• The Drake University men's basketball team takes to the road for its second meeting of the season against Missouri State on Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m.
• The Bulldogs travel to Springfield fresh off of a 74-69 upset over No. 17/12 Creighton on Wednesday evening.
• The win was the Bulldogs' third in its last four games to improve to 9-10 overall and 3-5 in the MVC.
• It was also the team's first win over a ranked opponent since defeating No. 8 Butler during the 2007-08 season.
• Missouri State is 5-15 on the season and 3-5 in the MVC after falling to Wichita State, 62-52, on Wednesday.
• The Bears won the first meeting between the two teams this season by a 77-65 margin in Des Moines.
• In its last outing, Drake's defense held Creighton 10 points below its season average and limited the nation's top three-point shooting team to just five makes on 23.8 percent shooting.
• Richard Carter led Drake in that win with a career-high 20 points. The junior point guard is averaging 16.3 points per game and has shot 6-of-9 from the arc in the last three games.
• The Bulldogs are averaging 71.5 possessions per game, the fastest pace in the MVC. In conference games, the squad is playing at a 71.8 possession pace, easily the fastest in league games.
• Drake's bench has outscored its opponents' reserves in each of the last four games by a 108-57 margin. Against Creighton, the bench stepped up with 43 points as Jeremy Jeffers and Daddy Ugbede chipped in 11 and 12 points, respectively.

Head Coach

Mark PHELPS

Fifth Season

@CoachMarkPhelps

Mark Phelps enters his fifth season as head coach of the Bulldogs' men's basketball program in 2012-13, driven by a passion and commitment to elevate Drake to levels of consistent excellence on and off the court. His dedicated approach to recruiting and program-building over his first four seasons has established a solid foundation to achieve sustainable success.

The 2011-12 season showed significant signs of both the steady progress and potential of the Drake program, as the Bulldogs qualified for a postseason tournament for the third time in the last five seasons (2008 NCAA, 2009 CIT), and second in Phelps' four-year tenure as head coach. The first-round Collegeinsider.com Postseason Tournament win over North Dakota was Drake's first victory beyond the conference tournament since 1975. The Bulldogs won 18 games, the most in Phelps' career and tied for ninth-most in school history.

In addition, Drake posted a winning record for the second time in Phelps' four years, making him the first Drake head coach in 50 years to post two winning seasons in his first four (17-16 in 2008-09). Drake's third-place finish (9-9, tied with four teams) in the Missouri Valley Conference was its second-highest in the MVC standings in the last 26 years. The 9-9 MVC record of 2011-12 was the best by Phelps and tied for second-best by a Drake team since 1986.

With 62 wins in his first four seasons, Phelps has more victories than any Drake coach in his initial four years on the job. No Drake head coach since Maury John (.555 from 1958-62) has had a better winning percentage in the equivalent span of his career than Phelps (.473).

All of that success last season was achieved without starting center Seth VanDeest, who missed the entire season after undergoing surgery to repair a torn labrum in his left shoulder. The 2011-12 Bulldogs overcame significant injury adversity that impacted the starting lineup, but were guided through the storm by a coaching staff that remained steady and consistent, helping players elevate to a new level of performance.

One of those players was Ben Simons, who played every position on the floor and more than doubled his sophomore scoring average of 8.1 to a figure of 16.4, fourth-best in the MVC in 2011-12. Simons was joined by Jordan Clarke, who put up career-best averages of 6.0 points and 7.0 rebounds, while handling the post position in VanDeest's absence.

Simons was named captain of the MVC's Most Improved Team, while also earning second-team All-MVC and second-team NABC All-District recognition along with sophomore Rayvonte Rice. Clarke was named second-team MVC Scholar-Athlete.

In the fifth year of building his program, Phelps and his coaching staff will welcome eight scholarship newcomers in 2012-13, including five freshmen and three transfers, wrapped around an experienced nucleus of five returning players who have been regular starters for the Bulldogs.

The collective talent level of the eight incoming players demonstrates the tremendous recruiting acumen of Phelps and his staff, building on previous recruiting success that has gained notice across the country.

ON THE BENCH

CHRIS BRAZELTON
Assistant Coach

Joined the Drake men's basketball coaching staff as an assistant coach on May 24, 2012. He comes to Drake after spending the past five seasons as an assistant coach at the University of California Riverside. Brazelton joined the UCR staff under head coach Jim Wooldridge in 2007 after one year as a graduate assistant at the University of New Orleans under Buzz Williams.

STAN JOHNSON
Assistant Coach

Enters his second season with the Bulldogs in 2012-13 after being named an assistant coach on June 20, 2011. He spent the previous three years at the University of Utah as an assistant coach for the Utes.

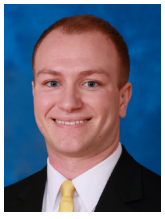
BRETT NELSON
Assistant Coach

Enters his second season with the Bulldogs' program and is in his eighth season in the coaching ranks after an All-America playing career at Florida. Nelson joined Phelps' staff at Drake after spending the 2010-11 season at Arkansas.

NATE MEYER
Director of Operations

Was promoted to coordinator of basketball operations for the Drake men's basketball program on May 24, 2012. The Urbandale, Iowa, native had previously served two years as a graduate manager.

GEORGE NEILSON
Graduate Manager



ADAM URNESS
Graduate Manager

A WIN WOULD ...

