Conference Play Kicks Off

The battle for a record 21st Ivy League title begins this Saturday as Dartmouth takes on Penn in its first conference test. The Quakers outlasted the Big Green in double overtime in Hanover last year, 23-17, snapping Dartmouth's four-game win streak in the series.

Penn was on the brink of losing the game in regulation, but a 35-yard field goal as time expired knotted the game at 10. After both teams reached the end zone in the first overtime period, the Quakers blocked a Big Green field goal attempt, then clinched the game on a 1-yard touchdown run by Trey Flowers.

Last week, the Big Green picked up a non-conference victory in their home opener, sending Lehigh home with a 34-17 defeat. Dartmouth dominated the ball, holding onto the ball for more than 38 minutes of action. If not for a pair of fumbles, the score would have better reflected how thoroughly the Green dictated play on the field.

Q Jones and Nick Howard provided a good chunk of the ground game, racking up 169 of the team's 216 yards (99 and 70, respectively) as well as a trio of touchdowns. For Howard, it was his 11th career game with at least two touchdowns, second all-time at Dartmouth.

Howard wasn't the only Big Green QB having a good day; Dylan Cadwallader completed 16-of-19 passes for 130 yards and the go-ahead score in the final minute of the half on a perfect 7-yard fade to Paxton Scott in the corner of the end zone. His completion percentage (84.2) is the fifth-best for any Dartmouth quarterback over the past 25 years.

Scott is the team's leading receiver with 13 catches and 164 yards in the first two games and needs just seven more grabs to become the 15th player in program history with 100 receptions in a career. Against Lehigh, nine different receivers caught a pass, while Isaac Boston led the squad with 45 yards on his four catches.

The defense was stellar, stifling the Mountain Hawks to just 167 yards of offense on a mere 48 plays. Dartmouth leads the FCS in pass defense and ranks third in total defense, and shut down the Lehigh running game (52 yards on 18 carries).

Strong safety Sean Williams headed up the effort with seven tackles and forced a fumble. Also jarring a ball loose was CB Leonard St. Gourdin, and at just the right time, giving the ball to Dartmouth at the Lehigh 16 that set up a touchdown to extend the lead to 14 in the third quarter. Linebacker Macklin Ayers leads the team with 14 stops, pitching in five to the winning effort last Saturday.

As for special teams, rookie PK Owen Zalc

- This is Sammy McCorkle's first Ivy game as a head coach, but in his 18 years (17 seasons) at Dartmouth as an assistant, the Big Green were 7-10 against the Quakers.
- Penn coach Ray Priore is 2-4 versus Dartmouth as the Quakers' head coach.
- Since Ivy play officially began in 1956, Penn holds a 34-32 advantage, one of only two teams with a winning record against the Green in that span (Harvard is the other).
- The Quakers own the longest winning streak in the series at 11 games from 1942-56.
- Dartmouth is 19-31-1 at Franklin Field but has won its last four contests at the venue.

was named the Ivy League Rookie of the Week for providing 10 points on his first two field goals and 4-of-4 PATs. But the biggest play came from Sam Koscho, who blocked a punt late in the third quarter, leading to a Big Green TD just two plays later for a 31-10 advantage.

Scouting the Quakers

After finishing just a game back in the Ivy League standings a year ago, Penn certainly looks like a team that will challenge for the title in 2023 with wins over Colgate (20-6) and Bucknell (37-21) to start the season.

The offense, averaging nearly 400 yards per game, is led by QB Aidan Sayin. The junior is completing nearly two-thirds of his passes (61-of-92) for 520 yards with five touchdowns but three interceptions as well. He doesn't run often but is averaging about four yards on his seven carries while getting sacked just once.

Jared Richardson has been the league's top receiver through two weeks with 19 catches and three touchdowns, amassing 201 yards along the way. Alex Haight is the second option with nine grabs for 100 yards and a score, and RB Jonathan Mulatu is adept at catching passes out of the backfield.

Speaking of Mulatu, his 17 rushing attempts lead the team, going for 81 yards and a touchdown, while Jacob Cisneros has been even more effective with a 6.5-yard average on 15 carries. As a team, the Quakers rank seventh in the league in rushing yards per game (135.5), relying more heavily on their air attack.

