THE SETTING: For the second time in five days Drake will battle Bradley, this time with the stakes the highest, as the seventh-seeded Bulldogs play the 10th-seeded Braves in the opening round of the State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament on Thursday (March 3) at the Scottrade Center in St. Louis, Mo. Game time is slated for approximately 8:35 p.m. and the contest will be televised by Fox Sports Midwest with Mitch Holtus and Mac McCausland calling the action.

THE SERIES: Drake is meeting Bradley for the 132nd time in school history. The Braves own a 78-53 series advantage and have won five of the last seven games. In the two previous meetings this season, the Bulldogs earned a 64-58 home win on Jan. 7, 2011, before dropping a 90-64 decision at Bradley last Saturday (Feb. 26).

IN OUR LAST MEETINGS:

Bradley 90, Drake 64 (Feb. 26, 2011)

PEORIA, ILL. - On a night when freshman Rayvonte Rice established a new Drake freshman scoring record, it proved to be an inspired Bradley squad on Senior Night that was too much for the Bulldogs to overcome as they dropped a 90-64 decision on Saturday (Feb. 26) in their regular season finale.

Junior Kurt Alexander directed the Bulldog attack with a team- and career-high 15-point performance. Andrew Warren poured in a game- and career-best 33 points to lead Bradley.

The Braves connected on 63.2 percent of their shots in the game and 76.9 percent in the second half, while limiting Drake, who had posted back-to-back 50-percent shooting marks, to a 37.1 field goal percentage.

Rice joined Alexander with a double-figure scoring effort registering 14 points. Alexander provided a team-high four assists in the contest, while sophomore Seth VanDeest posted a seven-rebound effort.

Bradley also received double-figure scoring efforts from Dodie Dunson, Dyracus Simms-Edwards and Will Egolf, who recorded 17, 15 and 11 points, respectively.

The 90 points were the most Drake had surrendered to a league opponent this season.

The game started on a different tone for the Bulldogs as they took an early 6-5 advantage before the Braves executed a 10-0 run to assume a 15-6 lead.

A jumper by sophomore Aaron Hawley ended the run before Bradley scored nine of the next 13 points to go ahead 24-12.

Nailing his first three-pointer of the season was redshirt sophomore Jordan Clarke before Alexander added a long jumper to cut the deficit to 24-17.

The Braves registered nine of the game's next 11 points to stretch the margin to 33-19 before redshirt freshman David Smith ended the run with a jumper with 3:47 left in the half.

Smith's field goal proved to be Drake's last of the half as the Bulldogs scored their final five points of the stanza at the free throw line and entered the intermission trailing 39-26.

Bradley recorded a 51.6 percent shooting mark in the initial 20 minutes, while limiting Drake to 34.5 percent from the field.

Clarke paced the Bulldogs with seven first-half points. Eleven points apiece from Dunson and Warren led the Braves.

Rice scored seven of Drake's first 10 points in the final stanza before equaling Luke McDonald's freshman scoring record of 412 set during the 2000-01 campaign with a layup with 9:19 left and then converting a free throw to own the record outright.

Sparked by a career-high 11-rebound night from Warren, Bradley collected a 36-31 rebounding advantage.

Drake 64, Bradley 58 (Jan. 7, 2011)

DES MOINES, IOWA - Sparked by 17 points from sophomore Seth VanDeest, Drake withstood a strong Bradley effort to post a 64-58 victory over the Braves in the Knapp Center.

Four Drake players finished with double-figure scoring outputs led by VanDeest, while freshman Rayvonte Rice, sophomore Ben Simons and sophomore Aaron Hawley added 12, 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Andrew Warren's 20-point performance paced all players, while Dodie Dunson chipped in 12 points for Bradley.

On the strength of a 48 percent shooting mark in the initial stanza, the Bulldogs raced to an early lead in the game and parlayed six first-half points from VanDeest into a 26-21 halftime advantage.

Drake maintained its edge in the affair until Jake Eastman connected on a layup to provide the Braves a 35-34 lead with 14:33 left in the game.

There were five ties and six lead changes before the Bulldogs went ahead to stay, 54-53, on a free throw by VanDeest with 2:55 remaining.

Simons and Rice each scored four points apiece, all at the free throw line, to secure Drake's first win over Bradley since a 68-54 decision on Feb. 7, 2009.

VanDeest and Rice scored 11 and 10 points, respectively, in the second half to spark the Bulldogs' come-from-behind victory.

Drake finished the affair shooting 42 percent from the field, while the Braves connected on 43.6 percent of their attempts.

Bradley edged the Bulldogs in the rebounding column, 35-31, while Drake committed only nine turnovers.

Rice pulled down a game-high eight rebounds, while redshirt junior Kraidon Woods was strong on the boards with seven rebounds. Anthony Thompson and Dunson each snagged seven caroms for the Braves.

SCOUTING BRADLEY: Bradley is 11-19 overall, including recording a 4-14 mark in the Missouri Valley Conference after its 90-64 home victory against Drake on Saturday (Feb. 26). The Braves are led by Andrew Warren and Dodie Dunson, who are registering 19.0 and 10.4 points per game, respectively. Jordan Prosser and Warren pace Bradley in rebounding at 5.5 rebounds per tilt, while Dyricius Simms-Edwards leads the squad in assists (3.5 apg).

Jim Les is in his ninth season as head coach at Bradley, owning a 153-139 ledger (.524).

CAREER VERSUS THE BRAVES: Rayvonte Rice, Kurt Alexander and Seth VanDeest average 13.0, 10.0 and 8.8 points, respectively, in their careers against the Braves. Seth VanDeest and Rice own a team-best 7.0 and 6.5 rebounds per contest, while Alexander is connecting on a team-high 54.5 percent from the floor.

DRAKE MVC TOURNAMENT HISTORY: Drake will be playing in its 47th league tournament game when it squares off against Bradley on Thursday (March 3). The Bulldogs have found moderate success as Drake as gone 15-31 in the previous 46 tilts. The Bulldogs, though, have won at least one contest in tournament action in three of the last four seasons, including Drake's 2008 tournament championship. As the No. 7 seed, the Bulldogs have posted a 1-3 mark, with their lone victory coming in 2005 over 10th-seeded Evansville, 82-68.

Since the MVC Tournament moved to St. Louis in 1991, Drake has posted 5-6, 2-10, 1-1 and 1-0 marks in the tournament's opening, quarterfinal, semifinal and championship round games, respectively.

Over its 46-game MVC Tournament history, Drake has averaged 64.6 points, while allowing the opposition to register 66.0 points. The average margin in 15 victories has been 10.1 points, while the margin in 31 setbacks has been 9.9. The Bulldogs are 6-7 in games decided by five points or less, including going 1-5 in six one-point affairs.

RICE SETS DRAKE FRESHMAN SCORING RECORD

With his 14-point effort at Bradley (Feb. 26), Rayvonte Rice established a new Drake all-time freshman scoring mark with 415 points, and counting. He surpassed Luke McDonald's (2000-01) record of 412 points for first place. Rice's current 13.8 scoring average stands as the second-best mark among Bulldog freshman since McDonald registered 14.7 points during the 2000-01 campaign. His 10 rebounds versus Southern Utah and nine field goals against Weber State represented the fourth- and eighth-highest field goal and scoring outputs, respectively, by a Drake freshman.

1.	Rayvonte Rice (2010-11)	415
2.	Luke McDonald (2000-01)	412
3.	Josh Young (2006-07)	382

WELFRINGER SIGNS WITH DRAKE

Judd Welfringer, a six-foot five-inch senior guard from Waukee (Iowa) High School, has signed a national letter of intent to join the Drake basketball program in the fall of 2011.

Welfringer verbally committed to Drake as a sophomore at Basha High School in Chandler, Ariz. As a junior at Basha High School he averaged 16.2 points, 10.6 rebounds, 7.6 assists, 3.6 steals and 3.0 blocked shots per game. He scored 20 or more points in eight games, including a career-high 37 against Millennium High School.

Welfringer has led Waukee to an 8-2 record this season, including a No. 5 ranking in the latest Iowa Class 4A poll. He leads the state of Iowa high school ranks with 46 three point baskets. He scored 32 points while tying a school record with eight three-point baskets against Des Moines Lincoln and then had 27 points, including six treys against Valley of West Des Moines.

Welfringer scored 30 points, making seven three-point baskets, in an 80-38 victory past two-time defending Iowa Class 4A state champion Ames Dec. 17. Judd and his family moved this past summer in order to play his senior year of basketball at Waukee High School, which is guided by head coach Matt Woodley a former Drake player.

Welfringer plans on a dual major of education and business.

HEAD OF THE VALLEY

According to the final 2009-10 NCAA statistics, Drake was the only school in the MVC to rank in the top 12 in three team categories: turnovers per game (10.0 avg.), fourth; free throw percentage (.760), seventh; and three-point field goals per game (8.6 avg.), 12th.

MADISON TO REDSHIRT

Freshman point guard Karl Madison, who earned third-team Illinois Class 3A all-state honors as a senior at Lanphier High School in Springfield, Ill., will be redshirted this year.

