INTERVIEW POLICIES

1. Media representatives desiring access to players, coaches and facilities must obtain the consent of the Colorado Sports Information Office and assistant director Seth Pringle.
2. All practices are open to the local media, as well as to any member of a national media outlet who is not connected with a future opponent on the team schedule. Visiting media must receive authorization to attend practice through the Sports Information Office, which will in turn seek approval from the Head Coach. Live television shots must be approved by the Sports Information Office and JR Payne in advance.
3. Talking is not permitted on the floor and court area of the CU Events Center while practice is in session unless it is to request a player or coach for an interview through Seth Pringle.
4. Basketball players may be interviewed following practice during both the fall and spring semesters. CU players are not to be interviewed prior to any practice unless approved 24 hours in advance by Seth Pringle, and this exception is rare. All interviews on game days, prior to tipoff, are at the discretion of JR Payne.
5. The locker room is closed to the media at all times.
6. The training room, equipment room, and weight room are off-limits at all times to the media. The only exception to this rule is if a special feature involving one of the areas is requested, and approval must be sought in advance from the Sports Information Office and the appropriate department head.
7. Any requests for athletes and coaches on off days will be handled on an individual basis through the Sports Information Office.
8. Road practices are open only to members of the media that cover CU on a regular basis, as well as any members of the national media. JR Payne is available for interviews with opponent media based on her personal discretion.
9. It is the request of the University of Colorado women's basketball program that players are not to be called at home, unless permission has been granted by the player herself or through Seth Pringle. Though most phone numbers are available through campus information, players are asked to decline interviews when they have been reached at home when that interview has not been approved.

PRESIDENT MARK KENNEDY

Mark Kennedy was named 23rd president of the University of Colorado on May 2, 2019, and officially started leading the CU system July 1, 2019.

Kennedy, 62, oversees a university system with four campuses (Boulder, Colorado Springs, Denver and the Anschutz Medical Campus in Aurora), some 67,000 students, 35,000 employees and a $4.8 billion annual budget.

Before assuming the presidency of CU, Kennedy distinguished himself in successful roles in business, government and higher education. He came to CU from the University of North Dakota, where he served as president for three years (July 2016 through June 2019).

Kennedy firmly believes in the power of a public research university such as CU to improve lives and have a positive impact at home and around the globe. A first-generation college graduate from a family of modest means but a strong belief in education, Kennedy is a staunch advocate for increasing first-generation college graduates while providing educational opportunities for all.

His focuses at CU include fiscal sustainability, keeping a CU education affordable and accessible, elevating student success and growing CU's significant research portfolio and economic impact.

During his time at UND, Kennedy led the adoption and implementation of a strategic plan that positioned the university for success in a fast-changing higher education environment. UND increased graduation rates by 10 percentage points under his leadership, also expanded research and online offerings, underwent significant campus renewal and was listed among the 25 Most Innovative Universities by U.S. News & World Report.

Before the UND presidency, Kennedy served as director of the Graduate School of Political Management at George Washington University. He has lectured or led research projects on five continents, including at the University of Cambridge, University of Pennsylvania, Johns Hopkins University, University of Notre Dame, New York University, University of Tokyo, National University of Singapore and Tecnológico de Monterrey in Mexico.

From 2001 to 2007, Kennedy served in the U.S. House of Representatives, first for Minnesota's Second Congressional District (which includes the south Twin Cities metro area and all or parts of six counties) and then for its Sixth Congressional District (seven counties to the northwest of Minneapolis). While in Congress, he sat on the Agriculture, Financial Services and Transportation committees, where he established a reputation for bipartisanship. After leaving Congress, Kennedy was appointed to the Advisory Committee on Trade Policy and Negotiations, serving under both Presidents George Bush and Barack Obama.

Before his time in government and higher education, Kennedy had a successful career in business, including helping Pillsbury buy and expand Häagen-Dazs and serving as an executive on the leadership team of the company that is today known as Macy's. Kennedy also served as the Global Retail Business Development Lead for Accenture, a global management consulting and technology firm.

Kennedy is the founder of the Economic Club of Minnesota and a member of the Council on Foreign Relations. He founded the Frontiers of Freedom Lecture Series at his alma mater, St. John's University, and authored Shapeholders: Business Success in the Age of Activism, published by Columbia University Press.

He earned a bachelor's degree in 1979 from St. John's University in Collegeville, Minn., and a master's in business administration (MBA) with distinction from the University of Michigan in 1983.

He was born April 11, 1957 in Benson, Minn., and graduated from Pequot Lakes (Minn.) High School. Kennedy and his wife, Debbie, have four adult children and six grandchildren.

CHANCELLOR PHIL DISTEFANO

Dr. Philip P. DiStefano is in his 11th year as the Chancellor at the University of Colorado Boulder. Prior to his appointment on May 5, 2009, Dr. DiStefano was the top academic officer at CU-Boulder for eight years as the Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs. He had also served as interim chancellor twice during pivotal times in the university's history.

Dr. DiStefano, 72, co-chaired the steering committee for CU-Boulder's visionary strategic plan, Flagship 2030, conceived with campus, community and statewide input, to guide the university for decades to come. Today, Dr. DiStefano is shepherding its implementation as Flagship 2030 has moved from vision to reality.

Dr. DiStefano has served CU-Boulder for 45 years, first coming to the University of Colorado in 1974 as an Assistant Professor of Curriculum and Instruction at the School of Education. His academic career flourished as he assumed a series of academic and administrative positions, including Professor, Associate Dean, Dean and Vice Chancellor. He was appointed Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs in 2001.

He has established new initiatives to support students in their success, including an increased graduation rate. He also has set forth plans to create alternative sources of revenue and further advance CU's reputation as a top comprehensive national research university.

Dr. DiStefano is considered a national authority on integrating intercollegiate athletics into the university academic mission. For the sixth consecutive year under Chancellor DiStefano, CU's NCAA Academic Progress Rate, which tracks student-athlete progress toward graduation, is the best in school history.

He serves on the board of directors of the Association of American Universities, an association of North America's most prestigious research universities, of which CU Boulder is the only member in the Rocky Mountain West.

Dr. DiStefano began a three-year term in August 2016 on the Board of Governors of the NCAA representing the Pac 12, within that role he was a member of the NCAA's revenue distribution working group. He also served five years as the University of Colorado's faculty representative to the Big 12 Conference, as he assumed the role on June 1, 2000, and held it until appointing Dr. David Clough to the position in the spring of 2005. He has been closely involved with the athletic program for most of his time at CU, and in June 2016, was recently accompanied by athletic director Rick George to Italy to promote the university and the success of its international students.

As Chancellor he works closely with students, faculty, staff, alumni, donors, governing officials, and business and community leaders in extending CU's legacy as a preeminent national comprehensive research university.

A first-generation college graduate, Dr. DiStefano earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Ohio State University in 1968 and a Master of Arts degree in English Education from West Virginia University in 1971. He holds a Doctorate in Humanities Education from Ohio State University, where he served as a teaching and research associate.

Dr. DiStefano began his educational career as a high school English teacher in Ohio. He has authored and co-authored numerous books and articles on literacy education.

He was born September 21, 1946 in Steubenville, Ohio, and graduated from Steubenville Catholic Central High School. He has been married to the former Yvonne Pasquarella for 50 years, and the couple has three grown daughters, Gia, Nicole and Jennifer, and two granddaughters.

In 2015, he served as the official starter for the 37th annual Bolder Boulder, the city's 10-kilometer race that is the fourth largest in the nation. He has been very active throughout his career in the Boulder Community, having previously served on numerous boards, including the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club.

PROVOST RUSSELL MOORE

Dr. Russell L. Moore is now in his 10th year as the Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs for the University of Colorado, having assumed the position July 1, 2010.

Dr. Moore had enjoyed a long and distinguished career at CU, having previously served as interim vice chancellor for research from May 2009 to July 2010, and prior to that appointment, he was the associate vice chancellor for research since 2006.

