PAST, PRESENT, FUTURE

- Denver won a fourth consecutive Big East tournament title on the heels of a fifth-consecutive undefeated Big East slate.
- The Pioneers defeated the Stanford Cardinal in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. DU advanced to the second round of the national tournament for an eighth consecutive time in as many tries. The Crimson and Gold fell to eventual national runner-up, Northwestern, 4-17, in Evanston, Illinois.
- DU will open its 2025 campaign with a weekend roadtrip on February 7. The Pios will take on Louisville to start the season before travelling to Columbus, Ohio for a game against the Buckeyes.
- Denver will play its first game at Peter Barton Lacrosse Stadium on February 16 against Vanderbilt.
- The 2025 Crimson and Gold schedule features six opponents in the national rankings and receiving votes including home games in March against No. 3 Michigan, Fairfield (RV), and No. 14 Stony Brook.

NOTES (CONTINUED)

LAST TIME VS LOUISVILLE

- The Pioneers defeated the Cardinal, 16-8, in their 2024 season opener at Peter Barton Lacrosse Stadium.
- Denver outshot Louisville, 38-23 and won the battle in the circle, 14-12.
- Ryan Dineen tallied a hat trick in the season opener and Olivia Ripple recorded a pair of goals in her collegiate debut against the Cardinal.

LAST TIME VS OHIO STATE

- The Pioneers defeated the Buckeyes, 15-5 at Peter Barton Lacrosse Stadium.
- Denver outshot Ohio State, 44-19 and won the battle in the circle, 16-7.
- Olivie Ripple recorded a hat trick featuring two man-down goals.

2025 CAPTAINS

- The Pioneers selected redshirt senior Raegan Wilson and seniors Lauren Black and Caroline Colimore as captains for the 2025 season.
- Wilson missed the part of the 2024 season due to injury but appeared in 14 games for the Pioneers.
- Black was third on the Pioneers, recording 59 points on 38 goals and 21 assists. The New Westminster, British Columbia native was an All-Big East First team selection a year ago as well as the 2022 Big East Freshman of the Year. She also brings international experience to the Pioneers, having played for Team Canada last summer.
- Colimore started in all 20 games for the Pioneers last season and was third on the squad with 30 goals and six assists. The midfielder recorded 10 multi-goal games and a career-high four goals in the Big East title game against Connecticut. The Maryland native was a 2024 All-Big East First team selection.

PRESEASON ALL AMERICANS

- Three Pioneers were named to the USA Lacrosse Preseason All-Americans list: senior attacker Lauren Black, junior attacker Ryan Dineen and junior defender Megan Klingenberg.
- Black was an All-Big East first team selection a year ago, led the conference with four game-winning goals and recorded goals against seven nationally ranked opponents this season. Black won a silver medal with Team Canada at the 2024 World Lacrosse U20 Championship this summer.
- Dineen was fourth on the Pioneers' squad with 56 points with 24 goals and 32 assists. Dineen earned a season-high seven points against Stanford in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and recorded hat tricks on three separate occasions.
- Klingenberg started in all 22 games for Denver, recording 22 ground balls and 23 caused turnovers during the 2024 campaign.

EVANSTON, Ill. - The University of Denver women's lacrosse team fell to the top-seeded Northwestern Wildcats on Sunday afternoon in Evanston, Illinois.

The Pioneers dropped the second round matchup 4-17.

Graduate student attacker Julia Gilbert's team-high two goals put her in a tie a top the record books with 202 career goals. Sloane Kipp and Lauren Black tallied the other two goals for Denver. Olivia Penoyer finished the her Pioneer with 56 assists, the second most ever by a member of the Crimson and Gold in a single season.

Denver finished the season 16-4, including its a seventh-consecutive undefeated Big East Conference season, Big East regular season and tournament titles. The Pioneers only losses came against top-10 teams in Michigan, Maryland and Northwestern.

NOTES:

Gilbert extended her team-high point streak to 42 games, posting 136 points in 119 goals and 19 assists in that span.

The Mclean, Virginia native tied for first in the record books with 202 career goals, only the second player in program history to hit 200-goal milestone.

Her 62 goals this season are the fourth-most ever by a Pioneer. Penoyer moves into second in program history with 56 assists this season. Her 82 points are seventh-most by a Pioneer in a single-season.

Sam Thacker is second all-time with 179 career ground balls. Her 186 career caused turnovers are the most ever recorded by a member of the Crimson and Gold. She owns the second-most career ground balls with 179.

Bryn McCaughey is now sixth with 97 career-caused turnovers. Gilbert, Thacker, McCaughey, Abby Jenkins and Anna Palmisano make up five of the top-10 most games played in the Crimson and Gold, with Gilbert atop the leader board with 88 career games.

Palmisano and Thacker are tied for the program record, both starting in 81 games over the course of their careers.
