QUICK HITTERS

- This is the 39th year of the Horizon League (1979-80) and the 38th with Detroit Mercy as a member of the conference as the Titans are the eldest program in the league. The Titans joined in 1980-81 with the next current HL programs all joining in 1994-95 in Cleveland State, Green Bay, Milwaukee, UIC and Wright State.

- Detroit Mercy and Oakland branded the annual rivalry called the #MetroSeries in 2014 and the Golden Grizzlies have won the first three Metro Rivalry Cups.

- The Titans will honor the 1997-98 men's basketball team that won 25 games and made the NCAA Tournament, beating St. John's 66-64 in the first round in a game that featured current head coach Bacari Alexander and assistant coach Jermaine Jackson.

- Freshman Jermaine Jackson Jr. is averaging 27.0 points in his last two games with 32 points against Youngstown State and 22 at IUPUI.

New Brand Identity for Detroit Mercy

University of Detroit Mercy has implemented a new brand identity with a new logo and brandline to help position itself for a robust future.

Please use the following new logo and brandline to represent the University:

On second reference, refer to the University as "Detroit Mercy" instead of using acronyms, which were often inaccurate.

Our athletics teams are now known as "Detroit Mercy Titans."

THE METRO SERIES

Detroit Mercy and Oakland have branded an annual rivalry called the Metro Series, which will be awarded to the school with the most head-to-head victories over the course of the academic year. Separated by just 26 miles, Detroit Mercy and Oakland are the only Division I schools located in the Metro Detroit area and are both members of the Horizon League. The Golden Grizzlies and Titans will compete in men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, women's tennis, men's and women's track and field.

The winner of each competition will be awarded points, with cross country, golf and track and field being decided by the highest finish at the Horizon League Championships. The school with the most points at the end of the season will be awarded the Metro Rivalry Cup. In an event of a tie, the school that wins the cup the previous year will retain the cup.

Oakland has won the first three editions of the #MetroSeries and currently leads this season at 7-1 with wins in women's soccer and men's and women's cross country, while the schools tied in men's soccer.

Scoring System

- Each of the 14 sports (excluding softball) that Detroit and Oakland compete in head-to-head will be worth two points for each contest or championship. Ties will result in one point each.
- Points will be awarded during regular-season play only in head-to-head meetings.
- For softball, two points will be awarded to the winner of the season series. If the teams only play twice, points can be split, while if the teams met just once in the regular season, the winner of the one game would receive the two points (best of 3)
- For men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, men's and women's indoor/outdoor track and field, two points will be awarded to the team that finishes higher at the Horizon League Championships.
- In an event of a tie, the team that won the rivalry the year before will retain possession of the trophy.

Calihan Hall 4001 W. McNichols Rd. Detroit, MI 48221

ALL-TIME MATCH-UP

This is the 21st career meeting between the two schools, located roughly 26 miles apart.

Detroit Mercy leads the overall series, 13-7, as the Titans split the series with Oakland last year, winning on the road, 93-88.

The Titans are also 12-3 all-time against Oakland in Calihan Hall, but have dropped two of the last three.

LAST TIME OUT

Freshman Jermaine Jackson Jr. had a gamehigh 22 points and the Titans cut a 23-point second-half deficit down to just five, but the rally ended there as Detroit Mercy fell, 81-66, to IUPUI at Indiana Farmers Coliseum on Tuesday. Junior Josh McFolley had 10 points and junior Kameron Chatman finished with 10 points and a team-best nine rebounds.

Detroit Mercy trailed 60-37 with 11:32 left when the red, white and blue went on a 25-7 spurt over the next seven minutes to pull within five. 67-62 with 4:22 remaining. IUPUI was able five, 67-62 with 4:22 remaining. IUPUI was able to withstand that and never let the Titans get any closer.

The Titans forced 16 turnovers and had seven steals on the night, while connecting on 11, 3-pointers.

Senior DeShawndre Black had a teamhigh four assists, sophomore Corey Allen netted seven points and graduate senior Roschon Prince ended with six points and four rebounds.

The Titans will return to action on Saturday, Jan. 20, as they host Oakland in the battle of the #MetroSeries, slated for a 4 p.m. tip inside historic Calihan Hall.

UPCOMING SCHEDULE

The Titans will go on the road for six of their next eight games starting with a trip to the top of the Horizon League standings as Detroit Mercy visits Wright State next Friday followed by NKU on Sunday.

CALIHAN HALL TURNS 65

The 2017-18 season marks the 65th anniversary of historic Calihan Hall.

The dedication of the University's Memorial Building, as it was known back then, took place May 25, 1952. The first basketball game was played Dec. 2 of that year when the U-D men beat Kalamazoo, 75-61.

In 1977, the name was changed to Calihan Hall in honor of the Titans' first basketball All-American, the late Bob Calihan.

