- The Drake University men's basketball team plays its final road contest of the Missouri Valley Conference season on Wednesday night when it visits Indiana State for a 6:05 p.m. CST tipoff.
- Drake won the first meeting between the two teams with a 74-71 overtime victory on Feb. 2.
- The Bulldogs make the annual trek to Terre Haute with a 13-15 overall record and a 6-10 mark in MVC games. The Bulldogs have won two straight games including a 71-54 win over Green Bay on Saturday in the BracketBusters.
- Indiana State is 17-11 overall and 9-7 in the MVC, but the Sycamores have dropped three straight conference games.
- The squad averages 67.5 points per game on 44.0 percent shooting. Jake Odum and Manny Arop lead the team with 14.3 and 12.6 points per game, respectively. Odum has also gotten to the line 210 times this season where he is a 77.6 percent shooter.
- Senior Jordan Clarke, who missed the Green Bay contest with injury, has been a huge boost to the Bulldogs as of late with seven straight games in double-figure scoring and four double-doubles in that span. In those seven games, he is averaging 12.8 points and 10.0 rebounds per game while shooting 57.4 percent from the floor and 81.3 percent from the free-throw line.
- On the season, the Bulldogs are converting from the arc at a 39.4 percent clip to rank 15th nationally in three-point shooting.
- The Bulldogs have made 10 or more three-pointers in a game 10 times this season and twice in the last six games. Creighton is the only MVC program that has more games with at least 10 three-pointers made.

Head Coach

Mark
PHELPS

Fifth Season

@CoachMarkPhelps

Mark Phelps is in his fifth season as head coach of the Bulldogs' men's basketball program in 2012-13, driven by a passion and commitment to elevate Drake to levels of consistent excellence on and off the court. His dedicated approach to recruiting and program-building over his first four seasons has established a solid foundation to achieve sustainable success.

The 2011-12 season showed significant signs of both the steady progress and potential of the Drake program, as the Bulldogs qualified for a postseason tournament for the third time in the last five seasons (2008 NCAA, 2009 CIT), and second in Phelps' four-year tenure as head coach. The first-round Collegeinsider.com Postseason Tournament win over North Dakota was Drake's first victory beyond the conference tournament since 1975. The Bulldogs won 18 games, the most in Phelps' career and tied for ninth-most in school history.

In addition, Drake posted a winning record for the second time in Phelps' four years, making him the first Drake head coach in 50 years to post two winning seasons in his first four (17-16 in 2008-09). Drake's third-place finish (9-9, tied with four teams) in the Missouri Valley Conference was its second-highest in the MVC standings in the last 26 years. The 9-9 MVC record of 2011-12 was the best by Phelps and tied for second-best by a Drake team since 1986.

With 62 wins in his first four seasons, Phelps has more victories than any Drake coach in his initial four years on the job. No Drake head coach since Maury John (.555 from 1958-62) has had a better winning percentage in the equivalent span of his career than Phelps (.473).

All of that success last season was achieved without starting center Seth VanDeest, who missed the entire season after undergoing surgery to repair a torn labrum in his left shoulder. The 2011-12 Bulldogs overcame significant injury adversity that impacted the starting lineup, but were guided through the storm by a coaching staff that remained steady and consistent, helping players elevate to a new level of performance.

One of those players was Ben Simons, who played every position on the floor and more than doubled his sophomore scoring average of 8.1 to a figure of 16.4, fourth-best in the MVC in 2011-12. Simons was joined by Jordan Clarke, who put up career-best averages of 6.0 points and 7.0 rebounds, while handling the post position in VanDeest's absence.

Simons was named captain of the MVC's Most Improved Team, while also earning second-team All-MVC and second-team NABC All-District recognition along with sophomore Rayvonte Rice. Clarke was named second-team MVC Scholar-Athlete.

In the fifth year of building his program, Phelps and his coaching staff will welcome eight scholarship newcomers in 2012-13, including five freshmen and three transfers, wrapped around an experienced nucleus of five returning players who have been regular starters for the Bulldogs.

The collective talent level of the eight incoming players demonstrates the tremendous recruiting acumen of Phelps and his staff, building on previous recruiting success that has gained notice across the country.

ON THE BENCH

CHRIS BRAZELTON
Assistant Coach

Joined the Drake men's basketball coaching staff as an assistant coach on May 24, 2012. He comes to Drake after spending the past five seasons as an assistant coach at the University of California Riverside. Brazelton joined the UCR staff under head coach Jim Wooldridge in 2007 after one year as a graduate assistant at the University of New Orleans under Buzz Williams.

STAN JOHNSON
Assistant Coach

Enters his second season with the Bulldogs in 2012-13 after being named an assistant coach on June 20, 2011. He spent the previous three years at the University of Utah as an assistant coach for the Utes.

