- The Drake University men's basketball aims for its third straight win with a Sunday afternoon contest at UNI.
- Drake improved to 2-4 in the Missouri Valley Conference and 8-9 overall with an 83-69 win over visiting Evansville on Wednesday evening.
- UNI is tied with Drake in the MVC standings at 2-4 as well and 9-9 overall following a 79-68 loss at Creighton on Tuesday.
- Drake's offense has pushed the tempo in its last two wins, averaging 78.5 possessions per game while averaging 82.5 points in those two wins.
- Additionally, the Bulldogs have shot 49.1 percent from the field and a stout 47.7 percent from three-point range in those wins.
- While the offense has put up points, its the defense that has secured those wins by holding Illinois State and Evansville to 38.2 percent shooting from the field and 30.8 percent from the three-point arc.
- The Bulldogs' three-point shooting returned to form in the last two games to move Drake to 14th nationally in three-point percentage at 39.6 percent and seventh in three-pointers per game at 8.9 for the season.
- Freshman Joey King has helped lead the Bulldogs in MVC play with 12.5 points per game and 5.2 rebounds. He leads all MVC freshmen in conference scoring and rebounding.
- UNI has four players averaging double figures with Anthony James' 12.5 points leading the way. Seth Tuttle adds 11.2 points and 6.2 rebounds per game.
- The teams have met 60 previous times with UNI leading the series, 36-24. However, the series is tied at 3-3 at the McLeod Center.

Head Coach

Mark
PHELPS

Fifth Season

@CoachMarkPhelps

Mark Phelps enters his fifth season as head coach of the Bulldogs' men's basketball program in 2012-13, driven by a passion and commitment to elevate Drake to levels of consistent excellence on and off the court. His dedicated approach to recruiting and program-building over his first four seasons has established a solid foundation to achieve sustainable success.

The 2011-12 season showed significant signs of both the steady progress and potential of the Drake program, as the Bulldogs qualified for a postseason tournament for the third time in the last five seasons (2008 NCAA, 2009 CIT), and second in Phelps' four-year tenure as head coach. The first-round Collegeinsider.com Postseason Tournament win over North Dakota was Drake's first victory beyond the conference tournament since 1975. The Bulldogs won 18 games, the most in Phelps' career and tied for ninth-most in school history.

In addition, Drake posted a winning record for the second time in Phelps' four years, making him the first Drake head coach in 50 years to post two winning seasons in his first four (17-16 in 2008-09). Drake's third-place finish (9-9, tied with four teams) in the Missouri Valley Conference was its second-highest in the MVC standings in the last 26 years. The 9-9 MVC record of 2011-12 was the best by Phelps and tied for second-best by a Drake team since 1986.

With 62 wins in his first four seasons, Phelps has more victories than any Drake coach in his initial four years on the job. No Drake head coach since Maury John (.555 from 1958-62) has had a better winning percentage in the equivalent span of his career than Phelps (.473).

All of that success last season was achieved without starting center Seth VanDeest, who missed the entire season after undergoing surgery to repair a torn labrum in his left shoulder. The 2011-12 Bulldogs overcame significant injury adversity that impacted the starting lineup, but were guided through the storm by a coaching staff that remained steady and consistent, helping players elevate to a new level of performance.

One of those players was Ben Simons, who played every position on the floor and more than doubled his sophomore scoring average of 8.1 to a figure of 16.4, fourth-best in the MVC in 2011-12. Simons was joined by Jordan Clarke, who put up career-best averages of 6.0 points and 7.0 rebounds, while handling the post position in VanDeest's absence.

Simons was named captain of the MVC's Most Improved Team, while also earning second-team All-MVC and second-team NABC All-District recognition along with sophomore Rayvonte Rice. Clarke was named second-team MVC Scholar-Athlete.

In the fifth year of building his program, Phelps and his coaching staff will welcome eight scholarship newcomers in 2012-13, including five freshmen and three transfers, wrapped around an experienced nucleus of five returning players who have been regular starters for the Bulldogs.

The collective talent level of the eight incoming players demonstrates the tremendous recruiting acumen of Phelps and his staff, building on previous recruiting success that has gained notice across the country.

ON THE BENCH

CHRIS BRAZELTON
Assistant Coach

Joined the Drake men's basketball coaching staff as an assistant coach on May 24, 2012. He comes to Drake after spending the past five seasons as an assistant coach at the University of California Riverside. Brazelton joined the UCR staff under head coach Jim Wooldridge in 2007 after one year as a graduate assistant at the University of New Orleans under Buzz Williams.

STAN JOHNSON
Assistant Coach

Enters his second season with the Bulldogs in 2012-13 after being named an assistant coach on June 20, 2011. He spent the previous three years at the University of Utah as an assistant coach for the Utes.