- Make Drake 10-10 on the season and 4-5 in the Missouri Valley Conference.
- Be Drake's fourth win in its last five games.
- Snap the Bulldogs' six-game skid against Missouri State and be the team's first win over the Bears since Jan. 12, 2010.
- Be the team's first win in Springfield since Feb. 21, 2001.
- Be head coach Mark Phelps' 72nd win at Drake, the sixth most in Drake history.
- Be the Bulldogs' second MVC road win of the season.
- Make Drake 11-36 all-time against the Bears.
- Be the 1,159th win in program history.

A LOSS WOULD ...

- Drop Drake to 9-11 on the season and 3-6 in the MVC.
- Be Drake's fourth MVC road loss of the season.
- Make Drake 10-37 against MSU.
- Be Missouri State's seventh straight win over Drake.

RACE TO 70

- Drake has scored 70 or more points in 14 of its 19 games this season and is averaging 72.5 points per game, the third highest average in the MVC.
- Only four of the Bears' 20 opponents have scored 70 or more points with Creighton being the lone MVC team to do so.
- MSU gives up on average a scant 63.5 points per game due in large part to its pace of play. The Bears surrender on average, more than one point per possession.
- Drake is 9-5 this season when scoring 70 or more points, but just 1-9 when its opponent hits the 70-point mark.

MORE ON THE CREIGHTON WIN

- Creighton came into the game shooting 45.2 percent from three-point range but was held to a season-low 23.8 percent with just five makes. Both were season lows for the Bluejays.
- Creighton did not make a first-half three-pointer.
- Drake's 16-point halftime lead was its largest lead in an MVC game this season at any point.
- Drake's 74 points were the second most Creighton had surrendered on the season and the most in an MVC game.
- Drake's 1.02 points per possession were the fourth most given up by Creighton and the second most in an MVC game this season.
- In addition to a +8 advantage on the boards, Drake was successful on 29.4 percent of its offensive rebounding opportunities and 81.3 percent of its chances on defense. The 11 offensive rebounds tie for the second most this season by Drake.
- Drake's bench scored a season-high 43 points.
- Drake got the free-throw line 30 times, the most by a Creighton opponent this season and Drake's most in an MVC game.
- The win was Drake's 11th in 21 meetings with the Bluejays at the Knapp Center.
- Multiple career highs were set or matched by the Bulldogs including Richard Carter in points (20) and rebounds (7) and Daddy Ugbede in points (12) and rebounds (5).

PICKING UP THE PACE

• Drake's offense has had 80 or more possessions in three of its 19 games of the season and is averaging 71.5 possessions per game.
• That pace ranks as the fastest in the MVC and 45th fastest nationally.
• In MVC play, Drake is averaging a league-high 71.8 possessions per game.
• In its last four games, Drake is averaging 75 possessions.
• It's 79 possessions against Evansville are the most in an MVC game this season and the 78 possessions at Illinois State are the second most this season.

CARTER STRONG OFF THE BENCH

• Richard Carter followed up two strong showings off the bench by exploding for a career-high 20 points on 7-of-9 shooting from the field and matched a career-high seven rebounds.
• For his efforts, ESPN.com named him its national sixth man of the day on Jan. 23.
• Prior to that, he scored a team-high 16 points with six assists in the loss at UNI.
• Below are his stats in the first five MVC games off the bench compared with the last three.

MORE ON UGBEDE'S CAREER DAY

• Reserve forward Daddy Ugbede was one of the unsung heroes in Drake's win over No. 17 Creighton with a career-high 12 points and five rebounds in 19 minutes.
• Of his five rebounds, four were possession-extending offensive boards and he missed just one of his five shots from the field.
• During his 19 minutes on the floor, the Bulldogs outscored Creighton by nine points, 36-27, the largest +/- differential of any Bulldog on the night.
• His second bucket of the night spawned a 7-0 Drake run that gave the Bulldogs an early lead and his last points came via an offensive rebound and ensuing free-throws to give Drake a three-point cushion late in the game.

SECOND-HALF DEFENSE LEADS TO FIRST TWO MVC WINS

• While a pair of 80-point performances stole the show in wins over Illinois State and Evansville, it was the defense - especially in the second half - that ultimately secured those wins.
• At Illinois State, the Bulldogs faced a 9-point halftime deficit before the defense clamped down to hold ISU to 32.4 percent shooting from the field and 20 percent from the arc in the second half to allow for an 82-77 win.
• Against Evansville a 1-point halftime lead turned into as many as 16 points with the defense holding the Aces to 24.1 percent shooting and 7.7 percent from the arc in the second half.
• Below is a comparison of the first and second half defensive and offensive performances from those contests.

THE LAST MEETING

MISSOURI STATE	77
DRAKE	65

Jan. 5, 2013 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 3,804

Freshman Joey King matched a career high with 21 points, but it wasn't enough for the Drake University men's basketball team to push past Missouri State as the Bears held on for a 77-65 win at the Knapp Center.

King matched his career-best set earlier this season against Xavier in the Direct TV Classic. He also led the team in rebounds with seven. Senior Ben Simons poured in 17 points, 14 in the second half.

The Bears shot 44 percent from three point range on the night, hitting eight of their 18 attempts. They began the game making five of their first nine from distance.

