I love to coach, and I finally get a chance to get my hands on these guys, roll up my sleeves and see what they can do. I get to coach, teach, motivate, and develop. That's what it's all about. I can't wait for spring ball to start."

On QB Steven Montez

"I feel like you have to recruit all of your players on a daily basis. That is my philosophy. I did meet with Steven. We had a great conversation. I told him that I thought he had a chance to be a really great player and that I want to be a part of his career. I told him I wanted him to be here and he said that's what he wanted to do as well. It has worked out well so far."

On What He's Seen From The Team During Strength & Conditioning Sessions

"I really like the way they finish. That's as the biggest thing that I wanted, was to make sure was that every drill had a defined start and every drill had a finish. I wanted to make sure the guys were straining to finish the drills and they have done that each and every day. They have pushed each other to do that. They have gotten better every week. I actually see a transformation in their bodies because of what we have done in the weight room and what we have done in our running program. I think they have responded well. The guys are always enthusiastic – ready to go. We work out in the morning. We start at 7 a.m. Everyone is there early and ready to work. That is really all you can ask. These guys will do pretty much anything you ask them to. They are really eager. They are pleasers and they are hungry."

On What His Goals Are For Spring Practice

"On both sides of the ball and on special teams, we want to get our core schemes installed. That's going to allow us to do what we want to do scheme-wise in the fall. We have to get those things installed. Then every player going into spring ball is going to be at a certain point, and I want each and every player to come out of spring ball better than when they came in. That's development, that's improvement, that's learning the schemes, things like that. We have to learn how to practice. Our tempo is going to be fast. Our goal is to always have the practices be harder than the games and in order to do that, you have to learn how to practice. It's not natural to practice at game speed every single rep, but that's what we're going to do. We'll probably have to build up to that, but at the end of spring ball, I want to make sure everyone knows how to work, how to practice. I want to know who can play. If you try to do too much scheme wise, especially the first year with a new staff, you'll come out of spring talking about what guys can't do and what they don't know, instead of saying, 'this is what they know and this what they can do.' That's what I want to make sure is that we know what type of team we have coming out of spring ball."

On Being Visible At Various Events Around Campus

"I enjoy athletics. I enjoy young people. I just really think it's important for me to get to know as many people as I can, to be approachable and be accessible. That is what I'm here for. Obviously, I'm here to win football games, but I really believe I am here to serve the state of Colorado, this university and community in any way I can. I am going to be anywhere I can be. I am enthusiastic about it. I think it is a blessing and a privilege to be able to participate at this university."

On First Spring As A Head Coach

"I've been so through many springs in college and pro ball. I know that this first spring I want to establish the culture on the field. How we practice, how we prepare, how we work. Although we have to get our schemes installed on both sides of the ball and I want to make sure that we're putting our guys in position every day where they can be evaluated, and we can find out who can play. This is really important because this is really phase two of what we have to do. Phase one was nine weeks of strengthening and conditioning, and then phase three will be our summer program. We need to make sure that when we come out of the spring game that we know, at every position, what every guy is capable of doing and what we every guy has to do to get better so we can have a really good summer."

On How Hands-On He Will Be As A Head Coach

"I'll be hands on. I'm very enthusiastic in practice, I like to make sure that I set the tempo for the coaches and the players, so I'll do that. But I also have to make sure that the practices run smoothly, so practice organization is a big part of what I have to do. I have to make sure that the coaches can coach and that we're efficient and effective. Obviously, I'm going to get in the middle of it a little bit and that's what I enjoy doing. I want to make sure that the players feel me on the field."

On Process Of Building Camaraderie Among New Staff

"Communication, communication, communication – that's what it's all about. When you're getting to know someone, you have to talk. We meet and take every opportunity to find out more about coaches. I have an open-door policy, so any of my players or coaches can come into my office at any time and talk about whatever. I think that's a big part of it, you just have to take every day and take the opportunity to build a relationship and build trust. We're going to spend a lot of time together and we have to work together and work as a team. The closer your assistant coaches are and the more cohesive your staff is, that's going to carry over to your team, and that starts with me. I'm really excited about the staff that we have right now, great group of guys, hard workers, great teachers, and I just can't wait to get everybody out on the field for spring ball."

On Establishing A Culture

"It's huge. I think the two main factors in success are environment and expectations. A lot of that is culture. How we go about our business on a day to day basis? What are these standards? What are our goals? How do we work with each other? How do we compete? How do we handle a loss and a win in a drill? Those are things that we have to establish in the spring and then going into the summer we'll build on that and take it into the fall camp and then eventually into the season. Culture is huge."

On Evaluating Last Season's Tape Versus Giving Everyone Fresh Start

"I did a little bit of both. I went back and I've watched some games but I get more out of watching the workouts, how those guys compete in the drills and how those guys lift. I get a lot more out of that. Then I'm going to get a chance to see them play for 15 practices in spring ball. So I did do some research on some of the games they played, but I want these guys to have a clean slate. I want them to have a fresh start. The past, we're going to let it go. We're starting out clean."

On Offensive Line And Addition Of William Peagler As Offensive Quality Control Assistant

"I know Peags (William Peagler), he's a great coach, attention to detail, he's a loyal guy. He can really help us out on offense in a lot of ways. To have a strong offensive line is critical. To be able to run the ball and establish dominance in the trenches and also be able to protect our quarterback is huge. Same thing on defense, we want to be stout on the defensive line. We have to be able to stop the run and dominate the trenches on defense and then be able to get after the passer. I like to be able to get pressure with four guys. We'll work on that this spring."

On Leadership Emerging Through Offseason Workouts

"Overall, I've really been impressed with the way that they have been receptive to coaching, and aggressive coaching. Any time that we ask them to do something, they do it. It's a 'yes sir, no sir' group of guys which is a credit to their character. Our coaches have really worked hard to push the players every day to get better. It seems like the more you push them, the more they embrace it. I think that they welcome the challenge that we're presenting to them as a team. When we call them up at the end of practice, at the end of the session and I ask them to take a knee, I see a lot of heads nodding as I'm talking to them, not a lot of blank stares. I think that shows an element of buy-in. Obviously, we haven't had any real adversity yet, but I think this is a special group. I really like this team. There's something about this group of guys that I think is special, and we're going to work really hard and maximize our full potential."

On Maximizing Time He's Allowed To Spend With Team Prior To Spring Ball

"We have to use every minute we can because we're allowed to meet with our players, so we have a series of meetings, we have walk-throughs with them because we have to install our schemes on both sides of the ball. We have to be very organized because you don't have a lot of time, by rule. I think our coaches and coordinators have done a really good job organizing the offseason program, in terms of scheme, evaluations, development and teaching. Then [Director of Strength & Conditioning] Drew Wilson and his staff in the weight room, have done a fantastic job. They've taken it up a few notches. I've met with each and every player, including the walk-ons, for at least five or 10 minutes in my office, and they're all really excited about how we're working in the offseason program and what they're learning scheme-wise from our coaches in the meetings. I think it's been a productive winter. Now we need to take the next step, we got to get out on the grass and play football."

On Adversity In Spring Building Leaders

"Leaders are going to naturally emerge and we'll see who those guys are. I think you also have to grow leaders, you have to put people in position to lead and teach them how to lead. Initially it's going to be the coaches. The coaches are going to lead and then eventually the goal would be to have the players be the primary leaders. When you have a team where the leadership is strong on the player side of it that means you've got a really good football team. That's one of the things we want to do is, grow leaders, see which leaders emerge and take that into the summer."

On Colorado's Recruiting Footprint (from The Athletic)

"We're going to recruit in-state and try to keep our best players here. Then we're going to go into Utah, I think we can make some inroads there. We're going to recruit California, obviously, and Texas. And then we're going to recruit New Orleans, we're going to open up Georgia. We just have too many ties in Georgia, and there's a direct flight from Denver to Atlanta, so I think we can do that."

"You're not going to see me down in Dade and Broward Counties (Florida), like I used to be, trying to dig players out of there. We will recruit players from other areas if there is some type of connection. Say there's a kid in D.C. and maybe his dad played here or they used to live in Denver, or maybe there's a kid that's in Chicago that used to live in California and has relatives there. If there's some type of connection there, then by all means, we'll recruit them. But it's unrealistic to think that I'm going to go to Pennsylvania and Ohio and just recruit those guys like they're local."

"There's got to be some kind of connection. And I've got connections in a lot of these places — it might be personal relationships that I have or someone on my staff has. There might be a coach or parent who says, 'I want you to go play for Mel Tucker. I know Mel.' ... But other than that, we're going to focus on those main places I talked about."

HEAD COACH MEL TUCKER

Mel Tucker was named the 26th full-time head football coach at the University of Colorado on December 5, 2018. He came to CU from the University of Georgia, where he spent the previous three years as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach for the Bulldogs.

Tucker, 47, replaced Mike MacIntyre, who was dismissed as CU's head coach after coaching the Buffaloes for six seasons. This is his first collegiate head coaching position.

He is not the first to be hired at Colorado with no previous collegiate head coaching experience, though he does have five games in the National Football League as an interim head coach. In the modern era (post-World War II), he joins an impressive list in Dal Ward (1948), Sonny Grandelius (1959), Eddie Crowder (1963), Bill McCartney (1982), Rick Neuheisel (1995) and Jon Embree (2011) as full-time coaches who were previously assistants. McCartney, of course, went on to become CU's all-time winningest coach with a 93-55-5 record over 13 seasons, and all but Embree had winning records.

Tucker enjoyed a tremendous run at Georgia, where he was instrumental in the Bulldogs compiling a 32-9 record along with winning the school's first Southeastern Conference championship in 12 years when UGA defeated Auburn in the league's 2017 title game. One of the staff's top recruiters, 247Sports.com ranked him as the No. 14 recruiter in the nation based off the class he helped UGA sign ahead of the 2018 season.

Georgia's defense is currently ranked in the top 25 in several key categories, most notably in total defense (13th, 311.2 yards allowed per game), passing defense (15th, 180.5 per game) and scoring defense (15th, 18.5 points per outing).

In the 2018 SEC Championship game in which Alabama rallied to win, 35-28, his Bulldog defense held the Crimson Tide scoreless in the first quarter for the first time all season, forced a UA season-high four three-and-outs (in 12 possessions) and held its Heisman Trophy candidate, quarterback Tua Tagovailoa, to a season-worst 92.3 rating. His defenses were dialed in on third down, as the Tide was 8-of-25 in the last two games against UGA, dating back to the 2018 national championship game which Alabama also rallied to win, 26-23, in overtime.

In 2017, Tucker was part of the UGA staff that led the Bulldogs to a school record-tying 13 victories, along with the school's first SEC championship since 2005 and first appearances in the College Football Playoff (and victory, which was over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl/CFP semifinal game) and in the College Football Playoff Championship game. Georgia's defense finished second in the SEC and sixth nationally in both scoring defense (16.4 ppg) and in total defense (294.9 ypg), while also finishing second in the conference in rushing defense. One of his players, Roquan Smith, won the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker.

In his first year at UGA, Tucker guided a Bulldog defense that ranked among the nation's top 20 units in total defense, passing defense, turnovers gained and first down defense.

Tucker was named UGA defensive coordinator and secondary coach in January 2016, just days after winning a national championship with Alabama (which defeated Clemson 45-40 in the CFP title game). He spent that 2015 season serving as assistant head coach and defensive backs coach for the Crimson Tide, the third time he was hired by Nick Saban.

Saban gave Tucker his start in the coaching profession in 1997 when he hired him as a graduate assistant at Michigan State. He spent two seasons there, working with the defensive backs directly under another highly successful collegiate head coach in Mark Dantonio, who eventually would be named the Spartans' head coach.

Tucker spent the 1999 season as defensive backs coach at Miami (Ohio) under Coach Terry Hooppner. In 2000, Tucker returned to work with Saban at Louisiana State for one season before joining Jim Tressel's staff at Ohio State for the next four years (2001-04). While in Columbus, the Buckeyes went 14-0 in 2002 and won the BCS National Championship in a thrilling overtime win over Miami, Fla. In his last season there, Tucker was elevated to co-defensive coordinator. At Ohio State, he recruited four players who would eventually be first round NFL Draft selections and the 2006 Heisman Trophy winner, quarterback Troy Smith.

In 2005, an opportunity emerged for him to coach in the National Football League with his hometown Cleveland Browns. The team's new head coach, Romeo Crennel, had come over from his duties as New England's defensive coordinator and hired Tucker to coach the secondary. After three seasons tutoring the Browns' defensive backs, he was promoted to defensive coordinator. In that 2008 season, the Browns were second in the NFL with 23 interceptions and ranked 16th in scoring defense (21.9 points per game). For his four seasons overall with Cleveland, the Browns ranked fifth in the league with 73 interceptions, seventh in passing yards allowed and gave up the fourth-fewest completions of 25-plus yards.

Tucker moved on to the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2009, when Jack Del Rio hired him as his defensive coordinator and secondary coach; the following two years, he strictly coordinated the defense while consulting at all positions (called "walk arounds"). Near the end of his third year with the Jaguars, he was promoted to interim head coach for the final five games in 2011 after Del Rio was dismissed; he coached Jacksonville to a 2-3 record to end the season. Despite the team owning an overall 5-11 record, the Jags were sixth in the league in total defense that season, surrendering just 313 yards per game. He would return as the Jaguars assistant head coach and defensive coordinator for the 2012 season under Mike Mularkey.

He was hired by Chicago Bear head coach Marc Trestman in 2013, where he would spend his last two seasons in the pro ranks. In all, he worked 10 years in the NFL, including seven as a defensive coordinator.

A 1995 graduate of the University of Wisconsin with his bachelor's degree in Agricultural Business Management, he was a member of the first recruiting class for Coach Barry Alvarez. He lettered three times at both cornerback and safety from 1990-94 and was on the Badgers' 1993 Big Ten champion team that defeated UCLA in the Rose Bowl, 21-16. As a sophomore, he made a game-saving hit in the end zone with time running out that preserved a 19-16 win at Minnesota; as a senior, he played the Buffaloes in Boulder, though UW left town with a 55-17 loss to a CU team that would finish No. 3 in the nation. He had 47 tackles and four pass deflections in his career (he missed his junior season after breaking a leg in fall camp).

Tucker was a member of Alvarez' first recruiting class at Wisconsin, and remains close to this day with several teammates who have gone on to make their marks in college athletics, including Troy Vincent (the NFL executive vice president for football operations), Chris Ballard (Indianapolis Colts general manager), Darrell Bevell (longtime NFL offensive coordinator with Minnesota and Seattle), Joe Rudolph (Wisconsin's associate head coach and offensive coordinator) and Duer Sharp (former commissioner of the Southwestern Athletic Conference).

He was born Melvin Tucker II on Jan. 4, 1972 in Cleveland, Ohio, and graduated from Cleveland Heights High School, where he was an all-state performer in football and an all-conference basketball player (the Cleveland Plain Dealer twice named him to its all-scholastic team). He is married to the former JoEllyn Haynesworth, who earned her undergraduate degree at the University of Illinois and her law degree from Rutgers University. The couple has two sons born on the same day (Feb. 18) two years apart, Joseph (16) and Christian (14).

AT-A-GLANCE—He has coached in 130 Division I-A (FBS) games as a full-time coach, his teams owning a record of 101-29 which include 10 bowl games (2000 Peach, 2002 Outback, 2003 Fiesta/BCS National Championship, 2004 Fiesta, 2004 Alamo, 2015 Cotton/CFP Semifinal, 2016 CFP title game, 2016 Liberty, 2018 Rose/CFP Semifinal, 2018 CFP/National Championship). He coached 160 games in the National Football League (64 with Cleveland, 64 with Jacksonville, 32 with Chicago).

COLORADO ASSISTANT COACHES

JAY JOHNSON

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Jay Johnson is in his first year on the Colorado staff as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, as he was one of the first two coaches hired by new CU head coach Mel Tucker, joining the Buffalo staff on Dec. 11, 2018.

Johnson, 49, is a veteran coach and administrator of 24 seasons, including nine as an offensive coordinator at three previous Football Bowl Subdivision institutions in addition to coaching quarterbacks, running backs and tight ends as a position coach. He came to Colorado from the University of Georgia, where he spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons as the offensive analyst for quality control.

At Georgia, he assisted in all off-field phases of game planning and recruiting, helping the Bulldogs to an overall record of 24-4 in his two years on Kirby Smart's staff. UGA won the 2018 Rose Bowl/CFP semifinal over Oklahoma in a wild 54-48 double overtime thriller, advancing to the College Football Playoff Championship game, where Alabama had to rally to defeat Georgia in overtime, 26-23.

He joined the Georgia staff from the University of Minnesota, where he spent the 2016 season as the Gophers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, calling the plays for head coach Tracy Claeys. UM posted a 9-4 record which included a 17-12 win over Washington State in the Holiday Bowl as the Gophers averaged their third highest point total – 29.3 – on offense in 70 seasons.