BRETT NELSON
Assistant Coach

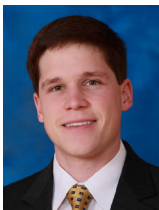

Enters his second season with the Bulldogs' program and is in his eighth season in the coaching ranks after an All-America playing career at Florida. Nelson joined Phelps' staff at Drake after spending the 2010-11 season at Arkansas.

NATE MEYER
Director of Operations

Was promoted to coordinator of basketball operations for the Drake men's basketball program on May 24, 2012. The Urbandale, Iowa, native had previously served two years as a graduate manager.

GEORGE NEILSON
Graduate Manager

ADAM URNESS
Graduate Manager

A WIN WOULD ...

- Make Drake 9-9 on the season and 3-4 in the Missouri Valley Conference.
- Be Drake's third straight win, its longest win streak of the season.
- Be the Bulldogs' second MVC road win and and third overall road win.
- Be head coach Mark Phelps' 71st win at Drake, the sixth most in Drake history.
- Make the Bulldogs 4-3 in the McLeod Center.
- Make Drake 25-36 all-time against the Panthers.
- Snap UNI's two-game win streak against Drake.
- Be the team's fifth win in its last nine games.
- Make Mark Phelps 71-78 at Drake.
- Be the 1,158th win in program history.

A LOSS WOULD ...

- Drop Drake to 8-10 on the season and 2-5 in the MVC.
- Be Drake's third conference road loss of the season.
- Make Drake 24-37 against the Panthers.
- Be the team's fourth loss in seven tries at the McLeod Center.

RACE TO 70

- Drake has scored 70 or more points in 13 of its 17 games this season and is averaging 73.5 points per game.
- Only six of the Panthers' 18 opponents have scored 70 or more points.
- Meanwhile UNI is allowing just 64.3 points per game and scoring 68.3 per game.
- The Panthers were allowing just 61.2 points per MVC game prior to surrendering 79 points at Creighton.

- Drake is 8-5 this season when scoring 70 or more points, but just 1-8 when its opponent hits the 70-point mark.

SECOND-HALF DEFENSE THE DIFFERENCE

- While a pair of 80-point performances stole the show in wins over Illinois State and Evansville, it was the defense - especially in the second half - that ultimately secured those wins.
- At Illinois State, the Bulldogs faced a 9-point halftime deficit before the defense clamped down to hold ISU to 32.4 percent shooting from the field and 20 percent from the arc in the second half to allow for an 82-77 win.
- Against Evansville a 1-point halftime lead turned into as many as 16 points with the defense holding the Aces to 24.1 percent shooting and 7.7 percent from the arc in the second half.
- Below is a comparison of the first and second half defensive and offensive performances from those contests.

HINES SHINES IN LAST TWO

- Just four days after being held scoreless at Creighton, Chris Hines exploded for a career-high 23 points in the win at Illinois State.
- His career night came on 9-of-17 shooting and a 4-of-8 showing from three-point range.
- He also added four rebounds, a career-high three assists and three steals.
- His previous career high of 21 came exactly one year to the day earlier while he was playing for Utah in a game at Stanford.
- For an encore, he scored a team-high 21 points on 5-of-6 shooting from the arc with four rebounds and two assists against Evansville.
- Below are Hines' stat lines from the last two games.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE FEAT

- In the win at Illinois State, Jordan Clarke and Joey King each recorded a double-double.
- Clarke's came via a 16-point - on 7-of-7 shooting, with 11 rebounds while King added 11 points and 11 rebounds with a career-high four assists.
- It marked the first time two Bulldogs recorded a double-double since Jan. 24, 2009 when Jonathan Cox and Craig Stanley did the same.
- That accounted for a period of 125 games or 1,449 calendar days.
- This season in the MVC, a team has had two or more players notch a double-double in the same game just four times. Creighton's Gregory Echenique and Doug McDermott each had a double-double in their contest against Evansville while SIU's Jeff Early and Desmar Jackson have done it twice (SIU-Edwardsville, Nicholls State).
- Below is a summary of the Bulldogs' seven double-doubles this season. Coincidentally, none have come at home.

Player	Opponent	Date	Pts.	Reb.

KING STEPS UP IN MVC GAMES

- Freshman Joey King has averaged a team-high 12.5 points and 5.2 rebounds per game in MVC play, the highest average by an MVC freshman this season.
- In the loss to Missouri State, he matched a career high with 21 points and followed that up with a team-high 17 points on 5-of-9 shooting from the arc at Creighton.
- In the win at Illinois State, he recorded his first double-double with 11 points and 11 rebounds - four offensive - and a career-high four assists.
- Below are King's stats in MVC games compared with non-conference contests.