BRETT NELSON
Assistant Coach

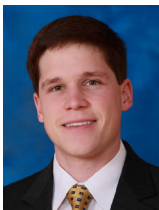

Enters his second season with the Bulldogs' program and is in his eighth season in the coaching ranks after an All-America playing career at Florida. Nelson joined Phelps' staff at Drake after spending the 2010-11 season at Arkansas.

NATE MEYER
Director of Operations

Was promoted to coordinator of basketball operations for the Drake men's basketball program on May 24, 2012. The Urbandale, Iowa, native had previously served two years as a graduate manager.

GEORGE NEILSON
Graduate Manager

ADAM URNESS
Graduate Manager

A WIN WOULD ...

- Make Drake 14-15 on the season and 7-10 in the Missouri Valley Conference.
- Be Drake's eighth win in its last 14 games and third straight win.
- Make Drake 37-40 all-time against the Sycamores and 11-26 in the Hulman Center.
- Be the Bulldogs' first season sweep of the Sycamores under head coach Mark Phelps.
- Be head coach Mark Phelps' 76th win at Drake, the sixth most in Drake history.
- Be the Bulldogs' fifth road and or neutral site win of the season.
- Be the 1,163rd win in program history.

A LOSS WOULD ...

- Drop Drake to 13-16 on the season and 6-11 in the MVC.
- Make Drake 36-41 against the Sycamores and 10-27 in the Hulman Center.
- Be Drake's first loss in its last three games.

SIMONS JOINS THE TOP 10

- Senior Ben Simons' 15 points at Wichita State moved him into 10th all-time at Drake with 1,294 points. He added six points against UNI, 14 points against Bradley and 16 against Green Bay to vault all the way into eighth in Drake history with 1,330 career points.
- He needs 141 more points to move into seventh with Wayne Kreklow.
- He is also fourth in career three-pointers at Drake with 226.

DRAKE RECORDS MVC'S TOP DEFENSIVE SHOWING ON BRACKETBUSTERS SATURDAY

- Drake cruised to its easy win over Green Bay thanks in large part to the defense holding the Phoenix to just 0.80 points per possession.
- That average was a season best mark for the Bulldogs and the best by an MVC team in BracketBusters this season.
- Additionally, Drake held Green Bay to just 20.7 percent shooting in the second half.

FREE THROWS PAVE THE WAY AGAINST BRADLEY

- In the win against Bradley, Drake made a season-high 38 free throws.
- That ranks as the second most free throws in program history and the most against a Division I opponent.
- Drake was 18-of-20 from the line in the overtime period.

VANDEEST STEPS UP AGAINST GREEN BAY

- Junior Seth VanDeest recorded his first double-double of the season and the second of his career in the win over Green Bay as he was forced into extra service with Jordan Clarke out due to injury for the contest.
- The center scored 15 points and hauled in 10 rebounds with two assists in 32 minutes against the Phoenix.
- His other double-double came against Boise State on Dec. 12, 2010 with a 13-point, 10-rebound effort.

INDIANA STATE	71
DRAKE	74

Feb. 2, 2013 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 4,439

Led by senior Ben Simons' fourth 20-point game of the season, the Drake University men's basketball team outlasted Indiana State in overtime, 74-71, at the Knapp Center.

Four Bulldogs finished the game in double figures, led by Simons' 21 points. Senior Jordan Clarke had 13 points, followed by 12 from freshman Joey King and 11 points from junior Richard Carter, who joined the starting lineup for the first time since Jan. 5 against Missouri State.

Drake outshot Indiana State, finishing the game shooting 49.1-percent from the field and 50 percent from beyond the arc. The Sycamores shot 47.4-percent from the field, but were held to just 23.5-percent from three-point range.

Shaded cells indicate opponent was held below season average in category
 * For overtime games, points and possessions are limited to 40 minutes for consistent comparison.

- In MVC play, Drake is playing at a 69.8 possession pace, the second fastest in the MVC
- Drake's 79 possessions against Evansville in the first meeting this season are the most in a regulation-length MVC game this season.

DEFENSE STUMBLES IN LOSSES

- In its MVC losses, Drake has allowed 1.15 points per possession, compared with just 1.02 points per possession allowed in its wins.
- That 0.13 point per possession difference when spread out over Drake's average MVC game accounts for a 9.1-point difference.

HINES SHINES IN WINS

- Just four days after being held scoreless at Creighton, Chris Hines exploded for a career-high 23 points in the win at Illinois State.
- His previous career high of 21 came exactly one year to the day earlier while he was playing for Utah in a game at Stanford.
- For an encore, he scored a team-high 21 points on 5-of-6 shooting from the arc with four rebounds and two assists against Evansville.
- In addition to leading Drake in its first two MVC wins, the fifth-year senior has been a key component in the majority of Drake's wins this season and scored a team-high 12 points in the win at Southern Illinois.
- Below are Hines' stat lines from the Bulldogs' wins this season.