Aside from giving up some late points to Bucknell, the Penn defense has been quite stout, yielding under 250 yards per game and an FCS-best 34.0 per game on the ground. A pair of DL in Joey Slackman and Paul Jennings have anchored the line, combining for 7.5 tackles for a loss and 2.5 sacks. Linebacker Jack Fairman leads the squad with 11 stops, and Shiloh Means and Jaden Key each have a pick.

Punt coverage has been a bit of an issue, ranking last in the league with a 30.7-yard net, though Albert Jang has a long of 52 among his six boots. Graham Gotlieb has a solid leg for place kicking, going 3-of-4 on field goal attempts with a long of 42 and 6-of-7 on PATs.

Ray Priore (Albany '85), in his ninth year (eighth season) as the George A. Munger Head Coach with a record of 44-28, led the Quakers to a share of the conference crown each of his first two seasons. This is his 37th year on the Penn staff, helping secure 10 Ivy titles in 28 seasons as an assistant with his last 16 as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

McCorkle's First Win

Interim head coach Sammy McCorkle earned his first victory guiding the Big Green with the 34-17 triumph over Lehigh on Sept. 23. It was also the ninth consecutive win in a Big Green home opener, a streak that began with a 35-25 win over Central Connecticut State in 2014.

First Win Over Lehigh in 27 Years

True, the two teams hadn't played since 1999, but Dartmouth's win over the visiting Mountain Hawks was the first in the series for the Big Green since they topped Lehigh, 21-14, during the 10-0 perfect season of 1996. Dartmouth is now 3-5 in the series that began in 1950.

Ivy Rookie of the Week

Freshman Owen Zalc was recognized by the Ivy League for his performance against Lehigh as the place kicker provided 10 points to the 34-17 victory. He gave Dartmouth a brief 10-7 lead in the second quarter with a 35-yard field goal — the first of his career — and added another three-pointer to cap the Big Green scoring from 25 yards out. Add those to his perfect 4-of-4 on PATs and that adds up to Dartmouth's first Rookie of the Week honor in 11 months (Sean Williams).

Two Touchdowns for Howard

When Nick Howard reaches the end zone in a game, it's a pretty safe bet he will find his way there a second time before the final horn sounds. The fifth-year QB is currently tied for third (with Al Marsters '30 and Nick Schwieger '12) in program history with 26 rushing touchdowns, and 11 times he has had at least two in a game. As a matter of fact, only once has he scored a solitary TD in a game. Only legendary Myles Lane '28 has had more multi-TD games (14) at Dartmouth.

Demoralizing Defense

Dartmouth has made a name for itself over the past decade plus with a stifling defense, and this year seems to be no different. Through two games, the Big Green lead all FCS teams in passing yards allowed per game (91.0 yards per game) and passing efficiency defense (87.90) while also sitting first in the Ivy League and third in the nation in total defense (220.5 yards per game).

99 Rushing Yards on the Wall

Junior Q Jones came up a yard shy of recording his second career 100-yard game on the ground with 99 on 17 carries in the 34-17 win over Lehigh. He is just the third player in the last 38 years to fall just a yard shy of 100 rushing yards in a game. But he does lead the team and rank fifth in the league with 161 yards to his credit.

Fumble Blessed by St. Gourdin

Holding a 17-10 lead in the third quarter, the defense came up with perhaps the most important play of the game as CB Leonard St. Gourdin stripped the ball from a Lehigh ball carrier, allowing DL Ejike Adele to recover it deep in Mountain Hawk territory. From there, the Big Green needed five plays to reach the end zone and double its lead en route to the 34-17 victory.

BROADCASTS

Dartmouth fans who are unable to come to Hanover or the various venues on the road can catch every Big Green football game either on television or streamed over the internet on various services, including eight contests on ESPN+ (four of which will also air on NESN), one on ESPNU and one on FloSports. To subscribe to ESPN+ visit watch.espnplus.com.

For the 12th straight season, Dartmouth is teaming up with Northeast Sports Network (NSN) to produce the ESPN+ games and provide an enhanced viewing experience in HD.

