• The Drake University men's basketball team returns home to host in-state rival Northern Iowa Saturday night. The game is the first of three straight home games for the Bulldogs.

• The Panthers travel to Des Moines on the heels of a 61-54 win over Creighton on Wednesday to improve to 15-11 overall and 8-6 in the Missouri Valley Conference.

• Drake returns home looking to snap a three-game losing streak as the team stands at 11-14 overall and 5-9 in the MVC heading into the final four conference games of the season.

• Senior Ben Simons has found his scoring touch of late, averaging 18.3 points per game over the last three games including a season-high 27 points at Evansville. Against Wichita State, he scored 15 points to move into 10th in career scoring at Drake with 1,294 career points.

• Simons leads Drake in scoring at 14.9 points per game this season and is 15-of-25 from the three-point arc in his last four games.

• Jordan Clarke has also seen increased production with five straight games with 10 or more points including a pair of double-doubles during that span.

• On the season, the Bulldogs are converting from the arc at a 39.8 percent clip to rank 14th nationally in three-point shooting.

• The Bulldogs have made 10 or more three-pointers in a game 10 times this season and twice in the last three games.

• The Panthers are led by three players in double-digit scoring with Anthony James' 12.2 points per game leading the way. Seth Tuttle and Jake Koch add 10.5 and 10.3 points per game, respectively.

Head Coach

PHELPS

Fifth Season

@CoachMarkPhelps

Mark Phelps enters his fifth season as head coach of the Bulldogs' men's basketball program in 2012-13, driven by a passion and commitment to elevate Drake to levels of consistent excellence on and off the court. His dedicated approach to recruiting and program-building over his first four seasons has established a solid foundation to achieve sustainable success.

The 2011-12 season showed significant signs of both the steady progress and potential of the Drake program, as the Bulldogs qualified for a postseason tournament for the third time in the last five seasons (2008 NCAA, 2009 CIT), and second in Phelps' four-year tenure as head coach. The first-round Collegeinsider.com Postseason Tournament win over North Dakota was Drake's first victory beyond the conference tournament since 1975. The Bulldogs won 18 games, the most in Phelps' career and tied for ninth-most in school history.

In addition, Drake posted a winning record for the second time in Phelps' four years, making him the first Drake head coach in 50 years to post two winning seasons in his first four (17-16 in 2008-09). Drake's third-place finish (9-9, tied with four teams) in the Missouri Valley Conference was its second-highest in the MVC standings in the last 26 years. The 9-9 MVC record of 2011-12 was the best by Phelps and tied for second-best by a Drake team since 1986.

With 62 wins in his first four seasons, Phelps has more victories than any Drake coach in his initial four years on the job. No Drake head coach since Maury John (.555 from 1958-62) has had a better winning percentage in the equivalent span of his career than Phelps (.473).

All of that success last season was achieved without starting center Seth VanDeest, who missed the entire season after undergoing surgery to repair a torn labrum in his left shoulder. The 2011-12 Bulldogs overcame significant injury adversity that impacted the starting lineup, but were guided through the storm by a coaching staff that remained steady and consistent, helping players elevate to a new level of performance.

One of those players was Ben Simons, who played every position on the floor and more than doubled his sophomore scoring average of 8.1 to a figure of 16.4, fourth-best in the MVC in 2011-12. Simons was joined by Jordan Clarke, who put up career-best averages of 6.0 points and 7.0 rebounds, while handling the post position in VanDeest's absence.

Simons was named captain of the MVC's Most Improved Team, while also earning second-team All-MVC and second-team NABC All-District recognition along with sophomore Rayvonte Rice. Clarke was named second-team MVC Scholar-Athlete.

In the fifth year of building his program, Phelps and his coaching staff will welcome eight scholarship newcomers in 2012-13, including five freshmen and three transfers, wrapped around an experienced nucleus of five returning players who have been regular starters for the Bulldogs.

The collective talent level of the eight incoming players demonstrates the tremendous recruiting acumen of Phelps and his staff, building on previous recruiting success that has gained notice across the country.

A WIN WOULD ...

- Make Drake 12-14 on the season and 6-9 in the Missouri Valley Conference.
- Be Drake's sixth win in its last 11 games.
- Snap the Panthers' three-game win streak over the Bulldogs.
- Make Drake 25-37 all-time against the Panthers.
- Be head coach Mark Phelps' 74th win at Drake, the sixth most in Drake history.
- Be the Bulldogs' eighth home win this season.
- Be the 1,161st win in program history.

