Panthers Close Out 2012 Saturday Against Drake

Second game of UWM men/women doubleheader

MILWAUKEE, Wis. - The University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team closes out the 2012 portion of the schedule with a "Kids Day" home contest against Drake University Saturday afternoon. Tip off is set for 3 p.m. (with kids tickets just $1) and is the second game of a UWM men's/women's doubleheader, as the Panthers and Bulldogs tip off following the Milwaukee men's game against Ohio Dominican that starts at noon that day.

Headlines...

- North Dakota State University stormed back in the second half to hand the Milwaukee women's basketball team a 60-48 defeat Sunday.
- The Panthers topped the school record for most points scored when they finished with 116 against the Braves Dec. 4, breaking the former mark of 104.
- The team had three players score 20-plus points in a game for just the third time in program history, and the first time there was one 30-plus/two 20-plus.
- The Panthers return four starters and 10 letter-winners from last season, including four of the top five scorers and two of the top three rebounders.
- Sami Tucker was named to the Preseason All-Horizon League Second Team in the league's annual preseason poll of head coaches, media members and sports information directors.
- Last year, Ashley Green was named to the Horizon League All-Newcomer Team. She averaged 10.4 points and 5.4 rebounds per game, making 24 starts.
- Tucker is the team's leading scorer from a year ago (11.6 ppg) and is also the top returning rebounder (7.3 rpg). Both ranked in the top 15 in the league.
- Kyle Rechlicz is in her first season after being named the seventh head coach in program history.

What's New

The University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team closes out the 2012 portion of the schedule with a "Kids Day" home contest against Drake University Saturday afternoon. Tip off is set for 3 p.m. (with kids tickets just $1) and is the second game of a UWM men's/women's doubleheader, as the Panthers and Bulldogs tip off following the Milwaukee men's game against Ohio Dominican that starts at noon that day.

Following the game, the entire coaching staff and all team members will host a clinic on the court and autograph session for "Athletes for Autism".

Looking At Drake

The Bulldogs, 4-6 so far in 2012-13, went 18-16 last year (9-9 MVC) and lost in the first round of the WNIT, advancing to the postseason for the first time since the 2007-08 season. Jennie Baranczyk begins her first season as head women's basketball coach and has nine freshmen or sophomores on the roster and just one senior, Stephanie Running. Running averages 7.6 ppg/4.2 rpg this season, with Kyndal Clark (13.3 ppg) and Morgan Reid (11.1 ppg) leading the offense.

Series History

The all-time series consists of five games, with Drake taking the win in each. The most recent was a year ago, with the Bulldogs posting a 63-51 victory at home.

Up Next

The Panthers take a break into 2013, getting back on the court - and opening Horizon League play - against Wright State Jan. 10. Game time is set for 7 p.m.

2012-13 Milwaukee Women's Basketball Game Notes

Last Outing

North Dakota State University stormed back in the second half to hand the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team a 60-48 defeat Sunday afternoon at the Bison Sports Arena.

The Bison (4-8) limited the Panthers (4-7) to their lowest scoring output of the season, erasing an 11-point halftime deficit with a 29-4 run at the start of the second half to take control.

Junior Angela Rodriguez led Milwaukee with 16 points. Senior Sami Tucker ended the day with 11 points and eight rebounds, while freshman Avyanna Young - making her first collegiate start - finished with five points and a team-best nine rebounds. Sophomore Ashley Green, who did not start due to an injury concern, was held to three points in just 14 minutes.

Dani DeGagne paced three Bison in double-figures with 16 points.

Start The Countdowns

Sami Tucker now has 1,000 career points on her agenda, as the senior looks to become the 17th player in program history to reach that mark. She enters the Drake game at 970 in her career. The last player to crack 1,000 career points was Lindsay Laur in 2010-11, who went on to score over 1,400 career points. When Tucker cracks the 1,000-point plateau, she will be the ninth member of the club to do so exclusively in the program's Division I era. Junior Angela Rodriguez (817 pts) is also on pace to get to 1,000.

Tucker also went over 600 career rebounds in the DePaul game Dec. 11. Once she is over 1,000 points, she will join just three other players who have recorded over 1,000 points and 600 rebounds in a career. The list includes Traci Edwards (2,340 pts/1,193 reb), Maria Viall (1,867/971) and Lindsay Laur (1,404/791).

