BIG GREEN GAME NOTES

UPDATED SPECTATOR POLICY

As of February 9, the spectator policy has been updated to allow people from outside of the college community at events.

THIS WEEKEND

Dartmouth women's basketball will play its second to last home game on Saturday when it hosts Princeton at 2 p.m.

LAST TIME OUT

The Big Green were defeated by the Brown Bears, 70-56, at the Pizzitola Sports Center on Tuesday.

- Allie Harland had a career-high 14 points in the loss. She went 5-7 (.714) in field goals and 4-5 (.800) in treys, tying her personal record from 2020.

- Doreen Ariik had her second double-double in a row, ending up with 10 points and a career-best 12 rebounds.

- The first quarter was kept very close and Brown had a two-point advantage heading to the second (12-10).

- Treys by Harland and Mekkena Boyd helped Dartmouth's cause, but a 10-6 Bear run gave the home team more control. The game was kept within reach until nine straight Brown points put some distance between the teams (36-20).

- After the Bears continued to pull ahead, Harland's second 3-pointer of the third quarter and a bucket by Jimena Abejon got the Big Green back within 17 points (55-38).

- Even though Dartmouth won the fourth, Brown managed to hold on for the win (70-56). The Green again turned in a stellar performance on the boards, outrebounding the Bears, 43-37, while collecting 20 offensive rebounds.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

Since meeting Dartmouth at Jadwin Gymnasium, Princeton has won its last three games to improve to 8-0 in Ivy League play. Having been tied for first in the conference with Columbia for the first six weeks of the season, the Tigers easily defeated the Lions, 57-39, to now sit alone at the top.

LAST TIME AGAINST PRINCETON

On Jan. 22, the Big Green fell to the Tigers, 78-35. Mia Curtis had a career-high 20 points in the loss. She went 6-9 (.667) in 3-pointers and 7-15 (.467) in field goals. Ariik had 10 rebounds (which was a career-best until the game at Brown on Tuesday).

LEADING THE WAY

Even though she didn't play over the weekend, Mia Curtis is still leading the team with 136 points, but Carrington Washburn and Mekkena Boyd are starting to close in with 118 points each.

Washburn, Rosie Jennings and Harland have played all 21 games, while Boyd has started all 20 of the contests she has appeared in. The sophomore from Williston, Vermont, also leads with 36 assists and 27 steals. Ariik leads with 115 total rebounds and is creeping her way into the Ivy League top 10.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Dartmouth's final three road games of the season come all in a row. First up will be a twofer as the Big Green play Cornell and Columbia on Feb. 18-19.

2008-21
Head Coach
Bowdoin College
Brunswick, Maine

2021-Present
Head Coach
Dartmouth College
Hanover, N.H.

Adrienne Shibles, just the fifth Big Green head coach in the program's 48-year varsity history, came to New Hampshire in May of 2021 from Bowdoin College.

Since taking over the Bowdoin program prior to the 2008-09 season, she led the squad to a record of 281-67 (.807) and qualified for the NCAA Tournament 11 times, reaching the Sweet Sixteen eight times (including five of the last six seasons) and the Final Four twice.

Shibles was named the Coach of the Year in the state of Maine four times, in the region three times, by the NESCAC twice and once by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association for all of Division III. In 2019, she also served as a coach for the Team USA U16 squad, and in March was pegged to be that squad's head coach in the summer of 2021.

During the 2018-19 campaign, Shibles became the winningest coach in Bowdoin women's basketball history. After guiding the team to its second-straight NCAA Championship Game appearance to conclude that season, she was named the WBCA Division III Coach of the Year.

Bowdoin had a record of 27-2, won the NESCAC Championship and had hosting rights for an NCAA Division III Sectional when the remainder of the 2019-20 season was canceled due to COVID-19.

Shibles' players have enjoyed numerous accolades with two national players of the year, six All-Americans, 13 all-region performers and 23 All-NESCAC honors — 14 on the first team — during her tenure. She also had the conference Player of the Year three times, Defensive Player of the Year four times and Rookie of the Year on two other occasions.

Prior to taking over at the helm of the Bowdoin program, Shibles was the Dean of Athletics and co-curricular programs at Gould Academy in Bethel, Maine for three years. The athletic program she oversaw at the selective college preparatory school was comprised of 40 teams, including nationally competitive squads.

Shibles took over at Gould after spending nine years as the head women's basketball coach and associate professor of physical education at Swarthmore (1996-2005). She inherited a program at the bottom of the Centennial Conference and built it into a conference champion in five years, guiding the squad to the second round of the NCAA Tournament while being named the WBCA District 4 Coach of the Year. Shibles coached a pair of league Players of the Year and two Kodak All-Americans, then finished her stint with the most career wins in Garnet history, posting a record of 138-96 (.590).

Shibles graduated from Bates in 1991 with a degree in history and American studies. A two-time captain of the Bobcats women's basketball team, she scored over 1,000 points in her career. Shibles went on to get her master's in exercise and sports studies from Smith in 1996, serving as a graduate assistant coach for both the Smith soccer team and the Elms College basketball program.

COACHING STAFF

Asst. Coach Megan Phelps
Bowdoin '15

Megan Phelps was named an assistant coach in May of 2021. Like Shibles, Phelps is coming from Bowdoin, where she served as an assistant since the 2017-18 season. The Polar Bears went 87-7 over the following three seasons, making two trips to the NCAA Championship. Phelps served as interim head coach for the fall semester of 2020 and was responsible for overseeing all aspects of the program.

Before arriving in Maine, Phelps was an assistant coach at Regis in Weston, Massachusetts, from 2015-17. The Pride had a 46-11 record over two campaigns, including two conference championships. Phelps graduated from Bowdoin in 2015 with a degree in government and legal studies. In 2019, she was named a WBCA 30 Under 30 recipient. She completed her master's in communications at Regis in 2017.

Asst. Coach Sarah Assante
St. Joseph's '15

Sarah Assante was hired as an assistant coach in June of 2021. Assante spent two years as an assistant coach at Washington and Lee University, where she helped coach the Generals to an 18-8 overall record in 2019-20 and a 15-3 mark in the ODAC, earning the team the No. 2 seed for the conference championship. That season also included a program-record 10-game winning streak as the team won all but one of its 14 games that ended the regular season. Before that, Assante was an assistant at Regis for the 2017-18 and 2018-19 seasons, while also serving as the assistant strength and conditioning coach during her second year. A 2015 graduate of Saint Joseph's, Assante was a four-year member of the basketball team and served as captain for her final two seasons. She graduated with a degree in business administration and accounting before getting her master's in organizational and professional communication from Regis in 2019.

Asst. Coach Meredith Mesaris
Scranton '15

Meredith Mesaris was named a volunteer assistant coach in June of 2021.

She arrives in Hanover after spending five seasons as an assistant coach at Williams (2016-21). While there, she helped the Ephs to a 58-45 record, seeing the team make it to the NESCAC quarterfinals three times before advancing all the way to the NCAA Division III Sweet Sixteen in 2019-20. Before Williams, Mesaris was the assistant coach at Hendrix College in Conway, Arkansas, contributing to the Warriors 19-7 overall record and third-place finish in the Southern Athletic Association. She helped coach both SAA Player of the Year Sara Dylsin and Women's Basketball Coaches Association All-America Honorable Mention Caitlin Kriesel-Bigler. A two-time WBCA All-American and 2015 CoSIDA Academic All-American herself, Mesaris was the leading scorer for the Scranton Lady Royals all three seasons she played there. She graduated magna cum laude in 2015 with a degree in management and a minor in coaching.