As the University of Louisiana's (former UL-Lafayette) offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for five seasons (2011-15), the Ragin' Cajuns were one of the most electrifying offenses annually in the nation. Louisiana constantly ranked in the top 30 in most major offensive categories, often higher in red zone efficiency, as in 2012 ULL led the nation with a 94.8 percentage (55 scores in 58 tries; 44 touchdowns and no turnovers). He coached quarterbacks Blaine Gautier and Terrance Broadway to top 20 finishes in passing efficiency and was part of 40 victories, which included four straight 9-4 campaigns.

In one season as Central Michigan's quarterbacks coach, he tutored Ryan Radcliff to top 15 rankings in passing yards and the Chippewas to the No. 17 passing offense in the nation. He had gone to CMU from the University of Louisville, where he was one of the first in the nation to work in quality control in the collegiate ranks in 2008 (the role first developed years earlier in the National Football League). He returned to the field in 2009 as the Cardinals' tight ends coach, also assisting in all facets of special teams.

He was a three-time All-Gateway Conference performer at quarterback for Northern Iowa, leading the Panthers to a 31-8 record, three conference titles and three Division I-AA playoff appearances (3-3 record) his sophomore through senior seasons (1990-92). Playing for coach Terry Allen, Johnson set numerous school records at the time in completing 504 of 970 passes for 8,341 yards, with 60 touchdowns against 35 interceptions (a 137.4 NCAA rating). UNI was 12-2 his senior year, reached the I-AA semifinals and was ranked No. 3 in the final coaches poll of the season. A captain for the Panthers as both a junior and senior, a teammate was future Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback Kurt Warner, who took over for him for the 1993 season.

After his collegiate playing days, he moved to Columbia, Mo., to attend graduate school at the University of Missouri and simultaneously began his coaching career in 1993 as an assistant coach at the city's largest high school, Hickman. The following spring, he was a graduate assistant for the Tigers while finishing his degree.

His first full-time position soon followed, as he was the offensive and recruiting coordinator at Division III Augsburg (Minn.) College in the fall of 1994. He would spend the next two seasons (1995-96) back in the state of Missouri as the offensive coordinator at Truman State, where the Bulldogs were prolific on offense, averaging over 400 yards and 30 points on offense his two years in Kirksville.

He then "crossed state lines" and became a graduate assistant at the University of Kansas for the 1997 and 1998 seasons, where he was reunited with his college head coach at UNI, Terry Allen; he had the responsibility of developing the quarterbacks and helping KU enter the computer age in the area of breakdowns and analysis. Allen promoted him to a full-time coach in charge of the quarterbacks in 1999, and in 2001 switched him to running backs coach, with Johnson also working heavily with the special teams all three seasons in Lawrence.

After taking a year off from coaching in 2002, he was named tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Southern Mississippi under its longtime head coach, Jeff Bower for the 2003 season. Johnson then coached the running backs in 2004, and in 2005, he took the reins as offensive coordinator for the next three seasons, the final three years of Bower's 18-year run as the Golden Eagles head coach. In his final season there, USM established a school record for total offense, eclipsing the 5,000-yard mark for the first time in finishing with 5,066 yards.

Johnson graduated from Northern Iowa in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in Science (minor in Coaching), earning his way on the Dean's List. While in Columbia, he received his Master's Exercise Sciences from the Missouri, with an emphasis in exercise physiology, earning the Superior Graduate Achievement Award with a perfect 4.0 cumulative grade point average.

He was born September 18, 1969 in Austin, Minn., and graduated from Lakeville (Minn.) High School, where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He is married to the former Lori Johnson, and the couple has a son, Cole (17).

TYSON SUMMERS

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

Tyson Summers is in his first year on the Colorado staff as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach, as he was one of the first two coaches hired by new CU head coach Mel Tucker, joining the Buffalo staff on Dec. 11, 2018.

He came to Colorado from the University of Georgia, where he spent the last year and a half as a defensive analyst for quality control. While in Athens, the Bulldogs won two Southeastern Conference East Division titles, the 2017 SEC championship and the College Football Playoff semifinal to earn the opportunity to play for the national championship.

Summers, 39, is returning to the Centennial State where he spent the 2015 season in Fort Collins at Colorado State, also as the Rams defensive coordinator and safeties coach under its first-year coach and former Bulldog, Mike Bobo. The CSU defense made remarkable strides defensively that season under his tutelage, improving 30 spots or more in several categories from the previous year, including 85th to 55th in total defense, 32nd to ninth in passing defense and 114th to 21st in tackles for loss.

He left CSU after just that one season to become the head coach at Georgia Southern, a program entering its third year in the Football Bowl Subdivision and the Sun Belt Conference. Summers would spend almost two years in the role, guiding GSU to five victories, but oversee the program show significant improvement in the classroom with a program-high NCAA APR score. Seven of his players in his first season earned All-Sun Belt honors, and placekicker Younghoe Koo was a finalist for the Lou Groza Award. He also showed his prowess on the recruiting trail as the Eagles boasted one of highest-ranked classes in the Sun Belt as ranked by 247Sports.

Prior to be hired at Colorado State, Summers spent three years on the Central Florida staff under coach legendary coach George O'Leary, with the Knights posting a 31-9 record during his time there. He coached the UCF linebackers his first two seasons (2012-13), and for the Fiesta Bowl and the spring of 2014 he was made the interim defensive coordinator; he would be named to the full-time role ahead of the season. In his first year coordinating a defense, Summers saw his Knights emerge as the top defense in the American Athletic Conference and one that ranked in the top 10 among FBS schools in total defense (fifth, 298.5 yards per game), rushing defense (sixth, 104.3), scoring defense (ninth, 19.2) and red zone defense (sixth, 71.4 percent); in addition, UCF was 11th in pass efficiency defense (107.8 rating).

That season, UCF opened the season with a 26-24 loss to Penn State ... in Dublin, Ireland ... and rebounded from an 0-2 start to finish 9-4. The Knights would hold nine opponents under 200 passing yards and six under 100 yards rushing, as well as under 300 yards total offense on six occasions (twice under 200). Three of his players earned first-team All-AAC honors, including cornerback Jacoby Glenn, linebacker Terrance Plummer and Clayton Geathers.

He moved to UCF from the University of Alabama-Birmingham, where he worked for five seasons (2007-11). He coached the linebackers his first four years there, switching over to tutor the safeties in his final year there, when he also took on additional duties as the co-special teams coordinator.

In 2006, he had his first stint at Georgia Southern, coaching the safeties. That had followed two years as a graduate assistant, in 2004 at Troy University and in 2005 at the University of Georgia, where he was a member of the Bulldog staff that won the Southeastern Conference championship.

Summers lettered four years (1998-2001) at linebacker at Presbyterian College, where he earned All-South Atlantic Conference honors as a sophomore and was a team captain as a senior. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in Political Science in 2002; after coaching the defensive backs at his high school alma mater that fall, his first full-time position was at Presbyterian in 2003, also working with the secondary.

He was born April 11, 1980 in Tifton, Ga., and graduated from Tift County High School where he lettered in football and baseball. His father (Andy) was a running back at the University of Florida in the early 1970s. He is married to the former Beth King, and the couple has three sons, Jake (10), Walker (8) and Anderson (5).

CHRIS KAPILOVICOffensive Line/Run Game Coordinator

Chris Kapilovic is in first year on the Colorado staff as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator, as he was the third coach hired by new CU head coach Mel Tucker, joining the Buffalo staff on Dec. 13, 2018.

Kapilovic (pronounced kub-pil-ob-vick) came to Colorado from the University of North Carolina, where he spent the previous seven seasons (2012-18) coaching the offensive line under head coach Larry Fedora. He was also the run game coordinator his first two seasons there, and then was the co-offensive coordinator for the 2014 and 2015 seasons. For his last three seasons on the Tar Heel staff, he was the associate head coach and offensive coordinator along with his offensive line coaching duties.

Kapilovic, 50, was previously hired by Fedora in 2008 when he took the head coaching job at Southern Mississippi. He was at USM for four seasons (2008-11), all four as the offensive line coach with additional duties as the run game coordinator his last two years there before moving on to North Carolina and joining Fedora's staff in Chapel Hill.

In his seven seasons at UNC, he was part of an offensive unit that established over 60 school records, including points per game (2012, 2014), total offense (2012, 2014), passing yards (2012-13-14-15-16) and first downs (2014-15). North Carolina averaged more than 170 rushing yards per game from 2012 through 2016, the highest five-year average for the Tar Heels since Mack Brown was their head coach some two decades earlier. The 2018 squad allowed just 10 sacks all season, the .91 per game figure seventh best in the nation while the team also averaged 193 rushing yards per game (5.3 per carry) and a healthy 442.1 yards per game, 35th best nationally.

In 2016, Kapilovic's offense, led by quarterback Mitch Trubisky, set the school passing yards mark for the fifth season in a row, as UNC won eight games and earned a berth opposite Stanford in the Sun Bowl. Trubisky was the No. 2 overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft and is currently starring for the Chicago Bears; he was one of 10 Tar Heels to either be drafted or signed by an NFL team.

That came on the heels of an 11-win season in 2015, winning the Atlantic Coast Conference's Coastal Division with a perfect 8-0 record and finishing the year with a No. 15 ranking in the national polls; the Tar Heels led the nation in yards per play and was ninth in scoring offense, averaging 40.7 points per game. UNC ascended all the way to No. 8 in the nation before bowing to No. 1 and eventual national runner-up Clemson, 45-37, in the ACC title game. The Tar Heels were a semifinalist for the 2015 Joe Moore Award, a new trophy which was created to recognize the entire offensive line. Tailback Elijah Hood rushed for 1,453 yards, Carolina averaged a school record 6.0 yards per carry and ranked first in the ACC in the least number of sacks allowed with just 15 in 13 games.

In his first season at UNC (2012), the Tar Heels had one of, if not the best offensive line in the country, as all three senior starters were drafted, led by guard Jonathan Cooper (No. 7 overall by Arizona), along with tackle Brennan Williams (third round by Houston) and guard Travis Bond (seventh round by Minnesota).

At Southern Mississippi (2008-11), his offensive lines paved the way for school records for total offense three times, with a high of 6,459 in his final season there (the Golden Eagles gained over 5,000 in all four seasons, including over 2,000 rushing yards each year). After run game coordinator was added to his O-line duties in 2010, the next year, USM won the Conference USA championship by defeating Houston, 49-28 in the league title game and, and a 24-17 win over Nevada in the Hawai'i Bowl gave USM a 12-2 final record and a No. 20 national ranking for the 2011 season.

After working as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, Missouri State, in 1991, Kapilovic started his professional coaching career at Deer Valley High School in Glendale, Ariz., a suburb northwest of Phoenix. He spent six seasons there as the school's offensive line coach, and then moved over to Phoenix College where he worked with the offensive line and also served as the school's strength coach.

He worked as a graduate assistant at Kansas under coach Terry Allen for the 1999 and 2000 seasons, where he worked with CU's new offensive coordinator, Jay Johnson. His first full-time job in the collegiate ranks soon followed, as he was the offensive line coach for Alabama State the next two years (2001-02), with offensive coordinator duties added to his role for the Hornets for his final three seasons there (2003-05). He returned to Missouri State for a second stint, this time as its run game coordinator and the O-line coach for the 2006-07 seasons.

Kapilovic lettered two years (1989-90) as an offensive tackle at Missouri State University, earning first-team All-Gateway Conference honors as a senior. The Bears were 19-6 his two seasons on the squad, winning the Gateway Conference title both seasons and qualifying for the Division I-AA playoffs. MSU finished ninth in the final I-AA poll in 1989, and sixth in the 1990 final balloting. He graduated from MSU with a degree in Education in 1990.

He played two seasons at Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College prior to transferring to Missouri State.

Kapilovic was born Nov. 11, 1968 in Cleveland, Ohio and graduated from Gerard Catholic High School in Phoenix, Ariz., where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He is married to the former Fiona Yount, and the couple has two sons, Carsen (15) and Colin (11).

JIMMY BRUMBAUGHDefensive Line

Jimmy Brumbaugh is in first year on the Colorado staff as the defensive line coach, as he was the fourth coach hired by new CU head coach Mel Tucker, joining the Buffalo staff on Dec. 19, 2018.

He came to Colorado from the University of Maryland, where he had served as the co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach for the previous two seasons.

Brumbaugh, 42, had spent the prior four seasons at the University of Kentucky, establishing himself as one of the top defensive line coaches in the country. He has also served as an assistant coach at Louisiana State, Louisiana Tech and Syracuse.

While serving as defensive line coach at Kentucky (2013-16), he developed a pair of 2015 NFL draft picks. Bud Dupree was a first round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers, and Za'Darius Smith, who Brumbaugh coached in junior college, was chosen in the fourth round by the Baltimore Ravens. Overall, four defensive linemen earned All-SEC honors during his tenure with the Wildcats.

He had moved on to Kentucky from Syracuse, where he coached defensive tackles in 2011 and the defensive line in 2010. The Orange defense showed drastic improvements under Brumbaugh in 2010, moving from 81st to 17th nationally in scoring defense, and from 37th to seventh in total defense. Under Brumbaugh's tutelage, defensive end Chandler Jones garnered All-Big East recognition twice and was drafted 21st overall by the New England Patriots in the 2012 NFL Draft.

Prior to Syracuse, Brumbaugh coached the defensive line at Louisiana Tech in 2008 and 2009. He took over a defensive front that ranked 46th nationally against the rush in 2007 and moved that ranking to 13th at the conclusion of 2008.

In 2012, Brumbaugh was at East Mississippi Community College, where he was in charge of the defensive line and also was the strength and conditioning coordinator. He helped lead the Lions to a top 10 national ranking, an 8-2 record and the Mississippi North Division championship. Brumbaugh's defensive line combined for 224 tackles, including 44½ tackles for loss, 21½ quarterback and seven forced fumbles. For the season, the EMCC defense allowed just 75 rushing yards and only 15.3 points per game. In just his one season there, Brumbaugh developed six defensive linemen who signed Division I scholarships, including Kentucky's Smith, the nation's No. 1-rated junior college defensive end prospect by JCGridiron.com.

Brumbaugh also has extensive experience in strength and conditioning, working two seasons (2006-07) as an assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at Louisiana State. Under Coach Les Miles, LSU was the 2007 national champion, defeating Ohio State, 38-24, in the BCS title game in New Orleans. While with LSU, Brumbaugh helped produce 12 NFL draft selections, including five first round picks.

Brumbaugh lettered four years as a defensive lineman at Auburn, playing both the nose and outside tackle positions, from 1995-99. He started 44 of his 48 career games, recording 291 tackles and 15 quarterback sacks. Brumbaugh was named to the SEC All-Freshman team in 1995, earned Auburn's Most Improved Defensive Lineman honor for spring ball and then garnered second-team All-SEC honors as a sophomore in 1996 and first-team All-SEC accolades in 1997. He was a member of the Tigers' 1997 SEC Western Division champion team, and played in the 1995 Outback, 1996 Independence and 1997 Peach bowls, with Auburn winning the last two. He missed his original senior season in 1998 with an injury and redshirted.

He played in the Blue-Gray Classic following his senior season, and signed as free agent and was in preseason camp with the San Francisco 49ers in 2000. He went on to play in the XFL with the Birmingham Bolts and then in arena football with the Georgia Force and Birmingham Steel Dogs.

He returned to Auburn after his pro career to finish up his degree, graduating in 2004 with a bachelor's in Health and Human Performance. He then decided to get into coaching, starting out as a student assistant for Jacksonville (Ala.) State, which won the 2004 Ohio Valley Conference championship with a 7-1 league record and 9-2 overall mark. His first full-time position followed the next year, as he was the defensive line coach at Tennessee-Chattanooga, which posted a 6-5 record in 2005.

Born James Brent Brumbaugh on Dec. 9, 1976 in Gainesville, Fla., he graduated from Keystone Heights (Fla.) High School, where he lettered in football and basketball. He is married to the former Kelly Jones, and the couple has two sons, Legend, who will be a sophomore tight end at Colorado this fall (after transferring to CU from Maryland), and Nash.

DARRIN CHIAVERINI*Wide Receivers

Darrin Chiaverini is in his fourth year as the wide receivers coach at Colorado, joining the Buffalo staff on January 1, 2016 from Texas Tech University, where he spent the previous two seasons on the Red Raiders' staff.

Chiaverini, 41, is nationally recognized as a top recruiter; Rivals.com named him one of the top 25 recruiters in the country for 2018.

He also served as co-offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator for his first three seasons (2016-18) after returning to his alma mater where he lettered four times under coach Rick Neuheisel from 1995-98. He accepted his new roles on December 15, 2015, but remained with Tech for its bowl game.

In 2016, his first season on the CU staff, he helped guide the Buffalo offense to one of its best years overall in recent memory. Colorado averaged 446.3 yards per game, its best figure in 20 seasons, with the school's fourth-best conversion rate in the red zone in school history dating back to 1957 at 89.5 percent (51-of-57, with 37 touchdowns). His receiving corps hauled in 199 catches for 2,724 yards (13.7 per) with 19 touchdowns that season, and over the course of his two years, have 408 receptions for 5,454 yards and 33 scores.