On Dec. 5, 2011, the floor of Calihan Hall was dedicated to former coach Dick Vitale.

MEDIA NOTE

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

All postgame interviews, except those needed for live television, will be conducted in the Media Room. On the road, Coach Alexander and the players are available on a request basis only. All requests should be directed to SID P.J. Gradowski before the end of the game.

INTERVIEW REQUEST

All player and coach interviews must be arranged through the Detroit Mercy Athletic Communications Office at least 24 hours in advance.

Generally, the Titans will practice from 3-6:00 p.m., with all practices closed to the public. Media interested in watching practice need to contact Detroit Mercy sports information for approval. No interviews will be granted on game days. In addition, the Titan locker room, training room and weight room are off limits to all media personnel, unless special permission has been granted through the SID and the men's basketball office.

MOTOR CITY MADNESS TICKETS NOW ON SALE

Fans can also purchase tickets by calling or visiting their favorite school's box office.

Ticket prices for Motor City Madness, which will take place March 2-6, begin at $15 per day Last season, 29,240 fans were in attendance, which ranked 12th out of 32 DI conferences.

112 YEARS OF TITAN BASKETBALL

This season is the 112th year of collegiate basketball at the University of Detroit Mercy - the oldest Division I program in the state - as the Tigers – yes, Tigers as they were called back then - beat Collegiate, 18-7, in the first official Detroit basketball game in 1905.

Until 1919, the U-D teams were known as the Tigers. In the fall of 1919, Detroit Free Press' sportswriter Stan Brink, who was covering football for the paper, thought that a good nickname for the team would be the Titans.

In Greek mythology, the Titans were a class of oversized people who happened to have almost perfect physiques.

In its 112 years (two years records are missing in 1907-08 and 1908-09) Detroit Mercy is 1,401-1190 (.543) with two regular season HL Championships (1998, 1999) and three tournament titles (1994, 1999, 2012).

Detroit Mercy has also made six NCAA tournaments (1962, 1977, 1979, 1998, 1999, 2012) and seven NIT appearances (1960, 1961, 1965, 1978, 2001, 2002, 2013).

IUST 37 LEAD THEIR ALMA MATER

Head coach Bacari Alexander is one of just 37 head coaches - out of 351 at the Division I level - to take the reigns at his alma mater.

ANOTHER TITAN MAN AT THE HELM

Head coach Bacari Alexander was named the 21st head coach in Titan history in 2016.

He is the eighth alum to serve as head coach joining Walter Hardy (1913-16), Paul Harbrecht (1922-23), John Barrett (1923-25), Lloyd Brazil (1930-46), John Shada (1946-48), Bob Calihan (1948-69) and John Mulroy (1987-88).

HOMEGROWN TITANS

Detroit Mercy's roster features 17 players with 12 hailing from the state of Michigan, including four from the city of Detroit.

TOUGH NON-CONFERENCE SLATE

The 13 opponents on the Titan non-conference schedule combined to go 257-205 (55.6%) last season, and the 11 DI foes are 128-73 (63.6%) already on the year.

That number has the Titan non-conference schedule ranked 45th overall in the nation.

ALLEN HEATING UP

Sophomore Corey Allen has been in double figures in 15 of his 19 games with five 20+ contests and three 30+ games.

Last week in two Titan wins over Cleveland State and Youngstown State, he averaged 29.5 points on 56.7 percent shooting, including 60.0 percent from three and 80.0 percent at the line.

He poured in a game-high 25 points going 9-of-14 from the field with eight rebounds and had the game-winning layup as time expired over Cleveland State. He followed that up with a game-high 34 points on 8-of-16 shooting with five 3-pointers and a career-best 13-of-16 at the line against Youngstown State.

PAIR OF 30'S

Maybe a Titan first in the long and storied history of the program as two players went for 30 points in the win over Youngstown State.

Sophomore Corey Allen led the way with 34 points, while freshman Jermaine Jackson Jr. tallied 32.

Research is still being conducted to see if this has ever happened in Titan history.

OUR ROYAL PRINCE

Graduate senior Roschon Prince is starting to find his rhythm at Detroit Mercy as he has been in double figures in scoring four times in the last six games.

He had 10 points and nine rebounds against Youngstown State and that was after a seasonhigh 19 points and eight rebounds versus Cleveland State.

He ended with 10 points - hitting all five of his shots - against Wright State and almost recorded a double-double with nine points and 10 boards versus NKU.

He posted his first Titan double-double - and the seventh of his career - with 11 points and 10 rebounds at Milwaukee.

After averaging 5.1 points and 3.2 rebounds in his first 12 games, Prince is tallying 10.6 points and 6.6 rebounds, while shooting 62.0 percent from the field in conference play.

13 Postseason Appearances

MY 5

The Titans have used 11 different starting line-ups so far on the season.

Only Jermaine Jackson Jr. has started all 20 games this year for the red, white and blue.