A LOSS WOULD ...

- Drop Drake to 11-15 on the season and 5-10 in the MVC.
- Be Drake's fourth straight loss to UNI.
- Make Drake 24-38 all-time against the Panthers.
- Be Drake's first four-game losing streak since an 0-4 start to the MVC season.

SIMONS JOINS THE TOP 10

- Senior Ben Simons' 15 points at Wichita State moved him into 10th all-time at Drake with 1,294 points.
- He needs just 17 points to move into ninth in Drake history past Ken Harris (1973-77).

RACE TO 70

- Drake has scored 70 or more points in 18 of its 25 games, and five of its last seven this season. Drake is averaging 72.2 points per game, the third highest average in the MVC.
- UNI allows just 60.7 points per game and only one MVC opponent has scored 70 or more points against the Panthers.

THE LAST MEETING

DRAKE	55
NORTHERN IOWA	85

Jan. 20, 2013 • Cedar Falls, Iowa
McLeod Center • 4,215

An early first-half deficit coupled with a 16-0 UNI run in the second half proved to be too much for the Drake University men's basketball team to overcome as the Panthers defeated the Bulldogs, 85-55.

Richard Carter scored 16 points on 6-of-12 shooting, but the previously hot-shooting Bulldogs converted on just 35.6 of their attempts in the loss.

Deon Mitchell led UNI with 20 points to pace four Panthers in double-figures including Jake Koch with 16 points on near-perfect 7-of-8 shooting. UNI converted on 60 percent of its shots.

• Of the top-15 teams, two of them - Montana and North Carolina State - only have one player reach those benchmarks.

SIMONS' STREAK ENDS ...

- Senior Ben Simons was held without a three-pointer in the loss at Creighton to end his streak of games with a three-pointer at 30, then longest in the Valley.
- He was also held without a three-pointer at Southern Illinois.
- In his 118 career games at Drake, he has only been held without a three-pointer 23 times and just four times in the last 59 games.

FROM THE ARC ...

- The Bulldogs remain one of the top three-point shooting teams in the nation, ranking eighth in three-pointers per game (8.9) and 14th in three-point percentage (.398).
- With six guaranteed games left on the schedule, the Bulldogs are on pace to finish the season with 276 three-pointers, the third most in school history.
- Drake has shot below 40 percent from the three-point arc just 10 times this season and better than 50 percent in five.
- Three-point shooting has been a hallmark of Drake teams under head coach Mark Phelps with the Bulldogs averaging 7.6 three-pointers per game on 36.7 percent shooting during Phelps' seasons at the helm of the squad.
- Of the top six seasons for three-pointers made, four have come during Phelps' tenure.
- Below is a summary of each team's three-point shooting over the past five seasons.

Season	3pt./G	3pt. pct.	NCAA Rank
2012-13	8.9	.398 (223-596)	14th

DOUBLE-DOUBLE FEAT

- In the win at Illinois State, Jordan Clarke and Joey King each recorded a double-double.
- Clarke's came via a 16-point - on 7-of-7 shooting, with 11-rebound night while King added 11 points and 11 rebounds with a career-high four assists.
- It marked the first time two Bulldogs recorded a double-double since Jan. 24, 2009 when Jonathan Cox and Craig Stanley did the same.
- That accounted for a period of 125 games or 1,449 calendar days.
- This season in the MVC, a team has had two or more players notch a double-double in the same game just four times. Creighton's Gregory Echenique and Doug McDermott each had a double-double in their contest against Evansville while SIU's Jeff Early and Desmar Jackson have done it twice (SIU-Edwardsville, Nicholls State).
- Below is a summary of the Bulldogs' nine double-doubles this season.

PHELPS AMONG THE BEST ON THE DRAKE BENCH

- In his first four seasons at the helm of the Drake program, head coach Mark Phelps collected 62 victories, more than any other head coach in the program's history through their first four seasons.
- Below is where Phelps ranks in wins through the first four seasons at Drake

Wins In First Four Seasons at Drake

1.	62	Mark Phelps	2008-11
2.	55	Maury John	1958-61
3.	54	Tom Davis	2003-06
4.	51	Jack McClelland	1948-51
5.	45	Gary Garner	1981-84

- In just four seasons, Phelps already had more winning seasons than all but three of the Bulldogs' coaches since 1950 with two winning seasons. Below are the 11 Drake coaches since 1950, their winning seasons, total season and percentage of winning seasons in their career at Drake.

