NOTES (CONTINUED)

WULBRUN'S FOURTH YEAR

- Head coach Jeff Wulbrun is in his fourth season in charge of the Denver men's basketball program in 2024-25.
- Wulbrun led the Pios to 11 wins in 2021-22, the most by the program since the 2017-18 season. The nine win improvement tied for the best in the program's Division I era.
- Denver earned 15 wins in 2022-23, winning eight of the first nine out of the gate, the best start to a season in the program's DI history.
- Denver had 17 wins last season and earned the program's first Summit League Tournament wins since 2018, and made the first conference final since 2005.
- Prior to joining the Pioneers, Wulbrun had nearly three decades of experience as an assistant at Stanford, UAB, Va. Tech, Ill. State and Cal.

EXPERIENCED ASSISTANTS

- Fourth-year HC Jeff Wulbrun has an entirely new staff this year.
- The five-member staff of Wulbrun, Bill Peterson, Shammond Williams, Curran Walsh and Director of Operations Jack Frost have combined 80 seasons in NCAA basketball and 24 seasons both playing and coaching in the NBA or the G-League.
- Peterson has been involved in college coaching for 32 seasons and spent 11 years on NBA and G-League staffs. Prior to joining Denver, Peterson had been on the staff of the national champion Baylor Bears from 2017 through the end of last season.
- Williams has coached in the NCAA for eight years, played four years at North Carolina that included three trips to the Final Four, and played professional basketball for 13 seasons, including stints with seven different NBA franchises.
- Walsh has been involved in college basketball circles for seven seasons, making stops at Utah, Utah State and Loyola Marymount before joining the DU staff.
- Frost served in three different roles spanning across five years at Stanford as the video coordinator, special assistant to the head coach and as an assistant coach.

SPREADING THE SCORING

- Denver had six players score in double figures and no one score more than 15 in Denver's 97-80 win over Western Colorado on Nov. 8.
- DeAndre Craig led the Pios with 15, Pedro Lopez-Sanvicente scored 13, Sebastian Akins added 12 and Nicholas Shogbonyo, Isaiah Carr and Josh Lee all finished with 10.
- It was the first time Denver had 6 players in double figures since December 15, 2012 against Omaha.
- 12 years ago- Royce O'Neale had 17, Chase Hallam had 12, Chris Udofia scored 11, Brett Olson and Nate Engesser chipped in 11 and Cam Griffin scored 10.
- Isaiah Addo-Ankrah and Nicholas Shogbonyo combined for 40 of Denver's 68 points in its Big Sky/Summit League Challenge win at Portland State on December 7.
- The Pioneers had six players with at least seven points in that 21-point win over Sacramento State in the first game of the challenge on December 4.
- DU also had six players with at least seven points in a 94-87 win over UCCS on December 10.
- Last time out, Denver had four players in double figures in its loss to South Dakota, led by 19 from DeAndre Craig.

NOTES (CONTINUED)

LEGAL THEFT

- Denver recorded 13 steals in a win over Western Colorado on Nov. 8, the program's most since February 26, 2020 at Fort Wayne.
- Sebastian Akins and Nicholas Shogbonyo had 3 apiece to lead a group of five Pios with multiple steals.
- Josh Lee had five steals in the Pios loss to Utah Tech on Nov. 26, the first Pio with 5+ steals since Justin Mullins (6) in Feb., 2023.
- Denver had 14 steals in an OT loss to Cal Poly on December 17, its first game against a DI opponent with double digit steals this season.
- Lee, who had his third 4+ steal game earlier this season at South Dakota, is fourth in the SL in steals with 32 this season.

THREE 20+ POINT SCORERS AT CAL POLY

- Denver had 3 20+ point scorers in an overtime loss at Cal Poly on December 17.
- Nicholas Shogbonyo finished with 22, DeAndre Craig also had 22 and Sebastian Akins finished with 21.
- Denver had three 20+ point scorers for the first time since December 20, 2021 in an 84-80 loss to Western Illinois (KJ Hunt 22, Touko Tainamo 21, Jordan Johnson 21)
- Denver had three 20+ point scorers in a road game for the first time since February 13, 2016 at Purdue Fort Wayne in an 88-84 loss (Marcus Byrd 28, Nate Engesser 24, Thomas Neff 21).

