HEAD COACH ROY EDWARDS

Roy Edwards is in his 17th season as head coach of the University of Colorado men's golf team, having been named to the position on July 14, 2006, following in the footsteps of the only two coaches the program had ever known over a span of six decades.

Edwards, 46, is just the third full-time men's golf coach in Buffalo history. He came to CU with an impressive pedigree, joining the Buffaloes from his alma mater, the University of Kansas, where he had served as the assistant for both the men's and women's programs for the previous four years (2002-06). He held the same position at Vanderbilt University for a year prior to returning to KU.

Edwards replaced the late Mark Simpson, who passed away from complications due to lung cancer in December 2005. Simpson had held the post since 1977, when he followed in the footsteps of his college head coach, Les Fowler. Fowler took over as player-coach in 1948 and remained on board until Simpson, his assistant, replaced him. Thus, Edwards is only the program's third full-time head coach since 1948.

Each of his predecessors had to lead the Buffaloes into stronger conferences, Fowler into the Big Seven in 1949 and Simpson into the Big 12 in 1996; but Edwards was faced with the most daunting task in CU golf history. He led the charge when the Buffaloes joined the Pacific-10 Conference on July 1, 2011 (making it the Pac-12), with Colorado becoming a member of the most prestigious men's golf conference in the nation. A long-time force in collegiate golf, as many as seven or eight schools regularly occupy the top 40 every season and Pac-12 schools have won 16 national championships.

In a 2015 summer poll by Golfweek of golf coaches nationwide, asking them to rate their peers, Edwards came up as No. 18 on the list. The publication commented about Edwards, "If you have ever spoken with Edwards at length, you know he is a student of the profession."

It took less than three years for Edwards to put his stamp on the CU golf program, perhaps in no bigger way than completing the dream of both Fowler and Simpson. One of the few major golf programs in the nation without its own true home golf course and facilities, Edwards played an integral part in working with Colorado alum Steve Kerr in the latter's acquisition of Vista Ridge Golf Club in Erie in 2009. The club was renamed Colorado National Golf Club and has since served as the official home for the university's men's and women's golf teams. In 2012, the George Boedecker Jr. CU Golf Practice Facility, a 5,600-square foot state-of-the-art indoor complex was constructed at CNGC, one that matches any in the nation.

He also initiated the Colorado Partners program, a group that quickly grew to well over 100 members who contribute financially to augment the school's golf budget, and established the Colorado Golf Day which is an annual celebration and fundraiser for CU golf.

On the course, under Edwards the Buffaloes have appeared in 13 out of a possible 14 NCAA Championship, nine times as a team and four times with individuals earning selections. Through the fall of 2021, his CU teams have won 17 major tournaments, the most under one coach in school history as he surpassed Simpson's 16 when the Buffs won two fall '19 events. In addition, the Buffaloes have 20 runner-up finishes in his tenure and his golfers have won 17 individual medalist honors. In his tenure against Division I competition, CU owns a 1,527-1,131-38-record head-to-head (57.3 winning percentage), but since joining the Pac-12, the Buffs are 1,060-688-9 (a 60.6 winning clip).

A capsule look at some of Edwards' top CU teams:

The 2021-22 Buffaloes were by far the youngest team in program history, with six freshmen on the nine-man roster which had no seniors (due to an extra year of eligibility granted by the NCAA due to COVID). One would think having so many freshmen would mean limited success, except that GolfStat rated these Buffaloes as the top freshman performing class for the fall '21 portion of the season. The team as a whole posted a 72.54 stroke average for 107 fall rounds – second-best in school history and just .05 off the top mark. It finished with a 73.21 average and freshman Justin Biwer would set numerous records.

The 2019-20 squad won two fall tournaments and appeared to have a great shot at returning to the NCAA's as a team after a year's absence, and possibly advance to the NCAA Finals as well. But the COVID-19 pandemic ceased all competition the second week of March, just as the team was beginning to jell for the spring season.

The 2017-18 edition of the CU squad finished in the top 10 in 12 of 13 tournaments, including seven in the top six. The jewel performance of the year came in the Pac-12 Championship where Colorado finished second, its best conference finish in a decade, pushing eventual champion and host USC to the max in falling to the Trojans on their home turf by just four strokes. Senior Yannik Paul and sophomore Ross Macdonald, who both tied for second in the Pac-12 meet, earned first-team and honorable mention All-Pac-12 honors, respectively, while Paul earned honorable mention All-America honors. The team had five players with sub-73 averages, leading to a best-ever team mark of 72.51, slicing almost a stroke off its previous record. The Buffs finished ranked No. 43 by Golfweek and No. 46 in Golf Stat, despite coming up just short of advancing to the NCAA Finals with a seventh place finish in the West Regional.

The 2016-17 Buffaloes finished as the No. 32 team in the country as ranked by Golfweek, their highest final rank in any of the rankings in the Edwards Era. The team peaked at No. 18 (Golfweek & GolfStat) and cracked the top 25 of the GCAA coaches poll for the first time in three decades, ascending to No. 19 at the end of March. The team's nine top five finishes was also a school best as the Buffaloes matched their previous best with 16 single rounds in tournament play that were par or better. Colorado won two tournaments and in the spring terms' second event, the Wyoming Desert Intercollegiate, the Buffs recorded a school record 22-under 266 in the second round, which also was the low single round in the NCAA for the '16-17 season. However, the end of the year was disappointing, as CU finished seventh in the Pac-12 Championship (the first conference meet CU hosted since 1972) and 12th in the NCAA Central Regional at Purdue; the Buffs did have to compete in both without their scoring leader, Jeremy Paul, who turned pro just prior to the Pac-12s.

His 2013-14 Buffaloes set the mark for stroke average (73.76) at the time, as well as recording the most top five major tournament finishes (eight; all were actually in the top four), which included one win in CU's own Mark Simpson Invitational and three runner-up efforts. Over the course of four tournaments, the Buffs set two other impressive school marks: most consecutive rounds at or under par (12), and the most subpar in a row (6). According to GolfStat, CU had the nation's top performing freshman class, headlined by twin brothers Jeremy and Yannik Paul and Ethan Freeman. The Buffs finished fourth at the Pac-12 Championship, but over the last two rounds, CU was second (718) to only Washington (716), making an impressive climb from 10th at the midway point into fourth place.

His seventh team, the 2012-13 squad, returned to the NCAA's after a three-year absence, finishing eighth in the Central (Fayetteville) Regional. The Buffaloes captured two major tournaments, the Air Force Falcon and Bandon Dunes invitationals, marking the first time Colorado had won a major in both the fall and spring portions of the season (in the latter, CU was the first team in the four-year history of the event to finish under par as a team). The Buffs also finished second on three other occasions and posted nine top 10 finishes overall.

In 2011-12, his sixth season, the Buffs stormed out of the gate to win its first two fall tournaments, their own Mark Simpson Invitational and Air Force's Miranda Invitational; the victories propelled CU to an early No. 10 national ranking. The team successfully navigated its way through its first season in the ultra-competitive Pac-12 Conference, finishing eighth in a league championship that featured eight teams ranked in the top 30. The Buffs just missed qualifying for the NCAA Championship but Derek Fribbs was selected to play as an individual.

His third Buffalo team (2008-09) sported one of the nation's dynamic duos in Patrick Grady and Derek Tolan, as each won two tournaments and combined for 14 top 10 finishes. But the team was also balanced as a whole, with 32 top 20 performances posted by seven different golfers. The Buffs posted 11 top 10 finishes in major tournaments, highlighted by a 34-stroke win in the DU-Ron Moore and three runner-up finishes in the USF Olympic Club, Western Intercollegiate and its own CU-Stevinson Ranch Invitational. In the Big 12 Championship, the Buffs posted their best conference finish in 28 years when they took second place; it tied for the largest improvement from one season to another in Big 12 history after finishing 10th in 2008. CU was in the hunt for the title and briefly took the lead on the back nine of the fourth and final round but eventually succumbed to No. 1 Oklahoma State, a team that featured Rickie Fowler, Peter Uihlein, Kevin Tway and Morgan Hoffman in its lineup.

His second team, in 2007-08, became just the third in school history to win two major tournaments in the same season, as the Buffs won the Louisiana Classics and the Ohio State Kepler Intercollegiate. The Buffs finished 10th in the Big 12 meet, which moved to a 72-hole format for the first time, and was again invited to the NCAA's, placing 18th in the Central Regional. Junior Derek Tolan was one of two individuals to advance out of the regional into the finals, the first Buff to do so since 1993.

Edwards' first CU team (2006-07) had moderate success, his team did something that neither Fowler's or Simpson's initial ones did, and that was to qualify for the NCAA Championship (though in fairness, more teams are invited today than when they coached, but it still was an impressive accomplishment). The team placed 20th in the NCAA Central Regional.

At Kansas, he was heavily involved in recruiting and the day-to-day functions for both the men's and women's teams, managed the Jayhawks' Birdie Club and was the main contact for both golf camps. A KU graduate, he returned to his alma mater in August 2002 as the assistant coach for both the men's and women's programs and further developed all the skills necessary to one day become a head coach. Among his many duties were coordinating and managing a $1 million-plus fundraising campaign for KU's golf practice facility and establishing an annual booster club program.

During his time at Kansas, he was one of three finalists for the Golf Coaches Association of America Assistant Coach of the Year in 2004 and helped coach six first-team All-Big 12 players (five men, one woman) and four Academic All-Americans; one of those players was Gary Woodland, the 2019 U.S. Open champion. He started his coaching career as a volunteer/graduate assistant in 1998, working three years in that capacity before moving on to Vanderbilt for his first full-time assistant coaching position. During this time, he was also the Junior Golf Director for the Kansas Golf Association, running all activities for over 600 junior members of the KGA.

He was the assistant for both the men's and women's teams at Vanderbilt for the 2001-02 season. He was a part of history as both teams experienced two of the best seasons in the programs' existence the year he was a part of the program. He had a hand in coaching a pair of first-team All-Southeastern Conference players, including Brandt Snedeker, a first-team All-American, the 2007 PGA Tour Rookie of the Year, a 9-time winner on the PGA Tour and the 2012 Fed Ex Cup champion.

Between KU and Vanderbilt, he coached five players who attained some level of All-American status, ranging from first-team to honorable mention.

A three-year member of the Jayhawk golf team, he lettered as a senior under legendary and long-time coach Ross Randall and earned his bachelors of science degree in business administration from Kansas in 2000. Simultaneously while finishing his degree, he worked as a volunteer assistant coach for the men's team. His career playing highlights include being named the PGA Midwest Section Player of the Year in 1995 and the Heart of America Four-Ball champion in 1997. As a student, he was also heavily involved on KU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and held several leadership roles on campus.

Born October 14, 1976 in Kansas City, Mo., but truly a native of Hutchinson, Kan., he was a four-year letterman in golf at Hutchinson (Kan.) High School under legendary Kansas high school coach Rusty Hilst, one of his early mentors in the game. His hobbies include playing golf, cooking and traveling, and he was also an Eagle Boy Scout in high school. His father, R.A., is a distinguished KU alum who was awarded the 2002 Fred Ellsworth Medallion for "unique and significant service to the university" (which two grandparents also earned). An uncle, Ray Evans, is recognized as one of the greatest athletes in KU history, as he was a two-time All-American in basketball (1942-43) and was KU's first football All-American after returning from World War II in 1947; he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1964.

Edwards is married to the former Shelly Bonfantine of Albuquerque, N.M., as they wed on July 7, 2007 (07-07-07); she is a former golfer at the University of New Mexico. They are the parents of two sons, Ashton Ross (13) and Luke Leo (10). In January 2020, Edwards was presented with an "Honorary C" Award, given by CU's Alumni C Club to those for their dedication of service and/or contribution to CU Athletics.

In 2013, in a quest to create more competitive opportunities for collegiate golfers, Edwards founded the Saguaro Amateur, along with Wyoming coach Joe Jensen, at Ak-Chin Southern Dunes Golf Club in Maricopa, Arizona. The Saguaro Amateur eventually grew and became the Troon Saguaro Amateur Series in 2017. The series is a collection of world-amateur ranked tournaments that take place during college golf's off-season on some of the best courses in the western United States and features many of the top amateur and college players in the country.

DID YOU KNOW? When Gary Woodland won the U.S. Open in June 2019, he put Edwards in the history books as one of only two coaches in NCAA golf history to coach two different players who won the Fed Ex Cup (Brandt Snedeker in 2012) and a major championship (Woodland's 2019 win); Edwards is the only one of the pair to have two players from two different schools (Vanderbilt and Kansas, respectively).

ASSOCIATE COACH DEREK TOLAN

Derek Tolan is in his first year as the associate head coach and his fourth overall for the University of Colorado's men's golf team, as he was promoted from assistant coach in November 2022. After serving six months in an interim capacity, he was officially named the program's top assistant in July 2020, officially returning to his alma mater where he earned a host of honors during his playing career that spanned four seasons (2006-09).

Tolan, 37, played professionally for 10 years after he last teed it up for the Buffs in the spring of 2009; he first was named interim assistant coach on January 22, 2020, filling a midseason vacancy created when CU's assistant of the previous five seasons, Pat Grady (a teammate of Tolan's) decided to return to his private CPA business. He still plays in a few area professional tournaments during the summer, often posting top 10 finishes.

"It means everything in the world to me to be part of CU again, not just the golf program but the university and athletic department as a whole," Tolan said. "I was recruited by Mark Simpson as a player and played for Roy Edwards for three years, so this is a unique opportunity to be able to continue the values of both of them, but also to be able to apply my knowledge as well. I've been in the ring for decades now and have successes and failures at all levels. It's important for me to apply that knowledge to the players at CU, and feel so fortunate to have this opportunity."

"We are excited to add Derek as our assistant coach for the remainder of the season," Head Coach Roy Edwards said. "Hiring a permanent replacement for Pat was going to be very difficult in the middle of the season and we feel very fortunate Derek agreed to join us on an interim basis as he transitions from being a playing professional to a full-time instructor."

"Derek was a great player here and reached a high level of success as a professional golfer. He has strong institutional and team knowledge and we expect him to really help us."

For his CU career (four-year letterman from 2006-09), Tolan finished third in the most rounds played (151), and was 13th in career stroke average (74.19). He tied for second in both the most top 10 finishes (18) and top 20 efforts (26) in school history (he was 11th with five top five performances). He had 89.8 percent of his career rounds count toward team scoring and at the time became just the fifth CU player to have qualified to play in four NCAA Championships. As a senior, he posted a 71.9 stroke average, leading the team in recording the second-best in school history at the time. He was selected as the school's Male Career Athletic Achievement Award winner for all sports, and the co-Male Athlete of the Year (with Grady). An honorable mention All-American by Golfweek and the GCAA, he also earned PING All-Central Region honors, All-Big 12 honors and All-Big 12 Tournament Team accolades.

Tolan was a national celebrity back in 2002, when he made history playing as a 16-year old in the U.S. Open at Bethpage on Long Island, N.Y. He missed the cut on the tough Bethpage Black course after earning his way into the field by tying for second in the local qualifying (68) and placing second in the sectional qualifying (70-69—139). Later that summer, he became the first golfer in United States Golf Association history to have played in the U.S. Open, the U.S. Public Links Championship, the U.S. Junior Amateur and the U.S. Amateur in the same year, doing so between June and August. The Colorado Golf Hall of Fame selected him as its Person of the Year for 2002.

He was born October 21, 1985 in Denver. A Sociology major at Colorado, he was the recipient of the Clancy A. Herbst Jr. Student-Athlete Achievement Award, presented to the CU senior who overcame personal, academic and/or emotional difficulties to succeed both academically and athletically. His father (John) played collegiately at Southern Colorado, and runs the Family Sports Golf Center in Englewood.

VOLUNTEER COACH PATRICK GRADY

Patrick Grady was the assistant men's golf coach at the University of Colorado for the better part of five years, as he returned on June 2, 2015 from private business to his alma mater, where he lettered four times in the 2000s. Following the fall portion of the 2019-20 season, he decided to return to his private business as a certified public accountant but has remained on board in a volunteer coaching capacity.