HIGH POWERED OFFENSE

The Titans currently rank first in the Horizon League and 39th in the nation in scoring offense at 81.5 points per game.

Detroit Mercy has scored at least 71 points in 16 games, including three 100+point efforts.

EXPLOSIVE

The Titans shot over 50.0 percent for the third time this season in the win over Cleveland State, but the story was the 70.4 percent (19-of-27) they shot in the second half, scoring 53 points in the process.

In the win against Youngstown State, the Titans shot 47.0 percent overall, but 58.6 percent (17-of-29) in the second half where they were also 8-of-11 from behind the arc and scored 59 points.

Detroit Mercy ranks second in the league in three-point field goal percentage (35.5%) and fourth in field goal shooting (44.3%).

CLEAN THE GLASS

The Titans have won the battle of the boards four times in the last seven games, losing just once and tying in the other two contests.

The Titans pulled down a season-best 21 offensive rebounds against Youngstown State, the most since they had 22 against Green Bay in 2016.

Detroit Mercy outrebounded NKU by a 48-47 margin, the second most rebounds on the season behind only the 49 versus HBU.

The red, white and blue currently rank third in the Horizon League in rebounding at 37.1 per game.

TAKING ADVANTAGE

Detroit Mercy has done a great job at the free throw line connecting on 74.3 percent, third in the HL and 68th in the country.

Detroit Mercy has hit 80.0 percent or more at the line in seven games, including some great performances in 18-of-22 at Virginia Tech, 20-of-23 versus Seattle, 13-of-15 in the road win at Saint Louis, 12-of-14 versus Toledo and 17-of-20 against Western Michigan.

Some of the top free throw shooters include Jermaine Jackson Jr. (88.0%, 44-of-50), Kameron Chatman (87.1%, 54-of-62), Corey Allen (80.3%, 61-of-76) and Josh McFolley (80.3%, 49-of-61).

JJJ FILLING UP THE STAT SHEET

Rookie Jermaine Jackson Jr. posted stats all around as a true freshman on the road in his collegiate debut at Virginia Tech tallying 16 points with seven rebounds and three assists.

The seven rebounds tied for the team lead, while his six defensive caroms led the team.

Jackson Jr. is coming off his second-straight 20-point game - and third of the season - with a game-high 22 points at IUPUI.

He had a monster game scoring a seasonbest 32 points against Youngstown State - one shy of a Titan freshman record - on 12-of-17 shooting with six 3-pointers.

He is the only freshman in the Horizon League this season with a 30-point game.

The rookie tallied a then season-high 25 points at Green Bay - where he was 8-of-14 from the field with a season-high seven 3-pointers and has now scored in double figures in 14 games on the year.

Jackson Jr. is currently third on the team averaging 12.9 points to go with a team-best 3.3 assists, 3.1 rebounds and 1.2 steals.

He also has 62 assists and just 41 turnovers for a 1.5 ratio, eighth in the HL.

Jackson Jr. leads all league rookies in scoring and made 3-pointers and is second in assists and steals.

ONE STRONG CHATMAN

Kameron Chatman - who missed three games with an injury before coming back at IUPUI - has been one of the most productive transfers in the NCAA.

He has started all 17 games he has played in and haS netted seven 20-point games and six double-doubles.

Chatman leads the team and is:

- * 4th in the HL in scoring at 17.5 ppg.
- * 2nd in the HL in rebounding at 8.8 rpg.
- * 1st in the HL in 3-point shooting at 44.7%

He started conference play with two-straight 20-point games netting 22 at Green Bay - along with 11 rebounds and a career-high five assists - and 20 at Milwaukee, while adding another double-double with 13 points and 12 rebounds against Wright State.

His seven 20-point games on the year are third in the HL, while his six double-doubles are tied for third in the conference.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE

The Titans had two players record doubledoubles against Wright State, the first time that has happened since last season vs. Milwaukee.

Redshirt junior Kameron Chatman posted 13 points and 12 rebounds and junior Tariiq Jones had 15 points and 10 boards.

30,30,30

Sophomore Corey Allen tallied his third 30-point game of the year - and fourth of his career - with a game-high 34 points against Youngstown State.

He was 8-of-16 from the field, 5-of-9 from three and a career-best 13-of-16 at the free throw line, netting 22 in the second half.

Allen poured in 32 against Western Michigan on Dec. 9 going 12-of-21 overall with five treys and scored 19 points in the second half.

Earlier this season against Houston Baptist, he posted a game, career-high and Belmont Curb Event Center record with 39 shooting 12-of-20 from the field and 7-of-13 from long range to go with a career-tying five assists.

The 39 points were the most since Jaleel Hogan had 39 in a win at Oakland last year and are the most by any player in the HL this season.

His three 30-point games are tied for the second most in the conference and are the most by a Titan since Willie Green had five during the 2002-03 campaign.

