- The Drake University men's basketball team closes out its five-game road swing on Friday night at Nevada as part of the Missouri Valley/Mountain West Challenge.
- The Bulldogs travel to Reno, Nev., with a 2-3 record after going 1-2 at the DirecTV Classic last weekend. The Bulldogs two losses came to tournament champion Cal and perennial NCAA tournament participant Xavier by a combined seven points.
- Jordan Clarke led Drake at the DirecTV Classic by recording three straight double-doubles to earn all-tournament honors. He also set DirecTV Classic records for total rebounds (39) and rebounds in a game (18).
- Nevada is 4-2 on the season and a perfect 4-0 at home after defeating UC Davis, 84-83, on a last-second shot from Deonte Burton. Burton scored 26 points in the win and leads the team with 19.0 points per game.
- The Wolf Pack won 28 games last season and won the Western Athletic Conference regular season title to advance to the NIT.
- Friday's contest features two-high scoring offenses as Drake averages 78.4 points per game while the Wolf Pack has scored at a 76.7 points per game clip.
- Ben Simons leads the Bulldogs in scoring with 17.4 points per game and a pair of 20-point performances already under his belt this season.
- Drake and Nevada have met three previous times, but not since 1969. Drake leads the series by a 3-0 margin and last visited Reno on Dec. 21, 1968.

@CoachMarkPhelps

Mark Phelps enters his fifth season as head coach of the Bulldogs' men's basketball program in 2012-13, driven by a passion and commitment to elevate Drake to levels of consistent excellence on and off the court. His dedicated approach to recruiting and program-building over his first four seasons has established a solid foundation to achieve sustainable success.

The 2011-12 season showed significant signs of both the steady progress and potential of the Drake program, as the Bulldogs qualified for a postseason tournament for the third time in the last five seasons (2008 NCAA, 2009 CIT), and second in Phelps' four-year tenure as head coach. The first-round Collegeinsider.com Postseason Tournament win over North Dakota was Drake's first victory beyond the conference tournament since 1975. The Bulldogs won 18 games, the most in Phelps' career and tied for ninth-most in school history.

In addition, Drake posted a winning record for the second time in Phelps' four years, making him the first Drake head coach in 50 years to post two winning seasons in his first four (17-16 in 2008-09). Drake's third-place finish (9-9, tied with four teams) in the Missouri Valley Conference was its second-highest in the MVC standings in the last 26 years. The 9-9 MVC record of 2011-12 was the best by Phelps and tied for second-best by a Drake team since 1986.

With 62 wins in his first four seasons, Phelps has more victories than any Drake coach in his initial four years on the job. No Drake head coach since Maury John (.555 from 1958-62) has had a better winning percentage in the equivalent span of his career than Phelps (.473).

All of that success last season was achieved without starting center Seth VanDeest, who missed the entire season after undergoing surgery to repair a torn labrum in his left shoulder. The 2011-12 Bulldogs overcame significant injury adversity that impacted the starting lineup, but were guided through the storm by a coaching staff that remained steady and consistent, helping players elevate to a new level of performance.

One of those players was Ben Simons, who played every position on the floor and more than doubled his sophomore scoring average of 8.1 to a figure of 16.4, fourth-best in the MVC in 2011-12. Simons was joined by Jordan Clarke, who put up career-best averages of 6.0 points and 7.0 rebounds, while handling the post position in VanDeest's absence.

Simons was named captain of the MVC's Most Improved Team, while also earning second-team All-MVC and second-team NABC All-District recognition along with sophomore Rayvonte Rice. Clarke was named second-team MVC Scholar-Athlete.

In the fifth year of building his program, Phelps and his coaching staff will welcome eight scholarship newcomers in 2012-13, including five freshmen and three transfers, wrapped around an experienced nucleus of five returning players who have been regular starters for the Bulldogs.

ON THE BENCH

CHRIS BRAZELTON
Assistant Coach

Joined the Drake men's basketball coaching staff as an assistant coach on May 24, 2012. He comes to Drake after spending the past five seasons as an assistant coach at the University of California Riverside. Brazelton joined the UCR staff under head coach Jim Wooldridge in 2007 after one year as a graduate assistant at the University of New Orleans under Buzz Williams.

STAN JOHNSON
Assistant Coach

Enters his second season with the Bulldogs in 2012-13 after being named an assistant coach on June 20, 2011. He spent the previous three years at the University of Utah as an assistant coach for the Utes.