In his third year co-coordinating the offense in 2018, the Buffaloes had a surprising historical first, as CU boasted in the same season for the first time a 1,000-yard rusher (1,009 by Travon McMillian) and receiver (1,011 by Laviska Shenault, though he missed three-plus games with a foot injury). And for second straight year, quarterback Steven Montez just missed becoming the second player at Colorado to throw for 3,000 yards in a season (2,975 in 2017; 2,849 in 2018).

Chiaverini spent the 2014-15 seasons as the Red Raiders' special teams coordinator and outside receivers coach. At Tech, he recruited the Dallas, Houston and the Southern California areas, and one of his players, Jakeem Grant, earned second-team All-America honors at kick returner for the 2015 season.

One of new head coach Rick Neuheisel's first commitments in Colorado's 1995 recruiting class, Chiaverini earned four letters from 1995-98 and served as one of the team captains his senior season. He caught 97 passes for 1,199 yards and six touchdowns, averaging 12.4 yards per reception in his career, exiting at the time as CU's seventh all-time receiver (he remains in the top 15 in both catches and yards). He led the team as a senior with 52 catches for 630 yards and five scores.

He was a member of three CU bowl champion teams (Cotton, Holiday and Aloha), making an additional 10 catches for 190 yards and two touchdowns, one a 72-yard bomb from his best friend, quarterback Mike Moschetti against Oregon in the '98 Aloha Bowl.

He was a fifth-round selection by the Cleveland Browns in the 1999 National Football League Draft, and went on to set the club's rookie receiving record with 44 catches for 487 yards and four touchdowns. He spent four years in the NFL, also playing for Dallas and Atlanta; he would conclude his NFL career with 62 catches for 662 yards and seven scores. He then finished his professional playing days with the Austin Wranglers in the Arena Football League.

Chiaverini then turned his attention to coaching, tutoring the receivers at Mt. San Antonio College in 2007 and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator in 2008. In 2009, he rejoined his college coach, Neuheisel, as the assistant special teams coach at UCLA. He helped pilot one of the top units in the Pac-10 and the Bruins captured the Eagle Bank Bowl with a 30-21 win over Temple.

He returned to the junior college ranks for the next four seasons (2010-13) at Riverside (Calif.) City College, where he was the associated head coach, co-offensive and special teams coordinator in addition to being in charge of recruiting. Riverside was 40-5 in the four years there and produced 15 Division I players, three of whom would head to his next stop, Texas Tech.

His special teams units at Riverside from 2010-13 were some of the best in all of the junior college ranks with an impressive 22 blocked kicks in four seasons. Chiaverini coached the top punt returner in the state of California in 2011 and 2012, while Riverside's offense led California in scoring in 2011 and in total offense in 2013.

He was one of 30 coaches across the country selected to participate in the 2015 NFL and NCAA Coaches Academy. Initiated in 2011, it is a collaborative effort between NCAA Leadership Development and NFL Player Engagement to positively influence diversity numbers in the college game and as a way for talented young football coaches to get exposure.

Chiaverini earned his bachelor's degree in Communications from CU in 1999, and earned his master's degree in Human Performance and Sports Sciences from New Mexico Highlands University in 2007.

He was born on October 12, 1977 in Orange, Calif., and graduated from Corona (Calif.) High School where he was a USA Today honorable mention All-American in football and an All-County performer in baseball. He is married to the former Shannon Burchfield, and the couple has two children, Curtis (19), a redshirt freshman wide receiver for the Buffaloes, and Kaylie (16).

ROSS ELS*Inside Linebackers/Special Teams Coordinator

Ross Els is in his second season coaching Colorado's inside linebackers, as he joined the Buffalo staff on February 24, 2017, also bringing extensive special teams coaching experience to the program. When Mel Tucker was hired as head coach, he added the title of special teams coordinator officially to his duties.

Els, 53, is a 29-year veteran in the collegiate coaching ranks (he coached his 200th game on the FBS level in 2017). He came to Colorado from Purdue, where he served as the Boilermaker's defensive coordinator in 2016 under Darrell Hazell.

Els has the bulk of his experience as an assistant coach working with the linebackers, and all but one of his 28 years devoted on the defensive side of the ball. He spent four years at the University of Nebraska from 2011-14 under coach Bo Pellini, his first season as linebackers coach with the responsibilities of coordinating both special teams and recruiting added to his duties for the last three years. One of his top players while he was with the Huskers was Lavonte David, a finalist for the Butkus Award and the 2011 Big Ten Linebacker of the Year, as well as a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award and the Lott Trophy. He was a second round selection by Tampa Bay in the 2012 National Football League Draft.

In 2017, he coached CU's top two tacklers, Drew Lewis (119 tackles) and Rick Gamboa (117), the school's first pair to make 100-plus stops since 2006 and just the second linebacker duo to accomplish the feat since 1994.

In 2012, he coached Nebraska's leading tackler, Will Compton, who record 110 total stops, six of which were for losses including three quarterback sacks. That aided a 10-win season and a berth in the Big Ten's championship game.

Nebraska was 37-16 in his four years on its staff, including four bowl appearances: Capital One (2012 and 2013), TaxSlayer Gator (2014) and Holiday (2014). In-between his Nebraska and Purdue appointments, he spent the 2015 season as an assistant coach at his son's high school, Lincoln (Neb.) Southwest.

Prior to Nebraska, he was the linebackers coach for six seasons, working under a former NU graduate in Frank Solich. In his third season there, he was named the Bobcats' special teams coordinator, and in his final year there (2010), Solich promoted him to assistant head coach. He coached four All-Mid-American Conference linebackers, in addition helping OU to two MAC East Division titles and three bowl appearances:

In 2010, Ohio's defense ranked 20th nationally and second in the MAC in rushing defense. Els' special teams were also a key part of Ohio's 8-5 season that culminated with a trip to the New Orleans Bowl. The Bobcats ranked first in the 14-team MAC in net punting, third in punt returns and fifth in kickoff returns. In 2009, he tutored linebacker Noah Keller, who led the MAC with 155 tackles en route to earning honorable mention All-America honors. He also coached punt returner LaVon Brazil to second-team All-America honors that season, while placekicker Matt Weller was named a Freshman All-American after kicking a school record 21 field goals.

He coached in Division I (now the FBS) for the first time when he spent four years at New Mexico State University, first tutoring the safeties and special teams for the 2001 and 2002 seasons, and then the linebackers along with a promotion to defensive coordinator in 2003 and 2004. He worked under Tony Samuel, another former Nebraska player and assistant coach, during his time in Las Cruces.

Els was the head coach at Hastings (Neb.) College from 1997-2000, where he was the quarterbacks coach in 1995 and the defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 1996. As Hastings' head coach, Els compiled a 32-9 record, including NIAA playoff appearances in 1998 and 1999.

A 1988 graduate of the University of Nebraska-Omaha, where he majored in Management Information Systems and lettered four years as a safety. He got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Northern Iowa, where he earned his Master's degree in Physical Education in 1999; that's where he began his coaching career a decade earlier as a graduate assistant (in 1989), working with the linebackers and secondary.

He then returned to his alma mater, UNO, for his first full-time position in the ranks, coaching the secondary for four seasons (1990-93).

He was born August 14, 1965 in Lincoln, Neb., and graduated from Lincoln Northeast High where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He is married to the former Jane Ketterer, and the couple has two daughters, Julie and Taylor (a junior on the volleyball team at Northern Colorado), and a son, Bo (a junior wide receiver at Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa).

DARIAN HAGAN*Running Backs

Darian Hagan, one of the names synonymous with Colorado's rise to glory in the late 1980s, is in his 14th season overall on the CU football staff, now in the third season of his second stint as the school's running back coach, a position he held for five years last decade.

Hagan, 49, spent the first three seasons on Mike MacIntyre's staff as the director of player development for the Buffaloes (2013-15), as he shifted into that role from one as the director of player personnel (2011-12) under head coach Jon Embree. He worked five seasons (2006-10) as running backs coach for head coach Dan Hawkins, as he was one of two assistant coaches retained by Hawkins when he was named to the position in December 2005.

He was named an offensive assistant coach on Gary Barnett's staff on February 9, 2005, and worked with the skill position players on offense in the spring and fall in his first year as a full-time collegiate assistant.

A popular coach with his players yet with a stern touch, he was coaching true freshman Rodney Stewart on the way to a 1,000-yard season in 2008 until a season-ending injury at Texas A&M sidelined him in the ninth game of the year. Stewart's 622 yards were the third most by a CU freshman in school history. In 2010, Stewart hit the plateau and then some, rushing for 1,318 yards and in position to threaten many of the school's all-time rushing marks. In 2007, Hagan tutored Hugh Charles to a 1,000-yard year including the Independence Bowl; he went on to have a successful career in the Canadian Football League.

He coached his third thousand-yard rusher for the Buffaloes in 2016, when Phillip Lindsay recorded 1,189 yards in the regular season, the first to reach the mark since Stewart did so six years earlier. When Lindsay rushed for 1,474 yards in 2017, he became the first player in CU history to run for 1,000 or more yards in consecutive seasons. He then coached Travon McMillian to a 1,009-yard season in 2018, making it three years in a row for CU with a thousand-yard back.

Hagan made a difference in his first season (2006) mentoring the running backs, as CU had three 500-plus yard rushers for just the 10th time in its history. He also played a role in the development of quarterback Bernard Jackson, as Hagan's own skills of blending the run and the pass rubbed off on the Buff junior in his first year as a starter.

He had a brief taste of coaching in the spring of 2004 as he subbed as secondary coach when the staff was minus a full-time assistant. Otherwise, he was the defensive technical intern for the '04 season, assuming that role in February of that year. It marked the third time he has made the University of Colorado his destination of choice.

He starred at quarterback for the Buffaloes between 1988 and 1991, leading the school to its first national championship, and following his professional playing career, returned to CU in the mid-1990s to work as the Alumni C Club Director.

Hagan left CU in the spring of 1998 to work as an area sales manager for the Transit Marketing Group. Three months into his new position, he was promoted to Southeast Regional Sales Manager. He remained in that position for over five years until deciding to pursue his dream as a coach and return to his alma mater for the third time. By working as a technical intern, he learned the intricacies of the profession in a hands-on role in his desire to coach; when a temporary vacancy opened on the staff, he was "activated" as a coach to work with the defensive backs and it added to his penchant for the profession.

Arguably the best all-around athlete in the history of the CU football program, he was an integral part of CU's run at two national championships in 1989 and 1990. The Buffs were 11-1 in 1989, losing to Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, but went 11-1-1 in 1990 with a win over the Irish in an Orange Bowl rematch to give CU its first national title in football. CU was 28-5-2 with him as the starting quarterback for three seasons, including a 20-0-1 mark in Big Eight Conference games as he led the Buffs to three straight league titles in 1989, 1990 and 1991. His 28-5-2 record as a starter (82.9 winning percentage) is the 37th best in college football history.

In 1989, he became just the sixth player in NCAA history at the time to run and pass for over 1,000 yards in the same season, finishing, as just a sophomore, fifth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy. He established the school record for total offense with 5,808 yards (broken three years later by Kordell Stewart), and is one of two players ever at CU to amass over 2,000 yards both rushing and passing along with Bobby Anderson. He was a two-time all-Big Eight performer, and the league's offensive player of the year for 1989 when he also was afforded various All-America honors. He still holds several CU records and was the school's male athlete-of-the-year for the 1991-92 academic year.

In 2002, he was a member of the fourth class to be inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame, and his jersey (No. 3) is one of several to have been honored. The Colorado Sports Hall of Fame finally recognized his achievements as well, inducting him into its prestigious group in the Class of 2014.

Hagan played for Toronto, Las Vegas and Edmonton over the course of five seasons in the Canadian Football League, mostly as a defensive back and special teams performer. He returned to CU to earn his diploma just prior to his last professional season, and graduated with a bachelor's degree in sociology in May 1996. He was hired later that year (December 1) as the Alumni C Club Director, a position he held for 16 months until leaving for an incredible opportunity in private business.

In the summer of 2015, he served as an assistant under former CU head coach Dan Hawkins for the champion Team USA in the Federation of American Football (IFAF) World Championship in Canton, Ohio.

He was born February 1, 1970 in Lynwood, Calif., and graduated from Los Angeles' Locke High School in 1988, where he lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track. He was drafted in two sports, football (by San Francisco in the fourth round in the 1992 NFL Draft) and baseball (selected as a shortstop by both Seattle and Toronto). He is married (Donna), and is the father of three sons, Darian, Jr., who played defensive back at California, the late DeV Vaughn (who passed away on December 6, 2010 at the age of 19) and Demari Lamon (born last Sept. 19), along with one daughter, Danielle.

BRIAN MICHALOWSKI
Outside Linebackers

Brian Michalowski is in his first year as outside linebackers coach at Colorado, promoted into the position in mid-February after he originally joined the staff as the director of quality control for the defense on January 7, 2019.

Michalowski, 29, came to Boulder after spending one season as a defensive analyst at the University of Georgia, where he worked alongside Tucker and CU's new defensive coordinator, Tyson Summers. At UGA, he worked with outside linebackers and helped the Bulldogs post an 11-3 record, claim the Southeastern Conference East Division title and earn an invitation to the AllState Sugar Bowl. Georgia was ranked No. 8 in the final polls and was 13th in the nation in total defense.

He was a graduate assistant for the defense at the University of Memphis for two years (2016-17), where he coached the "Kat" outside linebacker position. During those two seasons, Memphis won 18 games and ranked in the top 10 nationally in defensive takeaways each year.

Prior to his time at Memphis, Michalowski spent the 2015 season as the defensive coordinator for Garden City Community College, a member of the Kansas Jayhawk Conference, one of the nation's premier junior college conferences. That season, he coached Jeremy Faulk, the NJCAA Defensive Player of the Year. Garden City led the league in passing defense, holding opponents to 169 yards per game while making 14 interceptions; the Broncbusters also recorded 31 sacks in 11 games.

In 2014, Michalowski spent the season overseas coaching in the 16-team German Football League (GFL) as the defensive coordinator for the Cologne Falcons. He assisted in the club's dramatic six-game improvement from a 2-12 record to an 8-6 mark, the latter including the team's first-ever playoff victory before falling in the semifinals to the eventual league champion. Cologne improved in every defensive statistical category from the previous year, ranking third in the GFL in pass defense and turnover margin, fourth in interceptions, and sixth in total defense and scoring defense.

Michalowski was a defensive graduate assistant at University of Wyoming under head coach Dave Christensen, coaching the Cowboys' "Buck" outside linebacker position and also had coaching responsibilities in all phases of special teams.

From 2007 to 2012, Michalowski climbed up the coaching ladder at his alma mater, Arizona State University. In 2012, he was a defensive graduate assistant for a Sun Devil team that had an 8-4 record and finished the season with a victory over Navy in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. He worked with the defensive line and held responsibilities coaching on special teams as the Sun Devil defense was second in the Pac-12 in total defense (first in pass defense) and second in the nation in both quarterback sacks and in tackles for loss.

He had spent the 2011 season as a defensive quality control assistant for head coach Dennis Erickson. In that role, Michalowski assisted with defensive backs and special teams, including a kickoff return unit that finished 10th in the nation and had six returns for touchdowns over the course of two seasons. He was a student assistant at ASU for four seasons, initially working with recruiting and special teams, and eventually began working on the defensive side of the football in 2009, assisting with the secondary for the next two seasons. During this time, he also completed a training camp internship with the Buffalo Bills in the summer of 2010, where he had responsibilities with pro personnel and camp operations.

He earned his bachelor's degree in Marketing with a minor in Psychology in 2011 from Arizona State University.

He was born June 10, 1989 in Morristown, N.J., and graduated from Notre Dame Prep (Scottsdale, Ariz.), where he lettered in football; that's where he got his first taste of the coaching profession in the fall of 2007. His hobbies include hiking, skiing and golf. He is engaged to be married to Kristin Ruffin in the summer of 2020.

AL PUPUNU
Tight Ends

Al Pupunu is in first year on the Colorado staff as the tight end coach, as he was hired by new CU head coach Mel Tucker, officially joining the Buffalo staff on Jan. 7, 2019.

Pupunu, 49, came to Colorado after spending the previous two seasons (2017-18) at Weber State, where he starred as a collegian. WSU was 10-3 and reached the FCS quarterfinals in 2018, winning one playoff game after earning a first round bye. During his first season there, he helped lead the Wildcats to a historic season: in addition to winning a school record 11 games, they captured the Big Sky title, won two games to reach the quarterfinals of the FCS Playoffs and finished the season ranked fifth in the nation, the highest in school history.

He was the tight ends coach at the University of Idaho for seven seasons (2010-16). In his last season in Moscow, Pupunu helped lead the Vandals to a 9-4 record in 2016, including a 61-50 win over Colorado State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. The nine wins tied the most in school history and it was also the second-best ever for UI. In his seven seasons at Idaho working under head coaches Robb Akey and then Paul Petrillo, he coached several talented tight ends, including All-American and All-Big Sky Conference performer Andrew Vollert.