For those who are unable to watch the ESPN+ stream of the game live, an archived broadcast will be available for 30 days on ESPN+.

Matt Corsetti, who first called a Big Green football game in 2018, will serve as the play-by-play broadcaster for the four home ESPN+ broadcasts. He will be joined by Steve Goldberg in his second season with the team.

Audio broadcasts of every game will be available through the DartmouthSports.com website. Calling the action is Brett Franklin, now in his third season calling the games on the Dartmouth Sports Network. A local broadcaster, Franklin also serves as the voice of Dartmouth softball and also lends his vocal cords to basketball and hockey contests. Providing analysis for a 23rd consecutive year is Wayne Young '72, who will team up with Franklin at Memorial Field. A two-sport athlete at Dartmouth, Young was a linebacker on three Ivy League championship Big Green squads from 1969-71 that went 25-2, earning first-team All-Ivy honors as a senior captain. He is also a member of Wearers of the Green. For the games outside of Hanover, Corsetti will join Franklin in the booth.

Dishin' Dylan

Senior QB Dylan Cadwallader had the most efficient game of his career throwing the ball, completing 16-of-19 passes for 130 yards and the season's first touchdown pass, a picture-perfect 7-yard fade to Paxton Scott in the back corner of the end zone. His completion percentage (84.2) is the fifth-best by a Dartmouth QB over the last 25 years.

Koscho and Effect

That's a pretty bad pun, I realize, but I'm running with it. Following the fumble recovery and touchdown in the third quarter, Sam Koscho made sure Lehigh got the message as to which side controlled the game by blocking a punt, giving the Green the ball at the Mountain Hawk 32. Two runs by Q Jones later and Dartmouth suddenly had a commanding 31-10 advantage in the final minute of the third quarter. The block was the first of a punt by a Big Green player since Robert Crockett III rejected a boot in the end zone at Columbia last year in the 27-24 triumph.

100th Anniversary of Memorial Field

Memorial Field first opened for the 1923 season, making this the 100th anniversary of the home facility of Dartmouth football. The Big Green has played a total of 426 games on the field with the team sporting a 274-144-8 record (.653 winning percentage). In the first 17 years of the facility, Dartmouth won 71 of the 78 games on its home field with one tie (.917), including a program-record 21-game home winning streak from 1929-33. That mark was threatened in 1968-72 with 17 straight triumphs in Hanover. More recently, the Green enjoyed a 10-game win streak during 2017-19. The actual dedication for the facility occurred on Nov. 3, 1923, which means Dartmouth's game on ESPN on Nov. 3 will be exactly 100 years later.

Opening Day Win Streak Snapped

Dartmouth entered the 2023 season with the longest active win streak on opening day, emerging victorious in each of the season openers of the previous 12 campaigns. Of those 12 victories, only two were decided by single digits — 30-23 over Butler in 2013 and 22-21 over this year's opening opponent, New Hampshire. But 13 was not lucky for the Big Green as the 11th-ranked Wildcats handed Dartmouth a 24-7 defeat.

Great Scott!

There is something about Wildcat Stadium that brings out the best in Paxton Scott. Two years ago, the senior wide receiver caught four passes for a season-high 92 yards, including a catch-and-run 52-yard touchdown. In his return trip for opening day, Scott outdid himself with career highs of 10 catches and 153 yards, the most yards for a Dartmouth receiver since the final game of the 2019 campaign. Among his catches was another long catch-and-spring, this time covering a career-long 69 yards to set up the lone Big Green touchdown against 11th-ranked New Hampshire. On top of all that, he became the 24th player in Dartmouth history to collect 1,000 receiving yards (now at 1,049). With seven more catches, he will become the 15th player to amass 100 in a Big Green career.

Macklin with the Smacklin

Agreed, that note headline is pretty lame. You come up with something better for senior line-backer Macklin Ayers for recording his first career sack at No. 11 New Hampshire while making a total of nine tackles and breaking up a pair of passes. Last year's Ivy League leader in tackles per game (10.0) is picking up right where he left off, leading the team thus far this year (7.0).

