QUICK HITTERS

- This is the 46th year of the Horizon League (1979-80) and the 45th with Detroit Mercy as a member, as the Titans are the eldest program in the league

- UDM will start this season by playing four of the top six teams in the league according to the preseason poll in Purdue Fort Wayne, Wright State, NKU and Youngstown State

- UDM will be without a trio of starters as Mak Manciel (ankle) and Jared Lary (knee) will miss the rest of the season, while Emmanuel Kuac is out indefinitely with a knee injury

- Redshirt freshman Grant Gondrezick II is tallying 14.8 points, 4.0 rebounds and 2.0 assists in his last six games, scoring in double figures in all six with a pair of 20-point contests

- Junior Orlando Lovejoy leads the team in scoring, rebounding, assists and steals

ALL-TIME SERIES

Detroit Mercy has dominated the all-time series, 40-18, but Youngstown State has won six in a row and nine of the last 11 meetings.

The Titans are 17-11 all-time on the road, but have dropped four in a row and five of the last seven games at the Zidian Family Arena at Beeghly Center.

OUR HL HISTORY

The red, white and blue are now 305-362 all-time in the Horizon League, winning the regular league championships in 1998 and 1999 and the conference title in 1994, 1999 and 2012.

TOUGH FOES IN THE NON-CONFERENCE

The Titans will play a few home games in the non-conference campaign. Three will take place in November, marking the most home games since they had three in the 2018-19 season.

Overall, the Titans' 10 DI opponents are 75-45 (.625) on the year, highlighted by Rhode Island (11-1), Wisconsin (10-3), Davidson (9-3), Loyola (9-4) and Wake Forest (9-3).

LOCAL & GLOBAL TITANS

Detroit Mercy will have a lot of local flair this year, as 10 of the 15 Titans hail from Michigan.

The 10 homegrown products are the most on the roster since UDM had 12 student-athletes from the Great Lakes State in 2017-18.

Along with those Titans, Detroit Mercy also has a player from Wisconsin, two from Canada and a player from France and Nigeria.

A FEW NEW FACES

With 11 new players on the 15-man roster, the Titans returned just 14.2% of their scoring, 12.9% of their rebounding, and 18.0% of their minutes played from last season.

Most of that was with Mak Manciel and Emmanuel Kuac coming back, which means since UDM is dealing with the injuries, it has virtually a new team from last season.

LOOKING FOR THE NEXT BENCHMARK

The Titans have already eclipsed last year's win total of one and snapped a 22-game road slide with a win at Ball State.

UDM posted four wins in November, the most in the month since going 4-3 at the start of the 2017-18 season.

MEDIA NOTE

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

All postgame interviews, except those needed for live television, will be conducted in the media room following the conclusion of the contest. On the road, Coach Montgomery and players are available on a request basis only. All requests should be directed to P.J. Gradowski before the end of the game by texting him at 313-585-0982.

INTERVIEW REQUEST

All player and coach interviews must be arranged through the Detroit Mercy Athletic Communications Office at least 24 hours in advance.

Generally, the Titans will practice from 3-6:00 p.m., with all practices closed to the public. Media interested in watching practice need to contact Detroit Mercy sports information for approval with social distance rules and making enforced. In addition, the Titan locker room, training room and weight room are off limits to all media personnel.

RUNNING THE OFFENSE

The Titans scored 90 points for the second time this season in their 98-89 road win at Eastern Michigan. They also won 91-52 versus Cleary to start the year.

The 98 points were the most since UDM recorded 99 in two overtimes at Robert Morris last year, the only time it was in the 90's.

UDM's 54.8% shooting against the Eagles was the best since hitting 59.6% (31-of-52) at Wright State last year, while the 17 assists were the second most on the year after the 19 against Cleary.

They nearly went over 50.0% again, ending with 48.3% (29-of-60) versus Purdue Fort Wayne, including 65.5% (19-of-29 overall and 9-of-14 from three) in the second half.

UDM also nailed a season-high 11 triples against the Mastodons, the most since connecting on 12 last year at Wright State.

NOT YOUR NBA GAME

The Titans are currently second in the Horizon League and 52nd in the nation, hitting at 37.3% from downtown.

