JARRETT MATHIS

Forward • 6-8 • 220 • Senior
Brooklyn, N.Y. (The Berkshire School)

#14

Mathis is an aggressive and physical post presence when healthy ... could very well end the season as the Big Green's top rebounder.

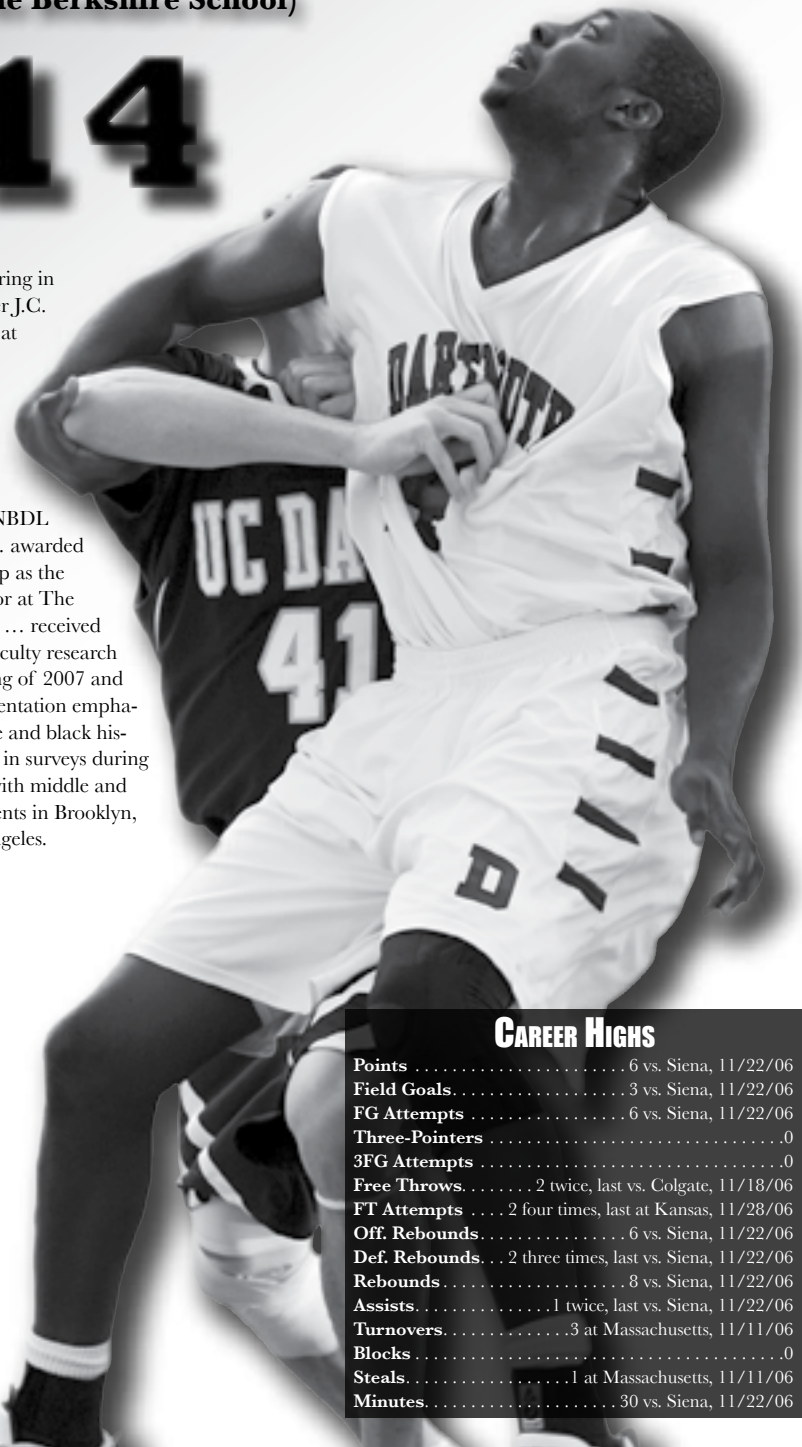

2007-08: Knee injuries once again derailed his season ... missed the first seven games before getting on the floor against UC Davis ... managed 10 minutes, scoring two points, grabbing two boards and committing three fouls.

2006-07: Enjoyed a terrific start before season was curtailed after just five games due to a knee injury ... had surgery over the summer after the season ... came off the bench in opening two games before starting his final three ... of his 23 rebounds, 17 were off the offensive glass ... played career-high 30 minutes against Siena and 28 against Kansas against whom he grabbed four offensive rebounds ... battled foul trouble drawing four whistles in four of his five games.

2005-06: Appeared in four games as a rookie ... had two rebounds in the loss at Harvard ... dished out an assist at Penn ... averaged 3.5 minutes in four appearances.