"He's only been 75 or 80 percent this whole fall because he started with his first ankle injury in the summer and then he sprained another one when we started practice," said Drake coach Mark Phelps. "But he's made the decision to go ahead and redshirt, and I think it's a wise decision. He's trading in this year for a fifth year, and I'm really excited about him. The only problem I have is he could very well be our best on-ball defender, so we're really going to miss him."

CHALLENGING SCHEDULE

Twelve games against teams which advanced to 2010 postseason play highlight a 30-game schedule for Drake. The Missouri Valley Conference schedule features 12 games against Creighton, Illinois State, Indiana State, Missouri State, Northern Iowa and Wichita State that competed in either the 2010 NCAA, NIT, CBI or CIT Tournaments.

CHALLENGE SERIES

The Bulldogs traveled to Colorado State Dec. 1 in the second year of the Challenge Series between the Missouri Valley Conference and the Mountain West Conference. Drake played host to 2010 NCAA Tournament participant San Diego State in the first year of the Challenge Series, giving the Aztecs all they could handle before suffering a 76-73 overtime setback. All nine games took place during the same week (Dec. 1-5). The agreement between the Mountain West and Missouri Valley Conferences is in the second year of a four-year term.

AGAINST BRADLEY IN THE MVC TOURNAMENT: Drake is meeting Bradley for the eighth time in league tournament history with the Braves maintaining a 4-3 advantage. The Bulldogs defeated Bradley in 1989 (77-75), 1981 (89-84) and 1977 (80-73), while falling in 1998 (69-62), 1997 (66-47), 1996 (64-51) and 1983 (63-53).

Over the previous seven games, Drake has averaged 65.6 points, while allowing the Braves to register 70.6 points. The average margin in three victories has been 4.7 points, while the difference in four setbacks has been 12.3 points.

DRAKE CAREER NUMBERS AT ARCH MADNESS: Only seven members of Drake's 2010-11 roster have appeared in a MVC Tournament game, with all occurring during the 2009-10 campaign. Ryan Wedel averages a team-best 13.5 points per game, while Seth VanDeest is the Bulldogs' top returning rebounder at 4.5 rebounds in two career tournament tilts. Wedel turned in a team-best 52.6 percent shooting mark a year ago, connecting on 7-of-11 three-pointers for 63.6 percent. As a team, Drake connected on 16 triples in last season's tournament.

ON THIS DATE IN BULLDOG HISTORY: Drake is playing in its 16th game in school history on March 3 when it plays Bradley. The Bulldogs own a 7-8 overall mark, including 4-7 away from home.

DRAKE HEAD COACH MARK PHELPS: With passion and a commitment to elevate the Drake basketball program to levels of consistent excellence on and off the court, Mark Phelps is in his third year at the helm of the Bulldog basketball program.

Under Phelps' dedicated approach to recruiting and program building, Drake's incoming recruiting classes for the past two seasons have been ranked the best in the Missouri Valley Conference, pointing the Bulldogs on the road to success. The Bulldogs' 2009-10 recruiting class was No. 1 in the MVC according to Van Coleman's Hoopmasters.com. Scouts Inc., in conjunction with ESPN.com, rated Drake's signees for the 2010-11 class the best in the MVC, as well. Focused on the process of building a program the right way and working toward becoming a better team tomorrow and today, the results speak for themselves.

Phelps' 31 victories in two years at Drake are the second most wins accumulated by a coach in his first two seasons at the helm of the Bulldogs, trailing only the 32 wins achieved by Forddy Anderson in 1946-48. Drake was the only school in the MVC to rank in the top 12 nationally in three different NCAA team statistics in 2009-10. The Bulldogs ranked No. 4 in turnovers per game (10.1 avg.), 10th in free throw percentage (.757) and 11th in three-point field goals per game (8.6 avg.). Drake also posted an all time school record low turnover total (332) during the 2009-10 season.

Phelps' teams at Drake have also been known for their shooting proficiency. The Bulldogs made 284 three-point baskets in 2009-10, which was the second-highest total in school history. Drake's .757 free throw percentage last year ranked third on the school's all time single-season free throw percentage list. In his first year as head coach at Drake, Coach Phelps led the Bulldogs to a 17-16 record and their second consecutive post-season tournament in 2009 (CollegiateInsider.com Postseason Tournament), marking the first time the Drake basketball program had advanced to post-season play in two consecutive seasons since 1970-71. Under Phelps, Drake has played a traditionally strong schedule; over the past two seasons the Bulldogs played 28 games against teams that advanced to postseason play.

Phelps was named the 25th men's head basketball coach at Drake on April 21, 2008 after serving as associate head coach at Arizona State from 2006-08.

Phelps, 44, has been a basketball coach for 21 seasons, including 14 years on the collegiate level after a highly successful high school coaching career. The Virginia Beach, Va. native had served on the coaching staff at North Carolina State under head coach Herb Sendek from 1996-2006 before joining Sendek at Arizona State in 2006.

Head Coach: Mark Phelps, third year

Phelps was part of Sendek's staff that led North Carolina State to a 53-39 (.576) record in the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season and tournament play in his final five seasons in Raleigh, N.C. The Wolfpack tied for the second most wins in the ACC from 2001 to 2006, and was one of only two ACC programs (Duke) to advance to the NCAA Tournament each of those five seasons.

Phelps joined the North Carolina State staff in 1996, serving as director of basketball operations before being promoted to assistant coach in 2000. In 2005 he was named recruiting coordinator and director of scouting with the Wolfpack while continuing as an assistant coach.

Prior to joining the college ranks, Phelps, a 1996 Old Dominion University graduate, was very familiar with outstanding basketball programs having had a highly successful tenure as a high school head coach. Phelps coached his way to a 148-53 (.736 winning percentage) overall record during his six years directing a pair of Virginia independent high school teams.

WEDEL HONORED ON SENIOR NIGHT: Playing in his 62nd career game as a Bulldog and final one at the Knapp Center on Wednesday (Feb. 23) was senior Ryan Wedel. He has started all but one game of his Drake career and owns 694 career points, while making 135 three-pointers, the eighth-best mark in school history. He is second in the MVC in three-pointers made (2.3), while also rating sixth in three-point percentage (.411), 14th in scoring (10.9) and 15th in field goal percentage (.434).

IF THE BULLDOGS DEFEAT BRADLEY: With a victory over Bradley on Thursday (March 3), Drake advances to face Wichita State in the quarterfinal round of the State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament on Friday (March 4) at 6:00 p.m. A win would mark the fourth time in the last five campaigns that the Bulldogs have won at least one tournament contest. The Shockers took the season series from Drake with an 82-63 home decision on Jan. 4, while downing the Bulldogs 68-54 in the Knapp Center on Jan. 15. Wichita State has dominated the postseason series between the two schools winning five of the six meetings. Drake's lone victory came in the opening round of the 1997 tournament, 74-63.

IT HAS HAPPENED BEFORE: For only the second time in school history, Drake closed its regular season against the same opponent as it faces in the State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament when the Bulldogs battles Bradley on Thursday (March 3). Ironically, the only other occasion when this occurred was during the 1982-83 campaign when the Bulldogs dropped a 62-61 regular season decision at Bradley on March 5, 1983 before returning to Peoria three days later where Drake suffered a 63-53 setback on March 8, 1983. How long ago has that been, the No. 1 song that week on the Billboard chart was Billie Jean by Michael Jackson, who like Drake radio analyst Dolph Pulliam is a Gary, Ind., native, while the top-rated movie was Tootsie.

During the 1997 campaign it happened as well from one team's perspective as the Bulldogs met Bradley in the regular season finale on Feb. 24, 1997, in the Knapp Center, a 67-60 Braves' win. Drake then won its opening round game over Wichita State on Feb. 28, 74-63, while Bradley had an opening-round bye. In the tournament quarterfinals, the Braves again got the better of the Bulldogs posting a 66-47 triumph.

RICE GARNERS ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS: Freshman Rayvonte Rice added a trio of accolades to his already impressive resume on Tuesday (March 1) as he was tabbed an honorable mention All-Missouri Valley Conference selection. He was also named to the All-Newcomer and All-Freshman squads.

Rice becomes Drake's first All-Freshman team selection since Josh Young during the 2006-07 campaign and fifth overall. He is also the 12th All-Newcomer honoree in school history.

Statistically, he is ranked third in the conference in steals (1.4), sixth in scoring (13.8), 11th in blocked shots (0.7) and in three-pointers made (1.3). In league-only games, Rice finished fifth in steals (1.3), seventh in blocked shots (0.8), eighth in scoring (13.5) and 11th in defensive rebounds (4.3).

RICE RISING TO THE TOP OF THE MVC ROOKIE CLASS: Rayvonte Rice has fashioned together a strong rookie campaign, ranking sixth in The Valley in scoring at 13.8 points per game, a mark which is second among the league's freshman class. Rice's 415 points through 30 games represent 21.9 percent of Drake's overall offensive output (1,898 points). He leads the Bulldogs in steals (1.4) and rebounding (4.8) and is second in assists (1.7), while having scored in double figures in 14 of 18 league contests.