- Following Drake with three is Creighton, Weber State, Duke and Michigan.
- Of the top-15 teams, two of them - Montana and North Carolina State - only have one player reach those benchmarks.

SIMONS' STREAK ENDS ...

- Senior Ben Simons was held without a three-pointer in the loss at Creighton to end his streak of games with a three-pointer at 30, then longest in the Valley.
- He was also held without a three-pointer at Southern Illinois and at home against UNI.
- In his 120 career games at Drake, he has only been held without a three-pointer 24 times and just five times in the last 61 games.

FROM THE ARC ...

- The Bulldogs remain one of the top three-point shooting teams in the nation, ranking ninth in three-pointers per game (8.8) and 15th in three-point percentage (.394).
- With three guaranteed games left on the schedule, the Bulldogs are on pace to finish the season with 276 three-pointers, the third most in school history.
- Drake has shot below 40 percent from the three-point arc just 12 times this season and better than 50 percent in five.
- Three-point shooting has been a hallmark of Drake teams under head coach Mark Phelps with the Bulldogs averaging 7.6 three-pointers per game on 36.7 percent shooting during Phelps' seasons at the helm of the squad.
- Of the top six seasons for three-pointers made, four have come during Phelps' tenure.
- Below is a summary of each team's three-point shooting over the past five seasons.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE FEAT

- In the win at Illinois State, Jordan Clarke and Joey King each recorded a double-double.
- Clarke's came via a 16-point - on 7-of-7 shooting, with 11-rebound night while King added 11 points and 11 rebounds with a career-high four assists.
- It marked the first time two Bulldogs recorded a double-double since Jan. 24, 2009 when Jonathan Cox and Craig Stanley did the same.
- That accounted for a period of 125 games or 1,449 calendar days.
- This season in the MVC, a team has had two or more players notch a double-double in the same game just four times. Creighton's Gregory Echenique and Doug McDermott each had a double-double in their contest against Evansville while SIU's Jeff Early and Desmar Jackson have done it twice (SIU-Edwardsville, Nicholls State).
- Below is a summary of the Bulldogs' 12 double-doubles this season. Jordan Clarke is currently tied for second in the MVC in double-doubles with nine.

KING NAMED MVC NEWCOMER OF THE WEEK

- Freshman Joey King was named the Missouri Valley Conference Men's Basketball Newcomer of the Week on last week on Feb. 4.
- King averaged 12 points and six rebounds on the week while shooting 60 percent from the field and 60 percent from three-point range.
- In Saturday's overtime win against Indiana State, he had 12 points with five rebounds - three offensive - and scored a pair of critical buckets in the final minutes of the second half. One of those baskets was Drake's final score of regulation to guarantee the overtime period.

REBOUNDING IMPROVING

- The Bulldogs are currently fourth in defensive rebounding team in MVC play, grabbing 73 percent of the available defensive rebounds.
- Drake has averaged 32.9 rebounds in MVC play, including a season-high 46 rebounds at Bradley.
- Drake averaged 30 rebounds per game during the non-conference season.
- Wichita State outrebounded Drake by one (34-33), however, the Shockers came into the game boasting a 9.3 advantage in rebounding margin on the season.
- At Illinois State, Drake held a 38-36 rebounding advantage and followed that up with a 36-33 advantage over Evansville and a 39-31 total over Creighton. Drake also held a three-rebound advantage in the second meeting with Evansville.
- In its 16 conference games, there have only been 27 occurrences of a player stepping on the court and not recording at least one rebound.
- To get a better impression of the Bulldogs' improvement on the glass, below is a breakdown of the team's rebounding percentages in MVC and non-conference games.

1.	62	Mark Phelps	2008-11
2.	55	Maury John	1958-61
3.	54	Tom Davis	2003-06
4.	51	Jack McClelland	1948-51
5.	45	Gary Garner	1981-84

- In just four seasons, Phelps already had more winning seasons than all but three of the Bulldogs' coaches since 1950 with two winning seasons. Below are the 11 Drake coaches since 1950, their winning seasons, total season and percentage of winning seasons in their career at Drake.

Coach	Winning Seasons	Total Seasons	Pct.
Maury John (1958-70)	9	13	.692
Bob Ortegale (1974-80)	4	7	.571
Jack McClelland (1948-55)	3	8	.375
Mark Phelps (2008-Pres)	2	4	.500
Gary Garner (1981-1987)	2	7	.286
Keno Davis (2007)	1	1	1.000
John Bennington (1956-57)	1	2	.500
Tom Davis (2003-06)	1	4	.250
Howard Stacey (1971-73)	1	3	.333
Tom Abatemarco (1988-89)	0	2	.000
Rudy Washington (1990-1995)	0	6	.000
Kurt Kanaskie (1996-2002)	0	7	.000

- Additionally, Phelps' MVC winning percentage in MVC games during the first five years of his career is the second highest of Drake coaches with a 5-year or longer tenure since the Bulldogs resumed MVC play in the 1950s.