But a little different than in years past or today's professional game, UDM is 10th in the HL and 311th in DI connecting on 6.3 per game and 11th in the conference and 346th in the country with just 16.9 attempts per game.

In fact, the red, white and blue have made double-digit 3-pointers just once this season (11 vs. PFW) and three times going back to the start of last year (span of 46 games).

DOMINATING THE GLASS

Detroit Mercy has owned the glass this year, outrebounding its opponents in nine of its 14 games. The Titans are second in the Horizon League and 55th in the country with 39.1 rebounds per game, second in the HL and 56th in the country with 13.0 offensive boards, and fourth in the league and 123rd in DI with a +3.9 rebounding average.

UDM registered a 48-31 tally at Wake Forest (14-6 on offense). The Titans outrebounded Ball State, 40-30, with 13 offensive and collected 15 of the last 20 rebounds in the contest to seal the win.

Detroit Mercy took the glass against Niagara, 49-28, the first time it had a margin of +20 or more since a 53-20 advantage at home over Youngstown State in 2016.

The Titans pulled down 53 rebounds in the season opener against Cleary, the most since the 53 they had against Youngstown State. They also edged Loyola, 40-39, which included 20 offensive caroms, and Tulsa, 47-44, 16-9 on offense.

GIVE US ONE MORE CHANCE

UDM's outstanding work on the glass has led to a 175-123 margin on second-chance points on the season.

Detroit Mercy had 20 second-chance points in the season opener against Cleary, 22 at Loyola, and tallied a 17-4 margin at Ball State and 18-6 versus Wright State.

Last year, UDM had just one game all season long with 15 second-chance points.

PLAYING SOME DEFENSE

In the win at Ball State, the Titans held a team under 60 points on the road for the first time since a 71-58 triumph at Milwaukee in 2021-22.

At Wake Forest, the Titans forced the Demon Deacons into missing 25 of their last 31 from behind the arc and 16 for their last 50 shots overall after starting the contest 8-of-11.

Against Tulsa, the defense held the Golden Hurricane into 8-of-25 (32.0%) from the field and 4-of-17 (23.5%) from three in the second half, while Purdue Fort Wayne was 6-of-26 from three in the second half and Wisconsin 7-of-35 from distance.

313 IS WHERE O WANTS TO BE

He has been remarkably consistent on offense and defense, scoring in double figures in 10 games, including a pair of 20-point efforts, as well as grabbing at least three rebounds in 12 games and five on six occasions.

He also has at least three assists in 11 games and five or more in six, ranking fourth in the league with 4.3 per game, as well as at least one steal in 12 games with five multi-steal contests, including a career-high five at Loyola and four at Davidson and at NKU, and is fourth in the HL with 1.86 steals per game.

Lovejoy just tallied 20 points with four rebounds and three assists at Wisconsin.

He had a team-high 16 points with five rebounds, four assists, and four steals at NKU. The guard tallied 14 points, seven rebounds, four assists, and two steals against Wright State, and that was after 18 points and a career-high nine assists against Purdue Fort Wayne. He recorded 18 points with seven assists and three steals at EMU, tying the game with a layup with just three ticks on the clock.

He scored a career-high 28 points on 10-of-20 shooting and 8-of-8 at the free-throw line (no 3-pointers) against Rhode Island, with seven assists, four rebounds, and two steals and had a team-high 15 points, eight boards, and handed out six assists at Wake Forest.

On the year, he leads the team at 14.1 points, 4.4 rebounds, and 4.3 assists, shooting 41.9% overall and 82.1% at the line, ranking in the top 10 in the HL in scoring, assists, assist-to-turnover ratio (60a - 30t), steals, free-throw percentage and minutes played (33:25).

GEETER READY TO MAKE HIS OWN LEGEND

After stops at Providence and Eastern Michigan, junior Legend Geeter has found himself at home in his hometown.

He has been in double figures in five of the last seven games.

At Davidson, he netted 17 points - hitting a career-high five 3-pointers - along with three rebounds, two steals and a block.

Geeter had a great opening week of conference play, scoring 10 points, grabbing eight rebounds with two assists and a block against Wright State, and that was after a career game, netting a career-high 22 points, going 9-of-12 from the field and 3-of-4 from distance ringing in the game-winning triple against Purdue Fort Wayne, while corralling nine boards.