IN THE LAST FIVE GAMES: The Bulldogs own a 2-3 mark in their last five contests, with three of the five games occurring away from home. Rayvonte Rice, Ryan Wedel and Ben Simons are averaging 14.6, 13.0 and 8.0 points, respectively, with Rice, Seth VanDeest and Jordan Clarke pacing Drake in rebounding, pulling down 4.8 caroms apiece. The Bulldogs are shooting 44.2 percent from the field and 29.3 percent beyond the arc during the span.

THE RISE OF BEN: Helping fuel the resurgence of Drake recently has been the play of Ben Simons, who has scored seven or more points in nine of the Bulldogs' last 10 games. He has netted double figures in seven of those contests, including seven of the last 10. In 18 conference tilts, he maintained a positive assist/turnover ratio 14 times, all while averaging 10.3 points and 1.6 three-pointers made per game.

THE LONG ARM OF JORDAN: Persevering through a serious elbow injury to make contributions to the Bulldogs' revival of late has been the play of Jordan Clarke, including a career-best 10-point performance in Drake's 87-69 victory past Evansville (Feb. 23). Despite being limited to only 18 games this season, Clark is second on the team lead in rebounding (4.7), while pulling down 4.8 caroms per night over Drake's last five games. He registered a career-best 11-rebound effort in a 65-44 victory at Southern Illinois (Feb. 2).

DOUBLE-FIGURE SCORING NUMBERS: Drake has posted an 11-6 record when three or more Bulldogs score in double figures. When two Drake players register double-digit outputs the team is 2-8 and when only one Bulldog cracks the double-digit plateau, Drake is 0-2. In games where Seth VanDeest, Ryan Wedel and Rayvonte Rice score in double figures, Drake is 8-5, 9-7 and 12-12, respectively.

THREE-POINT ATTACK: Drake has picked up where it left off last year in terms of three-point shooting, as the Bulldogs are averaging 6.7 three-pointers per game. Drake topped the double-digit plateau, connecting on a season-high 16 triples at Southern Illinois, while adding 15 versus Chicago State, 11 triples against Weber State and Illinois State (1/18), 10 versus Missouri State (1/25), nine against Texas Southern and Southern Illinois and eight against Southern Utah and Evansville (2/23).

Ryan Wedel is second in the MVC in three-pointers made (2.3), while he and Ben Simons rank among the top-10 in the league in three-point percentage. Wedel, Simons and Rayvonte Rice stand among the top-15 in triples made. Wedel's 69 three-pointers surpass his total of 66 for all of the 2009-10 campaign.

The Bulldogs led the MVC in three-point baskets (284) last year, while ranking seventh in the NCAA, averaging 8.6 treys per game. The 284 three-point baskets rank second on the single-season school charts - 26 shy of the school mark of 310 set in 2007-08. Drake was the only team in the MVC that had four players who made 35 or more treys: Wedel 66, Adam Templeton 56, Josh Young 53 and Simons 37.

CAREER NUMBERS INCHING HIGHER: Seth VanDeest is No. 6 on Drake's career blocked shots list with 63...with his third three pointer at Southern Illinois (Feb. 2), Ryan Wedel moved into the top-10 career list in triples and he now owns 135 at Drake, good for eighth place in school history...he has 310 three-point baskets in his college career...Wedel has scored 1,501 points in his college career (807 at Arkansas State).

A FEBRUARY TO SHINE: Drake posted a 5-3 record in the month of February, including a 4-0 mark in the Knapp Center. Rayvonte Rice sparked the Bulldogs, registering 16.4 points and 4.6 rebounds in eight contests, including shooting more than 45 percent (.451) from the field. Ryan Wedel and Ben Simons join him in scoring in double figures, averaging 11.0 and 10.6 points per contest, while Seth VanDeest (.536), Kraidon Woods (.652), Reece Uhlenhopp (.538) and David Smith (.500) shot 50 percent or better from the floor. As a team, Drake recorded 69.1 points and 30.0 rebounds and held the opposition to 68.4 points and 31.1 rebounds a night. The Bulldogs outshot their opposition beyond the arc, 36.2-29.5 percent.

DRAKE IN THE VALLEY ODD-N-ENDS:

- In nine home MVC games, the Bulldogs outshot their opponents, 46.2 percent to 43.8 percent, while outscoring the opposition 68.4 to 65.1. In those affairs, Drake was led by 14.3, 13.4 and 110.2 points from Ryan Wedel, Rayvonte Rice and Ben Simons, respectively.
- In nine league road games, Drake opponents outshot the Bulldogs, 47.1 percent to 40.6 percent, while outscoring Drake 70.8 to 59.8. In those affairs, the Bulldogs were paced by 13.6 and 10.4 points from Rayvonte Rice and Ben Simons, respectively.
- Through 18 games of the conference season, Drake shot 43.3 percent, including 36.7 percent beyond the arc, while averaging 29.4 rebounds and 64.1 points per game. A year ago, the Bulldogs connected on 42.2 percent of their attempts, including 35.7 percent from downtown. The team averaged 64.3 points and 28.6 rebounds per game.

MORE ON BRADLEY:

- Bradley is first in the Missouri Valley Conference in steals (6.2), fourth in free throw percentage (.727), three-point percentage defense (.342) and turnover margin (+0.6), fifth in field goal defense (.436) and defensive rebounds (23.4).
- In league-only affairs, the Braves finished second in conference in free throw percentage (.748), third in steals (5.9), fourth in three-point percentage defense (.339) and fifth in scoring offense (65.9), field goal percentage (.433), defensive rebounds (23.3), offensive rebounds (8.9) and rebounding offense (32.2).

A LITTLE OFF THE WALL:

- The Bulldogs have played 46 contests versus Bradley decided by five points or less, registering a 23-23 mark in those games.
- In home contests following a victory this season, the Bulldogs have registered a 5-2 ledger. In those tilts, Ryan Wedel and Rayvonte Rice average 14.7 and 14.1 points, respectively.
- In the same scenario following a loss, Drake has posted a 4-3 mark. The Bulldogs outscore the opposition, by nearly seven points per game (72.7-65.9), while Rice (15.3), Wedel (13.6) and Ben Simons (11.1) record double-figures in scoring.
- In road contests (road or neutral) following a victory this season, Drake has posted a 0-6 ledger. In those affairs, no Bulldog averages in double figures in scoring. Drake is registering just 52.5 points per game in these affairs.
- In the same scenario following a loss, Drake has posted a 3-6 mark. Scoring is nearly identical with the Bulldogs' opponents outscoring Drake, 67.0-65.4, while Rice and Seth VanDeest average 16.1 and 11.9 points. Overall and three-point shooting again favors the Blue and White, .445-.436 and .392-.365, respectively.
- The Blue and White are 6-8 in games played on even-numbered days this season and 7-9 in odd-numbered game dates.

BULLDOG BITES:

- For only the second time this season the Bulldogs posted back-to-back games shooting better than 50 percent from the field as Drake connected on 56.6 and 56.0 percent against Evansville (2/23) and Detroit (2/19). Earlier in the campaign, the Bulldogs matched the feat versus Illinois State (1/18) and Northern Iowa (1/22).
- Seth VanDeest has led the Bulldogs in assists a team-best eight times this season.
- Redshirt sophomore Jordan Clarke distributed a career-high six assists in the Bulldogs' 84-76 victory past Detroit (Feb. 19) and he ranked second and sixth, respectively, in league-only affairs in offensive rebounds (2.3) and steals (1.3).
- Drake registered a 6-6 mark in non-conference games this season and has been sparked by Rayvonte Rice, Ryan Wedel and Seth VanDeest, all averaging double figures in scoring at 14.3, 12.3 and 10.0 points per contest. Kraidon Woods is shooting a team-best 70.4 percent from the field, while Frank Wiseler (2.5), Rice (2.2), Wedel (2.0), Kurt Alexander (2.0) and VanDeest (1.8) are all registering at least 1.8 assists per outing.
- In 12 non-conference games, Drake averaged 66.2 points and 30.3 rebounds a night, while connecting on 42.9 percent of its shots from the field, including a 35.5 percent mark from beyond the arc.

• The Bulldogs' 37.3 percent shooting mark at Indiana State (Feb. 12) ended a string of eight straight games where Drake had shot 40 percent or better from the field. The last time the Bulldogs failed to connect on 40 percent of their shots was at Evansville (.340) on Jan. 12.

• The 21-point margin of victory over Southern Illinois (Feb. 2) was the most by the Bulldogs in a game versus the Salukis in school history, while also making head coach Mark Phelps the first Drake head coach to win three straight on the road versus Southern Illinois.

• The triumph over the Salukis was the initial for the Bulldogs on the road in the Missouri Valley Conference this season and first overall since downing Evansville on Jan. 20, 2010, 72-65.

• Drake held SIU without a triple, marking the first time an opponent has failed to make a three-pointer since Feb. 16, 2000, when Bradley was 0-of-8 from distance.

• Drake's 16 three-pointers at Southern Illinois were the most triples in a game since March 21, 2008, when it fell to Western Kentucky in the NCAA Tournament. The Bulldogs 10 second-half three-pointers were the second-best mark in a half in school history.

• The 44-point effort by the Salukis was also the lowest-scoring output by either Drake or Southern Illinois in series history.

• Drake was limited to a season-low 20 rebounds in its 68-54 setback to Wichita State (Jan. 15).