Dr. Moore served as chair of Kinesiology and Applied Physiology (now Integrative Physiology) from 1994 to 2001, and was an assistant professor (1984-86), associate professor (1993-96) and full professor (1996-present) in that department. He is also an adjunct professor in the Department of Medicine at the University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus.

He co-chaired the Flagship 2030 Task Force on Research, Scholarship, and Creative Works.

He holds an adjunct professorship in medicine (cardiology) at the University of Colorado's Anschutz Medical Campus at the University of Colorado Denver.

He was an assistant and associate professor (1986-91) in the departments of medicine, cellular and molecular physiology at the Pennsylvania State University College of Medicine in Hershey, Pa. His research focused on adaptations of the heart to physiological and pathological stress, particularly as they related to the development of heart failure.

Dr. Moore earned a Bachelor of Science degree in biochemistry from the University of California at Davis in 1976, and a doctorate from Washington State University in 1982. He did postdoctoral work at the University of Texas Health Science Center in Dallas (1981-84).

FACULTY REP. JOE JUPILLE

Dr. Joseph (Joe) Jupille, an associate professor of political science, is in his second year as the University of Colorado's Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR) to the Pac-12 Conference, as he assumed the position on July 1, 2017.

Dr. Jupille, 48, is only the seventh FAR in CU history, joining a very prestigious list: Walter Franklin (1947-1948), Warren Thompson (1949-1966), William Baughn (1967-1989), James Corbridge (1989-2000), current CU chancellor Phil DiStefano (2000-2005) and Dr. David Clough (2005-2017).

Now in his 15th year at CU, he joined the faculty in 2005 and became an Associate Professor in 2007. He founded and served as Director of the Colorado European Union Center of Excellence (CEUCE) from 2008-15.

Professor Jupille's research specializes in rules and institutions, which comes in handy in the world of intercollegiate athletics. With James Caporaso (University of Washington) he is completing Theories of Institutions, which distills understandings of rules across a range of disciplinary orientations. He has previously published Institutional Choice and Global Commerce (2013, with Walter Mattli and Duncan Snidal) and Procedural Politics (2004), the latter of which centers on his core substantive and teaching expertise in the European Union (EU). He has been published widely in peer reviewed journals and edited volumes, including in the Annual Review of Political Science, Comparative Political Studies, European Political Science Review, International Organization and West European Politics.

Jupille has been involved with student-athletes almost since arriving at CU over a decade ago, serving on and then chairing the Boulder Faculty Assembly's Intercollegiate Athletics Committee (IAC), which works with the Department of Athletics in managing and thriving at the nexus of athletics and academics. He has served or continues to serve on a number of student-athlete-centered bodies such as the AD's Academic Risk Assessment (ARA) committee, the Title IX Task Force chaired by Senior Woman Administrator (SWA) Ceal Barry in addition to many others.

Jupille wants it all for CU student-athletes: a gold standard education, unparalleled opportunity for personal growth and professional preparation, a chance to enjoy year-round fresh air and sunshine and develop ways of being well, and of course, a world class athletic experience. It is the FAR's job to bring a faculty sensibility to the pursuit of these goals.

He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from UC Santa Barbara in 1992, a Master of Arts in International Public Policy from the Middlebury Institute of International Studies at Monterey in 1995, and his Ph.D. in Political Science from the University of Washington in 2000.

Prior to joining the CU faculty in 2005, he was an Assistant Professor of Political Science at Florida International University for almost six years (2000-05).

He was born in Chicago and 1970. He is married to the former Lisa Avanzino and the couple have four children (Michael, Alex, Jackson and Julia). An avid cyclist, he commutes daily to CU by bike from the town of Superior (six miles southeast of Boulder). He grew up as a fan of the Pacific 10 Conference and in particular the California Bears but his allegiance is now sworn to the Buffaloes.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR RICK GEORGE

Rick George was named athletic director at the University of Colorado on July 17, 2013, returning to Boulder where he helped play a role in the school's first and only national championship in football some 23 years earlier.

George, 59, came to Colorado from the Texas Rangers baseball club of the American League, where he was named chief operating officer on October 5, 2010 with a promotion to president of business operations in February 2013. He agreed to a 5-year contract at CU, and he officially started on the job on August 12, 2013. In June 2016, the Board of Regents approved a contract extension through 2020-21, and in June 2019, the Regents once again extended him through the 2023-24 academic and athletic year.

He is just the sixth full-time athletic director in Colorado history, following in the footsteps of Harry Carlson (1927-65), Eddie Crowder (1965-84), Bill Marolt (1984-96), Dick Tharp (1996-2004) and Mike Bohn (2005-13). Two others have bridged directors in interim capacities, Jack Lengyel (six months between Tharp and Bohn) and Ceal Barry (two months between Bohn and George).

His list of achievements in his first 1,000 days in the position were many, but none more significant than shepherding through a $156 million Athletic Complex Expansion from creation through fruition, gaining approval from the Board of Regents and then raising nearly one-half of the estimated cost to initiate construction, which began May 12, 2014. The project was the core of the Sustainable Excellence Initiative (SEI), the jewel of which was a long-awaited indoor practice facility. Once green-lighted, he spearheaded the most successful fundraising campaign in athletic department history, raising over $100 million for the project.

By the end of his second year, George implemented the department's first-ever comprehensive strategic plan, which mapped CU's immediate and long range purpose and goals. He also redesigned the management teams, made tough budget decisions that reduced deficits he inherited (and has since produced two budget surpluses), and canvassed the state, region and nation in both friend- and fundraising. The department is now in the second year of the second three-year plan orchestrated by George (through 2020-21).

In his fourth year in the position (2016-17), 13 of CU's 16 athletic teams were at one time or another ranked among the nation's Top 25 (including all five in the fall; skiing is a coed program with combined rankings). Included in that group was the football team, as the Buffaloes returned to the national rankings for the first time in 11 seasons, in part due to George's support of Mike MacIntyre as the program's head coach and allowing him to follow through with his plan to bring the Buffaloes back to national prominence. All but one team competed in the postseason, most in NCAA Championships, with football making it to a bowl game for the first time in nine years and both basketball teams going to their respective NIT events.

Near the end of his first year and most recently in his fifth, he was recognized by CU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee as its choice for Staff Member of the Year; no token award, the group acknowledged his attendance at most home athletic events, regular meetings with team captains of all programs to interact with them and receive their feedback, and willingness to meet with any student-athlete and that his door is always open to them.

George brought the most diverse background to the position than any before him at Colorado: all five others had extensive and primarily exclusive college athletic histories, the only exceptions being when Marolt left CU after 10 years as ski coach to lead the U.S. Olympic ski team before returning, and Tharp, who was a university attorney with strong CU-Boulder campus ties. While George began and worked in the college athletic world for the first half of his professional career, he stepped outside that box for the second half.

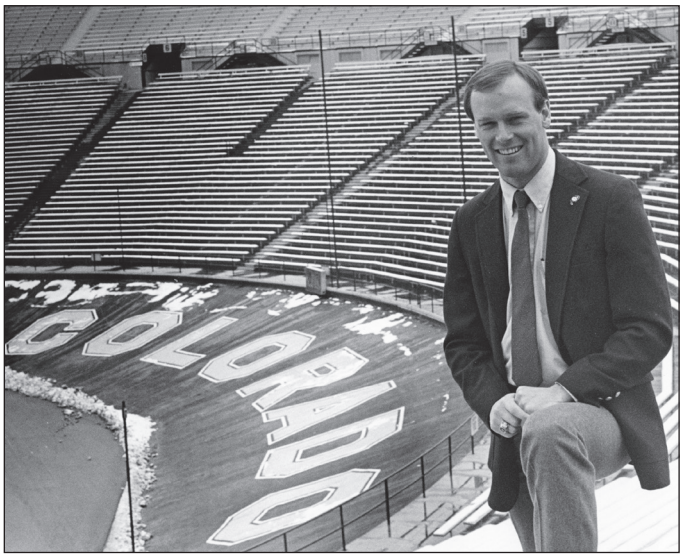

George was with the Rangers for less than three years, but saw the team win two American League championships and compile a 243-176 record (.580 winning percentage) during his time there, second-best in the major leagues during that time frame. As the COO, he worked closely with team president and CEO, baseball Hall-of-Famer Nolan Ryan, and was responsible for all facets of the Rangers' business operations, including oversight of all sales and marketing efforts, broadcast and communications, ticket and suite sales, naming rights, etc., in addition to overseeing the finance, human resource and operations departments.