He scored 14 points, along with three boards, three assists, and a steal at EMU, after 11 points, six rebounds, and a career-high four steals with a block against Rhode Island. Earlier in the year, he recorded 14 points against Niagara, going 3-of-5 from the field and 8-of-8 at the free-throw line.

On the year, he is averaging 9.1 points and 4.0 rebounds, shooting 45.2% (42-of-93) overall and 12-of-24 from three.

Geeter - who was coached in high school by Titan assistant coach LaMonta Stone and was a top-50 recruit in the nation - started his career in the BIG EAST at Providence but did not see action in any games and spent the last two seasons at EMU.

WHAT NADEAU ABOUT NOTHING

Freshman TJ Nadeau was in double figures for the fourth time this season, ending with 11 points versus Wright State.

Nadeau started HL play with nine points, five rebounds, an assist, a block and a steal against Purdue Fort Wayne.

He had a season-best 16 points at EMU, hitting 5-of-7 from the field, 2-of-2 from distance, and 4-of-4 at the line.

Before that, he posted 13 points with a season-best nine boards at Wake Forest and netted his first double-digit effort with 10 points against Toledo.

As a rookie, he is averaging 7.1 points, with 17 of his 34 field goals coming from behind the arc, the most triples on the squad..

NATE THE GREAT

Freshman Nate Johnson has held his own as a rookie on the hardwood, registering five games in double figures, 11 games with three or more rebounds, and four games with at least two assists.

On the year, he is averaging 6.9 points, 3.6 rebounds and 1.0 assists, shooting 38.1% overall.

He scored 11 points with four rebounds and a block at NKU, his third straight game in double figures, after registering 10 points with four rebounds at Davidson and 12 points, three rebounds and two assists against Wright State. Prior to that Johnson added 11 points and five rebounds versus EMU and 13 points at Loyola.

Johnson was named the Under Armour Freshman of the Week on Nov. 11 as he showed his all-around skills in his first three collegiate games, averaging 10.3 points, 5.7 rebounds and 2.0 assists, hitting 10-of-23 (43.5%) from the field, with four triples.

He started his collegiate career with nine points, seven rebounds, and three assists in the win over Cleary. He came back and added 13 points and three boards at Loyola, then tallied nine points, seven rebounds, two assists, and a steal in the come-from-behind win over Niagara.

PUTTING IN THE MILES

Freshman Miles Mitchell was a candidate to redshirt at the start of the season, but after not playing the first three games, he has come off the bench, providing a spark on offense and defense.

He has 21 rebounds in the last three games, grabbing seven at Wisconsin, a season-high eight with a block and a steal at NKU and six with a block at Davidson.

Mitchell finished with eight points and had four rebounds in just 13 minutes against Rhode Island and notched two points, four rebounds, an assist and a block in 15 minutes of action at EMU.

He is 13-of-25 from the field (52.0%) on the year, with all of those field goals coming around the basket.

KALAMBAY'S PLAY

Freshman Ryan Kalambay had one of his strongest games as he tied for the team lead with a season-high six boards to go with two assists, two steals and a block at Davidson.

He had two points, three rebounds, two blocks, and a steal against Rhode Island. He had his second-straight game with five rebounds, three points, two steals and a block against Tulsa after pulling down five rebounds with a block at Wake Forest.

GIVE ME A GRANT

Redshirt freshman Grant Gondrezick II has really come on since the start of the year, reaching double figures in six straight games after scoring just 16 total points in his first seven.

He started his scoring streak by stepping up when his team needed him at Eastern Michigan, posting a season-high 22 points, a season-best seven rebounds, three assists, and a steal as he was 7-of-14 from the field, 2-of-4 from three, and 6-of-7 at the charity stripe.

He just registered his second 20-point scoring game with 20 at Wisconsin, going 8-of-18 overall and 3-of-4 from three. He had 12 points with five rebounds, four assists, and two steals at NKU and ended with 13 points at Davidson. Before that, he recorded 11 points, four rebounds, two assists, and two steals against Wright State, and added 11 points, four rebounds, and two assists versus Purdue Fort Wayne.