Pupunu played two seasons at Dixie State College before transferring to Weber State to play for Coach Dave Arslanian. As a senior in 1991, Pupunu had one of the best years in Big Sky Conference history. Playing alongside Walter Payton Trophy winner, quarterback Jamie Martin, Pupunu set a Division I-AA (now FCS) record with 93 receptions for 1,204 yards and 12 touchdowns, helping Weber State to an 8-4 record and a trip to the NCAA playoffs. The 93 catches still rank as the most receptions in a season in Weber State history, and the second most ever in a season by an FCS tight end.

For his efforts that season, Pupunu earned All-Big Sky Conference honors and was named an All-American by the Associated Press, the Sports Network and the Walter Camp Football Foundation.

PUPUNU, continued

He signed as a free agent with San Diego in the National Football League in 1992, the start of a nine-year professional career that he would spend with the Chargers (1992-97, 1999), Kansas City (1997), New York Giants (1998) and Detroit (2000).

Pupunu helped the Chargers reach Super Bowl XXIX (1994 season), as he caught a 43-yard touchdown pass from Stan Humphries that narrowed the deficit against Pittsburgh to 13-10 in the third quarter; San Diego went on to win the game, 17-13, and he was named the offensive player of the game with four receptions for 76 yards and the score. San Diego faced San Francisco in the Super Bowl but lost 49-26 to the 49ers; Pupunu caught four passes for 48 yards. Two of his teammates on that Chargers' team were former Buffaloes: running back Eric Bieniemy and right tackle Stan Brock.

Though Pupunu only scored five career touchdowns (three regular season, two postseason), he created a unique celebration that he performed after each: he mimicked twisting off the top of a coconut and drinking the juice, a very popular celebration among Charger fans. Pupunu he had 102 receptions for exactly 1,000 yards in 103 regular season games (42 starts), and added 13 catches for 163 yards in seven playoff games, four of which he started.

After his professional career, his first taste of coaching was at Alta High School in Sandy, Utah, where he spent four years (2002-05). He then became an intern at the University of Utah under Kyle Whittingham for two seasons (2006-07). Unable to earn his degree at Weber State because he went into the NFL, while interning at Utah he earned his bachelor's in Sociology and Criminology in 2006.

He attained his first full-time coaching position in 2008, when he was named the running backs and tight ends coach at Southern Utah University. He was there for two seasons and coached in 22 games (SUU was 9-13) before moving on to Idaho ahead of the 2010 season.

Pupunu was inducted into the Utah Sports Hall of Fame in 2004 and the Weber State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005. He has also been presented with the Distinguished Utahn Award by former Prime Minister of England, Margaret Thatcher.

Born Alfred Pupunu on Oct. 17, 1969 in Tonga, he graduated from South High School in Salt Lake City, Utah, where he lettered in football and basketball, soccer and track. He is married to the former Mindi Forbes, and the couple has five children, Miley, Kade, Brynnli, Kenna and Noah (Kade signed to play football at Weber State but went on his two-year Mormon Mission and will be a freshman this fall). He moved to the United States when he was a toddler and was raised in Utah. (Last name is pronounced puh-poooh-new.)

TRAVARES TILLMAN*Defensive Backs

Travares Tillman is in first year on the Colorado staff as the defensive backs coach, as he was hired by new CU head coach Mel Tucker, officially joining the Buffalo staff on Jan. 2, 2019.

Tillman, 41, came to CU after spending the previous three seasons (2016-18) at the University of Georgia. He was a graduate assistant working with the defensive backs the first two years before transitioning into a quality control role with the defense for the 2018 season. After Tucker accepted the CU job, he helped the Bulldogs defensive backs prepare for their Sugar Bowl matchup against Texas.

At Georgia, he helped tutor Deandre Baker, an All-American and the 2018 Thorpe Award winner given to the nation's top defensive back. He worked directly with Tucker in coaching the safeties and assisted with recruiting along with coaching the offensive scout team, while his quality control duties included breaking down opponents and writing weekly scouting reports. GA was 32-9 when he was on staff, including 13-2 in a magical 2017 season. The Bulldogs were the SEC champions as well as the Rose Bowl champions in what was also College Football Playoff semifinal; Georgia was the third-ranked pass defense in the nation that season.

Prior to joining Kirby Smart's staff at Georgia, he served as the defensive backs and head track coach for four years (2012-15) at Calvary Day School in Savannah, Ga.; he was also the school's assistant athletic director his last two years there. He helped coach the team to a 41-8 record over those four seasons, advancing to the state quarterfinals all four years, the state semifinals twice and in the state championship game in 2013. Eight players earned collegiate football scholarships during his time there.

In 2013, Tillman was a recipient of the NFL's Bill Walsh Minority Coaching Fellowship. He spent that summer working with the defensive backs at training camp with the Philadelphia Eagles under its first-year head coach Chip Kelly.

Tillman was a four-year letterman and two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference performer at Georgia Tech playing defensive back, starting three years at safety and cornerback from 1996-99. He recorded 236 tackles in his Yellow Jacket career, fourth at the time of his graduation among defensive backs at the school and still eighth on GT's all time chart. He also made seven interceptions, tying for the team lead with four his sophomore season. As a senior, he was named a permanent team captain and also earned Academic All-ACC honors.

The Buffalo Bills selected him in the second round of the 2000 National Football League Draft (the 58th player selected overall). He played two seasons with the Bills, primarily at free safety. After missing the 2002 season with an injury, he was in the Houston Texans' camp and made the final 53-man roster but was waived early in the season. However, the Carolina Panthers picked him up the very next day and he would spend the next two years (2003-04) in Charlotte, helping the team to the 2003 NFC championship by defeating Philadelphia and gain a berth opposite New England in Super Bowl XXXVIII. To this day, it was one of the wildest fourth quarters in Super Bowl history, with New England winning, 32-29, on a field goal with four seconds remaining; the Panthers had rallied from 11 down to tie the game and outscored the Patriots, 19-18 in the quarter.

He then signed as an unrestricted free agent with the Miami Dolphins (2005-07), where he would finish as a pro after a second knee injury ultimately ended his career. He started 18 of his 33 games in Miami, recording 115 tackles with three interceptions. In seven seasons in the professional ranks (74 games), he was in 180 tackles, with four interceptions and 15 pass deflections.

He then returned to Georgia Tech to finish up his degree, graduating in 2010 with a bachelor's in Business Management.

He was born Oct. 8, 1977 in Lyons, Ga., and graduated from Toombs County High School in Lyons, where he lettered four years in both football and basketball and twice in golf. In football, he earned Class 3A All-State honors and was the 3A Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. He is married to the former Kiki Kirchner, and couple has three children, Atticus, Harper and Saint. (First name in pronounced truh-var-es.)

SPRING GAME (SATURDAY, APRIL 27)

Coach Tucker long planned to bring back the annual spring game, which would be the first to end spring drills since 2015; the last three years have been a short scrimmage that lasted roughly an hour after 45-50 minutes of drills. Events that day will begin with a Football Alumni Autograph Session and Healthy Kids Day on Folsom Field beginning at 11 a.m. The spring game will commence shortly after Noon (televised live by the Pac-12 Network), and at the conclusion around 2 p.m., there will be a "Selfie Session" with the football players and coaches. Admission is free.

2019 COLORADO PLAYERS-TO-WATCH

1 DELRICK ABRAMS, JR., CB

6-3, 180, Sr., 1L, Angie, La. (Varnado/Independence CC)

- Started eight and played in 10 games in his first season in Boulder, coming from Independence CC the previous season. His eight pass break-ups were a team high.
- He started the first six games of the season before missing the Washington game due to injury. He played against Oregon State, then started two games against Arizona and Washington State before missing his second game against Utah, due to injury. He played but didn't start in the season finale at Cal.
- Played in 478 defensive snaps and had 44 tackles, 36 solo, and one for a loss. He had six third down stops, including a team-leading two on fourth down, three quarterback hurries and a forced fumble. He accounted for three touchdown saving tackles on the season.
- Three of his eight PBUs on the season came in the New Hampshire game, matching the most by a Buff in any game in 2018. He had a season high nine tackles against Nebraska in the second game of the season.

35 BEAU BISHARAT, TE

6-2, 225, Sr., 3L, Sacramento, Calif. (Jesuit)

- Was moved to tight end halfway through CU's 2019 spring practices; should remain one of the top special team players in the nation.
- He led the team in special teams' points for the second straight season, recording exactly 29 points for the ninth-most at CU.
- He led the Buffs in special teams tackles with 11, including eight solo. Also had six knockdown or springing blocks, four forced fair catches, two downed punts and was first down field twice. He also had one forced fumble and three of his eight solo tackles were inside the 20 for his 29 points.
- He now has 70 special teams' points in his career, which is the seventh most in CU history (since 1987). He is 18 points shy of second most in CU history (88 by Arthur Jaffee, 2008-11). Ryan Sutter is the Buffs career leader with 129 from 1994-97.
- His 31 career special teams' tackles ranks tied for eighth most in program history.
- CU's leading returning rusher out of the running back spot, he finished 2018 fourth on the team with 146 yards on 21 carries. He had his best career game on the ground against New Hampshire with six carries for 92 yards, including a career long of 47 in that game.
- Has played in 36 career games, including the 2016 Alamo Bowl (number not reflected in chart below). He saw action in the first 35 games of his career before missing the Washington State and Utah games this past season due to injury.

34 MUSTAFA JOHNSON, DE

6-2, 290, Jr., 1L, Turlock, Calif. (Turlock/Modesto JC)

- Named first-team All-Pac-12 (Associated Press) and honorable mention by the league coaches (third-team honors by Phil Steele's College Football).
- Named first-team All-Colorado by the Colorado Chapter of the National Football Foundation.
- Given the Buffs' Dave Jones Award alongside Nate Landman as the outstanding defensive players for 2018.
- Led the Pac-12 and was 42nd nationally in sacks at .63 per game, finishing the season with 8.5 for 39 yards.
- Started all 12 games for CU, playing 673 snaps with 73 tackles, including 17½ tackles for loss and 8½ sacks. He had 16 quarterback hurries, 10 third down stops, one pass break-up and one fumble recovery, which led to a touchdown in the Buffs 33-28 win at Nebraska.
- His 8½ sacks, 17½ tackles for loss and 16 quarterback pressures all led the team while his 673 snaps, 73 tackles and 10 third down stops led the Buffs defensive linemen.
- His 17½ tackles for loss ranked 10th most in a season in CU history and is the most in some 25 seasons since Sam Rogers had 18 in 1993.
- One of six players on the team and one of four defensive players to start all 12 games for the Buffs.

89 ALEX KINNEY, P

6-1, 195, Sr.-2, 4L, Fort Collins, Colo. (Rocky Mountain)

- Played in four games of what became his true senior season and with the new redshirt rules in place, will be a second-year senior.
- He broke his collarbone making a diving tackle after his own punt against Nebraska in the second game of the season. He sat out the next eight games and then played in the final two games of the season.
- He averaged 41.9 yards per punt and netted 40.9 yards in four games with seven of 16 punts inside the 20. The Buffs allowed just 15 return yards on his 16 punts.
- Named to the inaugural Food City All-America honorable mention team in 2017. Selections are chosen from the top GPR Punt Ratings and from the top five 'punting for distance' averages and top five 'coffin corner' averages. 'Punting for distance' and 'coffin corner' averages are all new stats from a New GPR Punt Rating system.
- Had an under-the-radar year as a junior, but he enjoyed his best season in gross (43.8) and net averages (41.7).
- His 49.3 average led the nation over the final five weeks of the 2017 regular season (16 punts, 12 of which were inside-the-20).
- Set school records for the most punts (28) inside-the-20 as well as the highest percentage of kicks doing so (50.0 percent) in 2017.

56 TIM LYNOTT, Jr., OG 6-3, 300, Sr., 2L, Parker, Colo. (Regis)

- CU's most experienced returnee on the offensive line. He will enter 2019 with 36 games played (33 starts) and 2,292 snaps from scrimmage under his belt. The next closest returning linemen are Colby Pursell, Will Sherman and Brett Tonz, who all have played 12 games on the o-line. Pursell has the next most snaps headed into 2019 with 830.
- His 31 career starts are most on the team entering 2019. Steven Montez is next with 25.
- In 2018, he started the first three and last six games of the season. He played 644 snaps on offense and led the team with 18 knockdown blocks and 15 perfect plays on passing touchdowns. He was penalized just once in 644 snaps.
- He earned honorable mention on the Pac-12 All-Academic team, maintaining above a 3.0 GPA in Strategic Communication.
- In his career he has been credited with 35 knockdown blocks, 36 touchdown blocks (direct), 44 perfect plays on passing touchdowns, allowed 10½ sacks and 27 pressures while being flagged for seven penalties on 2,292 plays.
- He missed the last two games of 2017 after suffering an Achilles injury in week 10 at Arizona State, but his 709 total snaps from scrimmage tied for the third most on the OL.
- He was named a 2016 USA Today First-Team Freshman All-American, CU's first since 2013 (Addison Gillam).

12 STEVEN MONTEZ, QB 6-5, 230, Sr., 3L, El Paso, Texas (Del Valle)

- Started all 12 games last season and has started 27 games in his career, including the last 24 straight, most on the team. In all, he's played in 35 career games.
- He was one of 45 quarterbacks put on the midseason watch list for the Manning Award, one of 94 on the initial Maxwell Award watch list, one of 47 on the initial Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award watch list, one of 50 on the initial Walter Camp Award watch list and one of 15 players that advanced to the third stage of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award in 2018.
- He was named the CU Athlete of the Week presented by Arrow, honorable mention on the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Player of the Week and one of eight Manning Award Stars of the Week for his performance against Colorado State to open the season, when he completed 22-of-25 passes for 338 yards and 4 touchdowns and had one rushing touchdown. He was then named the Maxwell Award National Player of the Week, the Davey O'Brien Great Eight Stars of the Week and CollegeSportsMadness.com Pac-12 Player of the Week for his performance at Nebraska the following week, completing 33-of-50 passes for 351 yards and 3 touchdowns. He earned another Davey O'Brien Great Eight award against Arizona State, completing 24-of-33 passes for 328 yards and two touchdowns while rushing for another score.
- He set 16 new CU records in 2018, including pass efficiency in a game (246.4 vs. Colorado State) breaking a 23-year-old record of Koy Detmer (244.4 vs. NE Louisiana on 9/16/95).
- 2018 numbers were 258-of-399 passing (64.7 percent) for 2,849 yards with 19 touchdowns and nine interceptions.

- Career numbers are 565-of-907 passing (62.3 percent) for 6,841 yards with 46 touchdowns and 22 interceptions. The 6,841 yards is fourth in CU history and with 807 rushing yards, his 7,648 yards of total offense ranks third.
- He accumulated 6,400 yards of total offense the last two seasons, the most in back-to-back seasons by more than 400 yards, besting Sefo Liufau's 6,020 in 2014-15.
- He attended two offseason passing academies in 2018 – drilled with Steve Clarkson in Los Angeles in May and was a camp counselor at the Manning Passing Academy.
- Honorable mention All-Pac-12 as a sophomore as selected by the league coaches; CU's John Mack Award winner, given to the team's outstanding offensive player.

2 LAVISKA SHENAU, WR

6-2, 235, Jr., 2L, DeSoto, Texas (DeSoto)

- He burst onto the national scene the first half of the 2018 season before getting injured but came back to play in the final three games to still lead the nation in receiving with 9.6 receptions per game; he still earned second-team All-America honors from Pro Football Focus and fourth-team honors from Phil Steele.
- He was a first-team Midseason All-American by the Associated Press, The Athletic, CBSSports, ESPN, Pro Football Focus and Rivals.
- He earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors from the league coaches and Phil Steele's College Football and was second-team by the Associated Press. He was on the watch list for the Biletnikoff and Maxwell Awards.
- His Player of the Week honors included two CU Athlete of the Week honors presented by Arrow, two Pac-12 Players of the Week, one Colorado Chapter/NFF State of Colorado Player of the Week, three honorable mention and one National Player of the Week awards by the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award, one Pac-12 Player of the Week from College Sports Madness and a national Player of the Week Award from Lindy's Sports.
- He was second-team on the Colorado Chapter/NFF All-Colorado team and was given the team's Zack Jordan Award as team MVP.
- He finished the season with 86 receptions for 1,011 yards and 6 touchdowns receiving and he ran the ball 17 times for 115 yards and 5 touchdowns. He led the nation in receiving at 9.6 catches per game and was the only player nationally to score five touchdowns rushing and receiving in 2018 and he's just the second player in CU history to accomplish the feat alongside Mike Pritchard in 1990 when he caught six touchdowns and ran for five more.
- On top of leading the nation in receptions, his 112.3 receiving yards per game led the Pac-12 and was fourth nationally and his 7.3 points per game was seventh in the Pac-12 and 62nd nationally. His all-purpose yards of 125.1 per game ranked fifth in the league and 26th nationally.
- An amazing 346 of his 1,011 yards came after contact and 634 of his receiving yards came after the catch.
- Of his 103 touches on offense, he was tackled by one player just 24 times. It took two players to bring him down 25 times and he was gang tackled by three or more 28 times. He ran out of bounds eight times, there was no tackle seven times and he scored touchdowns on the other 11 touches.
- His career numbers of 93 catches ranks 20th in CU history and his 1,179 yards ranks 21st. His season numbers of 86 catches ranks third in CU history and his 1,011 yards receiving is the 10th most in CU history.
- In his first career start, he had 11 receptions (on 12 targets) for 211 yards and a touchdown against Colorado State, becoming just the fourth player in CU history to record 200 receiving yards in a game. At Nebraska, he caught the game winning touchdown with just 66 seconds left and finished with 10 catches for 177 yards.