Coach	Winning Seasons	Total Seasons	Pct.
Maury John (1958-70)	9	13	.692
Bob Ortegall (1974-80)	4	7	.571
Jack McClelland (1948-55)	3	8	.375
Mark Phelps (2008-Pres)	2	4	.500
Gary Garner (1981-1987)	2	7	.286
Keno Davis (2007)	1	1	1.000
John Bennington (1956-57)	1	2	.500

Notes

Kori Babineaux enters his freshman season at Drake after playing one season at Lake Forest (Ill.) Academy. Prior to that he was a two-sport start in basketball and football at Folsom (Calif.) High School.

In his one season at Lake Forest Academy, the 6-foot-4, 205-pound guard averaged 27.6 points, six rebounds, five assists and three steals per game. Babineaux scored a season-high 48 points and followed up with 43 points in back-to-back games in late November.

Babineaux was a two-sport star at Folsom (Calif.) High School from 2007-11, earning three first-team all-league selections in basketball and two in football as a wide receiver and cornerback. His football statistics at Folsom included 64 receptions for 1,187 yards and 15 touchdowns in leading the school to a 2010 State Bowl championship.

Had five points in the win over Indiana State ... was 2-of-4 from the arc at Missouri State ... had a streak of five straight three-pointers against Creighton and MSU ... scored 11 points on 3-fo-3 shooting and was effective in guarding Doug McDermott in the win over Creighton ... scored eight points, his second most of the season in 16 minutes on 3-fo-5 shooting at UN ... played 17 minutes with five points at Creighton on 2-of-5 shooting ... scored a career-high 16 points against Saint Mary's ... came off the bench on fire to score 11 points on 3-of-3 shooting from the arc at Nevada ... hit a three-pointer to finish with three points at Detroit ... played 11 minutes with four points in the opener ... did not play in the exhibition against SBU due to a concussion suffered in practice ...

Versatile wing with excellent court vision for player his size, Jeffers made an impact after redshirting in 2010-11. In seven games before being sidelined the terrific passer and ball handler showed flashes of talent and promise, then averaged 9.3 points, 2.5 rebounds and 2 assists in four games on Drake's foreign tour to Australia and New Zealand in August 2011.

Played in every game in 2011-12 and moved into the starting lineup in the eighth game of the season against Air Force (12/3), he's started all but one game since. Finished fourth on the team in scoring with 7.1 points a game and held the best three-point percentage at 43 percent.

GAME 1

WILLIAM JEWELL	66
DRAKE	96

Nov. 10, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 3,273

The Drake University men's basketball team officially opened the 2012-13 season with a 96-66 win against William Jewell at the Knapp Center. Ben Simons led all scorers with 25 points, 18 of which came in the second half. Richard Carter had a big game in his debut, scoring 19 points, including going a perfect 4-of-4 from three-point range.

The Bulldogs were hot from the field the entire game shooting 55.9-percent as a team on 33-of-59 shooting as well as 15-of-24 from three-point range for a 62.5 percent clip, the ninth highest single-game percentage in school history. At one point in the second half Drake had made 12 of its 15 three-point attempts. Additionally, Drake's 15 three-pointers tied for the sixth most in program history behind nine total three-pointers from Simons and Carter.

William Jewell was paced by two players in double-figures as Dillon Deck scored 16 points with seven rebounds while Ricky Tisdale added 14 points. As a team, the Cardinals shot 35 percent from the field and 13.3 percent from three-point.

DRAKE	79
DETROIT	85

Nov. 17, 2012 • Detroit, Mich.
Calihan Hall • 2,047

Senior Jordan Clarke recorded a double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds but it was not enough to rally back from a 14-point deficit as the Drake University men's basketball team fell at Detroit, 85-79.

Clarke's double-double came on 6-of-7 shooting from the field as the Bulldogs fall to 1-1 on the young season. Detroit was paced by Doug Anderson's 26 points and 10 rebounds while Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year Ray McCallum poured in 20 points, including a jumper with 13 seconds left to preserve the Titan win.