I SEE YOU CA

Sophomore Corey Allen set a career high in rebounds with 13 against NKU and has tied his career best with five assists three times this season against Michigan-Dearborn, Houston Baptist and Cleveland State.

He is coming off a 34-point effort against Youngstown State, where he was 8-of-16 from the field, 5-of-9 from three and a career-best 13-of-16 at the line.

His 13 free throws were the most since Juwan Howard Jr. went 14-of-14 against South Alabama in 2014.

Allen has also now connected on a 3-pointer in 40 of his 48 games, including 20 with three or more and seven with five or more.

On the season, he is second on the team in scoring at 16.3 points per game - seventh in the HL - and ranks second on the team and 10th in the league in three-point shooting (39.0%) as well as third on the team in overall shooting (44.8%).

COREY SEEING DOUBLE

Sophomore Corey Allen recorded his first career double-double with 10 points and a career-best 13 rebounds against NKU.

He almost had another double-double ending with 25 points and eight rebounds against Cleveland State.

KAM'S THE MAN

The Titans needed everyone's help to get the overtime victory over Houston Baptist on Nov.

22 PLAYERS DRAFTED BY NBA/ABA

19 and redshirt junior Kameron Chatman did his part posting his first career double-double with 22 points and a career-high 16 rebounds.

At Saint Louis on Nov. 22, he posted 18 points and nine rebounds, but his biggest play was the game-winning shot with one second left.

He tallied a career-high 31 points with 10 rebounds and three steals at Fort Wayne on Nov. 28, going a career-best 11-of-15 from the field and 5-of-6 from behind the arc.

WAY TO REEK

Junior Tariiq Jones missed seven games with an ankle injury, but has come back strong in his last five averaging 9.6 points, 5.4 rebounds and shooting 48.8 percent (20-of-34).

He had a big day posting his first career double-double with a career-best 15 points and 10 rebounds against Wright State.

JALEEL REACHES 1,000

Senior Jaleel Hogan became the 41st Titan in school history to post 1,000 points as he reached that mark with a basket at Fort Wayne.

Hogan enters today's game with 1,082 career points, which ranks 34th in school history just seven behind Al Cech for 33rd.

He registered his first double-double of the season with a season-high 16 points and 10 rebounds against Western Michigan.

Hogan is currently fifth on the team with 8.1 points per game, while shooting 58.3 percent from the field, fourth in the HL.

PICKING YOUR POCKET

Junior Josh McFolley is tied for seventh in the Horizon League with 1.43 steals per game.

He has three games on the year with at least three steals, including tying his career high with five against Siena Heights.

In his career, he has recorded a steal in 62 of his 81 career games, including 25 multi-steal contests and 13 with at least three takeaways.

McFolley led the conference in steals per game (2.00) and total steals (62), ranking 26th and 35th in the NCAA, respectively, last season.

His 124 career steals has him approaching top 10 status in school history.

MCFOLLEY LEADS THE WAY

Junior Josh McFolley broke out with 14 points in the first half and finished with 22 in the road victory at Saint Louis on Nov. 22.

He totaled 15 points against Siena Heights connecting on three triples and tying his career high with five steals and posted his second 20-point game of the season with a team-high 24 points on 8-of-15 shooting with three 3-pointers against Toledo on Dec. 6.

FRESHMAN RECORDS

Freshman Jermaine Jackson Jr. has already established a pair of Titan freshman records with 13 assists and nine steals, achieved in the win over Siena Heights on Nov. 25.

He broke the Titan freshman record of 10 assists by Bill Wood, who did it twice during the 1986-87 season, while the freshman steal record is believed to be five accomplished six times since 1981.

ALMOST A TRIPLE-DOUBLE

Freshman Jermaine Jackson Jr., nearly had the first Titan triple-double since Terry Tyler in 1977 finishing with 16 points, a season-high 13 assists and nine steals against Siena Heights.

The last Titan to have at least nine steals in a game was Jerry Davis, who set a school record with 10 against John Carroll on Dec. 10, 1980, while the 13 assists are the most since Feb. 10, 2000, when Rashad Phillips had 14 at Butler.

The 13 assists are also tied for the eighth most in school history.

BLACKSHEAR IR. ON THE BOARDS

Junior Gerald Blackshear Jr., has come alive on the boards recently grabbing a seasonhigh eight rebounds with five points against Youngstown State.

That was after registering seven rebounds against Cleveland State.

He is also shooting 65.8 percent from the field in limited opportunities (25-of-38).

Last season, he averaged 5.9 points and 4.0 rebounds shooting 61.3 percent (73-of-119), while as a freshman, he tallied 55.2 percent from the field (48-of-87).

UNSTOPPABLE

Senior Jaleel Hogan led the Horizon League and was 23rd in the country in field-goal percentage at 59.1 percent - fourth in school history - last season.

