HITTING TWO HUNDRED

- The Pioneers have three attackers that have recorded 200 or more kills this season - Ava Reynolds, Genevieve Lewis and Jamia Johnson.
- Johnson is the newest member of the 200 kills club, exceeding her 174 kill total from last season.

BALANCED ATTACK

- Denver has three players averaging 2.35 kills/set or more: Ava Reynolds, Genevieve Lewis and Jamia Johnson.
- Reynolds, Lewis and Johnson have all surpassed their kill totals from the 2024 season
- Both Kate Perryman and Alicia Thibodeau have recorded 100+ kills this season.
- Perryman has exceeded 100 kills in a single season for the first time in her career.
- Freshman Thibodeau has made a strong start to her career with 136 kills and 1.97 kills/set.

REACHING THE SUMMIT

- Denver ranks in the top half in the Summit League in nine different statistical categories: opponent digs, opponent service aces, service aces, kills, opponent kills, assists, opponent assists, hitting percentage and opponent hitting percentage.
- The Pioneers lead the League in opponent digs (11.17 digs/set) and opponent service aces (1.16).
- Denver's 0.251 hitting percentage is good for second in the conference and the highest under third year head coach Megan Pendergast.

MO IN THE MIDDLE

- Izabela Molina broke the single game hitting percentage record, hitting .900 with 9 kills on 10 attempts on Nov. 1 vs. North Dakota.
- Molina ranks fourth in the conference with a .335 hitting percentage and averages 0.75 blocks/set.

- Lost in Semifinal in 2021 to South Dakota State.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Former Pioneer libero Gianna Bartalo enters her first season on Megan Pendergast's staff in 2025 as an assistant coach.

"We're stoked to bring Gianna Bartalo home," Pendergast said. "Her love for this program and deep understanding of what makes Denver special is rare, and something we're incredibly proud to have on staff. Gi went through a competitive interview process and earned this opportunity every step of the way. She'll lead the defensive side of the ball, where her volleyball IQ and firsthand knowledge of what it takes to win here will be immediately felt across our program."

Bartalo led Denver in digs starting libero in 2021, 2022 and 2023 and ranks eighth all time in Denver program history with 1,202 career digs. In her final season at Cal, Bartalo posted 468 digs, good for the eighth-highest in a single season and fourth-best in the ACC.

"Margaret Dean brings a wealth of experience and a true winner's mentality to our program," Pendergast said. "She's been successful everywhere she's been, and that championship mindset is something we value deeply. Margaret will be instrumental in running our offense and mentoring our setters. Her dynamic energy, ability to connect with people, and infectious personality make her not only an incredible coach but an immediate culture-builder in our gym."

Dean joins the Pioneers after spending the last year as the Director of Volleyball Operations at Mississippi State where she coordinated the program's summer camps and oversaw the day-to-day operations of the MSU Volleyball team.

The MSU alum led the Bulldogs to a historic 25-6 season and first ever NCAA Tournament appearance in 2021.

HEAD COACH MEGAN PENDERGAST (3RD SEASON)

Megan Pendergast will enter her third season at the helm of the University of Denver volleyball program in 2025.

In her second season at the helm, Pendergast led the Pioneers to a 13-15 record and owns a 27-27 overall record.

Under Pendergast the Pioneers made a second-straight Summit League Tournament Semifinals appearance. DU had three All-Summit League selections in Cassie Davis, Molly Mirabelli and Jamia Johnson.

In her first season with the Pioneers, Pendergast and her team earned a part of a four-way tie for the Summit League Regular Season Championship, and a Summit League Tournament Semifinals appearance.

The Denver program continued to grow under Pendergast's leadership, with five All-Summit League selections. The Pioneers led the conference in blocks with an average 2.44 blk/s and aces with 1.85 avg/s. Cassie Davis highlighted the offensive front, finishing first in the league in kills per set (3.60) and points per set (4.30).

Pendergast, a long-time assistant at UCLA, Oklahoma and Tulsa, has been named the eighth head coach of the University of Denver women's volleyball program, Vice Chancellor for Athletics and Ritchie Center Operations Josh Berlo announced on June 12

In her career as an assistant coach, Pendergast helped her teams to a 166-104 record (nine seasons), including 103-71 in conference games and 73-41 in home contests. Under long-time Bruins' head coach Michael Sealy in the final three years of his career, Pendergast helped UCLA to a 59-25 record, including 43-17 in the Pac-12. In those three seasons, the Bruins won at least one game in each of their three NCAA Tournament appearances and made it all the way to the regional semifinals in their final season in Westwood, the program's first round of 16 appearance since 2017. In addition to her assistant coaching responsibilities, Pendergast served as the program's recruiting coordinator.

Prior to her three seasons at UCLA, Pendergast spent a year on the Oklahoma coaching staff, helping guide the Sooners to a 17-11 mark in 2018, the program's best record since 2014. The Sooners' defense was 40th in the country and fourth in the Big 12 in blocks per set.

Pendergast arrived in Norman after four seasons as an assistant at Tulsa (2014-17), helping the Golden Hurricane to a 71-56 record in the program's first four years in the American Athletic Conference. In her final season in Tulsa in 2017, Pendergast helped coach a defense that finished 17th in the country in digs per set (17.83).

The League City, Texas, native played two seasons at Nebraska before spending the second half of her collegiate career at her parents' and sister's alma mater, Texas A&M. In her two years with the Aggies, Pendergast played 61 matches as the team's libero, posting 860 digs and 154 assists. Pendergast's 441 digs in her 2012 senior season were, at the time, good for seventh in Texas A&M's record book.

"Megan is a well-established Division I volleyball assistant with a bright future as a head coach. Her career has prepared her for this moment to lead the proud Pioneer Volleyball program," said Vice Chancellor for Athletics and Ritchie Center Operations Josh Berlo. "All the people we've talked to about Megan reference her exceptional knowledge of the game, commitment to academic