BENCH LEADING THE WAY

• Drake's reserves were a huge key in the upset win over Creighton as they accounted for 43 of the team's 74 points and outscored Creighton's bench, 43-14.
• That has been a recent trend for the Bulldogs with Drake's bench outscoring its opponents' by a combined 108-57 in the last four games.
• On the season, Drake holds a 452-340 advantage in bench scoring for a difference of nearly six points per game.
• Drake's bench has only been outscored four times this season and just twice in MVC action.

HINES SHINES IN WINS

• Just four days after being held scoreless at Creighton, Chris Hines exploded for a career-high 23 points in the win at Illinois State.
• His career night came on 9-of-17 shooting and a 4-of-8 showing from three-point range.
• He also added four rebounds, a career-high three assists and three steals.
• His previous career high of 21 came exactly one year to the day earlier while he was playing for Utah in a game at Stanford.
• For an encore, he scored a team-high 21 points on 5-of-6 shooting from the arc with four rebounds and two assists against Evansville.
• In addition to leading Drake in its first two MVC wins, the fifth-year senior has been a key component in the majority of Drake's wins this season.
• Below are Hines' stat lines from the Bulldogs' wins this season.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE FEAT

• In the win at Illinois State, Jordan Clarke and Joey King each recorded a double-double.
• Clarke's came via a 16-point - on 7-of-7 shooting, with 11-rebound night while King added 11 points and 11 rebounds with a career-high four assists.
• It marked the first time two Bulldogs recorded a double-double since Jan. 24, 2009 when Jonathan Cox and Craig Stanley did the same.
• That accounted for a period of 125 games or 1,449 calendar days.
• This season in the MVC, a team has had two or more players notch a double-double in the same game just four times. Creighton's Gregory Echenique and Doug McDermott each had a double-double in their contest against Evansville while SIU's Jeff Early and Desmar Jackson have done it twice (SIU-Edwardsville, Nicholls State).
• Below is a summary of the Bulldogs' seven double-doubles this season. Coincidentally, none have come at home.

TURNOVERS CURBED

• Turnovers hampered the Bulldogs in their first two MVC games as the team committed 37 turnovers that became 52 points.
• However, in its last six outings, the team has made drastic improvements in taking care of the ball with just 78 turnovers in its last four games including a season-low seven at Creighton.
• Despite the two MVC games with turnover issues, the Bulldogs are averaging one fewer turnover per game than at this point last season despite playing with significantly more possessions per game.

SCORING UP

• Drake's offense is averaging 72.5 points per game to rank 73rd nationally and 4.6 points per game higher than the Bulldogs' average last season through 19 games.

CHARTING THE DEFENSE

Below are the season scoring averages, field goal percentage, three-point field goal percentage, possessions, points per possession and turnover rate for each Drake opponent prior to facing the Bulldogs. FROM THE ARC ...

• The Bulldogs remain one of the top three-point shooting teams in the nation, ranking 12th in three-pointers per game (8.7) and 21st in three-point percentage (.387).
• Drake has shot below 40 percent from the three-point arc just eight times this season.
• Individually, Ben Simons leads the team with 2.4 three-pointers per game.
• Three-point shooting has been a hallmark of Drake teams under head coach Mark Phelps with the Bulldogs averaging 7.5 three-pointers per game on 37.2 percent shooting during Phelps' seasons at the helm of the squad.
• Of the top six seasons for three-pointers made, four have come during Phelps' tenure.
• Below is a summary of each team's three-point shooting over the past five seasons.

SIMONS' STREAK ENDS ...

• Senior Ben Simons was held without a three-pointer in the loss at Creighton to end his streak of games with a three-pointer at 30, the longest in the Valley.
• In his 112 career games at Drake, he has only been held without a three-pointer 22 times and just three times in the last 53 games.
• His current streak stands at four games.

SIMONS HITS 1,000-POINT PLATEAU

• Ben Simons' 20 points against Xavier made him the 23rd player in Drake history to record 1,000 career points.
• Simons currently ranks 14th in all-time scoring at Drake. Below are those near him in the rankings.

REBOUNDING IMPROVING

• Drake has averaged 33.6 rebounds in MVC play, including a season-high 46 rebounds at Bradley.
• Drake averaged 30 rebounds per game during the non-conference season.
• Wichita State outrebounded Drake by one (34-33), however, the Shockers came into the game boasting a 9.3 advantage in rebounding margin on the season.
• At Illinois State, Drake held a 38-36 rebounding advantage and followed that up with a 36-33 advantage over Evansville and a 39-31 total over Creighton.
• In its eight conference games, there have only been 14 occurrences of a player stepping on the court and not recording at least one rebound.
• To get a better impression of the Bulldogs' improvement on the glass, below is a breakdown of the team's rebounding percentages in MVC and non-conference games.

MVC Games	Category	Non-Conference

GETTING TO THE LINE

• Drake has attempted 21.3 free-throw attempts in its last 14 games.
• This season, Drake has attempted 25 or more free throws in seven of its 19 games and 20 or more in all but seven games.
• Drake is second in the MVC in free-throw attempts with 412 this season.
• Three Bulldogs have attempted 60 or more free throws with Jordan Clarke accounting for nearly a fourth of the team's attempts with 90 this season.