CRAIG NAMED TO PRESEASON SECOND TEAM

- Sophomore guard DeAndre Craig was named to the Preseason All-Summit League Second Team ahead of Media Day on October 8.
- Craig and South Dakota State sophomore guard Kalen Garry are the only two underclassmen across the two preseason teams.
- Craig played in all 34 games in his freshman campaign, averaging 6.6 points and 2.6 rebounds in 23.4 minutes per game, while adding 85 assists against just 40 turnovers to go with 35 steals.
- In Denver's three Summit League Tournament games last year, Craig finished with 13 points in the quarterfinal win, 15 and 5 assists in the semifinal victory and 12 and 7 helpers in the championship game against South Dakota State.
- Craig, along with teammate Isaiah Carr, represented the program at the 2024 Summit League Basketball Media Day in Sioux Falls.
- After missing three-straight games with an injury, Craig returned to the lineup on January 18 at St. Thomas.
- Craig ranks third in the Summit League and 122nd in the country in field goal percentage, shooting 49.0% from the field.
- Craig had a four-point sequence that included an intentionally missed free-throw and a three-point play in Denver's dramatic win over Kansas City on January 30.

NOTES (CONTINUED)

DEFENDING THE HOME FLOOR

- Since turning Division I in 1998-99, the Pioneers are 48-37 in Hamilton Gymnasium.
- Denver has played in Hamilton full-time since the 2020-21 campaign.
- 2023-24 marked the first double-digit win season in Hamilton (10-4).
- Denver is 6-5 at home to start the 2024-25 season.
- In the fourth season under head coach Jeff Wulbrun, the Pioneers are 31-21 on their home floor.

SHOGBONYO LEADING THE PIOS IN YEAR 1

- Junior guard Nicholas Shogbonyo is in his first year of NCAA hoops after transferring from McLennan CC in the offseason.
- In 2023-24, Shogbonyo was the NTJACAC Co-Player of the Year and was an All-Region selection.
- Second on DU in scoring at 13.4 points per game, while pulling in 4.7 boards (2nd among active players) and just under 2 assists per game.
- Shogbonyo has had 15+ points in 14 games.
- Shogbonyo is 88th in the country and fourth in the Summit League in free-throw makes with 97.
- Shogbonyo recorded his first career double-double (13-12rbs) at South Dakota on January 4.

TAKING CARE OF THE BASKETBALL

- The Pioneers finished 35th in the country in turnovers per game, averaging just 10.0 turnovers per contest.
- Denver's 1 total turnover on November 17, 2023 against South Alabama was the lowest in DU's DI history.
- The Pioneers finished with single-digit turnovers in 17 games last season, including committing just seven in the 2024 Summit League Final.
- In a 50 minute game on December 1 at Portland, Denver turned it over just six times, its first single digit turnover game this season.
- Denver has turned it over 10 or less times in 10 of the last 17 games.

PIOS SHOOT SIZZLING 60% FROM BEYOND THE ARC VS.UNC

- In Denver's loss to Northern Colorado in the non-conference finale on December 21, Denver shot 60% from beyond the arc on 12-of-20 shooting from distance.
- DU opened 8-12 in the first half, and shot 4-for-8 in the second half.
- The Pioneers performance was its first 60% shooting from beyond the arc night with at least 8 made triples since December 1, 2022 at Houston Christian (W, 93-83).

MILESTONE APPEARANCES

- Pedro Lopez-Sanvicente made his 100th career appearance in his four year career at Denver in the Pioneers game at Cal Poly on December 17.
- Isaiah Addo-Ankrah's made his 100th appearance in a career that included three years at UTSA and now two as a Pio on December 21 vs. Northern Colorado.

November 18, 2022 - Tommy Bruner 3 with 0.4 seconds to win at Idaho State 70-69

November 29, 2023 - Isaiah Addo-Ankrah game-winning three-pointer with 6 seconds to play and game-winning block as time expired in 67-65 win over Idaho.

January 25, 2024 - Tommy Bruner steals the ball with 6 seconds to play, passes to Tyson Garff who hits Isaiah Addo-Ankrah on the left wing for the game-winning triple with 0.6 remaining.

March 9, 2024 - Isaiah Addo-Ankrah nailed a triple with 5 seconds to go, and Pedro Lopez Sanvicente had a block at the rim with a second to go to earn Denver a 61-60 win in the Summit League Quarterfinal.

January 23, 2025 - Tied at 68, Sebastian Akins drove the length of the floor and found Abdulai Fanta Kabba in the paint for the dunk at ORU with 1.1 seconds left.

January 30, 2025 - Trailing by 2 with 2.4 seconds to play, DeAndre Craig intentionally missed his last free-throw, got his own rebound, finished the put back and was fouled, before making the free-throw to give Denver a 69-68 win over KC in Hamilton.

