Media Policy

University of Evansville Sports Information Director Bob Pristash will be serving as the primary media contact for Aces Men's Basketball this season and all interview and media requests must be directed to his attention. He can be reached via email at rp113@evansville.edu or at 812-266-5288.

Head coach Marty Simmons and requested players will be available prior to practice each day. All requests must be made by Noon of that day. No exceptions. All scheduled interviews will take place in the arena prior to practice. Please see the schedule in game notes for a full schedule of that week. Please contact Bob Pristash on the day of your scheduled interview to confirm location. With schedules at the Ford Center possibly changing last minute, we want to make sure you end up at the correct place. There will also be no availability on game day prior to the contest and on scheduled off days.

Photographers (including TV and other video) are permitted to shoot during the first 10 minutes of practice. All photographers must notify Bob Pristash in advance in order to attend practice. Coach Simmons and selected players will be available following each home game in the media room of the Ford Center following a ten-minute cooling off period. Quotes from road games will be included in the post-game release.

The Opening Tip

- Evansville made it 2-for-2 versus ranked opponents at the Ford Center as the Purple Aces took down No. 23 Wichita State by a 71-67 final on Sunday afternoon
- The win gave UE a 4-1 conference mark, matching its start from the 1999-2000 season
- Other notable starts to league play for UE since joining the MVC came in the form of a 6-0 start in 1998-99 and an 8-1 mark in the 1997-98 campaign
- Following the home win, the Aces will look to keep their streak going in road games this week at Drake and Indiana State

Preseason Honors

- Senior Colt Ryan has received several preseason accolades entering the 2012-13 campaign. Those include:
 - MVC Preseason All-Conference Team
 - SENIOR Class Award Watch List
 - Lou Henson Preseason All-America Team
 - No. 3 Under-The-Rader Player (CBSSports.com)
 - No. 11 shooter on Luke Winn's Top 16 list (SI.com)

Success Continues Against Ranked Squads

- Evansville has not lost to a ranked opponent at the Ford Center; the Aces topped No. 15 Creighton last year before toppling No. 23 Wichita State this season
- For the first time in program history, Evansville has defeated a ranked opponent four seasons in a row
- Coach Simmons has led UE 4-5 mark in the last 9 games versus a ranked team, that is the top 9-game stretch in program history
- The Aces have won three home games against ranked teams, dating back to the win over UNI in 2011; Simmons is 3-2 in home contests vs. ranked teams

Elite Company

- For the third-straight game and the fifth time in the last six contests, Colt Ryan eclipsed the 20-point mark, pushing his season average to a team-high 16.4 points per game
- Ryan became just the 27th player in the history of the Valley to reach the 1,800-point plateau; he now stands at 1,840 points in his career, good for 22nd in league history; with just 29 more points, Ryan will jump into the top 20 in the MVC record book
- Colt is finding his groove; in the 10 non-conference games he played in, he posted an average of 13.7 points while seeing just over 24 minutes of action; he has upped that total in league play, posting 21.8 points while playing in 36.6 minutes per contest; he also has hit 23 out of 24 free throws
- Ryan's average of 36.6 minutes in league play leads all players while his 21.8 PPG average is second
- As always, Ryan has been almost automatic from the line, connecting on 52 of his 57 free throws this season, his rate of 92.5% leads the MVC
- Ryan continued to add to his record-setting career against the Shockers, tallying two steals to increase his total to 156 in his career, with five steals against Butler, Ryan became the all-time UE leader in that category; the Batesville, Ind. native stands at four ahead of former record holder Reed Jackson
- With 24 points against Wichita State, Ryan's career tally now stands at 1,840, fourth in the UE record book; next up on the list is Ed Smallwood, who left Evansville with 1,898 points in his career
- Colt also ranks second on the squad with 59 assists, when he finishes with five or more assists, the Aces have won five out of six contests

Scouting The Competition

- Drake earned its first MVC win, taking down Illinois State by an 82-77 final in Normal on Saturday; the Bulldogs stand at 7-9 overall and 1-4 in the Valley
- Ben Simons leads the way for DU with 14.5 PPG, that total is seventh in the league while Seth VanDeest has notched 10.1 tallies; Simons is also a stellar free throw shooter, connecting on 35 out of 41 this year, 85.4% (4th in the conference)
- Despite the team being outrebounded by 4.3 per game, Jordan Clarke has been a force down low, grabbing 8.1 per game, second in the MVC
- The Bulldogs boast the top 3-point shooter in the Valley as Micah Mason has drained a league-leading 57.9% of his treys (22 out of 38)
- As a team, Drake is shooting 38.7% from three-point range; that total is 25th in the country and second in the league