Mullen It Over

That is slightly better, don't you think? Junior LB Braden Mullen also registered a sack against the 11th-ranked Wildcats, plus led the team with 10 stops and added another tackle for a loss to his ledger. Those 10 tackles matched his career high set last year against Columbia. And to tie these last three notes together, Scott, Ayers and Mullen were all Academic All-District I selections last season.

Mistakes Prove Costly at UNH

When playing a nationally ranked team, mistakes on the field are difficult to overcome, something Dartmouth discovered the hard way. The Big Green committed three turnovers without getting one of their own, and those three giveaways turned into 10 Wildcat points. Dartmouth also had a pair of long runs called back — one which ended in the end zone — due to holding penalties. The Big Green had not coughed up the ball three times in any game since the 27-10 win over Princeton at Yankee Stadium in 2019, a span of 22 games, and then did so again the following week against Lehigh, though those turnovers did not matter in the 34-17 victory.

INTERIM HEAD COACH

Sammy McCorkle, who was on Buddy Teevens' staff since the head coach's return to Hanover in 2005, is filling in as the interim head coach for the 2023 season following Teevens' bicycle accident in March and subsequent passing on Sept. 19.

The 1996 graduate and three-time letter winner at the University of Florida is in his 19th year on the staff and helped guide the Big Green to the program's 20th Ivy League championship in 2021. From 2013-19, the Big Green were first or second in passes defended in the league, and his secondary was instrumental to the team's top-12 ranking in passing efficiency defense.

His special teams have excelled as well, ranking among the top 25 nationally in each of the four seasons in punt returns between 2017-21, including a pair of top-10 rankings.

McCorkle has coached eight players who have earned All-Ivy League First Team honors a total of 12 times, including two-time All-American CB Isiah Swann. No fewer than 25 of his defensive backs have received All-Ivy honors a combined 40 times, most recently safety Quentin Arelló '22 (second team) in 2022.

The Dartmouth defense was 13th nationally in scoring defense in 2022 after placing among the top three in the previous three seasons, and the 2021 squad ranked fourth in fewest passing yards. And in the previous campaign of 2019, McCorkle's players were quite opportunistic during the season with four pick-sixes among the five defensive scores, fourth among FCS programs.

In 2018, the defense ranked second nationally in fewest points allowed and red zone defense, and fourth in total defense as Dartmouth finished the season ranked 15th in the coaches' poll. Three years prior, the squad led the nation in those first two categories and was also fourth in total defense as the Big Green won a share of its first conference crown in 19 years. Cornerback Vernon Harris '16 earned a spot on the All-Ivy First Team in 2014 and '15, and two-time co-captain Garrett Waggoner garnered first-team honors as a safety in both 2012 and '13. McCorkle also mentored one of the finest cornerbacks and return men in Dartmouth history in Shawn Abuhoff '12, who earned first-team All-Ivy honors at both positions in 2010 and 2011.

In 2003-04, McCorkle was the head coach at Martin County High in Stuart, Florida. In 2003, he led Martin County to its best record in 10 years.

McCorkle previously coached at UT Martin, working with the secondary in 2000 before serving as the defensive coordinator (2001-02). From 1997-99, McCorkle was a graduate assistant at his alma mater, assisting the secondary and special teams coaches while also scouting opponents.

During the 1996-97 academic year, McCorkle taught PE while coaching the defensive backs and linebackers, and coordinating special teams at Spanish River High School in Boca Raton, Fla.

McCorkle was a standout defensive back on four SEC championship teams at Florida, competing in four bowl games (Gator, Sugar twice and Fiesta) and a national title game. McCorkle graduated with Florida's single-season and career records for blocked punts. He twice was named Florida's special teams player of the year.

He and his wife, Vicki, have three daughters, Madison, Allie and Campbell.

20-Time Ivy League Football Champion

BIG GREEN FOOTBALL 2023

Co-Captains

Dartmouth is employing four captains for just the fifth time in program history. Two of those captains — S Quinten Arello and QB Nick Howard, both fifth-year players — are the first teammates to serve together in that capacity a second time. Joining those veterans on the leadership team are senior LB Macklin Ayers and senior RB Tevita Moimoi.

