Somber Home Opener

The Dartmouth Big Green will be playing with heavy hearts in their home opener against Lehigh following the passing of Buddy Teevens (see box at right). The players and staff would like nothing more than to pick up their first win of the young 2023 campaign in his honor.

Last week, Dartmouth suffered a 24-7 defeat in its season opener in the Granite Bowl at 11th-ranked New Hampshire, snapping an FCS-best 12-game win streak on opening day. The defense played quite well, holding the Wildcat offense to 274 yards. But on four occasions, UNH started in Big Green territory thanks to a trio of turnovers and a punt from inside the 10. Still, the Dartmouth defense kept the Wildcats off the board completely on two of those four possessions.

Linebackers Braden Mullen and Macklin Ayers led the stout defensive effort with 10 and nine tackles, respectively, with each collecting a sack (the first for the latter's career). Mullen also had another tackle for a loss, and Ayers broke up a pair of passes, helping the secondary limit UNH to a paltry 67 yards through the air. The last team with so few passing yards was Columbia 10 years ago next month (64).

It all started with the defensive line as Charles Looes, Josiah Green and Hank Knez consistently applied pressure to Wildcat quarterback Max Brosmer, who completed just 11 of his 23 throws.

Interim head coach Sammy McCorkle will be looking for his defensive unit to be a bit more opportunistic this week, however, as it was unable to force a single turnover.

The offense fared better than its opponent in the yardage department, amassing 323 yards (128 on the ground, 195 through the air). The star for the Big Green was wide receiver Paxton Scott who set personal highs in receptions (10) and yards (153) while also surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for his career. It was his 69-yard catch and sprint late in the third quarter that set up Dartmouth's lone touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter, closing the gap to a mere three points at 10-7.

While Dylan Cadwallader completed 16-of-30 throws for those 195 yards, his tandem partner, Nick Howard, ran the ball 10 times for 62 yards. Howard was unable to complete any of his five passes, though, and each QB threw a pick into the stiff wind.

Q Jones carried most of the rest of the load in the backfield, matching Howard with 62 yards on 14 carries. Those numbers would have been gaudier, but a pair of holding penalties on long runs cost the junior a total of 31 yards as well as

COACH BT

Dartmouth lost its winningest coach in program history with the passing of Buddy Teevens '79 on Sept. 19 from injuries he suffered in a bicycle accident in March. The Robert L. Blackman Head Football Coach guided the team for 22 seasons over two stints, including the last 17 campaigns, winning five Ivy League titles along the way. He was named the New England Coach of the Year three times (1990, 2015, 2019) and the Ivy League Coach of the Year twice (2015, '19) while racking up 117 victories, 83 in conference play. Also on the Big Green's collective minds is Joshua Balara '24, an offensive lineman who passed away last spring following a battle with a lengthy illness. Both will be honored by the team throughout the season with stickers featuring their initials on the Dartmouth helmet.

- It has been nearly 24 years since these two teams last squared off, a 30-14 Lehigh victory here at Memorial Field on Oct. 9, 1999.
- Big Green fans with a long memory will remember that in 1997 the Mountain Hawks snapped Dartmouth's 22-game unbeaten streak, tied for the longest in team history.
- The last win in the series for the Green was a 21-14 triumph on Sept. 28, 1996, during the team's only 10-0 campaign.
- Dartmouth is 1-3 at home against Lehigh with a 33-14 victory on Sept. 22, 1990, almost exactly 23 years ago to the day.
- The Big Green are dead even against current Patriot League teams all-time at 66-66-5.

a touchdown.

Special teams had a couple of hiccups on the night, the first when a 44-yard field goal attempt with the wind was blocked on the Green's first possession. And a squib kick to start the second half was mishandled, allowing the Wildcats to recover the ball in Dartmouth territory. Thankfully neither miscue led to any UNH points as Dartmouth demonstrated its resiliency.