Johnson brought eight years of experience as an assistant coach upon his arrival at Drake.

BRETT NELSON
Assistant Coach

Enters his second season with the Bulldogs' program and is in his eighth season in the coaching ranks after an All-America playing career at Florida. Nelson joined Phelps' staff at Drake after spending the 2010-11 season at Arkansas.

With Nelson on staff in his sixth coaching season

NATE MEYER
Director of Operations

Was promoted to coordinator of basketball operations for the Drake men's basketball program on May 24, 2012. The Urbandale, Iowa, native had previously served two years as a graduate manager.

after joining the program on July 1, 2010.

A WIN WOULD ...

- Make Drake 3-3 on the season.
- Give Drake a fifth-place finish in the tournament.
- Make Mark Phelps 65-72 at Drake.
- Be the 1,152nd win in program history.
- Make Drake 2-3 away from home this season.
- Be Drake's fourth straight win over the Wolf Pack.

A LOSS WOULD ...

- Drop Drake to 2-4 on the season and 1-4 away from the Knapp Center.
- Be the Wolf Pack's first win in four tries against the Bulldogs.

SCORING UP

- Drake's offense is averaging 78.4 points per game, the 36th highest average in the nation and 11.4 points per game higher than the Bulldogs' average last season.
- Success from three-point range has keyed some of that production as the team has averaged 10.2 three-pointers per game, the seventh highest average in the nation.
- The squad has converted on 44 percent of its attempts from the arc, which ranks ninth nationally.

CLARKE SETS TOURNAY RECORDS

- Jordan Clarke recorded three double-doubles against California, Rice and Xavier to help the Bulldogs to a 1-2 record.
- He averaged 12.7 points, 13.0 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game while shooting 55 percent from the field.
- He also set the tournament record for rebounds

- with 39 in three games and became just the fifth player in the six years of the tournament to record a double-double in every game.
- He opened the tournament with 11 points and 10 rebounds against Cal and followed that up with 15 points and a tournament single-game record and career-high 18 rebounds against Rice.
- In that win over Rice, he had exactly half of the team's rebounds.
- In the Bulldogs final game in Anaheim, he posted 12 points and 11 rebounds.
- Nationally, he ranks ninth in rebounding at 11.2 per game.
- The double-doubles give him sixth in his last 14 games and he has hauled in 10 or more rebounds in seven of his last eight games dating back to last season.
- He has also shot 20-of-30 from the field in five games this season and is averaging three assists per game.
- He has helped key an inside-out offense with his passing as his 15 assists have resulted in 12 three-pointers.

PICKING UP THE PACE

- Drake's offense has had 80 or more possessions in two of its first five games of the season and is averaging 72 possessions per game.
- That pace ranks in the top 100 nationally and second in the MVC.
- Last season the Bulldogs only played at an 80-possession or greater pace just once.
- In the opener against William Jewell, the Bulldogs scored 1.19 points per possession and scored on approximately 52 percent of their offensive possessions.

- Against Detroit, Drake scored 0.95 points per possession and scored on 42.5 percent of its possessions.
- In the loss to Cal, Drake had 70 possessions and scored on 46 percent of those possessions for an average on one point per possession.
- In the win over Rice, Drake only had 62 possessions, but scored on a season-high 56.7 percent of them and averaged 1.24 points per possession, also a season high.
- The DirecTV Classic finale saw the Bulldogs record 72 possessions with a 0.97 points per possession average by scoring on 44.4 percent of its possessions.

CURBING TURNOVERS

- Despite playing at an increased pace, Drake's turnovers remain the same as last season in total numbers.
- The Bulldogs have turned over the ball on just 16.7 percent of their possessions, well below the national average of 20.3 and the MVC average of 18.6.
- The 16.7 percent turnover rate ranks 50th in the nation and just a percentage point away from the top-25 in the stat.

SIMONS HITS 1,000-POINT PLATEAU

- Ben Simons' 20 points against Xavier made him the 23rd player in Drake history to record 1,000 career points.
- Simons currently ranks 26th in all-time scoring at Drake. Below are those near him in the rankings.

SIMONS NO. 29 SHOOTER IN THE NATION

- In addition to his preseason MVC accolades, CBSSports.com's Jeff Goodman ranked Ben Simons as the 29th-best shooter in the nation.
- Last season, Simons led the MVC in three-pointers with 77 and shot 42.5 percent from three-point range and 50.6 percent of his shots from inside the arc.
- He had plenty of company on the list as one of five MVC sharpshooters to be recognized, the most of any conference.