Ashley Green also has a countdown to 500, as the sophomore sits at 444 heading into play and looks to become the 32nd player in school history to accomplish that feat, joining Tucker and Rodriguez on the current roster.

Sharpshooters

As of Monday Dec. 24, Milwaukee boasted four of the top six three-point shooters in the Horizon League, including the top three. Sophomore Ashley Green was first at 55.6 percent, senior Sami Tucker No. 2 at 45.7 percent, junior Angela Rodriguez checked in at No. 3 at 44.6 percent and junior Emily Decorah was No. 6 at 38.9 percent.

Tough Schedule

The Panthers sit at 4-7 overall, but a look at the teams that have beaten UWM show just how tough the road has been. Wisconsin (7-4), Georgia Tech (5-5), Illinois State (6-4), Michigan State (11-1), Toledo (10-1), DePaul (10-3) and North Dakota State (4-8) have gone a combined 53-26, a .671 winning percentage.

Klotsche, Sweet Klotsche

At 2-0 in the Klotsche Center so far in 2012-13, the Panthers are unbeaten through two games at home for the first time since the 2003-04 campaign. The last time UWM has been at least 3-0 to start a home slate was 2000-01, when it won its first four games at home.

A Look Behind The 30-Plus

The Panthers have now had two different players score 30 or more points in a game this season. Junior Angela Rodriguez netted 30 against DePaul Dec. 11 and sophomore Ashley Green had 33 against Bradley Dec.

2. Detroit (2)	210	7. Milwaukee	85
3. Wright State	191	8. Youngstown State	77
4. Loyola	152	9. Valparaiso	46
5. Cleveland State	123

4. That marks a program first as UWM has never had two different players pour in 30-plus points in the same campaign. In fact, you have to look back to the 2002-03 roster to even find the last time two players who scored 30 or more in a game were playing on the same roster (Jessica Wilhite and Maria Viall).

More On The 3's

The Panthers have been clicking on offense so far, scoring over 80 points four times and close to the Horizon League lead at 69.2 ppg. The three-point shooting has certainly helped - UWM is hitting at a 37.8 percent clip (99-for-262) from long distance so far to lead the league (Youngstown State is second at 34.3 percent). To rank that nationally, UWM finds itself an impressive 11th in the country in 3-point field goal percentage (in last NCAA stats update) and second in 3's made per game (9.4, with leader at 10.0). Junior Angela Rodriguez has led the way individually - making 27 of her 58 attempts to rank among the conference leaders at 46.6 percent, a number that checks in at 15th at the NCAA Division I level.

Lighting Up The Scoreboard

The Panthers have scored 80-plus points in four games so far this season. A year ago, the team did not crack the 80-point barrier, topping out at 79. Looking back, the last time a UWM team scored more than 80 points at least four times in the same season was 2006-07 (four times that campaign). The last time Milwaukee netted at least 80 more than four times was back in 2000-11, when it accomplished the feat seven times.

Team Three ... It's a Trend

The Panthers are certainly a three-point shooting team this season, but also have a long history of making three's headed in to 2012-13. Milwaukee has made at least one three-pointer in every game dating back to an 0-for-4 showing from long-distance against Marquette back on November 26, 2002. That makes 311 games in a row heading into the game against Drake. It's a ways to go for the NCAA record, however, which is held by Canisius at 510 in a row (1994-2011). The Horizon League record was halted last year when Loyola came up empty at 446. Cleveland State held the record previously - which was also the NCAA mark at the time - at 408 (1992-2007). Coincidentally, the NBA's longest streak just came to an end Dec. 15 when the Dallas Mavericks were stopped at 1,108 in a row.

"On Pace"

The Panthers are off to an incredible start from beyond the arc and are on pace to shatter team records in three-pointers made and attempted and also have a chance at 3-point field goal percentage. At the current pace, UWM will finish with over 260 made 3's (record is 212 in 2010-11) and over 680 attempts (record is 586 in 1996-97). In addition, the team record for percentage is 37.8 and this year's squad is currently at 37.8.