MVC Games	Category	Non-Conference
12.5	Points/G	5.8
5.2	Rebounds/G	2.1
.519	FG%	.396
.385	3FG%	.394
24.2	Minutes	17.2

TURNOVERS CURBED

- Turnovers hampered the Bulldogs in their first two MVC games as the team committed 37 turnovers that became 52 points.
- However, in its last four outings, the team has made drastic improvements in taking care of the ball with just 48 turnovers in its last four games including a season-low seven at Creighton.

- Despite the two MVC games with turnover issues, the Bulldogs are averaging one fewer turnover per game than at this point last season despite playing with significantly more possessions per game.

FROM THE ARC ...

- The Bulldogs remain one of the top three-point shooting teams in the nation, ranking seventh in three-pointers per game (8.9) and 14th in three-point percentage (.396).
- Drake has shot below 40 percent from the three-point arc just six times this season.
- Individually, Ben Simons leads the team with 2.6 three-pointers per game.
- Three-point shooting has been a hallmark of Drake teams under head coach Mark Phelps with the Bulldogs averaging 7.5 three-pointers per game on 37.2 percent shooting during Phelps' seasons at the helm of the squad.
- Of the top six seasons for three-pointers made, four have come during Phelps' tenure.
- Below is a summary of each team's three-point shooting over the past five seasons.

Season	3pt./G	3pt. pct.	NCAA Rank
2012-13	8.9	.396 (152-386)	14th
2011-12	6.2	.362 (212-585)	83rd
2010-11	6.5	.354 (203-573)	115th

2008-09	8.1	.348 (266-765)	135th
Total	7.5	.372 (1116-3053)

REBOUNDING IMPROVING

- Drake has averaged 34.0 rebounds in MVC play, including a season-high 46 rebounds at Bradley.
- Drake averaged 30 rebounds per game during the non-conference season.
- Creighton's 64.2 percent shooting performance from the field severely limited Drake's defensive rebounding opportunities.
- Wichita State outrebounded Drake by one (34-33), however, the Shockers came into the game boasting a 9.3 advantage in rebounding margin on the season.
- At Illinois State, Drake held a 38-36 rebounding advantage and followed that up with a 36-33 advantage over Evansville.
- In its six conference games, there have only been nine occurrences of a player stepping on the court and not recording at least one rebound.
- To get a better impression of the Bulldogs' improvement on the glass, below is a breakdown of the team's rebounding percentages in MVC and non-conference games.

MVC Games	Category	Non-Conference
34.0	Rebounds/G	30.0
.493	Rebounding Pct.	.485
24.3	Defensive Rebounds/G	22.8
.723	Defensive Rebounding Pct.	.686
9.7	Offensive Rebounds/G	7.2
.274	Offensive Rebounding Pct.	.223

GETTING TO THE LINE

- Drake has attempted 21.2 free-throw attempts in its last 12 games.
- This season, Drake has attempted 25 or more free throws in six of its 17 games and 20 or more in all but six games.
- Drake is second in the MVC in free-throw attempts with 373 this season.
- Four Bulldogs have attempted 40 or more free throws with Jordan Clarke accounting for nearly a fourth of the team's attempts with 82 this season.

SCORING UP

- Drake's offense is averaging 73.5 points per game to rank 58th nationally and 4.6 points per game higher than the Bulldogs' average last season through 17 games.

MASON NEARLY PERFECT IN SECOND START

- Freshman Micah Mason has made the most of his recent move into the starting five despite missing the Missouri State game due to illness.
- In his second career start, he had one of the top games by a Bulldog this season with a career-high 19 points and six assists in 27 minutes.
- He was 5-of-6 from the three-point line and 7-of-8 from the field in that contest against Eastern Illinois.

 * For overtime games, points and possessions are limited to 40 minutes for consistent comparison.

- His only miss on the day turned into a make as the team corralled the offensive board and found him again on the perimeter.
- Against Bradley he was held scoreless in 12 minutes, but responded with 14 points on 4-of-7 three-point shooting in the loss to Wichita State.
- Since moving into the starting five, Mason has seen his production increase dramatically. Below are his stats as a starter and off the bench.

SIMONS HITS 1,000-POINT PLATEAU

- Ben Simons' 20 points against Xavier made him the 23rd player in Drake history to record 1,000 career points.
- Simons currently ranks 14th in all-time scoring at Drake. Below are those near him in the rankings.

Career Scoring

12.	1,257	Sam Roark	1986-90
13.	1,205	Jonathan Cox	2005-09
14.	1,172	Ben Simons	2009-Pres
15.	1,144	Klayton Korver	2003-08

- He also moved into the top five all-time at Drake in three-pointers. Below is where he currently ranks in that category.

Three-Pointers in a Career

1.	255	Josh Young	2006-10
2.	241	Luke McDonald	2001-03
	241	Klayton Korver	2003-08
4.	199	Ben Simons	2009-Present
5.	178	Armand LeVasseur	1996-2000
6.	169	Matt Woodley	1997-2000

BUT STREAK ENDS ...

