AUDIO PRONUNCIATIONS

NOTES (CONTINUED)

THE TIM BERGSTRASER ERA

- Tim Bergstraser was named the 34th head coach in the program's history on April 14, 2025. He enters his second season in charge of the program in 2026-27, leading Denver into the West Coast Conference.
- At age 36, Bergstraser is the eighth youngest Division I men's basketball head coach in the country in 2026-27.
- Bergstraser retained two players from last year's Denver roster in Carson Johnson and Shaun Wysocki, both of which came over with him from Minnesota State Moorhead ahead of last season.
- In his first season in charge, the Pioneers won five of their final seven to finish 15-17 and 8-8 in the Summit to tie for fourth in the league.
- The finish was the program's best in the league in eight seasons.
- Following the regular season, in a comparison between KenPom team rankings from the preseason to the end of the regular season, Bergstraser was ranked fourth in the country in over performance among first year head coaches at their respective programs.
- Bergstraser came to Denver after three seasons at MSUM, where he went 75-22, leading the Dragons to three-consecutive 25-win seasons and three NCAA Tournament appearances.
- MSUM won two NSIC Tournament titles in his three seasons, and reached the NCAA Sweet 16 in his final season with the Dragons in 2024-25, the program's first regional final appearance since 2014-15.
- In 2023-24 MSUM opened the campaign 14-0 to earn the program's first No. 1 national ranking in program history.
- Prior to taking over as the head coach, Bergstraser was an assistant for four seasons at MSUM, an assistant at Quincy for a year, a grad assistant for two at MSUM, an assistant at Wisconsin-River Falls and a student-assistant at St. Cloud State after his third ACL injury cut his playing career short.

DENVER'S ASSISTANTS

- Associate head coach Spenser Bland came to the Mile High City from being in the same position on the MSUM staff under Bergstraser.
- Bergstraser said in his 2025-26 season preview radio show that he would not have taken the DU job if Bland didn't agree to come too.
- Bland's offense produced one of the best offensive years in the program's entire history of top-flight basketball, finishing second in scoring (2,650 points), third in field goals made (927), second in three-pointers made (283), seventh in free-throws made (513) and breaking the school record in free-throw percentage (77.3%).
- A former assistant in the Summit League, Kyle Heikkinen joined Tim Bergstraser's staff after five seasons at Western Illinois, of which he spent the final two as the associate head coach.
- Heikkinen also had assistant jobs at Highland CC and Wisconsin-Whitewater, combining for a 237-124 record in his previous 12 seasons as an assistant.
- Cory Dixon is the only new member of the staff this season after two years at East Tennessee State and a year at New Orleans.
- Dixon helped ETSU to the SoCon Championship game last season.
- Scott Gauthier was named the program's Director of Operations in 2025-26, coming to Denver after a year as an assistant at IU Indy.
- Gauthier's previous coaching stops also included a year at Lindenwood and seven seasons at the University of Missouri-St. Louis.
- Nihilo Ibarra joined the staff in 2025-26 as well after serving as the head manager for San Diego State's 2022-23 squad that made the national title game, and two seasons as a grad assistant at Nebraska.

20+ POINT SCORING NIGHTS

- Junior Carson Johnson leads the Pioneers with 20 games with 20+ points since the start of last season, including 12 of the last 17.
- Johnson is tied for 14th in the country in most 20+ point games since the start of last season (thru 11/20 | stathead).
- Seven different Pioneers scored 20+ in a game last season.
- Denver has six players on its 2026-27 roster that have scored 20+ points in an NCAA game in their careers (chart to right).
- Denver has had three players finish with 20+ in the same game five times in its modern Division I history.
- As a team, Denver had 40, 20+ performances last year, ranking 10th. BYU led the country with 54.
- Johnson ended the opening night 27th in the country in scoring (27.0).

DENVER IN 2025-26 SUMMIT LEAGUE PLAY

- Denver finished the regular season 8-8 in league play last season.
- Denver last finished .500 or better in the league in 2017-18 (8-6).
- The Pioneers finish is their first top-4 finish in league play since 2017-18.

JOHNSON REACHES 1,000 CAREER POINTS IN 51 GAMES

- In Denver's game at Omaha on February 15, 2026, Carson Johnson reached 1,000 career points in just 51 games combined between his time at Minnesota State Moorhead (23 games) and Denver (28 games).
- Had all 51 games been played at Denver, Johnson would hold Denver's DI record for the fastest to 1,000 DU career points, reaching the milestone one game faster than Tommy Bruner reached 1,000 Denver points (52- 2022-24).
- Prior to Bruner, B.J. Pratt held Denver's record at 67 games.
- Johnson is on pace to reach 1,000 career Denver points in 51 games, one game faster than Bruner's output.

PIOS ON THE ROAD

- Denver had six road wins last year, its most since 2016-17.
- Denver won three-straight Summit League road games last season for the first time since joining the Summit League in 2013-14.
- The stretch marked the first three-game road winning streak overall since November 18-December 1, 2022 (Idaho St., New Orleans, HCU).