Records, Records Everywhere

Milwaukee and Bradley played a game for the ages Dec. 4, with the 116-112 double-overtime game thrilling the Klotsche Center crowd with 12 ties and two lead changes that all occurred after just three minutes remained in regulation and in the OT's. In all, nine records were set and one tied on the night.

It's Kind Of A Big Deal

The Panthers had a trio of scorers against Bradley Dec. 4 that recorded a first of its kind for the program - the first time UWM has ever had one player over 30 points (Ashley Green with 33) and two others net over 20 points (Angela Rodriguez with 22 and Sami Tucker with 21). In fact, Milwaukee has only had three players score 20 or more points in the same game just twice prior: February 6, 1997 against Butler (Darryl Schaffeld 28, Jen Gregor 25, April Rodman 20) and February 17, 1996 against Cleveland State (Rodman 29, Jill Gutzke 21, Gregor 20). In addition, the only time UWM had as much as one 30-point/20-point combo was November 11, 2007 when Traci Edwards went for 30 and Aubri Rote added 20.

Now That Is Clutch

When sophomore Ashley Green fouled out early in the first overtime against Bradley Dec. 4, Milwaukee needed someone to carry the scoring load and Angela Rodriguez answered the call - and then some. All the junior guard did was score 11 of UWM's 14 points in the period - and assisted the other three-pointer the Panthers made. She went 5-for-7 from the floor in the five-minute session - including four makes in a row after Green fouled out.

Overtime. And Again

The double-overtime contest against Bradley Dec. 4 was just the eighth in program history (at the NCAA D-I level) and the first since December of 2008 against Wisconsin. Junior Angela Rodriguez played 45 of the possible 50 minutes against the Braves, tied for the fifth-most ever by a player in a single game. Daryl Schaffeld holds the mark at 50 (2/6/97).

The Trek Above 100

Taking a look back, the Panthers 116 points was not only an all-time program high, but broke the old standard of 104 by a dozen. In fact, the 116 points marked the second-highest output in the NCAA this year, topped only by the 118 that Troy tallied against Furman Nov. 18. The game marked just the fifth time UWM has eclipsed the 100-point barrier in its NCAA D-I history (just 5 of 640 games, or 0.78 percent) and the 11th time since basketball began at the school in 1971. The last time over 100 was nearly 10 years ago (vs. YSU, 2/2/02). The Panthers games in triple-figures include totals of 104 (Northeastern Illinois, 1/22/90), 102 (Detroit, 1/19/02), 101 (CSU, 2/17/96) and 100 (the YSU game). The 228 total points also broke the

Head Coach Kyle Rechlicz

First Season
Wisconsin, 2003

Kyle Rechlicz is the new head coach of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team.

She was named the seventh coach in program history in May of 2012 and comes to the Milwaukee Panthers from the University of Wisconsin. There she served as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Badgers during the 2011-12 campaign.

"We believe Kyle is the right person for the future of UWM women's basketball," said Chancellor Michael R. Lovell. "Her outstanding experience as a coach, recruiter and player will carry on the strong tradition of our basketball program

Since her playing days, Rechlicz has been associate head coach and recruiting coordinator for the University of Dayton (2007-2011) and the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for Cleveland State (2003-2007).

As a player, Rechlicz helped guide Wisconsin to four postseason appearances, including NCAA tournament berths in 2001 and 2002. She was one of Wisconsin's premier 3-point shooters, setting a school record with seven 3-pointers in collecting a career-high 26 points against Holy Cross. She led the Big Ten Conference in three-point field goal percentage as a junior, hitting 40.6 percent from beyond the arc.

2012-13 Milwaukee Women's Basketball Game Notes

combined record of 200 and marked the first time both teams were 100-plus in the same contest.

Green Means Go

Sophomore Ashley Green scored a career-high 33 points against Bradley Dec. 4, marking the third time she has established a new career-high this season (first 19, then 20) and the first 30-plus point game for a Panther in over two calendar years (last was Nov. 16, 2010). She finished a rebound short of a double-double and at one point scored 13 UWM points in a row.

After scoring just five in the season opener, Green went on a three-game roll against Wisconsin, Western Michigan and Georgia Tech where she set new a new career-high in points in back-to-back games and led the team in scoring and rebounds for three outings in a row. That marked the first such streak by a UWM player since Lindsay Laur led the Panthers in points and rebounds for four games in a row February 10-24, 2011.