NOTES (CONTINUED)

AKINS DEBUT SEASON

- Freshman guard Sebastian Akins put up 15 points off the bench in the Pios season debut at Stanford on November 4.
- Akins is the fifth Pio to post 15+ points off the bench in a season opener since Denver rejoined Division I in 1998-99.
- Akins is the first since Jase Townsend scored 16 off the bench as a freshman in November, 2018.
- Akins is the fourth freshman to post 15+ off the bench in an opener.
- Akins is the 3rd to do it against a DI opponent and the 2nd to do it against a Power5/4 opponent.
- Akins enters the game with 295 points, the 11th most by a Pioneer in their true freshman season in DU's DI history.
- Akins has 15+ points in seven games this season, including three 20+ point games.
- Akins had the game-winning assist to Abdulai Fanta Kabba in Denver's 70-68 win at ORU on January 23.

ADDO-ANKRAH DIALING LONG DISTANCE

- Three-point sharp-shooter Isaiah Addo-Ankrah leads the Pioneers with 48 made triples on 113 attempts, good for 42.5% from beyond the arc.

DENVER'S DI STATE HISTORY

- In Denver's DI history, the Pioneers have had student-athletes from 29 different states.
- 42 DI student-athletes have stayed in their home state of Colorado.
- Including three student-athletes on the 2024-25 roster, 20 Pios have come from the state of Texas.

WORLD WIDE PIOS

- Denver's 2024-25 roster has student-athletes from eight different states and two different international countries.
- The Pios have multiple players from Colorado (Bowen, Lloyd), Texas (Shogbonyo, Cunningham, Addo-Ankrah) and Illinois (Craig, Pickett)
- Denver has 6 student-athletes that have come to the program through transferring including 2024-25 newcomer Nicholas Shogbonyo (McLennan CC).

DENVER'S DI INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

- In the program's Division I history, the Pioneers have had players from 13 different countries outside of the United States, including multiple players from Australia (3), Canada (2), Croatia (2) and Spain (2).
- On the current roster, Abdulai Fanta Kabba is the first from Sierra Leone.

LAST BEATS FIRST

- Preseason No. 9 in the Summit League Preseason Poll Denver beat preseason favorites Kansas City 69-68 in Hamilton Gymnasium on January 30.
- Denver has defeated the preseason favorite two seasons in a row after beating SDSU 99-80 last January at home.
- Last season's win over the Jacks marked the first time in the Summit League regular season that last beat first since Western Illinois defeated preseason favorites Fort Wayne 93-91 on Dec. 29, 2016.
- The 2024 win was also Denver's first win vs. the Summit League preseason favorite since the Pios defeated Fort Wayne 76-73 in overtime on February 4, 2017.

DENVER – The University of Denver men's basketball team led by as many as nine in the early stages of the second half, but South Dakota's press turned the Pios over and Denver went cold from beyond the arc as the Coyotes earned an 86-79 road win on Thursday night inside Hamilton Gymnasium.

The Pioneers (8-17, 2-8) had four players score in double figures, led by DeAndre Craig, who had 19 points and six rebounds. Pedro Lopez-Sanvicente added 12 points, six rebounds and two steals from the bench and Isaiah Addo-Ankrah and Sebastian Akins chipped in as well with 10 points from the bench.

Denver out-rebounded South Dakota 42-36 in Thursday's game, led by Lopez Sanvicente's six boards. The Pioneers also collected 14 offensive rebounds and scored 10 second chance points.

DU did a great job disrupting South Dakota shots in the contest, coming away with six blocks. Abdulai Fanta Kabba's three rejections led the way individually for the Pioneers.

NOTES:

- Denver had four players finish in double figures and six players finish with at least six points.
- The Pioneers 42 rebounds were their most since November 24 vs. Montana.
- The Pioneers bench outscored South Dakota 42-18.
- Sebastian Akins finished with 10 points and 3 assists.
- Akins finished in double figures for the 16th time this season.
- Pedro Lopez-Sanvicente finished with 12 points, 6 rebounds and 2 steals.
- Lopez-Sanvicente finished in double figures for the third-straight game, the seventh time this season and the 12th time in his career.
- DeAndre Craig finished with 19 points and 6 rebounds.
- Craig finished in double figures for the fourth-straight game, the 16th time this season and the 27th time in his career.
- Isaiah Addo-Ankrah finished with 10 points and 5 rebounds.
- Addo-Ankrah finished in double figures for the ninth time this season and the 25th time in his five-year collegiate career.
- Abdulai Fanta Kabba finished with 6 points, 3 rebounds and 3 blocks.
- Kabba's block total is a new season high.