Call Him "Triple T"

- While it is no easy chore for a true point guard to keep up one of the top rebounding tallies in the nation, Troy Taylor has done just that as his mark for the season stands at 7.4 boards per game, tied for fourth in the MVC; in league play, he has grabbed 9.8/game, second overall
- Aside from his performance on the boards, Taylor has started to crank it up offensively, posting double-digit outings in his last three games and six times overall this season, matching the total from his junior year
- Through five conference outings, Taylor has posted an average of 9.8/game, second behind only Jackie Carmichael of Illinois State; that total includes his 19-board performance against Missouri State; he has notched at least six caroms in each MVC outing
- While it is hard to go up from having a triple-double, Troy Taylor gave it his best shot on January 5 versus Missouri State as he finished with 19 boards; it marked the first time a UE player grabbed 15 or more since Nate Garner did so vs. Western Kentucky on 12/13/08
- Taylor recorded 10 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists on his way to just the second triple-double in UE history versus Creighton; it marked the 36th triple-double in MVC history and the second in as many seasons as Jake Odum of Indiana State had one a year ago
- The only other time it happened in program history was when Reed Jackson did so vs. New Hampshire on Jan. 3, 1995; he finished with 13 points, 10 rebounds and 12 assists
- He led the way for Evansville with 6 boards against Wichita State; over the last two years, he has led UE in rebounding on 23 occasions, more than anyone else for UE; he has led UE in rebounding in each of the last six games, including all five MVC games

Looking To Rebound

- Between 2008 and the first game of the 2010-11 season, Evansville took four out of five games versus Drake
- Since then, UE has lost all three games while failing to score 70 each time, in the two games last season, UE did not score over 60 points as the Bulldogs kept UE star Colt Ryan in check
- Drake held Ryan to just 13 total points in the two games as he hit just four out of 14 attempts; the Bulldogs also did a solid job of getting Ryan in foul trouble as he fouled out in the home contest before being whistled three times in Des Moines
- For his career, Ryan is averaging 11.8 points against DU; his average versus all other opponents is 17.2 PPG

On A Roll

- In his last six outings, senior Lewis Jones has notched an average of 8.7 points which included a season-high of 14 points in the win over Missouri State
- Jones has been extremely aggressive on both sides of the floor, especially on the offensive side; through his first three years at UE, Jones scored in double figures on seven occasions, but has already notched five double-digit efforts this season
- UE's performance from the line has gotten better as the season has gone along and Jones has been a large part of that; through the first nine games, Jones was just 10-of-23 on his free throw attempts, but he has turned that around, hitting 24 of his last 29 attempts

Hot Start

- In the games against Creighton and Missouri State, senior Ned Cox averaged just 4.5 points, but he got back into form against Southern Illinois, connecting on his first five threes en route to a season-high 17 points before following that up with eight against UNI
- Cox has registered double figures in 11 out of 17 games this season; he is second on the team with 10.8 points per game
- Since the beginning of last season, Cox has been one of the top free throw shooters in the league as he has hit 67 out of 76 attempts, including 22 out of 25 this season; he was 2-for-2 at UNI, hitting both in the final 10 secs to seal the win

Taking A Step

- D.J. Balentine chipped in eight points versus the Shockers, but that effort may have been one of the most important in his young career
- Prior to that game, Balentine scored a total of six points in five games, hitting just 3 out of 21 attempts while going 0-10 from long range; he bounced back with a 2-4 outing from the floor against Wichita State
- He began the year on fire, scoring 129 points through the first 11 games of his collegiate career, an average of 11.7 per game, assisting him in that start was his accuracy from 3-point range, he began the year 25-of-55 (45.5%)
- With his average of 15 PPG in the games against Miami and Murray State, Balentine garnered MVC Newcomer of the Week honors on Dec. 10; it was the first honor for a UE player this season
- His 26-point outing against Colorado State was the top effort by a freshman since Colt Ryan notched 31 at Creighton in his freshman campaign of 2009-10. It still marks the top scoring output for a UE player this season

Getting His Chance

- Over the course of a career-high 32 minutes of action, freshman Egidijus Mockevicius had a career game in the January 5 overtime win against the Bears; since that game, he has seen 19 minutes of action or more in three of four games, prior to playing MSU, he played 19 or fewer minutes in each game
- The native of Lithuania finished with a game-high 18 points on a perfect 6-for-6 shooting effort; he also connected on six of his nine free throw attempts
- Mockevicius also led the way with five blocks and eight rebounds; seven of his boards came off of the offensive glass; he added two more blocks against Wichita State, helping him move into 4th in the league with 1.4/game
- Several players can bring intangible assets to a team and Egidijus Mockevicius has done just that; he has been a presence in the post, notching 24 blocks; last season Kenneth Harris led UE with 19 for the whole season
- He is one of the most accurate shooters on the team as he has hit 38 out of his 53 shots on the year; he is shooting over 70% from the floor and free throw line