Keeping Control

Despite the tough loss at Michigan State Dec. 1, a look at the box score shows a stat that came very close to a record. The Panthers committed just eight turnovers in the game against an MSU team that came in ranked best in the nation defensively. That just missed the school record of seven, set against Drake last season.

Five Over Ten = Team Effort

For the second time this season, the Panthers had five players score in double-figures against Bradley Dec. 4. They also pulled off the feat against Western Michigan Nov. 14, which was a notable accomplishment. The last time UWM had at least five players score 10 or more points prior to those two games? The answer would be January 24, 2009 against Loyola - 109 games ago.

Out Of The Chutes

It may have been just three games, but at 2-1, the Panthers won two of their first three contests for just the second time in the past 11 seasons. The only other 2-1 start in that span came in the 2009-10 campaign. And at 3-2, the only other UWM team that had a better start through five games in the past 20-plus years was that 2009-10 squad that started 4-1.

Making A Name For Herself

Head coach Kyle Rechlicz was named the seventh coach in program history in the offseason. Now, she's off to one of the best starts - becoming the first UWM coach to win three of her first five contests of her initial campaign.

Rechlicz is also one of the youngest coaches at the NCAA Division I level. At 32, there are just seven coaches who have earlier birth years - DeUnna Hendrix of High Point University is the youngest at 28, while a pair of head coaches are 30 and a group of four checks in at 31.

*NCAA/League Rankings Last Updated Dec. 17
Individual NCAA Rankings in Parenthesis

Three's Company

The Panthers heated up from downtown against Western Michigan Nov. 14, coming close to quite a few team records when it comes to three-pointers after they hit 13-of-18 (72.2 percent) from beyond the arc. The first was team percentage in a game. Only a 78.6 percent clip (11-of-14) against Central Michigan back on December 17, 2000 was better in program history. The 13 total three's also came close to the school mark of 15 (set twice, most recently against Wright State December 31, 2010) and junior Emily Decorah's 5-of-6 performance (83.3 percent) was the sixth-best single-game performance in history.

Up Tempo

Milwaukee continues to push the ball on offense under new head coach Kyle Rechlicz. At the time, the 88 points against Western Michigan Nov. 14 marked the most for a Milwaukee squad in the regular season since an 88-65 win over SIU Edwardsville in November of 2008. The team also netted 88 points in its exhibition against Hillsdale Nov. 3. To put the scoring average in perspective, in last year's final NCAA rankings, UWM's offense was 239th in the NCAA and eighth in the league. In the first NCAA report this season, they were first in the conference and 69th nationally.

Simply Perfect

Senior Sammy Theut was the fifth player to record double-figures in points against the Broncos Nov. 14, sinking a pair of free throws with just 1.4 seconds left to finish with 11 points. Not only was that nearly a career-high (she scored 12 against Western Illinois in November of 2010), but she finished the night without a miss of any type: 2-2 on field goals, 1-1 on 3FG's and 6-6 from the free throw line.

Preseason Publicity

Sami Tucker was named to the Preseason All-Horizon League Second Team in the league's annual preseason poll of head coaches, media members and sports information directors. In addition, College Sports Madness also named Tucker to its All-Horizon League Second Team for the second year in a row.

Start 'Em Young

The Panthers were led in rebounding by a freshman in the season opener, as Avyanna Young collected nine boards to go along with her seven points in her UWM debut against Chicago State Nov. 9. That marked the second time in three seasons a frosh has led the team in rebounds in the season opener (Angela Rodriguez had seven to lead the way her freshman campaign) and it also marks highest rebound total ever for a freshman in a UWM season opener. The former mark was seven, done three times, most recently by Rodriguez. Young also tied for the team lead in rebounds in game two (with six) at Wisconsin.

Play Them All

The Panthers had all 12 players who were suited up for the season opener against Chicago State Nov. 9 play in the game. In fact, 10 of them found their way into the scoring column and 11 saw at least 10 minutes of playing time.

For Openers

The Panthers now hold a 7-16 record in season-openers at the NCAA Division I level (dating back to 1990-91) after the 82-58 win over Chicago State Nov. 9. A year ago, UWM dropped a 68-51 decision to Wisconsin in the first game of the year.