- He scored all four touchdowns in a 28-24 win against Arizona State, with two coming through the air and two on the ground. He became just the 15th player in CU history to score four touchdowns in a game and just the third in the past 24 years. He was the first CU player to have multiple rushing and receiving TDs in the same game.
- His 11 touchdowns (five rushing, six receiving) tied for the most in CU history with at least one of each variety, and all together added to 302 yards (27.5 per).

6-4, 305, So., 1L, Allen, Texas (Allen)

- He earned honorable mention All-Pac-12 by the league's coaches after playing in all 12 games and starting the last nine 2018, shoring up the left tackle spot.
- He was also named first team to the Colorado Chapter/NFF College Football Hall of Fame All-Colorado Team and earned the team's Offensive Trench Award.
- He played in 750 offensive snaps, second most on the offensive line, and had 14 knockdown blocks, 11 touchdown blocks and 10 perfect plays on passing touchdowns.

48 JAMES STEFANOU, PK

6-1, 195, Fr., HS, Melbourne, Australia (Rose Hill Secondary College)

- Was on the official watch list for the Lou Groza Award to the top placekicker in 2018.
- Was injured for four games in 2018 and in the eight games he played, he hit all 30 of his PAT attempts and was 5-of-8 on field goals.
- Set a new CU record by hitting on 44 straight PATs to open his career.
- He has 131 career points and is 10th in CU history in kick-scoring and is seventh for most field goals made with 22, hitting of 22-of-30 to go along with a 65-of-65 PATs.
- He was the oldest player in the nation last season at 31 years of age, edging out Maryland's Wes Lees, a punter also from Melbourne.
- In 2017, he was named a 2017 first-team Freshman All-American by ESPN and was one of 20 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award, just the third Buffalo to be a semifinalist for the award, joining Will Oliver and Mason Crosby, who was the runner-up in 2005 and a semifinalist in 2006.
- 2017 recipient of the team's Lee Willard Award given to the most outstanding freshman.
- His 53-yard field goal at Arizona State in 2017 was the second-longest by a freshman in CU history (behind the 54-yarder Davis Price made in 2016). It tied for the fourth-longest by a freshman in the NCAA in 2017 and tied for the 13th-longest overall.
- He had streaks of nine and six consecutive fields goals last season (the nine tied the second-most, but the most in one season; the others overlapped two years).
- His 17 field goals made tied for the sixth-most in a single season at Colorado and his 86 points were the sixth-most by kicking (and both the most by a freshman).
- He became just the third freshman to have a 1.000 percentage on multiple extra-point kicks, but by far and away made the most (35-of-35; Patrick Blottiaux was 7-of-7 in 1988 and Jason Lesley was 2-of-2 in 1995).

20 DAVION TAYLOR, OLB

6-2, 220, Sr., 1L, Magnolia, Miss. (South Pike/Coahoma CC)

- He made an immediate impact his first season on the team coming from Coahoma Community College, playing in all 12 games and starting 10, including the last eight games of the season.
- Playing the versatile Buff hybrid position, he led the Buffs in solo tackles with 62, other tackles for loss (non sacks) with 11 and was second in third down stops with 11 and quarterback pressures with 11. He was third in overall tackles with 73 had one sack, two passes broken up and two fumble recoveries, one of which he returned for a touchdown against New Hampshire. He had two touchdown saving tackles and picked up eight special teams points, as well.
- His tackle numbers improved throughout the season, as he averaged 9.3 per game over the past four games, up from his overall season average of 6.3 per game. He also added six tackles for zero, meaning 18 of his 75 tackles came at or behind the line of scrimmage.
- He had his best tackle game against Washington State when he had 12 solo stops and 13 overall tackles, both season bests and the 12 was CU's overall season high.
- Really in his fourth year of organized football, he didn't play high school football due to his religious beliefs. He participated in an open tryout at Coahoma CC. He started the final few games of his freshman season, then burst on the scene as a sophomore, becoming the No. 1 OLB JC recruit.

EYE ON RENEWING THE RIVALRY: CU & AIR FORCE

Colorado and Air Force will renew their rivalry on the gridiron this Sept. 14; they have not played since 1974 (in Colorado Springs) and since 1973 in Boulder. It also means the Buffaloes will open with three straight significant all-time rivals: Colorado State, Nebraska and the Falcons. Some CU-Air Force tidbits:

THE LAST TIME

By the time CU and AFA reunite on the gridiron this Sept. 14, 45 years will have passed between then and when they last met; going back to their last meeting on Oct. 5, 1974, here's are some fast facts of the day/year:

- ◆ The No. 1 song in the nation that week was I Honestly Love You by Olivia Newton-John (the top song of the year was The Way We Were by Barbra Streisand);
- ◆ 38 Special, The Ramones, Cheap Trick, Blondie and Boulder's own Firefall all debuted in the music world, while The Moody Blues and Jefferson Airplane disbanded, though the Blues returned in 1977;
- ◆ All In The Family aired that night as the No. 1 show on television, a position it would finish in for the year;
- ◆ The Texas Chainsaw Massacre and The Taking Of Pelham 123 were the top movies that week; for the year, Godfather II ruled the roost;
- ◆ Book: Jaws, by Peter Benchle, topped the best seller lists that week;
- ◆ Gerald Ford was just two days away from completing his second month as U.S. President, as Richard Nixon resigned on August 8; Ford of course would spent many days after his tenure as POTUS in Colorado (Vail);
- ◆ Countries with different names now included Burma, Czechoslovakia, Dutch Guiana, Rhodesia, Southwest Africa, Yugoslavia and Zaire.

And on the professional landscape:

- ◆ The Denver Broncos, coming off their best record in its 14-year franchise history (7-5-2 in 1973), sat at 0-2-1 on the year but would win their first game the next day (17-14 at Kansas City);
- ◆ The Denver Nuggets were still in the old American Basketball Association (ABA), and were ready to embark on their first season with the new nickname; having previously been called the Rockets the previous seven seasons – the team opened 35-5 en route to a 65-19 record for 1974-75, but lost in the second round of the playoffs to Indiana.
- ◆ Major League Baseball was 19 years away from Denver; the AAA Denver Bears finished 62-74 (last place in the American Association West Division) and were ending a two-year association with the Houston Astros;
- ◆ Hockey? Colorado was still two years away from its first NHL franchise—the Colorado Rockies—but the Denver Spurs were still around, finished second in the Northern Division of the Central Hockey League (36-29-13, 85 points);
- ◆ Remember the Denver Racquets in the World Team Tennis? Pacific Section champions with a 30-14 record, they won the league's inaugural title in 1974, defeating the Philadelphia Freedoms, 2 matches to 0 (55-48 overall);
- ◆ And in soccer, the Denver Dynamos finished 5-15 in their first season in the North American Soccer League; the team would compete at Mile High Stadium for one more season before moving to Minnesota (and becoming the Kicks);
- ◆ 1974-75 champions: Oakland (MLB/World Series), Pittsburgh Steelers (NFL/Super Bowl), Golden State Warriors (NBA), Kentucky Colonels (ABA), Philadelphia Flyers (NHL), Houston Aeros (WHA), Los Angeles Aztecs (NASL), Denver Racquets (WTT), Oklahoma & Alabama (NCAA football), UCLA Bruins (NCAA basketball).

CU-AIR FORCE BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia in the Colorado-Air Force series:

- No. 6 The highest national ranking for Colorado in a game against AFA (1961; CU won, 29-12 in Boulder);
- No. 10 The highest national ranking for Air Force in a game against CU (1970; CU won, 49-19 at AFA);
- 9-1 Colorado's record against Air Force when scoring 20 or more points;
- 45 The number of years since CU and Air Force last played in football;
- 16 Number of games played between Colorado and Air Force in their football histories (CU leads, 12-4);
- 100 x 3 The number of players with 100 yards rushing in the 1970 game, the second (and last) time that occurred in CU history (Jon Keyworth 124, Paul Arendt 116, Ward Walsh 101);
- 52 CU Dave: The length of a punt return for a touchdown in the '73 game by CU's Dave Logan;
- 60 AFA Dave: The length of a Dave Lawson (AFA) field goal in the '74 game, the first 60-yarder in pro or college in the state of Colorado;
- 84 The number of miles between Boulder, Colorado, and the USAFA campus just north of Colorado Springs;
- 100 Colorado's play count against Air Force in the 1970 game (83 rushes, 17 passes), still the fourth-most in school history;
- 675 Colorado's total offense against Air Force in the 1970 game (482 rush, 193 pass), still the fourth-most in school history;
- 708 The combined number of points in the series (or 44.3 per game; Colorado 443, Air Force 265);
- 1,276 The difference in elevation (feet) between Folsom Field (Boulder, 5,345) and Falcon Stadium (USAFA, 6,621);
- 16,048 The number of days between the last CU-AFA football game (Oct. 5, 1974) and the next one (Sept. 14, 2019).

THE LAST MEETING: Colorado 28, Air Force 27

(Oct. 5, 1974)

USAF — Colorado raced to a 21-3 lead and led by 28-10 midway through the third quarter, only to see Air Force rally within one with a little over four minutes remaining but managed to hold off the Falcons in winning, 28-27. AFA's Dave Lawson, who had made a 60-yard field goal in the first quarter, came up just a bit short on a 50-yard try with just seconds left on the clock. It was known at the time that it would be the final game in the series, turning out to be the only game of 16 decided by one point.

NOTES

Colorado improved to 2-2 with the win in Bill Mallory's first season as head coach, but eventually finished the season with a 5-6 record after posting a 3-4 mark in Big 8 play (fifth place). CU did upend No. 18 Oklahoma State on the road (37-20) in its next to last game of the season ... Seven seniors off that CU team were drafted into the NFL, including DB Rod Perry (fourth round by the Los Angeles Rams), who would go on to enjoy a 10-year pro career (highlighted by 30 interceptions). Sophomore Billy Waddy rushed for 765 yards on the season, giving him 1,316 for his first two seasons, at the time the most by a Buff prior to his junior season, as he played as a true freshman in 1973, just one year after the NCAA allowed freshmen to again play ... David Williams led the team in passing with 899 yards, while Dave Logan was the leading receiver (21 catches for 273 yards) and Ed Shoen the top tackler (77).

Air Force dropped to 1-3 on the season, suffered the third of what would be four straight losses by a touchdown or less on its way to a 2-9 record; the Falcons, coached by the legendary Ben Martin, were an independent that season, and had seven of those losses by a combined 22 points.

BACK-TO-BACK RIVALS FOR OPENERS?

Playing two rivals in a row to open a season is extremely rare; what Colorado will do it 2019 will certainly make history. The Buffs already joined a select group when opening against Colorado State and Nebraska last fall. Here are some other instances where an FBS school started a season with back-to-back rivalry games (in the post-World War II modern era):

School	Year	Week 1	Result	Week 2	Result	School	Year	Week 1	Result	Week 2	Result

DID YOU KNOW: The last time the two met in Boulder (Oct. 13, 1973), Colorado came into the game ranked No. 17 with a 3-1 record, eventually finishing the year 5-6 in what would be Eddie Crowder's final season as head coach.

2018 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1: COLORADO 45, COLORADO STATE 13 (AUGUST 31, 2018) BRONCOS STADIUM AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — Colorado's offense set the pace early and CU's defense followed suit, leading the Buffaloes to a 45-13 season-opening win over rival Colorado State in the Rocky Mountain Showdown.

The win was Colorado's fourth in a row in the series.

Led by quarterback Steven Montez, the Buffs scored on their first three possessions of the game to take a 21-7 lead at the end of the first quarter. CU built the lead to 28-10 by halftime, and then put the game away with two more touchdowns early in the third quarter.

Montez completed 22 of his 25 attempts for 338 yards and four touchdowns, and he also ran for a 38-yard touchdown, CU's first score of the evening. Laviska Shenault Jr. led all receivers with 11 receptions for 211 yards and a score, wide receiver K.D.

Nixon added six catches for 112 yards and a score, and graduate transfer Travon McMillian carried the ball 10 times for 103 yards and a touchdown in his first appearance in a Colorado uniform.

It was the first time in CU history that Colorado had a 300-yard passer, a 200-yard receiver and a 100-yard rusher in the same game.

Defensively, the Buffs were also solid across the board. Sophomore linebacker Nate Landman finished with 16 tackles, including two for loss, and an interception in his first start while sophomore defensive lineman Mustafa Johnson had five tackles, half a sack, 1.5 tackles for loss and a tipped pass in his CU debut.

The Buffs hit the Rams from every angle — on the ground, with short passes and with the deep ball — and Colorado State's defense never came up with an answer. Colorado finished with a healthy 596-284 edge in total yardage while dominating virtually every statistical category. The Buffs averaged 9.2 yards per play, nearly tripling the output of CSU (3.7 per play).

Colorado went 75 yards to the end zone on five plays on the first drive of the game, with Montez covering the last 38 yards on a run, then added a five-play, 87-yard scoring drive on its next possession. Nixon capped the drive with his first touchdown as a Buff, a 46-yard reception down the sidelines on a perfect throw from Montez.

CSU temporarily ended the CU run with a 75-yard drive of their own, scoring on a 26-yard pass from K.J. Carta-Samuels to Olabisi Johnson to cut CU's lead to 14-7.

But the Buffs regained control with another 75-yard march, this one using up nine plays. McMillian carried three times for 40 yards on the march before Montez connected with Beau Bisharat from 4 yards out to give CU a 21-7 lead with 2:29 still left in the first quarter.

The Buffs got one more touchdown before the half, a 4-yard scoring toss to Beau Bisharat, then put the game away with two early scores in the third period.

Montez connected with Shenault on an 89-yard touchdown play for a 35-10 lead on CU's first possession of the second half, and one series later, the Buffs went 70 yards in five plays, with running back Travon McMillian covering the last 49 with a nice inside-outside run to give the Buffs a 42-10 lead.

Shenault's 211 yards receiving was the fourth-best single game in CU history while Montez's 12 straight completion to open the game tied the CU record, matching the mark set by Joel Klatt against Missouri in 2005. Their 89-yard touchdown connection was the longest CU play from scrimmage since Robert Hodge threw a 94-yard scoring pass to Jeremy Bloom against Kansas State in 2002.

GAME NOTES

This was CU's third straight win in a season opener, the first time reeling off three in a row since 2003-05 (all against CSU both times) ... MacIntyre is now 4-2 in season openers at CU and is 7-1 against CSU overall (2-0 at San Jose State) ... Buffs now lead the series 66-22-2 (12-6 in Denver, 22-8 since it was resumed in 1983) ... Colorado improved to 80-44-5 in 129 season openers ... The 45 points by CU are the most in the series since 1996 (a 48-34 CU win in Fort Collins) ... QB Steven Montez added to his developing list of school records, completing 88 percent of his passes to set the mark for highest completion percentage with minimums of 20 and 25 attempts, while tying the school mark of 12 straight completions to open a game (matching Joel Klatt versus Missouri in 2005) ... Colorado had a 300-yard passer, a 200-yard receiver and a 100-yard rusher for the first time in its history CU was 9-of-9 on 2nd-&-4 or less until the kneel-down in the final series (13-of-23 overall on second down) ... On the four third downs CU converted, it gained 186 yards (5, 89, 49, 43) ... CU dressed 92 players for the game, 50 of whom had never played a snap for the Buffaloes; but 34 of those would appear in the game and 76 played overall ... Colorado sold 38,399 tickets (11,440 student) for the game; CSU sold 28,920; and the Broncos/Ticketmaster moved 2,839 ducats.

GAME 2: COLORADO 33, NEBRASKA 28

(SEPTEMBER 8, 2018)

MEMORIAL STADIUM, LINCOLN

LINCOLN, Neb. — A 40-yard touchdown pass from Steven Montez to wide receiver Laviska Shenault Jr. with 1:06 left on the clock gave the Buffs a come-from-behind 33-28 win over Nebraska at Memorial Stadium.

CU rallied from deficits of 21-14 and 28-20 to collect the victory, and overcame a pair of missed field goals in the fourth quarter that would have given the Buffs the lead each time. NU missed one field goal try in the fourth period.

After the final score, CU's defense came up with a defensive stop on Nebraska's last possession to seal the victory, forcing three straight incompletions from backup quarterback Andrew Bunch on NU's last three plays.

CU improved to 2-0 with the victory — Colorado's first in Lincoln since 2004 — while Nebraska fell to 0-1 as the Buffaloes spoiled the opener of the Scott Frost era, which had been delayed a week after NU's game a week earlier was cancelled due to weather.

The winning touchdown came after the CU defense had produced its fourth straight stop in the fourth quarter to force a punt. Trailing 28-27, the Buffs went 77 yards in seven plays and benefited from a Nebraska personal foul penalty on third down.