Helmet Decals in 2023

Dartmouth will sport a pair of decals on their helmets to honor two members of the team. One will have “JB” for offensive lineman Josh Balara ’24, who passed away in March after battling cancer. The other will read “BT” for Buddy Teevens, who succumbed to injuries on Sept. 19 following a bicycle accident in March. The Big Green won’t be the only team sporting the BT decal as all eight Ivy League teams will wear it throughout the fall in a show of support.

728 Wins All-Time

Back in 2018, Dartmouth won its 700th game, becoming just the sixth FCS teams to reach the milestone. That win came two games after playing its 1,200th contest as well. Now after 140-plus seasons and 1,241 games, the Big Green have a record of 728-467-46, a winning percentage of .605. Only 19 FCS teams can boast a win percentage of .600 or better (minimum 10 seasons). And only five teams have more victories.

Greene on Good Works Team

Allstate and the America Football Coaches Association (AFCA) announced their annual Good Works Team to recognize 22 football student-athletes for their community service on Sept. 12, and fifth-year long snapper Josh Greene was among those selected for the prestigious team. Among his charitable works is founding Off the Bench Foundation, an organization that has collected and donated nearly $10,000 worth of sporting goods to the Boys & Girls Club in West Palm Beach since 2012.

A Decade-Plus of Success

Dartmouth football returned to prominence throughout the 2010s decade, recording a record of 70-30 (.700) over the 10 years. Only eight teams enjoyed a higher winning percentage in that span. And with a third consecutive 9-1 season in 2021, the Big Green enjoyed more victories over a span of three seasons (27), four (35), five (39), six (48) and seven (56) than at any point in their history. Dartmouth has also added three Ivy League titles since 2015 to boost its conference-record total to 20 crowns since the league first officially formed for the 1956 season.

Preseason Poll

The Ivy League Preseason Media Poll was revealed last month with Dartmouth picked to finish where it ended last year — in sixth place. But generally speaking, the media has a tendency to underestimate the Big Green; Dartmouth has finished higher than its prognosticated place in 11 of the last 13 years, including 2021 when the team ended up sharing the title after being picked third. The Green certainly plan on making that 12 of the last 14 years. The complete poll can be found on page seven of these notes.

20-Time Ivy League Football Champion

National Polls

The national polls don't generally give Dartmouth much credit in the preseason as well. But in three of the last four seasons, the Big Green have ended up ranked in the final polls, which counts quite a bit more. In 2018, the Big Green ended the season listed 15th by the coaches and 18th by Stats Perform. That AFCA ranking was the highest for Dartmouth since the Division I classification split into two subdivisions in 1978. In 2019, the Green managed to be ranked 21st by the AFCA and 22nd by Stats Perform. And just two years ago, Dartmouth ended the year 20th in the Stats Perform poll and 23rd by the AFCA. It marked the sixth time Dartmouth ended up in the final national FCS polls, the other years being 1990 (17th), 1996 (17th) and 2015 (23rd).

Still All-Time Ivy Champs

Since the Ivy League began play in 1956, no other school in the conference has won more football titles than Dartmouth with 20. The last time an Ancient Eight squad had more crowns than the Big Green was in 1961 when Yale had a grand total of two. The next season, Dartmouth equaled that amount and has never looked up at another team since. But Penn isn't far behind with 18 titles, while Harvard and Yale both have 17.

Returning All-Ivy Performers

Dartmouth had five players earn All-Ivy League honors after the 2022 season, three of which return to the field this fall. Safety Quinten Arello was a second-team selection, while OL Nicholas Schwitzgebel and TE Jace Henry received honorable mention. But the Green also have three others who have garnered All-Ivy consideration in previous years in QB Nick Howard on the first team, LB Marques White on the second team and WR Paxton Scott getting honorable mention, all in 2021.

Preseason All-Ivy Nods

Phil Steele released three preseason All-Ivy League teams with a dozen Big Green players listed, led by S Quinten Arello, LB Macklin Ayers and long snapper Josh Greene on the first team, while RB Q Jones, DE Charles Looes, OL Nicholas Schwitzgebel, WR Paxton Scott and DB Sean Williams were among those on the second team. The third team included QB Nick Howard, LB Braden Mullen, C Thomas Hartnett and OL Konstantin Spörk.