BULLDOGS OPEN THE RECORD BOOK

• Drake's sharpshooters wasted little time in etching the 2012-13 squad into the Drake record book as the 15 three-pointers in the season opener tied for the sixth most in school history.
• Additionally, the team's 62.5 percent (15-of-24) shooting percentage from three-point range tied for the ninth highest in program history.
• Four players accounted for the 15 three-pointers including Ben Simons (5), Richard Carter (4), Micah Mason (3) and Joey King (3).

PHELPS AMONG THE BEST ON THE DRAKE BENCH

• In his first four seasons at the helm of the Drake program, head coach Mark Phelps collected 62 victories, more than any other head coach in the program's history through their first four seasons.
• Below is where Phelps ranks in wins through the first four seasons at Drake

Notes
Kori Babineaux enters his freshman season at Drake after playing one season at Lake Forest (Ill.) Academy. Prior to that he was a two-sport start in basketball and football at Folsom (Calif.) High School.

In his one season at Lake Forest Academy, the 6-foot-4, 205-pound guard averaged 27.6 points, six rebounds, five assists and three steals per game. Babineaux scored a season-high 48 points and followed up with 43 points in back-to-back games in late November.

Babineaux was a two-sport star at Folsom (Calif.) High School from 2007-11, earning three first-team all-league selections in basketball and two in football as a wide receiver and cornerback. His football statistics at Folsom included 64 receptions for 1,187 yards and 15 touchdowns in leading the school to a 2010 State Bowl championship.

Has scored 52 points in the last four games including a team-high 21 points in the win over Evanvsille ... exploded for a career-high 23 points in the win at Illinois State ... has had 64 points on 23-of-54 shooting in the last six games ... had 13 points with two assists and three steals against Iowa State ... scored his most points at Drake with 19 against IPFW, two short of a career high ... scored six points with four boards at Nevada ... had six points, four on free throws with two steals against Xavier ... scored 11 points in 18 minutes in the win over Rice ... made his Drake debut with 14 points in 26 minutes including four straight free throws in the final minutes to keep Drake's comeback hopes alive at Detroit ... did not play in the season opener or exhibition due to a right leg injury ...

Has one season of eligibility remaining to play at Drake following three seasons of play and one redshirt year at the University of Utah. After earning his undergraduate degree from Utah in May 2012, he is eligible to play immediately in 2012-13 for the Bulldogs.

College -- Hines played three seasons at Utah (2009-12) after redshirting his first year in 2008-09. Last year, as a redshirt-junior, he started 26 of the Utes' 29 games and ranked second on the team in scoring (9.6), while leading the team in three-point field goals (66), competing in the Pac-12. Playing 30.4 minutes per game (2nd on team), Hines also added 2.3 rebounds and 1.7 steals per game.

Scored 11 points on 3-fo-3 shooting and was effective in guarding Doug McDermott in the win over Creighton ... scored eight points, his second most of the season in 16 minutes on 3-fo-5 shooting at UN ... played 17 minutes with five points at Creighton on 2-of-5 shooting ... scored a career-high 16 points against Saint Mary's ... came off the bench on fire to score 11 points on 3-of-3 shooting from the arc at Nevada ... hit a three-pointer to finish with three points at Detroit ... played 11 minutes with four points in the opener ... did not play in the exhibition against SBU due to a concussion suffered in practice ...

Versatile wing with excellent court vision for player his size, Jeffers made an impact after redshirting in 2010-11. In seven games before being sidelined the terrific passer and ball handler showed flashes of talent and promise, then averaged 9.3 points, 2.5 rebounds and 2 assists in four games on Drake's foreign tour to Australia and New Zealand in August 2011.

Played in every game in 2011-12 and moved into the starting lineup in the eighth game of the season against Air Force (12/3), he's started all but one game since. Finished fourth on the team in scoring with 7.1 points a game and held the best three-point percentage at 43 percent.

Did not play in the first 19 games due to a knee injury ... had two points in limited minutes in the exhibition against SBU ...

A court-savvy point guard with high basketball IQ, speed and quickness won starting point guard position in pre-season after a redshirt season in 2010-11 (knee)...brings toughness, a competitive nature, ball-handling, defense and scoring ability to his floor-general attributes.

Impressive start in first season of action, starting every game but two and handling the point-guard position... averaged 23 minutes per game, over 4.7 points and led the team in assists with 2.5 a game. Had huge break-out game in first MVC start to lead Drake to victory over Indiana State...scored career-high 24 points and added four rebounds and three assists, making all nine field-goal attempts, including one three-pointer, as well as 5-of-6 from the free-throw line.
Dished a career-high seven assists in win over Central Arkansas (12/21). Solid all-around game vs. Virginia (11/21) at Paradise Jam, scoring 9 points, grabbing 5 rebounds, going 5-6 from the free-throw line and adding one assist with just one turnover. Season-best 13 points in first career start vs. Upper Iowa (11/12). Took a redshirt season in his first season because of a knee injury.
High School coach: Chuck Shanklin.

Saw six minutes of action and scored four points against William Jewell ... scored two points with a rebound and an assist in the exhibition against SBU ...

Comes to the Bulldogs from Detroit (Mich.) Country Day, where he played one season after moving from his native Lithuania to the United States.