• Drake had an off night at the free throw line at Evansville as the Bulldogs connected on 15 of their 29 attempts. The last time Drake missed at least 14 shots in a game occurred on Nov. 18, 2006, at the Top of the World Classic against Utah State, a 92-74 setback. In that affair, the Bulldogs made 20 of their 37 attempts.

• Drake was held to fewer than 60 points in five of its 18 MVC games this season.

• Led by a career-high three blocks from Kraidon Woods and two courtesy of Seth VanDeest, Drake recorded a season-best six blocks at Evansville (1/12).

• It has proven to be a tale of two halves for the Bulldogs this season as Drake is shooting nearly 43 percent (.428) from the field in the first 20 minutes, while registering 29.9 points and 14.4 rebounds. Opponents are connecting on 43.3 percent of their attempts and are recording 31.4 points and 17.8 rebounds in the initial stanza. In the second half, the Bulldogs are averaging 34.8 points and 15.3 rebounds, while shooting 43.8 percent. Conversely, their opponents are posting 36.3 points and 17.3 rebounds in the final frame, including a 47.2 percent shooting mark.

• Two of the Bulldogs' top-three leading scorers, Seth VanDeest and Rayvonte Rice, have found a knack of making their way to the basket as the duo has connected on 83 and 100 free throws, respectively, to account for nearly 45 percent (.449) of Drake's made free throws this season.

• Drake has proven adept at spreading out the ball to its shooters this season as five different players have recorded 35 or more assists, including a team-high 60 assists distributed by Ryan Wedel. He is followed by Kurt Alexander (51), Rayvonte Rice (50), Seth VanDeest (44) and Ben Simons (36).

• Kraidon Woods, Rayvonte Rice and Seth VanDeest are sparking the Bulldogs in blocks this season as they have registered 22, 22 and 18 blocks, respectively, to account for nearly 79 percent (.785) of Drake's rejections.

• Ten of the Bulldogs' 14 players who have appeared in at least one contest this season have drained a three.

• Drake improved its record to 5-1 when Aaron Hawley reaches double-figure scoring.

• For the fifth time this season against Northern Iowa (Jan. 22), the Bulldogs registered a better shooting mark than their opponents and came away without a victory. Drake outshot the Panthers 51.4 percent to 51.0 percent.

• Eleven times this season Drake opponents have netted more three-pointers than the Bulldogs (Iowa State, Colorado State, Creighton-1, Wichita State-1, Bradley-1, Indiana State-1, Wichita State-2, Northern Iowa-1, Indiana State-2, Missouri State-2, Bradley-2).

• En route to holding its opponents to a .321 three-point percentage, the Bulldogs have limited the opposition to less than five three-pointers on 11 occasions.

• Drake's 69-55 victory against Southern Illinois (Dec. 29) marked the Bulldogs' first win at home in a league opener since a 66-62 triumph over Wichita State on Jan. 4, 1996.

• The 51-point margin in Drake's 102-51 victory over Chicago State (Dec. 23) marked the Bulldogs' largest win over an opponent since downing Waldorf, 104-51, on Nov. 26, 2006. The contest also represented Drake's first 100-point scoring output since defeating Evansville, 101-96, in the MVC Tournament on March 1, 2007.

• The Bulldogs' eight triples in the initial stanza against Chicago State tied for the then fifth-most three pointers in a half in school history.

• Ryan Wedel has connected on three or more three-pointers in 13 games this season.

• The Bulldogs have had eight games this season decided by five points or less. The ability to close out contests has been a work in progress for Drake as the Bulldogs are shooting 36.9 percent in the final five minutes of games this season, as compared to a 45.7 percent shooting mark for their opponents.

• Five Drake players are shooting 50 percent or better in the Bulldogs' last five games, led by Kraidon Woods (.684). Joining him is Reece Uhlenhopp (.600), Seth VanDeest (.550), Jordan Clarke (.500) and David Smith (.500).

• Rayvonte Rice's 15-point, 10-rebound performance against Southern Utah (Nov. 24) is believed, according to Drake historian Paul Morrison, to be the first double-double by a true freshman for the Bulldogs since Melvin Mathis posted six double-doubles as a freshman during the 1982-83 campaign.

- Two Bulldogs are shooting at least 50 percent from the field: Woods (.657) and VanDeest (.532).
- Five Bulldogs have a positive assist-turnover ratio this season, including VanDeest (44-38), Wedel (60-41), Simons (36-33), Wiseler (29-16) and Smith (19-15).
- Drake's starters are registering 46.9 points and 18.9 rebounds per game, while shooting 43.1 percent from the field. Conversely, the Bulldogs' bench is recording 18.1 points and 10.9 rebounds a night.
- Drake has had 10 20-point performances this season, led by VanDeest (Southern Utah), Wedel (Texas Southern, Illinois State-1, Missouri State-1 and Evansville-2), Rice (Weber State, Chicago State, Southern Illinois-2 and Detroit) and Simons (Chicago State).
- The 26 points scored by VanDeest against Southern Utah were the most points scored by a Bulldog since Jonathan Cox turned in a 27-point performance vs. Indiana State on March 5, 2009.

DRAKE'S OFFENSIVE PROGRESS REPORT: In Drake's 30 games this season, this is how the Bulldogs have fared from the field: 50 percent: .574 (Weber State), .566 (Evansville-2), .560 (Detroit), .531 (Boise State), .514 (Northern Iowa-1), .511 (Illinois State-1), 40 percent: .492 (Chicago State), .491 (Northern Iowa-2), .473 (Wichita State-1), .462 (Missouri State-1), .458 (Creighton-2), .457 (Eastern Michigan), .455 (Illinois State-2), .451 (Southern Illinois-2), .448 (Southern Utah), .442 (Dartmouth), .439 (Colorado State), .426 (Indiana State-1), .420 (Bradley-1), .413 (Southern Illinois-1), .400 (Wichita State-2), 30 percent: .392 (Iowa), .373 (Indiana State-2), .371 (Bradley-2), .356 (Creighton-1), .347 (Missouri State-2), .345 (Texas Southern), .340 (Evansville-1), 20 percent: .265 (St. John's), .224 (Iowa State).

BULLDOGS' DEFENSIVE PROGRESS REPORT: In Drake's 30 games this season, this is how the Bulldogs' opponents have fared from the field: 50 percent or more: .632 (Bradley-2), .577 (St. John's), .538 (Iowa State), .531 (Weber State), .519 (Wichita State-2), .510 (Northern Iowa-1), .500 (Detroit), .500 (Colorado State), 40 percent: .490 (Evansville-2), .490 (Northern Iowa-2), .481 (Indiana State-2), .474 (Illinois State-2), .469 (Missouri State-1), .458 (Creighton-1), .456 (Evansville-1), .436 (Bradley-1), .433 (Illinois State-1), .426 (Dartmouth), .422 (Iowa), .419 (Creighton-2), .413 (Wichita State-1), .412 (Missouri State-2), 30 percent: .390 (Texas Southern), .388 (Indiana State-1), .386 (Southern Illinois-2), .381 (Boise State), .380 (Southern Utah), .354 (Eastern Michigan), .345 (Chicago State), .322 (Southern Illinois-1), 20 percent: NA.

IN OUR 13 WINS: In their 13 victories this season, the Blue and White are averaging 73.4 points, while shooting at a clip of .472. The Bulldogs have held opponents to 60.2 points, while averaging 31.2 rebounds, 13.7 assists and 8.1 three pointers.

IN OUR 17 LOSSES: In their 17 losses this season, the Bulldogs are paced by 12.4 points per game from Rayvonte Rice, while tickling the twines for 58.5 points per contest. The squad has connected on 40.1 percent of its attempts from the field, while rebounding 28.6 caroms a night.

A CLOSER LOOK INSIDE THE STATS: The Bulldogs are 5-8 following a victory this season with Rayvonte Rice averaging 12.1 points and 4.3 rebounds per game. After suffering a loss, Drake is 7-9 with Rayvonte Rice, Ryan Wedel and Seth VanDeest leading the way with 15.8, 10.6 and 10.1 points per tilt, respectively.

IN CLOSE GAMES: Drake has been involved in 30 games decided by five points or fewer under Phelps. A breakdown of those matches is as follows; one-point difference (2-2), two-point difference (2-6), three-point difference (4-5), four-point difference (1-4) and five-point difference (3-1).

LUCKY NUMBER 70: Drake has found 70 to be the magic number when it comes to victories under Phelps as the Bulldogs have posted a 19-5 mark when scoring at least 70 points. When the Blue and White surpass the 80-point plateau they are 7-1.

RICE NAMED MVC NEWCOMER OF THE WEEK: The Missouri Valley Conference announced that Rayvonte Rice was named the league's Men's Basketball Newcomer of the Week for the period of Feb. 14-21.

The award marked the third time this season that Rice was honored with a weekly conference accolade after collecting recognition on Dec. 13 and Feb. 7.

Rice fashioned a stellar week for Drake, averaging 19.5 points, 6.0 rebounds and 3.0 steals in helping spark the Bulldogs to a 1-1 mark, including an 84-76 BracketBusters victory over Detroit (Feb. 19). He connected on 50.0 percent of his attempts (13-of-26) from the field.