2012-13

Shooting 4-of-7 in the last two games and 2-of-4 from the arc ... scored seven points on 2-of-4 shooting against Bradley ... had five points in the win over Indiana State ... was 2-of-4 from the arc at Missouri State ... had a streak of five straight three-pointers against Creighton and MSU ... scored 11 points on 3-fo-3 shooting and was effective in guarding Doug McDermott in the win over Creighton ... scored eight points, his second most of the season in 16 minutes on 3-fo-5 shooting at UN ... played 17 minutes with five points at Creighton on 2-of-5 shooting ... scored a career-high 16 points against Saint Mary's ... came off the bench on fire to score 11 points on 3-of-3 shooting from the arc at Nevada ... hit a three-pointer to finish with three points at Detroit ... played 11 minutes with four points in the opener ... did not play in the exhibition against SBU due to a concussion suffered in practice ...

Versatile wing with excellent court vision for player his size, Jeffers made an impact after redshirting in 2010-11. In seven games before being sidelined the terrific passer and ball handler showed flashes of talent and promise, then averaged 9.3 points, 2.5 rebounds and 2 assists in four games on Drake's foreign tour to Australia and New Zealand in August 2011.

Played in every game in 2011-12 and moved into the starting lineup in the eighth game of the season against Air Force (12/3), he's started all but one game since.

WILLIAM JEWELL	66
DRAKE	96

Nov. 10, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 3,273

The Drake University men's basketball team officially opened the 2012-13 season with a 96-66 win against William Jewell at the Knapp Center. Ben Simons led all scorers with 25 points, 18 of which came in the second half. Richard Carter had a big game in his debut, scoring 19 points, including going a perfect 4-of-4 from three-point range.

The Bulldogs were hot from the field the entire game shooting 55.9-percent as a team on 33-of-59 shooting as well as 15-of-24 from three-point range for a 62.5 percent clip, the ninth highest single-game percentage in school history. At one point in the second half Drake had made 12 of its 15 three-point attempts. Additionally, Drake's 15 three-pointers tied for the sixth most in program history behind nine total three-pointers from Simons and Carter.

William Jewell was paced by two players in double-figures as Dillon Deck scored 16 points with seven rebounds while Ricky Tisdale added 14 points. As a team, the Cardinals shot 35 percent from the field and 13.3 percent from three-point.

DRAKE	79
DETROIT	85

Nov. 17, 2012 • Detroit, Mich.
Calihan Hall • 2,047

Senior Jordan Clarke recorded a double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds but it was not enough to rally back from a 14-point deficit as the Drake University men's basketball team fell at Detroit, 85-79.

Clarke's double-double came on 6-of-7 shooting from the field as the Bulldogs fall to 1-1 on the young season. Detroit was paced by Doug Anderson's 26 points and 10 rebounds while Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year Ray McCallum poured in 20 points, including a jumper with 13 seconds left to preserve the Titan win.

With four minutes to play, Drake was facing a 14-point, 76-62, deficit before the Bulldogs went on a 14-5 run capped by back-to-back three-pointers from Clarke and Ben Simons to pull within two points, 81-79, with 46 seconds left. Simons' three-pointer came courtesy of a possession generated by the defense forcing a critical five-second call on a Detroit inbound pass.

However, Detroit's next possession saw McCallum deliver his game-clinching jumper from the top of the key.

The Drake University men's basketball team fell in final minute to California, 73-70, in the opening round of the DIRECTV Classic in Anaheim, Calif.

Senior Jordan Clarke notched his second straight double-double, scoring 11 points and grabbing 10 rebounds while Ben Simons, Seth VanDeest, Richard Carter, and Gary Ricks, Jr. each scored 13 points, but their scoring could not hold off the Golden Bears' late charge. Justin Cobbs recorded 21 points followed by 15 from Allen Crabbe, almost all of which came down the stretch, to lead Cal past Drake in the closing minutes of the game.

Drake led by as many as nine points with seven minutes to play at 64-55, but Cal rallied and retook the lead at 67-66 with 4:20 remaining in the game thanks to a 12-2 run, fueled by the high-scoring guard combo of Crabbe and Cobbs.

In the second half, the Blue and White was able to take its first lead since the opening minutes with a 13-6 run Bulldog run to build a three-possession lead with Simons scoring seven of those points before Cal rebounded.

Five Bulldogs scored in double figures for the second consecutive night, as the Drake University men's basketball team pulled away from Rice, 77-66, in second round of the DIRECTV Classic.

Jordan Clarke stole the show for the Bulldogs with his third double-double in a row for Drake, notching 15 points and grabbing a career-high 18 rebounds. His 18 rebounds also set a tournament record, previously held by Diamon Simpson of St. Mary's in 2008, who had 17 against Cal State Fullerton. The senior also had four assists, two steals and two blocks.