Grady, 37, was working as a CPA in the Denver area after he tried his hand at professional golf following graduation. He still plays professionally in select regional tournaments during the summer.

As a player, he rose from a late signee on the smallest amount of scholarship money there is to one of the nation's top 50 golfers by the conclusion of his senior year. Grady was not recruited by any Division I golf program out of high school, but after he won the CJCA Match Play Championship in July 2004, he was offered a spot on the CU team in the summer of 2004 by the late Mark Simpson; that first year, he was on 1 percent scholarship, basically enough to cover his books.

He initially intended to redshirt, but showed early flashes and qualified for CU's third tournament of that season. He instead redshirted after his junior season, and when he returned to the lineup as a fifth-year senior for the 2008-09 season, he had the kind of year that earned him CU's Co-Male Athlete of the Year honors for all sports (with teammate Derek Tolan). He played in all 13 tournaments, with two wins, five top 5, eight top 10 and 10 top 20 finishes. He earned PING All-Region honors and was an honorable mention All-American, finishing as the No. 46 ranked player in the nation (Golfweek).

He recorded a 71.98 stroke average for his senior season, the third best in school history at the time and still fifth on the charts (with his 71.32 average during the spring the second best, just .02 off the record and which still stands as the third best). His outstanding spring was topped by his victory in CU's Stevinson Ranch Invitational, where he cruised to a win with an 8-under par 208 score. His top fall highlight that year was his first career collegiate win, when a 67-69-68—204 scorecard (12-under par) earned him medalist honors at Denver's Ron Moore Invitational at Green Valley Ranch (he was named the Golfweek National Player-of-the-Week for that effort).

In amateur play, he became the first and to date is still the only player in state history to win the three "majors," the Colorado Golf Association's Match Play Championship in 2005, the Stroke Play title in 2006 and the Public Links crown in 2007 (the latter was discontinued in 2014). He was a two-time state amateur player-of-the-year.

A Coloradan to the core, he was born in Westminster and graduated from Broomfield High School, where he lettered four years in golf. He graduated from CU with a double major in Business (finance and accounting) in May 2009. As a senior, he was named to the prestigious GCAA All-America Scholar team (golf's version of Academic All-America), and was a two-time first-team Academic All-Big 12 team member.

At the time of his graduation, he finished 14th in the most rounds played (113) at Colorado, finishing 16th in career stroke average (74.45), ninth in top 5 finishes (7), sixth in top 10 finishes (12) and ninth in top 20 efforts (18).

Professionally, he played for three-and-a-half years on assorted tours, but had most of his success primarily on the Adams Tour, where he won five times. He has continued playing competitively while coaching, and was named the 2016 CGA's Apprentice Player of the Year after he won the Colorado PGA Assistants Championship; he then placed 11th in the National Assistant PGA Professional Championship (where he shot an even-par 288 in Port St. Lucie, Fla.).

Grady still plays in several of the area state opens, and tied for third in the 2018 Wyoming Open with a 9-under par 201 score. He also was third the same summer in the in the PGA Assistants Championship (Saddle Rock GC) and in the Laramie Open, and has several wins and numerous top 10 finishes over the past few years in single-day events.

He was born March 17, 1986 in Westminster, Colo. His grandfather on his mother's side played football at the University of Denver and was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers, but had to forego the NFL when he was drafted into the army. A second cousin, Kevin McDougal, played football at Colorado State and for three years with the Indianapolis Colts. He joined his older brother Jim in Boulder, and at the time, became the fifth set of brothers on the golf team simultaneously.

He is married to the former Jessica Borth, a former golfer at Sam Houston State, and the couple has one daughter, Madelyn Jo (4) and Clare (2).

THE GOLDEN BUFFALOES

JUSTIN BIWER

5-11, 165, Soph., 1L, San Diego, Calif. (Torrey Pines)

College—2022-23 (Soph.): Played in all six fall tournaments in recording the third-best fall stroke average ever by a Buff – 70.33 – just a tad behind his frosh average of 70.07 (now second-best) ... Continues to be a model of consistency, with all 18 rounds between 67 and 73 (15 of which were par or better) and owned per round averages of 70.8 (first), 70.0 (middle) and 70.2 (final) ... Recorded his best career finish when he claimed third in CU's Simpson Invitational (70-69-67—206, -4) at Boulder Country Club ... First five tournaments were all under par – all gradually improving in each (-1, -2, -3, -4, -6) – until it ended in Hawai'i (where he was just plus-1 in the Ka'anapali event) ... Score counted toward CU's team total 17 of 18 times ... Led the team in the fall in percentage of holes of par or better (280 of 324, 86.1 percent), including runs of 23 and 22 holes in a row ... Led in pars with 217 (had 38 in both the Notre Dame and Nevada tourneys) ... Takes a streak of 52 career rounds without shooting higher than a 77 into the spring season, along with no scores worse than double bogey (just 20 doubles in 936 holes).

2021-22 (Fr.): He enjoyed quite the collegiate debut ... Named to the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team and also garnered second-team All-PAC-12 honors overall ... Ranked nationally No. 184 by Golfweek and 189 by Golf Stat ... Selected as CU's Freshman Athlete of the Year (for all sports) and was the Male Athlete of the Week on two occasions ... Earned an individual berth to the NCAA Regionals, where he turned in a 72-73-77—222 scorecard (+6) to tie for 40th in the Norman Regional (the 11th freshman under CU head coach Roy Edwards who played in the NCAA's) ... The team leader in stroke average with a 70.91 mark, he also led the team in the fall (70.07) and spring (71.57) ... He was the first freshman since Jeremy Paul in 2013-14 to lead the team and just the sixth overall to ever accomplish the rare feat ... The figure was also seventh overall in the Pac-12, and first among all freshmen; he also led all league frosh in top 20 finishes (7), rounds in the 60's (12), subpar rounds (20), rounds of par or better (23) and the "low" high score (77) ... One of two league frosh to lead his team in stroke norm (other: Jackson Rivera, USC, 71.70) ... His 70.91 average tied for 50th in the nation, 19th in Region C (-0.53 scirp tied for 17th), but was second in the region by a freshman ... He owned the fifth-best average by a freshman in Division I ... He shattered Paul's CU frosh record of 72.51 he set that '13-14 season ... The team leader in 20 categories that all also set freshmen records: season scoring average (70.91), stroke count in relation to par (-0.53), fall average (70.07), spring average (71.57), first round average (71.0), middle round average (71.1), final round average (70.6), top 20 finishes (7), tournaments under par (8), tournaments of par or better (9), rounds of par or better (23), subpar rounds (20), rounds in the 60's (12), birdies (134) subpar hole percentage (22.5, 138 of 612), par or better hole percentage (82.0, 502 of 612), highest percentage of rounds being par or better (23 of 34, 67.6 percent, second-best overall in CU annals), jumbo percentage (.412), the fewest holes worse than bogey (14) and the "low" high score of 77 ... Since being tracked starting in 2011-12, had the second best subpar and par or better percentages, behind only Yannik Paul's numbers of 23.5 and 85.7 in '17-18 ... Had just 14 holes (all double bogeys) worse than bogey out of 612 ... Of his 34 rounds, 31 were between 65 and 74 ... Of the 10 times he shot 73, 74 or 75 in the first two rounds, six times he came back to shave two strokes or more off in his next round ... His fall average of 70.07 for 15 rounds (five tournaments) set a CU record for the best average for the fall portion of a season by (old best was 70.43), also topping the previous freshman best by two strokes ... Best tournament effort in relation to par was a 9-under par (70-69-65—204) to close out the fall in Hawai'i's Ka'anapali Classic (where he tied for 14th; the final round 65 is his best collegiate round). The 65 tied two others for the lowest score in a tournament by a CU freshman ... Also shot an 8-under 208 in CU's Simpson Invitational; combined with subpar finishes in the first two meets (Air Force, New Mexico) made him the first player in CU history – freshman or any class member, to open his Buff career with two and then three subpar performances in major tournaments ... In the AFA Miranda, his 4-under 212 was the second-best performances in a first collegiate event by a Buff ... The first true freshman to be designated at CU's No. 1 player for a league meet since Paul in 2013-14 (and those are the only two since Knut Ekjord in 1995); he responded with his top finish of his career to date as he finished fifth in the Pac-12 Championship (73-74-69-67—283, -1); he was the second freshman ... Biwer was the only player in the 72-man field to close with scores in the 60s (which were at a premium the last two rounds with just seven in each); he won the last two rounds with a 6-under 136, three better than anyone else ... The fifth place effort was the best by a CU freshman in the Pac-12's since CU joined the conference in 2011-12, and the third best overall behind a pair of runner-up finishes by Ross Macdonald and Jeremy Paul in 2018 ... It also was the third-best finish by a CU freshman in any conference tournament, behind a runner-up effort by Rick Cramer in the 1979 Big Eight Championship; Cramer had bested a third place showing by Steve Jones in '78.

2020-21: He opted to delay enrollment for a year due to the COVID-19 pandemic (the now commonplace "gap" year).

High School—As a senior, when he was named as one of the top 25 high school golfers in the San Diego Section, he tied for 26th in the CIF Championship (74, +3; he birdied five of his last 10 holes) ... He tied for seventh in the sectional meet, helping Torrey to a fourth-straight title ... As a junior, he earned first-team All-CIF San Diego Section honors, as he tied for seventh in the CIF Championship (140, -4) ... His scoring differential of 0.16 was seventh-best in all of the San Diego Section (in lieu of stroke averages, they use a format involving course ratings and slope) ... He helped Torrey Pines finish third as a team in regional play and then second in the 2018 state championship ... He resumed playing competitive golf midway through his sophomore year (January 2018) after a four-year layoff when he concentrated on basketball and baseball.

Other—2022: Won his first two matches before bowing out in the Round of 16 at the U.S. Amateur in Paramus, N.J. He advanced into match play after tying for 21st in stroke play with a 70-73—143 (+2) effort; he had qualified by finishing second in qualifying at Mission Viejo (Calif.) CC with a 71-66—137 (-5) effort, two back of the lead ... Placed 27th but was the fourth low amateur in the California State Open (285, -3) ... In the British Amateur (Lancashire, England), he shot 75-71—146 (+4) but missed advancing to match play by three shots; he tied for sixth among 15 Americans in the 288-man field ... Shot a 7-over 79 in the Genesis Collegiate Showcase at Riviera Country Club in Los Angeles (placed 15th); played with two CU alums and PGA Tour pro Adam Schenk ... Tied for 15th in the Saguaro Amateur (72-70-69—211, -5). 2021: Tied for second low amateur honors (16th overall) in the So Cal Open with a 71-65-73—209 (-6) effort at Indian Wells Resort (the 65 tied for the low score for the second round as well as for the third-best 18 holes overall over the three days) ... Also tied for second in the Sizzler Amateur at Troon North in Scottsdale (67-68-76—211, -5), two out of the lead (he was the first round leader) ... Finished fourth in the U.S. Amateur Qualifier at San Diego's Bernardo Heights Country Club (71-69—140, -4); he earned the second alternate spot. 2020: Tied for 16th in the inaugural Silver State Amateur in Las Vegas (71-71-72—214, -2) ... Tied for 62nd in the inaugural Tucker Amateur in Maricopa, Ariz. (76-73-69—218, +2). 2019: He had seven top five finishes in major amateur events, including earning co-medalist honors in the AJGA Preview in San Bernardino (142, -2) ... In the Future Champions Golf (FCG) Western States Players Cup in Manifee, Calif., he recorded a 70-68-68—206 (-10) scorecard and finished second after losing in a playoff, and he also nabbed a runner-up finish in the Southern California PGA's Toyota Tour Cup (140, -4) ... Another top AJGA finish was a tie for sixth in the Open at The Oaks Club in Valencia (213, -3). 2018: Just seven months after he resumed playing competitive golf, he qualified for the IMG Junior World and tied for 21st with a 78-74-69-71—292 (+4) effort on Torrey Pines' South Course; his 2-under total over the last three rounds was the sixth-best in the field.

Best Career Round in Competition— 65 (-6, Oct. 31, 2021; final round, Ka'anapali Classic at Maui); 65 (-5; 2021 SoCal Open at Indian Wells Resort; second round).

Academics—He is majoring in Business (double major in Accounting and Finance) at Colorado.

Personal— He was born September 27, 2001 in Laguna Hills, Calif. (last name is pronounced be-were).

TUCKER CLARK

6-2, 180, Soph., TR, Paradise Valley, Ariz. (Arcadia/Notre Dame)

At Colorado—2022-23 (Soph.): Enjoyed a fine opening to his Colorado career, playing in all six fall tournaments and finishing with a 71.11 stroke average, though third on the team, the 10th-best ever for a fall season at CU ... The seventh player in school history to shoot a 30 for nine holes when he did so on the back nine in the third round of the Ka'anapali Classic; that helped him to a 6-under 65 got the final round and his best finish for the fall (eighth place with a 10-under 203). The 203 score was the second-best in school history for a 54-hole tournament on a par-71 course, as he birdied six of his first nine holes in the final round, with his 19 birdies for the event a team-high for the fall season (and tied for the second-most in the tournament) ... Scored a 1-under 69 in his first round as a Buffalo, coming in the Notre Dame Fighting Irish Classic, his home course when he was on UND's golf team before transferring to CU ... Had 11 rounds of par or better out of 18 for the fall, with six in the 60s; had just seven holes worse than bogey (all doubles) out of 324 holes. All 18 counted toward CU's team score ... Had seven birdies in a round three times ... Finished tied for 11th in two other fall meets, including CU's Simpson, when he opened with a 4-under 66, his best opening round of the fall ... He officially signed as a Buffalo on July 13, 2022 ... Enrolled at CU with three years of eligibility remaining after transferring from the University of Notre Dame, where he played as a freshman in 2020-21 before redshirting due to an injury for the 2021-22 season.

At Notre Dame—2020-21/2021-22 (Fr./Soph.): As a true freshman, he played in all seven spring tournaments (no fall season due to COVID-19 pandemic) ... Led the team to its first appearance in the NCAA regionals since 2012 as he posted four top 25 finishes ... He finished fourth on the team with a 72.52 stroke average (for 21 rounds), with bests of 65 (7-under) for 18 holes and 205 (11-under) for 54, the latter two being team bests ... Had 17 of his 21 rounds count toward Notre Dame's team score, and owned a subpar percentage of 21.3 (78 birdies and two eagles for 378 holes played) ... Tied for 20th in his first collegiate meet, Florida State's Seminole Invitational (217, +1), and also led the team in the Stitch Intercollegiate when he tied for seventh with an 11-under 205 effort (65-74-66), helping the Irish to a second place finish at Macgregor Downs C.C. in Cary, N.C. ... He redshirted as a sophomore due to elbow and ankle injuries and subsequently decided to transfer.

High School— Junior Golf Scoreboard ranked him as the No. 15 player in the Class of 2020 ... Led Arcadia to two state titles, and claimed the individual crown when the Titans won the second time in 2018, turning in a 6-under 64 scorecard ... Tied for third (138, -5) as a sophomore and tied for 21st as a freshman (150, +6) in the state meet ... Team captain as a sophomore and junior ... Did not play as a senior due to all his travels on the junior golf circuit ... A nominee for both the 2017 and 2018 Arizona High School Athlete of the Year ... An Arizona Junior Golf Ambassador the six years (ages 13-18).