In the Bulldogs' setback at Missouri State (Feb. 15), Rice just missed his second career double-double with a 17-point, nine-rebound performance, while adding a team-best three steals. Nine of his points, five of his rebounds and all three steals came in the second half.

Rice followed with a 22-point effort against Detroit, one shy of equaling his career high. He poured in 10 of Drake's first 15 points en route to collecting 22 points.

BULLDOGS' BRACKETBUSTER HISTORY: Since the inception of the BracketBusters in 2004, Drake owns a 7-1 record, including a 4-0 mark at home with victories over San Jose State (73-57) in 2005, Milwaukee (84-76) in 2007, Austin Peay (71-54) in 2009 and Detroit (84-76) in 2011.

In road contests, the Bulldogs have bested Akron (82-78, overtime) in 2004, Butler (74-71) in 2008 and Cal State Northridge (90-80) in 2010, while suffering a 70-67 loss at UC Irvine in 2006.

The Titans were the third team out of the Horizon League that Drake has played in the Sears BracketBuster series. Besides Detroit, Drake earned an 84-76 home victory past Milwaukee in 2007 and a 74-71 road triumph at Butler in 2008.

ALUMNI GAME FESTIVITIES HELD: Drake's men's basketball alumni returned to campus this past weekend in conjunction with the Bulldogs' game with Northern Iowa on Feb. 5. An alumni pregame brunch was held before all men's basketball alumni were recognized at halftime. Following the conclusion of the Bulldogs' victory over the Panthers, an alumni game took place.

PULLIAM RECEIVES MVC HONOR: The Missouri Valley Conference announced that Drake University radio broadcaster, administrator and former student-athlete Dolph Pulliam has been selected as the 2010-11 recipient of the John Sanders 'Spirit of The Valley' Award.

The MVC presents the 'Spirit of The Valley' Award to honor a student-athlete, coach or university administrator who exemplifies the spirit of the late John Sanders, former MVC assistant commissioner for operations. Criteria includes, but is not limited to, passion for the Conference, strong work ethic and sense of humor.

The presentation of the award will take place during the Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year Luncheon at the Hilton at the Ballpark Hotel in St. Louis on Thursday, March 3, 2011, at 11:30 a.m.

The league began presenting the award in 2005, when former Indiana State director of athletics Andi Myers became the first recipient. Since then, Missouri State director of athletics Bill Rowe (2006), MVC television personality Mitch Holthus (2007), Southern Illinois radio play-by-play voice Mike Reis (2008) and former MVC coordinator of men's basketball officials Johnny Overby (2009) and Missouri State women's athletics pioneer and administrator Mary Jo Wynn (2010) have been honored.

A native of Gary, Indiana, Pulliam has been involved as a basketball student-athlete, radio broadcaster and administrator at Drake University for a span covering 45 years.

A three-year letterwinner for the Bulldog men's basketball team from 1966 to 1969, Pulliam was an integral member of the Drake 1968-69 team which reached the NCAA Final Four and defeated North Carolina in the third-place game. Following his collegiate career, he was drafted by the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Association and the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League.

However, he elected to remain in Des Moines, becoming involved in numerous community and statewide projects while also becoming the first African-American television broadcaster in the state of Iowa.

After leaving the television industry in 1989, he became the director of athletic marketing at Drake before moving to his current position as director of community outreach and development in the university alumni department. He still remains active in the Drake athletic scene as a radio analyst for Bulldog men's basketball games.

DRAKE HONORS ITS 2011 DOUBLE D AWARD WINNERS: Drake University bestowed the Double D award, the highest honor it presents to former student-athletes to Lisa Behlmann Cannon and Zach Johnson in ceremonies on Jan. 25.

The festivities for the newest members of the Double D award family began with a press conference at the Iowa Hall of Pride, where the duo spoke about the value of their Drake education and what it has meant in their professional lives since their time as students at Drake.

Behlmann Cannon was a four-year letterwinner in volleyball at Drake from 1977-80, where she served as team co-captain in both her junior and senior years, playing primarily as setter/hitter.

"I loved the fact that I was in Drake athletics and played volleyball," said Behlmann Cannon. "Whether it is within Drake athletics or within all the intramural opportunities that people have here, to be involved in things where it takes teamwork is one of the things that probably served me well in my career working with people and getting them to work together."

Johnson, who played golf at Drake from 1995-1998, won the 2007 Masters and represented the United States on the 2006 and 2010 Ryder Cup teams. In 2010, Johnson captured the championship at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial and tied for third at the 2010 PGA Championship.

"It is just a humbling, humbling honor," Johnson commented. "It is fantastic to be recognized, more so than what I did at Drake, because that wasn't a whole lot. We're able to help other people try to give."

Behlmann Cannon and Johnson were formally recognized at a dinner at Hy-Vee Hall before being acknowledged at halftime of Drake's men's basketball showdown with league-leading Missouri State.

2011 MOUNTAIN WEST/MVC CHALLENGE SERIES ANNOUNCED: The Mountain West Conference and Missouri Valley Conference have announced next season's pairings for the MWC/MVC Challenge Series in men's basketball.

The agreement between the Mountain West and Missouri Valley conferences is in its third year of a four-year term. In each of the previous two years, the Challenge featured head-to-head competition between nine Mountain West and nine Missouri Valley teams. Due to membership changes in the Mountain West Conference, the 2011 Challenge will consist of eight games, with each conference hosting four games. All eight contests will take place the week of Nov. 30-Dec. 4, 2011. Illinois State and Southern Illinois will be the MVC teams that do not participate in the 2011 Challenge Series.

Pairings are made in two-year cycles with no team having two-straight road or two-straight home games during that two-year period. In the 2011 and 2012 challenges, every team that participates will receive one road and one home game.

The Mountain West won the 2010 series, 8-1, and holds a 12-6 lead in the first two years of the Challenge. Last season, the leagues combined for four NCAA Tournament victories, which included first-round wins by BYU and New Mexico, and a Sweet 16 appearance by Northern Iowa. Overall, the two conferences earned a collective 11 postseason berths and 10 postseason wins.

YOUNG SIGNS CONTRACT WITH BAYER GIANTS LEVERKUSEN: Former Drake men's basketball standout Josh Young (2006-10) has signed a contract to continue his playing career professionally competing for the Bayer Giants Leverkusen in Germany's Pro B (Third Division).

"I have chosen Josh (Young) because he has a very good shot and more importantly, a great personality," Bayer head coach Chris Martin commented. "He is a humble young man who is well prepared to play basketball in this league. The team and I are happy that he is here and part of the team."

"I'm more than excited to be a part of the Bayer Giants family," said Young. "The experience of living in another country, while being a part of another culture, and playing basketball as a job isn't something that most people can say they get to do. So I'm going to take full advantage of it. The team, management and coaches have shown me nothing but love and hospitality since I've been here. For the last few months, my career has jumped from city to city and country to country, but I believe now I've found the place I can call home."

Young graduated from Drake as the school's career leader in scoring (1,789 points), three-point baskets (255) and free throws made (442). He was one of 10 national finalists for the 2010 Lowe's Senior Class Award in men's college basketball.

A three-time All-Missouri Valley Conference performer, Young was named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches All-District 16 first team this past season. He closed out his career scoring 20 or more points in six of his last 12 games. He led the MVC in scoring as a sophomore with a 15.9 average. Young averaged 14.4 points, 3.9 rebounds and 2.7 assists in 2009-10.

SHOTS FROM HEART: During the 2010-11 season, Drake head coach Mark Phelps and assistant coach Kareem Richardson have taking part in the "Shots from the Heart" campaign, a function of the American Heart Association and CollegeInsider.com in an effort to generate more awareness for the growing problem of heart disease.

There are two 64-coach fields (one for head coaches and one for assistant coaches) and the participating coaches are competing in a free throw shooting contest, which will be bracketed. Starting in mid-November, coaches competed against one another with winners advancing to the next round.

Phelps defeated Tom Moore of Quinnipiac in a first-round match, making 23-of-25 attempts, and advanced to face Butler's Brad Stevens in the second round, who bested Phil Martelli of St. Joseph's. Phelps again moved on over Stevens, connecting on 23 of his 25 attempts.

In the Sweet 16 he again came away victorious, hitting 24-of-25 attempts to best Milan Brown (Holy Cross), who made 23-of-25. Phelps next battles Sean Miller of Arizona in the West Regional final.

Richardson bested Wisconsin assistant coach Greg Gard in the first round, hitting all 25 of his shots, and moved on to meet Eric Eaton of Quinnipiac in the second round. In the second round, despite making 24 of 25 attempts, Richardson was defeated by Eaton, who made all 25 of his shots.

Each coach will shoot 25 free throws at his location and a member of the athletics department will tally the results and the coach with the most makes will advance. The finals will take place at the Final Four in Houston, Texas, in March, 2011.

UP NEXT: A victory moves Drakes in the quarterfinal round of the State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament vs. Wichita State at 6:00 p.m. on Friday (March 4). A loss brings to a close the Bulldogs' 2010-11 campaign.

DES MOINES, IOWA - Senior guard Ryan Wedel scored 20 points, while matching a career-high with six three-point baskets, as Drake overcame a sluggish start to turn back Texas Southern, 60-46, in its season opener.