Among his many accomplishments with the Rangers was a comprehensive branding study that successfully rebranded the ball club, and an implementation of a new ticketing strategy that over the course of three seasons increased ticket revenues by over $30 million. The club's attendance saw an increase of 40 percent from the 2010 season to nearly 3.5 million in 2012, second in the American League (behind the New York Yankees) and third in the majors. The 2013 numbers were on pace to exceed the 3 million mark again when he left the franchise for CU.

Prior to joining the Rangers, George served as executive vice president and chief of operations for the PGA TOUR for two-and-a-half years (beginning in June 2008). While with the TOUR, he worked with the corporate marketing department in renewing sponsorships and creating new events. He also oversaw the Tournament Business Affairs division that worked with Tournaments to increase tournament revenue.

He also worked for the PGA TOUR as president of the Champions

RICK AND GRANDDAUGHTER HARPER AT ESPN'S BASKETBALL GAME DAY (FEBRUARY 2014).

Tour from 2003-08, and as the executive vice president for championship management his last three years there. His major accomplishments included increasing revenues and sponsorships and the development of strategic plans, the latter including a vision and mission statement as well as core values. The Champions Tour had grown to a minimum 29 events with over $55 million in prize money when he left for the PGA TOUR.

From 1998-2003, George served as President and CEO of the Fore!Kids Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization that raised money for children's charities via golf-related events, where he led rebranding and organizational efforts that resulted in increases in charitable giving to the Foundation.

At the collegiate level, George worked in three major conferences (Big Ten, Big 8, Southeastern) in football operations, beginning with his alma mater, the University of Illinois, as football recruiting coordinator (1983-87).

He graduated from Illinois in 1982 with a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Arts & Sciences Individual Study that had an emphasis on Sports Communication and Journalism. He was a four-year letterman at cornerback for the Illini, playing in 44 straight games and starting in 27 games in all, as he played two years each under coaches Gary Moeller and Mike White. He was a two-time recipient of the school's Bruce Capel Award, given for dedication and courage to honor Capel who lost his life serving his country in Vietnam; George received the honor for his junior and senior seasons.

Upon his graduation, White named him the assistant director for player personnel for the Illini, and a year later (1983), he assumed the all sports recruiting coordinator. In March 1984, George took over the recruiting chores solely for football, with his first class ranked No. 1 in the nation by the recruiting services with all in the top 20; he coordinated five classes in all at Illinois when the call came to take him out west to Colorado.

On March 2, 1987, Bill McCartney hired him as Colorado's football recruiting coordinator. Two-and-a-half years later (Dec. 21, 1989), George was promoted to assistant athletic director for football operations, not coincidentally after the Buffaloes finished the regular season with an 11-0 record and the school's first-ever No. 1 national ranking in the polls. CU lost to Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl and would finish No. 4, but came back to go 11-1-1 in 1990, this time defeating the Irish in the Orange Bowl to earn consensus national champion honors.

Shortly thereafter, he left the Buffaloes for Vanderbilt University, where he was reunited with former CU offensive coordinator Gerry DiNardo, who was named the Commodores' head coach a year earlier. In eight years at Vanderbilt (1991-98), he also served as associate athletic director for external operations in conjunction with overseeing the football program. This was where George first expanded his professional role outside of solely football, as he had oversight over all external departments, particularly in the area of managing budgets and developing marketing and promotional strategies for all sports.

George was born April 3, 1960 in Woodstock, Ill., and graduated from Collinsville (Ill.) High School, where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He is married to the former Nancy Green, and the couple has two grown daughters, Jenni Reed (husband Tom) and Christi, and two granddaughters (Harper and Maddie).

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO

Founded in 1876 at the foot of the Flatirons, over 140 years has transformed the University of Colorado from a lone building on a bleak, windswept hill to one of the nation's leading public research institutions. Established in 1861, the University was formally founded in 1876, the year Colorado became a state.

The Boulder campus encompasses over 1,100 acres on the main campus in the heart of town, east campus (which includes a research park), south campus, Williams Village and the Mountain Research Station north of nearby Nederland (which supports ecology, chemistry and geology).

While over 32,000 students are educated on the Boulder campus, another 30,000-plus study at the University of Colorado at Denver, the University of Colorado Anschutz Campus (Aurora) and the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs. Nine elected Regents and President Bruce Benson lead the four-campus system, while each campus has a Chancellor who serves as the chief academic and administrative officer. Dr. Phil DiStefano is in his ninth year as the chancellor of the Boulder campus.

Students can enter any of 10 schools and colleges offering more than 2,500 courses in 150 fields, representing a full range of disciplines in the humanities, social sciences, physical and biological sciences, the fine and performing arts, and the professions. CU-Boulder is regularly ranked among the best of the United States' public universities by the Fiske Guide to Colleges, and a 2010 USA Today/Princeton Review survey rated the University of Colorado as the fifth-best value among American public colleges. CU was recently ranked as the No. 33 university in the world by the Times Higher Education.

CU-Boulder has played a major role in NASA space programs, designing and building many scientific instruments flown in outer space, and graduated 17 men and women who became astronauts, including the late Jack Swigert, one of the three astronauts in the crippled Apollo 13 mission who made it back to Earth safely from the moon. When the Hubble Space Telescope was launched in 1990, it was carrying seven major instruments, including a high-resolution spectrograph to study the evolution of stars and designed and built by an international science team led by astronomer Jack Brandt of CU-Boulder. Since Hubble has been deployed, CU-Boulder faculty and students have been among the top users of Hubble of any institution in the world. CU- Boulder is the only university in the country where undergraduate students have operated a NASA satellite.

The University has produced 19 Rhodes Scholars, five of which were former football student-athletes at CU, with Jim Hansen the most recent recipient in 1992. Faculty member Thomas Cech, a distinguished professor of chemistry and biochemistry, won the 1989 Nobel Prize in chemistry. Other notable alumni other than athletes include former United States Supreme Court Justice Byron "Whizzer" White, former big band leader Glenn Miller and actors Robert Redford and Chris Meloni, the latter starring for years on Law & Order: Special Victims Unit, the creators of South Park, Trey Parker and Matt Stone, and Philip Bailey, co-founder of the popular music group Earth, Wind & Fire.

If the aphorism, "Somewhere between the Rockies and reality," seems too good to believe, then come for a visit. Start with a walk on the historic Pearl Street Mall, a downtown pedestrian mall that is the ceremonial heart of the city. Visitors may be so taken in by the scenery they may not realize the University that put it all together. From Pearl, Broadway leads directly onto campus where the University of Colorado Museum and the CU Heritage Center, in the original Old Main building, both introduce the University's past and present. The hub of campus activity can be found at both the University Memorial Center (UMC) and the Center for Community (C4C). The ATLAS building is one of the most state-of-the-art structures on any college campus.

Take in the fresh mountain air on any part of 100 miles of trails and 30,000 acres of open space. Climb the Flatirons or in Eldorado Canyon State Park. Swim or board sail at the Boulder Reservoir while elite runners sprint around it. Take in a pro sporting event down the road in Denver, just one of 13 cities with teams in all four pro leagues.

"The University of Colorado, and Boulder, is a town which stops where the Rocky Mountains begin. Normally in America such a superb site would be occupied by a golf course, but somebody goofed and instead they built what may be the most beautifully situated campus in the world… if anyone asks you to Boulder, I have one word of advice: 'Go.'" — From London's Observer Magazine article, "Us and Them," by Simon Hoggart (April 23, 1989)

PAC-12 CONFERENCE

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back nearly 104 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland. The original membership consisted of four schools — the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin Atherton was commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference, essentially replacing Colorado, which left for the Big 7 two years earlier. The PCC continued as a nine-team conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities was formed and Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, Southern California, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as commissioner of the Pac-8.

