GAME NOTES

THIS WEEKEND

- The Dartmouth men's hockey team hosts Princeton in the ECAC Hockey Championship First Round this weekend.
- The best-of-three series will be played at Thompson Arena with Games 1 and 2 set for 7 p.m. puck drops on Friday and Saturday. If the teams are tied, a Game 3 would be at 5 p.m. on Sunday.

LAST TIME OUT

- Dartmouth split the final weekend of the regular season at home with a 5-3 win against Union and a 4-1 loss to Rensselaer on Senior Night.
- The results saw the Big Green finish the season as the No. 6 seed in the ECAC Hockey standings as Dartmouth owned the tiebreaker with Yale, pushing the Bulldogs to the No. 7 seed.
- Drew O'Connor had himself a weekend, scoring four times in two games, including his first career hat trick on Friday night against Union.

ALL-IVY LEAGUE PLAYERS

- Drew O'Connor: The Dartmouth sophomore was named the Ivy League Co-Player of the Year and unanimously selected to the all-league first team. He became the fourth Big Green player to win the award, joining David Jones (2007), Mike Ouellette (2006) and Ross Brownridge (1980).

GAME NOTES

His unanimous selection to the first team was only the seventh time a Dartmouth player had earned that distinction.

- Quin Foreman: The junior led all Ivy players in assists in league games, dishing out 12 in 10 games, earning second-team honors. Foreman closed out the regular season with 24 points, good for second on the team, behind only O'Connor (32).
- Tanner Palocsik: The rookie defenseman was recognized for his strong first season with a spot on the second team. He finished the regular season as the team leader with 18 assists and was second in ECAC Hockey amongst all rookies with 21 points.
- Adrian Clark: For the second time in as many years, Clark found his name amongst the best in the Ancient Eight. A season removed from first-team honors, the senior netminder was named to the second team in 2019-20 after his six wins were second most by a league goalie.

AWARD SEASON

- In addition to All-Ivy League honors, O'Connor was named the ECAC Hockey Player of the Week on Monday.
- For the New Jersey native, it marked the league-leading third time he received the award this season.
- No other ECAC player claimed the conference's top weekly honor more than one time in 2019-20 other than Dartmouth's leading scorer.

AGAINST PRINCETON THIS SEASON

- Dartmouth swept the season series from Princeton this year.
- The Big Green won the game in Hanover, 3-1, on Nov. 9, just the second home game of the season and the first win at Thompson for Dartmouth.
- The first game of 2020 was in New Jersey and saw Dartmouth come away with a 4-3 win thanks to an O'Connor overtime goal just 61 seconds into the extra period. It also marked the 1,000th game behind the bench for Koenig Family Head Coach Bob Gaudet '81 between stints at Brown and Dartmouth.

AGAINST PRINCETON IN THE POSTSEASON

- This weekend will mark the third postseason meeting between the two programs.
- All three series have taken place in Hanover as the Tigers came to Thompson in 2007 for a quarterfinal series and then again in 2015 for a first-round matchup.
- Both previous times, Dartmouth swept the series with wins in the first two games.
 - o 3/9/07 | Hanover | Quarterfinal Game 1 | W, 6-2
 - o 3/10/07 | Hanover | Quarterfinal Game 2 | W, 3-2
 - o 3/6/15 | Hanover | 1st Round Game 1 | W, 3-2
 - o 3/7/15 | Hanover | 1st Round Game 1 | W, 2-0

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

- Princeton finished the regular season 4-20-5 overall.
- The Tigers' 2-16-4 mark in ECAC Hockey games slotted them 11th in the standings and earned a date in Hanover.
- Both of the team's league wins this season came against 12th-place St. Lawrence, earning a last-second 1-0 OT win on the road in January and then a 6-3 home win against the Saints on Valentine's Day.
- The season had a promising start with a 1-0-1 weekend out at No. 16 St. Cloud State in which they won 5-3 and tied 5-5. However, the Tigers would only score more than three goals in a game once more this year in the aforementioned St. Lawrence home win.
- The Tigers finished the season winless in Ivy play, posting an 0-9-1 record with the lone tie coming at home against Harvard the night after taking the Big Green to overtime.
- Senior Jackson Cressey earned All-Ivy League Honorable Mention honors after leading the team with 19 points.

HAT TRICKS

- O'Connor's first career hat trick was also the first of the season for any Dartmouth player.
- Will Graber's hat trick in last year's season finale at RPI was the last three-goal game by a Big Green player.
- Since 1970 (when hat tricks records start), O'Connor's career game was the 85th hat trick by a Dartmouth player and the 60th on home ice. It was also the first against Union since Bruce Cullen on Nov. 20, 1982 and the fourth overall against the Dutchmen.
- No ECAC player had more than one hat trick during the regular season.