Puleikis was the leading scorer and rebounder, at 12.7 and 10.5, respectively, for a Country Day squad in Detroit that compiled a 21-6 record last season and advanced to the semifinals of the Michigan Class B state tournament, and was ranked No. 3 in the state. He played one season at Country Day after moving to the United States from his native Lithuania before his senior year, and earned all-county and honorable mention all-state. In the state regional final against Chandler Park Academy, Puleikis scored a season-high 28 points and grabbed 14 rebounds while adding five blocked shots. He played in 19 games after gaining eligibility via transfer policies, and added 34 blocked shots and 35 assists.

Had a critical steal and hit two free throws to seal the win over Creighton ... averaging 15 points in the last four games ... scored 23 points with five assists and three assists at Illinois State ... held without a three-pointer at Creighton to snap a streak of 30 consecutive games with a three-pointer ... scored 17 points on 6-of-12 shooting from the field against Missouri State ... had a career-high 10 rebounds with 13 points for his first double-double at Bradley ... scored 16 points including a game-tying three-pointer against NC Central ... has scored in double-digits every game this season ... recently surpassed the 1,000 point mark with 20 points in a loss to Xavier ... had a team-high 18 points on 4-of-9 shooting from the arc against Rice ... scored 13 points in the loss to Cal ... scored 11 points including a three-pointer with less than a minute to play to make it a two-point game at Detroit ... scored 25 points, the second most of his career, in the season opener against William Jewell and was 5-of-7 from three-point range ... recorded a double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds in the exhibition against SBU ...

The sharp-shooting senior has emerged as a team-leader and go-to player, elevating his game in 2011-12...selected as the captain of the MVC Most Improved team for the 2011-12 season (selected over two first team all-conference players)...honored as an all-MVC second-team selection... chosen co-captain by his teammates along with Jordan Clarke...started the final 13 games of his freshman season (2009-10) and the final 15 of his sophomore campaign.

Provided clutch contributions in the win over Creighton with a career-high 12 points and five rebounds in 19 minutes ... has provided significant minutes the last 10 games with 4.0 points per game and seven offensive rebounds ... had a career-high seven points and five rebounds at Bradley ... played significant first half minutes against Iowa State and recorded a then career-high five points and three rebounds ... had two points in eight minutes on a pair of free throws against William Jewell ... was 3-of-3 from the field and finished with nine points and five boards in the exhibition against SBU ...

Joins Drake's incoming class for 2012-13 after playing one varsity season at Junipero Serra High School in Gardena, Calif. A native of Nigeria, Ugbede earned first-team All-CIF Southern Section 4AA honors in leading his team to a 31-3 record and a regional championship.

Ugbede helped lead Junipero Serra to a 31-3 record in 2011-12, and the California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) Southern Section 4AA crown. He scored 32 points in the championship game against a LaVerne Lutheran team led by McDonald's All-American Grant Jarrett. A native of Nigeria who moved to the United States before his junior year, Ugbede averaged 15.3 points and 6.8 rebounds per game as a senior and was named All-CIF. He was named by the South Bay Daily Breeze as boys basketball Player of the Year for 2012, and served as co-captain for the Cavaliers. Ugbede was named MVP of the Las Vegas Tournament

WILLIAM JEWELL	66
DRAKE	96

Nov. 10, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 3,273

The Drake University men's basketball team officially opened the 2012-13 season with a 96-66 win against William Jewell at the Knapp Center. Ben Simons led all scorers with 25 points, 18 of which came in the second half. Richard Carter had a big game in his debut, scoring 19 points, including going a perfect 4-of-4 from three-point range.

The Bulldogs were hot from the field the entire game shooting 55.9-percent as a team on 33-of-59 shooting as well as 15-of-24 from three-point range for a 62.5 percent clip, the ninth highest single-game percentage in school history. At one point in the second half Drake had made 12 of its 15 three-point attempts. Additionally, Drake's 15 three-pointers tied for the sixth most in program history behind nine total three-pointers from Simons and Carter.

William Jewell was paced by two players in double-figures as Dillon Deck scored 16 points with seven rebounds while Ricky Tisdale added 14 points. As a team, the Cardinals shot 35 percent from the field and 13.3 percent from three-point.

DRAKE	79
DETROIT	85

Nov. 17, 2012 • Detroit, Mich.
Calihan Hall • 2,047

Senior Jordan Clarke recorded a double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds but it was not enough to rally back from a 14-point deficit as the Drake University men's basketball team fell at Detroit, 85-79.

Clarke's double-double came on 6-of-7 shooting from the field as the Bulldogs fall to 1-1 on the young season. Detroit was paced by Doug Anderson's 26 points and 10 rebounds while Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year Ray McCallum poured in 20 points, including a jumper with 13 seconds left to preserve the Titan win.

With four minutes to play, Drake was facing a 14-point, 76-62, deficit before the Bulldogs went on a 14-5 run capped by back-to-back three-pointers from Clarke and Ben Simons to pull within two points, 81-79, with 46 seconds left. Simons' three-pointer come courtesy of a possession generated by the defense forcing a critical five-second call on a Detroit inbound pass.

However, Detroit's next possession saw McCallum deliver his game-clinching jumper from the top of the key.

CALIFORNIA	73

Nov. 22, 2012 • Anaheim, Calif.
Anaheim Arena • 1,087

The Drake University men's basketball team fell in final minute to California, 73-70, in the opening round of the DIRECTV Classic n Anaheim, Calif.