On July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Tom Hansen was named the commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009. Hansen was succeeded by current commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

During the 2010-11 academic year, Scott helped deliver monumental changes that transformed the conference into a modern 12-team league by adding the University of Colorado and the University of Utah. The addition of CU and Utah led to an agreement to equal revenue sharing for the first time in conference history, created two divisions (North and South) for football only, established a football championship game for the first time ever, secured a landmark media rights deal that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school and established the Pac-12 Network and Pac-12 Digital Network that guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

After a courtship of several months, Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 10, 2010, as the Buffaloes were the first domino to fall in a change of the national landscape. Within the next week, Nebraska also left the Big 12 to join the Big 10, Boise State departed the WAC for the Mountain West, and TCU jumped from the MWC for the Big East (before eventually landing in the Big 12). A week later on June 17, Utah agreed to join CU to make it an even dozen in the Pac-12. Big-time rivals for the first half of the last century, the Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference on July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978. During the 33 years between expansions, Pac-10 teams claimed 258 NCAA titles (130 women's, 128 men's).

At present, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 13 women's sports. Additionally, the conference schools are members of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and two women's sports. CU participates in the MPSF in indoor track and has competed since 1950 in the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association (RMISA) in skiing, which is a coed sport.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located in the heart of San Francisco's downtown district and are headquartered in the same building as the Pac12 Network.

CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the Conference officially changed its name, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the Conference on the forefront of collegiate athletics. The Networks, including one national network, six regional networks, and a robust digital network marked the first-ever integrated media company owned by a college conference. In addition, the "TV Everywhere" rights allow fans to access Pac-12 Networks outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

That same year, the Pac-12 also launched its Globalization Initiative to proactively promote the Conference and member institutions through student athlete exchanges and sport, as in the first five years, Pac-12 studentathletes have enjoyed unique cultural and athletic experiences in several foreign nations. In the past year, the Pac-12 became the first conference to have all of its schools become members of the Green Sports Alliance.

On the field, courts and in the pools of play, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions®," claiming an incredible 191 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000. For the 15th consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most NCAA titles of any conference in the country, having won at least six every year from 2000-01 through 2018-19 and three of the seven awarded before the COVID-19 pandemic ended all competition in 2019-20; those include 51 over the last five years. No other conference has ever won 10 or more in a single athletic year, looking up at the record 14 the Pac-12 won in 1996-97 and 13 in 2016-17 and 2018-19. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 31 different men's, women's and/or coed sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 54 of the last 60 years (and was second four times and third twice), never finishing lower than third.

Spanning over a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 200, 300, 400 and now 500 championships; despite having two fewer members than three of the other four so-called "Power 5" conferences, the Pac-12 outdistances the next conference by over 200 crowns (the Big Ten is a distant second with 291). In all, Pac-12 conference teams have won 529 NCAA Championships (305 men's, 193 women's, 31 coed).

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA individual champions, as through the 2019-20 school year, 2,379 individual crowns have been won by Pac-12 student-athletes over the years (1,383 in men's championships, 808 in women's and 188 in coed, e.g. skiing).

And since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 38 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 29 occasions, with a record 10 during the 2016-17 school year followed by another nine in 2017-18.

2019-20 QUICK REVIEW

In the 2019-20 shortened academic year, the Pac-12 won three of the seven NCAA championships that were contested before the pandemic canceled everything after March 11; the titles came in men's water polo and women's soccer and volleyball.

Stanford also posted top-four finishes in women's cross country and men's soccer, while Colorado came in third at the men's cross country national meet and USC tied for third in men's water polo. Three-quarters of the NCAA Women's College Cup hailed from the Pac-12 for the first time ever with Washington State making its first-ever appearance in the national semifinal, joining the Cardinal and UCLA. The only other sport to have its championship held in 2019-20 was women's field hockey. The first championships of the spring – skiing – were halted at the midway point with no champion crowned, though Utah was ahead at the time.

Colorado last added to its national championship count in 2018-19 with the school's third women's cross country crown, bringing the school's total to 28. Last year, the Buffaloes finished third in men's cross country and 10th in women's cross country; but the skiing, indoor and outdoor track, lacrosse, men's and women's golf and tennis championships were canceled, along with both NCAA basketball tournaments due to the COVID-19 pandemic. CU has won 20 skiing titles (11 men's, one AIAW women's and eight coed) and eight cross country (five men's, three women's); the Buffs also were the consensus national champions in football in 1990, but since it is not an NCAA-sanctioned championship, it doesn't count toward the Pac-12's total of 529.

JR PAYNE

HEAD COACH

FIFTH SEASON (60-64, .484)

JR Payne enters her fifth season as head coach at the University of Colorado in 2020-21. She was named the eighth head women's basketball coach in program history on March 28, 2016.

In her first year in 2016-17, Payne guided the Buffs to one of the best single-season turnarounds in school history as they more than doubled their win total from the previous year. CU finished the year 17-16 overall and tied for ninth in the Pac-12, a year after a last-place finish in the conference. The Buffs also reached the third round of the WNIT, their first postseason appearance since 2014.

Throughout the 2016-17, Colorado was impressive. CU started the season 10-0 for just the fifth time in school history, including a win over No. 15/19 Kentucky. She became just the second CU coach to begin her career with 10 straight wins and the first since 1980. The 10-game winning streak was the longest since 2012. In Pac-12 play, the Buffs' signature win came on Feb. 12 when they upset No. 24 California on the road, their first win over a ranked team on the road since 2007.

Three players earned postseason awards from the Pac-12, including first-team All-conference sophomore Kennedy Leonard, who was among the conference and national leaders in scoring, assists, steals and assist/turnover ratio. Haley Smith and Alexis Robinson were both named honorable mention All-Pac-12 and Smith was also honorable mention for the All-Defensive Team.

In 2015-16, the season prior to Payne's arrival, CU went just 7-23. By reaching eight wins in the eighth game of the 2016-17 season, it was the earliest in a season CU had exceeded its previous season's win total in the modern era (since 1978-79).

The Buffs' big turnaround was keyed by the team's ball control, ability to turn others over, and scoring. Colorado finished the 2016-17 season 12th in the nation in steals and 22nd in turnover margin. After averaging just 61.9 points in 2015-16, good for 218th nationally, the Buffs cracked the top 100 in the nation in scoring in 2016-17, finishing 90th at 68.9 points per game.

Payne's second season in Boulder in 2017-18 was filled with youth as the team welcomed eight newcomers and had just two seniors. The Buffs still managed a 15-16 overall record and matched her first season with a 5-13 finish in Pac-12 play. CU improved its offense to average 69.5 points, the highest scoring average since 2002-03. But the team's youth showed on defense as CU was unable to repeat is outstanding pressure from the previous season.

Leonard was once again a first-team All-Pac-12 player and broke CU's single-season assists record. She was also named honorable mention for the Pac-12 All-Defensive Team. Annika Jank earned Pac-12 Freshman of the Week honors three times, the most for a Buff since Arielle Roberson won it five times in 2012-13. She was also an honorable mention selection to the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team.

Payne once again made a mark in non-conference play and she now has the best regular-season non-conference record of a CU head coach through two seasons at 19-3 (.864). Highlighting the non-conference portion of the schedule was a win over No. 24 Miami (Fla.) and a Rocky Mountain Hoops Classic championship as the Buffs defeated George Mason in the final.

CU finished the 2017-18 season strong, winning its first-round Pac-12 Tournament game over Utah, and going 3-3 over the final six games, despite playing two top-25 teams.

Colorado posted a 7-0 start to the 2018-19 season, including a 86-74 win over North Carolina. The Buffs entered Pac-12 play with an 11-1 record. CU faced adversity the rest of the season, resulting in a first-round exit at the Pac-12 Tournament.