He did not see any action at Elon last year, but was a high scorer at Benton Harbor, posting nearly 2,000 career points. As a senior, he netted 997 total points, averaging 25.3 points, 4.4 assists, 3.8 rebounds, and 2.5 steals. He earned First Team All-State and was named to the Mr. Basketball Top 10 Watchlist for 2023.

His dad, Grant Gondrezick, played college basketball at Pepperdine and then two seasons in the NBA for the Suns, while his mother, Felicia, won the 1988 NCAA Championship at Louisiana Tech.

His older sister, Kalabrya, played college basketball at Michigan State, while his other sister, Kysre, was Miss Basketball in Michigan, played for Michigan and West Virginia and currently plays in the WNBA.

His uncle, Glen, his dad's brother, played at UNLV and spent six seasons in the NBA with the Knicks and Nuggets.

A DOUBLE-DOUBLE FOR OKORO

Freshman Stephen Okoro talked about being a Dennis Rodman-type player and is averaging 4.0 rebounds on the season, with 25 on offense and 26 on defense.

He pulled down a game-high nine boards against Tulsa, with four off the offensive glass.

He had four rebounds, two points, a block, and an assist in 10 minutes at Wake Forest and five rebounds with a block against Toledo.

Okoro had three points and a team-best six boards at Loyola and made an impact in his Titan debut against Cleary. He played just 16 minutes and came away with a double-double of 13 points and a game-high 10 rebounds, connecting on 6-of-8 from the field.

He is the first Titan to have a double-double in his debut since senior Gerald Liddell at Purdue Fort Wayne in 2022, while the last freshman to accomplish the task was Marquis Moore at IUPUI in 2019.

JUST KUAC THIS

Graduate senior Emmanuel Kuac was off to a strong start in his second Titan season but is out indefinitely with a knee injury after playing in the first 11 games.

He posted a team-high 18 points, connecting on 6-of-8 from the field and 5-of-7 from three, against Toledo and had a 13-point performance at Ball State, where he was 5-of-10 overall and 3-of-6 from behind the arc.

Kuac just netted 11 points with six boards against Purdue Fort Wayne and had 12 points, six rebounds, two assists, and a steal versus Niagara.

For his career, Kuac has made 108 field goals, 53 of those from three, including 34 of his 60 field goals as a Titan.

Kuac missed the first 12 games of last year's season, recovering from an injury he sustained before arriving at UDM. However, he never fully recovered, recording 4.3 points and 2.9 rebounds in 19 games.

He showed what he could do when healthy at Milwaukee, shooting 9-of-19 and 7-of-13 from three en route to a career-high 27 points, a season-high eight rebounds, a career-tying three steals, and a block.

FUCHS JR'S LOOKING FOR AN OPPORTUNITY

Junior Peter Fuchs Jr. has moved around for the best opportunity to play at the highest level, and now he has that chance.

He just returned home and scored six points at Wisconsin.

Fuchs Jr. scored his first DI points with a basket against Cleary, had seven against Tulsa in the Jacksonville Classic and two key free throws against Purdue Fort Wayne.

He came to the Titans from Minnesota-Crookston, where he missed his freshman year with an injury. He returned to play in 22 games last season and averaged 6.4 points and 1.8 rebounds.

Fuchs Jr. shot 40.9% from the field and 77.3% at the free-throw line, tallying a season-high 16 points against Wayne State (Neb.).

IT HAS BEEN A WHILE

The Titans earned an overtime win against Niagara, the first win in extra time since a 116-109 victory against Houston Baptist (Houston Christian) in 2017.

UDM added another at Eastern Michigan, giving the red, white, and blue two overtime triumphs in a year for the first time since 2013-14.

HOW ABOUT THAT MAK-TION

Senior Mak Manciel has had a strong start to the season, leading the Titans at 13.4 points per game, shooting 41.7% from the field and 38.1% from three.

He suffered an injury at Ball State and is out for the season.

Manciel tallied a career-high 30 points and eight rebounds against Niagara, where he was a career-best 9-of-15 from the field and 6-of-7 from behind the arc, netting 18 of his points in the second half, six of which were in overtime.

LARY HAS FOUND A HOME AT UDM

Junior Jared Lary had just started to find his role at Detroit Mercy, but suffered a knee injury at Eastern Michigan and will miss the rest of the season.