The 46 points were the fewest points allowed by the Bulldogs in a season opener since 1999 when Drake beat an Iowa State team which would eventually advance to the 2000 NCAA Elite Eight, 48-44, in Des Moines.

It marked Drake's only home appearance in the next month as the Bulldogs embark on an ambitious six-game road swing. Drake won't play another home game until Dec. 12 against Boise State.

Drake sophomore forward Aaron Hawley came off the bench to score 15 points, making three three-point baskets. Sophomore center Seth VanDeest added 12 points and a game-high nine rebounds.

Wedel toppled his previous career high of five three-point baskets at Drake set in three games last year, while matching his overall career high of six set at Arkansas State as a sophomore in 2007-08.

"Ryan (Wedel) is our rock and showed that tonight. He had a great floor game and our guys fed off of him," said Drake head basketball coach Mark Phelps.

Drake collected 14 steals with sophomore Jordan Clarke, a transfer from Vermont, leading the way with four thefts. Clarke also had six rebounds.

The Bulldogs forced Texas Southern into 22 turnovers, scoring 21 points off the miscues.

Drake made just three of its first 17 shots in the opening 12 minutes of the contest, falling behind 15-9.

Hawley and Wedel combined for 21 of Drake's first 26 points with Wedel netting 11.

Hawley had back-to-back layups, along with a three-point basket, that turned a 17-14 deficit into a 21-17 lead Drake never relinquished.

"Aaron (Hawley) certainly gave us a lift when we couldn't hit a shot," Phelps added. "I think he is poised and he's confident because he's put in a lot of work and he knows he's a good player."

A layup by reserve guard Kurt Alexander gave the Bulldogs their biggest lead at 54-32 with 6:15 left.

Junior guard Frank Wiseler dished out four assists, followed by three from Wedel.

Drake shot 34.5 percent (20-58) from the floor, while Texas Southern hit 39 percent (16-41).

AMES, IOWA - Drake suffered through a 10 minute 35 second drought without a basket in the first half and Iowa State took advantage en route to a 91-43 victory before a crowd of 12,988 fans.

After a layup by Drake sophomore center Seth VanDeest tied the game at 8-8 with 15:45 left, the Bulldogs missed their next 14 shots.

Iowa State parlayed Drake's dry spell into a 23-3 run to push its lead to 31-11 before a rebound layup by sophomore transfer Jordan Clarke with 5:10 left ended Drake's drought without a basket.

Drake finished the game, shooting just 22.4 percent from the floor, making 13 of 58 shots.

"We ran into a team that was on a roll, stayed on a roll and we helped the roll by taking tough shots," said Drake head coach Mark Phelps. "Iowa State played with a lot of energy and we had some careless turnovers."

Drake committed 20 turnovers and Iowa State scored 26 points off the miscues.

Iowa State junior guard Scott Christopherson was perfect from the floor, making all 11 field goal attempts, including five three-point baskets, to finish with a career-high 29 points.

"We rushed shots and consequently we were taking tough shots," Phelps added. "They were making their outside shots and we didn't establish a paint presence. Iowa State was playing fast and their transition offense was a big key."

Freshman guard Rayvonte Rice and junior transfer guard Kurt Alexander led Drake with eight points apiece.

Clarke collected a team-high eight rebounds for Drake. Senior guard Ryan Wedel had three steals for the Bulldogs.

ANCHORAGE, AK. - Sparked by a 23-0 run to end the first half, St. John's rolled to an 82-39 victory over Drake in the semifinals of the Carrs/Safeway Great Alaska Shootout.

St. John's jumped to an 11-7 advantage at the first media timeout despite four points from Rayvonte Rice.

Sophomore Ben Simons cut the deficit to one, 11-10, on a three pointer at the 14:38 mark before the Red Storm parlayed a 7-0 run to lead 18-10.

The two sides exchanged baskets before a jumper by Seth VanDeest with 10:15 remaining cut the deficit to 22-17.

St. John's exerted its muscle from that point on, closing the half on a 23-0 run to enter the intermission up 45-17. Drake missed its final 10 shots of the initial stanza to finish the first 20 minutes shooting just 25 percent (6-for-24), while the Red Storm connected on 15 of its 22 shots to register a 68.2 percent shooting mark.

Ryan Wedel and Rice paced the Bulldogs with six first-half points apiece.

The shooting struggles continued to start the second half as it wasn't until a jumper by Aaron Hawley with 16:58 ended a 13:18 scoreless drought.

The lead grew to as many as 43 points before St. John's posted the victory.

Hawley and Rice led the Bulldogs with 10 points apiece, while Wedel added six points. Justin Brownlee paced the Red Storm with 13 points.

Drake connected on 26.5 percent of its attempts from the field compared, to a 57.7 shooting mark for the Red Storm. St. John's won the rebound battle, 38-24, including 27-12 on the defensive glass.

YPSILANTI, MICH. - A pair of free throws by junior Frank Wiseler with nine seconds remaining lifted Drake to a 58-54 victory over Eastern Michigan.

Sophomore Seth VanDeest and freshman Rayvonte Rice led Drake with 13 points apiece, while senior Ryan Wedel added 10 points.

Turning in a seven-point, nine-rebound performance in his first start of the season was sophomore Reece Uhlenhopp, to go along with eight and five points, respectively, from Wiseler and redshirt junior Kraidon Woods.

Brandon Bowdry paced the Eagles with a 25-point, 10-rebound effort.

After falling behind to begin the game, 5-3, Drake scored nine unanswered points, all by Rice and 17 of the next 19 to assume a 20-7 lead with 10:20 left in the half.

Compounding the problems for the Eagles was an opportunistic Bulldog defense that held Eastern Michigan without a field goal for 5:31 before a basket by Bowdry with 9:38 left before halftime made the score 20-9.

The Eagles chipped into the advantage with a 10-1 run to cut Drake's lead to 21-17 before a running one-hander by Wedel with 6:12 left ended the run.

Unfortunately Eastern Michigan kept coming and cut the Bulldogs' margin to 25-23 on a lay-up by Bowdry with 2:31 remaining in the half.

After a basket by Rice gave Drake a 27-23 advantage, the Eagles used a 5-0 run to go up 28-27 before a tip-in at the buzzer by Woods sent the Bulldogs into the half leading 29-28.

The biggest indicator of Eastern Michigan's ability to remain in the game was fouls as Drake was whistled for 12 first-half fouls to just five for the Eagles. Eastern Michigan converted those fouls into 10 points.

Fueled by an 8-0 run sparked by a pair of nifty fast-break baskets from Wiseler, the Bulldogs extended a one-point affair, 34-33, into a 42-33 second-half advantage before Eastern Michigan ended a 5:16 scoreless streak with a three pointer from Derek Thompson with 12:44 left in the game.

Following a pair of free throws by Bowdry to cut the lead to 48-44, Drake scored four unanswered tallies to assume a 52-44 advantage.

Eastern Michigan cut the lead to three, 54-51, with a pair of free throws by Antonio Green with 1:26 remaining.

A fast-break lay-up from Rice with 32 seconds left gave Drake a 56-51 lead, but Bowdry nailed a three from the corner to bring the Eagles to within two, 56-54.

Wiseler's heroics sealed the victory for the Bulldogs to snap a three-game losing streak.

Drake finished the affair shooting 45.7 percent, while Eastern Michigan registered a .354 shooting mark. The Bulldogs committed only eight turnovers in the game.

DES MOINES, IOWA - A balanced scoring attack sparked by five players scoring in double figures propelled Drake to a 72-69 victory over Boise State in the Bulldogs' first home game in nearly a month at the Knapp Center.

The game marked the Bulldogs' first appearance in the Knapp Center since Drake downed Texas Southern, 60-46, in its season opener on Nov. 13.

The Bulldogs led by as many as 10 points in the affair, 65-55, with 4:11 left in the second half, but the Broncos went on a 10-2 run over the next 3:30 to cut the lead to 67-65 with 42 seconds left in the game.

After a made basket by Paul Noonan, Drake garnered a thunderous dunk from freshman Rayvonte Rice with 31 ticks remaining to give the Bulldogs a 69-65 advantage.

Boise State twice cut the margin to two points before senior Ryan Wedel hit a free throw with nine seconds remaining to provide the final margin.

Sophomore Seth VanDeest recorded his first career double-double with a 13-point, 10-rebound effort. Ten of his 13 points came in the deciding second half.

Wedel contributed 13 points, while sophomore Aaron Hawley, Rice and junior Kurt Alexander added 12, 11 and 10 points, respectively. Alexander's 10 points established a career high.

The Bulldogs finished the game shooting 53.1 percent from the floor, while limiting the Broncos, who came into the game connecting on 45.4 percent of their shots, to a .381 shooting mark.

Boise State won the battle of the boards, 39-29, including 15-3 on the offensive glass.

The key to victory for Drake may have been its production off the bench, where the Bulldogs received 26 points, including 12 and 10, respectively, from Hawley and Alexander.

Noonan posted a game-high 20 points for the Broncos, while La'Shard Anderson registered a 15-point, seven-assist effort.

The contest began as a back-and-forth affair with the first half featuring three lead changes and five ties with neither side garnering more than a five-point advantage.