Other—2022: Tied for 14th in The Sizzler. 2021: Tied for 54th in the Patriot All-America, though was just 2-over par (72-71-69—212) and just four strokes higher than the year before when he finished ninth. 2020: Won the Indianapolis GCAA Amateur Series on the seventh playoff hole after ending 54 holes tied with three others at 7-under 209 (was a freshman at Notre Dame at the time, but no college competition was permitted due to COVID-19) ... He was ranked 31st in the final AJGA rankings, and was named a Rolex Junior All-American for the second time ... Top finishes included a win in the Junior Golf Association of Arizona Willie Low Invitational (73-64—137, -5) and third in the Rolex Tournament of Champions (71-72-71-67—281, -7) ... Tied for ninth in the Patriot All-America (71-71-66—208, -4) ... Tied for 13th in The Sizzler ... A two-time AJGA All-American Honorable Mention selection (2019, 2020), he had six top five AJGA efforts. 2019: Finished second in the AJGA Sergio Garcia (212, -4) and in the Bryce Molder Invitational (66-70—136, -6) ... Took third in the Arizona Junior Stroke Play (67-72-65—204, -9) and tied for third in the Wigwam Invitational (72-70—142, -2) ... Tied for 14th in the Western Junior at Rich Harvest Farms (70-73-78-72—293, +5) ... Tied for 19th in the AJGA Junior Players Championship (76-71-71—218, +2) ... Member of the 2019 Arizona Junior America Cup Team. 2018: In JGA of Arizona events, he had one win, five top 10 and seven top 25 finishes; the win was in the IMG Academy Junior World Golf Qualifier at Raven GC in Phoenix (67-65—132, -12) ... Member of the Eddie Hogan Cup Championship Team ... High Performance Award winner. 2017: The Antigua National High School Invitational individual champion (70-68—138, -6), with Arcadia also claiming the team title ... Recorded three runner-up efforts, in the BMO Invitational, the Wigwam Invitational and the Holiday Challenge ... Arizona Sportsman of the Year Award recipient. 2011-16: He posted six victories with 35 top 10 finishes in various junior events in Arizona; all told, over the course of his JGA of Arizona career, he played in 82 tournaments, with eight wins, 10 runner-up finishes and eight third place efforts.

Best Career Rounds In Competition—64 (-7; second round, 2020 Willie Low Invitational, Phoenix CC); 65 (-6, Ka'anapali Collegiate Classic, Oct. 30, 2022).

FREDERIK EISENBEIS

6-0, 175, Soph., 1L, Cologne, Germany (Gymnasium Rodenkirchen)

College—2022-23 (Soph.): Played in four fall tournaments, one as a designated scorer for the team and three as an individual ... Owned a 74.17 stroke average for the 12 rounds ... Top finish was a fifth-place tie in the Air Force Miranda Individual, where he turned in a 74-71-67—212 (-4) scorecard; the final round 67 was his best single round of the fall season ... Other score in the 60s was in the final round of CU's Simpson (1-under 69 at Boulder CC) ... Improved his score from one round to the next in the fall on seven out of eight possible occasions.

2021-22 (Fr.): Owned the sixth-best stroke average on the team at 73.75 in 28 rounds of action ... That figure was the ninth-best by a freshman in CU history (and the 19th-best by a freshman in the Pac-12 for the year) ... Played the No. 4 position at the Pac-12 Championship, posting CU's second-best score (295, +11) in tying for 45th; final round 70 was also the second best by a Buff and his 16 birdies tied for the seventh most in the field ... Played in all five fall tournaments, placing fifth on the team in average with a 73.0 figure ... He was a designated scorer for four meets, and his average for those 12 rounds was 71.83 (he struggled as an individual in DU's Paintbrush invite) ... Owned a 72.33 final round average, second-best on the team (was also the second best in the fall at 71.4) ... Opened his collegiate career with a tie for 14th place in the Air Force Miranda Invitational (214, -2); he had CU's lone eagle in the tournament, and played the challenging par-4 holes at 2-under, sixth-best in the field ... His best effort in relation to par came in the fall's final event at the Ka'anapali Classic (208, -5). His final round 5-under 66 was his college career best, one of five subpar rounds in his inaugural semester at Colorado ... In a windy Southern Colorado Masters, he tied for 12th (6-over 222); played the last 24 holes at just 4-over par in 30-40 mile per hour wind gusts ... Tied for the most pars (40) by a Buff in the fall season when he finished 1-under in CU's own Simpson Invitational, which remained tied for the second-most for the entire season ... Generally avoided big numbers: had just 21 holes worse than bogey out of 504 (19 doubles, two triples) and owned an .821 jumbo percentage ... Had a string of 24 straight holes of par or better – over two semesters (the last round in Hawai'i and the first six in Wyoming's Desert Intercollegiate).

High School—Rodenkirchen was the state team champion ... Also a member of the Germany junior champion team.

Other—2021: Tied for 22nd in the stroke play portion of the Karolinka Match Play (Pro Golf Tour), the second low amateur (75-68—143, -1); he won his first match before bowing out in match play. 2020: After a rough start, he placed fifth in the German National Boys Championship (78-68-67—213, -1), as he had the low score over the last two rounds (the only player in the field with two scores in the 60s over the final 36 holes) ... He was fourth in the 2020 German Junior National (213, -3) and 12th in the German Men's National Championship (also 213, -3) ... Placed 25th in the German National Amateur (open to all ages), with a 1-under 215 effort. 2019: He won the Berlin Open Championship, where he turned in a 7-under par 281 and was one of two players in the field to shoot a pair of sub-70 scores ... He finished atop the leaderboard in the qualifiers for the German Junior Championship for a second straight year ... Tied for 21st in the German National Amateur, finishing with a 2-under 286 score.

Best Career Round In Competition— 64 (-8; Sept. 2020, Bundesliga Tournament, Marienburger Golf Club, Germany)

Academics—He is majoring in Business (Finance and Marketing) and studying for a minor in Art History at Colorado ... Selected as the student of the year his sophomore year in high school.

Personal—He was born May 29, 2002 in Cologne, Germany ... Hobbies include skiing, tennis, soccer, fitness, music and art ... His summer after high school he had an internship at an auction house.

JACK HOLLAND

6-1, 160, Soph., 1L, Hampton, Australia (Haileybury College)

College—2022-23 (Soph.): Saw action in five of the six fall tournaments, two as a scorer for the team and three individually ... Had a fall stroke average of 71.93 (the 26th in school history under 72) ... Open and closed the fall with a pair of 13th-place tie finishes, in Air Force's Miranda Individual (217, +1) and in Hawai'i's Ka'anapali Classic Collegiate (68-74-64—206, -7); he was a designated scorer in the latter ... The final round 64 in Hawai'i tied six others for the second-best single round in CU history (the 7-under tied the sixth-best in relation to par). It was the best round by a Buff in five years ... The 206 was the sixth-best by a Buff for a 54-hole event on a par-71 course ... Had the team's low "jumbo" stat for the fall (.267); had only four of 270 holes worse than bogey (all doubles) ... Had one run of 23 straight holes of par or better in the fall, tied for second-best on the team; included in that streak was a team-high 17 pars for a single round (in CU's Simpson Invitational; his 39 pars in the event tied for the team-high for a tournament) ... Best rounds came on a tournament's final day, when he averaged 70.6 strokes.

2021-22 (Fr.): Played in nine tournaments, four as an individual; he was a designated scorer in the first event of the season, the Air Force Miranda Invitational, where he was the No. 1 player after qualifying. He struggled a bit in that meet (237, +21), but bounced back a week later to tie for 14th in CSU's Ram Masters Invitational (228, +18; his highest finish of the year) ... Had his best effort of the fall in CU's own Simpson Invitational, where he tied for 38th with a 3-under 213 scorecard; a second round 67 was his top single round score for the fall season ... He matched that 67 gross score (though 3-under) in the first round of Stanford's The Goodwin, where he followed with a 69 and then a 70 for a 4-under 206 score that tied him for 23rd. That was his top spring effort, both in best score and highest finish and tied for the eighth-best by a Buff on a par-70 course for a 54-hole event ... One of two players who had a lower stroke average in the spring (75.33) than the fall (75.83) ... Had 15 pars in a round twice, in the first round of the Wyoming Desert Intercollegiate and in The Goodwin ... Was 2-1 in dual play CU's 6-3 match win over Nevada ... Owned a 75.56 stroke average for 27 rounds; his best average came in middle rounds (74.56).

High School—Team captain his final two years at Haileybury, where he earned the Golf Medal and honors, the latter on two occasions as a junior and senior ... In 2019, he captured both the Associated Public Schools/AGSV State Championship (69, -3) and the Independent (Victorian) Schools state final, defending his title in the latter in winning by five strokes ... In 2018, he claimed the Independent Schools state final (2-under par; won in a playoff) ... Also earned honors in field hockey.

Other—2021: Won the Junior Players Series (-4, two stroke victory), a televised tournament where amateurs played with professionals ... Also won the adidas Junior 6s Tour Metropolitan in a playoff (71; -1, winning 2 up in the "knockout" finale in treacherous conditions that included rain and gusting winds) ... 2020: Tied for third in the Victorian Junior Open (74-74-73-69—290, +4); he was four out of the lead ... 2019: He placed fifth in the Victorian Boys Championship and tied for seventh in the Victorian Junior Open ... Member of the Victorian Men's Pennant Division 1 champion team. 2018: Claimed the Rossdale Open Amateur.

Best Career Round In Competition—64 (-7, Oct. 30, 2022, Hawaii Ka'anapali Classic, Maui); 65 (-7, December 2019; Victorian Junior Open at the 13th Beach Golf Links in Barwon Heads, Victoria.

Academics—He is majoring in Chemical Engineering at Colorado ... He was selected as the Male Student-Athlete of the Month for December 2021 by the Herbst Academic Center staff ... Earned High Distinction honors as a junior and senior at Haileybury (after earning Distinction Honors as a freshman and sophomore).

Personal—He was born November 29, 2002 in Melbourne, Australia ... His hobbies include surfing, reading, running, exercise and hiking ... Hampton is a coastal suburb of Melbourne in the state of Victoria in southeast Australia.

JACK HUGHES

6-0, 165, Sr., 1L, Aspen, Colo. (Aspen)

College—2022-23 (Sr.): Even though he could have three years of eligibility left, he's set to graduate in May and thus is in his final season He played in four fall tournaments, three as an individual and one as a designated scorer ... Owned a 73.08 average for the 12 rounds ... As a scorer in the season opener at Notre Dame, he tied for 76th (225, +15); he was a combined 10-over in his other three events, which included a pair of top 20 finishes ... Best was a tie for 13th in the Air Force Miranda Individual (217, +1); his best single round of the fall was a 4-under 68 in the first round ... Tied for 16th in DU's TPC Colorado at Heron Lakes (220, +4) ... Tied for the team lead in eagles (3) and had just five holes worse than bogey out of 216.

2021-22 (Fr.-3): His 73.10 average for the season was fourth-best on the team, with his fall figure of 71.67 the third-best and also the third-best by a freshman for a fall season in school history (behind two of his teammates, Justin Biwer and Dylan McDermott) ... Playing in his first collegiate event, the Air Force Miranda Individual, he became the fourth CU freshman in school history to win a tournament, and just the second to do so in his first college event: he turned in a 74-65-70—209 (7-under) on AFA's Eisenhower Silver Course to win by one stroke. The 209 score/7-under performance was the best score and effort in relation to par by any Buff golfer in his first tournament ... His second round 65 (two eagles, five birdies, two bogeys) tied the all-time low score (and relation to par) by a freshman previously recorded by Jeremy Paul (in 2013) and Morton Toft Hansen (in 2016); it also tied the low score by any Buff in their first college event ... He was under par in three of the five fall events, and had 10 of his 12 rounds count toward team scoring (he was a designated scorer for the last four) ... Tied for 12th in CU's Simpson Invitational (207, -9), with his first round 6-under 66 paving the way ... Closed the fall with a 4-under 209 at Hawai'i's Ka'anapali Classic ... Saw action in two spring tournaments, both as an individual ... Led the team in eagles (6) and had just eight holes out of 378 worse than bogey ... Third on the team in first round scoring average (72.1); owned the same mark for middle and final rounds (73.6) ... Retained freshman eligibility when the NCAA gave all athletes an extra year due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

2020-21 (Fr.-RS): Did not see any tournament action but practiced once the sessions resumed after COVID protocols were reduced.

2019-20 (Fr.): Redshirted; did not see any action but practiced with the team in both the fall and spring.

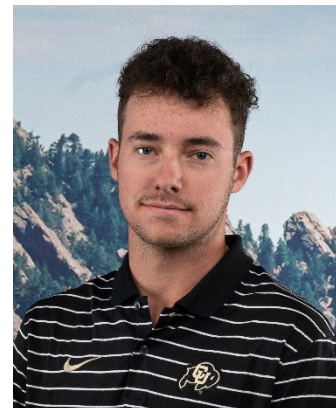

High School—He lettered three years in golf at Aspen, his senior year (when he averaged 70.25 strokes per round), and his sophomore and freshman years ... When he was a junior, he attended the Bishop Gates Golf Academy in Howey-in-the-Hills, Fla., where his top finish in competition was in the Faldo Series Florida Championship; his 4-under par 69-71—140 performance earned him runner-up honors (he was the first round leader) ... As a senior at Aspen High, he was the runner-up in the state's 3A Championship, turning in a 2-over 72-70—142 effort at Boulder Country Club, which had him three shots out of the lead. In the process, he helped Aspen to its first-ever state crown in boy's golf ... He tied for 25th as a sophomore when AHS placed fifth, and tied for 22nd as a freshman with his team placing third ... Owned a 70.18 scoring average as a senior to set the school record (72.64 as a sophomore, 74.38 as a freshman).

Other—2022: Shot a course record 62 (9-under) at Aspen Golf Club, his home course ... Tied for third with a 2-under 70 at Walnut Creek Golf Preserve in U.S. Open Qualifying; he rebounded from opening with a pair of bogeys and closed with a birdie on No. 18 to advance to sectionals ... Shot 71-76—147 in the Colorado Open, missing the cut but tied as the 15th low amateur. 2020: Tied for third in the Colorado Golf Association's Western Chapter Championship at Tiara Rado GC in Grand Junction (66-75—141, -1); he owned the first round lead and was leading with two holes remaining before he struggled on the last two holes (as many did, just two scores of par or better in the final round) ... He reached the semifinals of the CGA's Match Play Championship, winning his first four matches before bowing out to Colin Prater, 2 up; he started as the No. 62 seed ... Tied for 28th in the Grapevine Amateur in Napa, Calif. (Silverado North GC; 76-76-78—230, +14) ... Tied for 45th in the Saguaro Amateur at New Year's (71-71-78—220, +4) ... Missed the cut by three strokes in the Colorado Amateur (77-73—150, +10) at Common Ground GC in Aurora. 2019: Earned medalist honors in the AJGA Hale Irwin Junior, carding a 67-74-71—212 (4-under par) ... Qualified for IMG Junior Worlds and for Team Colorado for the Junior America's Cup Team ... 2018: He had a solid summer in amateur play, topped by reaching the semifinals of the CGA's Junior Match Play Championship; he was the eighth seed after firing a 1-under 71 in qualifying and won three matches to get to the semis ... He finished seventh in the CGA Junior Amateur with a 70-71-73—214 scorecard (2-under par at Thornton's Todd Creek Golf Club) and placed 10th in the AJGA Hale Irwin (74-73-72—219).

Best Career Round In Competition—65 (-7, second round, 2021 AFA Gene Miranda Individual, Eisenhower Blue Course); 66 (-6, first round, 2021 CU-Simpson Invitational, Colorado National Golf Club, Erie).

Academics—He is majoring in Business (Real Estate & Marketing) at Colorado ... Member of Aspen's Honor Roll (summa cum laude) as a senior.

Personal—He was born August 27, 2001 in Aspen, Colo. ... His hobbies include skiing, traveling and playing most sports ... Caddied in the summers for 2020 and 2021 at Aspen's Maroon Creek Golf Club ... A grandfather was a springbok for the South African National Rugby Team ... Lance Armstrong and Billy Horschel are family friends ... He has a twin brother, Garrett, who also attends CU (Jack is the younger twin, by five minutes).

ROBBY KEILCH

6-4, 175, Fr., HS, Newport Beach, Calif. (Mater Dei)

College—2022-23 (Fr.): After taking what is now becoming commonplace, a “gap” year, he enrolled at CU for the fall semester ... He saw action in three tournaments, all as an individual, with his best finish a tie for 13th in his first collegiate meet, Air Force’s Miranda Individual (70-74-73—217, +1) ... The first round 2-under 70 was his low score for the fall; it tied for the third-lowest first collegiate round in CU history (the second-lowest in relation to par) ... Sported a 73.67 average for nine rounds; of his 162 holes played, just six were worse than bogey (tied for the team-lead in eagles for the fall with three).