SOMETHING IS BREWING IN HAMILTON

- Since turning Division I in 1998-99, the Pioneers are 60-43 in Hamilton Gymnasium.
- Denver has played in Hamilton full-time since the 2020-21 campaign.
- 2023-24 marked the first double-digit win season in Hamilton (10-4).
- Denver finished 9-5 at home last season, its second 9+ win home campaign in the last three years.
- Denver's home opener vs. Wyoming on November 14th drew the third-biggest crowd for men's basketball in the venue's history (1803).
- Denver's game against NDSU last season was played in-front of 1,839, the second-biggest basketball crowd in the history of Hamilton Gymnasium, and the biggest since the facility's only basketball sellout on January 27, 2007 vs. Western Kentucky (2665).
- Last season, Denver had its highest total attendance (14,725) and average attendance (1,020) since 2018-19 (15052/1158), the program's last full season in Magness Arena.

DENVER'S DI STATE HISTORY

- In Denver's DI history, the Pioneers have had student-athletes from 31 different states.
- The 2026-27 roster added one new state to Denver's list in Maryland (Kam Martin).
- 42 DI student-athletes have stayed in their home state of Colorado.

WORLD WIDE PIOS

- Denver's 2025-26 roster has student-athletes from nine different states and three international countries (Australia, Senegal, Sweden).
- The Pios have multiple players from Minnesota (Wysocki, Kirsch), and Australia (Bates, Dimmock).

DENVER'S DI INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

- In the program's Division I history, the Pioneers have had players from 15 different countries outside of the United States, including multiple players from Australia (5), Canada (2), Croatia (2) and Spain (2).
- On the current roster, Baba Mbengue is the first Pioneer from the Senegal and Oskar Wickstrom Stumer is the first from Sweden.

DENVER AND WYOMING CONTINUE SEVEN YEAR HOME-AND-HOME

- On August 6, 2025, Denver and Wyoming announced they had agreed on a six year men's basketball home and home series that will begin this November.
- Last season's November 26 meeting was part of an MTE, making the 2025 encounter the first of seven-straight years of meetings between the two teams.
- The Pioneers will host the Cowboys in 2026, 2028 and 2030.

UNIVERSITY OF DENVER SET FOR FIRST SEASON IN THE WCC

- On October 31, 2025 the University of Denver announced it has accepted an invitation to join the West Coast Conference in nine sports, beginning in the 2026-27 season.
- "My immediate response was excited. I understand how big it is for the university and overall for athletics. I understand that it's a power conference for sure, and I think it's just the absolute perfect fit for our program and university." Head Coach Tim Bergstraser
- Denver has joined the West Coast Conference in men's and women's basketball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's tennis and women's volleyball. Men's and women's swimming and diving will join in 2027-28.
- The move provides Denver with a significant enhancement to the overall reputation of the university and brand association, allying DU with highly regarded, mostly private institutions with stronger academic ranking and profiles that will further strengthen the university's position in the western United States.

NINE-GAME ROAD SWING - NOVEMBER 21 - DECEMBER 14

- Denver began a program-record (since NCAA Modern Era in 1937-38) nine-game road swing on November 21 at Eastern Michigan that will run through Denver's trip to Utah Tech on December 14.
- This season's extended road swing is Denver's sixth of at least six games since 1937-38.
- Denver's best extended road swing was eight-straight away from home in 1981-82 that saw the Pioneers go 4-4.

DENVER'S RETURNING DUO

- Second year head coach Tim Bergsetraser welcomed back two returners from last years roster, and his final roster from his days at MSU- Moorhead in 2024-25 in Carson Johnson and Shaun Wysocki.
- In addition to Johnson's Summit League Player of the Year Campaign and his NSIC Tournament MVP performance in his freshman season at the DII level, Wysocki has also been a key contributer to Bergstraser's success in the last two years.
- In his freshman season Wysocki averaged 7.6 points and 3.9 rebounds at MSUM, and nearly matched that output in his rise to the DI level last year, chipping in 7.5 points and 3.3 rebounds for the Pioneers in 30 games last season.
- Wysocki was the first of three Pioneers to score 30+ in a game last season, making Denver one of 22 teams with three different student-athletes to earn that distinction in the regular season a year ago.

MARTIN INTO DOUBLE FIGURES AT UC RIVERSIDE

- In his second game at Denver, Kam Martin led the Pioneers with 14 points on 5-of-8 shooting in just 18:10.
- The game was Martin's 22nd career NCAA game in double figures after having played his first two collegiate seasons at Long Beach State (2024-25) and Samford (2025-26).

FOUR IN DOUBLE FIGURES IN WIN OVER UCCS

- For the first time this season, Denver had four players finish in double figures in the Pioneers 101-63 win over UCCS on November 16.
- Carson Johnson led the way with 22 and 6 assists
- Shaun Wysocki had 19 and Kam Martin finished with 17 and both pulled down six boards.
- Harry Bates finished in double figures in an NCAA game for the first time in his career, posting 10 and five boards.
- Denver hit its first seven shots from the field and nine of its first 10 to put the game out of reach early.
- The Pioneers had four finish in double figures again in its two-point loss at Eastern Michigan on November 21.