Early in the game, Colorado struck first with two quick touchdowns, both after Nebraska fumbles, to take a 14-0 lead in the first quarter.

Following a Davion Taylor fumble recovery the Buffs went 86 yards in eight plays for the score. Montez was 6-for-6 in the air on the drive, including a 3-yard touchdown pass to Jay MacIntyre.

Mustafa Johnson then recovered a fumble on NU's next possession, and four plays later, the Buffs had their second touchdown. Shenault carried in from 3 yards out on fourth-and-1 on a direct snap to help CU to a 14-0 lead.

NU then scored the game's next three touchdowns. The Huskers went 75 yards in eight plays for a score on their next possession, with QB Adrian Martinez covering the last 41 on a run around the left end to cut CU's lead to 14-7.

Nebraska then drove 52 yards in seven plays for the tying touchdown, with Devine Ozigbo scoring from 1 yard out.

Following CU's fourth straight 3-and-out, Nebraska drove for the go-ahead touchdown, marching 79 yards in eight plays. Martinez, who had 172 yards total offense in the first half, carried in from 3 yards out to give NU a 21-14 lead with 3:07 to go in the half.

Colorado finally moved the ball again on its last possession of the half, driving 52 yards to the NU 23 before finally settling for a 40-yard James Stefanou field goal to pull within 21-17 at the half.

The Buffs opened the second half with another field goal, driving 55 yards for a 35-yard Stefanou kick to pull within one, 21-20. CU then forced a Nebraska punt to regain possession, but couldn't move and the Huskers answered with a six-play, 80-yard scoring drive. Martinez finished the drive with a 57-yard scoring toss to wide receiver JD Spielman for a 28-20 NU lead.

But Colorado refused to go away; the Buffs took the ensuing kickoff and went 75 yards in 11 plays for a touchdown. The Buffs converted three third downs on the drive — including a third-and-19 and a third-and-16 — before scoring on third-and-7 on a Montez 8-yard toss to MacIntyre to close within 28-27 with 1:24 to go in the quarter.

Nebraska then missed a field goal try and CU missed a pair of attempts in the fourth quarter. Both teams also came up short on fourth-down tries and Buffs linebacker Nate Landman ended one NU drive with his second interception of the season.

GAME NOTES

Colorado won for the first time in Lincoln since a 26-20 verdict in 2004; the Huskers lead the series 49-19-2 overall, 26-9 at home ... MacIntyre improved to 15-5 in non-conference games at Colorado ... CU scored on its second straight opening game drive, marching 86 yards in eight plays; as with the CSU game last week (7-75), the Buffaloes did not have a third down on either possession ... QB Steven Montez had 344 yards of total offense to climb to 5,261 for his career, as he became the ninth player in CU history to eclipse 5,000 yards ... WR Laviska Shenault (10-177, 1 TD receiving) had 21 receptions for 388 yards in the first two games, the second-most receiving yards in back-to-back games in CU history. He also became the third player in the MacIntyre Era to score touchdowns rushing and receiving in the same game (joining Phillip Lindsay vs. UCLA at Pasadena, Sept. 30, 2017 (1 rush, 1 receiving) and George Frazier at California, Sept. 27, 2014 (1 rush, 1 receiving) ... QB Josh Goldin, equipment manager-turned-walk-on, saw his first career action as a Buff, replacing P Alex Kinney as the holder on placements; Kinney was injured on his first punt making a tackle (broken collarbone) ... WR Jay MacIntyre (8-45, 2 TD) had career high eight receptions and his first career 2-TD game ... ILB Rick Gamboa became the 16th player in Colorado history to record 300 tackles, hitting the mark with his first tackle in the game (he passed three players into 13th all-time on CU's tackles list) ... PK James Stefanou is now 44-of-44 pm PAT kicks to open his CU career, setting the school mark for the most consecutive PAT makes to start a career; Neil Voskeritchian was 41-of-41 in the first 10 games of his career in 1994.

GAME 3: COLORADO 45, NEW HAMPSHIRE 14

(SEPTEMBER 15, 2018)

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado's offense put 28 points on the board in the first half and the defense pitched a first-half shutout, paving the way for a 45-14 win over New Hampshire at Folsom Field.

The Buffs — who then quickly put the game out of reach by scoring on the first play of the second half — improved to 3-0 while the visiting Wildcats dropped to 0-3. Colorado also improved to 6-2 all-time against FCS schools.

Once again, Colorado's defense set the table nicely for the offense. The Buffs forced a pair of first-half turnovers, with the first — a Rick Gamboa interception on UNH's first possession — leading to Colorado's first score of the game, a 28-yard Steven Montez pass to Laviska Shenault Jr. The second, a Davion Taylor fumble recovery and 14-yard return for a touchdown, gave the Buffs their 28-0 halftime lead.

Taylor's fumble return — his second recovery in the last two games — was the sixth takeaway of the season for the Buffs, with CU converting five of them into touchdowns. The Buffs then added another fumble recovery late in the final period.

Colorado was dominant on both sides of the ball. The Buffs held a commanding 234-75 edge in yardage after just two quarters, with Montez completing 14 of 19 attempts for 167 yards and a score. Shenault, who entered the game as the nation's leading receiver, had five catches for 67 yards in two quarters of play, and caught a touchdown pass for his third straight game to start the season.

Running back Travon McMillian, meanwhile, ran 15 times for a career-high 162 yards and two scores. His first touchdown, out of the wildcat formation, came from 1 yard out and gave the Buffs a 14-0 lead in the second quarter. His second, a 75-yard jaunt on the opening play of the third quarter, gave CU a 35-0 lead. Junior running back Beau Bisharat also had a career-best day, finishing with 92 yards on 13 carries and a career-long 47-yard run.

The Wildcats finally got on the board in the third quarter when UNH linebacker Pop Lacey intercepted CU backup quarterback Sam Noyer and returned the ball 15 yards for a score. Colorado answered with a 19-yard James Stefanou field goal before the Wildcats finally scored an offensive touchdown, getting a 71-yard touchdown pass from Christian Lupoli to Neil O'Connor.

But Colorado then put the final points of the day on the board by going 43 yards in nine plays and 5:21, their longest scoring drive in terms of time in the first three games. Redshirt freshman running back Alex Fontenot capped the drive with a 15-yard run.

While the Buffs were in control for most of the game, the Wildcats did have a chance to get on the board early. After a 55-yard drive that ended with McMillian's 1-yard scoring run, UNH finally drove into CU territory, only to have a field goal attempt hit the right upright.

Colorado then answered with a 75-yard scoring drive to take a 21-0 lead, with Kyle Evans scoring from 6 yards out to essentially put the game away.

For the third straight game, Colorado's defense produced at least one takeaway, with the offense converting at least one of those takeaways into a touchdown for the third straight time. The Buffs defense also continued to get good pressure on the quarterback, finishing with five sacks by five different players.

Players getting their first starts for CU included junior wide receiver Tony Brown and redshirt freshman offensive lineman Jacob Moretti.

The win also marked the third straight game with at least 33 points for the Buffs to start the season, with Mike MacIntyre joining Gary Barnett as the only coaches to open 3-0 in their sixth season as CU's head coach.

GAME NOTES

The temperature at kickoff — 90 degrees — tied for the fourth warmest in Folsom Field history; it tied for the 11th warmest overall ... Colorado opened 3-0 for the 42nd time in its history (129 seasons), and is 3-0 in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1994-95 ... The Buffs improved to 6-2 against FCS opponents (all since 2006), with wins in five straight ... The Buffs are now 16-3 against non-conference opponents in the regular season under Mike MacIntyre (plus 0-1 in bowls; and 15-0 when holding the opponent to 17 points or less) ... CU won for the first time on Sept. 15 (now 1-6) ... CU is now 122-2 all-time when scoring 43 or more points ... Colorado's last 16 plays were rushes, as were 28 of its last 29; in fact, CU had 51 rushing attempts compared to 24 passing; the last time CU had a ratio of over 2-to-1, rushing to passing plays, was on Sept. 12, 2015 against Massachusetts (59 to 24) ... This marked just the fifth time in CU history the Buffs have scored 30 or more points in each of the first three games of the season (joining 1896, 1923, 1993 and 1995) ... New Hampshire gained 106 yards on 28 first down plays (3.8 per); but 82 of those yards came on two plays (otherwise 24 yards on 26 plays); the Buffs held UNH to 19 plays of 2 yards or less, 10 of those zero gains along with eight negative plays ... The 162 yards for TB Travon McMillian was a career-high for him (second 100-yard game at Colorado); his best game at Virginia Tech came his redshirt freshman year (2015) when had 142 (on 29 carries) against Duke in Blacksburg ... CU is now 2-2 going into a bye week under MacIntyre; the other win was in 2016 when the Buffs won at Stanford and had the following Saturday off before hosting UCLA.

GAME 4: COLORADO 38, UCLA 16

(SEPTEMBER 28, 2018)

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado scored 24 unanswered points in the second half to overcome a 16-14 deficit and take a 38-16 win over UCLA in the Pac-12 opener for both teams.

Colorado improved to 4-0 with the win, the first 4-0 start by the Buffs since 1998, while the Bruins dropped to 0-4 for the first time since 1971.

Colorado put together touchdown drives of 75, 67 and 63 yards after halftime, and added a 51-yard march for a field goal as well.

After a see-saw first half that saw the Buffs trail in the first quarter for the first time this season, CU came back to hold a 14-13 lead at the half. UCLA then drove for a field goal on its first possession of the third quarter and the Buffs trailed 16-14.

But CU regained the lead by driving 75 yards on seven plays and never trailed again. The biggest play of the drive was a 31-yard throw from wide receiver Jay MacIntyre to running back Kyle Evans that gave the Buffs first-and-goal at the UCLA 9. Three plays later, Laviska Shenault Jr. scored from 1 yard out on a direct snap and James Stefanou's PAT gave CU a 21-16.

CU's defense followed the score with a three-and-out defensive stop that led to a 67-yard CU scoring drive. Quarterback Steven Montez completed two passes for 10 yards to MacIntyre and Shenault on the drive, then had a spectacular 11-yard scramble on third-and-5 that gave the Buffs a first-and-goal from the UCLA 6-yard line. One play later, McMillian scored from 6 yards out and a 28-16 lead.

CU then forced another Bruin punt and reaped a field goal on its next possession for a 31-16 lead before the defense produced another three-and-out. The Buffs then put the game away for good with a 63-yard scoring drive that finished with Montez racing untouched 35 yards to the end zone. Stefanou's PAT gave CU a 38-16 lead and the game was over for all intents and purposes.

UCLA scored first in the game, putting together an eight-play, 47-yard scoring drive with their second chance with the ball. It marked the first time this season the Buffs trailed in the first quarter. UCLA quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson ran for 17 yards on third-and-13 on the drive, and the Bruins tacked on another 15 yards on the play thanks to a personal foul on the Buffs. Five plays later, Thompson-Robinson hit Michael Ezeike with an 11-yard scoring pass for a 7-0 UCLA lead.

Colorado then answered with a 5-play, 85-yard scoring drive, with the bulk of the yardage coming on a 57-yard Montez pass to Shenault.

UCLA took the lead again with a field goal on its next possession before the Buffs finally gained their first lead of the night. After both teams traded punts, CU went 80 yards in 12 plays, using 5:51 in the process. The Buffs converted three third downs on the drive, including a 15-yard run from Travon McMillian and an 11-yard Montez pass to Kabion Ento. Montez then found the end zone on a 10-yard run to give the Buffs a 14-10 lead.

UCLA added a field goal before the half to cut Colorado's edge to 14-13 at intermission. The Bruins then scored on the opening possession of the second half, driving for a field goal, before the Buffs put together their 24-0 second-half run to claim the win.

Outside linebacker Drew Lewis led Colorado with eight tackles, including a pair of quarterback sacks and three third down stops, while Buff backer Davion Taylor added a third sack. CU's defense limited UCLA to 289 total yards, the fewest by a Colorado opponent in eight Pac-12 openers. The Buffs, meanwhile, surpassed the 30-point mark for the fourth time in as many games.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to 4-0 for the 31st time in its history, but for the first time since 1998 ... CU is now 3-5 in Pac-12 openers, but won for the first time in Boulder (1-4) ... CU improved to 23-28-1 when wearing all black uniforms ... UCLA still leads the series by a 10-4 count (4-3 in Boulder, 6-2 as members of the Pac-12) ... The 38 points and the 22-point win were both the most/largest by CU against UCLA ... This marked the first game at Folsom Field where the end zones were painted (496 games all-time) ... Almost in half: the temperature at kickoff for New Hampshire on Sept. 15 was 90 degrees; tonight, it was 46 ... The 23 combined possessions (10 in the first half) were both season lows in a CU game ... Colorado has scored in 15 of 16 quarters this season, including 12 in a row ... The Buffs were held scoreless in both drives in the opening halves after going 3-for-3 in both to start the season ... This is just the second time in CU history the Buffs have scored 30 or more points in each of the first four games of the season ... the other? In 1896 when Grover Cleveland was president ... UCLA's 289 yards were the fewest allowing in eight Pac-12 Conference openers by the Buffaloes (previous low was 414 by Washington last year). The 138 passing yards were also the low in a Pac-12 lid-lifter ... This was the 15th game under MacIntyre (out of 67) where CU did not commit a turnover ... QB Steven Montez (26-22-0, 237, 1 TD, 173.9 rating) became the seventh Buffalo to reach 5,000 passing yards (5,084) ... PK James Stefanou is now 55-of-55 for his career in PAT kicks ... OLB Drew Lewis had the first multi-sack (2) game of his career.

GAME 5: COLORADO 28, ARIZONA STATE 21

(OCTOBER 6, 2018)

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Sophomore wide receiver Laviska Shenault Jr. scored four touchdowns — two receiving and two rushing — and No. 21 Colorado's defense came up with five consecutive stops in the second half to produce a 28-21 Buffs win over Arizona State.

The No. 21 Buffs improved to 5-0 overall and 2-0 in Pac-12 play in front of 52,681, the largest Folsom gathering in eight years as Colorado three times came back from a one-score deficit. ASU dropped to 3-3, 1-2.

Shenault finished with 13 catches for 127 yards and two scores and carried the ball five times for 13 yards and a pair of touchdowns to become the first player in CU history to have multiple touchdowns receiving and rushing in the same game. Colorado's offensive line, meanwhile, did not give up a sack against a team that had 18 sacks coming into the contest.

After giving up two scores in the first half, the Buffs limited ASU to just one touchdown after intermission, and that came on the Sun Devils' first possession before the Buff defense stiffened.

After playing catch-up for the better part of three quarters, the Buffs took their first lead of the game with 42 seconds remaining in the third period when Shenault ran in from the 1-yard line. Shenault's fourth touchdown of the day capped a seven-play, 80-yard CU drive that came after Colorado's defense had forced three straight ASU punts. The big play of the drive was a 51-yard Steven Montez pass to K.D. Nixon on first-and-20 from the CU 48.

ASU then threatened to score on the ensuing possession after quarterback Manny Wilkins hit Frank Darby with a 72-yard toss that put the Sun Devils at the Colorado 3-yard line. But the Buffs came up with a huge goal line stand that included a sack by Mustafa Johnson and a pass breakup by Delrick Abrams Jr. in the end zone on fourth down.

In the final quarter, CU had advantages of 24-6 in plays, 97-3 in yards, 7-0 in first downs and 12:34-2:26 in possession time. It was the fourth time in five game that CU shut an opponent out in the final period, with the only fourth quarter score allowed by the Buffs a Colorado State field goal in the season opener.

ASU drove 86 yards for the first touchdown of the game, benefitting from a pair of CU penalties on third down. Eno Benjamin's 1-yard run gave the Sun Devils a 7-0 lead.

Colorado quickly answered, driving 75 yards on eight plays to tie the game, including a 39-yard pass to Tony Brown. Shenault took the direct snap and scored from 1 out to tie the game at 7-7.

Both teams then missed field goals on their next possessions before ASU regained the lead, going 79 yards in 13 plays, with Benjamin again scoring from 1 yard out.

But Colorado answered again, driving 84 yards on 13 plays. The Buffs converted two third downs and a fourth down on the drive. Montez and Shenault then capped the drive with a 3-yard TD pass with just 24 seconds left in the half to tie the game at 14-14 at intermission. It was Shenault's fifth straight game with a touchdown catch.

The Sun Devils opened the second half by going 75 yards in four plays for a touchdown, a 40-yard scoring toss to Darby.

But the Buffs responded with a 75-yard scoring drive in five plays, with Montez connecting with Shenault from 30 yards out for the tying score.