High School—A four-year varsity letterman at Mater Dei ... Owned a 34.8 stroke average for 9-hole matches as a senior, when he was a first-team All-Trinity League performer for the second time (also as a sophomore) ... As a senior, he helped his team to Trinity League title in 2021 and the CIF Division 1 team championship ... Was the “Monarch of the Year” for Mater Dei Boy’s Golf for 2021 ... Junior season was cancelled due to COVID ... Mater Dei was the Palmetto Cup Team Champion (Myrtle Beach, SC) his sophomore year, when selected as the team’s Most Outstanding Golfer for 2019.

Other—2022: Tied for 29th in the Silverado Amateur (225, +9); second round 70 tied for seventh low score.

2021: Finished seventh overall and as the second low amateur in the Northern California Open at Coyote Creek Golf Club (71-71-69—211, -5) ... He was the medalist – and only player under par – in the U.S. Amateur Sectional Qualifying at Mission Viejo (Calif.) Country Club (70-69—139, -3); he turned a very steady two rounds with seven birdies, and 26 pars in winning by three strokes. He missed the cut in the U.S. Amateur, as he opened with an 83 that left him well behind the projected cut, but he did rally to shoot a 1-over 71 in the second round ... Placed second in the Agave Amateur (68-66-71—205, -8) at Shadow Hills Golf Club (Indio, Calif.) ... Tied for ninth in the Desert Amateur at Southern Dunes Golf Club in Maricopa, Ariz. (3-under 213). 2019: As a 16-year old in the U.S. Open Local Qualifier at Oak Creek Golf Club in Irvine, Calif., he ran away from the field in setting a course record 9-under par 61, a mark that still stands; in winning by six strokes, he hit all 14 fairways on his way to scoring an eagle and nine birdies on the par-70 track; he had a 29 when he made the turn ... Claimed the PGA Section Toyota Cup Championship at Industry (Calif.) Hills, winning by six shots after carding a 70-62—142 (10-under) performance (the 62 established the new low round for the event).

Best Career Round In Competition—61 (-9, May 9, 2019, U.S. Open Qualifier at Oak Creek Golf Club in Irvine, Calif.)

Academics—He is interested in Business (Finance) as his major at Colorado.

Personal—He was born July 23, 2002 in Newport Beach, Calif. ... He graduated high school in May 2021 but took the year off before enrolling in college, which is now termed a “gap year.” (His last name is pronounced “kelch” ... the i is silent.)

ADAM MATTESON

5-10, 165, Sr., 3L, San Diego, Calif. (Scripps Ranch)

College—This Season (Sr.)—Has opted to play as a senior as he graduates in May (he could have one more season with the COVID-19 ruling) ... Saw action in three fall tournaments (a designated scorer in all), averaging 75.56 strokes for the nine rounds ... Five of the nine did count toward CU's team score ... Top finish was in the season opener at Air Force, where he tied for 36th in the Miranda Invitational (73-76-71—220, +4); the final round 71 was his best round in the fall ... He will have one year of eligibility remaining if he so chooses after the 2022-23 season due to the extra year granted by the NCAA due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

2021-22 (Soph.): Owed a 74.75 stroke average for 22 rounds; he had seen limited spring action, appearing in just two events, but had a solid showing in qualifying to earn the sixth and final spot for the Pac-12s) ... Played his best in middle rounds (73.75 average) ... In the fall, he had a 74.00 average for four events, playing as an individual in three meets ... Those included CU's Mark Simpson Invitational, where he recorded his best collegiate finish with a third place showing; his 68-66-69—203 scorecard and 13-under par effort set a school record for a 54-hole event, besting five previous 12-under 204 scores ... He had just three rounds in the 60s in his career before lighting up CU's home course with three in a row in the Simpson (had 17 birdies in the event, tied for second-most by a Buff in a '21-22 tourney) ... Scored par or better on 50 of 54 holes in the Simpson, otherwise had just four bogeys; that tied for the fewest holes over par in an event by a Buff for the season ... He opened the fall with a tie for 10th in Air Force's Miranda Individual (221, +5) ... In the final tournament of the fall (Notre Dame's Fighting Irish Classic), he opened with an 88, but rebounded with a second round 71; the 17-stroke in-tournament improvement from one round to the next tied for the second-best in school history (one off the school best of 18 by John Nyuli in 1990 at the Miami-Doral Invitational) ... He entered the Pac-12 coming off a tie for sixth in the Southern Colorado Masters (219, +3); he opened with a 69 and hung in there the last two rounds when wind gusted at 25 miles per hour or more for most of the remainder of the event ... He placed 63rd at the Pac-12 Championship (303, +19), scoring three straight 76s before closing with a 75.

2020-21 (Fr.-3): Finished third on the team in stroke average with a 73.37 mark for 19 rounds ... Usually closed strong, with a 72.5 final round average, which included a 4-under 68 in Wyoming's Cowboy Classic, his best round of the year ... Top finish came in Wyoming's Desert Intercollegiate, where he tied for 16th with an even-par 216 total; a second round 69 had matched his collegiate best to that point ... Best effort in relation to par was in the Cowboy Classic, when was recorded a 3-under 213 scorecard ... Was a designated scorer for the team for all 19 of his rounds, with his score counting 17 times (89.5 percent) ... Had a run of 20 straight holes of par or better between the second and third rounds of the Wyoming Desert meet (when he had 40 pars overall, third most by a Buff in a tournament for the spring) ... Retained freshman eligibility when the NCAA gave all athletes an extra year due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

2019-20 (Fr.-RS): He enjoyed some fine moments competing for the first time as a collegian, recording three top 20 finishes and posting a 73.70 stroke average for 20 rounds on the season ... His 73.21 average was the fourth-best for a freshman in the fall in the 14 seasons under Coach Roy Edwards and his overall average was the fifth-best by a freshman in school history (though with the season cut short, he just met the minimum for rounds played to make the list) ... His best effort came in CU's own Mark Simpson Invitational, when he recorded a 3-under 213 to tie for 20th; his 3-under 69 in the final round was his best individual 18 holes for the year ... Top finishes were a tie for eighth in CU's Les Fowler event (147, +7), followed by a tie for 13th in CSU's Ram Masters Invitational (210, E) ... Owned a healthy middle round average of 72.50 (six rounds) ... Tied for third on the team in subpar percentage (17.8 percent, 64 of his 360 holes were birdies) ... His 15 pars in the third round of the Wyoming Desert Intercollegiate and the 39 he had in that event tied for the team-highs for the season ... He had just 10 holes (out of 360) worse than bogey over the entire season.

2018-19 (Fr.): Redshirted; he practiced regularly with the team.

High School—A four-year letterman at Scripps Ranch High School for Coach Mikel Moran ... A three-time first-team Western League performer (second-team as a freshman) ... Competed in the Southern California CIF Regional tourney all four years ... He led Scripps to a third place finish in the CIF SDS Championship as a junior, tying for eighth individually with a 2-under 72-70—142 scorecard; he placed 12th as a sophomore with a 70-71—141 (3-under) when Scripps took fifth and tied for 20th (76-71—147, +3) as a senior ... His stroke average steadily improved annually: 74.7 (freshman), 73.8 (sophomore), 73.5 (junior) and 72.6 (senior).

Other—2023: Tied for 18th in the Saguaro Amateur in Maricopa, Ariz. (213, -3). 2021: Qualified for the U.S. Amateur, as he recorded a 67-71—138 (-4) effort at Valencia (Calif.) Country, as he finished second, two back of the lead ... In the event at Oakmont, Pa., he missed the cut by three strokes to advance to match play (72-74—146, +6; that did tie for 118th in the 312-man field) ... Tied for 17th in the Southern California Amateur Championship (71-72-69-72—284, +4). 2020: Tied for 21st in the Colorado Golf Association's Fall Amateur (68-72-79—219, +9) at Common Ground CC in Aurora ... 2019: Tied for 13th in the Long Beach City Amateur (72-72-70—214, -2) ... Placed 49th in the Sizzler Amateur (82-71-73—226, +10). 2018: Finished fourth in the Corey Pavin Invitational with 1-over score (68-73-73—214) ... Tied for 12th in the Agave Amateur in Indio, Calif. (-5; 73-65-70—208); his 65 in the second round was the low score on day two of the event ... Also tied for fourth in the TTC Qualified for the Southern California Amateur Championship, where he shot 75-78—153 (+11) but missed the cut by four strokes ... Tied for 22nd in the AJGA Enagic Junior Championship with an even par effort (77-73-66—216); his 6-under 66 was the low score for the final round. 2017: He won Southern California Junior Amateur by four shots at Morongo Golf Course (-5; 69-70—139) and the Toyota Tour Cup at La Costa Resort (69-72-73—214) ... His top AJGA finish came in the Enagic Junior Championship at Wilshire Country Club in Los Angeles, tying for fifth with a 73-69-74—216 (even par) scorecard (his 69 was the low score in the second round and he was tied with three others heading into the final round).

Best Career Round In Competition— 65 (-6; Agave Amateur second round, Shadow Hills GC, Indio, Calif., Dec. 20, 2018); 66 (-6; 2018 AJGA Enagic Junior Championship, Coto de Caza, Irvine, Calif.; -6, second round, CU-Mark Simpson Invitational, Sept. 27, 2021).

Academics—He is majoring in Psychology at Colorado.

Personal—He was born November 2, 2000 in San Diego, Calif. ... His hobbies include fishing, biking and hiking ... A life-long San Diego resident, he is a big fan of baseball's San Diego Padres ... A shortstop and a pitcher, he was a member of the Little League Baseball district champions in the summer of 2010 ... Hails from the same high school that produced the 2017 PGA Tour Rookie of the Year, Xander Schauffele. (Last name is pronounced matta-sun)

DYLAN McDERMOTT

5-8, 145, Soph., 1L, Granite Bay, Calif. (Granite Bay)

College—2022-23 (Soph.): A finalist for CU's Male Athlete of the Year ... He set three impressive records in the fall, low average for a fall season (69.67), most consecutive tournaments under par (six and counting) and most consecutive rounds of par or better (13, also current heading into the spring season) ... He opened the year with his first collegiate win, a record-setting performance in Notre Dame's Fighting Irish Invitational: he recorded a 10-under par, 69-66-65—200 scorecard, setting a CU record for the lowest gross score in a tournament, whether it was a par-70, par-71 or par-72 configuration; he captured medalist honors after winning the third playoff hole. He led the 84-man field in birdies (17); he had 32 pars and just five holes worse than par (four bogeys and a triple) ... He led the team in rounds in the 60s (9), subpar (12) and even-par (5) rounds during the fall season, which saw him record five top 15 finishes ... Had runs of 26 and 19 holes, respectively, of par or better ... He tied for fifth in CU's Simpson Invitational (70-69-69—208, -2) for his next best finish, and posted 213 totals or lower for 54 holes in all six fall events ... Topped the team in first round (70.33), middle round (69.33) and final round (69.33) averages in the fall ... With a team-best 74 birdies, he led the team in subpar hole percentage (22.8) and par or better percentage (87.3) ... All 18 of his rounds counted toward CU's team total, as 17 were of par or better and his high was a 1-over 73 (at Air Force) ... Takes a streak of 49 rounds without shooting higher than a 79 into the spring season ... Also started the spring strong by going 3-0 in Wyoming's World Match Play Championship and then finishing second in Wyoming's Desert Intercollegiate (73-69-69—211, -5), an effort that earned him Pac-12 Conference golfer of the week honors.

2021-22 (Fr.): He enjoyed a tremendous freshman season, as evidenced by him earning the No. 2 slot for the Pac-12 Championship; with fellow true frosh Justin Biwer at No. 1, the pair became school history with two true freshmen in the top two spots at the league meet ... Owned a 72.52 stroke average (31 rounds), which was second on the team and third-best by a freshman in school history; if it wasn't for Biwer who set the mark at 70.91, he threatened the frosh mark of 72.51 by Jeremy Paul in 2013-14 (he missed the second best number by what amounted to one stroke) ... That figure also was the sixth-best by a freshman in the Pac-12 for the year (and 35th overall) ... Also had the second-best opening round average by a Buff (71.9) ... Recorded a 71.33 stroke average for his first collegiate fall semester, second-best on the team and the 11th-best in program history and second-best by a freshman (behind Biwer's 70.07) ... In his first collegiate event, he tied for eighth in Air Force's Miranda Invitational (77-66-69—212, -4); between the first and third rounds, he had 33 consecutive holes of par or better (nine birdies, 24 pars) ... The 66 was the sixth-ever by a CU frosh at the time (third at 6-under) ... The finish also tied with two others for the second-best by a freshman who led the team in CU's first meet of a season, behind only Rick Cramer's third place effort in the same event in 1978 ... Best effort for the season came in Notre Dame's Fighting Irish Classic, where he was third with a 7-under 203 total; he opened with his college best gross score of 65 and closed with a 66. The 203 was the second-best score in CU history for a 54-hole tourney on a par-70 course, bested only by Beau Schoolcraft's 9-under 201 in the 2011 Wyoming Cowboy Classic ... Tied for 50th at the Pac-12 meet with a 13-over 297; after a rough first two rounds, he shot 72-71 over the last 36 holes tied for the 12th lowest score (143). His 43 pars led the Buffs ... He was under par in four events (all in the fall), finishing 1-under overall for 15 rounds, 12 of which counted toward the team score. He only had four holes out of 270 worse than bogey (all doubles) ... Cooled off a bit in the spring (73.63 average), but that was largely traced to five rounds between 77 and 79 ... Recorded a 1-1-1 mark in the Wyoming Match Play event ... Overall, had just 20 holes worse than bogey out of 558 and was 35-over par for the season, 10 of those traced back to just two holes ... Shot par or better on 80.3 percent of his holes overall (another second-best CU number) ... Led the team in pars with 347 and was second in birdies with 100 ... He was the youngest player on the Buff roster (didn't turn 19 until after the season).

High School—He lettered four times at Granite Bay High School, playing the team's No. 1 position for his sophomore through senior years, earning his team's Most Valuable Player honor three times ... Owned the best stroke average in the league by over two strokes as a senior ... Finished 11th at the state meet as a sophomore (event not held due to COVID his last two years).

Other—2023: Placed 13th in the Genesis Invitational Collegiate Showcase at Riviera Country Club (75, +4); played with two CU alums and PGA Tour pro Troy Merritt. 2022: Qualified for the U.S. Amateur by finishing second in qualifying at Rancho Murieta (Calif.) CC with a 68-71—139 (-5) effort, one stroke off the lead; in the event at Paramus, N.J., he tied for 151st (74-78—152, +11) ... Tied for 20th in the 114th Trans-Mississippi (68-68-70-70—276, -4) at Denver Country Club, five back of the lead ... Tied for 38th in the Saguaro Amateur (73-73-71—217, +1). 2021: Won the Grapevine Amateur (Saguaro Amateur Series) with a 2-under 214 performance (68-75-71) at Silverado Golf Club in Napa, Calif. ... Earned a third place tie in defending his title in the Memorial Amateur Championship at Ancil Hoffman GC in Carmichael, Calif. (69-68-72—209, -7). 2020: He became the youngest champion in the history of the Memorial Amateur when as a 17-year old he carded a 66-68-72—206 (-10) score, winning by two strokes in the process ... Finished sixth in the inaugural Rocky Mountain Amateur at Colorado National Golf Club (68-68-71—207, -9) ... Placed ninth in the AJGA Dana Incorporated Open in Sylvania, Ohio (65-72-75—212, -4); the 65 was the low round of the event (by two strokes) ... Tied for 15th in the Silicon Valley Amateur at Morgan Hill, Calif. (73-72—145, +1). 2019: He won the 2018-19 Player of the Year honor for the Junior Tour of Northern California, as he had several top finishes in Sacramento-based events, including back-to-back third place finishes in the Sacramento City Men's Championship.