500 Club

The Panthers had a pair of returning players eclipse the 500-point mark in their careers last season. Senior Sami Tucker started the campaign with 483 and tallied her 500th at Drake Nov. 18. Junior Angela Rodriguez joined the club against Loyola Dec. 29, scoring 14 to move to 502 and become the 30th player to score 500 points in a career in program history.

500 Again

Senior Sami Tucker became the 29th player to score over 500 points in a career and also added the title of 22nd player in program history to collect 500 rebounds during her junior campaign. Of the 14 she grabbed Feb. 23, her second of the game gave her No. 500. The last to accomplish the feat was Lindsay Laur (2007-11), who ended her career in fifth-place with 791.

Returning Starters + One

The Panthers return three starters from the regular rotation in senior Sami Tucker (30 starts in 30 games), junior Angela Rodriguez (28 in 28) and sophomore Ashley Green (24 in 30). And, with junior Emily Decorah also returning from injury after starting the first six games of the 2011-12 campaign, the team essentially has four starters returning to the mix for 2012-13.

Postseason Awards

Ashley Green was named to the All-Horizon League All-Newcomer Team after averaging 10.4 points and 5.4 rebounds per game. She started 24 out of 30 games on the season.

Young Panthers

Milwaukee used a very young roster last season and the proof was in the numbers. Freshman and sophomores accounted for 113 of 150 starts (75.3%) and 4,221 of 6,025 minutes played (70.1%) last season. Sami Tucker was the only regular starter that was a junior or senior.

Trial By Fire

Ashley Green found her way into the starting rotation just six games into her freshman season. She responded well, going on to average 10.4 points and 5.4 rebounds a game. In league play, she picked it up another notch, leading the team with 12.2 points per contest on 46.8 percent shooting from the floor.

Tucker-Tucker

Sami Tucker posted three-consecutive double-doubles last season, ending with 21 points and 11 rebounds at Western Michigan Dec. 3. The most recent comparable streak of consecutive double-doubles was in 2010-11 when Lindsay Laur posted five in a row (Dec. 19-Jan. 6).

Youth is Served

The Panthers will indeed be a young squad again this season, with the projected starting lineup being comprised of just one senior. In addition, five true freshmen join Milwaukee in 2012-13, giving the team a total of nine players (out of 15 on the roster) who will be either sophomores or freshmen.

Get Your Popcorn Ready

Fans will have the opportunity to watch the Panthers all season long. The team will play six games on television, returning to Time Warner Sports 32. Another 16 games will be carried live online on the Horizon League Network. For the Panthers' Sports 32 contests, Bob Brainerd and former UWM great Maria Viall will once again be calling the action.

Hit Us at 920 on the Dial

Every Milwaukee regular season game will once again be available on the radio and online via AM 920 The Wolf. Scott Warras is back for his seventh season donning the headset. Fans can also catch Warras' call with the majority of the team's HLN webcasts.

Rechlicz Welcomes Her New Staff

Head coach Kyle Rechlicz rounded out her staff in the offseason by naming Frank Goldsberry, Jessica Wilhite and Janese Banks as members of her coaching staff.

Goldsberry had served as the women's director of basketball operations and video coordinator at Dayton University since 2003 before adding the title of assistant director of compliance to his duties last season. Wilhite returned to her alma mater last year as video coordinator and remains with the staff in 2012-13 as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. Banks spent last season as a graduate assistant at Auburn University, assisting in all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the women's basketball team.

More New Faces

Head coach Kyle Rechlicz welcomed some new faces to her support staff in the offseason as well. Gina Gonzales joins the staff as the Director of Basketball Operations, Latrell Fleming as the Video Coordinator and Haylie Linn as the Graduate Manager.

Gonzales comes from Missouri State University, where she spent last season as the Athletics Marketing Graduate Assistant. Fleming spent the past four seasons as a coach in the AAU ranks in the Milwaukee area and Linn recently wrapped up her collegiate career in 2011-12 at the University of Toledo.

MILWAUKEE - Senior Sami Tucker posted a double-double of 19 points and 14 rebounds to lead the way for the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team as it cruised to an 88-55 victory over Hillsdale College in an exhibition contest Saturday night at the Klotsche Center.

