OH CAPTAIN MY CAPTAIN

- The Pioneers are captained by redshirt senior Francesca Garzelloni, who enters this match with the program on 69 CAPS, starting 66 of the matches.
- As a freshman in 2012, Garzelloni started the side's first four matches before missing the rest of the season with an injury (foot).
- Garzelloni leads the 2016 roster in career goals with 10 to go along with eight assists for a team-leading 28 points.
- The do-it-all midfielder is a two-time First Team All-Summit League selection, and a two-time Summit League All-Tournament team pick.

SIXTH ANNUAL COLORADO CUP

- The tournament started with just four teams for three years between 2011-13.
- When Colorado State's women's program started ahead of the 2014 season, Air Force and CSU joined the tournament.
- The tournament was created by former Colorado coach and current Colorado State head coach Bill Hemen.
- Denver is 9-10 against Colorado teams since the tournament started in 2011.
- Denver won the 2013 Colorado Cup, and CU has won the other five...Had the Denver-Colorado match counted towards the Colorado Cup during the first three years, Denver would have won both the 2011 and 2012 Colorado Cups.

CIBER FIELD

- CIBER Field at the University of Denver Soccer Stadium opened in 2009.
- The 2,000 seat stadium hosts both the men's and women's soccer programs, and sits above the 10,000 square-foot Pat Bowlen Strength and Conditioning Complex.
- The stadium has hosted the 2009 MPSF Men's Soccer Tournament, 2014 Summit League Men's and Women's Championships and 2015 Summit League Men's Championship.
- CIBER Field has also hosted the 2012 NCAA Women's Soccer First Round and 2015 NCAA Men's Soccer Second Round.
- Denver's women's program is 51-13-3 since CIBER Field opened.

REAL COLORADO CONNECTION

- The Pioneers 2016 roster has 18 players from 13 different club teams.
- Real Colorado leads the way in numbers with four, one from each class.
- Freshman Brittany Wilson sophomore Hannah Bricker, junior Riley Welch, redshirt senior Francesca Garzelloni all played for the local club team.
- Denver also has a pair of players from Black Diamond Soccer Club (Utah) and the Colorado Storm.

Success continues for the women's soccer program under the direction of head coach Jeff Hooker. His presence at Denver serves as a symbol of commitment to the University's goal of joining the national elite. Hooker became the third head coach in the program's history, taking over the reins in 1992. He will begin his 25th season in charge of the Pioneers and coach his 500th women's match in 2016.

The Pioneers have achieved greatness under Hooker's watch with at least eight wins in 23 of his 24 seasons, including 13 or more wins in seven of the last nine seasons. Since 2006, the Pioneers have gone 152-49-17 overall and 80-14-5 in the conference play, while becoming the first team in history to win four-straight SBC Tournament titles and berths in the NCAA Tournament. Hooker's teams compiled a school-record 19 wins in 2006, 2008 and 2010.

Hooker's 24th season was his toughest to date as the Pioneers finished 4-12-1 with all four Denver wins coming in Summit League play. The Pioneers finished fifth in the league standings in 2016.

In his 23rd campaign with the program, and Denver's second season in the Summit League, a young Pioneer squad finished 10-8-2 and 5-3-0 in the Summit League. The 10 wins extended Hooker's double-digit streak to nine-consecutive seasons. Denver's season concluded in similar heartbreak to the 2010 campaign, as the Pioneers dropped a penalty shootout in the Summit League Championship to South Dakota State.

In their first season in The Summit League, the Pioneers swept the regular season and tournament titles, winning all nine matches against conference opposition. Hooker was named co-coach of the year in the conference, his 10th coaching honor. For the second season in a row, CIBER Field hosted a first round NCAA Tournament contest, a match Denver dropped 1-0.