MODERN ERA DI SUCCESS (1998-PRESENT)

- Denver won the Sun Belt Conference regular season division title in 2004-05, and earned a trip to the National Invitation Tournament.
- The program recorded back-to-back 20-win seasons in 2011-12 (22-9) and 2012-13 (22-10), winning the WAC regular season title and a trip to the NIT in 2013.
- Denver hosted and defeated Ohio in the first round of the 2013 NIT, earning a 61-57 win in Magness Arena.
- The Pioneers have finished 12 Division I seasons at .500 or better.

YPSILANTI, Mich. – The University of Denver men's basketball program led for over 38 minutes, but a late Eastern Michigan surge saw the Eagles take a 70-68 win on Saturday afternoon inside the Gervin GameAbove Center.

LEADERS:
Carson Johnson led Denver with 19 points and three assists. Kam Martin lit up the scoreboard in the first half with all 13 of his points in the first frame. Oskar Stümer had a career-high 16 to go with nine rebounds and three steals. Shaun Wysocki had a good second half on the offense end to round out Denver's double figure scorers with 11.

HOW IT HAPPENED:
First Half:
Charlie Dimmock scored the opening points on the game's first possession, but the offenses cooled off for the next couple of minutes of the opening segment. A driving layup from Kam Martin and a three-point play from Oskar Stümer stretched Denver's early advantage to 7-2, a lead reduced to 7-4 heading to the first media stoppage.

Martin hit a three out of the timeout, and Carson Johnson had a three-point play a couple of possessions later to stretch Denver's lead to seven with 13:30 to play. Dimmock's second layup of the game made it a 10-point Denver advantage at the under-12.

A 5-0 Eastern Michigan run forced Denver to call its use it or lose it timeout. Martin put an end to the run on the other side of the break with a layup to get his point total and the Denver lead both up to seven with under nine minutes to go. The Eagles cut it back to five heading into the under-8.

Martin hit two of three from the line and Stumer made his second layup on the next possession to make it a nine-point game again with 6:33 remaining. Eastern Michigan connected on its first triple to cut the Denver lead to six, but Johnson responded with his first three of the day to make it a nine-point game heading into the final media.

Denver continued to draw fouls to cause problems for Eastern Michigan. Harry Bates and Martin both connected on a pair of free-throws to take Denver's lead to its biggest of the afternoon at 11 with 0:48 to play before halftime. Martin added two more from the line on the Pioneers final possession of the half. Eastern Michigan hit a jumper as time expired to make it a 33-22 game at the break.

Martin led the Pioneers with 13 in the first half with three rebounds and three steals. Johnson added six and Stumer had five. Denver outscored Eastern Michigan 11-1 from the free-throw line in the first half.

Second Half:
Stumer had a high-rising dunk turned three-point play to get into double figures to highlight the first segment. He then connected on a pair of technical free-throws and finished an inbound pass from Shaun Wysocki to go on a 6-0 run by himself to give him nine points in the first segment of the half and make it a 44-30 game at the under-16.

Out of the timeout, Wysocki air balled a turn around jump book in the paint, but Charlie Dimmock got him the rebounds and Wysocki buried a triple for his second bucket of the day to give Denver its biggest lead of the afternoon at 17 with 15:12 to play. A 7-0 spurt from Eastern Michigan trimmed the Denver lead to 47-37 with 12:15 to go. Bates bobbled a Johnson pass, but recollected and finished a layup to stop the run and take Denver into the under-12 up 49-37.

Eastern Michigan stretched its run to 11-2 before a Johnson step-back got Denver's lead back to 10 to 10:45 to play. A fourth Eagles triple of the second half made it a six-point game with 8:57 to play in regulation. The triple started an 8-0 Eastern Michigan run to get Denver's lead from 17 down to two in a span of 7:13.

Another Wysocki dunk got the Denver advantage back up to five before Emanuel Richards' third three of the game made it 59-57 with 5:17 to go. Johnson had the hot hand in the penultimate second, getting his point total up to 18 and giving Denver a 63-59 lead heading into the under-4.

Stumer connected on a pair of free-throws out of the timeout to get the Pioneers lead back up to six after drawing the fifth foul on the Eagles leading scorer. EMU went on a 5-0 run capped by a Jabri Fitzpatrick three-point play to make it a one-point game. Johnson split a pair from the line to make it a 66-64 Denver lead before the Eagles took a timeout to setup a play on the other side with 1:14 to go.

Out of the timeout, Habhab connected on a shot to make it 66-66 with 1:10 to play. Wysocki hit a floating jumpshot but Fitzpatrick hit a triple to give the Eagles their first lead with 37 seconds to play. Johnson missed a steb-back triple on the other end, and Eastern Michigan split a pair en-route to the two-point win.