Alexis Robinson earned her second All-Pac-12 honorable mention, closing out her CU career. Quinessa Caylao-Do picked up honorable mention All-Defensive honors, while Peanut Tuitele scored honorable mention All-Freshman honors.

The Buffs put together a 12-game winning streak to start the 2019-20 season. Colorado played a tough conference schedule that included close losses to ranked opponents in Stanford and UCLA. CU finally got over the hump against No. 11 Arizona, beating the Wildcats 50-38 in Boulder. It was CU's first win against an AP ranked opponents since the 2016-17 season. Colorado finished the year with a 16-14 record and was a presumptive WNIT selection prior to the tournament's cancellation.

SCU was down by 11 at one point but rallied to tie the game at 52-52 with just under four minutes to go before falling to the Bulldogs.

One of the wins included a 61-58 victory at No. 13 Stanford, Santa Clara's first win at its Bay Area rival in 32 years; it was the second win on what would become a 12-game winning streak. It was just one of seven regular-season setbacks for the Cardinal, which advanced to the Elite Eight. The Broncos defeated Gonzaga 59-58 in the quarterfinal round of the WCC tourney before falling in the semifinals to BYU, an eventual No. 7 seed in the NCAA tournament.

The Broncos were one of the nation's top defensive teams, allowing opponents just 37 percent shooting (40th in the NCAA) and 58.4 points per game (54th), while forcing 21.7 turnovers (sixth) and averaging 12.6 steals (third); Santa Clara was also 29th in rebound margin (+7.2).

In two seasons at Santa Clara, Payne compiled a 34-27 overall record. Her first team upset LSU 69-67, the school's first win over an SEC school in 18 years, and advanced to the second round of the WCC tournament.

Southern Utah
Her first head coaching position was at Southern Utah University (Cedar City), where in five seasons, the Thunderbirds posted a 67-86 record, including a 23-10 mark in 2013-14 that set a school record for wins. That team was also 15-5 in league play, earning a share of the Big Sky Conference's regular season title, and earned SUU's first-ever invitation to postseason play, the women's NIT.

Southern Utah won its first round game at Colorado State, 71-56, before succumbing in the second round – 79-68 at Colorado; the Buffs also defeated Payne's T-Birds during the regular season in Boulder, 75-59, the second time she coached a game in CU's Coors Events Center; SUU also lost a game in Boulder in her first season as its coach.

That SUU team set four major school records, including points scored (2,454), field goals made (830) and free throws made (629) and attempted (839); the 74.1 scoring average was the second-best by a Southern Utah team. Her top performer, Hailey Mandelko earned first-team All-Big Sky honors as a junior and senior and was also on the postseason All-Tournament team her final year there.

She helped Southern Utah transition from the Summit League into the Big Sky Conference for the 2012-13 season, piloting the Thunderbirds to a 15-16 overall record and a 9-11 mark in league play.

Her second SUU team in 2010-11 finished with a 16-14 record, the school's first winning season in seven years, and more than doubling the win count in her first season when the Thunderbirds were 7-23 (SUU had just 24 wins in the three seasons before her arrival). The senior-led Thunderbirds were 10-8 in Summit League play, with forward Challis Pascucci earning first-team All-League honors. Her third SUU team was 6-23, but reflected her most youthful squad in her coaching career, with no seniors and just two juniors, but formed the nucleus for the T-Birds success two years later.

Assistant Coaching
Payne determined that coaching was going to be her career path after graduating from St. Mary's (Calif.) in 1999 with a degree in French. Her first position was as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Gonzaga under one of her college head coaches, Kelly Graves, where she would spend five seasons (2000-01 through 2004-05). Gonzaga went from 5-23 in her first season there to a 28-4 mark in her last, which included a 14-0 mark in the WCC. During her time there, she helped recruit Gonzaga's first All-American, guard Shannon Mathews as well as help the Bulldogs to their first postseason appearance in 10 years with back-to-back invites to the NIT.

She then moved on to Boise State under new head coach Gordy Presnell for the three seasons (2005-06 through 2007-08); Presnell had replaced a former CU letterwinner, Jen Warden. Together they turned around the fortunes of the Broncos, leading them to a pair of postseason berths, one being the school's first NCAA tournament appearance in 13 seasons in 2007. BSU was 15-15 in her first season, but then posted 24-9 and 24-8 records in winning two Western Athletic Conference titles.

Payne would then go on to serve as the top assistant coach at Santa Clara for the 2008-09 season under Jennifer Mountain. That team had its struggles in going 4-27, and she would eventually replace Mountain as the Broncos' head coach six years later.

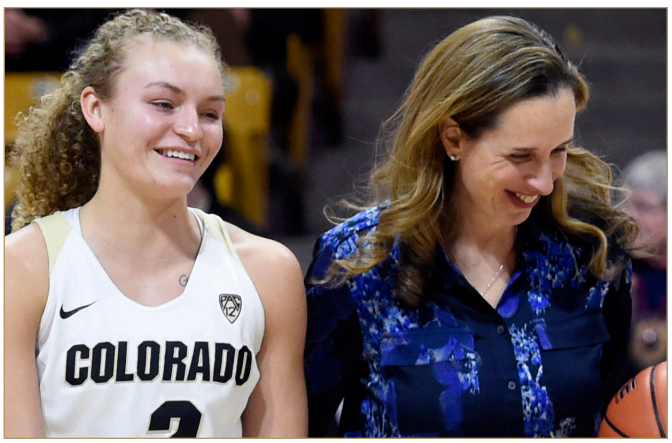

Overall in 18 years as an assistant and head coach, she has been a part of four conference championships and seven postseason appearances. She has helped coach two All-Americans, three conference players of the year, 37 All-Conference players and 38 All-Academic team members.

Personal
She was born in Jackson, Tenn., but her family moved to North Vancouver, B.C., when she was a toddler. She graduated from North Vancouver's Windsor Secondary School where she started in basketball, earning a scholarship to St. Mary's (Calif.).

Payne earned four letters at St. Mary's, helping the Gaels to a 26-7 record and their first-ever trip in school history to the NCAA tournament as a senior in 1998-99. The former point guard led the team in assists that season with 131, and still ranks on the school's all-time top 10 lists for both assists (291, seventh) and steals (137, ninth). She was an All-West Coast Conference first-team performer as a senior and was selected to the WCC All-Tournament Team as a junior and senior, when St. Mary's won both postseason tournaments. She played under two coaches in her time there, Terri Rubenstein for two seasons and Kelly Graves, now the head coach at Oregon for her last two, with the Gaels posting a 79-38 record with her as a player.

Her husband, Toriano Towns, is CU's associate head coach and the two have coached together throughout the majority of their coaching careers. They met as student-athletes at St. Mary's in college. They have three children together: Aliyah, Jordan and Jaxton.

The Story Behind Her First Name: "JR" is nowhere close to her real name; her birth name is Ali-Marie. "When I was two, I was always fighting with my older brother. My Dad used to watch Dallas and J.R. Ewing was a tough guy, so he started calling me J.R. It's just stuck through the years though you'll find I'm not anywhere as mean as the character on television." She doesn't use periods, however, and goes by "JR."

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING / HAVE SAID ABOUT JR PAYNE

Gordy Presnell – Boise State Head Coach

Success absolutely follows her wherever she goes and her student-athletes will love playing for her."

Kelly Graves – Oregon Head Coach

"I'm very excited for JR to join the Pac-12. She was a great player for me at Saint Mary's, always a leader on the floor. As an assistant coach, JR was instrumental in recruiting the players that helped turn Gonzaga into a national program. She's had great success as a head coach and I'm confident she will be able to do the same at Colorado."

*Challis Pascucci, Southern Utah (former player)

"Coach JR and her coaching staff are the most dedicated and devoted coaches that I have ever played for. They have passion for the game, and the drive to be better. JR is an outstanding balance of being competitive and caring. She will positively push you to your limits to be successful, as a team and individually. Coach JR not only developed me as player but as a person. Now that I am a part of the professional world, I have been able to implement the drive for success, and the strong work ethic. JR has made such an impact on my life and I will always look up to her."