Shut-Down Defense

Dartmouth has become known for its stellar defense in recent years, ranking 13th among FCS teams in fewest points allowed last year after finishing second in both 2018 and 2019 and third in 2021.

Howard Climbing the Charts

Quarterback Nick Howard entered the 2023 season 11th on Dartmouth's all-time scoring list with 144 points thanks to 24 touchdowns over the past two seasons. After gaining 62 yards on the ground at UNH, he jumped five spots on the career rushing yards list into 20th with 1,374. Another 438 would vault him into the Big Green top four.

Last to Kick Off

The Ivy League football schedule always starts a couple weeks after the rest of Division I, and the Big Green are no strangers to watching everyone else play before it kicks off. For the sixth time since 2012, Dartmouth was the last NCAA team to begin its season with the 6 p.m. kickoff in the Granite Bowl.

20-Time Ivy League Football Champion

BIG GREEN FOOTBALL 2023

DARTMOUTH ON TELEVISION

49-64-1

Dartmouth football teams have played before live television cameras 114 times since 1953 when the Big Green met Holy Cross at Manning Bowl in Lynn, Massachusetts, in the first New England college game televised nationally.

The 1953 game, won by the Crusaders, 28-6, was carried on NBC's 82-station network as part of the NCAA's restricted television agreement but wasn't seen on the Dartmouth campus since there were no television stations serving northern New England at that time. The Dartmouth touchdown was scored by end Dave McLaughlin who later would serve as president of the college.

Frequently, during the early years of formal Ivy League football, Dartmouth played before major network regional audiences. Perhaps the most memorable game televised from Memorial Field in Hanover was the 1971 game with Cornell that was ABC-TV's prime regional game with the broadcast team of Chris Schenkel, Bill Fleming and Bud Wilkinson. Cornell was undefeated and led by Heisman Trophy candidate Ed Marinaro. Dartmouth won, 24-14.

Dartmouth's record in televised games is 49 wins, 64 losses and one tie. The Big Green has a 25-36-0 record in games televised at Memorial Field.

BIG GREEN FOOTBALL 2023 BOX SCORES

GRANITE BOWL GOES TO NO. 11 NEW HAMPSHIRE
IN 24-7 OPENING DAY DEFEAT

DURHAM, N.H. — With winds gusting up over 30 miles an hour, the 11th-ranked New Hampshire Wildcats pulled away late from visiting Dartmouth on Saturday evening, taking a 24-7 decision over the Big Green at Wildcat Stadium to retain the Granite Bowl trophy. Dylan Laube had 180 rushing yards and scored a pair of touchdowns — one on the ground and one through the air — to lead UNH (2-1) to a victory in its home opener, while Paxton Scott had a career-high 153 receiving yards on nine grabs to lead Dartmouth (0-1) in its season opener.

“We played hard and fast, but we had some penalties and mistakes that put us in tough situations at times,” said interim head coach Sammy McCorkle after his first game at the helm of the Big Green. “We had our chances; we have the skills and the toughness to compete with any team, but we have to correct those mistakes, particularly against a team as good as New Hampshire. But one game does not make a season.”

The Big Green offense struggled through most of the first three quarters and trailed by a 10-0 count before Scott gave the team the jolt it was looking for. Quarterback Dylan Cadwallader found him between a seam 15 yards down the left sideline, and Scott sprinted all the way to the 10 before being corralled for a 69-yard gain. Two plays later, Q Jones burrowed his way up the middle for a 4-yard touchdown run on the first play of the fourth quarter, suddenly bringing Dartmouth within three points.

A personal foul call after the touchdown, however, meant the Big Green had to kick off into the wind from their own 20. The squib kick was downed near midfield, and six plays later facing 3rd-and-4, Wildcat quarterback Max Brosmer — who was limited to a mere 67 passing yards while completing 11-of-23 throws — used Laube as a decoy on a keeper. He then was able to sprint 31 yards to the end zone, boosting the UNH lead back to 10 at 17-7 with 12:16 to play.

On Dartmouth’s ensuing possession, the Green also faced a crucial third-down situation at midfield. The snap one-hopped Cadwallader, and he was hit as he released his pass, allowing Max Oxendine to pluck the ball from the air and return the interception 43 yards down to the Dartmouth 27. Laube needed five rushes to cover those 27 yards, the last on a 4th-and-1 at the 2 for his second score of the night and a 24-7 advantage with 10:43 remaining.