Free Throw Shooting

- Last season, UE was one of the top free throw shooting teams in the land, hitting 76.4% of its attempts
- This year, Evansville has hit 73.8%, but has been on a solid run as of late, hitting 75 of its last 93 attempts
- Following a 6-12 performance at Colorado State, the Aces team percentage stood at 66.3%, however, since then, Evansville has hit 162 out of 210 attempts, 77.1%
- In league play, UE has hit 80% of its attempts from the line in four out of five games and is leading all ten MVC teams in conference play, shooting 80.6%

Telling Numbers

- Rebounding has been a telling stat when looking at the win/loss results for UE; this season when the Aces outrebound the opposition, they are a perfect 7-0, when they are on the losing end of that stat, they are just 3-6; on Jan. 9, UNI and UE tied with 31 rebounds apiece as UE pulled off the win
- In its wins, the Aces hold a +4.3 edge on the boards, however, in the six losses, the opposition is outrebounding UE by 12.5 per game
- Shooting has also affected the outcome; Evansville holds a .477-.435 shooting edge in its wins while the losses have seen opponents outshoot UE by a .486-.404 margin
- Evansville has won just four opening tips this season, but they are a perfect 4-0 when gaining the first possession
- The status of the game with five minutes remaining also has had a direct impact on the final results; the Aces are 9-0 when holding a lead at the 35-minute mark, but have come back from a deficit at that point just once, going 1-6 when trailing with five minutes remaining; UE and Wichita State were tied in the 1/13 matchup as UE pulled out the win
- Since the beginning of the 2011-12 campaign, UE has had 17 games where four or more players have reached double figures in scoring; the Aces were 9-2 when doing that last season and are 4-2 thus far in 2012

Moore A Force Down Low

- Jaylon Moore has enjoyed playing against the Alabama schools this year, notching ten points in games against Alabama A&M and Alabama State
- Through just 17 games in 2012, Moore has scored 81 points; he registered 30 all of last season
- Moore has made the most out of his touches since his arrival at UE, connecting on 44 out of 71 attempts, a shooting percentage of 62.0%

Near The Top

- Evansville ranks near the top of the nation in several statistical categories thanks to its unselfish play
- With an assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.439, UE is 10th in the nation while its turnover margin (+4.1) is 20th; UE also turns the ball over an average of just 11.1 times per game, which ranks them 25th overall
- Taking care of the ball has been one of the strengths for the Aces, they have turned the ball over on just 16.5% of their possessions; the national average for that statistic is 19.8%
- As a team, the Aces average just 11.1 turnovers per contest, that is 2.5 below the national average of 13.6
- The Aces have been credited with an assist on 64% of its baskets in 2012, that total is first in the MVC and 12th in the country

Congratulations Are In Order

- A sincere congratulations go out to former Ace Scott Haffner who was named to the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame's 2013 class; the Noblesville, Ind. native led his high school to an undefeated season in 1984 before coming to UE in 1987; he set the UE record with 65 points versus Dayton
- Others in the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame with ties to UE include: Shelly Brand Adlard, Don Buse, Gus Doerner, Robert Hoffman, Larry Humes, Bryan Jerrel, Arad McCutchan, Kern McGlothlin, Clarence Riggs, Walter Riggs, Bill Robertson, Bob Sakel and Steve Welmer

Welcome To UE

- On November 19, head coach Marty Simmons announced that three players have signed to play in 2012-13, including Jaylon Brown, Duane Gibson and his son; Blake Simmons
- A 5-11 guard, Jaylon Brown will attend UE after finishing out his high school career at Fishers (Ind.) High School. Brown led Fishers with 13.2 points and 2.8 assists last season and was rated as a three-star recruit by Rivals.com.
- Duane Gibson, a 6-3, 190 guard, is a native of Cleveland, Ohio and played his high school career at Villa Angela-St. Joseph High. His alma mater is a hotbed in sports as basketball players Clark Kellogg and Kevin Edwards attended as well as football players Mike Golic, Elvic Grbac and Desmond Howard. In his junior campaign, Gibson averaged 12 points and 8 rebounds and he was named to the Preseason All-Ohio First Team.
- Blake Simmons, son of head coach Marty Simmons, will come to UE from just down the road in Newburgh, Ind. where he played at Castle High School. The 6-5 guard averaged 19.7 points and 6.9 rebounds per game last season while shooting 41% from three-point range. Simmons led the Knights to a 20-5 record in 2011-12 along with its second Class 4A semistate appearance. He was named to the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association All-State First Team a season ago.