With four minutes to play, Drake was facing a 14-point, 76-62, deficit before the Bulldogs went on a 14-5 run capped by back-to-back three-pointers from Clarke and Ben Simons to pull within two points, 81-79, with 46 seconds left. Simons' three-pointer came courtesy of a possession generated by the defense forcing a critical five-second call on a Detroit inbound pass.

Senior Jordan Clarke notched his second straight double-double, scoring 11 points and grabbing 10 rebounds while Ben Simons, Seth VanDeest, Richard Carter, and Gary Ricks, Jr. each scored 13 points, but their scoring could not hold off the Golden Bears' late charge. Justin Cobbs recorded 21 points followed by 15 from Allen Crabbe, almost all of which came down the stretch, to lead Cal past Drake in the closing minutes of the game.

Drake led by as many as nine points with seven minutes to play at 64-55, but Cal rallied and retook the lead at 67-66 with 4:20 remaining in the game thanks to a 12-2 run, fueled by the high-scoring guard combo of Crabbe and Cobbs.

In the second half, the Blue and White was able to take its first lead since the opening minutes with a 13-6 run Bulldog run to build a three-possession lead with Simons scoring seven of those points before Cal rebounded.

Five Bulldogs scored in double figures for the second consecutive night, as the Drake University men's basketball team pulled away from Rice, 77-66, in second round of the DIRECTV Classic.

Jordan Clarke stole the show for the Bulldogs with his third double-double in a row for Drake, notching 15 points and grabbing a career-high 18 rebounds. His 18 rebounds also set a tournament record, previously held by Diamon Simpson of St. Mary's in 2008, who had 17 against Cal State Fullerton. The senior also had four assists, two steals and two blocks.

Ben Simons scored a team-high 18 points to lead the Blue and White past the Owls. Seth VanDeest had a strong showing in the post to complement Clarke with 12 points and eight boards of his own. In his encore performance in front of his hometown crowd, Gary Ricks scored 10 points and had three assists. Chris Hines added 11 points. As a team, Drake shot 46 percent from the field and 44 percent from the three-point arc.

The Drake University men's basketball team got a pair of 20-point performances from Ben Simons and Joey King, but it wasn't enough to overcome a talented Xavier team as the Bulldogs fell, 74-70, in their final game at the DIRECTV Classic.

Senior Ben Simons became the 23rd player in Drake basketball history to pass the 1,000-point mark, with 20 points to give him 1,009 career points. Joey King was the leading scorer for the Bulldogs, setting a career high with 21 points.

Senior Jordan Clarke recorded his fourth consecutive double-double, adding 12 points and 11 rebounds for the Blue and White. Clarke set the tournament's rebounding record with 39 boards in three games.

Xavier, which trailed 30-26 at halftime, used an 11-0 run to regain the lead, 44-36, midway through the second half. Drake clawed back on multiple occasions in the second half, but the Musketeers pulled away with a 6-0 run in the final four minutes of the game that increased their lead to as many as 11.

Nov. 30, 2012 • Reno, Nev.
Lawlor Events Center • 6,469

Led by five players scoring in double-figures, the Drake University men's basketball team defeated Nevada, 76-66, on the road in the Mountain West/Missouri Valley Challenge.

Richard Carter had his best game to date in a Drake uniform with 16 points, a game-high seven rebounds and four assists with just one turnover. The junior college transfer was 6-of-12 from the field as the Bulldogs shot 44.6 percent from the field and a 45 percent (9-of-20) from three-point range.

Despite the offensive numbers, Drake's defense and rebounding won the game against a Nevada squad that won 28 games and its conference title last season. The Wolf Pack shot 41.2 percent from the field as the Bulldogs' defense imposed its will in the second half to allow just 30.8 percent shooting.

On the boards, Jordan Clarke led an offensive rebounding attack that held a 10-5 advantage to allow Drake to outscore the Wolf Pack, 14-0, on second chance points. Clarke finished with six total boards to go along with his 15 points, two assists and two steals.

Perennial NCAA participant Saint Mary's had five players score in double-figures to defeat the Drake University men's basketball team, 88-73, at the Knapp Center in a game that was part of the DIRECTV Classic.