He showed that he can do a little of everything in his nine games, tallying 9.1 points, 4.0 rebounds, 1.2 assists and 1.1 steals per game.

He had 10 points, a season-tying six rebounds with a block against Rhode Island. Lary recorded a team-high 12 points, three rebounds, two steals, and an assist versus Tulsa and netted a season-high 15 points - all in the second half - shooting 6-of-9 overall and 3-of-4 from three, with four rebounds, three assists, two steals, and a block at Ball State.

TITANS INK TALENTED PAIR

Detroit Mercy started the early signing period with local standout Lance Stone and Ohio sensation Jekel Cotton.

Stone hails from the Motor City and stars at Renaissance High School and is the son of assistant coach LaMonta Stone.

He is a three-time All-State selection, who was named Third Team as a freshman and First Team last year by the Detroit News, as well as First Team by the Associated Press and tabbed Detroit Mr. Basketball as a junior, the first time a junior ever received the honor.

A two-time All-City selection and was the PSL Male Athlete of the Year as a junior, he has tallied over 1000 career points and 500 career assists and is a 2025 Mr. Basketball nominee.

A three-star and a top-five recruit in Michigan by 247 Sports and ESPN, as well as a top 55 point guard by ESPN, he is the highest rated player from the state to sign with Detroit Mercy out of high school since Ray McCallum in 2010 as well as the first-ever Detroit Mr. PSL to ink with UDM out of high school.

Cotton has been a high riser and scorer at Lima Senior High School in Ohio and has been impressive on the AAU circuit.

Cotton led his team in scoring last year at 17.3 points per game to go with 7.0 rebounds until an injury ended his season. He tallied 9.7 points as a sophomore and was named Second Team All-Conference

A three-star and a top-10 recruit in Ohio by 247 Sports and was a Toledo top-64 player, he helped his team to a share of the Toledo City Athletic League championship as a freshman.

He played AAU with All-Ohio Select and was a standout at the Nike EYBL Peach Jam

COACH MONTY'S STAFF

Head coach Mark Montgomery has surrounded himself with a blend of veterans and young coaches on his staff, and a few of them are very familiar.

Lamar Chapman has spent nearly 25 years coaching high school and college basketball and was on Mark Montgomery's staff at Northern Illinois. He spent last season as head coach of Caledonia High School in Caledonia, Michigan, and before that, he was an assistant coach at Gordan State, a junior college in Georgia.

Mike Peck, a native of Gaylord, Michigan, has coached at the DI, professional and high school levels in his 20 years. He helped build one of the top prep programs in the country in Findlay Prep, which produced numerous DI student-athletes and professional players, before coaching in the G-League and last year at Texas San Antonio.

Detroit native LaMonta Stone is a veteran with 30 years of coaching experience at the collegiate and high school level. He was the Director of Basketball Operations at Eastern Michigan last year and, prior to that, was the head coach at his alma mater, River Rouge High School.

Chris MacMartin was a student manager, graduate assistant, video coordinator and Director of Operations for NIU when coach Montgomery was there and spent last season as an assistant coach at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater.

Ian Jones is a former East Carolina basketball player who was a graduate assistant at Michigan State for the last three years when Montgomery was on staff.

Collyn Richardson worked for Toledo for the last six years, starting as a student manager and moving to head manager as a junior, then to the Rockets' video coordinator from 2022-24.

THE PRESEASON

Senior Mak Manciel led the Titans with 13 points and freshman Nate Johnson added 11 as Detroit Mercy raised money for Detroit Public Schools, K-5, in the 6th Annual City College Series.

The Titans dropped the charity exhibition to Wayne State.

With 1,203 people at the game and Michigan First Credit Union's matching gift, the charity exhibition contest raised $4,812 for the DPS Foundation. In the event's history, Titan Athletics and Michigan First have helped raise nearly $40,000 for DPS K-5 through ticket sales and matching gift from the Credit Union.

WILLIE GREEN NOW GUIDING NEW ORLEANS

Willie Green was named the head coach of the New Orleans Pelicans and is now in his fourth year as a NBA head coach.

He helped the team to a 36-46 record, finishing ninth in the Western Conference and securing a spot in the NBA Play-In Tournament in his first season. The Pelicans would go on to beat the San Antonio Spurs and the Los Angeles Clippers en route to their first playoff berth since the 2017–18 season.