Senior Jordan Clarke notched his second straight double-double, scoring 11 points and grabbing 10 rebounds while Ben Simons, Seth VanDeest, Richard Carter, and Gary Ricks, Jr. each scored 13 points, but their scoring could not hold off the Golden Bears' late charge. Justin Cobbs recorded 21 points followed by 15 from Allen Crabbe, almost all of which came down the stretch, to lead Cal past Drake in the closing minutes of the game.

Drake led by as many as nine points with seven minutes to play at 64-55, but Cal rallied and retook the lead at 67-66 with 4:20 remaining in the game thanks to a 12-2 run, fueled by the high-scoring guard combo of Crabbe and Cobbs.

In the second half, the Blue and White was able to take its first lead since the opening minutes with a 13-6 run Bulldog run to build a three-possession lead with Simons scoring seven of those points before Cal rebounded.

DRAKE	77

Nov. 23, 2012 • Anaheim, Calif.
Anaheim Arena • 1,627

Five Bulldogs scored in double figures for the second consecutive night, as the Drake University men's basketball team pulled away from Rice, 77-66, in second round of the DIRECTV Classi.

Jordan Clarke stole the show for the Bulldogs with his third double-double in a row for Drake, notching 15 points and grabbing a career-high 18 rebounds. His 18 rebounds also set a tournament record, previously held by Diamon Simpson of St. Mary's in 2008, who had 17 against Cal State Fullerton. The senior also had four assists, two steals and two blocks.

Ben Simons scored a team-high 18 points to lead the Blue and White past the Owls. Seth VanDeest had a strong showing in the post to complement Clarke with 12 points and eight boards of his own. In his encore performance in front of his hometown crowd, Gary Ricks scored 10 points and had three assists. Chris Hines added 11 points. As a team, Drake shot 46 percent from the field and 44 percent from the three-point arc.

Nov. 25, 2012 • Anaheim, Calif. Anaheim Arena •

The Drake University men's basketball team got a pair of 20-point performances from Ben Simons and Joey King, but it wasn't enough to overcome a talented Xavier team as the Bulldogs fell, 74-70, in their final game at the DIRECTV Classic.

Senior Ben Simons became the 23rd player in Drake basketball history to pass the 1,000-point mark, with 20 points to give him 1,009 career points. Joey King was the leading scorer for the Bulldogs, setting a career high with 21 points.

Senior Jordan Clarke recorded his fourth consecutive double-double, adding 12 points and 11 rebounds for the Blue and White. Clarke set the tournament's rebounding record with 39 boards in three games.

Xavier, which trailed 30-26 at halftime, used an 11-0 run to regain the lead, 44-36, midway through the second half. Drake clawed back on multiple occasions in the second half, but the Musketeers pulled away with a 6-0 run in the final four minutes of the game that increased their lead to as many as 11.

NEVADA	66

Nov. 30, 2012 • Reno, Nev. Lawlor Events Center • 6,469

Led by five players scoring in double-figures, the Drake University men's basketball team defeated Nevada, 76-66, on the road in the Mountain West/ Missouri Valley Challenge.

Richard Carter had his best game to date in a Drake uniform with 16 points, a game-high seven rebounds and four assists with just one turnover. The junior college transfer was 6-of-12 from the field as the Bulldogs shot 44.6 percent from the field and a 45 percent (9-of-20) from three-point range.

Despite the offensive numbers, Drake's defense and rebounding won the game against a Nevada squad that won 28 games and its conference title last season. The Wolf Pack shot 41.2 percent from the field as the Bulldogs' defense imposed its will in the second half to allow just 30.8 percent shooting.

On the boards, Jordan Clarke led an offensive rebounding attack that held a 10-5 advantage to allow Drake to outscore the Wolf Pack, 14-0, on second chance points. Clarke finished with six total boards to go along with his 15 points, two assists and two steals.

Dec. 5, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa Knapp Center • 3,410

Perennial NCAA participant Saint Mary's had five players score in double-figures to defeat the Drake University men's basketball team, 88-73, at the Knapp Center in a game that was part of the DirecTV Classic.

The Bulldogs never were able to find an offensive rhythm and were limited to 41.2 percent shooting from the field. The team's three-point offense came into the contest averaging 10 three-pointers per game and was limited to six three-pointers, many of them coming with the game out of reach.

Jeremy Jeffers tallied a career-high 16 points to lead the Bulldogs in the loss. Seth VanDeest recorded 15 points before fouling out with just under five minutes to play and Ben Simons added 11 points.

Australian Olympian Matthew Dellavedova was a matchup problem all night for the Bulldogs, finishing with a game-high 31 points to pace the Gaels . Brad Waldow was a force inside, nearly recording a double-double against a defense that was hindered by the absence of Jordan Clarke.

Dec. 8, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa Knapp Center • 2,867

Senior Chris Hines scored 19 points to lead the Drake University men's basketball to a 74-64 win against IPFW at the Knapp Center.

Hines', a fifth-year senior transfer from Utah, found a more active role on the offensive end and scored his highest point total since transferring to Drake and two shy of his career high. The senior shot 50 percent from the three-point line (3-of-6) and led the team with six free throws on eight attempts.

Junior Ben Simons continued to leave his mark in the Drake record books. With 15 points on the night, Simons moved to 20th on the all-time list.