Best Career Round In Competition—65 (-7, July 2020, AJGA Dana Incorporated Open, Sylvania Country Club, Sylvania, Ohio; -5, Oct. 4, 2021, first round Notre Dame Fighting Irish Classic, South Bend, Ind.).

Academics—He is majoring in Business (Marketing) at Colorado.

Personal—He was born June 10, 2003 in Roseville, Calif. ... His hobbies include fishing ... Signed with the Buffs despite not being able to make an official visit the campus due to the COVID-19 pandemic; he had previously played in the Rocky Mountain Amateur on CU's home course in Erie (Colorado National) and took time out to walk around the campus ... Father (Jim) worked in Denver for a year and told him about CU and Boulder as well ... He also played with CU's 1996 U.S. Open champion Steve Jones for three rounds in the 2018 Pure Insurance First Tee Championship ... One of the rare left-handed players in Colorado golf history.

HUNTER SWANSON

6-1, 150, Fr., HS, Denver, Colo. (Northfield)

College—2022-23 (Fr.): A finalist for CU's Freshman Male Athlete of the Year ... Played in six fall tournaments, five of the team's six as a scorer and one as an individual when the Buffs didn't field a team ... His 72.06 stroke average for the fall season was the fourth-best ever by a Buff freshman ... He opened his career with a 1-over 71 in the Notre Dame Fighting Irish Classic, tied for the sixth-best gross score in a first collegiate round by a Buffalo ... He went on to tie for 32nd in that first collegiate tournament (211, +1), the second-best gross score in a first meet by a Buff ... Playing as an individual, he had his best finish when he tied for 11th in Colorado State's Ram Masters Invitational (209, -1); it tied for the 20th-best effort on a par-70 course by a Buffalo ... Usually opened strong, with a 71.3 average for first rounds and a 70.7 for middle rounds (seven of his nine par or better scores between the two in the fall) ... In 18 rounds (324 holes), he had just 13 worse than bogey (all doubles), owning a par or better percentage of 79.3 (tied for fourth-best on the team) and fifth-best for a first semester freshman at CU.

High School—A four-time, first-team All-State performer (he was the first in Northfield's history), a three-time, first-team All-Denver Prep School League selection, and a two-time DPS medalist ... As a junior, he tied for sixth in the 2020 4A State Championship (78-74—152) ... Tied for second as a sophomore (70-72—142), and was also sixth as a freshman in 2018 (77-74—151).

Other—2022: Tied for 10th in the Gobbler Amateur (72-70-75—217, +1) ... Junior Golf Scoreboard ranked him as the No. 1 prep golfer in the state of Colorado (and No. 99 in the United States) ... Named a "Future Famer" by the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame in its 2022 induction class ... Won the Colorado Junior PGA Championship at Fossil Trace by two strokes (70-67-67—204, 12-under) ... Tied for third in the CGA's Western Chapter (69-70—139, -5) ... Tied for second in the AJGA Hale Irwin Amateur (68-69-70—207) ... A member of Team Colorado, he tied for fourth in the Boys Junior America's Cup (70-70-69—209, -7), four out of the lead and Team Colorado's top finisher (Colorado was sixth in the 18 team field) ... Tied for eighth in the Colorado Amateur (69-70-69-69--277, -11); he was the top high school golfer in the event ... Tied for fifth in local U.S. Amateur qualifying at Commonground GC (66-71—137, -3), three strokes out of advancing ... Tied for 40th in the Southwestern Amateur in Scottsdale (70-76—146, +4), missing the cut for the final round by a stroke. 2021: Repeated as the Junior Golf Alliance of Colorado (JGAC) Player of the Year ... Finished in a tie for second in the Junior Golf Alliance of Colorado (JGAC) Tour Championship (72-73—145, +3) at Denver Country Club ... One of 81 First Tee Juniors selected to play in the Pure Insurance Championship at Pebble Beach (with 81 touring pros and 124 amateurs), he finished fifth with a 21-under par score of 195 (66-65-64; five off the lead) ... Tied for first but lost in a playoff in two major events: in the First Tee National Championship (69-71-67—207, -9) at Clemson, S.C. and in the Colorado Junior PGA Championship (71-75-67—213, -3); his third round 67s in both were the low rounds of each tournament ... He also tied for second in the AJGA Junior Open at The Bridges in Montrose (65-71-70—206; -7) to give him three impressive runner-up finishes for the summer Reached the quarterfinals of the Colorado Golf Association's Match Play Championship (where he lost 2 and 1 to the eventual champion, Cole Nygren) ... Tied for 55th - the 11th of 106 amateurs - in the Southern California Open at Indian Wells (74-66-75—215, E) ... Qualified for the U.S. Junior Amateur, but did not advance out of stroke play 2020: Selected as the JGAC Player of the Year ... Posted nine top 10 finishes in as many tournaments, including two wins: the King's Deer event (71) and the Fall Series Tour at Twin Peaks (69-73—142). At the King's Deer, he made an albatross from 220 yards out on the par-5 10th hole (with an 8-iron) and scored an eagle on the par-4 3rd hole (again with his 8-iron) - in that same round ... Runner-up in the Colorado Junior Amateur at Commonground GC (72-74-65—211), one of three second-place efforts. 2017-19: Recorded 28 top 10 finishes, including six wins and four runner-up efforts in Colorado junior action.

Best Career Round In Competition—64 (-8), first round, Toyota Tour Cup Championship, Coral Mountain Golf Club, LaQuinta, Calif., Dec. 11, 2021.

Academics—He is majoring in Business at Colorado.

Personal—He was born March 15, 2004 in Thornton, Colo. ... He started early in the game as a 5-year old; he was a 13-year member of the First Tee of Green Valley Ranch ... Had the privilege of playing with well-known professionals Annika Sorenstam and Retief Goosen in First Tee events.

ALL-TIME RMIGA RESULTS

RMIGA stood for Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Golf Association; it was a series of one-day tournaments that included area schools from Colorado and Wyoming and played up to 10 times a season beginning in 1973-74. Events were split between the fall and spring, and teams were declared champions based on a minimum number of meets played in a specific season. (DNP—Did Not Place in final standings).

CU GOLF HISTORY & TRADITION

The game of golf migrated to the United States from Europe, and was introduced at the college level around 1850. As the sport became popular, proponents sought out the warmer climates where it could thrive year-round. And as golf popularity grew, it spread to the larger cities where there was a desire for outdoor recreation, but the financial burden of building and maintaining a golf course was rather great. Several eastern universities were among the earliest institutions to entertain the game of golf as a "club." As this relatively new sport enticed athletes of all ages to allot their recreation time to it, cities began to select acreage specifically as sites for future golf courses. Around this time, the late 1800s, several universities were endowed with funds that permitted their own private courses. Golf fell in line with most other sports at the time, which originated as clubs at American colleges.

In 1901, a group of professors and students formed a club for golf at the University of Colorado, but were without any real local place to play until 1917, when the city of Boulder built a nine-hole course on the north side of town. This course featured "buffalo" grass, sand greens and a "pasture-pool," complete with gophers. College enthusiasts were invited to join the local "divot diggers," and so golf took off in Boulder Valley. Denver already had the Denver Country Club and Cherry Hills, so Boulder was growing up in this area.

World War I had delayed the development of many of the college level sport programs. Golf was one of the last "minor sports" to become a varsity program, attaining that status in 1921 under Joe Mills, who had coached football the previous two seasons. The Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference initiated its first competition in the sport that year, with the original participants being CU, Colorado Mines and Colorado College. CU defeated both in dual matches, and won the conference meet (CU 12, CSM 10, CC 10). In 1924, spring duals were all canceled due to snow and bad weather in general, and only the conference meet was held. On the side, a challenge match between two DU football players (who were caddies at Denver C.C.) and two CU football seniors, who kidded their opponents about the "sissy-game." They learned during the summer at a cost of 50 cents per round. Walt Franklin and Burke bought three clubs and six golf balls from a shop on Denver's Larimer Street to play the match, but there is no record of who actually won.

Prior to World War II, team captains often served as player-coaches. But since 1948, the University of Colorado has had only three full-time head coaches, Les Fowler (1948-76), Mark Simpson (1976-2005) and Roy Edwards (2006-present). Fowler, an accomplished player himself, led CU into the Big Seven Conference in 1948, finishing second in the league meet as a senior player-coach. It marked the beginning of the modern era of Colorado golf.

It took the youthful Fowler just six years to bring the first championship to Boulder. In 1954, Keith Alexander shot a 216 for 54 holes, powering the Buffs to the league title. The following year, Fowler's team did it again, although the Buffs had to share the spotlight as 1955 Big Seven champions with Oklahoma.

When Oklahoma State became the eighth school to enter the conference, a dynasty of unequalled magnitude resulted. The Cowboys have proceeded to win every Big Eight tournament since 1958, with only three exceptions. In 1968 the Bison surprised the Grier Jones-led Okie-staters by shaving 35 strokes off the previous year's winning total to upset the defending champs and interrupt the Cowboys' dominant hold (Missouri won in 1984 and Oklahoma in 1992). That 1968 win surprised many a CU golf follower because the Buffs had just lost their all-time best golfer to graduation – Hale Irwin. Irwin, a two-sport star who captained the football team as a senior cornerback, won the individual league title in 1966 by three strokes to pace the Buffs to a second-place finish. He was also co-champion in the rain-shortened, 36-hole tourney the following year with OSU's Jones.

But it was that final year of Irwin's which brought prominence to Colorado golf. The eventual standout on two PGA tours won the 70th annual NCAA Championship over such future touring luminaries as Johnny Miller, Hubert Green, Jerry Heard and Rick Massengale. Irwin was an authoritative force with the PGA, winning 65 major tournaments between the regular and Champion tours, including the U.S. Open three times (1974, 1979, 1990). Irwin, though, wasn't the first CU golfer to make it big on the pro tour. Dale Douglass, a 1959 graduate, also made his professional mark after college. Douglass rarely lost an individual match throughout his collegiate career and was one of the Big Eight's top stars his senior year, finishing fifth in the league championship. As a professional, Douglass' best year was 1969 when he won both the Azalea and Kemper Opens. The two-time president of the Tournament Players Association also won the 1970 Phoenix Open. Douglass would also make it big on the PGA Seniors Tour, becoming one of its top money winners.

For several years in the Big Eight, the Colorado golf team played second fiddle to Oklahoma State as a powerful foe. After suffering poor finishes in 1973 and 1974, Mark Simpson joined his alma mater as assistant coach, teaming with the legendary Les Fowler to lead the Buffs to third place in '75 and second in '76. Simpson then took over the reins of the program in January 1977, and would lead the Buffs to 11 NCAA appearances and 13 first-division finishes in conference action, including a trio of runner-up efforts. Simpson's first recruit, Steve Jones, also made it big on the PGA Tour, winning three tournaments in 1989 alone and the 1996 U.S. Open. Simpson coached 10 all-Americans and 15 all-conference players and in 1994 another of his recruits, Bobby Kalinowski, became CU's second two-time Big Eight champion.

CU GOLF HISTORY & TRADITION

second largest rally in the 11-year history of the regional format. CU climbed from 18th to 10th place on the final day, and then won a playoff on the first hole against Kent State to advance to the national finals. The Buffaloes returned as a regular member of the nation's Top 50 during the 1999-2000 season, and climbed as high as No. 10 in the polls since that season.

Irwin on Sports Illustrated Cover (1990)

In 2001-02, the Buffs had one of their best years in tying for 14th in the NCAA Championship Finals. The 2003-04 team won the Western Intercollegiate, the first team win in four years, and set a school record at the time for stroke average both overall (73.77) and the spring (73.71).

Tragedy hit the program in 2005, as on December 5, Simpson passed away after a valiant year-long battle with lung cancer. Ironically, he would coach the Buffaloes for the exact same amount of time as Fowler, his predecessor and coach. The duo combined to coach 58 seasons for the school. Assistant coach Brad Neher took over the program for the next four months but was relieved of duties in April; Charles Johnson (assistant AD) and David Plati (the team's longtime sports information contact) essentially served as chaperones for the final four meets of the season.

The legacy that Fowler and Simpson created was one the administration looked to continue when Roy Edwards was named just the third fulltime head coach in CU history in July 2006.

Edwards is now his 17th season and ushered the program into the nation's toughest golf conference when the Buffaloes joined the Pac-12 in 2011. In his third season (2008-09), he coached CU to a second place finish in the Big 12 — CU's first runner-up conference finish since Simpson's teams did so in 1979, 1980 and 1981. And in his eighth year — Colorado's third in the Pac-12 — he led the Buffs to a fourth place effort in its league meet, beating four top 30 teams in the process. And the Buffaloes have kept improving; his squads have qualified for the NCAA Championship nine times in 16 years, with two individuals advancing to the Finals. In 2016-17, Colorado cracked the top 20 for the first time in over 30 years and reached its highest rankings in the computer polls that were born in the late 1990s; that same year, CU hosted the Pac-12 Championship, the first league meet in Boulder since 1972.

In April 2018, the Buffaloes pushed eventual Pac-12 champion USC to the brink; the Trojans would win on one of their home courses in Los Angeles, but CU finished just four strokes back. Ross Macdonald and Yannik Paul both shot in the 60s all four rounds and tied for second with 12-under 272 scores. That '17-18 team set the school mark for stroke average (72.49), and Edwards' teams continue to threaten that mark annually.

The next goal in the program is to the return as a team to the Finals for the first time since 2001-02. Colorado has appeared in the NCAA Finals 15 times and in the Championships 32 times overall; on 17 other occasions, CU has been represented by at least one individual.

Roy Edwards' first team (2006-07)

DID YOU KNOW: That former CU golfer Jonathan Kaye owns the PGA Tour record for the most improvement from one round to the next? At the 1999 Bob Hope Classic he shot a second round 83 but came back with a 62 in the third round. The 21-stroke improvement is a PGA record.

COLORADO'S LAST CONFERENCE TITLE: 1968

Over the last 60-plus years, Colorado has arguably competed in the three toughest college golf conferences in the nation, first in the Big 8 and then the Big 12 when Oklahoma State was the dominant program in the nation, and now in the Pac-12, where at least six schools, if not more, are always among the nation's top 30.

The battle always seemed to be for second place in the Big 8 and Big 12, as the Cowboys won 45 league titles between when it joined the league in 1958 and when CU exited for the Pac-12 in 2011. The Buffs won the Big 7 titles in 1954 and 1955 before OSU joined the league, and also captured the 1968 crown, the school's last conference championship in men's golf.

CU marked the 50th anniversary of its last conference champion team in 2018, and came within four strokes of finally breaking through as the Buffaloes finished second, behind host USC.

Oklahoma State won its first Big 8 title in its first year in the conference and went on to reel off 10 in a row going into the '68 Big 8 Championship, which Colorado hosted at Lake Valley Golf Club.

Coach Les Fowler's Buffaloes had a strong showing in the '67 meet, as Hale Irwin led the Buffaloes to a third place finish in claiming co-medalist honors with Oklahoma State's Grier Jones. But Irwin graduated and Colorado had no returning players that finished in the top 10. However, CU entered with the best dual record – 21-3 – and playing on its home course, ending the Cowboys' streak was possible but certainly not expected.

Colorado opened strong with an even-par 280, led by junior Bill Musselman's tourney best 3-under 67; sophomore Jim English added a 70, followed by seniors Allen Hoos (71) and Chris Scena (72). Nebraska held second (285), while the perennial defending champion Cowboys were nine off the pace at 289.

The second round was plagued by winds that picked up in the afternoon, thus inflating the scores a bit. Musselman carded a 1-over 71 and was in at 2-under 138, good for a one stroke edge over OSU's Jones, who matched Musselman's first round 67 despite the conditions. CU maintained its team lead and had three golfers in the top five, but Oklahoma State took over second place and pulled to within three shots.