NEWCOMERS HIGHLY TOUTED

- The Bulldogs' 2012 recruiting class was ranked No. 45 in the nation by HoopScoopOnline, and second among Missouri Valley Conference schools. The class consists of five freshmen, two junior college transfers and Chris Hines, a transfer from Utah who has one year of eligibility remaining and can play immediately.

PRESEASON NOTES

- Drake will play in the 2012 Anaheim Classic Nov. 22-25, joining a field that also includes California, Drexel, Georgia Tech, Pacific, Rice, St. Mary's and Xavier.
- Drake enters 2012-13 having qualified for a postseason tournament three times in the last five seasons (2008 NCAA, 2009 and 2012 CIT), and twice in the four-year tenure of head coach Mark Phelps. Drake's first-round CIT win over North Dakota was its first in the postseason since 1975.
- With 62 career wins, Drake head coach Mark Phelps has more wins than any Drake coach in his first four seasons (2nd: Maury John, 55, 1958-62). No Drake head coach since Maury John (.555 from 1958-62) has had a better winning percentage in his first four seasons than Phelps (.473).
- Drake is coming off a third-place finish (9-9, tied with four teams) in the Missouri Valley Conference in 2011-12, which was its second-highest in the MVC standings in the last 26 years. The team's 9-9 MVC record was the best under head coach Mark Phelps, and is topped in the last 26 years only by the 15-3 mark of '07-'08, and matched by the 9-9 finishes of 2001-02, '94-'95 and '92-'93.
- The 18 wins by last year's Bulldogs were the most in Phelps' four-year tenure as head coach and tied for ninth-most in school history. Drake posted a winning record for the second time in Phelps' four years (17-16, 2008-09), making him the first Drake head coach in 50 years to post two winning seasons in his first four (Maury John, 2, 1958-62).
- Five of the top six seasons in school history for three-point field goals have come in the last five years, four of them under Mark Phelps (2nd, 3rd, 5th, 6th). Drake finished the 2011-12 season with 213, fifth-most in school history.

THREE-POINTERS MADE

- Last season's Drake team connected on the fifth most three-pointers in program history. Below is where the 2011-12 Bulldogs measured up from long distance.

1.	310	2007-08	(840 att.)
2.	284	2009-10	(746 att.)
3.	266	2008-09	(765 att.)
4.	232	2001-02	(595 att.)
5.	212	2011-12	(585 att.)
6.	203	2010-11	(573 att.)

- The 2011-12 Bulldogs ranked No. 1 in the MVC in three-point field-goal pct. defense (.305) and third in steals (6.9).
- Drake is coming off a season in which it was 16-2 when shooting a higher percentage than its opponent and 9-0 when shooting 50 percent or higher.
- In keeping with Coach Phelps' emphasis on strong defense, the Bulldogs did not allow an opponent to shoot higher than 50 percent from the field for an 18-game stretch in 2011-12 before Rice shot 53.1% in the season-ending CIT Tournament loss. Opponents in that stretch shot a combined 41.2 percent (408-991), including a figure of 39.6 percent over the last nine games (199-of-503). In addition, those nine opponents combined to shoot 49-of-217 (.226) from three-point range.

PLAYER NOTES

- Drake forward Ben Simons enters 2012-13 as the MVC's third-leading returning scorer after posting a 16.4 average last year. Simons led the MVC and ranked 54th in the NCAA in three-point field goals per game (2.6), while ranking No. 23 among NCAA DI players in three-point field goal percentage (42.5%).
- Simons finished the season with 77 three-pointers, seventh on the school's single-season list, and 156 for his career, sixth-most all-time.

Three-Pointers in a Season

1.	91	Luke McDonald	2001-02
2.	86	Josh Young	2007-08
3.	86	Luke McDonald	2000-01
4.	83	Eric Berger	1988-89
5.	83	Klayton Korver	2007-08
6.	80	B.J. Windhorst	1994-95
7.	77	Ben Simons	2011-12