In his second year, they were 42-40 and just missed the playoffs, while last season, they posted a 49-33 mark and were back in the postseason.

Green starred as a Titan from 1999-2003, was named an assistant coach for the Phoenix Suns in 2019 after spending the prior four seasons on the Golden State Warriors staff, helping the team win two NBA Championships.

Green was a part of four Titan winning seasons, including a pair of 20-win campaigns and postseason appearances.

As a sophomore, Green helped Detroit Mercy reach the semifinals of the NIT, knocking out Bradley, Connecticut and Dayton as the Titans made their way to Madison Square Garden.

Green is still fourth all-time in scoring with 1,779 points. As a senior, he was an AP Honorable Mention All-American and the HL Player of the Year after averaging a league-best 22.6 points per game.

He was selected in the second round (41st) in the 2003 NBA Draft by the Seattle SuperSonics and later traded to the 76ers. He would play seven of his 12 NBA seasons with Philadelphia, averaging a career-high 12.4 points in 2007-08 and 11.3 points in 2006-07.

He finished his career playing in 731 games, tallying 8.3 points, 1.8 rebounds and 1.3 assists.

UDM RANKED HIGH AGAIN

Detroit Mercy is off to a record-breaking start with the largest first-year class in more than 30 years and a ranking that puts it among the top 50 universities.

The 2025 Wall Street Journal/College Pulse ranking has put UDM at No. 43 in the nation, nine places higher than it ranked the University last year.

The Wall Street Journal/College Pulse rankings are based on social mobility, which rewards universities with the highest proportion of students coming from lower-income families and maintain high graduation rates; salary impact, which lists schools in order of their impact on graduates' salaries in relation to the cost of attending; and student experience, based on a survey of more than 110,000 college students at 500 of the nation's best universities.

UDM's ranking was derived after being placed:

39 in social mobility, an increase of nine spots from 2024 rankings.

44 in best salaries, an increase of 21 spots from 2024 rankings (previously titled Salary Impact).

91 in best value, a new category for 2025.

The 2025 ranking also makes UDM:

The second-highest ranked university in Michigan.

The top ranked Catholic university in the state.

The No. 2 Catholic university in the Midwest.

The sixth-highest ranking Catholic university in the United States.

The fifth ranked university among all Association of Jesuit Colleges & Universities in the country.

The highest-ranked Mercy institution.

TITANS NIL OPPORTUNITIES

The Titans have a partnership with Basepath, a NIL company that works with Athletic Departments that want to enable NIL opportunities for their student-athletes. They provide operational infrastructure to make this process simple: contract approval flows, task management for quid pro quo verification, automated co-branding deals, and a compliance dashboard to view all the activity at your department.

HL ANNOUNCES BRAND RECHARGE

The Horizon League has announced a brand recharge last season. The recharge includes the introduction of a secondary icon logo, a new #OurHorizon social media campaign and updated visual elements and messaging points.

The updated messaging emphasizes all aspects of the holistic person as well as the impact that the current experiences of student-athletes, distinctive within the League, have on the rest of their lives. In the coming months, the HL will be starting new messaging campaigns to better highlight and focus on the student-athlete experience within the Horizon League.

The communication strategy emphasizes four key pillars of the HL Experience: Major Cities, Major Experiences, Major Moves and Major Impact.

Major Cities highlights exposure to entities and experiences unique to major metro cities (professional sports, media, culture, arts, business) in the HL's footprint.

Major Experiences focuses on NCAA Division I competition and championships and ESPN exposure across the League.

Major Moves highlights the League's commitment to innovation and forward-thinking approach to challenges while addressing emerging trends in all aspects of the college sports environment.

Major Impact emphasizes how our League through our members and student-athletes lead in our metropolitan campus communities and championship host cities.

HORIZON LEAGUE ANNOUNCES TV SCHEDULE

The Horizon League has released our 2024-25 #HLMBB television schedule, featuring six regular season games, including five League contests and one non-League battle, on ESPN linear networks.

Why it Matters: A total of eight Horizon League matchups will air on ESPN linear networks including five during the regular season. Additionally, Oakland's non-League contest against Michigan State at Little Caesars Arena will also air on ESPN2.