Colorado's defense then took over, producing five consecutive stops to set the stage for CU's winning touchdown and ensuing goal line stand.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to 5-0 for the 25th time in its history, but for the first times since 1998 and 1994 ... CU is 2-0 in Pac-12 play for the second time in eight years in the conference ... Arizona State now leads the series by an 8-2 count (3-2 in Boulder) ... CU is now 19-8 in games on Parent's/Family Weekend dating back to 1992 ... This was CU's first game with the "white helmet/black jersey/black pant" look; it was the 11th time wearing the white helmets (record: 6-5) ... Arizona State's TD on its first possession were the first points by a CU opponent on an opening drive this season; the plays (13), yards (86) and time (6:33) were all opponent highs for any possession, scoring or non-scoring in 2018 ... ILB Nate Landman played 24 snaps before being ejected for targeting in the second quarter ... Colorado sealed the game with a 13-play drive that ate up the final 7:10 of the game; in the quarter, CU had advantages of 24-6 in plays, 97-3 in yards, 7-0 in first downs and 12:34-2:26 in possession time ... Colorado is now 36-10 all-time with a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver (3-0 this season) ... This was CU's 16th turnover-free game under head coach Mike MacIntyre ... WR Laviska Shenault became the first player in Colorado history to score multiple touchdowns rushing and receiving in the same game ... Offensive Line. CU did not allow a quarterback sack for the second time this season, and the ASU defense had "just" five tackles for loss; the Sun Devils came in with 18 sacks (fifth in the NCAA) and averaging 8.2 TFLs (18th) ... Just eight players touched the ball on offense for the Buffaloes: QB Steven Montez (36 plays), TB Travon McMillian (30), WR Laviska Shenault (18), WR K.D. Nixon (6), WR Tony Brown (4), TB Kyle Evans (3) and WR Jay MacIntyre (2) ... and of course C Colby Pursell (78) ... This was the 19th game in CU history where CU did not commit a turnover or allow a quarterback sack (16-3).

GAME 6: SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 31, COLORADO 20

(OCTOBER 13, 2018)

LOS ANGELES COLISEUM

LOS ANGELES — Colorado drew first blood but USC answered with four straight scores in the Coliseum to send the Buffs back to Boulder with a 31-20 loss.

The loss dropped CU to 0-13 all-time against the Trojans, as the Buffs couldn't take advantage of some early opportunities.

CU intercepted USC quarterback JT Daniels twice in the first half, including a pick by linebacker Drew Lewis on the first play from scrimmage. Evan Worthington added the second, giving Colorado two chances to create some early momentum.

But both times, the Buffs failed to convert the interceptions into scores.

Still, the Buffs scored first, ending a two-game skid in which they had failed to score in the first half against USC. Laviska Shenault Jr. — the nation's leading receiver — ran 49 yards from the wildcat formation to give Colorado a 7-0 lead with 11:58 to go in the half.

But USC answered quickly, putting three touchdowns on the board in the second period, all through the air.

The Trojans tied the score on their ensuing possession. Daniels shook off the two early picks to hit Tyler Vaughns with a 28-yard pass to put the Trojans at the Colorado 27, then hit Vaughns again on the next play with a 27-yard scoring toss to tie the game.

After a pair of Colorado punts sandwiched around a USC punt, the Trojans scored again, needing just two plays. Daniels hit Michael Pittman with a 65-yard touchdown bomb to give USC a 14-7 lead with 3:33 to go in the half.

The Buffs' offense then continued to go nowhere, producing its third straight three-and-out. That left the Trojans more than enough time to go 55 yards for their third touchdown, this one a 9-yard Daniels toss to Pittman that was set up by a 39-yard Daniels to Pittman connection.

USC then stymied a last-minute CU drive into Trojan territory, and Colorado trailed 21-7 at the half.

Trailing in the third period was nothing new for the Buffs, as they trailed Nebraska, UCLA and Arizona State after halftime in earlier games in the season, and came back to win all three times.

But there was no rally this time around, as any hopes of a Colorado rally were dashed in the third period. After the two teams traded punts, the Buffs found themselves backed up deep in their own territory. On third-and-22, a Montez pass bounced off the hands of Shenault to USC's Ajene Harris. The Trojans defensive back returned the ball 6 yards for a score and a 28-7 USC lead. It was the second year in a row Harris returned a Montez interception for a touchdown.

The Buffs finally got on the board again in the fourth quarter when they went 65 yards in 16 plays, getting a 2-yard Kyle Evans run to cap the drive and cut the USC lead to 28-14. USC recovered the ensuing onside kick and then drove 28 yards before settling for a 38-yard field goal before Colorado drove 75 yards in 10 plays for the final score of the night. Montez carried in from 19 yards out for the touchdown, but a 2-point conversion try failed.

The deep ball that had been a staple of the Buffs' offense in the first five games never materialized against the Trojans. CU's longest play of the night was Shenault's 49-yard touchdown run. But through the air, Colorado's biggest gain was a 24-yard pass to Shenault, as the Trojans managed to keep the CU sophomore bottled up for most of the evening. While he did catch nine passes, he totaled just 72 yards receiving.

GAME NOTES

Colorado sold its entire ticket allotment for the game (3,000) ... The Buffs had won three straight games dating back to 2014 when wearing gold helmets/white jerseys/gold pants ... USC extended its lead in the series by a 13-0 count (7-0 in Los Angeles) ... This marked the third time CU had a lead versus USC since the Buffs joined the Pac-12 in 2011: CU led 7-0 in '11, 17-3 in '15 and tonight ... When USC took a 21-7 lead late in the first half, it marked the first time that CU trailed by two scores in 2018 ... Of the 73 plays in the first half, only 13 were in plus territory (USC 8, CU 5); for the game, just 45 of 145 were (CU 27, USC 18) ... PK James Stefanou improved to 61-of-61 for his career in PAT kicks ... CB Chris Miller made his first career start; WR Jaylon Jackson saw his first career action (the 42nd player to do so for CU this season) and also made his first career receptions ... S Kyle Trego recovered CU's onside kick; the Buffs had not recovered one for the previous six tries (including one in this game), as WR Nelson Spruce recovered the last one at Oregon in 2014 ... The scoreless first quarter was just the ninth involving the Buffaloes over the last 196 games (dating back to 2003) ... but the second season in a row with the Trojans ... ILB Drew Lewis made his first career interception on the first play of the game; it was CU's fourth pick of the year, all by linebackers at that point. The secondary then got its first later in the quarter when S Evan Worthington had the fourth of his career ... Colorado came in allowing just 3 points in the fourth quarter (best in the nation); USC came in with 39 fourth quarter points (47th); CU outscored USC in the quarter, 13-3, outgained the Trojans 101-22, and over the last two games CU has outgained the opponent 198-25 with 22:36 of possession time ... Ajene Harris' interception in the third quarter ended a run of 11 straight quarters by the Buffs without committing a turnover; it also ended a streak of 83 consecutive passes by QB Steven Montez without throwing a pick, his third streak of 80-plus in his career.

GAME 7: WASHINGTON 27, COLORADO 13

(OCTOBER 20, 2018)

HUSKY STADIUM, SEATTLE

SEATTLE — The Colorado Buffaloes had their opportunities to knock off No. 15 Washington, but couldn't take advantage and dropped a 27-13 decision at Husky Stadium.

Colorado jumped out to an early 7-0 lead with a touchdown on its first possession, and went up 10-7 in the second quarter.

But after the Huskies regained the edge, 14-10, the Buffs had to settle for a field goal late in the second quarter after an interception gave them the ball at the Washington 9-yard line. Instead of going into the half with the lead, CU still trailed at intermission, 14-13, and never scored again.

After going 80 yards for their first score, the Buffs offense couldn't mount another sustained drive to the end zone the rest of the day. The Huskies, meanwhile, were efficient on offense — 203 yards rushing, 150 passing — but most importantly had all three of their touchdown drives extended on fourth downs.

Washington scored the clinching touchdown in the fourth quarter by converting a fourth-and-5. With UW holding a 17-13 lead, the Huskies went for it on fourth down — and Jake Browning threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to Aaron Fuller to give Washington a 24-13 lead with just 3:50 remaining.

Colorado's Steven Montez was then intercepted on the next possession and Washington added a field goal for the final points of the game.

Early on, Colorado threw a scare into Washington.

After forcing the Huskies to punt on their opening possession, the Buffs wasted little time in getting to the end zone. Montez completed an 11-yard pass to Dimitri Stanley and Travon McMillian ran five times for 32 yards before Montez connected with true freshman Daniel Arias for a 37-yard touchdown pass. It was the first catch of his career for Arias, who became the 16th player in CU history to score on his first collegiate touch. Evan Price's first PAT of his career gave Colorado a 7-0 lead.

After the two teams traded punts, the Huskies marched 84 yards to tie the game. UW extended the drive in Colorado territory when a pass interference on fourth down gave Washington a first-and-goal at the Colorado 7-yard line. One play later, Salvon Ahmed scored from 7 yards out to tie the game at 7-7.

Colorado regained the lead on the ensuing possession. Montez had an 11-yard pass to Brady Russell — the freshman tight end's first catch of his career — and McMillian had a 23-yard run before the drive stalled. CU then settled for a 37-yard Price field goal and 10-7 lead.

Washington, however, put together another long drive to take its first lead of the game, again extending the drive on a fourth down with a 2-yard run on fourth-and-1. Kamari Pleasant's 15-yard TD run capped a 75-yard drive to give UW a 14-10 lead.

But following a Colorado punt, the Buffs collected the game's first turnover when safety Nick Fisher intercepted Jake Browning and returned it to the UW 9-yard line. Colorado couldn't advance the ball, but still got another Price field goal to head into the locker room at intermission trailing by one, 14-13.

Neither team managed much of an offensive threat for much of the third quarter before the Huskies finally drove deep inside CU territory before settling for a field goal and a 17-13 lead.

Colorado's defense then came up with a big play early in the fourth period by forcing a fumble at the goal line and getting a touchback, but the Buffs couldn't capitalize on the opportunity. That set the stage for Washington's clinching touchdown drive.

GAME NOTES

Colorado sold its entire ticket allotment (2,500) ... This marked the second time that the United Airlines team charter was piloted by Douglas Price, the father of CU kickers Davis and Evan; he was also at the controls for the 2016 trip to USC ... This was the first time CU wore the uniform combination of a gold helmet, white jersey and silver pant ... Washington now leads the series by a 12-5-1 count, winning its ninth in a row ... The last three games were all one-score contests at halftime (UW held a 38-27 scoring edge combined); in the second half, the Huskies have outscored the Buffs 67-6 ... The Buffs have now lost 29 straight games on the road to ranked teams ... UW's touchdown on 4th-&5 with 3:50 remaining was the first CU allowed in the fourth quarter this season (16 points total in the quarter) ... PK Evan Price saw his first career action (scoring seven points, 2-2 FG and 1-1 PAT) ... WR Dimitri Stanley made his first career start ... TB Kyle Evans' 39-yard kickoff return was the longest by the Buffs since the 2016 Alamo Bowl ... Brady Russell caught four passes and Chris Bounds one today, the first by CU's tight ends this season (they eight all of last season) ... P Davis Price placed four of his five punts inside-the-20 (all six of his punts in opponent territory on the season have been placed inside-the-20) ... WR Daniel Arias became the 16th known player in CU history to score a touchdown on his first career touch when he caught a 37-yard TD pass from Steve Montez to open the day's scoring. Four of those 16 are on this current CU team (all WRs: Jay MacIntyre, Kabion Ento and Laviska Shenault, though Shenault's came on a fumble return on a punt) ... That 37-yard TD play was CU's 11th this season of 30 yards or longer ... CU started five freshmen: LE Israel Antwine, CB Chris Miller, C Colby Pursell, LT William Sherman and WR Dimitri Stanley. That's the most since Oct. 10, 2015, when six started at Arizona State (ILB Rick Gamboa, TE Dylan Keeney, RT John Lisella, WR Jay MacIntyre, CB Isaiah Oliver and WR Lee Walker.

GAME 8: OREGON STATE 41, COLORADO 34 (OT)

(OCTOBER 27, 2018)

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado's bid to become bowl eligible came crashing down in a 30-minute span, as the Buffs allowed Oregon State to come back from a 31-3 deficit to collect a 41-34 win in overtime at Folsom Field.

The Beavers tied the game at 34-34 in the final minute with a touchdown, but the Buffs earned a shot at overtime when CU's Terrance Lang blocked the extra point.

However, Colorado couldn't match OSU's touchdown in the first extra period. CU's third straight loss dropped the Buffs to 5-3 on the year and 2-3 in Pac-12 play while the Beavers ended a five-game losing streak to improve to 2-6, 1-4.

After taking a 24-3 lead at the half, the Buffs appeared to put the game away on the first play of the second half when Travon McMillian raced 75 yards for a score. Evan Price's PAT gave CU a 31-3 lead.

But from that point on, CU's offense went stale and OSU backup quarterback Jake Luton came on to lead a 38-3 Oregon State rally. It matched the biggest comeback by a CU opponent in program history, equaling Kansas' rally from a 45-17 deficit for a 52-45 win in 2010.

Even after a slow offensive start — three punts on their first three possessions — the Buffs appeared ready to dominate the game by halftime. CU quarterback Steven Montez threw a pair of touchdown passes to K.D. Nixon before halftime, the first covering 32 yards late in the first quarter and the second from 7 yards out with 4:44 to go in the half.

Meanwhile, CU's defense put points on the board when Dante Wigley intercepted a Jack Colletto pass and returned it 27 yards for a score. Colorado also got a Price field goal in the second quarter while limiting OSU to just three points in the half for a 24-3 halftime cushion.

When McMillian raced for a score on the first play of the second half (he did the same thing against New Hampshire earlier in the year), a homecoming victory seemed all but assured for the Buffs.

But instead of putting the game away, Colorado allowed OSU back in the game. Luton came off the bench in the second half to complete 28 of 39 attempts for 310 yards and three touchdowns.

The Beavers went 75 yards in 17 plays to close the gap to 31-10 midway through the third quarter, then added another touchdown on a 71-yard drive early in the fourth quarter to pull within 31-17. Luton threw 8 yards to Isaiah Hodgins for the first score, then drove the Beavers downfield again before Colletto came in to score from 2 yards out for the second touchdown.

CU's offense, meanwhile, could not sustain a drive. The Buffs did drive into OSU territory but had a 35-yard field goal attempt blocked late in the third quarter. Oregon State then added a field goal before another long touchdown drive and two-point conversion cut Colorado's lead to 31-28 with just more than seven minutes remaining.

The Buffs then had one more chance to put the game away. Colorado drove deep into OSU territory but had to settle for a 34-yard Evan Price field goal and 34-28 lead.

That left Oregon State with two minutes on the clock — and it was more than enough for the Beavers to drive for the tying touchdown, with Luton throwing 10 yards to Trevon Bradford.

OSU then got another Colletto run for a touchdown in the overtime period. Colorado drove for a first-and-goal from the 7, but a run for zero yards and three straight incompletions ended the game.

GAME NOTES

Colorado fell to 6-8 all-time in overtime games and to 63-36-5 all-time in Homecoming contests ... OSU took a 6-5 lead in the series with the win, snapping a CU three-game run ... Oregon State's comeback from 28 points down matched the largest ever by a CU opponent; Kansas rallied from 45-17 down to beat the Buffs, 52-45, in Lawrence on Nov. 6, 2010 ... Colorado had a season-high seven quarterback sacks (officially for the NCAA it is six; CU has always counted "sacks for zero" in its totals dating back to the 1970s (per NFL); DE Terrance Lang's PAT block that enabled the game to go into overtime was CU's first block of an extra point since DT Nate Bonsu had one against Arizona State in 2011 ... CU had its fourth turnover-free game on the season, tying the school's single season record for the most games without a miscue ... Today marked the 15th time CU had a 300-yard passer, 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver, the ninth time in the MacIntyre Era. QB Steven Montez (319), TB Travon McMillian (132) and WR K.D. Oregon State's 24 fourth quarter points and three touchdowns were more than CU had allowed in the first seven games (16 and one) ... Goofy Note of the Day: Colorado's starting lineup featured seven consecutive numbers: 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 (3 & 9 on offense, the others on defense). The last time this likely happened was before World War II, when most jersey numbers were under 50 ... Colorado started three freshmen on the offensive line for the first time in its history (LT Will Sherman, C Colby Pursell, RT Frank Phillip; Phillip became the 12th true freshman in Colorado history to start a game on the offensive line ... Colorado is now 36-11 all-time with a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver (3-1 this season), with 17 of those since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011.

GAME 9: ARIZONA 42, COLORADO 34

(NOVEMBER 2, 2018)

ARIZONA STADIUM, TUCSON

TUCSON — Colorado had no answer for Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate, who threw for 350 yards and five touchdowns in a 42-34 win at Arizona Stadium.

Colorado's fourth straight loss dropped the Buffs to 5-4 on the year and 2-4 in Pac-12 play while Arizona improved to 5-5, 4-3.

CU led at three different junctures in the game — 10-0 early, 24-23 late in the second quarter and 31-26 early in the third period — but could not prevent the Wildcats from coming back every time.

After forcing an Arizona three-and-out to start the game, Colorado put itself in great position when Ronnie Blackmon returned the punt 59 yards to the Arizona 14. But three plays netted just 8 yards, and on fourth-and-2, the Buffs eschewed a field goal try only to see K.D. Nixon thrown for a 2-yard loss.

The Buffs finally drew first blood after forcing another Arizona punt. Steven Montez completed three passes to Juwann Winfree to fuel an 11-play, 66-yard drive that finished with an 8-yard Nixon run for a touchdown, and Tyler Francis' PAT gave CU a 7-0 lead.