- Senior Ben Simons was held without a three-pointer in the loss at Creighton to end his streak of games with a three-pointer at 30, the longest in the Valley.
- In his 110 career games at Drake, he has only been held without a three-pointer 22 times and just three times in the last 51 games.

PICKING UP THE PACE

- Drake's offense has had 80 or more possessions in three of its 16 games of the season and is averaging 71.4 possessions per game.
- That pace ranks in the top 100 nationally and is second in the MVC.
- In MVC play, Drake is averaging a league-high 71.8 possessions per game.
- In its last two games, Drake is averaging 78.5 possessions.
- It's 79 possessions against Evansville are the most in an MVC game this season and the 78 possessions at Illinois State are the second most this season.

CLARKE SETS TOURNEY RECORDS

- Jordan Clarke recorded three double-doubles against California, Rice and Xavier to help the Bulldogs to a 1-2 record at the DirecTV Classic.
- He averaged 12.7 points, 13.0 rebounds and 3.0 assists per game while shooting 55 percent from the field.

- He also set the tournament record for rebounds with 39 in three games and became just the fifth player in the six years of the tournament to record a double-double in every game.
- He opened the tournament with 11 points and 10 rebounds against Cal and followed that up with 15 points and a tournament single-game record and career-high 18 rebounds against Rice.
- In that win over Rice, he had exactly half of the team's rebounds.
- In the Bulldogs' final game in Anaheim, he posted 12 points and 11 rebounds.
- His double-doubles give him six in his last 23 games and he has hauled in 10 or more rebounds in eight of his last 17 games dating back to last season.

- He has also shot 45-of-83 from the field in 17 games this season.
- He has helped key an inside-out offense with his passing as his 21 assists have resulted in 17 three-pointers.

BULLDOGS OPEN THE RECORD BOOK

- Drake's sharpshooters wasted little time in etching the 2012-13 squad into the Drake record book as the 15 three-pointers in the season opener tied for the sixth most in school history.
- Additionally, the team's 62.5 percent (15-of-24) shooting percentage from three-point range tied for the ninth highest in program history.
- Four players accounted for the 15 three-pointers including Ben Simons (5), Richard Carter (4), Micah Mason (3) and Joey King (3).

PHELPS AMONG THE BEST ON THE DRAKE BENCH

- In his first four seasons at the helm of the Drake program, head coach Mark Phelps collected 62 victories, more than any other head coach in the program's history through their first four seasons.
- Below is where Phelps ranks in wins through the first four seasons at Drake

Wins In First Four Seasons at Drake

Kori BABINEAUX
Folsom, Calif. (Lake Forest Academy)

2012-13

Saw 16 minutes of action, his most since the season opener, against Missouri State ... returned to the lineup against NC Central after a two-game absence ... scored two points in Anaheim against Rice and had two assists against Xavier ... was scoreless in five minutes of action at Detroit ... had seven points and four assists in the season opener ... scored five points with four rebounds and two assists in the exhibition against SBU ...

In his one season at Lake Forest Academy, the 6-foot-4, 205-pound guard averaged 27.6 points, six rebounds, five assists and three steals per game. Babineaux scored a season-high 48 points and followed up with 43 points in back-to-back games in late November.

Babineaux was a two-sport star at Folsom (Calif.) High School from 2007-11, earning three first-team all-league selections in basketball and two in football as a wide receiver and cornerback. His football statistics at Folsom included 64 receptions for 1,187 yards and 15 touchdowns in leading the school to a 2010 State Bowl championship.

Notes

Kori Babineaux enters his freshman season at Drake after playing one season at Lake Forest (Ill.) Academy. Prior to that he was a two-sport start in basketball and football at Folsom (Calif.) High School.

Chris HINES

Houston, Texas (Utah)

2012-13

Has scored 44 points in the last two games including a team-high 21 points in the win over Evansville ... exploded for a career-high 23 points in the win at Illinois State ... has had 64 points on 23-of-54 shooting in the last six games ... had 13 points with two assists and three steals against Iowa State ... scored his most points at Drake with 19 against IPFW, two short of a career high ... scored six points with four boards at Nevada ... had six points, four on free throws with two steals against Xavier ... scored 11 points in 18 minutes in the win over Rice ... made his Drake debut with 14 points in 26 minutes including four straight free throws in the final minutes to keep Drake's comeback hopes alive at Detroit ... did not play in the season opener or exhibition due to a right leg injury ...

Has one season of eligibility remaining to play at Drake following three seasons of play and one redshirt year at the University of Utah. After earning his undergraduate degree from Utah in May 2012, he is eligible to play immediately in 2012-13 for the Bulldogs.

College -- Hines played three seasons at Utah (2009-12) after redshirting his first year in 2008-09. Last year, as a redshirt-junior, he started 26 of the Utes' 29 games and ranked second on the team in scoring (9.6), while leading the team in three-point field goals (66), competing in the Pac-12. Playing 30.4 minutes per game (2nd on team), Hines also added 2.3 rebounds and 1.7 steals per game.