The Bulldogs never were able to find an offensive rhythm and were limited to 41.2 percent shooting from the field. The team's three-point offense came into the contest averaging 10 three-pointers per game and was limited to six three-pointers, many of them coming with the game out of reach.

Jeremy Jeffers tallied a career-high 16 points to lead the Bulldogs in the loss. Seth VanDeest recorded 15 points before fouling out with just under five minutes to play and Ben Simons added 11 points.

Australian Olympian Matthew Dellavedova was a matchup problem all night for the Bulldogs, finishing with a game-high 31 points to pace the Gaels. Brad Waldow was a force inside, nearly recording a double-double against a defense that was hindered by the absence of Jordan Clarke.

Dec. 8, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 2,867

Senior Chris Hines scored 19 points to lead the Drake University men's basketball to a 74-64 win against IPFW at the Knapp Center.

Hines', a fifth-year senior transfer from Utah, found a more active role on the offensive end and scored his highest point total since transferring to Drake and two shy of his career high. The senior shot 50 percent from the three-point line (3-of-6) and led the team with six free throws on eight attempts.

Junior Ben Simons continued to leave his mark in the Drake record books. With 15 points on the night, Simons moved to 20th on the all-time list.

IPFW pressured Drake throughout most of the second half, causing them 11 second-half turnovers. However, junior Richard Carter found holes in the lane and dished out a career-high eight assists. He also badgered the Mastodons' guards and grabbed five steals, also a career best.

Freshmen Micah Mason and Joey King combined to score 29 points, but the Drake men's basketball team couldn't overcome a hot-shooting Wichita State squad as the Shockers downed the Bulldogs, 75-63, at the Knapp Center.

Mason was 4-of-7 from the three-point arc for 14 points, 11 of them coming in the second half. King scored a late flurry of points on a 7-of-10 performance from the floor for 15 points.

Wichita State was 12-of-25 from the three-point arc and scored 29 points off Drake's 19 turnovers. The Shockers were paced by Nick Wiggins' 18 points and four three-pointers.

Drake trailed by as many as 17 with eight minutes left in the game but clawed back within eight points in the final minute thanks to back-to-back baskets by King as part of an 8-0 run.

Forced to foul in the final minute, the Shockers were able to drain enough free throws to pull away for the 12-point win.

That 17-point WSU cushion developed thanks to WSU hitting four threes in the first 10 minutes of the second half.

Freshman Joey King matched a career high with 21 points, but it wasn't enough for the Drake University men's basketball team to push past Missouri State as the Bears held on for a 77-65 win at the Knapp Center.

King matched his career-best set earlier this season against Xavier in the Direct TV Classic. He also led the team in rebounds with seven. Senior Ben Simons poured in 17 points, 14 in the second half.

The Bears shot 44 percent from three point range on the night, hitting eight of their 18 attempts. They began the game making five of their first nine from distance.

The Bulldogs opened the second half on a 10-2 run, thanks for four points each by King and senior Chris Hines and a Simons three-pointer. The Bears' led fluctuated throughout the remainder of the half with the Bulldogs coming within two at 55-53 with 7:10 to play.

A Gavin Thurman three-pointer with 2:05 to play extended the Missouri State lead to 64-57 and Anthony Downing hit six consecutive free throws to seal it.

The Bulldogs were led by Joey King with 17 points off of the bench. All five of the freshman's made shots were from three-point distance for his third highest point total of the season. Creighton had four players in double figures with Ethan Wragge leading all scorers with 22 points.

The MVC-leading Bluejays shot 64 percent from the field on the night, including 16 three-pointers. The Bulldogs were unable to get many open shots and converted on 35 percent from the field (21-of-59) and 32 percent from three (9-of-28). The squad struggled early, scoring nine points in the first 10 minutes of the contest.

The Bluejays came out gunning with three-pointers by Grant Gibbs, Doug McDermott and Jahenns Manigat to give Creighton an 11-2 lead. Before the Bulldogs were able to gather their bearings, the hosts had jumped out to a 21-point lead, 30-9, 10 minutes into the game.

A career-high 23 points from Chris Hines and a tough second-half defensive effort helped propel the Drake University men's basketball team over Illinois State, 82-77, at Redbird Arena.

Facing a 9-point first-half deficit after allowing the Redbirds to shoot 54.8 percent from the field, the defense stole the show in the second half by keeping Illinois State without a field goal for the first 6:13 of the half to take the lead. The Redbirds mustered just 32.4 percent shooting in the stanza.