This year, he is shooting 58.3 percent, fourth in the Horizon League, but does not have enough makes to qualify for national leaders.

He entered his senior campaign second in school history in career field goal percentage at 58.9 percent, trailing only Eli Holman's 60.9 percent.

REACHING 100

The Titans reached the 100-point mark for the third time this season with a 131-69 victory over Siena Heights on Nov. 25.

The Titans also reached 100 in a 116-109 victory over Houston Baptist in overtime and a 105-82 win over UM-Dearborn.

The 131 points are the fourth most in school history and the most since tallying a school record 135 against CCNY in 1979.

The 116 points against HBU at the 2K Sports Classic Belmont Subregional broke Belmont's Curb Event Center record for most points.

Detroit Mercy has now reached 100 points 94 times in its history and the three times in a season is the most since hitting 100 on three occasions during the 1979-80 campaign.

LET IT FLY

Detroit Mercy set a school record hoisting up 43 three-point attempts against Houston Baptist on Nov. 19, nailing 12 of them.

The previous record was 36 against Dayton in 1991.

Against Siena Heights, Detroit Mercy was 17-of-28 from behind the arc, just one triple shy of tying the school record of 18 against Milwaukee on Feb. 26, 2000.

The Titans connected on 12-of-25 against Youngstown State and that was after going 13of-19 against Cleveland State

They have now hit 10 or more 3-pointers in 10 games this season and are second in the Horizon League with 9.2 triples per game, 57th in the nation.

GIVE ME THAT

The Titans set a school record with 25 steals - while forcing 36 turnovers - against Siena Heights on Nov. 25.

BLOCK PARTY

Detroit Mercy registered seven blocks for the second time this season at Green Bay.

The main reason is senior Isaiah Jones, who swatted away three shots for the third-straight game and the fourth time this year.

A HELPING HAND

Detroit Mercy has registered at least 21 assists three times this season, including 22 against Houston Baptist and 36 in the triumph over Siena Heights.

The 36 assists were the most since posting a school record 45 against Canisius in 1978.

The Titans rank fourth in the Horizon League with 13.5 assists per game.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW ISAIAH

Senior Isaiah Jones finally made his collegiate debut after dealing with injuries the last two years.

He has played in 12 games this season - making his first start against ETSU - and in three minutes of action at the season opener at Virginia Tech, he grabbed two rebounds and had a block.

Jones injured his knee after his sophomore year at junior college and then missed the following season rehabbing. Last year, he reinjured his knee prior to the start of the season and missed the entire year.

JACK CAN BALL

He had eight points and a season-high four

He grabbed a season-best five boards against Western Michigan, and in his collegiate debut, he knocked down a three at Virginia Tech midway through the first half that gave the Titans a 24-23 lead at the time.

2 FOR 20

Freshman Jermaine Jackson Jr. had 25 points and redshirt junior Kameron Chatman had 22 at Green Bay on Dec. 30.

It marked the third time this season Detroit Mercy has had two players score 20 or more.

Against Houston Baptist, sophomore Corey Allen had 39 and Chatman finished with 22, while against Siena Heights, Allen had 22 and Chatman ended with 23.

WHAT A DEBUT FOR CHATMAN

Redshirt junior Kameron Chatman had a great Titan debut as the former UM transfer led the team with 23 points at Virginia Tech.

He was 9-of-12 from the field, including hitting all four of his 3-pointers, while adding seven boards, two steals and a block.

Chatman's career high was 13 as a sophomore for Michigan against Rutgers.

The 23 points are the most by a Titan in their debut since Brandon Cotton tallied 27 points on 12-of-17 shooting against Eastern Michigan on Dec. 20, 2004.

A LONG DAY

Sophomore Cole Long made his first start of the season against ETSU and he made the most of it scoring a career-high 10 points and handing out a career-best four assists.

He also just recorded a career-high five assists against Youngstown State.

CHATMAN EARNS HL POW

Redshirt junior Kameron Chatman was tabbed the HL Player of the Week on Nov. 27. He averaged 20.5 points, 9.0 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 2.5 steals, while shooting 60.0 percent (18-of-30) from the field and 42.8 percent (3-of-7) from the outside in wins over Saint Louis and Siena Heights.

JACKSON JR. EARNS HL HONOR

After connecting on two 3-pointers in the closing seconds to propel the Titans over Houston Baptist and averaging double figures on the week, Jermaine Jackson Jr. was named the HL Freshman of the Week on Nov. 20.

Jackson Jr. tallied 13.0 points, 5.0 assists, 2.6 rebounds and 1.3 steals in three games. He had 13 points and five assists in the win over UM-Dearborn and then started the weekend with 12 points, two assists and two steals in the match-up with Seattle in the 2K Sports Classic subregional at Belmont.

