Koenig Family Head Coach of Dartmouth Men's Hockey Reid Cashman

Reid Cashman

Head Coach - 6th Year, 5th Season
Alma Mater - Quinnipiac '07

Career Record: 57-73-16
Dartmouth Record: Same

Reid Cashman was named the Koenig Family Head Coach of Dartmouth Men's Hockey on June 1, 2020, becoming the 22nd head coach in program history.

2024-25: Cashman led the Big Green to a 18-13-2 record while capturing an Ivy League Championship. Dartmouth opened the season with a 5-0-1 record through six games. The Big Green cracked the top 20 in the national polls for the first time since the 2019-20 season. The Big Green were 8-2-0 in Ivy League play as Dartmouth captured its first outright title since the 1979-80 season and first Ivy League title since 2006-07. Dartmouth finished the regular season with a 12-9-1 ECAC record that landed the team as the fifth seed in the ECAC Postseason. The Big Green opened the ECAC Postseason with a 6-2 win over St. Lawrence in the ECAC Opening Round. For the second straight season, the Big Green and Union met in the ECAC Semifinals. The Big Green defeated the Garnet Chargers 3-2 in the first game and closed out the series with a 7-2 win in game two. Dartmouth moved on to the ECAC Semifinals for the second straight season.

2023-24: The Big Green had one of their most successful years in recent history. Finishing the regular season at 13-10-9 on a six game win streak, the men's hockey team earned an opening round bye in the ECAC Hockey playoffs for the first time since 2010-11, and punched their ticket to Lake Placid and championship weekend for the first time since 2015-16. In addition to being recognized for his efforts with the ECAC Hockey Time Taylor Coach of the Year Award, CJ Foley was named both the ECAC Hockey and Ivy League Rookie of the Year, as well as being named to the ECAC Hockey third and rookie teams and earning a unanimous first team All-Ivy selection. Cooper Black was named to the ECAC Hockey Second Team as well as signing an NHL contract with the Florida Panthers. Luke Haymes was named to the ECAC Hockey First Team and earned a unanimous first team Ivy League selection.

2022-23: The men's hockey team went 5-24-1 in Cashman's third year at the helm. They collected dominant wins over Yale twice in regular season action, also adding a third win over the Bulldogs during the Ledyard Classic. Tanner Palocsik and Luke Haymes earned Ivy League recognition, landing a spot on the second team and honorable mention team. Palocsik was also recognized by ECAC Hockey, earning a spot on their third team while first-year Cooper Black earned a spot on the rookie team.

2021-22: In Cashman's first real season leading the team due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Big Green posted a 7-22-3 record. They swept the season series with Princeton, collecting 7-3 and 2-0 victories. While they took the first game of the ECAC Hockey Opening Round playoffs at Rensselaer, they dropped the final two games of the best of three series. Five members of the Big Green did earn postseason recognition though. Clay Stevenson was placed on the All-Ivy First Team and both the ECAC Hockey third and rookie teams. Sean Chisholm and Harrison Markell earned Ivy League Honorable Mention recognition. He came to Dartmouth after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant coach with the Washington Capitals of the National Hockey League (NHL).

A former defenseman, Cashman is a 2007 graduate of Quinnipiac, where he was an All-American, a First-Team All-ECAC Hockey selection and a Hobey Baker Top-10 Finalist (2005). Following his professional playing career, he returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach, helping the Bobcats reach two Frozen Fours in 2013 and 2016.

While in the Washington organization, Cashman was integral in bringing along the franchise's young talent, as he was responsible for building staff and running the Capitals' Development Camps. On the bench with the Caps, Cashman oversaw the defense and penalty kill. Under his guidance this season, Washington blueliner John Carlson was the NHL leader in both points (75) and assists (60) by a defenseman at the time of the stoppage. Before making it to the NHL on Todd Reirden's staff, he was an assistant with the Hershey Bears — the Capitals' AHL affiliate — for two seasons.
