The Drake University men's basketball team takes to the road in search of its first Missouri Valley Conference win of the season when it faces Loyola on Wednesday evening at 7 p.m.

Wednesday's game will be the third between the two programs as MVC foes after the teams split last season's series with each winning on its home court. Drake and Loyola were picked ninth and 10th, respectively, in the preseason MVC poll. Loyola is the first MVC team that Drake has faced this season that was not ranked in the top five of the league poll. Loyola is 2-2 in the MVC and 12-4 overall while Drake takes a 3-13 record and an 0-4 mark in league play to Chicago.

Sophomore center Jacob Enevold Jensen has scored in double figures in five of the last seven games and led the Bulldogs with 13 points at Missouri State. In the loss to Wichita State he hauled in a career-high 15 rebounds along with 12 points for his second career double-double.

The Wichita State game saw the Bulldogs hold a 38-29 advantage in rebounding in the loss and a decisive 12-6 lead on the offensive glass.

Drake's freshmen have played 38 percent of all minutes for the Bulldogs this season and account for 35.1 percent of their points. Against UNI, the class scored 55.5 percent of Drake's points, including the team's first 15 points of the game.

The Bulldogs' 13 losses have come to teams with a combined record of 146-62 (.702) this season.

Additionally, four of Drake's opponents (Wichita State, Green Bay and Valparaiso) are ranked in the top six of the Mid-Major Top 25 poll. Three of Drake's opponents are also ranked in the AP Top 25.

Ray Giacoletti was introduced as the 26th head coach in Drake men's basketball history during a press conference on March 28, 2013.

In his first season at the helm of the Bulldogs, he led the squad to a 10-3 start to the season that included the Fresno State Classic championship and a program-record five wins in the month of November. The team finished his first season with a 15-16 record.

Giacoletti served as an assistant coach at Gonzaga University for six seasons (2007-13), where he helped lead the perennial basketball power to six straight NCAA appearances, five West Coast Conference titles and a 163-41 (.799) record during his time on campus in Spokane, Wash.

In 2012-13, Gonzaga marched to a 32-3 record and spent the final three weeks of the season ranked No. 1 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls to earn a No. 1 seed in the West Region of the NCAA Tournament.

Giacoletti came to Gonzaga with 10 total years of head coaching experience and a three-year tenure as the head coach at the University of Utah where he led the Utes to a 29-6 record in his first season to tie for the third-most wins in program history and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. That squad won 18-straight games to win the Mountain West Conference regular-season title and recorded the best league record to date (13-1) in the six-year history of the league.

As a result, Giacoletti was named the NABC District 13, USBWA District 8, and Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. Sophomore center Andrew Bogut became Utah's first consensus national Player of the Year, winning the John R. Wooden Award, Naismith, National Association of Basketball Coaches and Associated Press Player of the Year honors. In three seasons on the Utah bench, he amassed a 54-40 record.

Prior to taking the reins at Utah, he served as the head coach at Eastern Washington University where he went 69-50 in four seasons, the best mark of any coach in the school's NCAA Division I history. He guided the Eagles to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2004, as well as the Big Sky Conference regular-season and tournament titles. In each of Giacoletti's first three years, the Eagles placed second in the Big Sky during the regular season and advanced to the tournament championship game. In 2002-03, Giacoletti led EWU to the NIT for the program's first postseason bid since 1947 when it was a NAIA program.

The 2004 Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year, Giacoletti directed EWU to a 17-13 overall record and an 11-3 mark in conference play that season as the Eagles won 14 of their last 18 games en route to winning the Big Sky Tournament. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, EWU fell to eventual Final Four participant Oklahoma State.

talented players on the bench redshirting.

- Slated to join the Bulldogs next season are a pair of Big Ten transfers and the 2014 Iowa high school leading scorer.
- Kale Abrahamson is a 6-8 forward that transferred to Drake from Northwestern where he played two seasons and averaged nearly five points per game as a sophomore.
- Graham Woodward started six games as a freshman at Penn State and appeared in 31 games for the Nittany Lions.
- Casey Schlatter was the runner-up for 2014 Iowa Mr. Basketball and led all scorers in the state with 35.7 points per game and a pair of 50-point games his senior season.

A YEAR MAKES A DIFFERENCE

- Jacob Enevold has avoided a sophomore slump as the center ranks ninth in the MVC in rebounding (5.7 rpg) and sixth in blocks (0.9 bpg) while adding 7.9 points per game on 53.0 percent shooting.
- Below are Enevold's stats through the first 16 games of last year, compared with this season.

BLOUNT RETURNS TO ALMA MATER

- Wednesday's game marks the return of former Loyola standout JR Blount to Gentile Arena.
- The current Drake director of operations led the Ramblers in scoring in 2007-08 and 2008-09 and ranks ninth in career scoring with 1,603 points.