Jones would overtake Musselman early on the final nine holes and went on to edge him by two shots to claim medalist honors; he fashioned a 1-over 71 to close with an even-210. But in the end, the Buffs dethroned the 'Pokes and ended their stranglehold on the conference trophy. Hoos paved the way with an even-par 70, the only player in the field to shoot par or better in the final round. English added a 72, Musselman a 74 with Scena and sophomore Steve Parr closing with 81s.

In the third and final round, the "Oklags" held the lead late. After the first two players had finished for each school, OSU had a one-shot edge over CU; but things turned quickly on the 17th hole.

"You have to remember that this was before the days of all the electronic scoreboards and devices, cell phones and handheld internet scoring, so the players and coaches really didn't know precisely where everybody stood in relation to the other teams," English recalled. "I remember coach Fowler as we were coming down the 17th hole telling us things were really tight."

OSU saw its two players, Jim Deaton and Mike Holder, three- and four-putt the green leading to a pair of double bogeys, while Scena parred the hole and English bogeyed. When the smoke cleared, CU went from one down to two up.

The Buffs sealed the Cowboys fate when Scena and English each birdied No. 18 while Deaton and Holder could only manage pars. CU was now ahead by four, and that's where the margin stayed as Jones and Musselman both parred the final two holes.

"We were the first ones to beat OSU," English said. "It's always great to think of that." English also recently relayed this little tidbit:

"Their coach, the legendary Labron Harris, was walking up and down the practice tee at Lake Valley prior to the final round, exhorting his troops. I'll never forget him stopping behind Chris, who was very tall and lanky and had a very herky-jerky takeaway from the ball, especially on his tee shots. He was a little unorthodox, but he could really play. Harris, certainly trying to get into Chris's head, shook his head disparagingly and said, 'I can't believe we're three shots behind you!'

"I was so proud of Chris when he answered, 'And you're going to be more than that by the end of the round!'"

In the end, the Buffs stifled any possible Cowboy comeback by placing three players in the top four and four in the top eight. Colorado recorded a 17-over 857 score to topple OSU by four strokes, led by Musselman's runner-up finish (212, +2), English and Scena tying for third (216, +6) and Hoos in eighth (219, +9); Parr tied for 26th (230, +20). CU and OSU separated themselves from the field, as Nebraska took third, though the Cornhuskers were 20 shots back after entering the final round nine off the pace.

The conference awarded medals for the top three spots and had no spares; newspaper accounts claim that English and Scena flipped a coin for who would take home the medal they shared for third; Scena won.

"The opportunity to play and win the Big Eight against a team that had never been beaten before was a great memory," said English. "We just had five guys who could play as opposed to being a star-studded team."

Fowler quipped afterward that OSU left the course on the old dirt road, eating dust all the way back to Stillwater. As for the Buffaloes, he took the team to the old Aristocrat Steakhouse on Broadway for a celebratory victory dinner. English still has a vivid recollection of what transpired to this day.

"He (Harris) yelled at all his players to grab their stuff and get in the van (he had already snagged the medalist trophy for Jones). This legendary coach, who had never lost the Big Eight title, then stormed off the property and sped down the old gravel road which led into and out of Lake Valley. Not a handshake or a 'well played' or even a 'we'll see you at the NCAA's.' I have never forgotten that image from 50 years ago."

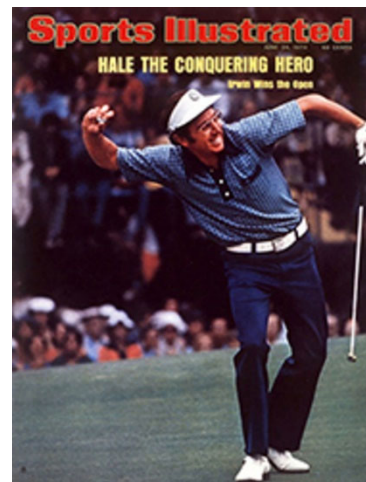

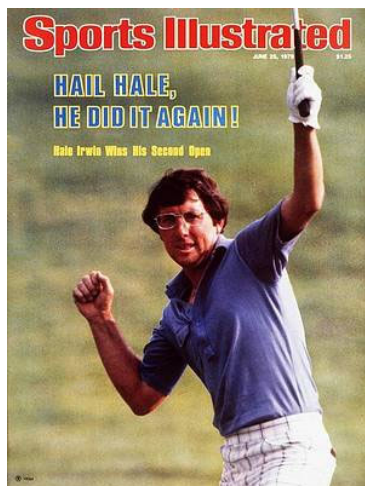

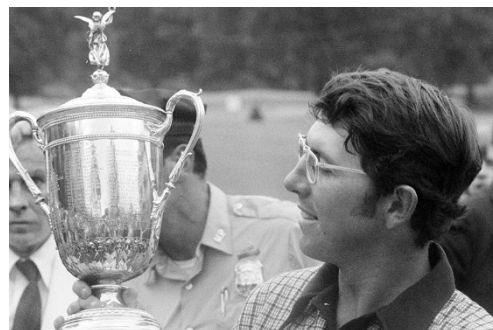

Colorado would go on and tie for eighth at the NCAA Championship in Las Cruces, to date its highest finish in the event. Scena recently relayed this story:

CU BUFFS & THE U.S. OPEN

Did you know that Colorado, Ohio State, Stanford and Wake Forest have produced the most United States Open winners in history? The Buffaloes, Buckeyes, Cardinal and Demon Deacons have had their respective alums win four titles—for Colorado, Hale Irwin has won three (1974, 1979, 1990) and Steve Jones one (1996). The trophy in 1974 is pictured at right. CU was the only school in the 1990s to boast two winners (Irwin in '90, Jones in '96), and was also the only school to produce two in the 1970s (Irwin in '74 and '79). Irwin qualified for and finished in the 1966 U.S. Open prior to his senior year; in 1999, junior-to-be Matt Call became the second Buffalo to play in the U.S. Open while still attending CU when he advanced through the two stages of local and sectional qualifying. In 2002, CU senior Ben Portie earned a spot in the same fashion in the Open just three weeks after playing his final collegiate round. That same year, future Buffalo Derek Tolan qualified and played as a 16-year-old.

BUFFALO GREATS

A look at some of the greats in Colorado golf history, including conference champions, multiple record holders and major tournament winners, and/or those who have made their mark professionally.

KEITH ALEXANDER

At Colorado (1953-56): The first Buffalo to win Big 7 Conference medalist honors when he won with a 216 score in the 1954 meet, he helped Colorado to the team title, its first Big 7 crown in golf. Emerging as CU's No. 1 golfer as a sophomore in the spring of 1954, he was the first and remains the only soph in school history to win a conference medalist honors. By tying for 10th in 1955 and eighth in 1956 in the league meet, he became the first (and to date, still one of just five) CU players to have recorded three top 10 finishes in the conference championships. He is believed to have compiled a 25-10-2 record in dual match play, a pretty impressive figure for a No. 1 man, and led CU to the NCAA championships in both 1954 and 1955.

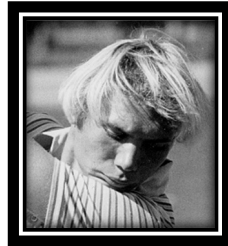

MERLE BACKLUND

At Colorado (1950-53): Colorado's first national champion in golf, as he won NCAA medalist honors in 1953 at the Broadmoor in Colorado Springs, when he recorded a 69-68—137 scorecard for a then-NCAA record 7-under par; it was in the day when the field was pared to the low 64 after medal play, and despite losing in the first round of match play, he became only CU's fourth national champion in its athletic history at the time (joining three track performers: Gil Cruter, Dave Bolen and Warren Bateman). The 137 was a record at the time as well, besting the old mark of 138 set by a most familiar name in 1950: Wake Forest's Arnold Palmer. In the Big 7 championship meet, he finished ninth as a sophomore and third as a senior.

GEORGE BROWN

At Colorado (1929-32): Most likely the first "star" of the CU varsity program, he recorded three top three finishes in the Rocky Mountain Conference Championship meet. The two-time team captain placed second as a sophomore in 1930, tied for third as a junior in 1931 and was the medalist in the 1932 event his senior year. In the latter, he defeated sophomore teammate Melvin Magnuson on the 36th and final hole of match play to win the title.

RICK CRAMER

At Colorado (1978-82): The first and to date only golfer in Colorado history to play in four NCAA championships, as he went individually as a freshman in 1979 (also a first and only) and as a senior in 1982 and with the full Buff contingent in 1980 and 1981. He finished second in the 1979 Big 8 Championship, to date the highest finish ever by a Colorado freshman in a conference championship meet. He tied for 5th in the 1981 event and for seventh in the '82 affair, making him one of just five Buffs to have recorded three top 10 finishes in league championship play. His third place finish at the 1978 Falcon Invitational would stand as the best by a CU freshman in his first meet for 21 years. The summer after he completed his CU eligibility, he pulled off the rare sweep in winning both the Colorado State Stroke and Match Play championships. He was a third-team All-American in both 1981 and 1982.

After CU: He played briefly on the PGA Tour but did play several seasons on some of the other pro tours, and eventually became involved in administration and operations for the Gateway Tour Series in the Phoenix area. He also developed yardage books for courses around the country and most recently has been working as a rules official for PGA Tour Canada.

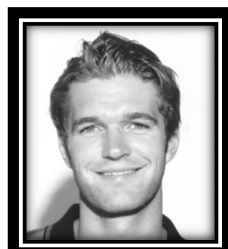

DALE DOUGLASS

At Colorado (1956-59): Owned a career stroke average of 74.11 in tournaments as a Buff, playing in an era where dual matches were the norm and tournaments were the exception. He posted three top 10 finishes in the Big Seven/Eight championships, tying for eighth as a freshman in the '56 Big 7 meet, and taking seventh and fifth in the '58 and '59 Big 8 tests, respectively; he was the second Buff (and still one of just five) to record three top 10 finishes in conference championship play. He was consistent, all his Big 7 rounds between 70 and 77 (with a 74.89 avg.)

After CU: He starred on the PGA Tour after turning pro in 1960, winning three events and had four top 20 finishes in golf's majors: in 1969, he tied for 13th in the U.S. Open and for 19th in the Masters; he tied for 18th in the 1974 U.S. Open (when Irwin won) and tied for 17th in the 1975 PGA Championship. A member of the Champions Tour once he turned 50 in 1986, he had 11 victories and 26 runner-up finishes on what was formerly known as the Senior Tour. He became just the fifth player in history to play in 500 tournaments when he reached the mark in 2003. He won just over $7 million on the Champions Tour and over $9 million as a professional. He played in exactly 600 Champions Tour events, with 151 top 10 finishes (with 283 in the top 25) and made the cut an astonishing 567 times. He passed away at the age of 86 on July 6, 2022; he donatrf

KNUT EKJORD

At Colorado (1994-99): He led the team in stroke average all four of his playing seasons, one of just two Buffs to do so (with Steve Jones), but they weren't in consecutive years as he redshirted after his true junior season. He led the Buffs at the 1995 NCAA Central Regional in 1995, tying for 14th, and played in one other NCAA meet (in 1999 as a senior). He played 133 rounds, and with 127 counting toward team scoring, he set the school record for percentage counted (95.5). He had a career stroke average of 74.34, and he had 11 top 10 and 22 top 20 finishes in his career. Over the course of his career, he was the top Buffalo scorer in 27 tournaments, the most in school history.

After CU: He turned pro in 1999 and played sporadically on the European Tour after returning to his native Norway.

LES FOWLER

At Colorado (1945-76): He tied for fourth in the first Big 7 Conference championship meet Colorado ever played in, as he recorded a 147 score for 36 holes in the 1948 meet. Following his graduation, he would coach the Buffaloes on a volunteer basis for a total of 29 seasons, actually starting as a player-coach his senior year. His top players out of over 125 that played for him included Hale Irwin, Dale Douglass, John Hamer, Gary Polumbus, Larry McAtee, Bill Musselman, Tom Woodard, Mark Crabtree and the man who succeeded him as head coach, Mark Simpson. His teams won three conference titles and reached the NCAA Championships seven times, with the 1968 team posting the school's best ever national finish when it tied for eighth. He was a district manager in the insurance business, and active in Boulder politics as a city councilman and state representative and state senator. Though he never played professionally, he was one of the state's top amateur golfers for four decades, including senior golf, and is a member of the state of Colorado Golf Hall of Fame. He passed away on February 8, 2003 at the age of 78 in Boulder.

PATRICK GRADY

At Colorado (2004-09): He finished 14th in the most rounds played (113) at Colorado, finishing 16th in career stroke average (74.45), ninth in top 5 finishes (7), sixth in top 10 finishes (12) and ninth in top 20 efforts (18). As a senior, he was the Co-Male Athlete of the Year at Colorado for all sports (with teammate Derek Tolan), he played in all 13 tournaments, with two wins, five top 5, eight top 10 and 10 top 20 finishes. He earned PING All-Region honors and was an honorable mention All-American, finishing as the No. 46 ranked player in the nation (Golfweek). He recorded a 71.98 stroke average for the season, the third best in school history. An outstanding spring featured a victory in CU's Stevinson Ranch Invitational, where he cruised to the win with an 8-under par 208 score. His top fall highlight was his first career collegiate win, when a 67-69-68—204 scorecard earned him medalist honors at Denver's Ron Moore

Invitational at Green Valley Ranch GC. The 12-under par effort matched John Lindberg's school record for the most strokes under par that he set in the 1989 BYU Classic. He was named the Golfweek National Player-of-the-Week for the week for his DU-Ron Moore win, the first player in CU history to be afforded such an honor.

After CU: He turned pro following his graduation, and won the Adams Tour's 2010 Coca-Cola Wal-Mart Open (in Louisiana); he simultaneously worked a certified public accountant. He left private business to become CU's assistant coach from 2015-20, but returned to his CPA practice after working with the team for the better part of five years. He has continued to help the team on a volunteer basis.

JOHN HAMER

At Colorado (1961-64): He helped CU to a tie for 18th in the 1964 NCAA Championship, tying for 36th individually (73-78—151), the same year he tied for fifth in the Big Eight Championship (73-71-71—215), as he led the Buffs to a third place finish. Dual meets were more the norm for his day, and as a senior, he posted one of the best dual marks in school history, going 14-2 on the year, with a low round of 68.

After CU: He opted not to pursue a professional career, but took the state of Colorado by storm in the amateur ranks. He won 10 CGA state titles, including four individual (1969 and 1970 Stroke Play; 1992 and 1996 Senior Stroke Play). He was the state amateur of the year in 1969, is one of only three players to ever win back-to-back stroke play titles, and was inducted into the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame in 2002. He passed away at the age of 75 on February 8, 2017.

SEBASTIAN HEISELE

At Colorado (2007-11): He was having his best season, with a 72.08 stroke average for the fall of his senior year, when he opted to pursue his professional dreams after graduating that December. He owned a stroke average of 73.82 for 95 career rounds at Colorado, recording eight top 20 finishes (five top 10) with 10 rounds in the 60s.

After CU: Professionally, he appeared in a few events over the years on the Asian and European tours, but in December 2019, he earned full-status for the European Tour and represents his native Germany. He got off to a good start, winning over 200,000 Euros in his first three months on the Tour. He was playing his best golf before the COVID-19 pandemic hit, including shooting a career-best 61 in the opening round of the KPMG Trophy in Belgium. He had decent success in his four years on the tour, but decided to retire in November 2022.

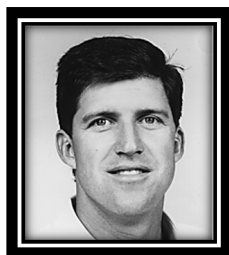

HALE IRWIN

At Colorado (1964-67): The 1967 NCAA individual champion, winning by two strokes with a 2-under par 286 score, an effort that saw him post a 65 in the third round which included a hole-in-one. The all-time CU leader in tournaments won (4), he also racked up two medalist honors in Big 8 Conference play, winning the 1966 title outright and sharing the '67 crown when he was a first-team All-American. His 72.04 stroke average as a junior still reigns as a CU single-season best, as are his eight rounds in the 60s that year, and he is one of just five players to have led the Buffs in average three or more seasons. He earned a combined six letters in football and golf; after playing quarterback as a sophomore, he became a two-time first-team all-Big Eight selection at weak side safety 1965 and 1966, making nine interceptions (in 1989, he was selected to the 25-member All-Century Football Team for CU's first 100 years of football). He was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 1986 and CU's Athletic Hall of Fame fourth class in 2002.