Ben Simons scored a team-high 18 points to lead the Blue and White past the Owls. Seth VanDeest had a strong showing in the post to complement Clarke with 12 points and eight boards of his own. In his encore performance in front of his hometown crowd, Gary Ricks scored 10 points and had three assists. Chris Hines added 11 points. As a team, Drake shot 46 percent from the field and 44 percent from the three-point arc.

The Drake University men's basketball team got a pair of 20-point performances from Ben Simons and Joey King, but it wasn't enough to overcome a talented Xavier team as the Bulldogs fell, 74-70, in their final game at the DIRECTV Classic.

Senior Ben Simons became the 23rd player in Drake basketball history to pass the 1,000-point mark, with 20 points to give him 1,009 career points. Joey King was the leading scorer for the Bulldogs, setting a career high with 21 points.

Senior Jordan Clarke recorded his fourth consecutive double-double, adding 12 points and 11 rebounds for the Blue and White. Clarke set the tournament's rebounding record with 39 boards in three games.

Xavier, which trailed 30-26 at halftime, used an 11-0 run to regain the lead, 44-36, midway through the second half. Drake clawed back on multiple occasions in the second half, but the Musketeers pulled away with a 6-0 run in the final four minutes of the game that increased their lead to as many as 11.

Led by five players scoring in double-figures, the Drake University men's basketball team defeated Nevada, 76-66, on the road in the Mountain West/Missouri Valley Challenge.

Richard Carter had his best game to date in a Drake uniform with 16 points, a game-high seven rebounds and four assists with just one turnover. The junior college transfer was 6-of-12 from the field as the Bulldogs shot 44.6 percent from the field and a 45 percent (9-of-20) from three-point range.

Despite the offensive numbers, Drake's defense and rebounding won the game against a Nevada squad that won 28 games and its conference title last season. The Wolf Pack shot 41.2 percent from the field as the Bulldogs' defense imposed its will in the second half to allow just 30.8 percent shooting.

On the boards, Jordan Clarke led an offensive rebounding attack that held a 10-5 advantage to allow Drake to outscore the Wolf Pack, 14-0, on second chance points. Clarke finished with six total boards to go along with his 15 points, two assists and two steals.

Perennial NCAA participant Saint Mary's had five players score in double-figures to defeat the Drake University men's basketball team, 88-73, at the Knapp Center in a game that was part of the DirecTV Classic.

The Bulldogs never were able to find an offensive rhythm and were limited to 41.2 percent shooting from the field. The team's three-point offense came into the contest averaging 10 three-pointers per game and was limited to six three-pointers, many of them coming with the game out of reach.

Jeremy Jeffers tallied a career-high 16 points to lead the Bulldogs in the loss. Seth VanDeest recorded 15 points before fouling out with just under five minutes to play and Ben Simons added 11 points.

Australian Olympian Matthew Dellavedova was a matchup problem all night for the Bulldogs, finishing with a game-high 31 points to pace the Gaels. Brad Waldow was a force inside, nearly recording a double-double against a defense that was hindered by the absence of Jordan Clarke.

Dec. 8, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa
 Knapp Center • 2,867

Senior Chris Hines scored 19 points to lead the Drake University men's basketball to a 74-64 win against IPFW at the Knapp Center.

Hines', a fifth-year senior transfer from Utah, found a more active role on the offensive end and scored his highest point total since transferring to Drake and two shy of his career high. The senior shot 50 percent from the three-point line (3-of-6) and led the team with six free throws on eight attempts.

Junior Ben Simons continued to leave his mark in the Drake record books. With 15 points on the night, Simons moved to 20th on the all-time list.

IPFW pressured Drake throughout most of the second half, causing them 11 second-half turnovers. However, junior Richard Carter found holes in the lane and dished out a career-high eight assists. He also badgered the Mastodons' guards and grabbed five steals, also a career best.

IOWA STATE 86

Dec. 15, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa
Wells Fargo Arena • 13,180

Despite a season-high 18 points from Seth VanDeest, rebounding and foul trouble allowed Iowa State to pull away from the Drake University men's basketball team for an 86-77 win in the Big Four Classic at Wells Fargo Arena.

Each of Drake's top regular contributors in redshirt senior Jordan Clarke, senior Ben Simons and VanDeest found themselves in foul trouble early and saw limited minutes in the first half, playing just 10 combined minutes. Despite just playing five minutes in the first half, VanDeest and Simons exploded in the second half as Simons finished with 13 points to complement VanDeest's 18. Senior Chris Hines also recorded 13 points for Drake.

The foul issues hurt the Bulldogs most on the glass, as they were out-rebounded, 45-30. Clarke finished with a team high seven rebounds, despite only playing 25 minutes before fouling out.

Those fouls allowed Iowa State to take advantage of its chances from the charity stripe, as the Cyclones converted 30-of-41 from the free throw line.