BIG GREEN FOOTBALL 2023

Scouting the Mountain Hawks

Coming off a 2-9 campaign, Lehigh suffered a 28-point loss to Villanova to open the season but has split two nail-biters since, knocking off Merrimack on the road, 14-12, before coming up three points short against Cornell, 23-20.

Heading up an offense that ranks 96th out of 122 teams in yardage is quarterback Brayten Silbor. A sophomore from Arizona, the 6-3, 220-pound QB has completed at least 20 passes in each of the three games, connecting on 53.3 percent of his throws for 658 yards and four touchdowns, but also five interceptions.

The running game has struggled to the tune of 64.7 yards per game, which ranks among the bottom 10 FCS teams. Gaige Garcia is the featured back having carried the ball 26 times for 107 yards (4.1 average), but it is rookie Luke Yoder who has one of the two rushing touchdowns (as the leading rusher for the team against Cornell — 37 yards on seven carries) with the other going to Silbor.

The two main targets for Silbor to throw to are Geoffrey Jamiel (15 catches, 127 yards, 1 TD) and Connor Kennedy (12 for 121, 2 TDs). But watch out for 6-4 freshman Mason Humphrey who led the way last week with six grabs for 66 yards.

The defense has been solid particularly against the pass and in third-down situations, holding opponents to a less than 30-percent success rate. Linebacker Mike DeNucci has been terrific with 26 tackles, three for a loss, with one sack and a pair of pass breakups. Five other players have one sack as well, so the pressure can come from anywhere. The lone interception for the team is owned by defensive back Donovan Lassiter.

Punter Ben Banks-Altekruse has been busy, averaging 41.7 yards on over eight punts per game. Lehigh has attempted just one field goal, drilling a 38-yarder.

Head coach Kevin Cahill (Springfield 2001) is in his first season guiding the Mountain Hawks and is quite familiar with the Big Green following four seasons as the Yale associate head coach and offensive coordinator, and 11 years on the staff overall. The native of New York Mills, New York, has also coached at Maine, Murray State, UT-Martin (shortly after Coach McCorkle was there), his alma mater and Maine Maritime Academy. A two-sport athlete in college, Cahill was a two-time ECAC Division III New England Player of the Year.

Home games in bold ~ *Patriot League game

100th Anniversary of Memorial Field

Memorial Field first opened for the 1923 season, making this the 100th anniversary of the home facility of Dartmouth football. The Big Green has played a total of 425 games on the field with the team sporting a 273-144-8 record (.652 winning percentage). In the first 17 years of the facility, Dartmouth won 71 of the 78 games on its home field with one tie (.917), including a program-record 21-game home winning streak from 1929-33. That mark was threatened in 1968-72 with 17 straight triumphs in Hanover. More recently, the Green enjoyed a 10-game win streak during 2017-19.

Opening Day Win Streak Snapped

Dartmouth entered the 2023 season with the longest active win streak on opening day, emerging victorious in each of the season openers of the previous 12 campaigns. Of those 12 victories, only two were decided by single digits — 30-23 over Butler in 2013 and 22-21 over this year's opening opponent, New Hampshire. But 13 was not lucky for the Big Green as the 11th-ranked Wildcats handed Dartmouth a 24-7 defeat.

Great Scott!

There is something about Wildcat Stadium that brings out the best in Paxton Scott. Two years ago, the senior wide receiver caught four passes for a season-high 92 yards, including a catch-and-run 52-yard touchdown. In his return trip for opening day, Scott outdid himself with career highs of 10 catches and 153 yards, the most yards for a Dartmouth receiver since the final game of the 2019 campaign. Among his catches was another long catch-and-spring, this time covering a career-long 69 yards to set up the lone Big Green touchdown against 11th-ranked New Hampshire. On top of all that, he became the 24th player in Dartmouth history to collect 1,000 receiving yards (now at 1,049). With 10 more catches, he will become the 15th player to amass 100 in a Big Green career. No surprise that he was chosen as the DartmouthSports.com Male Athlete of the Week.