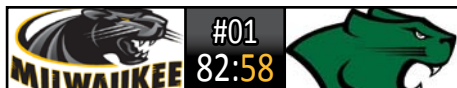

A total of four players scored in double-figures for the Panthers, with junior Emily Decorah and freshman Avyanna Young each finishing with 11 and freshman Jordyn Swan adding 10 points.

"We had some great people step in from the bench - we had three of our freshmen play tremendously well tonight," UWM head coach Kyle Rechlicz said. "It was our chance to get out there and show what we have been working on the past few months."

The contest marked the debut of Rechlicz as the head coach for Milwaukee.

CHICAGO, Ill. - Junior Angela Rodriguez scored 18 points to lead three players in double-figures and the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team used a big second half to claim an 82-58 victory over Chicago State University Friday at the Jones Convocation Center.

The Panthers (1-0) started the second half on a 16-to-1 run against the Cougars (0-1) and cruised from there, building their advantage to as many as 26 points over the final 20 minutes to get the season-opening win.

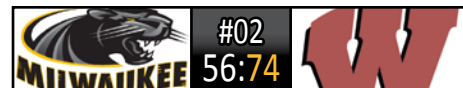

The victory came in Kyle Rechlicz's first game as Milwaukee's head coach.

"It was very exciting," Rechlicz said. "I thought our girls came out focused and prepared and ready to take on the challenge from the start."

All 12 players that suited up saw action on the court, with 10 of them finding their way into the scoring column. In addition to Rodriguez's 18, senior Sami Tucker had 11 points and six rebounds and junior Emily Decorah was also in double-figures with 10 points, while adding seven rebounds.

MADISON, Wis. - Sophomore Ashley Green led the way with a career-high 19 points but the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team could not overcome cold shooting from the floor in the second half in a 74-56 loss to the University of Wisconsin Sunday evening at the Kohl Center.

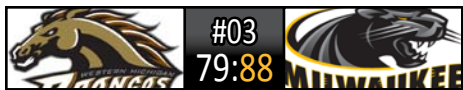

The Panthers (1-1) led the Badgers (1-0) by as many as eight points in the first half, but shot just 32 percent after intermission to allow Wisconsin to pull away.

"It was our second game in three days and I thought our team came out extremely strong at the start," UWM head coach Kyle Rechlicz said. "We hit some really tough shots and put them on their heels. This is definitely a building step for us. I told the team in the locker room that this does not define who we are, it's just a game on the path to where we are trying to get to."

Green added a team-high six rebounds to go along with her career-best point total of 19. Junior Angela Rodriguez added nine points, with freshman Avyanna Young tallying seven points and six rebounds.

MILWAUKEE - Sophomore Ashley Green set career-highs with 20 points and 14 rebounds and the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team made 13 three-pointers in an 88-79 victory over Western Michigan University Wednesday evening at the Klotsche Center.

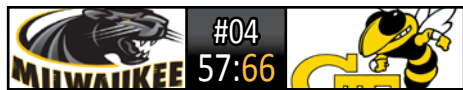

The Panthers (2-1) led the Broncos (1-1) by as many as 12 in the first half, but saw that lead trimmed down to two with just over three minutes remaining. But, a 7-0 run gave Milwaukee back the momentum and it went on to score 13 of the final 19 points to secure the victory in the home opener for head coach Kyle Rechlicz.

"I definitely think we have some great leaders on the floor," Rechlicz said. "Towards the end of the game we had our two seniors out there leading the group and Ashley Green really stepped up again tonight. This is two games in a row where she is proving that she is a force to be reckoned with."

Senior Sami Tucker had 18 points and eight rebounds, junior Emily Decorah netted 15 on five three-pointers, senior Sammy Theut had 11 and junior Angela Rodriguez finished with 10.

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico - Sophomore Ashley Green led four players in double-figures and the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team played Georgia Tech evenly for the majority of the game before falling, 66-57, in game one of the San Juan Shootout Saturday afternoon at Morales Coliseum.

