Calvin Clark
2009 ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA third team
Academic All-America

"The emphasis which Drake places on academic excellence helped prepare me for the world outside the classroom. Drake gave me the tools I needed to grow intellectually and as a person, and then apply those tools in my everyday life."
- Calvin Clark

Matt Kuhn
2011 Capital One/CoSIDA first team
Academic All-America

"Drake, like many esteemed private schools, is focused on the idea of being a 'student-athlete.' That being first and foremost, we are students tackling the task of managing school while being a Division I athlete. Guys on this team are more dedicated to their school work than any other group of guys I've ever met and that is what has helped our team not only become a great soccer team, but also, great in the classroom."
- Matt Kuhn

Kevin Shrout
2008 & 2009 NSCAA
second team
Academic All-America

"Drake has given me a unique opportunity that I think many student athletes miss out on. Coaches and teammates that are constantly looking out for academics have shown me how important academics really are. I believe that being able to succeed in the classroom has allowed me to succeed on the field. Without others at Drake showing me the hard work it takes to be a successful student as well as a successful athlete, I wouldn't be in the position I am in today."
- Kevin Shrout

Luke Friberg
NSCAA third team
Scholar All-America

"Drake has given me great examples of people who put academics first. The combination of the mentors on the team along with the faculty and staff at Drake have shown me the advantages of applying myself both in scholastic and athletic realms. Without their guidance I wouldn't be where I am today."
- Luke Friberg

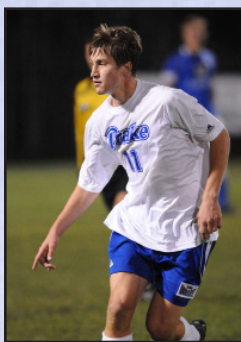

Nick Marshall
2013 Capital One/CoSIDA first team
Academic All-America/2012 Capital One/CoSIDA
second team Academic All-America

"My education here at Drake has been essential in preparing and shaping who I want to be both now and in the future. Drake has afforded me the academic opportunities and resources to make myself a valuable asset to whoever I work for following my playing career for the Bulldogs."
- Nick Marshall

Blake Siberz
NSCAA third team
Scholar All-America

"Drake is well known for its academics, so it was important for me to put the time and effort into my studies, doing the best I could on and off the field. Earning a degree from Drake gave me a leg up just by the reputation of the institution. My hard work paid off and I was very proud of being an All-American."
- Blake Siberz

Luke Gorczyca
2009 NSCAA second team
Academic All-America

"Drake developed and prepared me to distinguish myself in the real world. The teachers, coaches, and staff set the stage by promoting academics as a first priority over athletics, and that differentiates Drake from many other Division I programs in the right way. I learned valuable lessons throughout my four years, and I'd like to thank the players that came before me that established such high standards."
- Luke Gorczyca

Thomas Ostrander
2010 NSCAA first team
Academic All-America

"Academics are important to me because my Drake education is the one thing people can't take away from me."
- Thomas Ostrander

Brian Wurst
2009 ESPN The Magazine/
CoSIDA first team
Academic All-America

"My experience at Drake was incredible. Our success on the field was amazing, but what made my experience special was the balance between school and soccer. I was able to perform well in the classroom because of the tremendous support from our coaches and teachers. Our coaches continually stressed the importance of academics and the teachers were always accommodating."
- Brian Wurst, Drake's first-ever first team Academic All-America honoree.

Nick Foster
2010 NSCAA first team
Academic All-America

"The academic side of being a collegiate student-athlete, in my opinion, is more important than the athletic side. It is extremely difficult to become a professional athlete in any sport, but with hard work and dedication in the classroom you can ensure that you have a good opportunity upon graduation. The education I received at Drake was top-notch and fully prepared me for life after college."
- Nick Foster

Matt Sahag
NSCAA third team
Academic All-America
Graduate of the Drake
Law School

"I was exposed to a mentally, physically and emotionally demanding lifestyle at Drake. I know what it feels like to be both physically and mentally drained, yet still be expected to maintain focus. I experienced personal satisfaction in competition and learned concepts like teamwork. The principles and lessons that I have learned are applicable to all aspects of my life."
- Matt Sahag, Drake's first Academic All-American.

Adam Zenor
NSCAA two-time second team Scholar All-America

"Drake provided the right fit for me as far as combining competitive sports and high class academics. I could not have asked for a better preparation for Law School than I got at Drake."

-Adam Zenor, a three-year starter who earned degrees in English and law, politics and society in 2005. He graduated from University of Iowa Law School in 2008.