He had a big performance against HBU finishing with 14 points, five rebounds and a team and season-high eight assists. He nailed a pair of 3-pointers in the last 10 seconds of regulation to send the game into overtime, including the game-tying, step-back triple with just one second left on the clock.

BANG, BANG

Sophomore Corey Allen and junior Josh combined to post 149, 3-pointers last season, which ranked as the 16th best among returning duo three-point specialist entering the 2017-18 season.

HEY DAD

Detroit Mercy will have a couple of family connections as junior Kameron Chatman is the son of assistant coach Canaan Chatman and freshman Jermaine Jackson Jr., is the son of assistant coach and former Titan and HL Player of the Year Jermaine Jackson.

The senior Chatman starred on the court as a player in high school and college. He started his collegiate career at Oregon State before transferring to Portland Community College. He then finished his collegiate career at the University of Portland earning team MVP honors in 1994 and 1995. He led the Pilots in rebounding in both years with 8.1 in 1993-94 and 6.8 in 1994-95, and also topped the team in scoring with 18.3 points as a senior. A twotime First Team All-West Coast Conference selection, he is the fastest person to reach 1,000 points in Portland history needing just 58 games, while his 1,021 overall points is 31st in school history and his 17.3 points per game ranking fifth.

Jackson is a 2010 Detroit Mercy Hall of Fame inductee and two-time All-Horizon League standout who stands 20th all-time in scoring with 1,341 career points. He is also fifth in school history with 509 assists and ninth tallying 142 steals.

He was named the Horizon League Player of the Year in 1999 after averaging 13.9 ppg., and leading the Titans to a 25-6 record and a HL Championship. In his senior season, the two-time All-League honoree netted a teamhigh 17 points and grabbed seven rebounds as he helped put Detroit in the national spotlight when the 12th-seeded Titans upset fifthseeded UCLA, 56-53, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Just a year earlier, he was part of a Titan squad that ended a 19-year NCAA hiatus as the red, white and blue shocked the 10th seed and senior-laden St. John's squad, 66-64.

OPENING UP LCA

Detroit Mercy opened up Joe Louis Arena with a game against Michigan in 1979 and just made history again on Dec. 16 by playing Michigan in the first-ever college basketball game at Little Caesars Arena

The Titans and Wolverines opened Joe Louis Arena with the first-ever event for the facility on Dec. 12, 1979, in front of over 12,000 fans.

The game was part of the Hitachi College Basketball Showcase that also saw Oakland face Michigan State and the event saw a LCA record 20, 695 fans attend.

WELCOME TO THE MOTOR CITY

The early signing period was highly productive for the Titans as they signed two prospects in Cory Hightower Jr. (Norcross, Ga./Meadowcreek) and Adrian Nelson (Reynoldsburg, Ohio/Pickerington Central).

"This week kicks off my second recruiting class cycle and I'm very excited about our new Titans!" said head coach Bacari Alexander '99. "Both Adrian and Cory are athletic and versatile players with very high ceilings. It's so important for us to continue to attract talent from the Midwest and the national recruiting landscape as well."

Hightower Jr. – who is originally from Flint, Michigan – was selected Second Team All-Region as a junior at Meadowcreek High School after averaging 10.4 points, 6.5 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 1.2 steals. The 6-7, 215-lb forward helped the Mustangs to their first state tournament appearance since 2013.

He played AAU with Stackhouse Elite and was invited to the Hoop Seen Elite camp this past summer. He is also the son of Cory Hightower, who was selected in the second round of the 2000 NBA Draft by the San Antonio Spurs and ended up playing professional basketball for over 10 years.

Nelson is a 6-7, 186-lb wing who played for one of the best teams in Ohio in Pickerington Central, helping the school to its second state semifinalist appearance. The Tigers won a 2017 district and regional championship and posted 28 wins a year ago.

He averaged 9.2 points, 6.8 rebounds and 2.7 assists per game and was named to the 270 Hoops Division I Honorable Mention. Nelson was also ranked as the No. 16 prospect in the state of Ohio By Ohio Hoops, including the No. 6 small forward.

THE MAN FROM NEWFOUNDLAND

Sophomore Cole Long is believed to be the first Titan in school history to hail from Newfoundland as well as the only current

Long moved to Orangeville, Ontario, to attend high school at the prestigious Athlete Institute Preparatory School of Basketball.

He was ranked the No. 17 recruit in Canada by Hoops Hype Canada as well as No. 22 by North Pole Hoops. Long finished his two-year prep career with the Athlete Institute, where he played alongside Jamal Murray, who suited up for one season at Kentucky and was the No. 7 pick in the 2016 NBA draft as well as Thon Maker, the No. 10 overall pick in the draft.

DETROIT MERCY HITS 90 PERCENT IN LATEST NCAA GSR REPORT

Detroit Mercy Athletics received high praise as the Titan student-athletes academic success was displayed in the latest Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and Federal Graduation Rate (FGR).