HOW IT HAPPENED:

The first half opened as a track meet with 66 combined field goal attempts on 80 possessions. South Dakota's best run of the half started before the first media timeout when the Coyotes got on an 8-0 spurt to take its biggest lead at six with 16:37 to play. The Pioneers were able to stem the run and then got on a 10-0 run of their own late in the half, and eventually extended its first-half lead to eight with 1:10 to play. USD cut that lead to three by the intermission. DeAndre Craig led the Pios with 7 and Abdulai Fanta Kabba was one of three Pios with 6 points in the first half, and the big man added three blocks and a pair of rebounds.

Denver quickly pushed its lead to nine in the first three minutes of the second half, but USD's press turned Denver over and the Pios went cold from the field in the second half to give the Coyotes the road win. Denver took care of business in the paint, recording 24 of its 37 points in the lane, but the Pioneers 0-12 stretch from behind the arc didn't allow Denver to complete the comeback.

SAINT PAUL– The University of Denver men's basketball program cut a 17-point halftime deficit to as little as one with 4:22 to play but couldn't complete the comeback in a 74-62 loss at league-leaders St. Thomas on Saturday night at Schoenecker Arena.

The Pioneers (6-15, 0-6) had two players score in double figures, led by Sebastian Akins, who had 14 points. Nicholas Shogbonyo added 11 points and Pedro Lopez-Sanvicente chipped in eight points.

Denver out-rebounded St. Thomas 30-24 in Saturday's game, led by Lopez Sanvicente's and Abdulai Fanta Kabba's five boards apiece.

NOTES:

Denver had five players finish with at least seven points.

Denver's bench outscored the St. Thomas reserves 32-12.

Sebastian Akins finished with 14 points, 4 rebounds and 2 assists.

Akins finished in double figures for the second-straight game and for the 15th time in his freshman season.

Nicholas Shogbonyo finished with 11 points.

Shogbonyo finished in double figures for the 15th time this season.

HOW IT HAPPENED:

Denver opened the game with its first four points of the night before an 11-2 run put the Tom-mies in-front on their home floor. St. Thomas used another 11-0 run near the end of the half to stretch its advantage to 17 heading into the locker room. Jon Mani led the Pios with seven in the opening 20 minutes, while Nicholas Shogbonyo and Sebastian Akins chipped in five apiece.

Denver opened the half on a 14-5 run that included a pair of triples from Shogbonyo to trim the deficit to as little as eight with 12:56 to play in regulation. Denver narrowed its deficit to 57-47 before going on an 8-0 run, finished off by Isaiah Addo-Ankrah's three, to shrink the defi-cit to 57-55 with 6:51 to go in the contest. St. Thomas responded and outscored the Pioneers the rest of the way, ending the game with a final score of 74-62. Denver got a boost from its bench in the period, as non-starters accounted for 16 of its 35 total points.

BEFORE DENVER:
Second team All-Conference selection in 2022...2023 All-Hoopstate Conference First Team...Hoopseen Top-5 point guards in his last year of AAU.

PERSONAL:
Son to Chris and Velia...Sibling to Gabby, Chris and Samantha...Chose the University of Denver because it felt so much like home...Hopes to pursue a degree in sports management.

AKINS ON JOINING DENVER:
“Thank you to the University of Denver, coach Jeff Wulbrun and the staff for giving me the opportunity to fulfill my dream of playing college basketball. I’m looking forward to arriving on campus and being a part of a great program and community.”

WULBRUN ON AKINS:
“Sebastian Akins is a pure point guard and floor general. He is a tremendous facilitator and passer, has a great understanding of the game and makes players around him better. He reads defenses so well and plays the game with a great pace, while never getting sped up and always looking in control. In addition to his playmaking skills, he can get to the basket and is an excellent three-point shooter. He embodies our culture and will be a great fit at DU and in our basketball program.”

BEFORE DENVER:

2022-23 NTJAC Freshman of the Year and First Team All-Conference selection...2023-24 NTJAC Co-Player of the Year and NJCAA All-Region 5 selection...In high school, averaged 14.8 points, 5.1 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 2.2 steals per game...In his freshman year in the NJCAA, appeared in 31 games, averaging 11.6 points, 3.5 rebounds and a team-high 4.0 assists...In his most recent season at McLennan Community College, appeared in 28 games, leading the team with 21.3 points, 5.3 rebounds and 2.8 assists per game.