Jordan Clarke scored Drake's first six points of the half and finished the game with a 16-point, 11-rebound effort that included 7-of-7 shooting.

Fellow senior Ben Simons capped the run that gave the Bulldogs the lead at 46-44 with five straight points. Simons matched Hines with 23 points, five rebounds and three assists.

With 6:31 left, Drake still led by 14 points, 72-58, before the Redbirds started to chip away at the margin. A 15-5 run by ISU closed the gap to two possessions, 77-73, with 47 seconds left.

Chris Hines' 21 points and three others in double figures led the Drake University men's basketball team to an 83-69 win at the Knapp Center.

Leading by just one point at halftime, 39-38, the Bulldogs came out on fire in the second half, hitting 15-of-23 shots from the floor (65.2 percent), including 7-of-9 from behind the arc (77.8 percent).

Drake was strong on the defensive end as well as the team held Evansville to just 7-of-24 from the field (24.1 percent) and 1-of-13 from behind the three-point line in the second half.

After Colt Ryan knocked down two free throws to give Evansville a 57-56 lead with 11:52 left in the game. Drake answered with a 15-4 run, the last on a jumper by Joey King (Eagan, Minn.), to give the Bulldogs a 71-59 lead that forced Evansville to take a timeout with 4:53 left in the game to try and stop the bleeding.

However, Evansville had no answer for Drake out of the timeout as the Bulldogs would go up by as many as 16 points on the way to their first MVC win.

An early first-half deficit coupled with a 16-0 UNI run in the second half proved to be too much for the Drake University men's basketball team to overcome as the Panthers defeated the Bulldogs, 85-55.

Richard Carter scored 16 points on 6-of-12 shooting, but the previously hot-shooting Bulldogs converted on just 35.6 of their attempts in the loss.

Deon Mitchell led UNI with 20 points to pace four Panthers in double-figures including Jake Koch with 16 points on near-perfect 7-of-8 shooting. As a team, UNI converted on 60 percent of their shots and were shooting above 70 percent from the field for the majority of the second half.

Halfway through the first half, Drake held a two-point lead before a 13-0 run vaulted UNI into a 11-point, 28-17, lead with over a 3:13 span.

Coming out of intermission, the Bulldogs couldn't reverse the momentum as UNI used a 16-0 run four minutes into the second half to extend its lead to 28 at 59-31.

The Drake University men's basketball team outlasted a furious second half rally by No. 17/12 Creighton to stun the Bluejays, 74-69, in a thrilling finish before a crowd of 6,162 fans at the Knapp Center.

Four Bulldogs scored in double figures, led by Richard Carter, who had 20 points coming off the bench. Ben Simons and Jeremy Jeffers scored 13 points each and Daddy Ugbede had a career performance with 12 points.

Despite shooting over 50 percent in the first half, the Bulldogs struggled from the field in the second half and finished the game shooting 24-for-54 from the field, for a 44.4 percent clip. Drake also connected on eight shots from three-point range. Creighton finished the game with a 45.0 percent performance from the field. However, Drake's defense held the nation's top three-point shooting team to a frigid 23.8 percent mark from three-point range on five makes.

Creighton was led by the efforts of All-American Doug McDermott who scored 19 points, but only had two in the second half.

Wichita State 71

Feb. 13, 2013 • Wichita, Kan.
Charles Koch Arena • 10,211

Wichita State used a 14-point first-half lead to withstand multiple second-half rallies from the Drake University men's basketball team and defeat the Bulldogs, 71-56.

Drake was led by Ben Simons with 15 points on 5-of-11 shooting. His 15 points moved him into the top 10 in career scoring at Drake with 1,294 career points. Richard Carter added 11 points and six assists while Jordan Clarke continued his strong play with 10 points for his fifth straight game in double-figures and eight boards.

Drake was held to just two points in the final 9:37 of the first half to allow the Shockers to build up a 30-16 lead at halftime that would ultimately prove insurmountable for the Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs came out firing in the second half and connected on three-straight three-pointers to cut the lead to nine, 34-25, in the first two minutes of the half. The spurt was indicative of the Bulldogs' improved second-half offense as the team connected on 52.4 percent of its shots in the second half and 7-of-12 from the three-point arc.