After CU: The all-time money winner on the Champions (Senior) Tour with $27.1 million in earnings (and he has over a $6 million advantage over No. 2 Gil Morgan). He won 20 times on the PGA Tour, including three U.S. Opens (1974, 1979, 1990); had 45 Champion Tour wins through 2016, including two U.S. Senior Open crowns (1998, 2000); and 18 other professional wins including international play. Entering 2013, he has made the cut in an incredible 449 of 456 Champions Tour events, with 211 top 10 finishes: in addition to the 45 wins, he has 43 runner-up finishes and 23 third place efforts, or 111 top three performances. His son, Steve, also played for the Buffs from 1994-97, and the two won the 2003 Father-Son Challenge. Inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1992, he is also very active in his own golf course design company.

STEVE JONES

At Colorado (1977-81): He set numerous school records during his CU career, in which he became the first and only player in school history to record four top 10 finishes in the conference championship meet (two thirds and two sevenths in four Big 8 title meets). A second-team All-American as a senior in 1980-81, when he had nine top 10 finishes and ten top 20 efforts, which are both still school bests. Over the course of his career, he had 19 top 10 and 26 top 20 finishes, both CU records at the time, and was the top Buffalo scorer in 23 tournaments, tied for the second most in school history. He is one of two players in Buff annals to lead the team in stroke average for four consecutive seasons (just three have done it four times overall), and is the only player with four top 10 finishes in league meets.

After CU: He has over $6.5 million in career earnings on the PGA Tour (he became the sports' 99th millionaire when he topped that figure), winning eight times, none bigger than his 1996 U.S. Open title. He captured that event on the last hole on Sunday, his pinnacle achievement that season which earned him the Tour's Comeback Player of the Year honor. His win in the 1997 Phoenix Open was landmark, as his 11-shot victory was accomplished by scoring the third lowest 72-hole score in PGA history at the time (a 26-under 258). He was the medalist in the 1986 Tour Qualifying School, finally making it to the big time on a permanent basis in 1987. He was inducted into the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame in 1997, CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012 and into the state of Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2013. Unfortunately, he estimates he has lost a third of his professional career due to assorted injuries, but is healthy again and is now playing on the Champions Tour (with just under $700,000 in career earnings on that circuit).

TERRY KAHL

At Colorado (1976-81): During his CU career, he played the second most rounds in school history when he teed it up for 18 holes 152 times. But in 1981, in his last Big 8 Conference championship meet, the three rounds he recorded there were most memorable as he ended a 14-year run by Oklahoma State golfers in claiming medalist honors with a 211 score. His 41 rounds during the 1976-77 season still stand as the most ever in a single year by a Colorado freshman. He earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior in 1981.

After CU: Spent several years as a club professional (Denver CC, Boulder CC, South Suburban Parks & Rec, Beaver Creek GC) before entering private business in 2003, where he worked for Uplink Corp (GPS systems), Club Car (territory sales manager), RGV Carts (sale manager) and currently the VP of Dealer/Distributor Sales for AYRO.

BOBBY KALINOWSKI

At Colorado (1991-94): He became the ninth (and to date, last) player to win back-to-back Big 7, Big 8 and/or 12 Conference medalist honors when he captured both the 1993 and 1994 Big 8 championships. He joined Hale Irwin as the lone Buffaloes to accomplish the back-to-back feat. His 72.62 stroke average as a senior in 1993-94 was the best in CU history by a senior at the time; his 144 career rounds are tied for the third most by a Buff, with a career stroke average of 73.97. He is tied for the most top five finishes in CU history (11), ranks second in top 20 finishes with 25 and fourth in top 10 efforts with 14. A third-team All-American his junior season in 1993 and a second-team performer as a senior in '94, when he recorded a school record six top five finishes. He was inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2016.

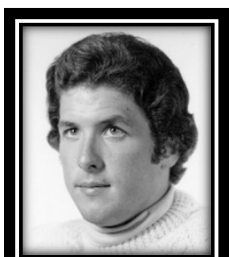

JONATHAN KAYE

At Colorado (1990-93): He joined the Buff team after spending his freshman year at Phoenix Community College, and formed quite a CU trio with Scott Petersen and Bobby Kalinowski. As a junior in 1992, he won the PING-Arizona Intercollegiate in style, as he defeated Phil Mickelson on the first playoff hole; he was also the co-medalist at the '93 Air Force Falcon Invitational as a senior, making him one of eight players in school history to win multiple major tournaments. One of six players in school annals to record a 65 (or better) round in competition when he shot 31-34 in the 1990 Wyoming Invitational; the 31 on the front tied the second best single 9-hole score in Buff history as well. He owned a career stroke average of 74.98 with eight top 10 and 13 top 20 finishes in his Colorado career.

After CU: He joined the tour in 1995 and would proceed to play in 331 events, making the cut 195 times with two wins, eight runner-up finishes and two third place efforts (with 66 top 25 finishes, 31 top 10). Injuries sidelined him in 2010 and he played sporadically afterward. He had over $10.5 million in earnings overall; he broke through for his first Tour win in 2003 when he won the Buick Classic in Harrison, N.Y., and won the FBR Open in 2004. He played on and off on the Tour, mainly due to a rotator cuff injury, but tied for second in the 1998 Qualifying School and had been a regular starting in 1999; that year at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic, his 21-stroke improvement from round one to two (83-62) set the PGA Tour improvement mark.

GEORGE KELLEY

At Colorado (1972-73): He played just one season of golf, joining the team his senior year. He led the team in stroke average with a 74.00 norm for 16 rounds, posting three top 10 finishes which included a victory in the Galveston Island Intercollegiate, where he won with a 1-over par 289 score.

After CU: He is the owner/general manager of Stevinson Ranch Golf Club (Stevinson, Calif.), and has played a key role in the tournament the Buffaloes hosted annually from 1999 through 2009 on one of California's top public courses. After graduating from CU in 1973, he played three years as a touring pro on the European, Asian and Australian tours. After his playing days, he became a real estate broker with an eye on golf, brokering several large scale golf course deals, and in the early 1990s, he set forth to build the highly acclaimed Stevinson Ranch on family owned land in central California. The property hosted 11 CU-Stevinson Ranch invitationals in March of every year from 1999 through 2009. He is often a guest lecturer and is active in the National Golf Course Owners Association.

JOHN LINDBERG

At Colorado (1986-89): His 73.65 career stroke average is the third best in CU history (it set the record at the time), the second best for a player with 100-plus rounds; his 71.15 stroke average the fall of his junior season still ranks as the best for the fall portion of a season at Colorado, while he is tied for the most wins (4) and top five finishes (11) in a CU career (he is second in top 10 efforts with 18 and fourth in top 20 finishes with 23). He set, and still owns, the Colorado records for low score for 36, 54 and 72 holes, all set during his junior season: a pair of 66s for a 132 at the Robertson Homes Invitational set the two round mark; a final round 72 in that meet for a 204 set the 54-hole standard; and his 284 score earlier that same fall in the New Mexico Tucker Invitational established the four round best. And for his career, he was the top Buffalo scorer in 23 tournaments, tied for the second most in school history.

He was a second-team All-American as a senior in 1989 after being an honorable mention choice as a sophomore.

LARRY McATEE

At Colorado (1963-66): In 1961, Larry was named the Colorado Junior Golfer of the Year by the Colorado Section of the PGA (which named him Amateur of the Year in 1963). In-between, he accepted a scholarship offer to CU. During his college career, he was not only a top player for CU along with teammate Hale Irwin, he was a force in state amateur golf, capturing three successive CGA Match Play crowns (done only three times in history). He had three top 20 finishes in the Big Eight Conference meet (including third as a senior in 1966) and several other top five tournament finishes.

After CU: He joined the U.S. Navy as an officer, pilot and flight instructor, but still accumulated numerous base, district and regional military golf championships; he set competitive course records in Meridian, Miss., and Las Alamitos, Calif.

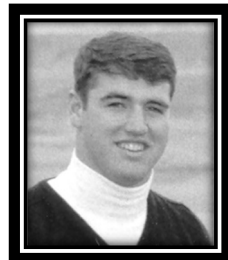

He was world-wide All-Navy champion in 1967, 1969 and 1970. In 1970, he was Interservice champion, meaning the top golfer, world-wide, in the Armed Forces. In 1972, he returned to Colorado to win a fourth CGA Match Play title—making him the first four-time winner since 1923. In 1992, he was inducted in both the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame and CU's Golf Hall of Fame.

EDWARD McGLASSON

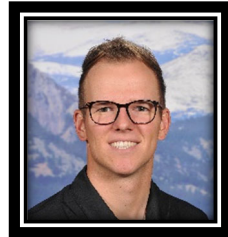

At Colorado (2002-06): He tied for the third most rounds played in Colorado history, 144, including three GCAA Match Play Championship rounds. His career stroke average of 73.54 ranked third all-time for the Buffaloes, behind only one-time teammate Kane Webber (72.90) and Scott Petersen (74.37); it was the second-best figure for 100-plus rounds other than Webber. He set the school record for low single round (63), as well as the most under par (-8) for 18 holes. By holding both the low gross score and most-under-par records for a single round, he became the first player to solely own both marks since Hale Irwin did so between 1967 and 1981. For his career, he had 13 top 10 tournament finishes, including a school record six straight during the course of his senior season, and 20 top 20 finishes. He was named CU's Male Athlete of the Year for all sports at the school's annual CUSPY (CU Sports Performers of the Year) Awards for 2005-06, when he also earned honorable mention All-America honors. He was two-time PING/GCAA All-Central Region selection and was just the second CU player to earn All-Big 12 and All-Big 12 Tournament Team honors in the same season when he did so as a senior.

BILL MUSSELMAN

At Colorado (1967-69): As a senior in 1968, he earned first-team All-America honors, the last CU player to do so. He was the No. 1 man on the Buffalo team that posted the school's best-ever finish at the NCAA Championship, as he led the Buff to an eighth-place tie in the meet at Las Cruces, N.M. He tied for eighth individually (70-72-75-74—291), to date the third best individual finish in the NCAA's by a University of Colorado golfer. He led the team in stroke average as a senior (73.80), when he finished second in the Big 8 Championship with a 212 score, falling to Oklahoma State's Grier Jones by two shots; however, he was one of three Buffs to finish in the top four in leading Colorado to the Big 8 title, its last conference crown to date.

JEREMY PAUL

At Colorado (2013-17): He set or tied 24 Colorado school records, including the career mark for stroke average: he owned a 71.72 norm for 138 rounds played (shattering the old mark of 72.90). Other top marks included 131 of those rounds counting toward CU's team score, that 94.9 percentage the third-best by a Buff, and set the school record with 54 consecutive rounds counting toward CU's team score over his sophomore and junior years (ended in the second round of the 2016 Southeast (Tuscaloosa) Regional). He played in 47 overall events, finishing under par in 22 of those and at even-par four other times, while recording 54-hole scores of 220 or better 29 times (tied for the most). He finished with 40 rounds in the 60s (low of 64), 66 subpar rounds and 74 rounds of par or better, all three CU bests, and is the only player in CU history to play over 50 percent of his rounds at or under par (53.6). He posted only eight scores higher than a 77, with a high of 80 just twice. His 21 top 10 finishes also set a CU record, and his 27 top 20 finishes tied for the most. He won three meets as a collegian and shot his career-best round of 8-under par 64 as a senior in the Wyoming Desert Intercollegiate. He led the team in stroke average all four years as a Buffalo: 72.51 as a freshman in 2013-14, followed by 72.00 as a sophomore, 70.66 as a junior and 71.75 as a senior, joining Steve Jones (1977-81) and Knut Ekjord (1994-99) as the only players in CU history to lead the team four times. He played 2,484 holes in his CU career, with just 59 worse than bogey; he had 18 eagles and 486 birdies, also program highs. He concluded his career with four of the top nine single season stroke averages in CU history. He ended his college playing days early by turning pro on April 17, 2017, and teed it up for the first time as a professional the following week.

After CU: He started to have some success playing on the Korn Ferry Tour, including a third place finish in 2022 at TPC Colorado.

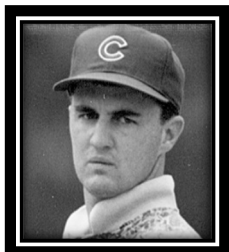

YANNIK PAUL

At Colorado (2013-18): CU's first first-team All-Pac 12 golfer (as a senior, when he was also an honorable mention PING All-American), he became the seventh player in school history to play in four NCAA Championship, and the 25th to play in four conference championship. He set or tied 23 school records, with his career average of 72.11 second only to twin brother Jeremy's figure of 71.72 in CU history. He posted subpar cumulative scores in 22 of 47 tournaments (tied for the most), with 24 top 20 finishes (sixth most at CU), 13 top 10 efforts (tied for eighth) and eight top 5 (sixth). In his career, he had 73 rounds of par or better (one shy of the school best, 74 by his brother), with 63 career subpar rounds (second to his brother's 66), 37 of those in the 60s (also second to Jeremy's 40). He concluded his career with 11 rounds of par or better, the first 10 of which were subpar, both of which were also records, and in the process set the CU single-season stroke average record of 70.24 (his spring mark of 69.64 shattered the old best). As a senior, he was CU's co-Male Athlete of the Year for all sports (with skier Ola Johansen), highlighted by his runner-up finish in the Pac-12 Championship.

After CU: A member of the DP World Tour, he broke through in 2022 and had much early success in 2023.

SCOTT PETERSEN

At Colorado (1991-93): As a senior, he earned honorable mention All-America honors, when he was a second-team All-Big 8 performer. He led the team in stroke average both as a senior (73.5) and as a junior (73.4), one of only eight players in school history to do so for multiple seasons. He set a mark for the lowest CU career stroke average for 50 or more rounds with a 73.47 for 77 rounds, a mark that stood through 2003. His senior year, he won the John Burns Intercollegiate (Honolulu) and the Fresno State Lexus Classic, and he posted eight top 5, nine top 10 and 15 top 20 finishes in his career. An honorable mention All-American his senior year (1993). Prior to transferring back to the state where he starred as a prep (at Englewood's Cherry Creek High School), he lettered twice at the University of Tulsa in 1989 and 1990.

After CU: Professionally: A member of the Nationwide Tour since 2000, as well as in 1996; he played on the Canadian Tour from 1997-99. He has come up just short several times in his bid for his PGA Tour card, but has won over $540,000 as a pro, including wins at the 1997 Infiniti Championship, the 1999 Samsung CPGA Championship and the 2000 Colorado Open.

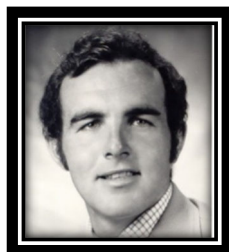

BEN PORTIE

At Colorado (1997-2002): Playing as CU's No. 1 man over the course of his entire senior season, he completed his career with a 73.89 stroke average, fifth-best all-time at Colorado (at the time), with his 106 career rounds tying for the 13th most. As a senior, he led CU with a 72.46 average, the second-best number in Colorado history at the time. His spring stroke average of 72.44 set a school record, and was the first Buff under 73 in the spring since Steve Jones did so in 1980. He became the fifth CU player to post a season stroke average under 73, putting him impressive company with Dale Douglass, Irwin, John Lindberg and Bobby Kalinowski. He also led the team in top 10 finishes (4), top 20 finishes (8), rounds in the 60s (5), subpar rounds (12), first round average (71.15), middle round average (72.79), final round average (73.50), and in rounds counting toward team scoring (38 of 39, or 97.4 percent). He tied for 33rd in the NCAA Championship (66-72-75-73—286), becoming the first Buff since Irwin to lead at any point of the finals after his 5-under par 66 in the first round.