*Tasha Harris, Boise State (former player, 2008 WAC Scoring Champion)

"She has been a role model for me since the day I met her. She has been a huge part of who I am today and I can never repay her for that. But as far as JR as a person and a coach, JR cares not only about the success of the team as a whole but for the players first and foremost. She strives to better the individual for the purpose of team success but individual development as well."

TORIANO TOWNS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

FIFTH SEASON

Toriano Towns begins his fourth season as associate head coach with the University of Colorado women's basketball program in 2018-19. His wife, JR Payne, coaches the offense and Towns is in charge of CU's defensive scheme.

In his first year in 2016-17, Towns helped the Buffs to one of the best single-season turnarounds in school history as they more than doubled their win total from the previous year. CU finished the year 17-16 overall and tied for ninth in the Pac-12, a year after a last-place finish in the conference. The Buffs also reached the third round of the WNIT, their first postseason appearance since 2014.

Throughout the 2016-17, Colorado was impressive. CU started the season 10-0 for just the fifth time in school history, including a win over No. 15/19 Kentucky. Towns helped his wife become just the second CU coach to begin her career with 10 straight wins and the first since 1980. The 10-game winning streak was the longest since 2012. In Pac-12 play, the Buffs' signature win came on Feb. 12 when they upset No. 24 California on the road, their first win over a ranked team on the road since 2007.

Three players earned postseason awards from the Pac-12, including first-team all-conference sophomore Kennedy Leonard, who was among the conference and national leaders in scoring, assists, steals and assist/turnover ratio. Haley Smith and Alexis Robinson were both named honorable mention all-Pac-12 and Smith was also honorable mention for the All-Defensive team.

In 2015-16, the season prior to Payne and Towns' arrival, CU went just 7-23. By reaching eight wins in the eighth game of the 2016-17 season, it was the earliest in a season CU had exceeded its previous season's win total in the modern era (since 1978-79).

The Buffs' big turnaround was keyed by the team's ball control, ability to turn others over, and scoring. Colorado finished the 2016-17 season 12th in the nation in steals and 22nd in turnover margin. After averaging just 61.9 points in 2015-16, good for 218th nationally, the Buffs cracked the top 100 in the nation in scoring in 2016-17, finishing 90th at 68.9 points per game.

CU went 15-16 in Towns' second season in 2017-18. The Buffs were a young squad, with eight newcomers and just two seniors. They breezed through non-conference play, finishing 9-2 with a win over No. 24 Miami (Fla.) and a Rocky Mountain Hoops Classic championship.

After a slow stretch in Pac-12 play, the Buffs finished the season strong, going 3-3 over their final six games, including facing two top-25 opponents. CU topped Utah in the first round of the Pac-12 Tournament before bowing out to top seed and eventual champion Oregon.

Leonard was named first-team All-Pac-12 and was selected to the honorable mention for the Pac-12 All-Defensive Team. She also broke CU's single-season assists record. Annika Jank earned Pac-12 Freshman of the Week honors three times, the most for a Buff since Arielle Roberson won it five times in 2012-13. She was also an honorable mention selection to the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team.

During his time at Santa Clara, he served as the team's defensive coordinator and also worked with the post players where he helped transform Santa Clara into one of the country's top defensive teams. In 2015-16, the Broncos held opponents to 37 percent shooting, which ranked 40th in the NCAA, forced more than 20 turnovers per game (sixth), averaged 12.6 steals (third) and allowed just 58.4 points per contest (54th).

Ahead of his time in Northern California, Towns spent five seasons as associate head coach with Southern Utah alongside Payne. Towns was the team's recruiting and defensive coordinator, assisted with the planning of practice sessions, conditioning, scouting, and also worked with the Thunderbird post players.

In his first four seasons with the Thunderbirds, Towns helped forward Challis Pascucci develop into one of the premiere low-post players in the Summit League. After the 2009-10 season Pascucci earned All-Summit League second team honors after leading the conference in rebounding and tied for the lead in blocked shots. She also set the SUU single-season record for total rebounds with 291 and her 46 blocks were the fifth most in SUU single-season history. Pascucci earned a spot on the All-Summit League first team after finishing third in the conference in scoring (17.7 PPG), second in rebounding (9.7 RPG) and sixth in blocks (23). Pascucci finished the 2011 season as the Thunderbirds all-time leader in career rebounds (929) and fourth in scoring (1,328).

Towns joined SUU after coaching four years at Boise State University as the Broncos defensive coordinator. During his time at BSU, the Broncos claimed two straight Western Athletic Conference championships, earned a trip to the NCAA tournament, advanced to the second round of the WNIT tournament, had a pair of First Team All-WAC guards and set numerous offensive and defensive school records.

Prior to Boise State, Towns spent one season as an assistant coach at the University of Arizona under Joan Bonvicini, helping the Wildcats record a 20-win season and post a first-round NCAA Tournament victory against the University of Oklahoma. Towns played a key role in recruiting and scouting at Arizona. He worked with the Wildcat post players, assisting with the development of Shawntinice Polk who became one of the country's most decorated post players being named to the Kodak/WBCA All-American team, first-team All-Pac-10 team, and Kodak/WBCA all-Region 8 team.

Towns' coaching career began at Gonzaga University where he served as an assistant for three seasons. At Gonzaga, Towns was responsible for post player development, where he coached five All-West Coast Conference performers along with holding responsibility for scouting and game preparation. He also served as the co-recruiting coordinator for the Bulldogs. During his time at Gonzaga, he helped orchestrate the second-best turnaround in WCC history as the Bulldogs went from eighth in 2002-03 to second place in 2003-04, posting an 18-12 overall record. That team advanced to its second-ever Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT).

Towns earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Saint Mary's College in 1998 and his Master's Degree in Organizational Leadership from Gonzaga University. At SMC, Towns also played football and served as a male practice player for the women's basketball team.

He and Payne have coached together throughout the majority of their coaching careers. They met as student-athletes at St. Mary's in college and have three children together: Aliyah (11), Jordan (8) and Jaxton (5). Towns also has another daughter, Arianna (24).

Jill Mahoney is in her fifthh season with the University of Colorado women's basketball program as the director of operations in 2017-18.

In her first year in 2016-17, Mahoney helped the Buffs to one of the best single-season turnarounds in school history as they more than doubled their win total from the previous year. CU finished the year 17-16 overall and tied for ninth in the Pac-12, a year after a last-place finish in the conference. The Buffs also reached the third round of the WNIT, their first postseason appearance since 2014.

Throughout the 2016-17, Colorado was impressive. CU started the season 10-0 for just the fifth time in school history, including a win over No. 15/19 Kentucky. The 10-game winning streak was the longest since 2012. In Pac-12 play, the Buffs' signature win came on Feb. 12 when they upset No. 24 California on the road, their first win over a ranked team on the road since 2007.

Three players earned postseason awards from the Pac-12, including first-team all-conference sophomore Kennedy Leonard, who was among the conference and national leaders in scoring, assists, steals and assist/turnover ratio. Haley Smith and Alexis Robinson were both named honorable mention all-Pac-12 and Smith was also honorable mention for the All-Defensive team.

Prior to her role in Western State's athletic administration, Mahoney was an assistant coach at Southern Utah University from 2012-14 when Colorado head coach JR Payne was at the helm. Mahoney helped lead Southern Utah to the program's first national postseason appearance and first conference championship over her two-year term. In addition to her coaching duties, Mahoney coordinated team travel, monitored academic progress, created scouting reports, coordinated game film and managed community service for the Thunderbirds.

Before her first term with the Mountaineers, Mahoney made her coaching debut as an assistant at Grand Canyon University in Phoenix, Ariz. Mahoney, a Russell, Kan., native, was named the Newcomer of the Year and earned a first-team all-conference selection during her three-year playing career at Bethany College in Lindsborg, Kan. A standout guard-forward, she then spent her final year of eligibility at Grand Canyon, leading the team to a perfect record in conference play and also received all-conference honors.