REBOUNDING SHINES VS. SHOCKERS

- Drake recorded its second biggest rebounding margin of the season with +9-effort on the glass against No. 16 Wichita State.
- The advantage marked just the then second time the Shockers had been outrebounded this season while the Drake's 12 offensive rebounds tied for the second most the Shockers have surrendered this season.
- Additionally, the nine-rebound deficit was the biggest WSU has faced since Kentucky also earned a 9-rebound advantage in last season's NCAA Tournament.
- Drake has outrebounded its opponent in seven of 16 games this season and is 2-5 when doing so.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

- Drake's opponents have proven to be worthy competition this season as the Bulldogs' 15 Division I opponents to date boast a 156-86 (.645) combined record.
- The 13 opponents that have defeated Drake are currently 146-62 (.702)
- Drake's strength of schedule, which only factors in games against Division I opponents, ranks 21st in the nation and first in the MVC.

HOT SHOOTING AT TIMES

- Making shots has not been an issue for the Bulldogs with the exception of the second half of the last three contests.
- Through the first 12 games of the season, Drake ranked in the top 50 nationally in field goal percentage, three-point percentage and free-throw percentage.
- The team is currently ranked 141st in field goal percentage (.44.1), 112th in three-point percentage (.356) and 18th in free-throw shooting (.747).
- The Bulldogs have shot 50 percent or better in six of their last 14 games.

TURNOVERS HAMPERING OFFENSE

- Despite the proficient shooting, Drake has struggled to get shots off due to the offense turning the ball over on 22.3 percent of its possessions this season.
- Drake ranks 325th out of 351 Division I programs in turnover rate.
- Wisconsin leads the nation at 13.0 percent.
- If Drake committed turnovers at the national average of 18.1 percent and scored at their current rate, it would yield an additional 7.8 points per game.

DRAKE	62
DEPAUL	80

Nov. 18, 2014 • Chicago, Ill.
Allstate Arena • 5,340

Seniors Chris Caird and Jordan Daniels' 36 combined points weren't enough to lead a short-handed Drake men's basketball to victory as the Bulldogs fell, 80-62, at DePaul.

Caird scored 19 points on a 3-of-7 night from the three-point arc while Daniels went 7-of-13 from the field for 17 points. Each added a team-high four assists.

DePaul, which led for nearly 39 minutes of the contest, had five players in double-figures with Billy Garrett, Jr.'s 15 points leading the way. The Blue Demons shot 55.1 percent from the field and 45 percent for the three-point arc as the Bulldogs were unable to consistently generate stops to keep pace.

DePaul opened the game by hitting five of its first seven bucket from behind the arc to take a 19-8 lead following an 8-0 spurt.

The homestanding Blue Demons held the momentum and quickly stretched the lead back out to double-digits, 34-24.

Drake pulled as close as 12 points three more times in the second period, but all three charges were answered.

DRAKE	75
WESTERN MICHIGAN	91

The Drake University men's basketball team got off to a torrid start before faltering in the second half of a 91-75 loss at Western Michigan.

Freshman Reed Timmer led Drake with a career-high 23 points on 8-of-13 shooting with Chris Caird adding 13 points on a trio of three-pointers. Ore Arogundade added 11 points by hitting all three of his three-point attempts.

Drake opened the game by making its first nine three-point attempts and shooting 70.8 percent from the field to take a 46-41 lead into halftime. Despite the first-half offensive explosion, Western Michigan kept pace with the Bulldogs by shooting 61.5 percent from the field with Tucker Haymond scoring 12 of his game-high 24 points in the first half.

However, the hot shooting tailed off in the second half as turnovers handcuffed the offense while the defense surrendered points. The Bulldogs committed seven turnovers in the first seven minutes of the half to allow the Broncos to assemble a 16-0 run and take a 57-48 lead with 13 minutes left in the contest.

Senior Gary Ricks, Jr. scored 23 points on 9-of-12 shooting, but the Drake University men's basketball team's second-half rally against Portland came up short by a score of 71-59 at the Challenge In Music City.

Ricks hit a career-high five three-pointers while Jordan Daniels added 12 points to help Drake outscore Portland in the second half, 37-33. The Bulldogs shot 58.3 percent from the field in the half and 7-of-10 from the three-point arc during the second half, but that was not enough to overcome a 16-point halftime deficit.

The Bulldogs opened the second half on an 10-2 run in the first four minutes of the period with eight of those points coming from Ricks' hot hand as the defense generated stops.

Once the Bulldogs pulled within eight points, Portland stretched its lead back out to 14 as center Thomas Van Der Mars continued to control the paint with 14 points and six rebounds on a night that saw Portland hold a 31-20 advantage in rebounding.

A second-half surge from preseason All-American Ron Baker allowed the No. 16 Wichita State Shockers to escape the Knapp Center with a 66-58 win over the Drake University men's basketball team in the Missouri Valley Conference opener for both teams.

Baker scored 15 of the Shockers' last 18 points to seal the win and finished with a game-high 23 points. Tekelle Cotton added 17 points for the victors.

Despite the result, Drake saw a career night from sophomore center Jacob Enevold Jensen, who paced the Bulldogs with a 12-point, 15-rebound double-double. Enevold's 15 boards were a game and career high.

Drake outrebounded Wichita State 38-to-29 in the loss, and the Bulldogs doubled-up the Shockers on the offensive glass, 12-to-6. The 12 offensive rebounds were a season-high for the Bulldogs.

In addition to their work on the glass, the Bulldogs committed a season-low seven turnovers.