High School: Played at New York City's Kennedy High before doing a postgraduate year at The Berkshire School in Sheffield, Mass. ... served as team captain at Berkshire, averaging 15 points and 12 rebounds ... chosen second-team All-New England Class B ... served as the student body president at Berkshire.

Personal: Majoring in history ... brother J.C. played two years at Virginia before transferring to Michigan, where he was drafted by the Sioux Falls Skyforce of the NBDL last November ... awarded the Berkshire Cup as the outstanding senior at The Berkshire School ... received a Dean of the Faculty research grant in the spring of 2007 and developed a presentation emphasizing black pride and black history that he used in surveys during three-day visits with middle and high school students in Brooklyn, N.Y., and Los Angeles.

DAN BIBER

Forward • 6-8 • 230 • Senior
Lorain, Ohio (Admiral King)

The return of Biber to the floor gives Coach Dunn a scoring threat to complement Barnett ... good range on his jumper and can finish at the hoop ... combination of athleticism and size will cause match-up problems for most of the Ivy schools.

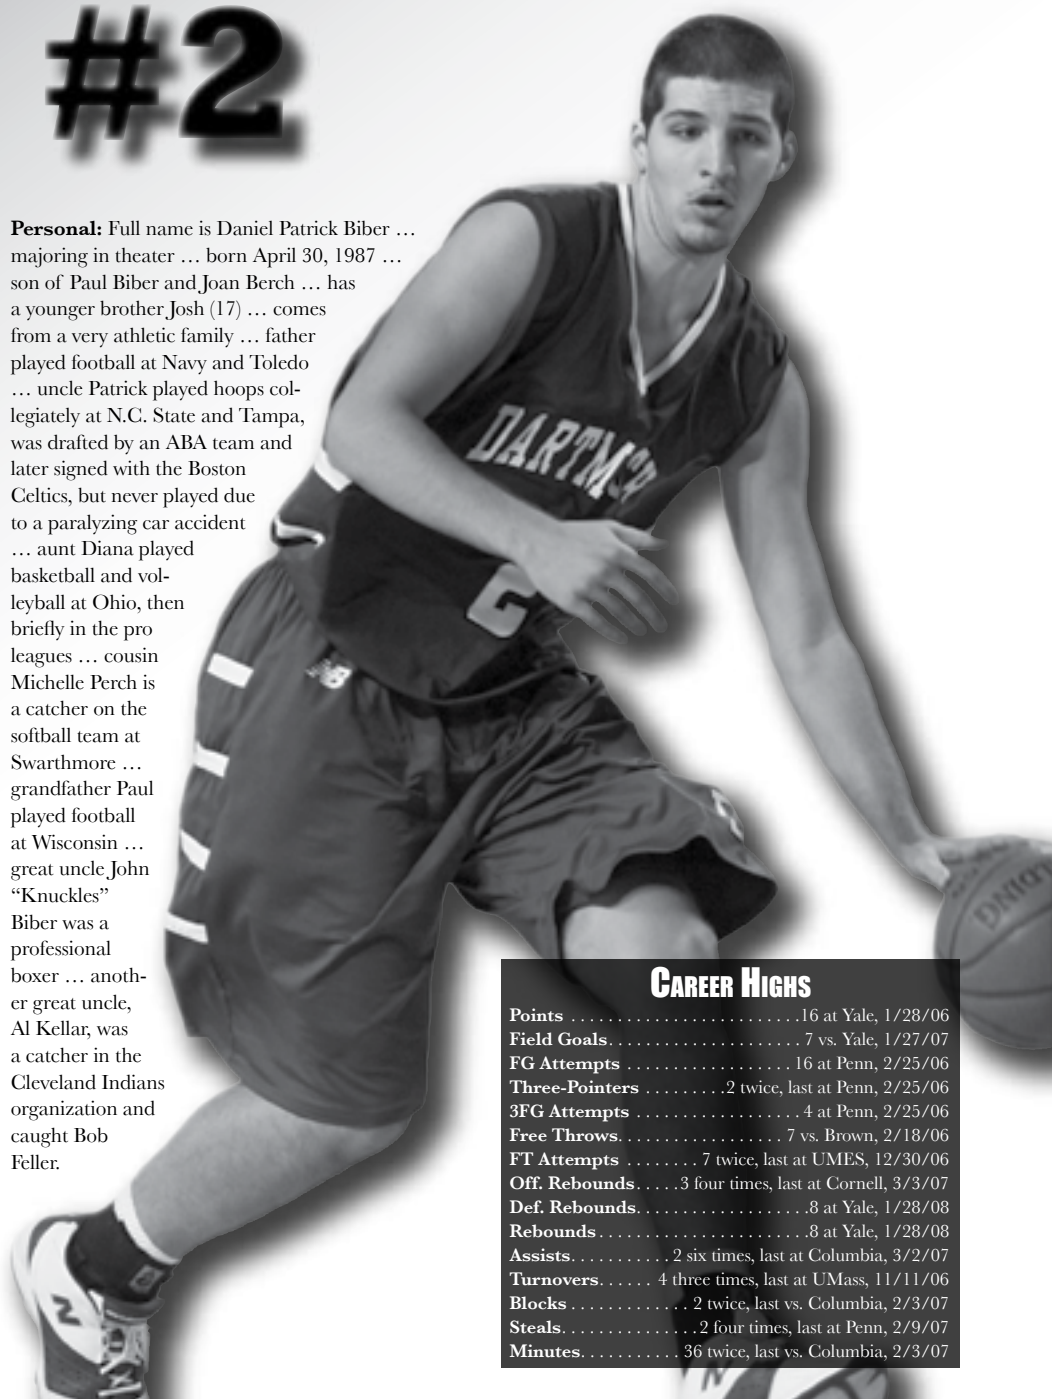

2007-08: Did not play while taking a leave of absence for the year.

2006-07: Fifth on the team in scoring and rebounding ... opened season as the starter at forward ... dropped 14 points in just 17 minutes to lead the Green against Maryland-Eastern Shore ... once again victimized Yale for his season high in points with 15 on 7-of-13 shooting ... played 36 minutes in that game and versus Columbia, against which he had a solid all-around game with seven points, a season-best six rebounds and a pair of blocks ... finished the year strong with 38 points in the final four games, including a team-best 14 in the finale at Cornell.

2005-06: Scored first five points of career against Hofstra at Madison Square Garden ... blocked a couple of shots and scored six points at Quinnipiac ... exploded for season highs in points (16) and rebounds (8) at Yale, hitting 6-of-9 from the floor with a pair of treys ... had scored just 24 points in the first 16 games prior to his outburst ... hit all seven free throws and tallied 11 versus Brown in his highest scoring home game ... started three of the final four games, putting up nine points at Princeton and 14 more at Penn.

High School: Lorain County's Mr. Basketball and the Lorain Journal Player of the Year as a senior ... shots 41.3 percent from three-point range and tied the school record with six triples in a game ... averaged 15.2 points and 9.9 boards in final season ... torched the nets at a 60.3 percent clip as a junior, scoring in double figures every game ... selected to play in the Ohio-West Virginia Basketball Classic.