PERSONAL:

Son to Michael and Naomi...Sibling to Ayo...Hopes to play professional basketball after graduating from DU...Also enjoys playing the piano, playing video games, going on walks and playing soccer.

SHOGBONYO ON WHY HE CHOSE DENVER:

Chose the University of Denver because he believes that Coach Wulbrun and his staff can help him reach his fullest potential as a person and as a basketball player.

WULBRUN ON SHOGBONYO:

"We are adding an explosive offensive player and an elite level defender to our DU program in Nick Shogbonyo. Nick is an aggressive three-level scorer and extremely quick with the ball, making it hard for defenders to keep him out of the paint, and shoot the three consistently. He takes good care of the ball and has impressed me with his ability to make the right play for the team. His contributions will be just as impactful on the defensive side of the ball. He can pressure the ball, get in passing lanes and disrupt, as he takes great pride in his defensive prowess. It is with tremendous excitement that we welcome Nick to our basketball program."

BEFORE DENVER:

Four-year starter, two-time captain and 1,000 point scorer in his high school career...2022: Dec. 14 Chicago Tribune Player of the Week...Chicago Sun-Times Top-50 Player...Two-time Pontiac All-Tournament Team...Two-time All-Conference Selection...2021 All-Illinois pick...Broke his school's 30-year old 3-point record, draining 73 triples in the 2021 season...Hopes to pursue a professional basketball career, investment banking and real estate.

PERSONAL:

Son to Mark and Angela...Sibling to Lauren and Issy...Father played football at the College of Wooster...Uncle played basketball at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga and in various professional teams in Europe...Great uncle played at Iowa and later played for the Harlem Globetrotters...Chose the University of Denver because the coaching staff believes in him not just as a player but as a young man.

PICKETT ON JOINING DENVER:

"I couldn't be more excited to embrace this new chapter in my basketball journey. Coach Wulbrun and the staff's belief in me, the camaraderie with my teammates and the shared goal of building a championship team all make this experience special. I'm eager to take this journey and continue to improve as a player."

WULBRUN ON PICKETT:

"Josh Pickett will give us a physical presence from the day he steps on campus. He will add tremendously to our team's toughness and physicality. I think he will be extremely versatile on both sides of the floor. He'll have the ability to guard up to four positions on the defensive end and give us a very strong perimeter rebounder. Offensively, he is a very good three-point shooter, can attack off the bounce and can post up or back down smaller players. Josh is an elite-level person and will represent DU with the highest level of integrity and character in pursuit of excellence on and off the court."

PERSONAL:

Son to Ibrahim and Haja... Has one brother, Sheku...Hopes to play in the NBA or work for a technology company...Also enjoys soccer.

FANTA KABBA ON WHY HE CHOSE DENVER:

Chose the University of Denver because of its robust academic and athletic programs as well as relationship he quickly developed with the staff that he believes will help foster his growth in both areas.

WULBRUN ON FANTA KABBA:

"Kabba is seven feet tall, and an excellent athlete with a 7'5" wingspan. He runs the floor extremely well and has exceptional skills for a player his size. He is an elite level rim protector and lob threat with his size and length. I believe he will be a defensive force at our level, which will be complemented by our ability to put pressure on the perimeter this season with our guards. Offensively, he has great touch, good handles and I believe will be able to score in a variety of ways. I believe he will impact our team in a very positive way this season. Kabba has tremendous character, integrity and humility and will be a perfect fit for our culture."

BEFORE DENVER:

Nationally ranked recruit by 247 sports, Denver's top-ranked recruit in the modern DI era....Ranked as a top-25 player in the state of California...Averaged 25 points per game in his junior high school season...Also played for the California Stars.

PERSONAL:

Son to Joe and Shiri...Sibling to Jac, Maya, Sophia and Simon...Chose the University of Denver because it's his best opportunity to develop on and off the court, and he is excited to make an impact...Hopes to pursue basketball as far as his career will take him...Also enjoys cooking and listening to music.

MANI ON JOINING DENVER:

"I am extremely excited to join this program and this community, to help lead a new era of Denver basketball. I believe Coach Wulbrun and the staff can help me take the next steps in my career."

WULBRUN ON MANI:

"Jon Mani is an exciting and very skilled player at 6-7. He's comfortable at any of the perimeter positions and can create off the bounce for himself and his teammates. I believe he will develop into an elite three-level scorer at the college level. He has tremendous versatility and length, which will allow him to guard multiple positions for us. As a young player, he very effectively uses change of speeds and direction in his attack off the bounce, and plays the game with great passion."