All League regular season games during the 2024-25 season will be "wildcard" selections to ensure the best matchups possible. All 11 teams will begin the season with an opportunity to be featured on ESPN2/ESPNU during League play.

The Horizon League has streamed every League basketball game for an industry-best 18 consecutive seasons, making #MajorMoves in 2007 with the groundbreaking Horizon League Network, continuing a relationship that began with the 1988 Midwestern Collegiate Conference men's basketball championship game. The entire men's championship in Indianapolis will be televised on ESPN linear networks from the Indiana State Fairgrounds Coliseum.

ALL-TIME TITANS IN THE NBA/ABA

The Titans have had a number of student-athletes move into the professional ranks with 22 players drafted by the NBA/ABA as well as 22 players who have appeared in an NBA game, with the latest being Paris Bass (2013-15) for the Phoenix Suns in 2021-22.

OUR COURT NAMED AFTER DICKY V

Dick Vitale was honored as the court was renamed after him in 2012.

He was the head coach at the University from 1973-77, tallying a 78-30 record with a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 1977.

He recruited the likes of John Long, Terry Tyler, Terry Duerod and Wilbert McCormick and turned Calihan Hall into one of the most visited venues in college basketball in the late 70's.

He went 17-9 in each of his first two seasons and posted a 19-8 mark in 1975-76. In his final year as a head coach, the Titans torched the competition, going 25-4, including a 21-game winning streak, and earning a bid to the NCAA Tournament. They would defeat Middle Tennessee State, 93-76, for the school's first-ever victory in the NCAA Tournament and then took on a powerful Michigan squad, dropping an 86-81 decision.

Vitale has been selected for 10 hall of fames in his career.

119 YEARS OF TITAN BASKETBALL

This season is the 119th year of collegiate basketball at the University of Detroit Mercy - the oldest Division I program in the state - as the Tigers – yes, Tigers as they were called back then - beat Collegiate, 18-7, in the first official Detroit basketball game in 1905.

Until 1919, the U-D teams were known as the Tigers. In the fall of 1919, Detroit Free Press' sportswriter Stan Brink, who was covering football for the paper, thought that a good nickname for the team would be the Titans.

In its 118 years (two years records are missing in 1907-08 and 1908-09), Detroit Mercy is 1474-1342 (.540) with two regular-season HL Championships (1998, 1999) and three tournament titles (1994, 1999, 2012).

HEAD COACH MARK MONTGOMERY

Mark Montgomery was hired as the program's 23rd head coach in school history on April 3, 2024. Montgomery is a former UDM assistant coach and was most recently an assistant coach with the Michigan State University men's basketball team.

Montgomery was chosen from a pool of more than 100 national candidates. The search process was conducted by an advisory committee of alumni, former Titan student-athletes, donors and supporters, faculty, staff, and University leaders in conjunction with College Sports Associates (CSA), a leading college athletics executive search firm.

Through this process, UDM narrowed the pool to nine semifinalists with four finalists recommended. Montgomery emerged as the top candidate and had a final interview with Donald B. Taylor, president of UDM, and Michael T. McNamara, chair of the University Board of Trustees.

"After spending time with Mark and hearing his vision, we are confident that Coach Montgomery will bring our men's basketball program back to the national stage," Taylor said. "His experience, approach to strategy and proven success building winning programs and recruiting the top talent in the state of Michigan and beyond are just a few of the numerous reasons he emerged as the leading candidate."

Montgomery is equally confident about building a winning team and culture.

"I would like to thank President Taylor, Robert Vowels and everyone on the search committee for giving me this opportunity to be the new head coach at University of Detroit Mercy," Montgomery said. "Growing up in the area, you heard about the history of the University, the great players, the atmosphere and historic Calihan Hall. Those teams were nationally known and they played the best and beat the best. I am so honored and humbled to lead the program back to where it was."

He praised Tom Izzo, legendary coach of the Michigan State Spartans men's basketball team, for whom he worked as an assistant coach.

"To Coach Izzo, I thank you for always being there for me and guiding me through the coaching realm and helping me to get to where I am today. You have been not only a teacher and mentor, but a friend and I thank you for always being there for me."