Personal: Full name is Daniel Patrick Biber ... majoring in theater ... born April 30, 1987 ... son of Paul Biber and Joan Berch ... has a younger brother Josh (17) ... comes from a very athletic family ... father played football at Navy and Toledo ... uncle Patrick played hoops collegiately at N.C. State and Tampa, was drafted by an ABA team and later signed with the Boston Celtics, but never played due to a paralyzing car accident ... aunt Diana played basketball and volleyball at Ohio, then briefly in the pro leagues ... cousin Michelle Berch is a catcher on the softball team at Swarthmore ... grandfather Paul played football at Wisconsin ... great uncle John "Knuckles" Biber was a professional boxer ... another great uncle, Al Kellar, was a catcher in the Cleveland Indians organization and caught Bob Feller.

A pleasant surprise for Coach Dunn, Dixon is an athletic player with excellent leaping ability who is comfortable in an up-tempo game ... one of the Big Green's best defenders, but his perimeter shooting will be utilized more with a year of experience.

2007-08: Second on the team in three-point percentage ... first career points came on a trifecta which gave the Green a one-point lead in the middle of the second half in the 76-75 victory over Vermont ... saw extended action at Siena, setting season highs in minutes (22), field goals (3), rebounds (3), assists (4) and points (6) ... also scored six points against Maryland Eastern Shore — with two buckets and two free throws without missing a shot — and Cornell thanks to a pair of treys ... came up with two pilfers in the road win over Columbia ... in two games versus Yale, scored 10 points in 18 minutes ... played at least 11 minutes in each of the final four games.

High School: Did a post-grad year at Phillips Exeter alongside Princeton recruit Dan Mavraides for coach Jay Tilton — a former Dartmouth assistant — after graduating from the Brooks School ... Independent School League All-Star both in basketball and on the track where he ran on the 4x400 relay ... captained Brooks basketball and cross country teams as a senior.

Personal: Full name is Ronald Paul Dixon ... born on Jan. 31, 1988 ... son of Allen and Carol ... youngest of 11 children with five brothers and five sisters ... sister Stephanie was a high jumper at Cornell, while another sister, Valerie, ran at Harvard ... brother, Kevin, played football at Virginia for one year as well.