Jeremy JEFFERS
Wilson, N.C. (Greenfield)

2012-13

Played 17 minutes with five points at Creighton on 2-of-5 shooting ... scored a career-high 16 points against Saint Mary's ... came off the bench on fire to score 11 points on 3-of-3 shooting from the arc at Nevada ... hit a three-pointer to finish with three points at Detroit ... played 11 minutes with four points in the opener ... did not play in the exhibition against SBU due to a concussion suffered in practice ...

Versatile wing with excellent court vision for player his size, Jeffers made an impact after redshirting in 2010-11. In seven games before being sidelined the terrific passer and ball handler showed flashes of talent and promise, then averaged 9.3 points, 2.5 rebounds and 2 assists in four games on Drake's foreign tour to Australia and New Zealand in August 2011.

Played in every game in 2011-12 and moved into the starting lineup in the eighth game of the season against Air Force (12/3), he's started all but one game since. Finished fourth on the team in scoring with 7.1 points a game and held the best three-point percentage at 43 percent.

Hit a career-best four three-pointers against Evansville (2/12) ... Set career highs for points (15) and minutes played (31) in the season opener against Upper Iowa (11/12) ... Made first career start vs. Air Force (12/3) and scored five points with a career-high five rebounds.

Springfield, Ill. (Lanphier)

Did not play in the first 16 games due to a knee injury ... had two points in limited minutes in the exhibition against SBU ...

A court-savvy point guard with high basketball IQ, speed and quickness won starting point guard position in pre-season after a redshirt season in 2010-11 (knee)...brings toughness, a competitive nature, ball-handling, defense and scoring ability to his floor-general attributes.

Impressive start in first season of action, starting every game but two and handling the point-guard position... averaged 23 minutes per game, over 4.7 points and led the team in assists with 2.5 a game. Had huge breakout game in first MVC start to lead Drake to victory over Indiana State...scored career-high 24 points and added four rebounds and three assists, making all nine field-goal attempts, including one three-pointer, as well as 5-of-6 from the free-throw line.

Dished a career-high seven assists in win over Central Arkansas (12/21). Solid all-around game vs. Virginia (11/21) at Paradise Jam, scoring 9 points, grabbing 5 rebounds, going 5-6 from the free-throw line and adding one assist with just one turnover. Season-best 13 points in first career start vs. Upper Iowa (11/12). Took a redshirt season in his first season because of a knee injury.
High School coach: Chuck Shanklin.

Saw six minutes of action and scored four points against William Jewell ... scored two points with a rebound and an assist in the exhibition against SBU ...

Comes to the Bulldogs from Detroit (Mich.) Country Day, where he played one season after moving from his native Lithuania to the United States.

Puleikis was the leading scorer and rebounder, at 12.7 and 10.5, respectively, for a Country Day squad in Detroit that compiled a 21-6 record last season and advanced to the semifinals of the Michigan Class B state tournament, and was ranked No. 3 in the state. He played one season at Country Day after moving to the United States from his native Lithuania before his senior year, and earned all-county and honorable mention all-state. In the state regional final against Chandler Park Academy, Puleikis scored a season-high 28 points and grabbed 14 rebounds while adding five blocked shots. He played in 19 games after gaining eligibility via transfer policies, and added 34 blocked shots and 35 assists.

GAME 1

WILLIAM JEWELL	66
DRAKE	96

Nov. 10, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 3,273

The Drake University men's basketball team officially opened the 2012-13 season with a 96-66 win against William Jewell at the Knapp Center. Ben Simons led all scorers with 25 points, 18 of which came in the second half. Richard Carter had a big game in his debut, scoring 19 points, including going a perfect 4-of-4 from three-point range.

The Bulldogs were hot from the field the entire game shooting 55.9-percent as a team on 33-of-59 shooting as well as 15-of-24 from three-point range for a 62.5 percent clip, the ninth highest single-game percentage in school history. At one point in the second half Drake had made 12 of its 15 three-point attempts. Additionally, Drake's 15 three-pointers tied for the sixth most in program history behind nine total three-pointers from Simons and Carter.

William Jewell was paced by two players in double-figures as Dillon Deck scored 16 points with seven rebounds while Ricky Tisdale added 14 points. As a team, the Cardinals shot 35 percent from the field and 13.3 percent from three-point.

DRAKE	79
DETROIT	85

Nov. 17, 2012 • Detroit, Mich.
Calihan Hall • 2,047

Senior Jordan Clarke recorded a double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds but it was not enough to rally back from a 14-point deficit as the Drake University men's basketball team fell at Detroit, 85-79.

