Setting the Scene

The Dartmouth men's lacrosse team is set to play its second game in four days when the Big Green face Stony Brook on Tuesday night in a neutral-site game at Avon Old Farms in Connecticut. Dartmouth is coming off a thrilling 12-11 comeback win at Siena on Saturday, with sophomore Brandon Ventarola scoring the game-winning goal with 3:28 remaining.

Against the Saints, Dartmouth went down 5-0 for the second straight road game to begin the season. At Bucknell, the Big Green got back to within one, but couldn't get over the hump, but Dartmouth was able to break through at Siena. The Big Green responded from the five-goal deficit to score 11 of the next 14 goals to take an 11-8 lead. Siena scored three times in 4:17 to pull even before Ventarola's tremendous individual effort to give Dartmouth a 12-11 lead, which proved to be the final score.

Ironically, three of Dartmouth's four games this season have started with 5-0 scores — including the Big Green taking a 5-0 lead in their home opener against Holy Cross. At Siena, junior Colin McGill scored Dartmouth's first three goals coming in the span of 3:20 for his second hat trick of the season and 11th of his career. Sophomore Cameron Brown scored three goals to tie a career high while sophomore Hopper Zappitello tallied five points via two goals and three assists. Ventarola added three assists to go with his first goal of the season, the game-winner, marking his second game this season with 3+ helpers.

Fifth-year faceoff specialist Mitchell Myers enjoyed a strong game, and week. He was 14-of-19 with nine groundballs against the Saints, one game after an 11-for-19 effort against Lehigh.

Tuesday will mark the Big Green's final game for more than a week due to the final exam period at Dartmouth. It will also be Dartmouth's second straight opponent that advanced to its conference championship game last season. Siena advanced to the MAAC final last season, while Stony Brook reached the America East title game. The Big Green return to action on Mar. 14 at Vermont, then travel to Georgetown on Mar. 19 before hosting Penn in their Ivy League opener on Saturday, Mar. 23.

Notes

Last Time Out

LOUDONVILLE, N.Y. (3/2/24) — The Dartmouth men's lacrosse almost erased a 5-0 deficit in the season opener at Bucknell while on Saturday, the Big Green finished the comeback from a 5-0 hole, as they beat Siena in thrilling fashion, 12-11. Dartmouth held an 11-3 edge through the middle stages of the game to take an 11-8 lead, then after three consecutive Saints' goals, junior Brandon Ventarola scored the game-winning goal with 3:28 remaining behind an impressive individual effort.

All-Time vs. Stony Brook

The Big Green lead the all-time series with Stony Brook, 4-2. The teams last played on Mar. 28, 1998, an 18-8 Stony Brook victory on Long Island. Dartmouth's last win came on Mar. 31, 1996 on the road via a 15-11 final.

Scouting Stony Brook

Stony Brook stands 2-3 on the season and 1-0 in the America East. The Seawolves are coming off a 23-2 win over Hampton on Saturday, with their other win coming at Sacred Heart in the season opener (17-14). Last season, the Seawolves finished 9-7 and 5-2 in the America East, beating Drexel in the semifinals to advance to the championship game where it fell to Delaware.

Zappitello scored two goals and dished six assists, the most by a Big Green player since Ben Martin dished seven on Apr. 11, 2017 against UMass Lowell. He was one of just 10 student-athlete recognized across the country and one of only two from the Ivy League.