Macklin with the Smacklin

Agreed, that note headline is pretty lame. You come up with something better for senior linebacker Macklin Ayers for recording his first career sack at No. 11 New Hampshire while making a total of nine tackles and breaking up a pair of passes. Last year's Ivy League leader in tackles per game (10.0) is picking up right where he left off.

Mullen It Over

That is slightly better, don't you think? Junior LB Braden Mullen also registered a sack against the 11th-ranked Wildcats, plus led the team with 10 stops and added another tackle for a loss to his ledger. Those 10 tackles matched his career high set last year against Columbia. And to tie these last three notes together, Scott, Ayers and Mullen were all Academic All-District I selections last season.

BROADCASTS

Dartmouth fans who are unable to come to Hanover or the various venues on the road can catch every Big Green football game either on television or streamed over the internet on various services, including eight contests on ESPN+ (four of which will also air on NESN), one on ESPNU and one on FloSports. To subscribe to ESPN+ visit watch.espnplus.com.

For the 12th straight season, Dartmouth is teaming up with Northeast Sports Network (NSN) to produce the ESPN+ games and provide an enhanced viewing experience in HD.

For those who are unable to watch the ESPN+ stream of the game live, an archived broadcast will be available for 30 days on ESPN+.

Matt Corsetti, who first called a Big Green football game in 2018, will serve as the play-by-play broadcaster for the four home ESPN+ broadcasts. He will be joined by Steve Goldberg in his second season with the team.

Audio broadcasts of every game will be available through the DartmouthSports.com website. Calling the action is Brett Franklin, now in his third season calling the games on the Dartmouth Sports Network. A local broadcaster, Franklin also serves as the voice of Dartmouth softball and also lends his vocal cords to basketball and hockey contests. Providing analysis for a 23rd consecutive year is Wayne Young '72, who will team up with Franklin at Memorial Field. A two-sport athlete at Dartmouth, Young was a linebacker on three Ivy League championship Big Green squads from 1969-71 that went 25-2, earning first-team All-Ivy honors as a senior captain. He is also a member of Wearers of the Green. For the games outside of Hanover, Corsetti will join Franklin in the booth.

Rookie Debut

Dartmouth has 27 freshmen on its roster this season, but only one saw action in the opener at No. 11 New Hampshire. Place kicker Owen Zalc handled all place-kicking duties for the Big Green, converting his only PAT attempt, kicking off twice and attempting a 44-yard field goal (that was unfortunately blocked).

Mistakes Prove Costly at UNH

When playing a nationally ranked team, mistakes on the field are difficult to overcome, something Dartmouth discovered the hard way. The Big Green committed three turnovers without getting one of their own, and those three giveaways turned into 10 Wildcat points. Dartmouth also had a pair of long runs called back — one which ended in the end zone — due to holding penalties. The Big Green had not coughed up the ball three times in any game since the 27-10 win over Princeton at Yankee Stadium in 2019, a span of 22 games.

Co-Captains

Dartmouth is employing four captains for just the fifth time in program history. Two of those captains — S Quinten Arello and QB Nick Howard, both fifth-year players — are the first teammates to serve together in that capacity a second time. Joining those veterans on the leadership team are senior LB Macklin Ayers and senior RB Tevita Moimoi.

Helmet Decals in 2023

Dartmouth will sport a pair of decals on their helmets to honor two members of the team. One will have “JB” for offensive lineman Josh Balara '24, who passed away in March after battling cancer. The other will read “BT” for Buddy Teevens, who succumbed to injuries on Sept. 19 following a bicycle accident in March. The Big Green won't be the only team sporting the BT decal as all eight Ivy League teams will wear it throughout the fall in a show of support.

727 Wins All-Time

Back in 2018, Dartmouth won its 700th game, becoming just the sixth FCS teams to reach the milestone. That win came two games after playing its 1,200th contest as well. Now after 140 seasons and 1,239 games, the Big Green have posted a record of 727-466-46, a winning percentage of .605. Only 19 FCS teams can boast a win percentage of .600 or better (minimum 10 seasons). And only five teams have more victories.