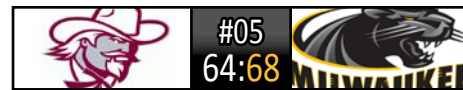

The Panthers (2-2) led on several occasions against the Yellow Jackets (3-2), a team that was ranked in both polls in the preseason and was just out of the Top 25 heading into play in the tournament.

"We came in very prepared," UWM head coach Kyle Rechlicz said. "I was extremely proud of our girls in that sense. I was just really proud of our effort - I told the girls that if we play like this all year we are going to win a lot of games in our league. But it takes that consistency. It can't just be playing like this against a Georgia Tech team that went to the Sweet 16 last year to say 'we're going to step up'. It has to be game-in and game-out, the same kind of heart and defense."

Green led the way with 17 points, with junior Angela Rodriguez and senior Sami Tucker both finishing with 12. Junior Emily Decorah rounded out the players in double-figures with 10.

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico - Junior Angela Rodriguez scored a game-high 19 points and made all four of her free throw attempts in the final 16 seconds to help the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team secure a 68-64 victory over Eastern Kentucky University Sunday afternoon at Morales Coliseum.

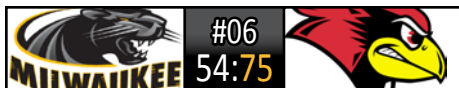

The Panthers (3-2) trailed the Colonels (3-2) by 10 points early in the game, but used a 19-6 scoring run to get back into it and then iced the game at the line late. After starting the day 5-for-14 from the charity stripe, Milwaukee made nine of its last 10 - including all six in the final 24 seconds of the contest to finish the weekend at 1-1 in the San Juan Shootout.

"When Angela is aggressive, we are a completely different team," UWM head coach Kyle Rechlicz said. "We look for her leadership on the floor and her ability to score. She is a very capable scorer and it was nice to see her take the team on her shoulders and hit the big shots when we needed her to."

Senior Sami Tucker added 15 points and a team-high eight rebounds and sophomore Ashley Green chipped in with eight points and seven rebounds. Freshman Avyanna Young had seven points and sophomore Janna Swopshire added six points and three boards.

NORMAL, Ill. - Jamie Russell and Candace Sykes each had a double-double to lead Illinois State University past the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team, 75-54, Thursday evening at Redbird Arena.

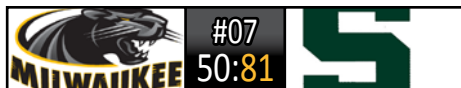

The Panthers (3-3) led early but went cold from the field in falling behind by 12 at intermission. The Redbirds (4-2) slowly pulled away in the second half, using a decisive 10-0 scoring run after Milwaukee had pulled back within nine points with eight minutes to play.

"This was a great lesson for us," UWM head coach Kyle Rechlicz said. "It was an opportunity for us to come to someone's court and see what it's like to play at that level. Hopefully, we will move forward from here and learn how to compete like they did."

Junior Emily Decorah led the Panthers in scoring with 11 points. Senior Sami Tucker added 10 points and eight rebounds and junior Angela Rodriguez scored nine. Sophomore Janna Swopshire finished with eight points off the bench in just 13 minutes of action.

Michigan State	46	35	- 81

EAST LANSING, Mich. - Jasmine Hines led five players in double-figures with 19 points as Michigan State University claimed an 81-50 victory over the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team Saturday afternoon at the Breslin Events Center.

The Spartans (7-0) came into the game allowing just 39.7 points per game - the best scoring defense in the country - and allowing opponents to shoot just 29.3 percent, which was second in the NCAA.

"Their defense was definitely as advertised," Milwaukee head coach Kyle Rechlicz said. "I was glad to see we got up 63 shots and took more than they did. I think that is a testament to us running our fast break. We didn't back down. We attacked and that was our mentality. It doesn't matter who we are playing, we still play Milwaukee basketball."

Sophomore Janna Swopshire led the Panthers (3-4) with 10 points, just off her career-high of 11. Junior Emily Decorah and sophomore Ashley Green both finished with nine. Senior Sami Tucker, playing in her hometown and in front of family and friends, ended the afternoon with eight points.

MILWAUKEE - Sophomore Ashley Green scored a career-high 33 points including a three-pointer at the buzzer in regulation to help the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team to a 116-112 double-overtime victory over Bradley University Tuesday night at the Klotsche Center.