ELITE EIGHT TEAMS

1992-93 (27-4)

Colorado's first Elite Eight team won the 1993 Big Eight championship and earned an at large berth to the NCAA Tournament, claiming the No. 4 seed in the West Region. After a first round bye, the Buffaloes defeated No. 5 seed UC Santa Barbara in Boulder, 81-54, to gain a spot in the West Region in Missoula, Mont. Colorado upset No. 1 seed and defending national champion Stanford 80-67 in the regional semifinal. Eventual national champion Texas Tech ended CU's Final Four bid with a 79-54 decision in the regional final.

1994-95 (30-3)

After sweeping the Big Eight regular season and tournament titles, Colorado received the league's first ever No. 1 NCAA Tournament seed, holding that spot in the Midwest Region. The Buffaloes entered the NCAA Tournament ranked a program-best No. 2 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll and riding a 22-game win streak which would grow to a school-record 25 in a row during the championship. Colorado cruised to opening round wins over Holy Cross (83-49) and Southwest Missouri State (78-34) in Boulder before embarking on its third straight trip to regionals. Colorado took care of George Washington 77-61 in the Sweet 16 in Des Moines, Iowa, before falling in a heartbreaker to Georgia in the regional final, 82-79.

2001-02 (24-10)

The Buffaloes sported one of the toughest schedules in the country, playing games against 16 ranked opponents, but still managed to place third in the ever-tough Big 12 Conference. Colorado didn't let an early exit from the Big 12 Championship deter its run to a third NCAA Elite Eight. The Buffaloes were the No. 3 seed in the West and took advantage of their home floor for opening round wins over Southern (88-61) and LSU (69-58). Boise, Idaho, was the site for the West Regional where Colorado knocked of No. 2 seed and future conference rival Stanford, 62-59, to advance to the program's third Elite Eight. Top seed and eventual national runner-up Oklahoma ended Colorado's run, 94-60, in the finals.

SWEET SIXTEEN TEAMS

1993-94 (27-5)

Sandwiched in between two Elite Eight appearances, the 1994 Big Eight Champions had a successful run in their own right. Ranked in the Top 10 for nearly the entire season, Colorado earned an at-large bid to the 1994 NCAA Tournament as the No. 3 seed in the West Region as the field grew from 48 to 64 teams. The Buffaloes hosted first- and second-round games for the third straight season, gaining a trip to Stanford and the regional semifinals with wins over Marquette (77-74) and Oregon (92-71). No. 2 seed Stanford had the Buffaloes on its own floor for the Sweet 16 game, and in revenge for the year before, took a 78-62 decision.

1996-97 (23-9)

As the Big Eight grew into the Big 12, Colorado continued its prominence on a national stage. The Buffaloes won the inaugural Big 12 Tournament championship after placing third in the regular season. Colorado earned the No. 2 seed in the Midwest Region and took care of business in first- and second-round games in Boulder, claiming wins over Marshall (69-49) and Stephen F. Austin (66-57). Iowa City played host to the Midwest Regionals, where Colorado ran into a tough Tennessee squad, 75-67 in the Sweet 16.

2002-03 (24-8)

A format change in the NCAA Tournament gave the Buffaloes the unique opportunity to host the NCAA Tournament despite being a lower seed. As the No. 6 seed in the Mideast Region, Colorado took full advantage by defeating BYU in the first round, 84-45, and then shocking No. 3 seed and heavily favored North Carolina, 86-67, to gain the program's sixth trip to the regional round. The Buffaloes traveled to Knoxville, Tenn., to face No. 2 Villanova in a rematch of the CU Classic Championship game earlier that season. However, like in the CU Classic, Villanova had a little more at the end, squeaking out a 53-51 win over the Buffaloes.

NCAA TEAMS

1987-88 (21-11)

Colorado's first NCAA Tournament team. The Buffaloes finished 8-6 in the Big Eight and earned a berth to the big dance after a runner-up showing at the Big Eight Tournament. The No. 7 seed in the West, Colorado won its first ever NCAA Tournament game, 78-72, over No. 10 seed Eastern Illinois in Long Beach, Calif. Host and No. 2 seed Long Beach State ended Colorado's first tournament appearance with a 103-64 second round victory.

1988-89 (27-4)

Colorado swept the Big Eight regular season (14-0) and won its first conference tournament championship. The Buffaloes received the No. 3 seed in the West and a first round bye. Colorado also served as a host site for the first time but fell in its first NCAA game at the CU Events Center, 84-74, to No. 6 seed UNLV.

1991-92 (22-9)

After a two-year break, the Buffaloes returned to the NCAA Tournament, earning the Big Eight's automatic bid following their second tournament championship in four years. The No. 7 seed in the Midwest Region, Colorado fell in a first round game to No. 10 Southern Illinois, 84-80, in overtime in Boulder. While an early exit was not what the team had expected, this would prove to be the first in a fantastic run of six-straight NCAA Tournaments for the Buffaloes, including two Elite Eights.

1995-96 (26-9)

As difficult as it would be to follow a 30-3 season and a No. 2 national ranking, the 1996 team held its own by winning the Preseason WNIT Tournament. Led by a new generation of Buffaloes, Colorado won its fourth and the final Big Eight Conference Tournament before the league would become the Big 12. Colorado earned the No. 3 seed in the West and defeated Tulane 83-75 in a first-round game in Boulder before falling to No. 6 seed Auburn, 68-61, in the second round.

2000-01 (22-9)

After a three-year hiatus, Colorado returned to the NCAA Tournament; which would be its first of four straight. The Midwest's No. 6 seed, this year marked the first NCAA Tournament since CU's inaugural appearance in 1988 where the Buffaloes played first- and second-round games away from Boulder. Nashville was the locale for Colorado, which claimed a 98-78 first round win over Siena, before falling to the host and No. 3 seed Vanderbilt Commodores, 65-59, in the second round.

2003-04 (22-8)

Ceal Barry's 12th and final NCAA Tournament team was put in the opposite position of the year before, being a higher-seeded team playing on a lower seeds home floor. Like the year before, Colorado was the No. 6 seed, but this time in the East Region and forced to face No. 11 UC Santa Barabara in a true road game. Colorado fell to USCB, 76-49, in that first round contest.

2012-13 (25-7)

Colorado had its best season in nearly a decade, placing fourth in the Pac-12 (13-5) and advancing to its 13th NCAA Tournament and first since 2004. Prior to the beginning of the season, the Buffaloes knew they would host first- and second-round games at the CU Events Center. Colorado earned the No. 5 seed in the Norfolk Region. Former Big 12 rival Kansas, which had made the Sweet 16 the year before, had a disappointing regular season but caught fire late to sneak in as a No. 12 seed. The Jayhawks had the momentum and defeated the Buffaloes 67-52 in the first round before eventually knocking off No. 4 seed South Carolina en route to the Sweet 16.

NCAA Action

The Buffs have made 13 trips to March Madness, including six straight in the 1990s (one of 15). When Ceal Barry and the Buffs reached the pinnacle as the No. 1 seed in the Midwest Region in 1995, it was a first for Colorado and the Big Eight Conference.

The fans in Boulder came out in full force for the 1995 Midwest Region first and second rounds, selling out the Buffs' games against Holy Cross and Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State) with a then-NCAA record 11,072 for each contest.

From 1993 to 1997, Colorado had one of the more impressive NCAA Tournament runs going 10-5 and advancing to three Sweet 16s and two Elite Eight rounds.

In fact, the Buffs were only one of 10 schools to advance to at least four Sweet 16s in that span and one of 11 to advance to the elite round of eight.

The CU Events Center has hosted one or more rounds of the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament in 12 different seasons, including 1992 where the Buffaloes hosted a first round session as well as the Midwest Regional. Most recently, the CU Events Center was a first- and second-round site for the Norfolk Regional in 2013, hosting Colorado, South Carolina, Kansas and South Dakota State.

CU has hosted two NCAA tournaments at the Pepsi Center in Denver; the 2001 Midwest Regional and 2006 first and second round games.