Seth VanDeest led Drake for the second straight game with 19 points to help the Drake men's basketball team edge North Carolina Central, 72-69.

During the final eight minutes, neither team led by more than four points as the Bulldogs and Eagles went basket-for-basket before Ben Simons hit a three pointer with 2:47 left in the game to put Drake up, 66-65.

NCCU answered with a free throw to briefly tie the game before the Bulldogs went to VanDeest for back-to-back layups in the paint to take a four-point, 70-66, lead with 47 seconds left.

The Eagles didn't succumb to the 4-0 Drake run as Stanton Kidd drained a three-pointer on NCCU's next possession. Defending the in-bound pass, NCCU forced a jump ball to retain possession, but missed its attempt to take the lead with 16 seconds left with the rebound falling into Joey King's hands for his career-high 10th board of the evening. Out of a Drake timeout, Richard Carter was fouled and calmly drained both shots to give Drake its final three-point, 72-69, lead.

EASTERN ILLINOIS 56
DRAKE 74

Dec. 22, 2012 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 2,669

Hot shooting and a career-high 19 points by freshman Micah Mason helped the Drake men's basketball team defeat Eastern Illinois, 74-56.

Drake shot 56.1 percent (23-of-41) from the field while connecting on 13-of-22 from behind the three-point arc (59.1 percent) and 15-of-18 (83.3 percent) from the free throw line. Mason knocked down a career-high five three-pointers to go along with a career-high six assists in his second start. Eastern Illinois was led by Sherman Blanford with 18 points and seven rebounds.

Drake led for the majority of the first half and took a 33-26 lead into halftime courtesy of a 9-0 run to close the half as the Panthers' methodical offense dictated the tempo of the game.

However, the Bulldogs asserted control of that tempo in the second half as Mason made a three-pointer 25 seconds into the half and later added a layup as Drake built its lead to 38-26. The Panthers ended their scoreless streak after Alex Austin made a free throw at the 17:13 mark to account for five scoreless minutes for EIU.

BRADLEY 67

Dec. 29, 2012 • Peoria, Ill.

Cold shooting and turnovers combined to hamper the Drake University men's basketball team in its Missouri Valley Conference opener as the team fell at Bradley, 67-57.

Drake was second in the nation in three-point shooting coming into the game but managed just 18.5 percent (5-of-27) against a stingy Bradley defense that forced 18 Drake turnovers and scored 23 points as a result of Bulldog miscues.

Ben Simons led Drake with a double-double thanks to 13 points and a career-high 10 rebounds while Seth VanDeest and Chris Hines added 10 and 11 points, respectively.

Simons' 10 boards helped contribute to the team's season-high 46 rebounds with the Bulldogs holding a 12-rebound advantage over Bradley.

However, Drake shot an uncharacteristically low 33.9 percent (20-of-59) from the field.

The Braves were paced by Dyrucus Simms-Edwards' 20 points and eight steals while Walt Lemmon, Jr. added 23 points.

Freshmen Micah Mason and Joey King combined to score 29 points, but the Drake men's basketball team couldn't overcome a hot-shooting Wichita State squad as the Shockers downed the Bulldogs, 75-63, at the Knapp Center.

Mason was 4-of-7 from the three-point arc for 14 points, 11 of them coming in the second half. King scored a late flurry of points on a 7-of-10 performance from the floor for 15 points.

Wichita State was 12-of-25 from the three-point arc and scored 29 points off Drake's 19 turnovers. The Shockers were paced by Nick Wiggins' 18 points and four three-pointers.

Drake trailed by as many as 17 with eight minutes left in the game but clawed back within eight points in the final minute thanks to back-to-back baskets by King as part of an 8-0 run.

Forced to foul in the final minute, the Shockers were able to drain enough free throws to pull away for the 12-point win.

That 17-point WSU cushion developed thanks to WSU hitting four threes in the first 10 minutes of the second half.

Freshman Joey King matched a career high with 21 points, but it wasn't enough for the Drake University men's basketball team to push past Missouri State as the Bears held on for a 77-65 win at the Knapp Center.

King matched his career-best set earlier this season against Xavier in the Direct TV Classic. He also led the team in rebounds with seven. Senior Ben Simons poured in 17 points, 14 in the second half.

The Bears shot 44 percent from three point range on the night, hitting eight of their 18 attempts. They began the game making five of their first nine from distance.

The Bulldogs opened the second half on a 10-2 run, thanks for four points each by King and senior Chris Hines and a Simons three-pointer. The Bears' led fluctuated throughout the remainder of the half with the Bulldogs coming within two at 55-53 with 7:10 to play.

A Gavin Thurman three-pointer with 2:05 to play extended the Missouri State lead to 64-57 and Anthony Downing hit six consecutive free throws to seal it.

A red-hot shooting performance helped No. 13 Creighton cruise past the Drake University men's basketball team by a 91-61 margin.

