AT A GLANCE

Bethel is coming into this game with just one loss. The Wildcats have one of the nations top offenses. Bethel has scored the most points in the NAIA this season and are second in scoring offense averaging 47.0 points per game. Quarterback Joaquin Collazo III is slinging the ball all over the place nearly averaging 300 yards per game throwing the ball. Cumberland has showed some resiliency this season so far bouncing back after both losses earlier this season. We will see if CU can get off to a hot start like they did a season ago against Bethel and hold off their potent offense.

Bethel Preview

Cumberland Football has their third ranked game in a row and second of four straight road games taking on in-state rival No. 10 Bethel in McKenzie on Saturday.

This will be the 35th meeting in program history between the in-state rivals. Cumberland leads the All-Time series 20-14-1 dating all the way back to the first time these two teams met in 1921.

The Wildcats have one of the best offenses in the NAIA this season. Bethel has scored the most points and are second in scoring average with 47.0 points per game this season.

Those points have a lot to do with what last year's Mid-South Conference Offensive Player of the Year and Second Team AP NAIA All-American Joaquin Collazo III is doing with the passing game. The senior QB is completing 66.7% of his passes for 1,976 yards and 16 touchdowns. His completion percentage and passing yards are fifth-best in the NAIA while 16 touchdown throws ties him for 12th.

Collazo III's receiving corp has reaped the benefits of his play. JD Dixon, former Phoenix Jaylen Taylor, and Avont Burrus have been a tough trio to maintain for opposing teams. Dixon has caught 40 passes for 726 yards and 10 touchdowns, Taylor has 30 catches for 501 yards and three touchdowns, and Burrus has added 24 receptions for 415 yards and two scores.

On top of their pass game, Martize Smith has carried the ball 67 times for 439 yards and four touchdowns and Mitchell Faulkner has ran 37 times for 173 yards and seven scores.

Despite the crazy passing numbers, The Wildcats are pretty balanced amongst run-pass plays. They run the ball 52.5% of the time and throw it 47.5% of their offensive snaps.

On the defensive side of the ball, Bethel has created a +8 turnover margin with 14 interceptions and four fumble recoveries. Senior corner Demetrice Gilbert is a ball hawk on the back end with five picks and when he has the ball in his hands has made things happen taking two back for touchdowns. He is third in the NAIA in interceptions.

Brian Hughes is their leading tackler with 40.0 on the season as the Wildcats rover. Linebackers Brian Hughes and Darrien Lewis have 33.0 and 28.0 as the second and third leading tacklers.

The Wildcats have got after opposing quarterbacks this season sitting in eighth in the NAIA in sacks with 22. It has been a balanced group effort getting after the QB this season as Christian Cantrell has three and Xavier King and Timothy Hamilton each have 2.5.

Last season, Cumberland and Bethel had a dog-fight in Lebanon. Bethel came to Cumberland undefeated and ranked No. 4 in the Top 25 Poll. The Phoenix held Bethel to just 115 yards of offense in the first half and scoreless.

The Phoenix were able to get up 17-0, but Bethel scored 27 unanswered points in the second half to win 27-17. 20 of the points came in the fourth quarter.

Cumberland comes into this after losing to now No. 11 Georgetown 42-14. It was a tight game in the first quarter, but big plays for the Tigers helped stretch that lead out over the course of the game.

The Phoenix scored their two touchdowns in the fourth quarter on Luke Holloway rushing scores.

Treyton Sheppard remains one of the top backs in the country with 613 yards. He is ranked in the Top 25 in four offensive categories. 23rd in rushes with 103, 17th in yards, 16th in yards per game at 102.2, and 25th in yards per rush at 6.0. Sheppard is knocking on the door of 3,000 career rushing yards needing just nine this week.

Holloway is fifth in the Mid-South Conference in rushing yards and yards per game with 427 yards and 71.2 per game. He is fourth in rushing touchdowns with seven.