Fitzgerald is the second leading returning scorer for the Big Green ... hoping to build upon the strides he made at the end of last year ... perhaps the team's best scoring option in the post.

2007-08: Started the season opener at Air Force ... came back the next day to score 11 points and grab seven boards in the victory over VMI ... tallied six points in just nine minutes against Colgate ... posted seven points and eight rebounds in the win over Harvard in Hanover ... saved his best work for the last three weeks of the season ... averaged 11.6 points and nearly four boards per game over the final seven contests as he started each game ... more than 55 percent of his season point total came in those games ... posted double figures in five straight contests, beginning with a season-high 17 points against Ivy champion Cornell ... also snared seven rebounds and swatted a career-best three blocks ... put 15 points on the board in the next match-up with the Big Red ... went 6-for-11 from the floor for 12 points and grabbed six caroms in 16 minutes against

Penn ... helped the Big Green end their seven-game skid by converting 3-of-5 field goals and all four foul shots in the win over Princeton ... had 10 points in the win at Columbia ... launched a three-point shot in that game for the first time in his career as well.

2006-07: Got the starting nod in eight games of his rookie campaign ... hit 6-of-7 shots from the field to score 12 points in 18 productive minutes in victory at Maryland-Eastern Shore ... poured in another dozen points on 5-of-6 shooting in two-point loss to Ivy League champion Penn at Leede Arena ... had eight points on 3-of-3 shooting before fouling out at Vermont ... in three highest scoring games shot 14-of-17 from the field ... grabbed six rebounds in just 13 minutes in the win over Stony Brook.

MARLON SANDERS

Guard • 6-1 • 180 • Senior
Cleveland, Ohio (Cleveland Heights)

#23

Expected to move over to the shooting guard spot for his senior campaign ... coaches want to give him more opportunities to score ... great court awareness and defender ... athletic enough to throw down a windmill dunk despite 6-1 height.

2007-08: Started half of the team's 28 games, including 10 straight ... scored in double figures three times with a career-high 15 at Princeton on the strength of 6-of-9 field goal shooting ... also contributed five assists in a pair of contests ... had eight points, career-high six boards and five assists before fouling out for the only time all season in the victory over VMI ... hit two trifectas for first time in collegiate career in a start against Daniel Webster ... against NCAA Tournament-bound Siena, tallied 12 points, helped out on four buckets and blocked a shot for good measure ... best sequence of the season may have been the final minute of regulation against New Hampshire when the Big Green trailed by five ... began by hitting two free throws, then stole the ball and laid it in to get within a point ... finally assisted on an Alex Barnett layup with two seconds to play, tying the game ... played a career-high 42 minutes against UNH ... did not show any signs of fatigue the next game with five assists and four steals versus Maryland-Eastern Shore ... hit all three of his field goals and scored seven points in the win at Columbia.

2006-07: Played in 23 games averaging 15.9 minutes despite battling an upper leg issue ... best game came at Massachusetts when he tied Alex Barnett for the team lead with 14 points ... hit 5-of-9 shots from the field against the Minutemen and added three steals ... dished out six assists the next game against George Washington ... also registered double-figure points at Penn when he scored 11 on 4-of-5 from the field and 3-of-4 from the line ... blocked two shots against Army and two more against Cornell.

2005-06: Played in one game before taking a leave of absence from Dartmouth.

High School: Averaged 6.5 assists and four steals per game while scoring 18 points and grabbing four rebounds as a senior at Cleveland Heights ... selected to the Lake Erie League first team and to the Northeast Ohio third team ... served as captain and was chosen MVP as a senior.

Personal: Full name is Marlon Sanders ... majoring in sociology ... born on May 15, 1987 ... son of Sterling and Sheronda ... has one brother and one sister ... uncle, Steve Sanders, played two years of ball at Cincinnati.

CLIVE WEEDEN

Forward • 6-9 • 220 • Sophomore
Stow, Mass. (Northfield Mt. Hermon)

#42

Blue-collar type of player who pounds the boards and sets screens to help the team ... stats don't reflect his impact on the squad's success ... will challenge for a starting role this season.

High School: Ranked in the HoopScoop Top 1000 ... helped talent-filled Northfield Mount Hermon to a school-record 23 wins as a senior ... received bonus for defensive job on Michael Beasley ... spent first two years of high school at Nashoba Regional where he averaged 10 points and nine rebounds as a sophomore ... caught six touchdown passes at NMH as a sophomore and might have had a future as a college tight end if not for basketball ... also a talented track athlete who triple jumped plus threw the discus and javelin. Helped track team go 13-0 as a senior.

Personal: Full name is Clive Warren Nye Harvey Weeden ... born Nov. 22, 1987 ... son of Robert and the late Susan ... has one sister and one brother ... both of his grandfathers were tennis pros.