Previous Notes

Senior Achievement

- In the 1/5 victory over Southern Illinois, all four senior starters (Ned Cox, Lewis Jones, Colt Ryan and Troy Taylor) scored in double figures; it marked the first time in their careers that each finished a game with 10 or more tallies

Winging It

- Relentless effort in practice resulted in freshman Adam Wing seeing a career-high 17 minutes of action against Miami
- That effort paid off as the Morehead, Ky. product hit 4-of-5 shots while finishing with a career-best 9 points to go along with 5 rebounds and a blocked shot
- In the contest at Creighton, Wing hit 3-of-4 shots to finish with six points in 14 minutes of play

Sawvell Back In Form

- Prior to the game at Creighton, sophomore Ryan Sawvell rode the top scoring streak of his career as he has notched a total of 37 points in the three games before the trip to Omaha
- The Mundelein, Ill. product has used an efficient scoring touch over that three-game span, (16-of-21) to hit 76.2% of his attempts; he has also averaged 6 rebounds
- Over a stretch of six games prior to facing Alabama State, Sawvell tallied a total of ten points prior to his recent streak
- That streak was the second time in his career that he notched 10+ points in three consecutive contests

Hitting The Century Mark

- Tuesday's 103-69 win over Oakland City marked the first time the Aces have hit the 100-point plateau since a Nov. 19 game versus Central Michigan in 2004
- The game marked the 103rd time in program history that UE eclipsed that mark and just the third time since the season opener of the 1995-96 season
- That total marked the top scoring output since Marty Simmons became head coach and was a Ford Center record

Two In A Row

- Fans have been treated to some great games at the Ford Center as UE topped Alabama A&M by a 72-46 final before grabbing a 94-68 win over Miami in early December
- Back-to-back wins by 25 points or more at home have been hard to come by; the last time UE did so was in 2009-10 with wins over Oakland City and SIU Edwardsville to begin the year; the last time the Aces won by that margin over two Division I opponents came in the 1999-00 season as UE took down Morehead State, 78-48, before downing Charleston Southern in its next home contests by a score of 96-67
- Evansville posted 94 points in the win over Miami; the last time the Aces put up that many points at home was in the 2004-05 season opener as UE topped Central Michigan by a 100-85 final

Hitting A Stride

- Jordan Jahr's scoring led UE to a pair of wins in the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic, but it was his size that made the difference at Tennessee Tech as he hauled in seven rebounds in the contest
- He hit double figures in back-to-back games in the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic, the first time he had done that since the opening two games of his freshman campaign at UE; he accomplished that feat against Oakland City and UTSA

Presence Down Low

- Ryan Sawvell posted another solid effort as he grabbed a game-high 8 rebounds at TTU; it was the second time he led the Aces in rebounding this season
- Sawvell had a blue collar effort at Notre Dame, especially on the defensive end. In what UND center Jack Cooley called "a Big East game", Sawvell limited Cooley to just seven shots on the day. He got the job done on both ends of the floor, tallying 11 boards and ten points.
- Sawvell registered the third double figure rebounds effort of his career and the second double-double. His first double-double came at Bradley last season when he notched 12 points and 16 rebounds; he posted another 10-point performance to lead UE to a 66-56 win over Yale

Boarding It Up

- Through the first four games of the 2012-13 campaign, UE found itself being outrebounded by an average of 10 per game; that all changed in the wins over Tennessee Tech and Alabama A&M as the Aces were on the better end of the final tally, finishing with an average of 8 more rebounds than the opposition
- Last season, Evansville had just one two-game streak of outrebounding its opponents, doing so against Bradley and Illinois State

Defensive Streak

- Evansville's defense turned it up in a November 3-game win streak, holding WIU, TTU and AAMU to just 46.7 PPG while holding WIU and TTU to under 20 points in a half (AAMU had 21 in the first half); large runs have been key in those contests; in the win over WIU, the Aces held the Leathernecks scoreless over a span of 8:28 in the second half, forcing them to miss all five shots along with eight turnovers; a similar run in the first half at Tennessee Tech saw UE go on a 20-2 run while holding the Golden Eagles to 1-11 shooting over that span; the defense was at it again versus the Bulldogs, in the first half, the Aces went on a 22-3 run while holding AAMU without a field goal over the span of 8:55
- UE has held those three opponents to 50 or fewer points; by comparison, Evansville held just one team to under 50 last season as Western Illinois mustered up 45 points in a Feb. 18 meeting; this year the Leathernecks scored just 44 points versus UE, the fewest point an opponent has scored since Oakland City had 42 in the 2010-11 season opener
- The last time the Aces held three opponents in a row under 50 points as UE held Cleveland State, Buffalo and SEMO to 49, 44 and 45 points, respectively, early in the 2006-07 season.