REGULAR SEASON CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

1989 Big Eight Champions (14-0)

Basketball, as in life, offers its share of firsts. And the 1988-89 season was no exception. The Buffs would open the preseason with a 10-3 showing, including the program's first win over Louisiana Tech. The 61-60 win would be Colorado's first over a No. 2 ranked team and Barry would use that win to catapult the Buffs to a 20-game win streak that would come to a halt during the NCAA Tournament. But not before the Buffs would claim the Big Eight Conference's first undefeated regular season (14-0) title, their first tournament title and lay claim to the program's first conference player-of-the-year in Bridget Turner.

1993 Big Eight Champions (12-2)

A team little known to anyone outside the conference circles, the Buffs would take the nation by storm as they took a preseason No. 25 ranking to No. 9 by March. A 15-game win streak to open the season would turn heads as CU was the country's seventh-ranked team when it opened the Big Eight campaign-a convincing 61-33 win over Kansas State in Boulder. The Buffs would live up to their preseason expectations to take the conference title, although few probably thought they would do it so convincingly, outscoring their league opponents by an average of more than 15 points a game.

1994 Big Eight Champions (12-2)

Colorado would graduate five seniors and reload with seven newcomers and leave the league's coaches to believe that they couldn't repeat its feats from the previous year. Although the nation's experts pegged the Buffs the No. 4 preseason team in the country, in the preseason Big Eight coaches poll, the Buffs would be picked to finish behind Kansas come March. Well, the exact opposite happened. Colorado would go 12-2 in conference competition and the preseason player-of-the-year would take a seat behind CU senior Jamillah Lang, crowned the 1994 conference queen.

1995 Big Eight Champions (14-0)

If the 1989 conference season was a season of firsts, then the '95 campaign was when the Buffs would prove that history can repeat itself, and still provide some firsts. Following a 5-2 start, Colorado would go on a 25-game win streak, including the league's only second unblemished 14-0 conference record. Colorado's 74-71 win at Kansas State in the conference finale would put the seal on the league's only regular season conference three-peat and second straight conference player-of-the-year award winner in Shelley Sheetz. As they did in the 1993 postseason, the '95 Buffs would be the conference's second team to advance to a regional final in NCAA play.

CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

1989 Big Eight

Colorado's first conference tournament championship was icing on the cake of a dominant regular season where the Buffaloes swept the Big Eight (14-0). Having finished as runner up two of the previous three years, Colorado finally broke through in the championship game, and in dramatic fashion, needing double overtime to defeat Oklahoma State 98-92. Big Eight Player of the Year Bridget Turner took home Tournament MVP honors.

1992 Big Eight

Colorado started the 1992 Big Eight season at 0-3, but rallied to win 14 straight; 11 to finish the regular season and three more to capture its second tournament championship. Big Eight Newcomer of the Year Shelley Sheetz earned Tournament MVP honors leading the Buffaloes to wins over Kansas State (79-27), Nebraska (74-66) and Kansas (70-53). Colorado returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since its last Big Eight Tournament title team in 1989.

1995 Big Eight

Arguably the best women's basketball team in program history. Led by Player of the Year Shelley Sheetz and Newcomer of the Year Isabelle Fijalkowski, Colorado swept through the Big Eight regular season and tournament. That string of 17 wins was part of a larger 25-game win streak that vaulted the Buffaloes to the No. 2 national ranking and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Sheetz, earning her second Tournament MVP, led CU to wins over Iowa State (73-38), Oklahoma State (76-58) and Kansas (61-45) in the title game.

1996 Big Eight

Kansas put an end to Colorado's string of three-straight Big Eight regular season titles, but the Buffaloes would get the last laugh in more ways than one. After wins over Oklahoma (76-60) and Oklahoma State (69-59), Colorado upended Kansas (75-47) for its second-straight tournament title. What made this win even more special was it was the final tournament for the Big Eight as both the Buffaloes and Jayhawks would begin Big 12 Conference play that next season.

1997 Big 12

A new conference, but similar results for Colorado, as the old Big Eight and four Southwest Conference schools made up the new Big 12. Colorado finished third in its first Big 12 regular season, earning a No. 3 seed and first round bye. Sporting a roster full of players with plenty of "tournament time" experience, Colorado stormed past Iowa State (56-39), Texas (64-50) and Kansas State (54-44) to claim the inaugural Big 12 Tournament Championship and the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

PRESEASON TOURNAMENTS

Colorado is 117-41 since the 1980-81 season in regular season tournaments, including a sparkling 51-11 all-time in its own Rocky Mountain Hoops Classic which celebrated its 31st year in 2017. It has also been called the CU Classic and Omni Hotels Classic throughout its history.

Colorado has won 21 of 31 Rocky Mountain Hoops Classic titles (including 2006 when CU was a co-champion), and has played in every championship game but three as the Buffaloes finished third in 2005 and 2007, and fourth in 2008. The 2006 season brought a one-year change in the tournament, as it followed a true "Classic" format where Colorado and Wyoming played Nevada and Charlotte on consecutive days, primarily because Wyoming and CU had just played each other three days before. The Classic returned to its normal format in 2007.

The Buffaloes also have some notable preseason tournament wins outside the Rocky Mountain Hoops Classic. CU won the Preseason WNIT in 1995 defeating New Mexico State, Utah, Texas A&M and Arkansas in the championship. More recently, Colorado claimed the 2003 WBCA Classic title in Boulder by topping Old Dominion and Notre Dame.

Since 1979, the CU Events Center on the southwest edge of the Boulder main campus has been home to Colorado women's basketball. It is the home of the NCAA's eighth-longest all-time home court win streak, the Big Eight Conference's longest home league streak and home to five undefeated home seasons.

The most dramatic changes in the 32-year history of the CU Events Center have taken place in the last decade, culminating with the dedication of a 43,000 square foot practice facility in August 2011.

CU made the commitment to enhance the basketball program by reconfiguring the second level of the CU Events Center for a basketball operations center. The headquarters for Colorado Basketball, completed in April 2008, allows the Buffs' coaches, student-athletes and staff more convenient access to the playing floor, practice gym, locker rooms, weight room and sports medicine facilities within the Events Center.

During the summer of 2008 the CU Events Center underwent a $200,000 "Floor Lift" as a permanent maple surface was installed. The high-grade maple gives the floor and almost white appearance and features the signature Buffalo on Sox Walseth Court.

The CU Events Center received another floor lift in the summer of 2016 with a complete redesign. The new features include a black outline surrounding the floor, and most notably, prominently display the Boulder Flatirons outlined along the sideline opposite the benches. A new Bose sound system was also installed in 2016.

In the summer of 2017, the CU Events Center received yet another major aesthetic and fan experience upgrade when a brand new, center-hung video and scoreboard was installed. The system includes almost 700 square feet of 6 millimeter digital high definition LED boards and state-of-the-art video processing and graphic interfacing capabilities. The scoreboards include a center court camera recessed in a CU logo.

The $10.8 million practice facility, built from private funding, opened in August 2011 adding two full basketball/volleyball courts, a new women's basketball locker room and additional coaches offices and meeting rooms. The facility is attached to the north side of the CU Events Center and allows CU basketball and volleyball student-athletes greater access and teams better flexibility in practice and workout scheduling.

The structure matches the campus architectural Charles Klauder theme, a northern Italian, rural Tuscany influence, with varicolored sandstone and red-tiled roofs to match the other 200-plus buildings on the CU-Boulder campus.

The practice facility was given LEED Platinum Certification, the highest possible by the internationally recognized system developed by the US Green Building Council.

The CU Events Center is within walking distance from all points of campus, and parking for Colorado basketball games is free to the public in the parking garage located just north of the arena. The southwest entrance faces the majestic flatirons, the mountains located west of campus, providing Colorado fans with one of most beautiful views in all of collegiate athletics when they arrive to the game. CU has hosted its share of concerts. Bob Dylan, Jack Ingram and Juice Newton are just some of the artists who have taken the stage in the Events Center, providing an indoor venue for CU students and Boulder residents equipped to attract some of the best entertainers in the World.