Twice the Big Green drove into Wildcat territory in the final minutes, but turned the ball over on downs both times before UNH ran out the final 1:17 off the clock to close out its victory.

Both teams had scoring opportunities in the opening quarter but came away empty. On their initial drive, the Big Green got as far as the UNH 22 before lining up for a 44-yard field goal. The Wildcats blasted through the line, however, allowing Randall Harris to block the kick, and Oxendine scooped the ball up. Only a tackle by Cadwallader (the holder on the attempt) at the Wildcat 47 kept Oxendine from taking the loose ball all the way to the end zone.

New Hampshire responded by marching down to the 2-yard line, but a dropped pass in the end zone on third down followed by a terrific pass breakup by cornerback Leonard St. Gourdin kept the game scoreless.

Once the field flipped to start the second quarter and the Wildcats had the wind at their back, they were able to put the first points of the game on the scoreboard on a 4-yard pass to Laube, his first of six catches for 31 yards on the evening. New Hampshire added a 33-yard field goal in the final minute before halftime to take a 10-point lead into the locker room.

Cadwallader finished the night 16-of-30 through the air for 195 yards, 153 of those going to Scott on a career-best 10 receptions. Scott’s total also pushed him past 1,000 yards for his career, becoming the 24th player in Dartmouth history to reach the milestone. The other half of the Big Green quarterback tandem, Nick Howard, ran for 62 yards on 10 carries while Jones amassed 55 yards on 14 rushes.

Linebackers Braden Mullen and Macklin Ayers led the Dartmouth defense with 10 and nine tackles, respectively, and each recorded a sack while the latter broke up a pair of passes as well. Joe Eichman led the Wildcats with eight tackles, 1.5 going for a loss while helping out on the lone sack.

When asked about how the team will consider this game going forward, safety and co-captain Quinten Arelló said, “Wipe it. Move on from it. We’ll study the film, note our mistakes and how to correct them, then wipe it. We have nine more games this season, and we expect to surprise some people. We know what we are capable of, we just need to execute better.”

Notes: The loss snapped Dartmouth’s 12-game winning streak in season openers, which was the longest among FCS schools entering the season ... UNH won its second straight in the series and holds a 21-19-2 advantage all-time between the only two Division I football teams in the state ... the Big Green have lost three consecutive non-conference games after winning the last 20 prior to this recent skid ... Dartmouth piled up more total yards on the night, 314-274, but the Wildcats won the battle of the clock, holding the ball for 33:26 ... both teams racked up eight penalties with the Big Green losing 70 yards and UNH 80.

BIG GREEN FOOTBALL 2023

DARTMOUTH WINS HOME OPENER OVER LEHIGH
WITH HEAVY HEARTS, 34-17

DURHAM, N.H. — With the passing of Buddy Teevens, the Robert L. Blackman Head Football Coach at Dartmouth, just four days past, the Big Green were able to control the game against Lehigh, running 30 more plays than the visitor as the Big Green (1-1) finished off their home opener with a 34-17 victory over the Mountain Hawks (1-3). The win was the first for interim head coach Sammy McCorkle, who took over leading the team after Teevens' bicycle accident back in March.

"I'm just so proud of the players," McCorkle said during a postgame press conference. "They did a phenomenal job. Everything we've asked them to do, they've done it. They are a fun group to coach, and I enjoy celebrating a win with our players and our coaches. Everyone has put in a lot of time and effort, and we know we have to continue to do that going forward."

Dylan Cadwallader completed 16-of-19 passes, one of which was a 7-yard fade into the end zone to give Dartmouth the lead just before halftime as Dartmouth racked up more than twice as many yards (346-169).

The ground game was running full force for the Big Green as Q Jones just missed out on his second career 100-yard game, taking the ball 17 times for 99 yards including a 10-yard touchdown late in the third quarter that boosted the lead to 21 points. Nick Howard ran for 70 yards on 16 carries, two of which ended in the end zone for his 11-career game with at least two touchdowns runs as Dartmouth finished the day with 219 rushing yards.