The Bulldogs were led by Joey King with 17 points off of the bench. All five of the freshman's made shots were from three-point distance for his third highest point total of the season. Creighton had four players in double figures with Ethan Wragge leading all scorers with 22 points.

The MVC-leading Bluejays shot 64 percent from the field on the night, including 16 three-pointers. The Bulldogs were unable to get many open shots and converted on 35 percent from the field (21-of-59) and 32 percent from three (9-of-28). The squad struggled early, scoring nine points in the first 10 minutes of the contest.

The Bluejays came out gunning with three-pointers by Grant Gibbs, Doug McDermott and Jahenns Manigat to give Creighton an 11-2 lead. Before the Bulldogs were able to gather their bearings, the hosts had jumped out to a 21-point lead, 30-9, 10 minutes into the game.

A career-high 23 points from Chris Hines and a tough second-half defensive effort helped propel the Drake University men's basketball team over Illinois State, 82-77, at Redbird Arena.

Facing a 9-point first-half deficit after allowing the Redbirds to shoot 54.8 percent from the field, the defense stole the show in the second half by keeping Illinois State without a field goal for the first 6:13 of the half to take the lead. The Redbirds mustered just 32.4 percent shooting in the stanza.

Jordan Clarke scored Drake's first six points of the half and finished the game with a 16-point, 11-rebound effort that included 7-of-7 shooting.

Fellow senior Ben Simons capped the run that gave the Bulldogs the lead at 46-44 with five straight points. Simons matched Hines with 23 points, five rebounds and three assists.

With 6:31 left, Drake still led by 14 points, 72-58, before the Redbirds started to chip away at the margin. A 15-5 run by ISU closed the gap to two possessions, 77-73, with 47 seconds left.

EVANSVILLE 69
 DRAKE 83

Jan. 16, 2013 • Des Moines, Iowa
 Knapp Center • 3,694

Chris Hines' 21 points and three others in double figures led the Drake University men's basketball team to an 83-69 win at the Knapp Center.

Leading by just one point at halftime, 39-38, the Bulldogs came out on fire in the second half, hitting 15-of-23 shots from the floor (65.2 percent), including 7-of-9 from behind the arc (77.8 percent).

Drake was strong on the defensive end as well as the team held Evansville to just 7-of-24 from the field (24.1 percent) and 1-of-13 from behind the three-point line in the second half.

After Colt Ryan knocked down two free throws to give Evansville a 57-56 lead with 11:52 left in the game. Drake answered with a 15-4 run, the last on a jumper by Joey King (Eagan, Minn.), to give the Bulldogs a 71-59 lead that forced Evansville to take a timeout with 4:53 left in the game to try and stop the bleeding.

However, Evansville had no answer for Drake out of the timeout as the Bulldogs would go up by as many as 16 points on the way to their first MVC win.

 NORTHERN IOWA 85

Jan. 20, 2013 • Cedar Falls, Iowa
 McLeod Center • 4,215

An early first-half deficit coupled with a 16-0 UNI run in the second half proved to be too much for the Drake University men's basketball team to overcome as the Panthers defeated the Bulldogs, 85-55.

Richard Carter scored 16 points on 6-of-12 shooting, but the previously hot-shooting Bulldogs converted on just 35.5 percent of their attempts in the loss.

Deon Mitchell led UNI with 20 points to pace four Panthers in double-figures including Jake Koch with 16 points on near-perfect 7-of-8 shooting. As a team, UNI converted on 60 percent of their shots and were shooting above 70 percent from the field for the majority of the second half.

Halfway through the first half, Drake held a two-point lead before a 13-0 run vaulted UNI into a 11-point, 28-17, lead with over a 3:13 span.

Coming out of intermission, the Bulldogs couldn't reverse the momentum as UNI used a 16-0 run four minutes into the second half to extend its lead to 28 at 59-31.

 DRAKE 74

Jan. 23, 2013 • Des Moines, Iowa
 Knapp Center • 6,612

The Drake University men's basketball team outlasted a furious second half rally by No. 17/12 Creighton to stun the Bluejays, 74-69, in a thrilling finish before a crowd of 6,162 fans at the Knapp Center.

Four Bulldogs scored in double figures, led by Richard Carter, who had 20 points coming off the bench. Ben Simons and Jeremy Jeffers scored 13 points each and Daddy Ugbede had a career performance with 12 points.

Despite shooting over 50 percent in the first half, the Bulldogs struggled from the field in the second half and finished the game shooting 24-for-54 from the field, for a 44.4 percent clip. Drake also connected on eight shots from three-point range. Creighton finished the game with a 45.0 percent performance from the field. However, Drake's defense held the nation's top three-point shooting team to a frigid 23.8 percent mark from three-point range on five makes.

Creighton was led by the efforts of All-American Doug McDermott who scored 19 points, but only had two in the second half.

 MISSOURI STATE 78

Jan. 27, 2013 • Springfield, Mo.