Jalen Brown is third in the league in sacks at 4.5. Defensive lineman Joey Samples is tied for 11th in tackles at 29.0 with safety Derek Taylor just behind him tied for 14th at 28.0. Taylor is also tied for third in interceptions.

The weather for tomorrow's game in McKenzie is supposed to be beautiful. At kickoff it will be 78 degrees with the heat climbing up into the 80s as the game goes on. The wind may be a factor as upward toward 20 MPH winds are expected tomorrow.

CSN will be there for all the action. Christian Kaposy and Bob Lea will have the call on WANT FM 98.9 and WCOR AM 1490. Pregame action will begin 30 minutes prior to kickoff at 12:30 p.m.

Head Coach Tim Mathis

Sixth Season
Georgia Southern, 1996

Cumberland University Director of Athletics Ron Pavan announced the hiring of Tim Mathis as head coach for the Phoenix on January 22, 2018. He became the sixth head coach since Cumberland restarted the football program in 1990. Mathis is entering his fifth season as the Phoenix Head Coach.

Mathis is 18-30 in his first five seasons at Cumberland. This past season, the Phoenix went 3-7. Cumberland had three players earn Mid-South Conference All-Conference honors.

In 2022, Cumberland started the season 3-3 before dropping their final four games. The team had four selection to the All-Mid-South Conference team including Jace Capps who was named a Second Team NAIA All-American and a First Team AP All-American.

In a COVID shortened season 2020 season played in the spring of 2021, Cumberland went 2-5 all against league opponents. Cumberland produced their first running back All-American in program history as Treyton Sheppard became the first 1,000-yard rusher since 2012.

In Mathis' first season at Cumberland, he led the Phoenix to a 5-6 (MSC 3-3) record. The Phoenix upset the number 4 ranked Lindsey Wilson Blue Raiders 24-21 at home on Senior Day. The offense averaged 20.0 points per game while averaging 324.9 total yards per game.

Mathis served as an assistant coach for 10 seasons at Shorter University when the Hawks started their program in the NAIA in 2005. He was the team's offensive coordinator during his last five years at Shorter, including during the transition to NCAA Division II.

Mathis was a member of the Shorter staff for the inaugural season in 2005 and served five years as the team's offensive line coach. The Hawks led the NAIA in rushing, won the Mid-South Conference championship and earned the program's first-ever postseason playoff berth in 2008. Two players earned All-America honors and a dozen offensive linemen were named All-Mid-South during those five seasons.

He moved into the role of offensive coordinator from 2010-14, working with running backs for two seasons and quarterbacks and fullbacks the final three. Shorter ranked second nationally in rushing at 310.9 yards per game and posted 30.5 points per contest in 2010 and ranked third in the country in rushing (271.9), averaging 30.0 points per outing in 2011, the program's last in the NAIA.

In 2012, the first transition year to Division II, the Hawks ranked ninth nationally in rushing at 268.5 yards per game and ranked third the Gulf South Conference in rushing (227.9) and second in time of possession. Shorter ranked third in total offense in 2013, with fullback Bradley Moon leading the GSC and ranking sixth in rushing yards and quarterback Eric Dodson ranking fifth in the conference in total offense.

Shorter ranked third in the Gulf South and 22nd nationally in rushing in 2014 with 225.3 yards per contest.

Mathis was the head coach the last two seasons at St. Francis High School in Alpharetta, Ga., posting a 2-8 record in 2016 with freshmen and sophomores making up 74 percent of the roster. He registered a 4-6 mark in 2017 with the Knights.

He also served one season as head coach at Franklin County High School in Eastpoint, Fla., helping the Seahawks break a 23-game losing streak and finishing the season 3-7 overall.

Prior to his time at Shorter, Mathis worked four years at Trion City Schools in Trion, Ga., coaching the offensive line all four seasons as well as serving as defensive coordinator for two years. He was also the wrestling coach for two years and the golf coach for two seasons.

Mathis earned his bachelor's in History with a minor in Political Science from Georgia Southern in 1996 and received his master's in Leadership from Shorter