- Simons topped the 20-point mark nine times last season, including a career-high of 29 points vs. Wichita State (1/28/12), which matched the best output by a Bulldog since Josh Young scored 34 points vs. Morehead State on Nov. 19, 2008.
- Simons, a co-captain, ranked second in the MVC in free-throw shooting (.849; 62-73). He made 21 consecutive free throws and 27-of-28 from the stripe over an 11-game span between Dec. 28 and Feb. 1, before missing his first attempt vs. Southern Illinois (2/22/12), in his first game back after missing five games with mononucleosis. Simons ranks No. 1 among active MVC players in career free-throw percentage (.860).
- Fifth-year senior Jordan Clarke returns as co-captain for the Bulldogs after ranking seventh in the MVC in rebounds with a team-leading average of 7.0 and sixth in steals (1.4) last season. Clarke had 34 rebounds in a three-game stretch in mid-February (11.3 rpg) and averaged 11.0 rebounds per game (44) in the four postseason games Drake played in the MVC Tournament and CIT.
- Clarke ranked second on the team with 49 steals last year, most in a season by a Drake Bulldog playing the center position. He also posted four double-doubles, the first four of his career.
- Clarke tied career highs for both steals (4) and blocked shots (2) vs. North Dakota (3/14/12) in the first round of the CIT, to go with his 14 rebounds, second-most in his career.
- Jeremy Jeffers finished with the sixth-most points scored by a freshman in school history (243) in 2011-12.

five assists and three steals per game. Babineaux scored a season-high 48 points and followed up with 43 points in back-to-back games in late November.

Babineaux was a two-sport star at Folsom (Calif.) High School from 2007-11, earning three first-team all-league selections in basketball and two in football as a wide receiver and cornerback. His football statistics at Folsom included 64 receptions for 1,187 yards and 15 touchdowns in leading the school to a 2010 State Bowl championship.

In his one season at Lake Forest Academy, the 6-foot-4, 205-pound guard averaged 27.6 points, six rebounds,

2012-13

Had six points, four on free throws with two steals against Xavier ... scored 11 points in 18 minutes in the win over Rice ... made his Drake debut with 14 points in 26 minutes including four straight free throws in the final minutes to keep Drake's comeback hopes alive at Detroit ... did not play in the season opener or exhibition due to a right leg injury ...

College -- Hines played three seasons at Utah (2009-12) after redshirting his first year in 2008-09. Last year, as a redshirt-junior, he started 26 of the Utes' 29 games and ranked second on the team in scoring (9.6), while leading the team in three-point field goals (66), competing in the Pac-12. Playing 30.4 minutes per game (2nd on team), Hines also added 2.3 rebounds and 1.7 steals per game.

Has one season of eligibility remaining to play at Drake following three seasons of play and one redshirt year at the University of Utah. After earning his undergraduate degree from Utah in May 2012, he is eligible to play immediately in 2012-13 for the Bulldogs.

A native of Houston, Hines starred at Klein Forest High School, where he led his team to a record of 33-4 his senior season. He was named first-team all-state, all-district and All-Houston, as well as district and team MVP after a senior season in which he averaged 17 points and seven assists per game.

Jeremy JEFFERS
Wilson, N.C. (Greenfield)

2012-13

Hit a three-pointer to finish with three points at Detroit ... played 11 minutes with four points in the opener ... did not play in the exhibition against SBU due to a concussion suffered in practice ...

Versatile wing with excellent court vision for player his size, Jeffers made an impact after redshirting in 2010-11. In seven games before being sidelined the terrific passer and ball handler showed flashes of talent and promise, then averaged 9.3 points, 2.5 rebounds and 2 assists in four games on Drake's foreign tour to Australia and New Zealand in August 2011.

Played in every game in 2011-12 and moved into the starting lineup in the eighth game of the season against Air Force (12/3), he's started all but one game since. Finished fourth on the team in scoring with 7.1 points a game and held the best three-point percentage at 43 percent.

Hit a career-best four three-pointers against Evansville (2/12) ... Set career highs for points (15) and minutes played (31) in the season opener against Upper Iowa (11/12) ... Made first career start vs. Air Force (12/3) and scored five points with a career-high five rebounds. Recorded a career-high three assists in a win against Eastern Michigan (12/8/11) and matched that figure vs. Central Arkansas (12/21) ... Played in seven games in 2010-11 before an injury brought his season to a close, resulting in a redshirt season ...

Egan, Minn. (Eastview)

Had a team and career-high 21 points in the loss to Xavier on 5-of-7 shooting from the three-point arc ... scored five points through the first two games in Anaheim ... scored eight points on 2-of-4 shooting from the field and 4-of-4 from the free-throw line with two rebounds at Detroit ... had 12 points with three three-pointers in the opener against William Jewell ... exploded for 22 points on 6-of-8 shooting from the arc with three offensive boards in the exhibition against SBU ...