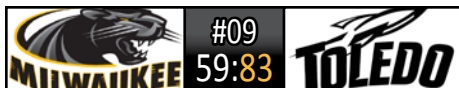

The back-and-forth play of the Panthers (4-4) and Braves (5-4) made for an entertaining evening, setting numerous program records, including most points ever scored by a UWM team and most combined points in a game at 228, breaking the former mark of 200.

"We gave the crowd a great show tonight," Panthers head coach Kyle Rechlicz said. "It was a very high-scoring game and I knew it was going to be. Bradley is a very disciplined team and they shoot the three just as well as we do. I told their coach before the game that it was going to be who battled it out at the end."

Down 87-84 with just 3.7 seconds left and having to go the length of the floor, Green grabbed a pass from junior Emily Decorah near midcourt, dribbled down the sideline and banked in an off-balance three-point-er as time expired to send the game to overtime.

Toledo	52	31	- 83

TOLEDO, Ohio - It was a tale of two halves, as the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team outplayed the University of Toledo in the second, but an early deficit and a season-high 24 turnovers were too much to overcome in an 83-59 loss Saturday afternoon at Savage Arena.

The Panthers (4-5) allowed the Rockets (7-1) to get off to a quick start, scoring 52 points in the first half in trailing from the start. The victory helped UT continue its home dominance, improving to 61-8 on its home court since the start of the 2008-09 campaign.

Junior Angela Rodriguez led the Panthers with 13 points as a trio finished in double-figures. Senior Sami Tucker finished with 11 points and seven rebounds while junior Emily Decorah added 10. Freshman Avyanna Young also chipped in five points and grabbed a team-high eight rebounds.

Milwaukee at DePaul

DePaul	41	53	- 94

CHICAGO, Ill. - A career-high 30 points by junior Angela Rodriguez was not enough as the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team fell, 94-83, to DePaul University Tuesday afternoon at McGrath-Phillips Arena.

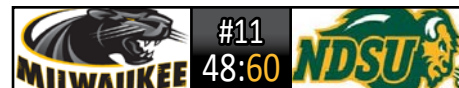

The Panthers (4-6) played hard to the final buzzer, but a decisive scoring run by the Blue Demons (7-3) late in the second half put the decision out of reach. Milwaukee was within eight points on a handful of occasions in the second half, but DePaul - which came into the game receiving votes in the USA Today Coaches poll - used a 16-4 run to open up its lead with about six minutes to play and fend off Milwaukee from there.

"I was extremely proud of our effort in both halves," UWM head coach Kyle Rechlicz said. "It came down to breakdowns on defense. That is something that we have preached about, something that we have talked a lot about. Now that we have this extended break of over 10 days, we can really drill and get better at. We have to keep fighting, learn from our mistakes and continue to get better."

Rodriguez set a career-best with six made three's on her way to her first 30-point performance of her UWM career. She added six assists and a pair of steals. Three other players netted double-figures. Junior Emily Decorah and sophomore Ashley Green each had 14, while senior Sami Tucker finished with 13 points and eight rebounds.

Milwaukee at North Dakota State

December 23 • Bison Sports Arena • Att: 212

Milwaukee	34	14	- 48
North Dakota State	23	37	- 60

FARGO, N.D. - North Dakota State University stormed back in the second half to hand the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee women's basketball team a 60-48 defeat Sunday afternoon at the Bison Sports Arena.

The Bison (4-8) limited the Panthers (4-7) to their lowest scoring output of the season, erasing an 11-point halftime deficit with a 29-4 run at the start of the second half to take control.

Junior Angela Rodriguez led Milwaukee with 16 points. Senior Sami Tucker ended the day with 11 points and eight rebounds, while freshman Avyanna Young - making her first collegiate start - finished with five points and a team-best nine rebounds. Sophomore Ashley Green, who did not start due to an injury concern, was held to three points in just 14 minutes.

Dani DeGagne paced three Bison in double-figures with 16 points.

"You travel and fly a long distance to places and you take the chance of not shooting as well when you are on the road," UWM head coach Kyle Rechlicz said. "I just thought we came out today with a little less energy. Having Ashley out injured did not help our case, by any means, but we just didn't shoot well."