Clarke's double-double came on 6-of-7 shooting from the field as the Bulldogs fall to 1-1 on the young season. Detroit was paced by Doug Anderson's 26 points and 10 rebounds while Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year Ray McCallum poured in 20 points, including a jumper with 13 seconds left to preserve the Titan win.

With four minutes to play, Drake was facing a 14-point, 76-62, deficit before the Bulldogs went on a 14-5 run capped by back-to-back three-pointers from Clarke and Ben Simons to pull within two points, 81-79, with 46 seconds left. Simons' three-pointer came courtesy of a possession generated by the defense forcing a critical five-second call on a Detroit inbound pass.

However, Detroit's next possession saw McCallum deliver his game-clinching jumper from the top of the key.

The Drake University men's basketball team fell in final minute to California, 73-70, in the opening round of the DIRECTV Classic n Anaheim, Calif.

Senior Jordan Clarke notched his second straight double-double, scoring 11 points and grabbing 10 rebounds while Ben Simons, Seth VanDeest, Richard Carter, and Gary Ricks, Jr. each scored 13 points, but their scoring could not hold off the Golden Bears' late charge. Justin Cobbs recorded 21 points followed by 15 from Allen Crabbe, almost all of which came down the stretch, to lead Cal past Drake in the closing minutes of the game.

Drake led by as many as nine points with seven minutes to play at 64-55, but Cal rallied and retook the lead at 67-66 with 4:20 remaining in the game thanks to a 12-2 run, fueled by the high-scoring guard combo of Crabbe and Cobbs.

In the second half, the Blue and White was able to take its first lead since the opening minutes with a 13-6 run Bulldog run to build a three-possession lead with Simons scoring seven of those points before Cal rebounded.

Five Bulldogs scored in double figures for the second consecutive night, as the Drake University men's basketball team pulled away from Rice, 77-66, in second round of the DIRECTV Classi.

Jordan Clarke stole the show for the Bulldogs with his third double-double in a row for Drake, notching 15 points and grabbing a career-high 18 rebounds. His 18 rebounds also set a tournament record, previously held by Diamon Simpson of St. Mary's in 2008, who had 17 against Cal State Fullerton. The senior also had four assists, two steals and two blocks.

Ben Simons scored a team-high 18 points to lead the Blue and White past the Owls. Seth VanDeest had a strong showing in the post to complement Clarke with 12 points and eight boards of his own. In his encore performance in front of his hometown crowd, Gary Ricks scored 10 points and had three assists. Chris Hines added 11 points. As a team, Drake shot 46 percent from the field and 44 percent from the three-point arc.

The Drake University men's basketball team got a pair of 20-point performances from Ben Simons and Joey King, but it wasn't enough to overcome a talented Xavier team as the Bulldogs fell, 74-70, in their final game at the DIRECTV Classic.

Senior Ben Simons became the 23rd player in Drake basketball history to pass the 1,000-point mark, with 20 points to give him 1,009 career points. Joey King was the leading scorer for the Bulldogs, setting a career high with 21 points.

Senior Jordan Clarke recorded his fourth consecutive double-double, adding 12 points and 11 rebounds for the Blue and White. Clarke set the tournament's rebounding record with 39 boards in three games.

Xavier, which trailed 30-26 at halftime, used an 11-0 run to regain the lead, 44-36, midway through the second half. Drake clawed back on multiple occasions in the second half, but the Musketeers pulled away with a 6-0 run in the final four minutes of the game that increased their lead to as many as 11.

Led by five players scoring in double-figures, the Drake University men's basketball team defeated Nevada, 76-66, on the road in the Mountain West/Missouri Valley Challenge.

Richard Carter had his best game to date in a Drake uniform with 16 points, a game-high seven rebounds and four assists with just one turnover. The junior college transfer was 6-of-12 from the field as the Bulldogs shot 44.6 percent from the field and a 45 percent (9-of-20) from three-point range.

Despite the offensive numbers, Drake's defense and rebounding won the game against a Nevada squad that won 28 games and its conference title last season. The Wolf Pack shot 41.2 percent from the field as the Bulldogs' defense imposed its will in the second half to allow just 30.8 percent shooting.

On the boards, Jordan Clarke led an offensive rebounding attack that held a 10-5 advantage to allow Drake to outscore the Wolf Pack, 14-0, on second chance points. Clarke finished with six total boards to go along with his 15 points, two assists and two steals.

Perennial NCAA participant Saint Mary's had five players score in double-figures to defeat the Drake University men's basketball team, 88-73, at the Knapp Center in a game that was part of the DirecTV Classic.

The Bulldogs never were able to find an offensive rhythm and were limited to 41.2 percent shooting from the field. The team's three-point offense came into the contest averaging 10 three-pointers per game and was limited to six three-pointers, many of them coming with the game out of reach.

Jeremy Jeffers tallied a career-high 16 points to lead the Bulldogs in the loss. Seth VanDeest recorded 15 points before fouling out with just under five minutes to play and Ben Simons added 11 points.