King averaged 23.9 points and six rebounds as a senior in 2011-12. He scored in double figures in 26 of 29 games to lead his team to a 28-2 record and a berth in the Minnesota state AAAA basketball tournament. As a junior King averaged 17.6 points per game in leading his Eastview High team a 22-5 record and a South Suburban Conference title. He scored in double figures in 24 of 27 that year, including a season-best 36 points against Egan. King has competed for the Minnesota Southside AAU team.

Enters his freshman season at Drake in 2012 after a successful prep career at Eastview High School in Apple Valley, Minn.

Did not play in the first five games due to a knee injury ... had two points in limited minutes in the exhibition against SBU ...

A court-savvy point guard with high basketball IQ, speed and quickness won starting point guard position in pre-season after a redshirt season in 2010-11 (knee)...brings toughness, a competitive nature, ball-handling, defense and scoring ability to his floor-general attributes.

Impressive start in first season of action, starting every game but two and handling the point-guard position... averaged 23 minutes per game, over 4.7 points and led the team in assists with 2.5 a game. Had huge breakout game in first MVC start to lead Drake to victory over Indiana State...scored career-high 24 points and added four rebounds and three assists, making all nine field-goal attempts, including one three-pointer, as well as 5-of-6 from the free-throw line.

Dished a career-high seven assists in win over Central Arkansas (12/21). Solid all-around game vs. Virginia (11/21) at Paradise Jam, scoring 9 points, grabbing 5 rebounds, going 5-6 from the free-throw line and adding one assist with just one turnover. Season-best 13 points in first career start vs. Upper Iowa (11/12). Took a redshirt season in his first season because of a knee injury.
High School coach: Chuck Shanklin.

Hit a three-pointer and had two assists in the loss to Xavier ... played five minutes and spent considerable time at the point guard position at Detroit ... made all three three-point attempts against William Jewell ... cored 10 points on 2-of-3 shooting from behind the arc in the exhibition against SBU ...

Begins his collegiate career at Drake in 2012-13 after becoming the all-time leading scorer at Highlands High School in Allegheny, Pa. His accomplishments also include setting the record for career three-pointers in the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League (WPIAL).

Mason capped his record-setting prep career at Highlands

High School (Allegheny, Pa.) in 2011-12 by averaging 29.1 points per game and becoming the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League's (WPIAL) all-time leader in three-pointers (335). He averaged 33.3 points per game as a junior, and led the WPIAL in scoring in both his junior and senior seasons, surpassing the 2,000 point mark for his career. Mason, as a junior in 2010-11, also added 8.0 assists and 3.0 steals per game for Highlands, and shot 47% from three-point range. He earned a spot on the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's "Fab Five" Boys Basketball team and was area player of the year by the Valley News Dispatch. Mason scored 64 points in a game that season, the second-highest single-game total by a player in a WPIAL history.

Saw six minutes of action and scored four points against William Jewell ... scored two points with a rebound and an assist in the exhibition against SBU ...

Comes to the Bulldogs from Detroit (Mich.) Country Day, where he played one season after moving from his native Lithuania to the United States.

Puleikis was the leading scorer and rebounder, at 12.7 and 10.5, respectively, for a Country Day squad in Detroit that compiled a 21-6 record last season and advanced to the semifinals of the Michigan Class B state tournament, and was ranked No. 3 in the state. He played one season at Country Day after moving to the United States from his native Lithuania before his senior year, and earned all-county and honorable mention all-state. In the state regional final against Chandler Park Academy, Puleikis scored a season-high 28 points and grabbed 14 rebounds while adding five blocked shots. He played in 19 games after gaining eligibility via transfer policies, and added 34 blocked shots and 35 assists.

GAME 1

WILLIAM JEWELL	66
DRAKE	96

Nov. 10, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 3,273

The Drake University men's basketball team officially opened the 2012-13 season with a 96-66 win against William Jewell at the Knapp Center. Ben Simons led all scorers with 25 points, 18 of which came in the second half. Richard Carter had a big game in his debut, scoring 19 points, including going a perfect 4-of-4 from three-point range.

The Bulldogs were hot from the field the entire game shooting 55.9-percent as a team on 33-of-59 shooting as well as 15-of-24 from three-point range for a 62.5 percent clip, the ninth highest single-game percentage in school history. At one point in the second half Drake had made 12 of its 15 three-point attempts. Additionally, Drake's 15 three-pointers tied for the sixth most in program history behind nine total three-pointers from Simons and Carter.