Montgomery continued: "To all the fans, alums, former and current student-athletes and the Detroit community, know that I am ready to lead this program and make everyone proud to be a Titan. We will fight and compete and I expect that my players and staff will embrace the hard work and commitment it takes to win. When we do, we will be proud that all of us are in this together as one Titan family."

"Coach Montgomery is a highly distinguished veteran coach who has seen success at both a mid-major and national level," UDM Athletic Director Robert Vowels said. "His roots in metro Detroit are well known, he has a national presence as a recruiter, and he has seen what it takes to build a program. He has learned from some of the best coaches in NCAA history and was a standout student-athlete. I feel with all that experience, his previous familiarity with the University and the basketball program from the inside will be important for a smooth transition and he is exactly the coach we need to relate to student-athletes today and to bring our program back to the top of the Horizon League."

13 Postseason Appearances

Eight Postseason Wins

Izzo, a Naismith Hall of Fame head coach, believes that Montgomery will make an immediate and long-lasting impact at UDM, given his approach to the game.

"I'm thrilled for Monty and very excited for the opportunity he has as the head coach at University of Detroit Mercy," Izzo said. "Monty returned to Michigan State three years ago and has been an important part of my staff and our recruiting. He is one of the best and brightest coaches I've worked with during my career. Monty has a great understanding of the game, he's called our offensive sets and is an incredibly hard worker who is very organized and knows how to run a program. I think this is a great opportunity for Monty to run the program in Detroit and look forward to seeing the success he has there."

A native of Inkster, Montgomery starred in the prep ranks at Aquinas High School and was a four-year starter at Michigan State as a student-athlete. He eventually became an assistant coach for 13 years during two different stints at his alma mater. In all, during his 13 total seasons on Izzo's staff at MSU (2001-11, 2021-24), the Spartans made 13 trips to the NCAA Tournament with three Final Four appearances. He coached 32 All-Big Ten players as well as nine players who went on to play in the NBA.

In the last three years with MSU, he helped the Spartans reach 20 wins and the NCAA Tournament in every season. Michigan State also won a game in the NCAA Tournament in all three years, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2023. He was also part of a staff that brought in the No. 5 recruiting class in the country in 2023-24 as ranked by 247 Sports.

Before returning to East Lansing, Montgomery served on the staff at UDM for the final few months of the 2020-21 campaign. During that time, the Titans went 11-3 to finish the year at 12-10, the only winning record for the program in the last eight seasons.

Montgomery was also the head coach at Northern Illinois University (NIU) from 2011-21, leading the team to both a postseason appearance and a victory over a ranked opponent. His 124 wins were the third-most in school history and his 21-win campaign in 2015-16 was tied for the second-most victories in school history. He led the team to a share of the MAC West Division crown in 2019-20, which was only the fifth division title since the school moved to DI in 1967. Under his watch, his student-athletes accumulated three NABC All-District honors, six All-MAC honors, and four MAC All-Freshman Team recognitions and one Lou Henson All-America Team selection.

In 2010, prior to his arrival at NIU, Montgomery was named one of the top five high-major assistant coaches in the country by FoxSports.com. In addition, then FoxSports.com national college basketball writer Jeff Goodman named Montgomery the top assistant coach in the Big Ten Conference based on a poll of league coaches.

Montgomery began his coaching career as an assistant at Central Michigan in 1997-98. Following a 6-23 season in 1999-2000, the Chippewas made a worst-to-first turnaround the following season, finishing the 2000-01 campaign with a 20-8 record, winning the MAC with a conference mark of 14-4.

An outstanding player during his collegiate career, Montgomery played for Jud Heathcote at Michigan State from 1988-92. A 1992 All-Big Ten Third Team selection, Montgomery ended his career as the then-career leader in games played at MSU (126). A four-year starter for the Spartans, he was part of the 1990 Big Ten Championship team, three NCAA Tournament teams and an NIT Final Four team. Montgomery ranks fourth on the career assists chart (561) after leading the team in assists as a junior (169) and senior (190). He also ranks fourth on the MSU career steals list (168). He was also a two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree.

Following his collegiate career, Montgomery played four years of professional basketball in Europe, where he averaged more than 25 points a game during his time in Germany, Lithuania and Sweden.