Cadwallader added 110 more yards and his scoring strike to the Big Green ledger through the air, and Howard added another 20 on 5-of-7 throws. Jones was the most frequent target with five grabs for a modest 21 yards, and Isaac Boston hauled in four more for a team-high 45 yards as nine different players caught at least one pass.

With the game tied at 10, Sean Williams returned a punt 17 yards (a warmup for a 35-yard return in the second half) to the Dartmouth 33 with 3:07 remaining until halftime. Cadwallader proceeded to guide the team methodically down the field in 11 plays, completing all six of his tosses along the way while Jones and Howard added runs of 11 and 12 yards, respectively. On first-and-goal from the 7, Cadwallader dropped a beautiful pass to Paxton Scott in stride in the back corner of the end zone with 35 seconds to spare for a 17-10 lead at the intermission.

Two plays proved to be difference makers in the third quarter, giving the ball to the Green deep in Lehigh territory. The second half began with five consecutive punts, but shortly after Williams' 35-yard return to midfield, Lehigh cornerback Donovan Lassiter intercepted a deep pass at its own five. That momentum shift lasted about as long as this sentence as cornerback Leonard St. Gourdin punched the ball free from quarterback Brayten Silbor at the Mountain Hawk 16, where Big Green defensive end Ejike Adele covered it up. Five rushes later, Howard had his second 1-yard touchdown run of the game for a 24-10 advantage.

When Lehigh failed to record a first down on its next possession, fifth-year senior Sam Koscho was there to block the punt. Though the Mountain Hawks recovered it and tried to advance the ball — even trying a lateral to get into open ground — Williams made the tackle a yard shy of the marker, allowing Dartmouth to take over at the Lehigh 32.

"We knew they were blocking down, and it was just a matter of hitting the line correctly to not waste an extra step to get to the punter," Koscho said. "Hats off to (special teams coach Joe) Castellitto for telling me where to be to get that punt block."

Jones quickly converted the field position into points for Dartmouth in the final minute of the third quarter, gobbling up 22 yards on the first play and the final 10 on the next for his first touchdown run of the season.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, nickel-back Tyson McCloud broke up a third-down pass, and linebacker Danny Cronin plucked the ball out of the air for his first career interception at the Mountain Hawk 36. Dartmouth expertly worked the clock, taking up nearly eight minutes to drive a mere 27 yards in 13 plays before settling for a 26-yard Owen Zalc field goal, essentially sealing the game with a 34-10 lead and just 6:55 to play.

Lehigh tacked on a late touchdown by recovering a muffed punt at the Big Green five and took advantage of a pass interference call in the end zone on third down before finally punching the ball in on a 2-yard run by Jack DiPietro.

There was also a Dartmouth miscue on the game's first drive that gave the Mountain Hawks a sudden 7-0 lead. The Big Green drove down inside the 10-yard line, but Howard got stood up at the line of scrimmage on a run and Dean Colton stripped the ball free. Logan Jones spotted the ball on the turf at the 8, scooped it up and ran untouched the length of the field for the touchdown.

That sudden setback didn't faze the Big Green offense, however, as the unit marched 75 yards in 12 plays on the very next drive to tie the score. A 29-yard strike from Cadwallader to Isaac Boston was the big play, and Howard bulled his way in from a yard out.

In the second quarter, the two teams traded field goals — a 35-yarder by Zalc, a 26-yard by Nick Garrido — before Cadwallader found Scott for the go-ahead score.

The Dartmouth defense was stifling, yielding just eight first downs, a paltry 52 rushing yards and just one third-down conversion in 10 opportunities. Williams and Leonard St. Gourdin supplied six tackles apiece to lead the team effort.

The two Lehigh quarterbacks, Silbor and Dante Perri, combined to complete 19-of-30 passes for 115 yards with one interception.

Notes: Dartmouth has won eight consecutive home openers ... the Big Green improved to 3-5 all-time against Lehigh, beating the Mountain Hawks for the first time in 27 years when Dartmouth was a perfect 10-0 ... this was the first meeting between the two teams since 1999 ... following the game, there was a gathering of remembrance for Teevens with the football team, Teevens family and numerous community members in attendance.