After CU: He won the 2002 sectional qualifier for the U.S. Open, shooting rounds of 68-67—135 and earned the right to play in the U.S. Open on the famous Bethpage Black course in Farmingdale, N.Y. (though he missed the cut). He turned professional immediately following the qualifier, and went out and won his first professional tournament (Green Mountain Open, Killington, Vt.) the following weekend, winning $10,000 as a tune-up for the Open. After a two-year stint as CU's assistant coach, he became the head pro for a time at Sterling Country Club before returning to the metro area, where he runs Ben Portie's Adult Programs at Meadow Hills and Colorado National golf clubs.

MARK SIMPSON

At Colorado (1968-2005): Student, Athlete, Facilities Manager, Administrator, Assistant Coach, Head Coach. Simpson held all those roles over nearly four decades as a Buffalo, until cancer claimed him early at the age of 55 on December 5, 2005. He had a modest playing career at CU, earning three letters, but would make his mark as one of the top coaches in the collegiate game. On January 12, 2005, he was inducted into the Golf Coaches Association of America Hall of Fame. Simpson had replaced his own coach, the legendary Les Fowler, in January 1977, and would coach the Buffs for 29 years, the exact length Fowler had done so. He presided over 421 events as head coach, the fifth most for any sport in school history. He was most proud of the fact that 119 of the 129 players he brought into the program (92.2 percent) graduated with a degree from CU. He was the 1981 Big Eight Conference and NCAA District Five coach of the year, when CU finished second in the league and 11th in the nation. He was named the co-Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year in 2000, as his Buffaloes finished third in the league meet and were ranked in the nation's Top 25 for most of the year. He was also a finalist for induction into the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame in 2002, and in 2004, the organization recognized him for his contributions to the sport and honored him with its Lifetime Achievement Award. Simpson's teams went to the NCAA's 15 times in his tenure. Under his tutelage, Colorado produced seven different All-Americans who combined for 13 accolades (Jones, Tom Woodard, Terry Kahl, Rick Cramer, John Lindberg, Bobby Kalinowski and Kane Webber), in addition to 10 all-Big Eight and four all-Big 12 golfers and 15 All-America Scholars. He was also heavily involved in collegiate golf administration, and served two-and-a-half years as GCAA president (2000-2002) and spent a decade in different positions with the organization.

DEREK TOLAN

At Colorado (2005-09): He finished third in the most rounds played (151) at Colorado, and was 13th in career stroke average (74.19). He tied for second in both the most top 10 finishes (18) and top 20 efforts (26) in school history (he was 11th with five top five performances). He has had 89.8 percent of his career rounds count toward team scoring (132 of 147; does not include four solo rounds), a figure which ranked fifth in school history. He became just the fifth CU player to have qualified to play in four NCAA Championship, joining Rick Cramer (1979-82), Bob Kalinowski (1991-94), Matt Zions (1999-2002) and Kane Webber (2000-04). As a senior, he was selected as the Male Career Athletic Achievement Award winner for all sports, and the co-Male Athlete of the Year (with teammate Patrick Grady) at the school's annual CUSPY celebration (CU Sports Performers of the Year). An honorable mention All-American by Golfweek (one of 20) and the GCAA (one of 33), he also earned PING All-Central Region honors, All-Big 12 honors and All-Big 12 Tournament Team accolades. He finished as the No. 43 ranked player in the nation by both GolfStat and Golfweek. He became the 10th player in school history to win two career tournaments, claiming both in the fall semester, and in doing so set a school record for the lowest stroke average (71.00) for the fall in CU annals. He opened up his senior year by earning co-medalist honors in San Francisco's Olympic Club Intercollegiate, and three weeks later again snared co-medalist at New Mexico's Tucker Invitational. In-between, he placed second in DU's Ron Moore Invitational, posting his career best for the most under par in a tournament (205, -11). In the spring, he had four top 20 finishes, highlighted by a tie for second in the Western Intercollegiate (213, +3).

After CU: He turned pro following his senior year and promptly went out and won the San Juan Open in his third tournament as a professional, and then captured the Colorado Open.

KANE WEBBER

At Colorado (2000-04): A third third-team All-American as a senior, when he had three wins, six top 10 finishes (11 top 20) and a conference runner-up 71.46 average that established a new CU single-season school record (just three strokes over par for the year). His first collegiate win came in the Western Intercollegiate (206, -4); three weeks later, he won again, claiming the Purdue Invitational (206, -10); and a month after that, he won The Maxwell in a playoff to become one of just 19 golfers for the year to win three or more times. His 71.35 stroke average in the spring decimated the previous record, and for the year, he led the team in 23 (of 24) statistical categories. He played the fifth most rounds in school history (144) on his way to a 72.90 career stroke average, which bested the old mark by over half a stroke. He also ranked fourth in top five finishes (10), fourth in top 10 efforts (15), first in top 20 finishes (27) and first in 54-hole tournament scores of 220 or better (29). At the 2004 CUSPY's (CU Sports Performers of the Year Awards banquet), he was selected as the Male Career Athletic Achievement Award recipient.

After CU: He competed for a time on the European and Asian tours and continues to do so in several regional professional tournaments.

TOM WOODARD

At Colorado (1974-77): Nicknamed the "Human 2-Iron" for his svelte 6-foot-3 frame, believed to be the first African-American to play varsity golf at Colorado. He led the Buffs in stroke average as a junior ('75- '76) with a 76.27 figure for 30 rounds. He often played his best in the Big Eight Championship, tying for fifth as junior in 1976 and was sixth as a senior a year later, when he earned an individual berth in the NCAA Championship and was awarded honorable mention All-America honors. He became the sixth player in program history to twice be named first-team all-conference, garnering the nod in 1976 and 1977 and joining Keith Alexander, Dale Douglass, Hale Irwin, Larry McAttee and Jim English as two-time recipients.

After CU: He competed for two-and-a-half years on the PGA Tour after his collegiate days, and qualified for two U.S. Opens and a PGA Championship. He was twice selected as the Colorado PGA Section Player of the Year, won a national professional tournament in 1979 on the United Golfers Association Tour and still owns the low round at Denver's popular City Park Golf Course, an 11-under par 61 he shot in 1988. Since becoming a club professional in 1986, he has made an impact all around the Denver metro area: he served as head professional at City Park (1987-89), Littleton Golf Club (1990), South Suburban (1991-95) and at Buffalo Run (where he was the first head pro in 1996); he was director of golf for the City of Denver from 1997-2006 (overseeing six courses), and has been the general manager and director of golf at Foothills Park & Recreation District in Denver since 2006. He co-founded The First Tee of Denver, and was inducted into the National Black Golfers Hall of Fame in 2012, into the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame in 2013 and into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2015.

GOLF COACHES HALL OF FAME

LATE CU HEAD COACH MARK SIMPSON INDUCTED INTO COACHES' HALL

NEW ORLEANS (January 12, 2005) — University of Colorado men's golf coach Mark Simpson was inducted into the Golf Coaches Association of America Hall of Fame, the first CU coach to earn the exclusive honor.

"I'm completely honored and humbled that the committee would consider my coaching career worthy of this honor," Simpson said in opening his induction speech. "I'd like to thank the person who nominated me, but I don't know who that is.

"About three months ago, I was having breakfast with a friend, and about three-fourths of the way through it he said, 'You know, Simpson, you have a great job.' I said, 'Yeah, I like it.' Then about two weeks later at lunch with another friend, he says to me, 'You really do have a dream job.'

"I got to thinking and I truly realized that I do have a dream job," Simpson said. "One, I get the special privilege to work with young 17- and 18-year olds and help mold them as people and golfers; two, I love the University of Colorado and no matter what you've heard about CU these last months, ninety-eight percent of what some perceive about us just isn't true. It is truly a special place, and I'm fortunate enough to coach at my alma mater. And three, I get to coach and teach the game of golf.

"My dream job has lasted 29 years," he continued. "There is so much to be thankful for and people to thank. God. The University of Colorado, as (the athletic director) Eddie Crowder took a chance and named me as head coach when I was just 26 years old. All of the players who I've been blessed to coach and watch mature during my time at CU. My peers. The GCAA; I've been to Japan, Scotland, England, Ireland and all over the United States thanks to the GCAA.

Simpson closed by acknowledging that when he was a young coach, he would listen to advice of those who had been in the profession for a long time. He gave a bit of advice for younger coaches in the audience.

"If you want to be a great coach, one of the qualities you have to have is that you must relate to your players," he said. "Use relate as an acronym: the R is for respect; the E for edify, or to build up your players; the L for listen, as in truly listen to them; the A for authentic, be the real person you are; the T for time, and wisely spend the same amount of time with each of your players and in several areas; and the second E for expectations, for as a coach, it is extremely important to pass on your expectations of them.

"One of the quests we have is to prepare them for life, and the greatest thing I can hear is when they return years later and tell of the appreciation for what they learned from me, but more importantly, from their experiences at the University of Colorado."

In attendance at the event were members of Simpson's immediate family, his mother Martha, Anne Kelly, CU women's golf coach; Mark Crabtree, the head coach at Louisville who was one of Simpson's first players; and Eric Hoos, a former CU assistant and at the time the head coach at the University of Denver.

CU's Assistant Athletic Director for Media Relations, David Plati, a long-time friend and colleague of Simpson, presented him for induction. Some highlights of his presentation:

"I've been CU's SID since 1984; five years earlier, as a freshman in the office, I was handed the men's golf beat. After being named SID, I wasn't about to give it up, in part due to my love for the game as well as for the sheer enjoyment I have had working with Coach Simpson and the golf team for what has now been almost 26 years. I'm probably the only SID he even remembers handling his sport...

"Mark's induction is two-fold, one for his longevity as a respected coach, as well as for all the work he has done on behalf of college golf. He has truly thrived on being involved on the administrative side of things, and the game is better for his contributions.

"Mark is truly one of the good guys. Ask most everyone who has ever met him. I can say for fact that "Stretch," one of his nicknames, is truly one of the all-time most popular figures both at the University of Colorado as well as in Colorado golf circles, which honored him last September with the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame's Lifetime Achievement Award.

"Mark has all the qualities one seeks in a college coach, some of which include:

"Humility. Mark has never been above learning and evolving as a coach. He will tell you that when he started out, he wanted all his players to like him. After a few years, he learned they didn't want a friend; they wanted to be coached and to be mentored. "Disciplinarian. After all, we are talking about a man who left Jonathan Kaye home from the 1993 Central Regional. To this day, he will tell you it was one of, if not the, toughest decisions he has ever had to make.

"Compassion: A freshman, Charlie Luther, hit his first collegiate drive off the then-called women's tee markers with the ball landing several feet behind the tee box. The poor kid was even holding his pose, having no idea where the ball went until he heard the thud behind him. "Sims" comforted him with the line, "Don't worry Charlie, even Bo Jackson lost yardage on his first college carry."

"But he also traveled the 14 hours both to and from Australia to help comfort one of his players after his father passed away. He was on hand when that player, Kane Webber, shot a 59 a day after the funeral in a family tournament played to honor his dad.

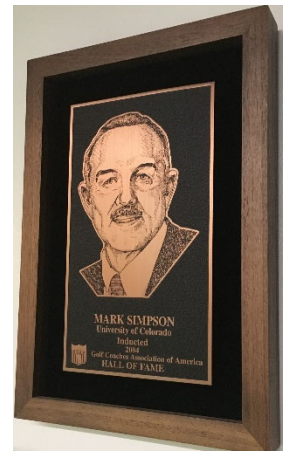

"Part-Time Nutritionist. Mark has purchased over 10,000 bananas for players to snack on during their rounds... something about the potassium I believe. Mark also thrives on finding the best Mexican food restaurant in a town so he can showcase his knowledge of the Spanish language, and loves the Louisiana Classics as he has turned many a young meat-and-potatoes golfer on to crawfish.

"Respect. How many U.S. Open winners openly thank their college golf coach publicly within minutes after victory? That's what Steve Jones did in 1996, as well as several more times in the days afterward.

"And Good Fortune. Mark offered the same Steve Jones, his first top recruit, a full ride back in the summer of 1977 after Jones shot a 72 after a morning 86 at one of Colorado's tougher courses, Hiwan in Evergreen. He would soon learn that a full scholarship back then was seldom ever offered and it ate up almost all of his allotted aid for the year. But it would be worth it.

Mark summed up what he thought was the best thing about the game of golf. He said, "The greatest thing is that it teaches maturity in the sense that you can't blame anybody or anything for your failures, you can only point the finger at yourself."

Simpson passed away at the age of 55 on December 5, 2005 after valiant fight with lung cancer.

COLORADO NATIONAL GOLF CLUB

Les Fowler had a dream. Mark Simpson had the same one.

The two head golf coaches at Colorado, spanning 29 years each between 1948 and 2006, longed for the University of Colorado to have its own golf course.

Enter Steve Kerr and CU head coaches Roy Edwards (men) and Anne Kelly (women). Kerr graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in Denver and was one of Fowler's last recruits, playing under both coaches as Simpson took over in the middle of his Buffalo career.

A long-time supporter of CU's golf teams, Kerr remained close with Simpson through the years and saw his daughter Erin (Kerr-Houtsma) become one of CU's first real stars of its fledgling women's program. She graduated from CU in 2003 as the school's all-time leader in stroke average and played professionally for several years.

To say that Kerr wanted to give something back to the program he loves and cherishes would be an understatement. In addition to the financial contributions through the years he has made to both programs, on March 2, 2009, it became official: the Buffaloes finally would have a golf course and facility to call its very own thanks to him.

Located in Erie and formerly known as Vista Ridge Golf Club, Kerr's purchase of the entire operation and subsequent licensing agreement with his alma mater has created Colorado National Golf Club, which has since provided Colorado's men's and women's programs with one of the finest arrangements in all of college golf.

Kerr floated the idea of purchasing and/or developing land in or around Boulder to build the school a course, but that became unrealistic due to several factors. Edwards and Kelly then suggested models in place at Texas A & M and the University of Washington, where local courses were purchased and then for all intents and purposes were basically donated back to the schools for their privileged use without any of the financial responsibility or liability for owning or operating the course.

Kerr liked the idea and as it became more of a reality, athletic director Mike Bohn and former CU chancellor Bud Peterson became integral players to make CNGC happen. Knowing Vista Ridge was attainable, Kerr worked to acquire the property to set everything in motion by the end of 2008. The club officially had its grand opening under the new name on May 2, 2009, with CU legends Hale Irwin and Steve Jones in attendance to celebrate the event.

CNGC and the school signed a long-term licensing agreement for it to be the exclusive home golf course of the CU men's and women's golf programs and will utilize the primary athletic mark and a newly created secondary logo in all branding efforts. The club features CU memorabilia from all sports, highlighted by CU Golf All-America Awards and already has plaques on display, as well as Simpson's last golf bag he maintained as head coach.

The club incorporated the CU brand in many ways, including adorning the President's Room with donated keepsakes and memorabilia from the greatest golfers to ever play for the Buffaloes, including Irwin, Jones and Jonathan Kaye, as well as tributes to former coaches Fowler and Simpson. Golf carts are emblazoned with the CU logo, with 11 others representing each school rival in the Pac-12 Conference.

In 2012, the George Boedecker Jr. Golf Facility, a 5,500-square foot state-of-the-art indoor practice facility was completed, giving CU's golf teams one of the premier winter homes in all of college golf (when Colorado's often mild winter weather along the Front Range doesn't cooperate, of course).

The course remains open for public play as well as tournament play, both amateur and for charity. CNGC has already hosted several top amateur tournaments, including both a men's and women's NCAA regional. Matt Schalk is the club's director of golf and general manager, with Kenny Anderson the head professional. The championship configuration of CNGC is 7,567 yards with a par-72 layout, though there are six tee boxes, the shortest all the way down to 4,770 yards with four in-between providing every golfer to play in his or her own comfort zone. CNGC is located at 2700 Vista Parkway (Colorado Highway 7), about two miles west of Interstate 25.