Australian Olympian Matthew Dellavedova was a matchup problem all night for the Bulldogs, finishing with a game-high 31 points to pace the Gaels. Brad Waldow was a force inside, nearly recording a double-double against a defense that was hindered by the absence of Jordan Clarke.

Senior Chris Hines scored 19 points to lead the Drake University men's basketball to a 74-64 win against IPFW at the Knapp Center.

Hines', a fifth-year senior transfer from Utah, found a more active role on the offensive end and scored his highest point total since transferring to Drake and two shy of his career high. The senior shot 50 percent from the three-point line (3-of-6) and led the team with six free throws on eight attempts.

Junior Ben Simons continued to leave his mark in the Drake record books. With 15 points on the night, Simons moved to 20th on the all-time list.

IPFW pressured Drake throughout most of the second half, causing them 11 second-half turnovers. However, junior Richard Carter found holes in the lane and dished out a career-high eight assists. He also badgered the Mastodons' guards and grabbed five steals, also a career best.

IOWA STATE 86

Dec. 15, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa
Wells Fargo Arena • 13,180

Despite a season-high 18 points from Seth VanDeest, rebounding and foul trouble allowed Iowa State to pull away from the Drake University men's basketball team for an 86-77 win in the Big Four Classic at Wells Fargo Arena.

Each of Drake's top regular contributors in redshirt senior Jordan Clarke, senior Ben Simons and VanDeest found themselves in foul trouble early and saw limited minutes in the first half, playing just 10 combined minutes. Despite just playing five minutes in the first half, VanDeest and Simons exploded in the second half as Simons finished with 13 points to complement VanDeest's 18. Senior Chris Hines also recorded 13 points for Drake.

The foul issues hurt the Bulldogs most on the glass, as they were out-rebounded, 45-30. Clarke finished with a team high seven rebounds, despite only playing 25 minutes before fouling out.

Those fouls allowed Iowa State to take advantage of its chances from the charity stripe, as the Cyclones converted 30-of-41 from the free throw line.

Seth VanDeest led Drake for the second straight game with 19 points to help the Drake men's basketball team edge North Carolina Central, 72-69.

During the final eight minutes, neither team led by more than four points as the Bulldogs and Eagles went basket-for-basket before Ben Simons hit a three pointer with 2:47 left in the game to put Drake up, 66-65.

NCCU answered with a free throw to briefly tie the game before the Bulldogs went to VanDeest for back-to-back layups in the paint to take a four-point, 70-66, lead with 47 seconds left.

The Eagles didn't succumb to the 4-0 Drake run as Stanton Kidd drained a three-pointer on NCCU's next possession. Defending the in-bound pass, NCCU forced a jump ball to retain possession, but missed its attempt to take the lead with 16 seconds left with the rebound falling into Joey King's hands for his career-high 10th board of the evening. Out of a Drake timeout, Richard Carter was fouled and calmly drained both shots to give Drake its final three-point, 72-69, lead.

GAME 11

EASTERN ILLINOIS 56
DRAKE 74

Dec. 22, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 2,669

Hot shooting and a career-high 19 points by freshman Micah Mason helped the Drake men's basketball team defeat Eastern Illinois, 74-56.

Drake shot 56.1 percent (23-of-41) from the field while connecting on 13-of-22 from behind the three-point arc (59.1 percent) and 15-of-18 (83.3 percent) from the free throw line. Mason knocked down a career-high five three-pointers to go along with a career-high six assists in his second start. Eastern Illinois was led by Sherman Blanford with 18 points and seven rebounds.

Drake led for the majority of the first half and took a 33-26 lead into halftime courtesy of a 9-0 run to close the half as the Panthers' methodical offense dictated the tempo of the game.

However, the Bulldogs asserted control of that tempo in the second half as Mason made a three-pointer 25 seconds into the half and later added a layup as Drake built its lead to 38-26. The Panthers ended their scoreless streak after Alex Austin made a free throw at the 17:13 mark to account for five scoreless minutes for EIU.

DRAKE 57
BRADLEY 67

Dec. 29, 2012 • Peoria, Ill.
Carver Arena • 7,534

Cold shooting and turnovers combined to hamper the Drake University men's basketball team in its Missouri Valley Conference opener as the team fell at Bradley, 67-57.

Drake was second in the nation in three-point shooting coming into the game but managed just 18.5 percent (5-of-27) against a stingy Bradley defense that forced 18 Drake turnovers and scored 23 points as a result of Bulldog miscues.

Ben Simons led Drake with a double-double thanks to 13 points and a career-high 10 rebounds while Seth VanDeest and Chris Hines added 10 and 11 points, respectively.

Simons' 10 boards helped contribute to the team's season-high 46 rebounds with the Bulldogs holding a 12-rebound advantage over Bradley.