DES MOINES, IOWA - Outscoring Drake by nine in the second half, 37-28, Dartmouth erased a one-point halftime deficit en route to posting a 67-59 victory over the Bulldogs at the Knapp Center.

The contest was ultimately decided in the second half as the Bulldogs connected on just 35.7 percent of its attempts, including a 2-of-13 mark beyond the arc. Conversely, Dartmouth registered a 45.8 percent shooting mark and was 10-of-12 at the line to seal the victory.

Momentum seemed to favor Drake to begin the second half as the Bulldogs parlayed seven points from freshman Rayvonte Rice in their biggest lead of the night, 38-32, just 1:24 into the final stanza.

The Big Green fired back a salvo of their own using a 10-3 run to regain the advantage on a jumper by Gediminas Bertasius at the 15:01 mark.

After a jumper by redshirt junior Kraidon Woods returned the lead to Drake, 43-42, the Bulldogs went scoreless over the next 4:48. During the span the Big Green managed only two points.

Sophomore Seth VanDeest ended the scoreless streak with a basket with 9:50 left to place Drake back ahead, 45-44.

An 8-0 run followed for Dartmouth to jump to a 52-46 advantage, but again the Bulldogs rebounded to regain the lead, 55-54, on a jumper by Rice with 3:17 left.

The Big Green though closed the game on a 12-5 run to secure the triumph.

Senior Ryan Wedel paced all players with a 17-point performance, while Rice recorded 15 points. Dartmouth garnered 17- and 12-point efforts from David Ruffin and Kirk Crecco.

Woods was outstanding off the bench with a six-point, eight-rebound and three-block game. VanDeest just missed reaching double figures scoring nine points.

Drake finished the affair shooting 44.2 percent from the field, while the Big Green tickled the twines at a 42.6 percent clip.

The initial stanza between the two teams proved to be a back-and-forth affair marked by seven ties and five lead changes.

Wedel paced all scorers in the first 20 minutes with 13 points on 5-of-7 shooting, including 3-for-5 beyond the arc.

DES MOINES, IOWA - Sparked by a season-best 15 three pointers, Drake rolled to a 102-51 victory over Chicago State.

After Chicago State scored the first basket of the game, Drake rattled off 13 of the next 15 points to assume a 13-4 advantage on a three pointer by Ryan Wedel, a lead it didn't relinquish.

Wedel's triple began a stretch of six consecutive three pointers without a miss by Drake and a run of 8-of-10 made baskets, all three pointers, to assume a 34-17 lead with 8:47 left in the half.

The Bulldogs got three, two, two and one triples, respectively, from Ben Simons, Wedel, Rayvonte Rice and Reece Uhlenhopp.

On the strength of its eight first-half three pointers, Drake entered halftime maintaining a 46-31 advantage. The Bulldogs connected on 53.8 percent of their shots from the field and an impressive 66.7 percent (8-of-12) beyond the arc.

Rice led all scorers with a career-high 23 points, while Simons, Kurt Alexander, Wedel and Seth VanDeest joined him in double-figures with 22, 12, 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Simons connected on 8-of-11 shots from the field, including 6-for-7 beyond the arc en route to posting a season-high in points. Alexander's 12 points represented a career high, while he established a new single-game Drake best for assists this season with eight.

VanDeest pulled down a team-high eight rebounds.

The Bulldogs garnered strong performances off the bench from Uhlenhopp (eight points) and Cory Parker, who matched a career high with six points. Drake's bench helped the Bulldogs outscore the Cougars' reserves, 44-6.

Making his first-ever appearance during the regular season for Drake was Greg Whitaker, who cracked the scoring column with a pair of free throws with 2:26 left in the game.

In his return to the line-up after missing eight games due to an elbow injury, Jordan Clarke

OMAHA, NEB. - In a battle of two of the best freshmen in the Missouri Valley Conference it was Creighton's Doug McDermott who sparked the Bluejays to a 73-57 victory over Drake at the Qwest Center with a 28-point, 10-rebound performance.

Creighton registered five of its seven three pointers in the game in the second half and connected on 52.0 percent of its shots en route to collecting the triumph.

Junior Kurt Alexander led Drake in scoring matching a career-high with 12 points, while redshirt junior Kraidon Woods and sophomore Seth VanDeest each chipped in nine points. Sophomore Ben Simons netted eight points in reserve action.

Joining McDermott in double-figures were Antoine Young and Kenny Lawson Jr., with 15 and 14 points, respectively. Lawson finished with a double-double after pulling down a game-high 16 rebounds.

Creighton finished the game shooting 45.8 percent for the game, while limiting the Bulldogs to a 35.6 percent shooting mark.

The Bluejays outrebounded Drake, 45-24, including 35-16 on the defensive glass.

The Bulldogs had a season-low five turnovers on the night.

Drake jumped to the early advantage in the affair, 9-4, on the strength of four and three points, respectively, from freshman Rayvonte Rice and Woods.

After Creighton cut the deficit to two, 13-11, the Bulldogs scored six unanswered points to assume their biggest lead of the game, 19-11.

The Bluejays fired back with an answer of their own, scoring 14 of the next 16 points to take a 25-21 lead on a layup by McDermott with 3:08 left in the half.

A jumper by Woods ended the run, but Creighton finished the stanza scoring eight of the final 11 points to take a 33-26 lead into halftime.

Drake connected on 34.6 percent of its attempts in the initial 20 minutes led by five points apiece from Rice and Woods. The Bluejays garnered 12 points from McDermott to conclude the first half shooting 39.1 percent from the field.

Creighton took advantage of hitting on 13-of-14 free throw attempts while outrebounding the Bulldogs, 21-12.

WICHITA, KAN. - Going against one of the deepest and arguably talented teams in the Missouri Valley Conference Drake more than held its own before a late surge fueled Wichita State to an 82-63 victory over the Bulldogs.

Sparked by nine second-half points, freshman Rayvonte Rice led four Bulldogs in double figures with a game-high 17 points.

Joining him with double-digit efforts were sophomores Seth VanDeest and Ben Simons along with junior Kurt Alexander with 12, 11 and 11 points, respectively.

Drake connected on 47.3 percent of its attempts from the field, while Wichita State was held to a 41.3 percent shooting mark.

The Shockers posted a 43-33 rebounding advantage in the affair, including 14-7 on the offensive glass. Wichita State drained 10 three pointers in the game, with seven coming in the final half.

The Bulldogs took the early edge in the contest as baskets by Rice and Alexander gave Drake a 6-2 lead.

The Bulldogs remained hot from the field although neither side was able to exert more than a three-point advantage.

Drake maintained the lead in the initial stanza on the strength of 10 first-half points from VanDeest until the Shockers went ahead for the first time on a three pointer from Demetric Williams with 2:40 left in the half.

The basket was part of a 10-3 run to end the half and gave Wichita State a 35-31 halftime lead.

The Bulldogs connected on 48.1 percent of their shots in the initial 20 minutes, while limiting the Shockers to a 35.1 percent shooting mark.

Rebounding was even at 21, including a 16-11 Drake edge on the defensive glass.

The two sides exchanged baskets to start the final stanza with Rice scoring the first nine points for the Bulldogs, including a three pointer to tie the affair at 40 with 16:33 remaining.

After Rice's jumper, the Shockers scored 10 of the next 11 points to assume a 50-41 advantage with 14:39 remaining.

DES MOINES, IOWA - Senior Ryan Wedel broke out of a scoring drought with a 17-point performance, but in the end his heroics weren't enough to lift Drake to victory as Indiana State escaped the Knapp Center with a 62-57 triumph.

Staring at its largest deficit of the contest, 53-44, with 6:14 remaining, Drake ignited a furious comeback that placed the Bulldogs in a position to tie or go ahead in the game's final minute.

Drake's defensive efforts held Indiana State without a field goal from the 8:34 mark until a jumper from Jake Odum with 1:54 left on the clock provided Indiana State with a 57-53 advantage.

A pair of free throws by sophomore Aaron Hawley inched the Bulldogs to within two, 57-55, before Odum hit another jumper with 1:07 showing on the clock to make the score 59-55.

After a 30-second timeout by the Bulldogs, freshman Rayvonte Rice delivered a layup in the lane to cut Drake's deficit to two, 59-57, with 51 seconds remaining.

The Bulldogs seemingly had a defensive stop on the other end of the floor after an errant three pointer by Jordan Printy, but Isiah Martin was able to sneak into the lane to corral the offensive rebound and draw the foul.

Martin split a pair of free throws to give Drake a chance to tie the game with 16 seconds left in the affair.

Following a timeout, the Bulldogs got the ball into the hands of Rice, who attempted a three pointer from the far-left corner that failed to fall and the Sycamores' Steve McWhorter came down with the defensive rebound.

McWhorter drained both his shots at the charity stripe to give Indiana State what proved to be the final 62-57 margin. Wedel's jumper as time expired didn't connect.

For the second-consecutive contest Drake outshot its opponent, 42.6 percent to 38.8 percent, but the Sycamores parlayed a 34-25 rebounding advantage into a victory.

Wedel led all scorers with 17 points, while Rice joined him in double figures with a 12-point effort.

Carl Richard's 17-point, 11-rebound performance sparked Indiana State, while Aaron Carter and Martin added 11 and 10 points, respectively.