WHAT A SOPHOMORE SEASON!

Drew O'Connor had a great year... here are the facts that prove it:

- Leads the league with 21 goals.
- That total is third in the nation, while his 0.72 goals per game ranks second.
- Led all players in conference goals (16), four more than any other player in ECAC Hockey.
- In doing so, he became the first Dartmouth player to lead the league in conference goals since Ross Brownridge in 1979-80 (40 years).
- He has already surpassed all his totals (17-9-26) from a season ago in five fewer games.
- Leads the league in shots on goal (131) and shots per game (4.52) despite being an Ivy player with fewer games played than half the league.
- Led all ECAC players in goals at even strength (13), while third in conference in power-play goals (7).
- His goals directly led to wins as 16 were scored in victories. Dartmouth was 10-4-1 in games in which the sophomore found the back of the net.
- O'Connor also scored more goals (7) than any other player in the league when trailing this season.
- His 14 goals at home were the most in the league, while his seven on the road were one short of the top mark in ECAC Hockey.
- His five multi-goal games are tied for the most in the league, as was his one hat trick.

- He led ECAC with nine goals in the final month of the season to push his regular-season total to 21, making him the first Dartmouth player since 2009-10 to hit the 20-goal mark (Scott Fleming, 22).
- Most regular season goals by a Dartmouth player since 2000:
 - o Drew O'Connor: 21 in 2019-20
 - o Scott Fleming: 20 in 2008-09
 - o Hugh Jessiman: 19 in 2002-03
 - o Lee Stempniak: 17 in 2002-03
- Also led Ivy League in goals (7) and tied for the lead in points (14) in league games, doing nearly all his damage at even strength as he only had two goals and three points on the power play in Ancient Eight games.
- Tied for the league lead with two game-winning goals in Ivy play.
- He posted 10 multi-point games, good for fourth best in ECAC.
- Only one player in ECAC Hockey had more three-point games than O'Connor's four.
- Scored Dartmouth's only OT goal (at Princeton) and shorthanded tally (vs. RPI).

WHAT A ROOKIE SEASON!

Being named to the All-Ivy League Second Team was icing on top of a great regular season, but Tanner Palocsik's impressive first year deserves a closer look:

- Second amongst all ECAC rookies in points (21).
- Leading scorer amongst rookie defensemen and fifth amongst all defenders in the league.
- Fifth in the nation in points by a first-year blueliner, just a point back of the four in front of him (22).
- His 18 assists this season are the most by a rookie D in ECAC Hockey and third in the nation, again just one helper back of the leaders.
- His 18 assists are the fourth most by a freshman defenseman in Dartmouth history and the most since Grant Lewis had 22 (the record) in 2003-04.
- First defenseman with 20 points since Evan Stephens (20) as a senior in 2010-11.
- Most assists by any player since Tyler Sikura (20) in 2012-13. Matt Lindblad (18) that same season is the next best figure until Palocsik this year.
- He has 13 more points than any other Dartmouth defenseman this season.
- Leads the Dartmouth blueliners in goals (3).
- Second on the team with two game-winners, both of which came in league games.
- Third on the team with seven multi-point games, tied for the most by a defenseman in the league and 10th in the nation.
- Five of those games were with a pair of assists.

A POSTSEASON PLAYER

- Quin Foreman enters the postseason without a point in the last four games, but that should do little to slow the junior winger.
- Last season, Foreman scored seven points (2-5-7) in the three-game series win against St. Lawrence in the first round. For that strong showing — especially his Game 3 scoring line of 1-3-4 — he was named the ECAC Hockey Player of the Week.
- In the next round, Foreman scored once and assisted on another in Game 2 of the quarterfinals at Harvard, giving him three goals and nine points in five postseason games.
- As a rookie, Foreman also scored in a quarterfinal game at Harvard, giving him 10 career points in 11 ECAC Hockey postseason games coming into this weekend.

GRABER'S A GAMER

- Will Graber was tied for second in scoring with Foreman this season with 24 points (10-14-24).
- He reached that mark thanks to his third-career three-assist game on Friday night against Union.
- Graber could use a strong postseason to reach a career milestone as he has 94 career points coming into the weekend, looking to become the first Dartmouth player since Doug Jones in 2011-12 to reach the century mark.