Greene on Good Works Team

Allstate and the America Football Coaches Association (AFCA) announced their annual Good Works Team to recognize 22 football student-athletes for their community service on Sept. 12, and fifth-year long snapper Josh Greene was among those selected for the prestigious team. Among his charitable works is founding Off the Bench Foundation, an organization that has collected and donated nearly $10,000 worth of sporting goods to the Boys & Girls Club in West Palm Beach since 2012.

A Decade-Plus of Success

Dartmouth football returned to prominence throughout the 2010s decade, recording a record of 70-30 (.700) over the 10 years. Only eight teams enjoyed a higher winning percentage in that span. And with a third consecutive 9-1 season in 2021, the Big Green enjoyed more victories over a span of three seasons (27), four (35), five (39), six (48) and seven (56) than at any point in their history. Dartmouth has also added three Ivy League titles since 2015 to boost its conference-record total to 20 crowns since the league first officially formed for the 1956 season.

Preseason Poll

The Ivy League Preseason Media Poll was revealed last month with Dartmouth picked to finish where it ended last year — in sixth place. But generally speaking, the media has a tendency to underestimate the Big Green; Dartmouth has finished higher than its prognosticated place in 11 of the last 13 years, including 2021 when the team ended up sharing the title after being picked third. The Green certainly plan on making that 12 of the last 14 years. The complete poll can be found on page seven of these notes.

National Polls

The national polls don't generally give Dartmouth much credit in the preseason as well. But in three of the last four seasons, the Big Green have ended up ranked in the final polls, which counts quite a bit more. In 2018, the Big Green ended the season listed 15th by the coaches and 18th by Stats Perform. That AFCA ranking was the highest for Dartmouth since the Division I classification split into two subdivisions in 1978. In 2019, the Green managed to be ranked 21st by the AFCA and 22nd by Stats Perform. And just two years ago, Dartmouth ended the year 20th in the Stats Perform poll and 23rd by the AFCA. It marked the sixth time Dartmouth ended up in the final national FCS polls, the other years being 1990 (17th), 1996 (17th) and 2015 (23rd).

INTERIM HEAD COACH

Sammy McCorkle, who was on Buddy Teevens' staff since the head coach's return to Hanover in 2005, will fill in as the interim head coach for the 2023 season following Teevens' bicycle accident in March and subsequent passing on Sept. 19.

The 1996 graduate and three-time letter winner at the University of Florida is in his 19th year on the staff and helped guide the Big Green to the program's 20th Ivy League championship in 2021. From 2013-19, the Big Green were first or second in passes defended in the league, and his secondary was instrumental to the team's top-12 ranking in passing efficiency defense.

His special teams have excelled as well, ranking among the top 25 nationally in each of the four seasons in punt returns between 2017-21, including a pair of top-10 rankings.

McCorkle has coached eight players who have earned All-Ivy League First Team honors a total of 12 times, including two-time All-American CB Isiah Swann. No fewer than 25 of his defensive backs have received All-Ivy honors a combined 40 times, most recently safety Quentin Arelló '22 (second team) in 2022.

The Dartmouth defense was 13th nationally in scoring defense in 2022 after placing among the top three in the previous three seasons, and the 2021 squad ranked fourth in fewest passing yards. And in the previous campaign of 2019, McCorkle's players were quite opportunistic during the season with four pick-sixes among the five defensive scores, fourth among FCS programs.

In 2018, the defense ranked second nationally in fewest points allowed and red zone defense, and fourth in total defense as Dartmouth finished the season ranked 15th in the coaches' poll. Three years prior, the squad led the nation in those first two categories and was also fourth in total defense as the Big Green won a share of its first conference crown in 19 years. Cornerback Vernon Harris '16 earned a spot on the All-Ivy First Team in 2014 and '15, and two-time co-captain Garrett Waggoner garnered first-team honors as a safety in both 2012 and '13. McCorkle also mentored one of the finest cornerbacks and return men in Dartmouth history in Shawn Abuhoff '12, who earned first-team All-Ivy honors at both positions in 2010 and 2011.