EVANSVILLE, IND. - Drake's struggles rebounding the ball have been noted all season and they again were problematic as Evansville parlayed a 40-31 rebounding advantage into a 67-51 victory.

It was a back-and-forth affair early in the contest as Evansville held a slim 12-11 lead after freshman Rayvonte Rice connected on a three pointer with 10:59 left in the half.

The Purple Aces though went on a 15-2 run to stretch the margin to 27-13, before sophomore Seth VanDeest hit a pair of free throws at the 4:17 mark to make it 27-15.

The Bulldogs regained the momentum with a run of their own scoring seven of the next nine points to cut the deficit to 29-24, with 1:34 left before halftime.

Evansville closed the stanza on a 6-0 run to secure a 35-24 halftime lead.

Rice paced Drake with a seven-point, first-half effort, while 11 points from Ned Cox led the Purple Aces.

The Bulldogs connected on 34.8 percent of their shots in the first 20 minutes, while Evansville registered a 51.9 percent shooting mark.

Drake whittled into the Purple Aces' lead in the second half, cutting the margin to 44-40, with 12:49 left, but couldn't get the defensive stop when it needed them most. Evansville scored 14 of the next 19 points to assume a 61-45 lead with 7:30 remaining and didn't look back en route to posting the victory.

An 11-point performance from sophomore Ben Simons highlighted the Bulldogs' effort, while VanDeest contributed 10 points. Rice finished with an eight-point, seven-rebound outing and sophomore Aaron Hawley chipped in seven points off the bench.

Cox led four Purple Aces in double figures with a game-high 15 points, while Pieter van Tongeren, Colt Ryan and Clint Hopf recorded 12, 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Falling a point shy of a double-double for Evansville was Kenneth Harris with nine points and a game-high 13 rebounds.

The Purple Aces registered a 45.6 percent shooting mark, while the Bulldogs connected at a 34.0 percent clip.

DES MOINES, IOWA - Sparked by a season-high 22 points from senior Ryan Wedel, including back-to-back-to-back three pointers to start the game, Drake snapped a three-game losing streak with a 76-68 victory over Illinois State at the Knapp Center.

Joining Wedel with a double-figure scoring effort was freshman Rayvonte Rice, who poured in 17 points to go along with pulling down a game-high eight rebounds.

Buoyed by a 56 percent shooting mark in the first half, Drake finished the affair connecting on 51.1 percent of its shots, while limiting Illinois State to a 43.3 field goal percentage.

The Bulldogs quickly established the momentum in the contest twice racing out to 11-point leads in the first 20 minutes.

The Redbirds chipped away at the deficit cutting the margin to 26-25, on a layup by Blake Mishler with 3:58 left in the half.

A pair of three pointers from sophomore Aaron Hawley and one from Rice allowed the Bulldogs to close the stanza on a 13-8 run to enter the intermission leading 39-33.

Drake garnered 15-, nine- and eight-point efforts in the first half from Wedel, Rice and Hawley, respectively.

After a dunk by Jackie Carmichael to begin the final 20 minutes, the Bulldogs went on an 11-0 to stretch their lead to 50-35, with 16:12 remaining.

Fueling the surge were three, three, two, two and one points, respectively, from sophomore Ben Simons, Wedel, Rice, redshirt sophomore Cory Parker and redshirt sophomore Jordan Clarke.

Drake later added a 10-run to extend its lead to a game-best 21 points, 62-41, after a three pointer by Rice at the 10:22 mark.

Illinois State whittled the advantage down to five points, 73-68, with 43 seconds remaining, but the Bulldogs sealed the game at the line to collect the victory.

The Redbirds won the battle of the boards, 32-30, although Drake bested Illinois State on the defensive glass, 25-21.

Redshirt junior Kraidon Woods collected the start in place of injured sophomore Seth VanDeest and turned in a stellar seven-point, seven-rebound effort.

Hawley and Simons added nine and eight points, respectively, for Drake, while Clark had a six-point, four-assist performance.

CEDAR FALLS, IOWA - Parlaying a strong shooting performance, Northern Iowa carved out a 69-49 victory over Drake at the McLeod Center.

Northern Iowa connected on 12-of-24 three pointers en route to shooting 51.0 percent in the affair, while Drake recorded a 51.4 percent shooting mark, including 61.1 percent in the second half.

The Panthers stymied the Bulldogs defensively for most of the affair holding freshman Rayvonte Rice and senior Ryan Wedel, Drake's two-leading scorers, to 15 combined points, all but four coming in the second half.

Rice and sophomore Seth VanDeest led Drake with 10 points apiece. Sophomore Ben Simons and redshirt sophomore Jordan Clarke added eight points each.

A 16-point performance from Kwadzo Ahelegbe led all scorers, while Johnny Moran and Chip Rank each chipped in 14 points for Northern Iowa.

DES MOINES, IOWA - A late 12-0 run proved to be the catalyst sparking Drake to a dramatic 84-76 victory over Detroit in the Knapp Center as part of the Sears BracketBusters series.

The Bulldogs jumped out of the gates quickly, scoring 15 of the game's first 21 points to assume a 15-6 advantage.

A 4-0 run cut the margin to 15-10 before senior Ryan Wedel connected on a three pointer to extend the lead to 18-10.

Freshman Rayvonte Rice scored 10 of Drake's first 15 points, including a pair of three pointers.

Collectively, the Bulldogs made 10 of their first 14 shots from the field to push their margin to as many as 12 points, 26-14, after back-to-back thunderous dunks from redshirt junior Kraidon Woods and Rice.

The Titans whittled the deficit down to four points before the Bulldogs entered the intermission leading 39-34.

Drake connected on 57.7 percent of its shots in the first 20 minutes as compared to a 48.1 percent shooting mark for Detroit.

Detroit proved to be the aggressor coming out to start the second half making six of its first seven shots to erase a nine-point Drake advantage and assume its first lead, 52-50, on Ray McCallum's triple with 14:40 left in the game.

While the Bulldogs were 4-of-7 from the floor over the same span, Detroit made two three pointers and four free throws to take the lead.

The deficit grew to as many as four for Drake but the Bulldogs remained resolute in their determination to secure the victory fighting back to reclaim the lead, 69-68, on a pair of free throws by Wedel at the 5:55 mark.

The two sides exchanged baskets before Woods, as part of a 12-0 Bulldog run, placed Drake ahead to stay, 72-71, with a layup with 4:15 remaining in the contest.

Fueling the surge were five of his career-high 13 points from Woods and a dramatic three pointer with 1:53 left in the game by sophomore Ben Simons.

Sophomore Aaron Hawley salted the victory away at the line hitting a pair of free throws with 24 seconds remaining.

Rice finished one point off his career high, turning in a team-high 22-point performance.

Joining him in double digits were Wedel, Woods, Simons and junior Kurt Alexander with 14, 13, 10 and 10 points, respectively.

Chase Simon paced all scorers with a game-high 23 points for Detroit, while Eli Holman, McCallum and Nick Minnerath added 12, 12 and 11 points, respectively.

The Titans won the battle of the boards, 33-24, but Detroit committed 15 turnovers versus just 12 for Drake.

DES MOINES, IOWA - Senior Ryan Wedel turned in his finest masterpiece of his brilliant Drake career scoring a career-best 29 points to lift the Bulldogs to an 87-69 victory over Evansville on Senior Night at the Knapp Center.

The triumph extended Drake's homecourt winning streak to four straight games.

Honored before the game for his contributions to the Drake program over the last three seasons, Wedel put on one final show for the Bulldog faithful, connecting on 9-of-16 shots, including five three pointers, for 29 points.

After having his initial three pointer of the game blocked, Wedel hit four straight, including a fall-away shot as the shot clock expired.

Evansville scored the contest's first four points before the Bulldogs came alive outscoring the Purple Aces over the next 4:29, 19-3. Wedel netted 12 points in the run, while freshman Rayvonte Rice chipped in five.

The advantage swelled to as many as 18 points in Drake's favor on the strength of a 58.6 percent shooting mark in the first 20 minutes. Evansville shot 45.5 percent itself in the initial stanza but couldn't overcome eight first-half triples by the Bulldogs, the sixth-best three-point shooting half in school history.

Drake kept firing in the final stanza as the lead grew to as many as 25 points before the Bulldogs secured the No. 7 seed at the State Farm MVC Tournament with an 87-69 triumph.

Wedel led three Drake players in double figures with a 29-point effort. Joining him with 11- and 10-point tilts were Rice and redshirt sophomore Jordan Clarke. The Bulldogs also received nine and eight points from redshirt junior Kraidon Woods and junior Kurt Alexander.

The Purple Aces were sparked by 24-, 13- and 11-point performances from Colt Ryan, Denver Holmes and Kenneth Harris, respectively.

Drake concluded the affair recording a 56.6 percent shooting mark, while Evansville stroked the nets at a 49.0 percent clip.

The Bulldogs owned a decided 31-20 advantage on the boards, including 23-16 on the defensive glass. Drake garnered eight and seven rebounds in the tilt from sophomore Seth VanDeest and Clarke.

VanDeest played a huge role in the Bulldogs' triumph, distributing a career- and team-high five assists.