GAME NOTES

- His 60 assists are the most by a Dartmouth player since... Doug Jones had 78.
- His 34 goals are the fifth-best total by a Big Green player in the last decade.
 - o Eric Neiley '15 – 45
 - o Drew O'Connor '22 – 38
 - o Tyler Sikura '15 – 36
 - o Eric Robinson '14 – 35
 - o Will Graber '20 – 34

A CHANGE OF PACE

- After two straight years playing the same two opponents in the first two rounds of the postseason, the Big Green will have a different feel this spring.
- Dartmouth finished fifth in each of the last two seasons and was matched up against No. 12 St. Lawrence both times.
- And after beating the Saints in three games in both 2018 and 2019, the Green and White were rewarded with quarterfinal appearances in Cambridge against No. 4 Harvard with the Crimson winning both times.
- In addition to Harvard and St. Lawrence in each of the last two years, Dartmouth has played several teams in consecutive postseasons:
 - o Yale | 2016 (QFs: W, 2-0) and 2017 (1st: L, 2-0)
 - o Union | 2013 (QFs: L, 2-0) and 2014 (QFs: L, 2-0)
 - o Cornell | 2011 (Semifinal loss) and 2012 (QFs: L, 2-0)

SURVIVE AND ADVANCE

- The Big Green have won at least one postseason round every year but one dating back to 2011, a first-round loss at Yale.
- Since the start of that 2011 postseason, Dartmouth has nine series victories.
- They have reached the ECAC Hockey semifinals twice (2011 and 2016), falling one game short of a championship appearance for the first time since 1980.

WHAT'S AHEAD?

- A series win this weekend would more likely than not mean that the Green and White would head to either No. 4 Rensselaer or No. 3 Quinnipiac for the quarterfinal round depending upon the outcome of the Harvard/St. Lawrence series.

NOTE:

~ - Denotes a team that no longer plays in ECAC Hockey after several split to form Hockey East in 1984. Vermont left after the 2004-05 season.

- ECAC first round games were instituted with the 2003 tournament, as the playoff format changed to a 12-team tournament in which the top four teams receive byes.

^ - The Lake Placid preliminary game was instituted in the 1997-98 season, when the league went to a "final five" format in Lake Placid. In this format, quarterfinal winners advanced to the final five and were reseeded (if necessary) according to their regular-season finish. The No. 5 and No. 4 seeds played the preliminary game, with the winner advancing to the semifinal against the top seed. This format was abandoned after the 2002 championship. Dartmouth participated in this game in 2001 (Vermont) and 2002 (Rensselaer).

DARTMOUTH'S ALL-IVY LEAGUE PLAYERS

Dartmouth sophomore forward Drew O'Connor was named the 2019-20 Ivy League Men's Hockey Co-Player of the Year and unanimously selected to the league's first team.

In addition to O'Connor, senior netminder Adrian Clark, junior forward Quin Foreman and freshman defender Tanner Palocsik were all honored with spots on the All-Ivy League Second Team.

O'Connor becomes just the fourth player in Dartmouth history to be named the Ivy League Player of the Year and the first since David Jones '08 did so as a junior in 2007. Ross Brownridge '80 and Mike Ouellette '06 were the program's first two recipients of the honor and were recognized during their respective senior seasons.

The New Jersey native shares this year's distinction with Cornell goaltender Matthew Galajda as Ivy coaches could not break a tie between the league's top goal scorer and top netminder.

O'Connor's honor as one of the Ancient Eight's top players came after a regular season in which he was a dominant goal-scoring force, finishing the 29 games with 21 goals. In Ivy play, the forward produced a league-leading seven tallies and 14 points in 10 games. Nearly all of those came at even strength as he notched five goals and six helpers when playing five-on-five.

Additionally, he netted the lone overtime goal of the year for the Big Green, scoring just over a minute into the fourth period at Princeton in early January to earn a season sweep of the Tigers, a team who Dartmouth will take on this weekend in the first round of the ECAC Hockey tournament. That tally was one of two game-winners in Ivy play, a figure that tied for the best this winter.

On the whole, the 2019-20 regular season was a breakout campaign for a player who had quietly gone about scoring 17 goals as a rookie last year. His 21 regular season goals are the most by a Dartmouth player since the 1996-97 season, while also leading all league players and ranking third in the nation. In 22 ECAC Hockey games, O'Connor scored 16 goals, becoming just the second Dartmouth player ever, and the first since Brownridge in 1980, to lead the league in goals in conference games, a span of 40 years between occurrences.

This was O'Connor's second honor after landing on the second team a season ago, the only rookie to make either the first or second team. He becomes just the sixth Dartmouth player to unanimously be named to the top team.