The 2012 Pioneers not only reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2009, but advanced to the NCAA Round of 16 for the first time in program history. Hooker was named the Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, leading the program to a 17-3-4 overall record and a 6-2-0 mark in the WAC. Kristen Hamilton was named the WAC Player of the Year and was joined by six other Pioneers on WAC all-conference teams in 2012. Denver hosted its first NCAA Tournament game in first season, earning a 3-1 result over Colorado College in the NCAA First Round. The Pioneers followed that up with a trip to Stanford, Calif., where DU erased a two-goal deficit to upset No. 4 Maryland 3-2 in extra time. Kaitlin Bast became the third player in program history to join the 100-point club in that NCAA Tournament win over Colorado College. Bast finished her career with 104 points.

In 2011, Denver finished 16-5-0 (.762) overall and 9-2-0 (.818) in its final year in the SBC. The Pioneers earned a 2-0 win in the Sun Belt Conference Quarterfinals, before falling to Florida International 3-1 in the semifinals. Hamilton was named the SBC Player of the Year. Hamilton and sophomore Nicholette DiGiacomo both earned spots on the NCAA All-South Region First Team. Freshman Sam Harder was named to the NCAA All-South Region Second Team. Six Pioneers received SBC All-Conference awards. Katy Van Lieshout and Kari Storslett earned CoSIDA Academic All-American First Team honors.

A native of Walnut, Calif., Hooker was revered as one of the finest prep players in the nation and was selected to the Junior National Team in 1983. When the team toured Mexico, Hooker started at striker, scoring in his first-ever international contest in the Youth World Cup. His collegiate playing career at UCLA was limited because of national team commitments in the under-19 World Cup, but he was able to play 51 games during his three-year stint with the Bruins, recording 20 goals and 11 assists. Hooker was also a member of the 1984 Olympic soccer team and remained a prominent member of the U.S. National Team through 1987.

PIONEERS LOOK TO FOUR SENIORS

- Redshirt seniors Karina Fredette and Francesca Garzelloni and true seniors Lilly McSwain and Cassidy Rey look to turn the ship around in their final year of eligibility... Denver's senior class has combined for 232 CAPS and 167 starts.
- Fredette has four goals in a Denver kit, including one this season (at Arizona State - 9/4)... The Wisconsin Green Bay has 56 NCAA CAPS heading into her final campaign...Fredette was named to the Summit League Second Team in 2015.
- McSwain has 54 CAPS, including nine starts in 2015. In 2014, McSwain tallied two assists in 2014 and the senior tallied her first of the season on Fredette's goal at ASU.
- Rey has made 55 CAPS, starting 51 of those matches...Rey has kept a 1.16 goals against average in her career, including a 0.52 GAA in 2013 that earned her Summit League Goal-keeper of the Year.
- Denver has tallied a 37-29-4 record since the beginning of the 2013 campaign.
- The Pioneers 2014 senior class finished 61-18-7, the 13th-best output in the nation.

THE TWO CS

- 12 of Denver's 18 players are from either Colorado or California, including eight from the state of Colorado.
- Denver's other six players reside from Utah (3), New Mexico, Wisconsin and Quebec.

DENVER'S JUNIOR CLASS READY FOR UPPERCLASSMAN ROLE

- Makenzie Bothner, Jessie Dancy, Kendall Mulvaney, Angelica Pacheco and Riley Welch make up Denver's five-player junior class. Three of the juniors combined for the game-winner in Denver's 1-0 win over Northern Colorado (9/8).
- The class has combined for 162 CAPS and 84 starts in their first two years with the program.
- Bothner has started in Denver's defense in 46 of her 49 CAPS...The Park City, Utah, native has a goal and four assists in her career, including a game-winner against Iowa State in 2014...Bothner is second among field players with 4418 minutes played.
- Dancy has seen 1798 minutes for Hooker's side, making 46 appearances and 13 starts at forward, including eight starts in 2016.
- Mulvaney has battled injuries through her first two years and has not made an appearance.
- Pacheco had earned 35 CAPS, and scored a goal in her 3 appearances in 2014.
- Welch broke through the starting XI in 2015, making 19 starts in 31 appearances...The Littleton, Colo., native scored two goals and tallied two assists in 1253 minutes of action in her first two seasons. Welch recorded her first assist of 2016 on Sept. 4 at Arizona State.