For the 13th-straight year, Detroit Mercy ranked among the top-five in the state – second overall - with a GSR of 90-percent, up from the 82-percent recorded in last year's report. The 90-percent mark trailed only Michigan's 91-percent. The 90-percent GSR was also tied for second in the Horizon League.

The Titans also had four teams with a perfect 100-percent score as well as nine programs who exceeded the national average.

Detroit Mercy student-athletes in women's golf, women's lacrosse, women's tennis and men's tennis achieved perfect graduation success rates, while the rates for men's cross country and track and field (96-percent), softball (94-percent), women's basketball (93-percent), men's soccer (88-percent) and men's basketball (83-percent) were all above the national average.

DETROIT MERCY NAMED NCAA HOST

The University of Detroit Mercy has been named a tournament host for 2021 NCAA men's basketball first and second round tournament games as well as selected as the host institution for the 2020 NCAA Women's Bowling Championship and the 2020 NCAA Men's & Women's Fencing Championships.

Detroit Mercy, in partnership with Olympia Entertainment and the Detroit Sports
Commission, are already set to host 2018
NCAA men's basketball first and second round games on March 16 & March 18, 2018 from the brand-new Little Caesars Arena.

The Titans will again host 2021 NCAA men's basketball first and second round tournament games three years later on March 18 & 20, 2021 from LCA. Detroit Mercy last hosted NCAA men's basketball tournament games in 2009.

GIVING BACK

Detroit Mercy hosted Wayne State on Nov. 4 in the Second Annual City College Series.

The Titans once again partnered with Michigan First Credit Union for the Second Annual "City College Series", benefiting Detroit Public Schools (DPS), grades K-5. All proceeds from the ticket sales were donated to Detroit Public Schools to provide financial assistance for the district's K-5 classrooms with Michigan First contributing a matching donation for all tickets sold.

With over 3,000 people in attendance, the game raised over $10,000 for DPS.

WILLIE GREEN NOW COACHING IN NBA

Willie Green, who starred as a Titan from 1999-2003, was named an assistant coach for the Golden State Warriors in 2016-17, helping the team win a NBA Championship. Green was a part of four winning seasons, including a pair of 20-win campaigns and postseason appearances. As a sophomore, Green helped Detroit Mercy reach the semifinals of the NIT knocking out Bradley, Connecticut and Dayton as the Titans made their way to Madison Square Garden. Detroit Mercy would end the year tying a school record with 25 wins.

Green is still fourth all-time in scoring with 1,779 points, which includes 678 points as a senior, ninth in the Titan record book. As a senior, he was an AP Honorable Mention All-American and the Horizon League Player of the Year after averaging a league-best 22.6 points per game, 12th in school history.

He was selected in the second round (41st) in the 2003 NBA Draft by the Seattle SuperSonics and later traded to the 76ers. He would play seven of his 12 NBA seasons with Philadelphia, averaging a career-high 12.4 points in 2007-08 and 11.3 points in 2006-07.

He finished his career playing in 731 games tallying 8.3 points, 1.8 rebounds and 1.3 assists.

HEAD COACH BACARI ALEXANDER

Former Titan standout basketball player and assistant coach Bacari Alexander was named the 21st head coach in school history on April 22, 2016. He finished his first year on the sidelines in 2016-17 as he looks to lead the Titans back to national prominence.

In his first season, coach Alexander started to put together his program both on and off the court. The offseason brought such announcements as games against in-state rival Michigan at the brand new Little Caesars Arena as well as match-ups against old MCC foe Saint Louis and the ACC's Virginia Tech in the 2K Classic.

On the court, the Titans played one of the toughest schedules in the Horizon League with five postseason teams during the non-conference season. Detroit Mercy also came up with a couple of big conference victories, knocking off first place Oakland on the road and third place Green Bay at home.

As a team, the Titans were second in the HL and 73rd in the nation in three-point field-goal percentage (37.2%), third in the conference and 54th overall in turnovers forced (14.71) as well as fourth in the league and 87th in the country in scoring (77.0).

"This is a great hire for the University and the city of Detroit. Bacari brings so much enthusiasm, ability and leadership to the program. I have known him since he was a kid and through his upbringing, you can tell he was destined for something great. I always thought he would be a great mayor for the city because that is that type of leader he is and he has earned this opportunity to lead his alma mater." - Perry Watson, former Titan head coach

The Titans had one player earn All-Conference honors in second team member Jaleel Hogan as well as the conference's Freshman of the Year Corey Allen.

Alexander, who served as an assistant coach with the University of Michigan for six seasons (2010-2016), was born and raised in the Motor City and transferred to Detroit Mercy for his final three years of college. He later began his coaching career at his alma mater after spending two years with the Harlem Globetrotters.