IPFW pressured Drake throughout most of the second half, causing them 11 second-half turnovers. However, junior Richard Carter found holes in the lane and dished out a career-high eight assists. He also badgered the Mastodons' guards and grabbed five steals, also a career best.

Dec. 15, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa

Despite a season-high 18 points from Seth VanDeest, rebounding and foul trouble allowed Iowa State to pull away from the Drake University men's basketball team for an 86-77 win in the Big Four Classic at Wells Fargo Arena.

Each of Drake's top regular contributors in redshirt senior Jordan Clarke, senior Ben Simons and VanDeest found themselves' in foul trouble early and saw limited minutes in the first half, playing just 10 combined minutes. Despite just playing five minutes in the first half, VanDeest and Simons exploded in the second half as Simons finished with 13 points to complement VanDeest's 18. Senior Chris Hines also recorded 13 points for Drake.

The foul issues hurt the Bulldogs most on the glass, as they were outrebounded, 45-30. Clarke finished with a team high seven rebounds, despite only playing 25 minutes before fouling out.

Those fouls allowed Iowa State to take advantage of its chances from the charity stripe, as the Cyclones converted 30-of-41 from the free throw line.

Seth VanDeest led Drake for the second straight game with 19 points to help the Drake men's basketball team edge North Carolina Central, 72-69.

During the final eight minutes, neither team led by more than four points as the Bulldogs and Eagles went basket-for-basket before Ben Simons hit a three pointer with 2:47 left in the game to put Drake up, 66-65.

NCCU answered with a free throw to briefly tie the game before the Bulldogs went to VanDeest for back-to-back layups in the paint to take a four-point, 70-66, lead with 47 seconds left.

The Eagles didn't succumb to the 4-0 Drake run as Stanton Kidd drained a three-pointer on NCCU's next possession. Defending the in-bound pass, NCCU forced a jump ball to retain possession, but missed its attempt to take the lead with 16 seconds left with the rebound falling into Joey King's hands for his career-high 10th board of the evening. Out of a Drake timeout, Richard Carter was fouled and calmly drained both shots to give Drake its final three-point, 72-69, lead.

EASTERN ILLINOIS	56
DRAKE	74

Dec. 22, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 2,669

Hot shooting and a career-high 19 points by freshman Micah Mason helped the Drake men's basketball team defeat Eastern Illinois, 74-56.

Drake shot 56.1 percent (23-of-41) from the field while connecting on 13-of-22 from behind the three-point arc (59.1 percent) and 15-of-18 (83.3 percent) from the free throw line. Mason knocked down a career-high five three-pointers to go along with a career-high six assists in his second start. Eastern Illinois was led by Sherman Blanford with 18 points and seven rebounds.

Drake led for the majority of the first half and took a 33-26 lead into halftime courtesy of a 9-0 run to close the half as the Panthers' methodical offense dictated the tempo of the game.

However, the Bulldogs asserted control of that tempo in the second half as Mason made a three-pointer 25 seconds into the half and later added a layup as Drake built its lead to 38-26. The Panthers ended their scoreless streak after Alex Austin made a free throw at the 17:13 mark to account for five scoreless minutes for EIU.

Cold shooting and turnovers combined to hamper the Drake University men's basketball team in its Missouri Valley Conference opener as the team fell at Bradley, 67-57.

Drake was second in the nation in three-point shooting coming into the game but managed just 18.5 percent (5-of-27) against a stingy Bradley defense that forced 18 Drake turnovers and scored 23 points as a result of Bulldog miscues.

Ben Simons led Drake with a double-double thanks to 13 points and a career-high 10 rebounds while Seth VanDeest and Chris Hines added 10 and 11 points, respectively.

Simons' 10 boards helped contribute to the team's season-high 46 rebounds with the Bulldogs holding a 12-rebound advantage over Bradley.

However, Drake shot an uncharacteristically low 33.9 percent (20-of-59) from the field.

The Braves were paced by Dyricus Simms-Edwards' 20 points and eight steals while Walt Lemmon, Jr. added 23 points.

Freshmen Micah Mason and Joey King combined to score 29 points, but the Drake men's basketball team couldn't overcome a hot-shooting Wichita State squad as the Shockers downed the Bulldogs, 75-63, at the Knapp Center.

Mason was 4-of-7 from the three-point arc for 14 points, 11 of them coming in the second half. King scored a late flurry of points on a 7-of-10 performance from the floor for 15 points.

Wichita State was 12-of-25 from the three-point arc and scored 29 points off Drake's 19 turnovers. The Shockers were paced by Nick Wiggins' 18 points and four three-pointers.

Drake trailed by as many as 17 with eight minutes left in the game but clawed back within eight points in the final minute thanks to back-to-back baskets by King as part of an 8-0 run.

Forced to foul in the final minute, the Shockers were able to drain enough free throws to pull away for the 12-point win.

That 17-point WSU cushion developed thanks to WSU hitting four threes in the first 10 minutes of the second half.

Freshman Joey King matched a career high with 21 points, but it wasn't enough for the Drake University men's basketball team to push past Missouri State as the Bears held on for a 77-65 win at the Knapp Center.

King matched his career-best set earlier this season against Xavier in the Direct TV Classic. He also led the team in rebounds with seven. Senior Ben Simons poured in 17 points, 14 in the second half.

The Bears shot 44 percent from three point range on the night, hitting eight of their 18 attempts. They began the game making five of their first nine from distance.