However, Drake shot an uncharacteristically low 33.9 percent (20-of-59) from the field.

The Braves were paced by Dyrucus Simms-Edwards' 20 points and eight steals while Walt Lemmon, Jr. added 23 points.

Freshmen Micah Mason and Joey King combined to score 29 points, but the Drake men's basketball team couldn't overcome a hot-shooting Wichita State squad as the Shockers downed the Bulldogs, 75-63, at the Knapp Center.

Mason was 4-of-7 from the three-point arc for 14 points, 11 of them coming in the second half. King scored a late flurry of points on a 7-of-10 performance from the floor for 15 points.

Wichita State was 12-of-25 from the three-point arc and scored 29 points off Drake's 19 turnovers. The Shockers were paced by Nick Wiggins' 18 points and four three-pointers.

Drake trailed by as many as 17 with eight minutes left in the game but clawed back within eight points in the final minute thanks to back-to-back baskets by King as part of an 8-0 run.

Forced to foul in the final minute, the Shockers were able to drain enough free throws to pull away for the 12-point win.

That 17-point WSU cushion developed thanks to WSU hitting four threes in the first 10 minutes of the second half.

Freshman Joey King matched a career high with 21 points, but it wasn't enough for the Drake University men's basketball team to push past Missouri State as the Bears held on for a 77-65 win Saturday night at the Knapp Center.

King matched his career-best set earlier this season against Xavier in the Direct TV Classic. He also led the team in rebounds with seven. Senior Ben Simons poured in 17 points, 14 in the second half.

The Bears shot 44 percent from three point range on the night, hitting eight of their 18 attempts. They began the game making five of their first nine from distance.

The Bulldogs opened the second half on a 10-2 run, thanks for four points each by King and senior Chris Hines and a Simons three-pointer. The Bears' led fluctuated throughout the remainder of the half with the Bulldogs coming within two at 55-53 with 7:10 to play.

A Gavin Thurman three-pointer with 2:05 to play extended the Missouri State lead to 64-57 and Anthony Downing hit six consecutive free throws to seal it.

A red-hot shooting performance helped No. 13 Creighton cruise past the Drake University men's basketball team by a 91-61 margin.

The Bulldogs were led by Joey King with 17 points off of the bench. All five of the freshman's made shots were from three-point distance for his third highest point total of the season. Creighton had four players in double figures with Ethan Wragge leading all scorers with 22 points.

The MVC-leading Bluejays shot 64 percent from the field on the night, including 16 three-pointers. The Bulldogs were unable to get many open shots and converted on 35 percent from the field (21-of-59) and 32 percent from three (9-of-28). The squad struggled early, scoring nine points in the first 10 minutes of the contest.

The Bluejays came out gunning with three-pointers by Grant Gibbs, Doug McDermott and Jahenns Manigat to give Creighton an 11-2 lead. Before the Bulldogs were able to gather their bearings, the hosts had jumped out to a 21-point lead, 30-9, 10 minutes into the game.

A career-high 23 points from Chris Hines and a tough second-half defensive effort helped propel the Drake University men's basketball team over Illinois State, 82-77, at Redbird Arena.

Facing a 9-point first-half deficit after allowing the Redbirds to shoot 54.8 percent from the field, the defense stole the show in the second half by keeping Illinois State without a field goal for the first 6:13 of the half to take the lead. The Redbirds mustered just 32.4 percent shooting in the stanza.

Jordan Clarke scored Drake's first six points of the half and finished the game with a 16-point, 11-rebound effort that included 7-of-7 shooting.

Fellow senior Ben Simons capped the run that gave the Bulldogs the lead at 46-44 with five straight points. Simons matched Hines with 23 points, five rebounds and three assists.

With 6:31 left, Drake still led by 14 points, 72-58, before the Redbirds started to chip away at the margin. A 15-5 run by ISU closed the gap to two possessions, 77-73, with 47 seconds left.

Chris Hines' 21 points and three others in double figures led the Drake University men's basketball team to an 83-69 win at the Knapp Center.

Leading by just one point at halftime, 39-38, the Bulldogs came out on fire in the second half, hitting 15-of-23 shots from the floor (65.2 percent), including 7-of-9 from behind the arc (77.8 percent).

Drake was strong on the defensive end as well as the team held Evansville to just 7-of-24 from the field (24.1 percent) and 1-of-13 from behind the three-point line in the second half.

After Colt Ryan knocked down two free throws to give Evansville a 57-56 lead with 11:52 left in the game. Drake answered with a 15-4 run, the last on a jumper by Joey King (Eagan, Minn.), to give the Bulldogs a 71-59 lead that forced Evansville to take a timeout with 4:53 left in the game to try and stop the bleeding.

However, Evansville had no answer for Drake out of the timeout as the Bulldogs would go up by as many as 16 points on the way to their first MVC win.