In 2003-04, McCorkle was the head coach at Martin County High in Stuart, Florida. In 2003, he led Martin County to its best record in 10 years.

McCorkle previously coached at UT Martin, working with the secondary in 2000 before serving as the defensive coordinator (2001-02). From 1997-99, McCorkle was a graduate assistant at his alma mater, assisting the secondary and special teams coaches while also scouting opponents.

During the 1996-97 academic year, McCorkle taught PE while coaching the defensive backs and linebackers, and coordinating special teams at Spanish River High School in Boca Raton, Fla.

McCorkle was a standout defensive back on four SEC championship teams at Florida, competing in four bowl games (Gator, Sugar twice and Fiesta) and a national title game. McCorkle graduated with Florida's single-season and career records for blocked punts. He twice was named Florida's special teams player of the year.

He and his wife, Vicki, have three daughters, Madison, Allie and Campbell.

20-Time Ivy League Football Champion

BIG GREEN FOOTBALL 2023

Still All-Time Ivy Champs

Since the Ivy League began play in 1956, no other school in the conference has won more football titles than Dartmouth with 20. The last time an Ancient Eight squad had more crowns than the Big Green was in 1961 when Yale had a grand total of two. The next season, Dartmouth equaled that amount and has never looked up at another team since. But Penn isn't far behind with 18 titles, while Harvard and Yale both have 17.

Returning All-Ivy Performers

Dartmouth had five players earn All-Ivy League honors after the 2022 season, three of which return to the field this fall. Safety Quinten Arello was a second-team selection, while OL Nicholas Schwitzgebel and TE Jace Henry received honorable mention. But the Green also have three others who have garnered All-Ivy consideration in previous years in QB Nick Howard on the first team, LB Marques White on the second team and WR Paxton Scott getting honorable mention, all in 2021.

Preseason All-Ivy Nods

Phil Steele released three preseason All-Ivy League teams with a dozen Big Green players listed, led by S Quinten Arello, LB Macklin Ayers and long snapper Josh Greene on the first team, while RB Q Jones, DE Charles Looes, OL Nicholas Schwitzgebel, WR Paxton Scott and DB Sean Williams were among those on the second team. The third team included QB Nick Howard, LB Braden Mullen, C Thomas Hartnett and OL Konstantin Spörk.

Shut-Down Defense

Dartmouth has become known for its stellar defense in recent years, ranking 13th among FCS teams in fewest points allowed last year after finishing second in both 2018 and 2019 and third in 2021.

Howard Climbing the Charts

Quarterback Nick Howard entered the 2023 season 11th on Dartmouth's all-time scoring list with 144 points thanks to 24 touchdowns over the past two seasons. After gaining 62 yards on the ground at UNH, he jumped five spots on the career rushing yards list into 20th with 1,374. Another 438 would vault him into the Big Green top four.

Last to Kick Off

The Ivy League football schedule always starts a couple weeks after the rest of Division I, and the Big Green are no strangers to watching everyone else play before it kicks off. For the sixth time since 2012, Dartmouth was the last NCAA team to begin its season with the 6 p.m. kickoff in the Granite Bowl.

BIG GREEN FOOTBALL 2023 BOX SCORES

GRANITE BOWL GOES TO NO. 11 NEW HAMPSHIRE
IN 24-7 OPENING DAY DEFEAT

DURHAM, N.H. — With winds gusting up over 30 miles an hour, the 11th-ranked New Hampshire Wildcats pulled away late from visiting Dartmouth on Saturday evening, taking a 24-7 decision over the Big Green at Wildcat Stadium to retain the Granite Bowl trophy. Dylan Laube had 180 rushing yards and scored a pair of touchdowns — one on the ground and one through the air — to lead UNH (2-1) to a victory in its home opener, while Paxton Scott had a career-high 153 receiving yards on nine grabs to lead Dartmouth (0-1) in its season opener.

“We played hard and fast, but we had some penalties and mistakes that put us in tough situations at times,” said interim head coach Sammy McCorkle after his first game at the helm of the Big Green. “We had our chances; we have the skills and the toughness to compete with any team, but we have to correct those mistakes, particularly against a team as good as New Hampshire. But one game does not make a season.”