Foreman is one of the most underrated players in the Ivy League and ECAC Hockey, but has also been one of the most consistent in his three years. The Needham, Massachusetts, native was third in the Ivy League in points in conference games with 12. He did so on the strength of a league-best 10 assists, two more than any other player. The winger had points in all but two Ivy games and posted multiple assists in three Ancient Eight contests. Both of his goals in league games came on the road at Harvard and Yale.

In total, Foreman finished second on the team in scoring with 24 points on 10 goals and 14 assists, proving to be a driving force in Dartmouth finishing the regular season as one of the league's top offensive teams.

Some of that offense was driven by defense as Palocsik posted one of the best debuts by a Big Green blueliner in recent memory. The Aliquippa, Pennsylvania, native recorded 21 points this year, becoming the first rookie d-man with 20 points in a season for the Green and White since 2007-08 and the first defenseman regardless of class to reach the mark since 2011-12.

Palocsik's 18 assists are the fourth most by a freshman defenseman in Dartmouth history and the most since Grant Lewis had 22 (the record) in 2003-04. He leads all first-year blueliner in ECAC Hockey and third in the nation in assists, just one back of the leaders, while also fifth in the nation in total points, one back of the top spot. He is second in ECAC Hockey in freshman scoring behind only Harvard's Nick Abruzzese, the Ivy League's unanimous Rookie of the Year.

For Clark, this marked his second straight All-Ivy League honor after making the first team a season ago. Clark was 6-3-0 in Ivy games in 2019-20, second in wins behind only Galajda. In those nine games, the Toronto native posted a .911 save percentage and a 2.58 goals-against average.

Clark is tied for the program's all-time lead in shutouts with seven in his career with one more moving him into first place in the 115-year history of Dartmouth men's hockey.

• Gaudet became the winningest coach in the history of Dartmouth hockey with his 309th victory behind the bench on Nov. 30, 2018 against No. 16 Cornell, passing the legendary Eddie Jeremiah '30 in the process.

• Became the 23rd Division I coach in history to win his 400th career game when Dartmouth beat No. 15 Quinnipiac on Nov. 3, 2018.

• On Feb. 16, 2018, Gaudet won his 300th game at Dartmouth, joining Eddie Jeremiah '30 as the only two coaches in program history to reach the milestone. The win came as the Big Green earned a season sweep of No. 7 Clarkson with a 3-2 home victory.

• His 953 games coached coming into the season rank as the most by any coach in Ivy League history between his 22 years at Dartmouth and nine seasons at Brown. The figure is also second all-time amongst ECAC Hockey coaches for career games, trailing only Joe Marsh (975), who served as the interim head coach of the Dartmouth women's team in 2017-18.

• Has led the Big Green to double-digit victories in 20-of-21 seasons since taking over at his alma mater prior to the start of the 1997-98 campaign. Ten times he has guided Dartmouth to 15-plus wins in a season.

• Became just the second coach in Dartmouth history to be named the ECAC Hockey Coach of the Year when he was honored during the 2005-06 season. Was also named the league's top coach during th 1995 campaign as the bench boss for Brown.

• A member of the Class of 2018 New Hampshire Legends of Hockey Hall of Fame.

• Has claimed three Ivy League titles: 1993 and 1995 with Brown and the 2007 crown at Dartmouth. Has helped lead the Big Green to the ECAC Hockey Tournament Semifinals seven times: 2001, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2011 and 2016.

• Dartmouth has finished in the top-20 in the national polls four times under Gaudet: 2005 (15), 2006 (17), 2007 (18) and 2011 (15).

• Ten (10) former Dartmouth players have gone on to play in the National Hockey League (NHL), including an ECAC Hockey-leading seven during the 2013-14 season. Ben Lovejoy '06 won the Stanley Cup with the Pittsburgh Penguins in 2016 and was the first former Dartmouth player to have his name etched on the trophy since Myles Lanes '28 did so in 1929 with the Boston Bruins.

• As a goalie with the Big Green, Gaudet helped backstop Dartmouth to the 1979 and 1980 Frozen Fours in Detroit and Providence.

• His 2,197 career saves were the most in program history upon his graduation and still rank fourth all-time. Gaudet recorded 40 career wins — all coming in his sophomore (15), junior (17) and senior (8) seasons — a figure that ranks third at Dartmouth.

• Gaudet is married to Lynne Gaudet '81 and the couple has three children who have all gone to and graduated from Dartmouth: Joe '10, Jim '12 and Kelly '17. Both Joe and Jim were four-year letterwinners with the men's hockey team. Son Jim Gaudet '12 would spend four years as the coach of the University of Maryland club hockey team.