The Drake University men's basketball team could not answer 26 points from Missouri State's Anthony Downing and a 71 percent second-half shooting performance as the Bears clipped the Bulldogs, 78-72, at JQH Arena.

Ben Simons led Drake with 19 points on 8-of-12 shooting. Micah Mason chipped in 17 points with four assists while Jordan Clarke nearly notched a double-double with nine points and 11 rebounds.

Drake appeared poised to break open the contest in the second half with an 11-0 run over the first three minutes of the period to take a 39-29 lead as the defense forced stops.

With 7:39 left in the game, Missouri State claimed its first lead of the second half on a Keith Pickens steal and dunk. Just two minutes later, the Bears had extended their lead to six points.

Facing a 5-point, 70-65, deficit with a 1:36 left to play after a Simons jumper, the Bulldogs allowed Nathan Scheer to get loose on the wing for a three-pointer to give the Bears an 8-point cushion with one minute remaining.

WICHITA STATE 71

Feb. 13, 2013 • Wichita, Kan.
Charles Koch Arena • 10,211

Wichita State used a 14-point first-half lead to withstand multiple second-half rallies from the Drake University men's basketball team and defeat the Bulldogs, 71-56.

Drake was led by Ben Simons with 15 points on 5-of-11 shooting. His 15 points moved him into the top 10 in career scoring at Drake with 1,294 career points. Richard Carter added 11 points and six assists while Jordan Clarke continued his strong play with 10 points for his fifth straight game in double-figures and eight boards.

Drake was held to just two points in the final 9:37 of the first half to allow the Shockers to build up a 30-16 lead at halftime that would ultimately prove insurmountable for the Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs came out firing in the second half and connected on three-straight three-pointers to cut the lead to nine, 34-25, in the first two minutes of the half. The spurt was indicative of the Bulldogs' improved second-half offense as the team connected on 52.4 percent of its shots in the second half and 7-of-12 from the three-point arc.

Feb. 16, 2013 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 6,711

The Drake University men's basketball team fell, 71-64, to a blistering shooting performance from Northern Iowa at the Knapp Center in front of a season-high 6,711 fans.

UNI shot 50 percent from the three-point arc to pull away from Drake despite the Bulldogs shooting 51.9 percent from the field. However, a 33.3 percent night from the arc and 18 turnovers kept Drake from being able to push past the Panthers.

Senior Chris Hines led the Bulldogs with 18 points by going 4-of-6 from beyond the arc. Senior Jordan Clarke recorded 13 points and 11 rebounds for his seventh double-double of the season, while junior Seth VanDeest chipped in 10 points and four rebounds.

UNI senior Marc Sonnen scored 17 points and had five assists for while Anthony James also scored 17 points, hitting 3-of-4 of his three-point attempts.

The Panthers answered a second-half Drake charge with three consecutive three-pointers by Chip Rank, James and Sonnen to put the Panthers up 61-50 with 4:10 remaining.

Feb. 20, 2013 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 3,825

Senior Jordan Clarke scored a career-high 20 points with 15 rebounds as the Drake men's basketball stormed to a 92-84 come-from-behind victory over Bradley in overtime at the Knapp Center.

With the Bulldogs trailing, 70-68, redshirt-junior Seth VanDeest was fouled with 1.2 seconds to play in the second half. After a bounce off the back rim, his first free throw dropped in and the second was true the entire way to send the game to overtime at 70 points apiece.

Clarke had seven of his 20 points in the overtime before fouling out to help seal the victory. He made a season-high 10 of the 12 free throws he attempted, including five in the extra period. Five Bulldogs scored in double-figures while Will Egolf led Bradley with 21 points on the night.

The game was Clarke's seventh straight in double-figure scoring and ninth double-double of the season.

GAME 28

GREEN BAY 54
DRAKE 71

Feb. 23, 2013 • Des Moines, Iowa
Knapp Center • 3,892

The Drake University men's basketball team controlled the entire second half with defense to defeat the Green Bay Phoenix, 71-54, in the Ramada Worldwide BracketBusters.

Senior Ben Simons led Drake with 16 points by going 6-of-10 from the field and 4-of-6 from the three-point arc. The sharpshooter's night moved him into eighth in career scoring at Drake with 1,330 career points. Redshirt junior Seth VanDeest recorded his second career double-double with 15 points and 10 boards. He was pressed into extra duty in the paint as the Bulldogs were without the services of the injured Jordan Clarke. Senior Chris Hines added 14 points while freshman Kori Babineaux recorded a career-high 10 points.

Drake started the second half hot, converting 75 percent of its shots to go on a 9-2 run and open up a 51-40 lead, forcing the Phoenix (15-13, 9-5 HL) to call a timeout with 14:55 on the clock. Despite the offensive firepower, it was the defense that generated the offensive burst as Drake held the Phoenix to just 20.7 percent shooting in the second half.