"My family and I are excited to rejoin the Titan family," said Alexander during his introductory press conference. "Over the years, I have been able to work with a number of great mentors and coaches that have fully prepared me for this opportunity. I am excited to be able to work under the leadership Athletic Director Robert C. Vowels, Jr. and President Dr. Antoine Garibaldi and all of the staff at the University."

The pride of Detroit's Southwestern High School, Alexander started his collegiate career at Robert Morris College from 1994-96, where he played in 55 games and was named to the Northeast Conference's All-Newcomer Team as a freshman. He then decided to transfer back home to Detroit. He would go on to start 57 of his 62 career games for the red, white and blue and helped Detroit Mercy reach championship heights on the hardwood as the Titans won back-to-back Midwestern Collegiate Conference (MCC) regular-season titles. He also helped his alma mater earn NCAA Tournament bids in 1998 and 1999, where Detroit Mercy posted first round wins over St. John's and nationally-ranked UCLA.

As a senior, Alexander was named to the MCC All-Defensive Team and received the President's Award as Detroit Mercy's most outstanding senior student-athlete in 1999. He is still the last men's basketball player to garner that accolade.

After college, he began a professional career working with the Detroit Pistons as a Player Programs Coordinator and then playing with the Harlem Globetrotters for two years before returning to Detroit Mercy again as an assistant coach under Perry Watson. He spent six seasons (2001-07) on the sidelines next to his collegiate coach, helping the Titans post 96 wins and finishing over .500 in conference play five times. Detroit Mercy had three seasons with 18 or more wins, made four trips to the Horizon League Championship semifinals, one finals appearance and an NIT berth in 2002.

Alexander came back to his alma mater after finishing his sixth season with Michigan under head coach John Beilein in 2015-16. In his six years, Alexander helped the Wolverines to five NCAA Tournament bids (2011, '12, '13, '14 & '16), with a trip to the 2013 Final Four and national title game — the first for the program in 20 years, followed by a return trip to the Elite Eight in 2014.

U-M averaged 24 wins per season in his tenure, including a school record tying 31 during the 2012-13 campaign. Michigan claimed a share of the 2012 Big Ten regular-season title with a 13-5 record -- the first for the program since 1986 – and also helped the team win its first outright

"Bacari is such a perfect fit for Detroit. He is an extremely talented basketball coach and is 100 percent ready to lead the Detroit basketball program now and into the future. He has always cherished his time as a student and assistant coach at his alma mater and now he gets to fulfill a dream of being the head coach of the Titans. His ties to the University, the city of Detroit and the state of Michigan will help him on the recruiting trail, as well as enhancing his relationships with students, fans and his fellow alums." - John Beilein, University of Michigan head men's basketball coach

Big Ten title in 28 years in 2014 with a 15-3 record.

He worked and helped eight Wolverine players garner All-Big Ten honors -- Darius Morris (2011), Trey Burke (2012 & '13), Tim Hardaway Jr. (2012 & '13), Nik Stauskas (2014), Caris LeVert (2014), Derrick Walton Jr. (2016) and Zak Irvin (2016). The Wolverines also had back-to-back Big Ten Player of the Years with Burke in 2013 and Stauskas in 2014. In addition, Burke went on to be named a consensus National Player of the Year and All-America honors in 2013.

During Alexander's stint with U-M, seven Wolverines reached the NBA: Morris (2011, No. 41 by Los Angeles Lakers), Burke (2013, No. 9 by Utah Jazz), Hardaway (2013, No. 24 by New York Knicks), Stauskas (2014, No. 8 by Sacramento Kings), Mitch McGary (2014, No. 21 by Oklahoma City Thunder), Glenn Robinson III (2014, No. 40 by Minnesota Timberwolves) and Caris LeVert (2016, No. 20 by Indiana Pacers).

Throughout his coaching career, Alexander has developed over 80 percent of his former frontcourt players to gain opportunities to play professional basketball at various levels.

Alexander came to Michigan after spending two seasons at Western Michigan (2008-10), where he worked with the Broncos' frontcourt players. The Broncos would go on to win their second-straight MAC West Division championship in 2009. Prior to his work with the Broncos, he spent one season at Ohio University (2007-08), where the Bobcats won 20 games and made the second round of the College Basketball Invitational.

As a member of the Harlem Globetrotters, he toured in 13 countries while also directing several camps for the team around the United States. He also served as an "Advance Ambassador" for the Globetrotters, performing public relations duties, while making media and school appearances. In 2002, he along with all past and current Globetrotters were inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

In high school at Southwestern, he won a state championship as a freshman with his future college coach Perry Watson leading the way. As a senior, he was Third Team All-PSL by the Detroit Free Press and Honorable Mention All-Metro and All-State by the Detroit News. He was also Southwestern's Scholar-Athlete award winner.

He graduated from the University of Detroit Mercy in 1999 with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and Finance.

Alexander and his wife, Kesha, have one son, Mekhi.