Colorado then had another opportunity to build a big lead on Arizona's ensuing possession. Linebacker Rick Gamboa forced a fumble on the first play and Nate Landman recovered at the Arizona 7. But the Buffs failed to move the ball and instead settled for a 25-yard Francis field goal and 10-0 lead.

Arizona finally found its offensive footing, putting 17 straight points on the board. The Wildcats went 44 yards for a field goal, forced a Colorado punt, and then needed just 1:29 to drive 62 yards for the tying touchdown. Colorado's offense again couldn't move, and eight plays and 82 yards later, the Wildcats took a 17-10 lead on a Tate 1-yard pass to Shawn Poindexter.

The Buffs ended UA's 17-0 run with a nine-play, 89 yard scoring drive. Montez connected with Kyle Evans from 17 yards out for the tying score.

But Arizona quickly answered with a six-play, 75-yard march that finished with a 12-yard Tate pass to Shun Brown. The Wildcats missed the PAT to settle for a 23-17 lead with 59 seconds left in the half.

That was more than enough time for the Buffs to regain the lead. Montez connected with Travon McMillian for a 57-yard scoring pass and Francis' PAT gave Colorado a 24-23 edge with just 33 seconds remaining in the half.

But the Wildcats drove past midfield, and with 1 second remaining in the half, Lucas Havrisik booted a 55-yard field goal to give UA a 26-24 lead at intermission.

The Buffs regained the lead in the third quarter, driving 75 yards in 11 plays for the go-ahead score. Montez completed the drive by connecting with Tony Brown for a 20-yard score and a 31-26 lead.

The Wildcats, however, answered with a touchdown to take a 32-21 lead — the 2-point conversion try failed — before tacking on a field goal for a 35-31 edge with 2:39 to go in the third quarter. Colorado responded with a Tyler Francis field goal on the final play of the third quarter to pull within one, 35-34, only to see the Wildcats come right back with an 85-yard touchdown drive in just four plays. Tate completed the drive with a 57-yard scoring pass to Cedric Peterson for a 42-34 UA lead.

Colorado then drove to the Arizona 18-yard line before Montez was intercepted at the 1-yard line on third-and-10 to end the drive with 5:07 remaining. The Wildcats converted a key third-and-9 from their 2-yard line, then ran out the clock.

GAME NOTES

Colorado now leads the series by a 14-7 margin, as Arizona has won the last two in the series ... Colorado is now 4-6 in the modern era (post-World War II) with five days in-between games (1-2 with four days rest) ... There were 10 points scored in the first quarter, 7 in the fourth; 59 combined in the second and third; the winner of the game in all eight Pac-12 meetings between the two since CU joined the league in 2011 has scored at least 38 points in each ... The Buffs have outscored opponents 80-31 in the first quarter ... When PK Tyler Francis made CU's first PAT, he became the fourth player to attempt a placekick (FG and/or PAT) this season for CU — that tied for the most at Colorado since the end of the platoon era (1965-on) ... Francis was perfect in his collegiate debut, scoring 10 points as he made was 4-of-4 on PAT kicks and 2-of-2 on field goals from 25 and 48 yards ... The 59-yard punt return in the first quarter by CB Ronnie Blackmon was the second-longest by a Buffalo in the last 13 seasons ... QB Steven Montez with the TD passes moved into a tie for third on CU's career list with 44, and he became the fifth player with 7,000 yards of total offense (7,159) with 319 in the game; it was his sixth 300-yard game this year, the 13th of his career, as he has tied Sefo Liufau for the all-time record in CU history (a streak of 82 straight passes come to an end without an interception) ... WR Juwann Winfree (8-101 receiving) had a career-high for receptions and his second career 100-yard game ... WR Tony Brown (3-37) made his first TD catch as a Buffalo; S Derrion Rakestraw had his first career interception.

GAME 10: WASHINGTON STATE 31, COLORADO 7

(NOVEMBER 10, 2018)

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — For the fifth week in a row, the Colorado Buffaloes had a chance to pick up a sixth win and become bowl eligible, but again came up short, dropping a 31-7 decision to No. 10 Washington State.

CU fell to 5-5 overall and 2-5 in Pac-12 play while WSU improved to 9-1, 6-1.

For the fifth time in their five-game losing streak, the Buffs scored first, only to see the opponent come back and take the lead.

The Buffs scored after forcing two Cougars punts on their first two possessions. Colorado needed just three plays and 48 seconds to go 80 yards for the touchdown, getting 64 yards on a Travon McMillian run, followed by a 3-yard McMillian run for the score. With 4:15 to go in the first period, CU held a 7-0 lead.

Washington State, however, answered Colorado's score with a 10-play, 57-yard drive that produced a field goal, as WSU quarterback Gardner Minshew began to find his rhythm. The Buffs' cause on defense wasn't helped when starting linebacker and leading tackler Nate Landman was ejected after a targeting penalty early on the drive.

One series later, after a Colorado three-and-out, Minshew directed a seven-play, 76-yard touchdown drive that ended with a 28-yard pass to running back Max Borghi and a 10-7 WSU lead, one the Cougars would take into halftime and never relinquish.

After receiving the second-half kickoff trailing just 10-7, the Buffs had a chance to put together a drive and regain momentum.

But that chance ended in a hurry when Washington State forced and recovered a McMillian fumble at the CU 32-yard line. Seven plays later, Minshew threw a 1-yard scoring pass to Renard Bell for a 17-7 lead.

That proved to be the beginning of the end for the Buffs.

After the two teams traded punts, Colorado managed one more threat, driving to the WSU 36. But the drive fizzled and CU punted to the Washington State 12, only to see CU's tired defense give in to an 88-yard WSU scoring drive. A 10-yard Minshew run for a touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter gave Washington State a 24-7 lead to basically put the game away.

Colorado did have one more drive into WSU territory midway through the fourth quarter, only to see a CU fumble recovered by the Cougars end the threat.

Colorado finished with 297 yards offense, with quarterback Steven Montez completing 20 of his 35 attempts for 199 yards. The game also marked the return to the lineup of CU wide receiver Laviska Shenault Jr., who finished with 10 catches for 102 yards in his first game back after missing three games with a toe injury.

WSU's Gardner Minshew, the nation's leading passer, completed 35 of his 58 attempts for 335 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions.

But the most telling statistic may have been time of possession. WSU held the ball for almost 42 minutes while Colorado had the ball for barely 18 minutes.

Colorado's offense ran just 54 plays, a season-low, and CU managed just seven snaps all day on Washington State's side of the field (plus territory). On those plays, CU managed just 6 yards.

For the day, CU was 2-for-11 on third down, did not attempt a fourth-down conversion, and had just two possessions of longer than two minutes. The Buffs finished with just 75 yards rushing, and 64 of those came on one run.

GAME NOTES

Colorado won the coin toss for the fifth straight game (7-3) this season ... Buffaloes are now 1-2 when donning the "Raiders" look of silver helmet/black jerseys/silver pants (1-1 vs. Washington State) ... Washington State has now won two in a row in the series to tie it up at 6-6 (including a 4-2 edge since the Buffaloes joined the Pac-12 in 2011 and a 4-3 lead in games played in Boulder) ... DE Terrance Lang made his first career start ... ILB Nate Landman played 24 snaps before being ejected for targeting ... P Davis Price had eight punts, six of which were fair caught; five of those were forced by WR Daniel Arias, who has now forced 11 on the season, a school record topping the 10 by John Walker in 2015 ... First Quarter Buffs. Colorado has now outscored the opponent 87-31 in the first quarter; the Buffs have not allowed a first quarter touchdown for five straight games, which is tied for the seventh-longest active streak nationally ... TB Travon McMillian (9-73, 1 TD rushing) had his fourth play this season of 50 yards or longer with his 64-yard run in the first quarter; that goes with two 75-yard runs and a 57-yard reception. He is just the fourth player at CU to have four or more plays from scrimmage in a single season that include at least one rush and one reception, joining Cliff Branch (1971), Jeff Campbell (1989) and Mike Pritchard (1990) ... WR Laviska Shenault (10-102 receiving; 1-8 rushing) returned after missing three full games to catch his average of passes per game coming in, and he had his fifth 100-yard game of the year, tied for the fourth-most in a single-season at (three had six). With the 102 yards, he became the 30th player in CU history to hit 1,000-yard mark for a career (1,050; he passed Jay MacIntyre into 29th).

GAME 11: UTAH 30, COLORADO 7

(NOVEMBER 17, 2018)

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — No. 21 Utah scored 23 points in the second half to run away from Colorado in dealing the Buffaloes their sixth straight loss, 30-7.

The game, played in cold, snowy conditions — a rarity for contests at Folsom Field — marked CU's 500th contest at the venerable stadium.

The Buffs scored first for the sixth straight time, but as has been the case throughout their losing streak, could not maintain that momentum. The Utes quickly tied the game to send it into halftime knotted up at 7-7, then wore down Colorado's defense after halftime, adding 23 points to their total after intermission.

It was CU's sixth straight loss while scoring first, coming on the heels of a pair of Pac-12 wins when the opponent scored first.

CU's offense continued its recent struggles against one of the Pac-12's best defensive teams. The Buffs crossed midfield just three times in 15 possessions, and only once in the second half, long after the game had been decided. Colorado finished with 196 yards total offense (162 passing, 34 rushing), CU's lowest total since managing 174 against Washington State in a 28-0 loss in 2017.

Both teams struggled to find their footing early in the difficult conditions before Colorado finally put together a seven-play, 70-yard scoring drive for a 7-0 lead. Quarterback Steven Montez had a 14-yard pass to Juwann Winfree on the drive, along with a 14-yard completion to Laviska Shenault Jr. Travon McMillian capped the march with a 13-yard scoring run and James Stefanou's PAT gave Colorado a 7-0 lead with 2:04 left in the first quarter.

The Utes finally answered in the second quarter, going 80 yards in four plays. Jason Shelley threw 61 yards to Jaylen Dixon on the first play, and three plays Shelley found Samson Nacua with a 10-yard scoring pass to tie the game.

Neither team mounted another serious threat the rest of the half to leave the score tied at 7-7 at intermission.

The Utes then methodically put the game away in the third quarter, putting 17 points on the board before adding six more in the final period.

Utah manufactured a drive for a field goal on its first possession of the half, using up 5:29 to go 63 yards for a 33-yard field goal and 10-7 lead. On their next possession, the Utes needed just two plays to travel 59 yards to the end zone, getting a 47-yard touchdown pass from Shelley to Dixon for the score and 17-7 edge.

Colorado's offense, meanwhile, couldn't muster a threat. Colorado quarterback Steven Montez, who limped off the field late in the third quarter with a leg injury, was 13-for-22 for a season-low 84 yards and one interception. Backups Sam Noyer and Tyler Lytle completed eight of 11 attempts for 78 yards, with Lytle throwing an interception.

Following Utah's first touchdown in the third quarter, the Buffs went three and out and Utah responded with another touchdown to put the game away. Shelley directed a seven-play, 53-yard scoring drive that included two 19-yard completions to set up a 1-yard Armand Shyne touchdown run and a 24-7 lead with 50 seconds left in the third quarter.

The Utes then added two more field goals in the fourth quarter, taking advantage of a short field following a failed CU fake punt, then converting a CU fumble into another score.

The game proved to be Mike MacIntyre's last as head coach of the Buffaloes. One day later, Athletic Director Rick George announced that MacIntyre was being relieved of his duties and named quarterbacks coach Kurt Roper as the interim head coach.

The tickets sold count for the game was 39,360 (scanned total was 16,227); the final attendance numbers for the season were 274,852 (an average of 45,808.7 per six home games) ... Utah clinched its first Pac-12 South Division title with the win (6-3 conference record), as when later in the evening when Arizona State lost at Oregon it guaranteed the Utes sole possession of first place.

GAME 12: CALIFORNIA 33, COLORADO 21

(NOVEMBER 24, 2018)

MEMORIAL STADIUM, BERKELEY

BERKELEY, Calif. — Colorado could not recover from a nightmarish start and those early errors were the difference in a 33-21 loss to Cal in the season finale.

The loss, the Buffs' seventh straight, ended their season at 5-7 overall and 2-7 in Pac-12 play. Cal improved to 7-4 and 4-4 in league play.

The Bears set the tone early, picking off two Steven Montez passes in the first two minutes of the game and returning both for scores. The Buffs also fumbled away two punts, which led to another Cal touchdown and a field goal, and Montez also threw a third interception in the first half.

Those miscues left Colorado trailing 21-0 after the first quarter and 24-7 at the half. CU did manage to come back and pull to within 27-21 late in the third quarter, but the Bears answered with a touchdown early in the fourth quarter for a two-score cushion and neither team scored again.

CU's Laviska Shenault Jr. passed the 1,000-yard receiving mark and running back Travon McMillian surpassed 1,000 yards in rushing for the season in the game, marking the first time in CU history the Buffs have had a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver in the same season.

The Buffs could not have scripted a worse start. On the third play of the game, Montez threw into the flat and Cal cornerback Elijah Hicks read the throw perfectly. Hicks broke on the ball, nabbed it in full stride and raced 34 yards to the end zone for a touchdown and 7-0 Cal lead.

The nightmare continued on CU's next series. On another third down play, Montez was intercepted again, this time by safety Ashtyn Davis, who returned the pick 35 yards for another touchdown, giving Cal a 14-0 lead before Colorado's defense ever stepped foot on the field.

Cal then extended its lead to 21-0 when its offense got a second chance on its first possession. The Buffs forced a Bears punt, but a Ronnie Blackmon fumble gave Cal the ball at the CU 29, and eight plays later, the Bears had their third touchdown and a 21-0 lead.

The Buffs finally halted the Cal run with a six-play, 69-yard touchdown drive early in the second quarter. Montez completed passes of 26 yards to Kabion Ento and 22 to Shenault before Kyle Evans scored from 1 yard out to cut the lead to 21-7. The Bears, however, recovered another fumbled punt and turned it into a field goal to take a 24-7 halftime lead.

The Buffs did come back to throw a scare into the Bears in the third quarter. After CU's defense forced a three-and-out to start the half, Colorado went 60 yards in nine plays for a score. Montez capped the drive with a 24-yard touchdown toss to K.D. Nixon and James Stefanou's extra point cut Cal's cushion to 24-14.

The Bears then answered with a field goal, but CU responded with a 10-play, 79-yard touchdown drive to cut the deficit to 27-21. Montez threw to Shenault for 18 yards and Nixon for 24 on the drive before hitting Winfree with a 3-yard scoring toss with 41 seconds to go in the third quarter.

But that was Colorado's last gasp. The Bears took the ensuing kickoff and went 72 yards in 11 plays for a touchdown, aided by a huge personal foul penalty on the Buffs on third down in CU territory. A Chase Garbers 7-yard pass to Moe Ways gave Cal a 33-21 lead, and while the two-point conversion failed, neither team managed another score.

GAME NOTES

This was the first and only game in 2018 where CU never held a lead ... Cal won the coin toss, ending a run of six straight wins by CU; the Buffs were 8-4 this season (and a crazy 29-9 over the last three years, 1,686-to-1 odds of winning that many times out of 38 tries) ... Cal now leads the series 6-4 (4-0 in Berkeley, 3-2 since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011) ... Kurt Roper was named CU's interim head coach after Mike McIntyre was dismissed the previous Sunday; with the loss, interim head coaches at Colorado are now 2-3 ... CU's last turnover gained was a Derrion Rakestraw interception in the fourth quarter at Arizona in week nine; the Buffs were plus-8 after that pick, but ended the year with the opponent forcing 12 turnovers over the last 13 quarters ... Colorado allowed a season-low 211 yards (the fewest since UCLA had 210 in Boulder in 2016 (the fewest allowed in a road game since 2005, when Oklahoma State had just 208 in a 34-0 CU win in Stillwater) ... Cal going 1-of-17 on third down was the second worst by an opponent in CU history (dating back to 1953); the only worst performance by an opponent was on Oct. 24, 1992, when Kansas State was 0-of-12 in a 54-7 Colorado win ... In fact, Cal was a combined 4-of-37 on second and third down combined, but was 3-of-3 on fourth down tries ... The Buffs came into the game not allowing a first quarter touchdown for a nation's best six straight games (tied with Army); that streak ended with Cal scoring 21 points ... ILB Rick Gamboa tied the school record for the most games played in a career by a defensive player with his 50th ... Shenault and McMillian both surpassed their 1,000-yard plateaus in the third quarter ... It was just the second time in his career that QB Steven Montez threw three interceptions (though one came on a break up) ... With a 2-7 league record, it marked the sixth time in eight year as a member of the Pac-12 that the Buffs finished in last place in the South Division.

Lytle's drives ended by count exceeds number started due to replacing Montez on a fourth quarter drive versus Utah.

*—second number is the percentage the QB has put his team in position to score, allowing for missed field goals, minus drives ended by the clock and if replaced.

**—excludes kneel-downs, spiked passes and fake/muffed punt plays when not actually directing offense: Montez 7(-12), Noyer 0(0), Lytle 6(-11); Opponents 12(-14).