SOPHOMORES SET FOR KEY ROLE IN 2016

- Cristiana Behnken, Hannah Bricker, Courtney Coffey, Mary DeWalt and Leah Swander combined for 88 CAPS and 62 starts in their freshman seasons, with all five earning places in Hooker's Starting XI throughout the season. The group has now combined for 121 CAPS and 74 starts.
- Behnken, Coffey and DeWalt played in all 17 matches in their rookie seasons.
- Behnken led the 2015 freshmen in starts with 16 and earned a spot on the 2015 Summit League All-Freshmen Team...She made her season debut on Sept. 4 after recovering from a preseason injury.
- Bricker has made 21 career appearances, starting 12 of those matches in the center of Denver's defense.
- Coffey, another Colorado native, led her high school team in scoring in 2012 (also led in assists) and 2014, finishing as an all-conference selection both seasons. Coffey made 11 starts for Hooker's side, tallying an assist in 799 minutes...She will miss the 2016 season (knee).
- DeWalt, a four-sport high school athlete was named to her All-Area team, and won the Golden Boot award and earned first-team all-conference honors. DeWalt also had a single assist in 893 minutes for the Pioneers in 2015, making 10 starts in her freshman season. The sophomore netted her first career goal in Denver's 3-1 upset of [RV] Arizona State.
- Swander, a Grand Junction product, spent two seasons with the U.S. Youth Academy, and scored the most goals of any 5A freshman in Colorado in 2012. Swander led the team with 29 shots and made eight starts a year ago. Swander netted her first career goal in Denver's 2-1 win over SIUE.

PIONEERS ADD FOUR FRESHMEN TO 2016 ROSTER

- A pair of Colorado products and California recruits make-up Jeff Hooker's 2016 freshmen class.
- Goalkeeper Brittany Wilson, a Littleton native, played her club soccer for Real Colorado and also made appearances with the United State Women's Youth National Team...Wilson earned three call-ups with the National Team; two with the U-19s and an August, 2015 call-up with the U-20s.
- Heather Turcios has earned a call-up with the U-20 El Salvador Women's National Team. Turcios scored six goals and tallied six assists in 2015 at Flintridge Sacred Heart Academy.
- Cheyenne Shorts is Denver's other Colorado freshmen in 2016, a three-year center back for the Colorado Olympic Development program and a four-year starter at Denver East.
- Central midfielder and Real So Cal product Hannah Adler surpassed the 100 point mark in her high school career last season, leading Oak Park High School to over 60 wins in her career...Adler was a 2015 California All-Star selection, two-time all-conference selection and appeared in the IMG Academy 150 player pool.

DENVER DOUBLES UP IUPUI IN INDY

INDIANAPOLIS – The University of Denver women's soccer team stayed perfect in Summit League play with a 2-1 win over IUPUI on Sunday afternoon at Michael A. Carroll Stadium.

"Today was a great road victory and a fantastic start to Summit League play this weekend," 25th year head coach Jeff Hooker said. "This important start to our group is a tribute to how hard we worked over the weekend. We absorbed their initial pressure for the first 10 minutes, but once we got the ball on the ground and started knocking it around we felt better about our standing in the match. Both goals were really nice pieces of build-up play and we capitalized with terrific finishes on those opportunities."

Junior Jessie Dancy (Park City, Utah) and freshman Hannah Adler (Oak Park, Calif.) scored the two goals for Denver (5-7-0, 2-0-0 Summit) and freshman Brittany Wilson (Littleton, Colo.) made five saves, one shy of her season high.

After fending off an early push from the home side, the Pioneers had a good bit of possession after the half hour mark and capitalized with the Dancy breakthrough. Junior forward Angelica Pacheco (Taos, N.M.) and redshirt-senior captain Francesca Garzelloni (Parker, Colo.) both got shots off, but had them both blocked. After recycling their runs, Adler and junior outside back Makenzie Bothner (Park City, Utah) connected passes and played in a cross to Dancy, who headed her second career goal from in close to give the Pioneers the lead.