The Bulldogs opened the second half on a 10-2 run, thanks for four points each by King and senior Chris Hines and a Simons three-pointer. The Bears' led fluctuated throughout the remainder of the half with the Bulldogs coming within two at 55-53 with 7:10 to play.

A Gavin Thurman three-pointer with 2:05 to play extended the Missouri State lead to 64-57 and Anthony Downing hit six consecutive free throws to seal it.

Jan. 8, 2013 • Omaha, Neb.

A red-hot shooting performance helped No. 13 Creighton cruise past the Drake University men's basketball team by a 91-61 margin.

The Bulldogs were led by Joey King with 17 points off of the bench. All five of the freshman's made shots were from three-point distance for his third highest point total of the season. Creighton had four players in double figures with Ethan Wragge leading all scorers with 22 points.

The MVC-leading Bluejays shot 64 percent from the field on the night, including 16 three-pointers. The Bulldogs were unable to get many open shots and converted on 35 percent from the field (21-of-59) and 32 percent from three (9-of-28). The squad struggled early, scoring nine points in the first 10 minutes of the contest.

The Bluejays came out gunning with three-pointers by Grant Gibbs, Doug McDermott and Jahenns Manigat to give Creighton an 11-2 lead. Before the Bulldogs were able to gather their bearings, the hosts had jumped out to a 21-point lead, 30-9, 10 minutes into the game.

A career-high 23 points from Chris Hines and a tough second-half defensive effort helped propel the Drake University men's basketball team over Illinois State, 82-77, at Redbird Arena.

Facing a 9-point first-half deficit after allowing the Redbirds to shoot 54.8 percent from the field, the defense stole the show in the second half by keeping Illinois State without a field goal for the first 6:13 of the half to take the lead. The Redbirds mustered just 32.4 percent shooting in the stanza.

Jordan Clarke scored Drake's first six points of the half and finished the game with a 16-point, 11-rebound effort that included 7-of-7 shooting.

Fellow senior Ben Simons capped the run that gave the Bulldogs the lead at 46-44 with five straight points. Simons matched Hines with 23 points, five rebounds and three assists.

With 6:31 left, Drake still led by 14 points, 72-58, before the Redbirds started to chip away at the margin . A 15-5 run by ISU closed the gap to two possessions, 77-73, with 47 seconds left.

Chris Hines' 21 points and three others in double figures led the Drake University men's basketball team to an 83-69 win at the Knapp Center.

Leading by just one point at halftime, 39-38, the Bulldogs came out on fire in the second half, hitting 15-of-23 shots from the floor (65.2 percent), including 7-of-9 from behind the arc (77.8 percent).

Drake was strong on the defensive end as well as the team held Evansville to just 7-of-24 from the field (24.1 percent) and 1-of-13 from behind the three-point line in the second half.

After Colt Ryan knocked down two free throws to give Evansville a 57-56 lead with 11:52 left in the game. Drake answered with a 15-4 run, the last on a jumper by Joey King (Eagan, Minn.), to give the Bulldogs a 71-59 lead that forced Evansville to take a timeout with 4:53 left in the game to try and stop the bleeding.

However, Evansville had no answer for Drake out of the timeout as the Bulldogs would go up by as many as 16 points on the way to their first MVC win.

NORTHERN IOWA	85

Jan. 20, 2013 • Cedar Falls, Iowa
McLeod Center • 4,215

An early first-half deficit coupled with a 16-0 UNI run in the second half proved to be too much for the Drake University men's basketball team to overcome as the Panthers defeated the Bulldogs, 85-55.

Richard Carter scored 16 points on 6-of-12 shooting, but the previously hot-shooting Bulldogs converted on just 35.6 of their attempts in the loss.

Deon Mitchell led UNI with 20 points to pace four Panthers in double-figures including Jake Koch with 16 points on near-perfect 7-of-8 shooting. As a team, UNI converted on 60 percent of their shots and were shooting above 70 percent from the field for the majority of the second half.

Halfway through the first half, Drake held a two-point lead before a 13-0 run vaulted UNI into a 11-point, 28-17, lead with over a 3:13 span.

Coming out of intermission, the Bulldogs couldn't reverse the momentum as UNI used a 16-0 run four minutes into the second half to extend its lead to 28 at 59-31.

GAME 19

NO. 17/12 CREIGHTON	69
DRAKE	74

Jan. 23, 2013 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 6,612

The Drake University men's basketball team outlasted a furious second half rally by No. 17/12 Creighton to stun the Bluejays, 74-69, in a thrilling finish before a crowd of 6,162 fans at the Knapp Center.

Four Bulldogs scored in double figures, led by Richard Carter, who had 20 points coming off the bench. Ben Simons and Jeremy Jeffers scored 13 points each and Daddy Ugbede had a career performance with 12 points.

Despite shooting over 50 percent in the first half, the Bulldogs struggled from the field in the second half and finished the game shooting 24-for-54 from the field, for a 44.4 percent clip. Drake also connected on eight shots from three-point range. Creighton finished the game with a 45.0 percent performance from the field. However, Drake's defense held the nation's top three-point shooting team to a frigid 23.8 percent mark from three-point range on five makes.

Creighton was led by the efforts of All-American Doug McDermott who scored 19 points, but only had two in the second half.