The Big Green offense struggled through most of the first three quarters and trailed by a 10-0 count before Scott gave the team the jolt it was looking for. Quarterback Dylan Cadwallader found him between a seam 15 yards down the left sideline, and Scott sprinted all the way to the 10 before being corralled for a 69-yard gain. Two plays later, Q Jones burrowed his way up the middle for a 4-yard touchdown run on the first play of the fourth quarter, suddenly bringing Dartmouth within three points.

A personal foul call after the touchdown, however, meant the Big Green had to kick off into the wind from their own 20. The squib kick was downed near midfield, and six plays later facing 3rd-and-4, Wildcat quarterback Max Brosmer — who was limited to a mere 67 passing yards while completing 11-of-23 throws — used Laube as a decoy on a keeper. He then was able to sprint 31 yards to the end zone, boosting the UNH lead back to 10 at 17-7 with 12:16 to play.

On Dartmouth’s ensuing possession, the Green also faced a crucial third-down situation at midfield. The snap one-hopped Cadwallader, and he was hit as he released his pass, allowing Max Oxendine to pluck the ball from the air and return the interception 43 yards down to the Dartmouth 27. Laube needed five rushes to cover those 27 yards, the last on a 4th-and-1 at the 2 for his second score of the night and a 24-7 advantage with 10:43 remaining.

Twice the Big Green drove into Wildcat territory in the final minutes, but turned the ball over on downs both times before UNH ran out the final 1:17 off the clock to close out its victory.

Both teams had scoring opportunities in the opening quarter but came away empty. On their initial drive, the Big Green got as far as the UNH 22 before lining up for a 44-yard field goal. The Wildcats blasted through the line, however, allowing Randall Harris to block the kick, and Oxendine scooped the ball up. Only a tackle by Cadwallader (the holder on the attempt) at the Wildcat 47 kept Oxendine from taking the loose ball all the way to the end zone.

New Hampshire responded by marching down to the 2-yard line, but a dropped pass in the end zone on third down followed by a terrific pass breakup by cornerback Leonard St. Gourdin kept the game scoreless.

Once the field flipped to start the second quarter and the Wildcats had the wind at their back, they were able to put the first points of the game on the scoreboard on a 4-yard pass to Laube, his first of six catches for 31 yards on the evening. New Hampshire added a 33-yard field goal in the final minute before halftime to take a 10-point lead into the locker room.

Cadwallader finished the night 16-of-30 through the air for 195 yards, 153 of those going to Scott on a career-best 10 receptions. Scott’s total also pushed him past 1,000 yards for his career, becoming the 24th player in Dartmouth history to reach the milestone. The other half of the Big Green quarterback tandem, Nick Howard, ran for 62 yards on 10 carries while Jones amassed 55 yards on 14 rushes.

Linebackers Braden Mullen and Macklin Ayers led the Dartmouth defense with 10 and nine tackles, respectively, and each recorded a sack while the latter broke up a pair of passes as well. Joe Eichman led the Wildcats with eight tackles, 1.5 going for a loss while helping out on the lone sack.

When asked about how the team will consider this game going forward, safety and co-captain Quinten Arelló said, “Wipe it. Move on from it. We’ll study the film, note our mistakes and how to correct them, then wipe it. We have nine more games this season, and we expect to surprise some people. We know what we are capable of, we just need to execute better.”

Notes: The loss snapped Dartmouth’s 12-game winning streak in season openers, which was the longest among FCS schools entering the season ... UNH won its second straight in the series and holds a 21-19-2 advantage all-time between the only two Division I football teams in the state ... the Big Green have lost three consecutive non-conference games after winning the last 20 prior to this recent skid ... Dartmouth piled up more total yards on the night, 314-274, but the Wildcats won the battle of the clock, holding the ball for 33:26 ... both teams racked up eight penalties with the Big Green losing 70 yards and UNH 80.