Aces vs. Ranked Opponents

Since the 1948-49 season, the University of Evansville has squared off against 58 ranked opponents, posting a 15-44 mark. The 2012-13 season marked the fourth in a row that UE has topped a ranked opponent after grabbing a 71-67 win over No. 23 Wichita State at the Ford Center.

Picking Up The Slack

- Lewis Jones led the Aces with 14 points in the game against Buffalo before notching ten against Yale. Evansville has been extremely successful when Jones is on his game as they have posted a record of 8-1 when Jones hits double digits in scoring.

Coaches vs. Cancer Classic

- Evansville is proud to be associated with the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic for the first time. The tournament began in 1995 and 1996 in a showcase format before becoming a tournament in 1997 with Princeton winning the inaugural event. Since its inception, Coaches vs. Cancer has raised almost $85 million to support the fight against cancer. The first four games of this season were a part of the tournament as UE fell at Notre Dame before winning two out of three contests at the Ford Center. Evansville fell to Buffalo before rallying to defeat Yale and Western Illinois.

- WIU failed to hit a three-pointer in the Nov. 17 contest, the first time UE had not allowed a trey since Bradley failed to hit one against UE on Feb. 17, 1999

- After suffering a hip pointer in the loss to Buffalo, Colt Ryan saw just ten minutes of action in the three-game tournament at the Ford Center; despite the loss, Evansville rallied to pick up victories over Yale and Western Illinois

Preseason Poll

- For the second-straight year, the University of Evansville was picked to finish fifth in the Valley. Last season, UE surpassed the pick, taking the third seed for the 2012 MVC Tournament and the Aces seem poised to repeat that feat this year as they return four seniors who will be the core of UE's squad.

Looking Towards The Future

- It was recently announced that freshman David Howard will redshirt this season. That will give him the opportunity to work ahead and learn UE's system entering next season with a great chance of making an immediate impact.

Season Openers

- Evansville opened its 94th season of basketball against Notre Dame. The Aces fell to 62-32 all-time in their season-opening contests with the loss, ending a streak of four season-opening wins in a row.

Preseason Notes

What A Start

- UE senior Colt Ryan picked up right where he left off last year in the Aces' two exhibition contests. After opening up with a 33-point effort versus USI, Ryan recorded a game-high 17 points in the win over Illinois-Springfield. He averaged 25.0 PPG in exhibition play while leading UE with 14 assists, six steals and 32 minutes per game. With those numbers, the senior is already in midseason form heading into the opener.

Settling In

- Another player who turned some heads in the win over the Screaming Eagles was sophomore Jaylon Moore. In his freshman campaign, Moore's top effort was a 6-point outing at Bradley. He surpassed that in a big way versus USI, notching 13 while hitting an efficient five out of eight shots. Moore showed signs of this last season and if he can keep up those efforts, it would be a welcome sight at the forward/center spot for UE. Adding to that is the fact that he hauled in seven rebounds.

A Lot To Look Forward To

- Fresh off of its best MVC effort in 13 years, the Aces have plenty to be excited about heading into the 2012-13 season. Evansville is set to return three starters and 11 letterwinners, which comprise 69.3% of its scoring, 77.9% of its rebounding, 68.4% of the squad's assists and over 70% of the team's minutes from 2011-12. The Aces used an overtime win in the regular season finale over Missouri State to move from the possibility of being as low as eighth in the league to a final finish of third.

Freshman Five

- Evansville welcomes five freshmen to its 2012-13 team as D.J. Balentine, David Howard, Mike Leazer, Egidijus Mockevicius and Adam Wing are on campus and ready to go.

- Balentine, a 6-2 guard, is a native of Kokomo, Ind. Last season, he led Kokomo to the Class 4A State Championship game. In the summer of 2011, he was named to the Indiana Junior All-Stars Core 6 and was regarded as one of the best players in the class of 2012 in the state of Indiana. He was the third leading scorer in Kokomo history with 1280 points, an average of 17 per game. As a senior, Balentine averaged 18.2 PPG while being named an Indiana All-Star.

- Howard comes to Evansville from Nashville, Tenn. The 6-9, 225 lb. center played at Montgomery Bell Academy where he averaged 12 points and over eight rebounds per game last season. He helped lead his school to the Tennessee State Championship as a sophomore where he was named an All-Tournament Player.