William Jewell was paced by two players in double-figures as Dillon Deck scored 16 points with seven rebounds while Ricky Tisdale added 14 points. As a team, the Cardinals shot 35 percent from the field and 13.3 percent from three-point.

DRAKE	79
DETROIT	85

Nov. 17, 2012 • Detroit, Mich.
Calihan Hall • 2,047

Senior Jordan Clarke recorded a double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds but it was not enough to rally back from a 14-point deficit as the Drake University men's basketball team fell at Detroit, 85-79.

Clarke's double-double came on 6-of-7 shooting from the field as the Bulldogs fall to 1-1 on the young season. Detroit was paced by Doug Anderson's 26 points and 10 rebounds while Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year Ray McCallum poured in 20 points, including a jumper with 13 seconds left to preserve the Titan win.

With four minutes to play, Drake was facing a 14-point, 76-62, deficit before the Bulldogs went on a 14-5 run capped by back-to-back three-pointers from Clarke and Ben Simons to pull within two points, 81-79, with 46 seconds left. Simons' three-pointer came courtesy of a possession generated by the defense forcing a critical five-second call on a Detroit inbound pass.

However, Detroit's next possession saw McCallum deliver his game-clinching jumper from the top of the key.

GAME 3

DRAKE	70
CALIFORNIA	73

Nov. 22, 2012 • Anaheim, Calif.
Anaheim Arena • 1,087

The Drake University men's basketball team fell in final minute to California, 73-70, in the opening round of the DIRECTV Classic n Anaheim, Calif.

Senior Jordan Clarke notched his second straight double-double, scoring 11 points and grabbing 10 rebounds while Ben Simons, Seth VanDeest, Richard Carter, and Gary Ricks, Jr. each scored 13 points, but their scoring could not hold off the Golden Bears' late charge. Justin Cobbs recorded 21 points followed by 15 from Allen Crabbe, almost all of which came down the stretch, to lead Cal past Drake in the closing minutes of the game.

Drake led by as many as nine points with seven minutes to play at 64-55, but Cal rallied and retook the lead at 67-66 with 4:20 remaining in the game thanks to a 12-2 run, fueled by the high-scoring guard combo of Crabbe and Cobbs.

In the second half, the Blue and White was able to take its first lead since the opening minutes with a 13-6 run Bulldog run to build a three-possession lead with Simons scoring seven of those points before Cal rebounded.

Nov. 23, 2012 • Anaheim, Calif.
Anaheim Arena • 1,627

Five Bulldogs scored in double figures for the second consecutive night, as the Drake University men's basketball team pulled away from Rice, 77-66, in second round of the DIRECTV Classi.

Jordan Clarke stole the show for the Bulldogs with his third double-double in a row for Drake, notching 15 points and grabbing a career-high 18 rebounds. His 18 rebounds also set a tournament record, previously held by Diamon Simpson of St. Mary's in 2008, who had 17 against Cal State Fullerton. The senior also had four assists, two steals and two blocks.

Ben Simons scored a team-high 18 points to lead the Blue and White past the Owls. Seth VanDeest had a strong showing in the post to complement Clarke with 12 points and eight boards of his own. In his encore performance in front of his hometown crowd, Gary Ricks scored 10 points and had three assists. Chris Hines added 11 points. As a team, Drake shot 46 percent from the field and 44 percent from the three-point arc.

DRAKE 70

Nov. 25, 2012 • Anaheim, Calif.
Anaheim Arena •

The Drake University men's basketball team got a pair of 20-point performances from Ben Simons and Joey King, but it wasn't enough to overcome a talented Xavier team as the Bulldogs fell, 74-70, in their final game at the DIRECTV Classic.

Senior Ben Simons became the 23rd player in Drake basketball history to pass the 1,000-point mark, with 20 points to give him 1,009 career points. Joey King was the leading scorer for the Bulldogs, setting a career high with 21 points.

Senior Jordan Clarke recorded his fourth consecutive double-double, adding 12 points and 11 rebounds for the Blue and White. Clarke set the tournament's rebounding record with 39 boards in three games.

Xavier, which trailed 30-26 at halftime, used an 11-0 run to regain the lead, 44-36, midway through the second half. Drake clawed back on multiple occasions in the second half, but the Musketeers pulled away with a 6-0 run in the final four minutes of the game that increased their lead to as many as 11.