IUPUI (7-5-1, 1-1-0 Summit) had a 7-5 advantage in shots and a 3-1 edge in corners going into the locker room, but the Dancy opener was the difference on the scoreboard at the intermission.

Adler doubled the Pioneers advantage on the other side of the intermission, toepoking a Pacheco pass from 10-yards out to beat Catherine Schmidt on 50 minutes. The freshman's goal is her second of the season, and Pacheco's assist was her second of the season and the second of the junior's career.

The Jaguars pegged one back in the 62nd minute through Catherine Raster's seventh of the season. Raster found the back of the net from 18 yards out after Wilson was pulled away from her line. Hayley Shelton and Krissy Kirkhoff were credited with assists pulling Wilson out of the goal to help IUPUI cut the Denver lead in half.

"Getting that two goal lead was important as we made several mistakes on their goal, giving up a breakaway," Hooker said. "Other than that moment, I'm very happy with how hard we worked out there today. We really earned this win this afternoon."

Adler nearly restored the two-goal lead right away, but her strike from just outside the box rattled the crossbar in the 65th minute.

DENVER – The University of Denver women's soccer program conceded two first half goals and fell to Colorado State 2-0 in the Colorado Cup opener on Friday night at CIBER Field at the University of Denver Soccer Stadium. "It was a similar first half to our scrimmage against Texas Tech last weekend," head coach Jeff Hooker said. "We started off great, but we have a tendency right now with some newer players in the back to drop and drop and drop. Hopefully we can look at film on that and correct it tomorrow."

BOULDER, Colo. – The University of Denver women's soccer program fell to 0-2 with a 3-0 setback to Colorado College on Sunday afternoon at Prentup Field in both teams second of three Colorado Cup matches in 2016. Denver will wrap-up its Colorado Cup when the Pioneers return to Boulder on Sept. 17 to take on Colorado.

DENVER – The University of Denver women's soccer team got first career tallies off the underside of the crossbar from senior defensive midfielder Lilly McSwain (Glenwood Springs, Colo.) and sophomore Leah Swander (Grand Junction, Colo.) to send the Pioneers past SIU-Edwardsville 2-1 on Friday night at CIBER Field at the University of Denver Soccer Stadium.

DENVER – The University of Denver women's soccer team created six second half chances, but couldn't find the equalizer as the Pioneers fell to Montana 1-0 on Sunday afternoon at CIBER Field at the University of Denver Soccer Stadium. "We played okay today, but not as well as we did on Friday and the result showed it," head coach Jeff Hooker said. "I thought we had a little more intensity on Friday. On their goal, we let them switch the ball too easily and let them create a 2v1 which just led to mistake after mistake on that play, and they made us pay for it."

TEMPE, Ariz. – The University of Denver women's soccer team dropped a 3-0 neutral site result to [RV] Arizona on Friday night in game two of the Sun Devil Desert Classic. "We were outplayed in the first half and put ourselves in a hole that we weren't able to climb out of," head coach Jeff Hooker said. "I thought both keepers did a great job tonight of covering some mistakes we made in the back and took control of their box well. We need to move on from this result and focus on Sunday night."

TEMPE, Ariz. – The University of Denver women's soccer team got three goals from three different scorers to defeat a team that appeared in the NSCAA Poll for the first time since 2013 (1-0 at No. 17 BYU – 09/26/13), as the Pioneers took down [RV] Arizona State 3-1 in game four of the Sun Devil Desert Classic on Sunday night.

BOULDER, Colo. – The University of Denver women's soccer program held Colorado scoreless for 99 minutes, but CU's Danica Evans got on the end of a scrum in the box in the 100th minute to send the Buffs to a 1-0 win in both teams' final match of the Colorado Cup on Saturday afternoon at Prentup Field. "We played well and put ourselves in a position to win today," head coach Jeff Hooker said. "We had some good looks at goal, but the chances that we had we just didn't take well. We didn't have that one player to step up and finish today."