- Wing, a 6-4, 210 lb. shooting guard was a team captain for Rowan County Senior High School in Morehead, Ky. As a junior, he was elected MVP in two games during the KY "Sweet 16" Tournament en route to All-State Honorable Mention honors. Wing led his team to the state championship game last year, falling at the buzzer to Christian in a memorable double overtime contest. Wing scored 31 points in the title game, including seven threes. He originally committed to playing football at Marshall University before deciding to play basketball at Oklahoma State.

- Mockevicius comes to UE after winning the U20 European Championships with Lithuania. The 6-10 center led his squad to a championship win over France. Leazer is a walk-on guard for the Aces and played at Northridge Prep prior to his arrival in Evansville.

Big Shoes To Fill

- Two slots in the starting lineup are available following the graduation of Denver Holmes and Kenneth Harris. Holmes started 89 games in his UE career before finishing with 975 points. The Olathe Kan. native was the top free throw shooter in the Valley last season, hitting 87.3% of his attempts. In two seasons with the Aces, Harris made 63 starts, including all 32 as a senior. He posted 617 points in his time at UE while recording 327 rebounds. Looking to fill those slots will be seniors Ned Cox and Lewis Jones, who each played in all 32 games in their junior years.

New To The Crew

- A new face will be on the Aces bench as Geoff Alexander enters his first season as an assistant coach for UE. Alexander comes to Evansville after spending a season at Eastern Illinois after a five-year stint at Idaho State.

A Home Of Their Own

- With the hectic schedule at the downtown Ford Center, the Aces were forced to move their practices on campus to the Carson Center. With the schedules of other UE sports along with the university as a whole, the time that the Aces had on the practice floor got to be limited at times. That all will change in October with the opening of the Fifth Third Basketball Practice Facility. Built at a cost of over $3 million, the structure will have floors for both the UE men's and women's teams along with new offices and a lounge for both squads.

2011-12 Season-In-Review Notes

Playing Against The Best

- The Missouri Valley Conference proved that it is one of the best in the country as it sent seven out of ten teams to postseason play in 2012. Evansville was one of those squads, advancing to its second consecutive CBI. The Aces played 32 games in 2011-12 with 21 of those against postseason teams. Thirteen of its opponents also advanced to the postseason. In all, seven of UE's games came against teams that made it to the NCAA Tournament.

Just The Second Time

- In the 2012 Missouri Valley Tournament, the Aces went in as the No. 3 seed, the second-highest ever while advancing to Saturday's semifinals for just the second time. It was a stark turnaround for a team that entered the tournament with just a 4-17 mark in its previous 17 tries. Evansville began with a 72-64 victory over Missouri State, earning the season sweep of the Bears. The win marked Evansville's fifth Arch Madness victory. With the three-game sweep of Missouri State, the Aces completed their second ever three-game sweep, the other came in 1999 when UE was a perfect 3-0 over Wichita State.

We're Back

- For the third time in four years and the tenth time since entering Division I in 1977, the University of Evansville played in the postseason. In 2009, only Coach Simmons' second season, he led the Aces to the CIT where they squared off against Belmont. Last year, UE picked up its first postseason win since the 1989 NCAA Tournament win over Oregon State in the opening round win over Hofstra. It has been almost 20 years since UE accomplished the feat as Jim Crews led UE to three-straight postseason berths, including two NCAA tournaments, from 1992-94.

Coaching Them Up

- Since his arrival at UE in 2007, head coach Marty Simmons has steadily turned the program around. In three of the last four years, Simmons has finished in the top six in the league after the program had done so just once in the eight seasons before 2009. His squads have shown vast improvement against top competition, winning three of his last five games versus ranked opponents. Prior to that streak, Evansville had fallen in ten-consecutive games against top-25 squads. With a 15-14 regular season mark in 2011-12, Simmons helped UE to its first back-to-back winning regular seasons since 1998-99 through 1999-2000.

Making The Adjustment

- For the first time since 1956, the Purple Aces opened a home arena as they began play at the Ford Center in downtown Evansville in 2011. In their first season at the home venue, UE posted an 11-7 mark which included wins over Butler and nationally-ranked Creighton. Evansville got more comfortable with its new surroundings as the season went on, winning its final four regular season home games at the Ford Center.

Award-Winning Performances:

First Team Honor

- Junior Colt Ryan became just the fifth player to be named to the MVC All-Conference First Team and the first to garner the honor since Shy Ely did so in 2009 (Marcus Wilson was named on two occasions). Ryan led UE and was second in the MVC, averaging 20.5 points per game while tying for the league lead in steals, swiping two a game. The three-time MVC Player of the Week scored a career-high 43 points last week against Creighton before tallying 12 in Saturday's win over Missouri State. Ryan was also named to the CollegeHoops.net All-MVC Team. On Thursday, Ryan was named the MVC Scholar Athlete of the Year.

Sixth Man

- Coming off the bench can be a tough task, but don't tell that to junior Ned Cox, who showed that the role suits him better than anyone else in the MVC. It is that attitude that helped Cox earn Sixth Man of the Year honors. After averaging 7.3 PPG a season ago, Cox saw his average rise by two points. He has ten double-digit scoring efforts, led by a pair of 20-point outings. In a November contest at Illinois Chicago, he set his career mark with 24 points as he hit 9-of-13 shots. He followed that up with a 22-point performance at Indiana State where he was a perfect 4-4 from long range. Cox made two starts for the Aces, scoring 16 points against Oakland City before leading Evansville with 17 points in a start in the regular season finale against Missouri State. He is the second Aces to be honored with the award; Curt Begle picked up the award in 1999.

Honor For The Young Gun

- Making the All-Freshman Team was Ryan Sawvell. He got better as the season went on, scoring 10 or more points in a span of seven out of 11 contests in January and February. Sawvell's top scoring game came against Drake where he knocked down seven shots to score 14 points. In UE's win at Bradley, Sawvell hauled in 16 rebounds, the most a UE player has had this season. He has been an extremely accurate shooter, hitting 61.7% of his attempts, a tally that would be in the top ten in the nation with enough tries. Sawvell is the 10th UE player to be named an All-Freshman player.

Playing Some D

- One of the pleasant surprises for Evansville last season was junior Troy Taylor. The point guard, and the leading rebounder for UE, was named to the All-Defensive Team. Taylor leads the Aces with 5.1 rebounds per game while contributing in other facets as well, notching 104 assists, 43 steals and 5.4 PPG. Taylor has made two stabs at just the second triple-double in Evansville history, most recently in the home game against Indiana State. He fell just two assists and a point short of accomplishing the feat. He is one of just three players to receive the honor for the Aces. Jeremy Stanton was named to the team each season from 1999-2001 while Reed Jackson notched the award in 1995.

Home Court Advantage

In 55 seasons at Roberts Stadium, the Aces amassed an amazing .723 winning percentage, capturing 604 games. Below is a rundown of the Aces home history at Roberts Stadium and the Ford Center.

Marty Simmons - Head Coach - 6th Year Hometown - Lawrenceville, Ill. Education - Evansville '87

BRINGING THE UNIVERSITY OF EVANSVILLE BASKETBALL PROGRAM BACK TO GLORY WAS THE GOAL FOR MARTY SIMMONS WHEN HE TOOK THE HEAD COACHING POSITION AT UE IN 2007. FIVE YEARS INTO THE PROCESS, IT CAN BE SAID THAT SIMMONS IS WELL ON HIS WAY TO BRINGING THE PURPLE ACES BACK ONTO THE NATIONAL SCENE. IN THREE OF THE PAST FOUR SEASONS, HE HAS LED THE ACES TO THE POSTSEASON, INCLUDING BERTHS IN THE COLLEGE BASKETBALL INVITATIONAL IN EACH OF THE LAST TWO YEARS. HE HELPED EVANSVILLE TO ITS TOP MVC FINISH IN OVER TEN YEARS, LEADING UE TO A THIRD PLACE FINISH IN 2012 WHILE LEADING THE ACES INTO THE SEMIFINALS FOR JUST THE SECOND TIME SINCE ENTERING THE LEAGUE IN 1994. WHILE LAST SEASON WAS A ROLLER COASTER RIDE, IT IS OBVIOUS TO EVERYONE THAT THE UE PROGRAM IS ON ITS WAY BACK TO THE TOP.

WITH A 15-14 REGULAR-SEASON MARK IN 2011-12, SIMMONS HELPED THE ACES FINISH THE REGULAR SEASON OVER .500 FOR THE THIRD TIME IN FOUR SEASONS, SOMETHING THAT HAD NOT BEEN DONE SINCE THE 1990'S. EVANSVILLE HAS ALSO ENJOYED SUCCESS AGAINST THE TOP COMPETITION IN THE NATION, WINNING THREE OF ITS LAST FIVE GAMES AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS AFTER FAILING TO DEFEAT ONE IN THE TEN YEARS PRIOR.

SIMMONS' SUCCESS HAS BEEN NOTICED BY HIS PEERS. IN THREE OF THE PAST FOUR YEARS, HE HAS FINISHED AMONG THE TOP FOUR IN VOTING FOR MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE COACH OF THE YEAR. MOST RECENTLY, HE FINISHED SECOND IN THE VOTING IN 2012 AFTER LEADING UE TO A THIRD-PLACE FINISH IN THE LEAGUE. THAT CAME AFTER 2011 WHEN SIMMONS' PURPLE ACES FINISHED 9-9 IN THE MVC AND IN SIXTH PLACE AFTER BEING VOTED 10TH IN THE PRE-SEASON POLL. THE ACES WENT ON TO ACHIEVE THEIR FIRST POST-SEASON VICTORY SINCE 1989 BY DEFEATING HOFSTRA IN THE FIRST ROUND OF THE COLLEGE BASKETBALL INVITATIONAL.

SIMMONS RETURNED TO HIS ALMA MATER AS HEAD COACH IN THE SPRING OF 2007. HIS FIRST SQUAD FINISHED 9-21, BUT ONE YEAR LATER, IN 2008-09, SIMMONS LED HIS ACES TO A 17-14 RECORD AND A BERTH IN THE INAUGURAL COLLEGEINSIDER.COM POST-SEASON TOURNAMENT. FOR HIS EFFORTS, SIMMONS FINISHED THIRD IN BALLOTING FOR MVC COACH OF THE YEAR, TRAILING ONLY THE COACHES WHO LED THEIR TEAMS TO A CO-CHAMPIONSHIP. THE 2008-09 ACES ACHIEVED EVANSVILLE'S BEST WINNING PERCENTAGE SINCE 2000, AND FIRST POST-SEASON APPEARANCE SINCE 1999, WHEN SIMMONS WAS AN ASSISTANT COACH WITH THE ACES. SENIOR SHY ELY WAS SECOND IN VOTING FOR MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE PLAYER OF THE YEAR, AND SENIOR JASON HOLSINGER EARNED ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA HONORS.

PRIOR TO HIS RETURN TO EVANSVILLE IN 2007, SIMMONS SERVED AS HEAD COACH FOR FIVE YEARS AT DIVISION II SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY-EDWARDSVILLE, WHERE HE TOOK OVER A PROGRAM THAT HAD NOT WON 10 GAMES SINCE 1999 AND LED THE COUGARS TO 23 WINS IN 2005 AND 25 IN 2006. SIUE REACHED THE NCAA TOURNAMENT IN 2005 FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 15 YEARS, AND SIMMONS WAS CHOSEN AS GREAT LAKES VALLEY COACH OF THE YEAR. HIS 2006 SQUAD DID EVEN BETTER, WINNING THREE GAMES IN THE NCAA DIVISION II GREAT LAKES REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS AND ADVANCING TO THE ELITE EIGHT. SIUE APPEARED IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS 16 WEEKS.

A NATIVE OF LAWRENCEVILLE, ILL., SIMMONS LED LAWRENCEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL TO BACK TO BACK CLASS A STATE CHAMPIONSHIPS AND BECAME ONE OF THE MOST CELEBRATED PLAYERS IN ILLINOIS PREP HISTORY. SIMMONS SPENT HIS FIRST TWO YEARS OF COLLEGE AT INDIANA. IT WAS DURING INDIANA'S NIT RUN IN 1985 WHEN INDIANA UNIVERSITY ASSISTANT COACH JIM CREWS WAS CHOSEN AS EVANSVILLE'S HEAD COACH. TWO MONTHS LATER, SIMMONS TRANSFERRED TO EVANSVILLE. ALREADY DESIGNATED AS THE ACES' TEAM CAPTAIN WHILE SITTING OUT HIS REDSHIRT SEASON, SIMMONS IMMEDIATELY HELPED TURN AROUND THE UE PROGRAM WHEN HE BECAME ELIGIBLE IN 1986-87. HE AVERAGED 22.4 POINTS AS A JUNIOR AND LED EVANSVILLE TO A FIRST PLACE TIE IN THE MIDWESTERN COLLEGIATE CONFERENCE. AS A SENIOR, HE FINISHED SIXTH IN THE NATION IN SCORING AT 25.9, AND FINISHED NINTH IN BALLOTING FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS COLLEGE BASKETBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR. DESPITE PLAYING ONLY TWO SEASONS AT EVANSVILLE, HE RANKS 22ND WITH 1,265 POINTS.

MARTY AND HIS WIFE, ANGIE, WHO GREW UP IN NEARBY NEWBURGH, HAVE FOUR CHILDREN: BRITTANY, KELSEY, BLAKE, AND COLE.
