Tip Off

Drexel and Northeastern will play at the Matthews Arena on Thursday, February 19 at 7 p.m.

Last Time Out

The Dragons dropped a close, back-and-forth road game to the Stony Brook Seawolves, 72-69, on Monday.

The Dragons scored first off a Kevon Vanderhorst three at 18:19. Back-to-back baskets gave Stony Brook the lead before a three from Victor Panov with 16:27 remaining in the half started a 17-6 Drexel run. A 6-0 Seawolf run made it a 20-16 game with 9:32 to go, but baskets by Shane Blakeney and Josh Reed put the Dragons ahead by 11 with 8:21 left. A 15-2 Stony Brook run helped them retake the lead with just over two minutes in the half before an Eli Beard three-pointer put Drexel back in front by one with 1:45 remaining. Two quick baskets from the Seawolves made it a 36-32 game with 30 seconds left. The half ended on a Panov three-pointer to bring Drexel within one going into the second frame.

Stony Brook started the second half with a 9-2 run before a Blakeney layup started an 8-0 run for the Dragons, capped off by a Vanderhorst layup to tie the game at 45 with 14:24 to play. The two teams traded baskets, with neither able to pull ahead. A Blakeney jump shot started a 9-4 run, which gave Drexel a four-point lead with 4:18 remaining. Back-to-back Seawolf baskets put Stony Brook back in front, but Vanderhorst responded with back-to-back baskets of his own to make it 67-63 with 2:33 left. The game ended on a 9-2 Seawolf run, with a final score of 72-69.

The Dragons outrebounded the Seawolves 41-29 and Drexel's bench outscored Stony Brook 16-10 on the night.

National Rankings

Since January 1 Drexel has posted the eighth best defensive effective field goal percentage (44.4%) in the nation. On the road, Drexel is ranked seventh in the nation (44.2%). On offense, The Dragons are ranked 36th in field goal percentage when on the road (56.1%).

Garfield Turner is ranked 37th nationally in offensive rebounding percentage (14.6%). Against Division I opponents Eli Beard ranks 33rd in three point percentage with 45.0%.

In the new year, Drexel's defensive efficiency ranks first in the CAA and third in the state of Pennsylvania at 102.4.

Career Highs

This season has seen players set career high points scored in 14 games.

Ralph Akuta, Eli Beard, Martin de Laporterie, Victor Panov (twice), Josh Reed (three times), Garfield Turner, Dillon Tingler (three times) and Kevon Vanderhorst (twice) have all set career highs in points.

The Philadelphia Big 5

The Dragons became a member of the storied Philadelphia Big 5 in April of 2023. Drexel joined La Salle, Penn, Saint Joseph's, Temple and Villanova as members of the Big 5, which was formed in 1955.

The teams are in two pods of three. This season the Dragons are in Pod 1 with Saint Joseph's and Penn. Each team played a home and a road game in the pod before playing in a triple header at the Xfinity Mobile Arena on December 6. Drexel went 0-3 in Big 5 matchups this season, with hard fought games at Saint Joseph's, vs Penn and against La Salle.

Drexel finished 1-2 in the Big 5 last year after defeating Penn, 60-47, in the first game of the tripleheader. The Dragons lost to La Salle and at Temple.

Last Top 25 Victory

In 2023 the Dragons picked up their first-ever Big 5 win at the Xfinity Mobile Arena with a 57-55 win vs. No. 18 Villanova, the first DU win vs. Villanova since the 2007 team upset the 'Cats. The win was the 200th in Coach Spiker's coaching career. Amari Williams had 12 points and five blocked shots, including the game-winner in the closing seconds, as Drexel defeated a top 25 team for the first time in 13 years (Louisville, '10). Drexel had lost five straight to nationally ranked teams. The win was just the fifth all-time against a nationally-ranked team and the second in 20 games against the Wildcats.

New Faces In New Places

There are five new faces on the roster this season:

Freshman Moses Hipps transferred from Boise State where he sat out last season as a redshirt. He was ranked a three-star prospect by both ESPN and 247Sports as well as being a top 250 recruit in the class of 2024. Hipps is originally from Voorhees N.J. where he was an All-Catholic League and First Team All-State at Archbishop Carroll.

Senior Eli Beard transferred from Mary Hardin-Baylor where he started 26 games and was named a First Team All-American after finishing second in the ASC with 22.3 points per game. In his two seasons at Mary Harden-Baylor he scored 1,083 points and had 122 assists.

Junior Martin de LaPorterie transferred from Yavapai Community College where he started every game last season while averaging 12.8 points and 6.4 rebounds per game as well as 39 rejections. He previously won a championship with the French U16 team.

Sophomore Dillon Tingler joins the Dragons after spending last year at Eastern Michigan. There he played in all 32 games and started five. He shot 37 percent from the floor and made five of his 17 3-point attempts as well as contributing 21 assists and only nine turnovers.

Freshman Ignacio Campoy Galvez has won nine championships. He is a three-time Spanish Champion, four-time Madrid Champion, and two European Championships (U16 and U18). He was the top scorer in the Spanish Championship and MVP of the Madrid league.

CBS Sports Network

Multiple games this season will be broadcasted on CBS Sports Network. The Dragons played on the network against their long-time foe, the Towson Tigers, on Martin Luther King, Jr. Day (January 19th), falling 59-58. Drexel next faced Elon Phoenix on the road on Feb. 7th where they won 82-77. The Dragons visited Stony Brook to play the Seawolves on February 16, falling 72-69. The final regular season televised game will be on February 21 at the Daskalakis Athletic Center against Towson.

CBS Sports Network will televise the semifinals (March 9) and the final (March 10) of the 2026 Jersey Mike's CAA Men's Basketball Championship from the Entertainment & Sports Arena in Washington, D.C., as part of the lead-up to CBS' coverage of the 2026 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship.

Winning Seasons

After an 18-15 record to end the 2024-25 season, the Dragons now have five straight winning season under Coach Spiker. Before last season, the last time that happened at Drexel was 27 years ago, when the 1996-97 team went 22-9 to secure its sixth straight season above .500. Drexel finished 10-12 in 2024-25, 17-15 in 2023-24 and 15-14 in 2021-22. During the Covid-19 shortened year, Drexel was 12-8 and won the CAA. Two years ago, the Dragons won 13 games in CAA play, giving them three straight seasons with at least 10 conference wins. That was the first time that happened at Drexel since the 2011-12 season. They have now had a .500 or better record in league play four straight seasons.

Player Continuity

Player retention under head coach Zach Spiker has stayed consistent through his tenure at Drexel. In his first four seasons as the Dragon's head coach (2016-20) he coached 32 players and in his last four seasons (2022-26) he has coached 31 players.

To put that in perspective, in April nearly 2,700 athletes entered the NCAA Transfer Portal across an estimated 350 schools. The estimated number of athletes who entered the transfer portal from 2022-24 was 1,649, 1,724, and 2,083. With an estimated 364 D1 Men's Basketball programs that would mean that an average of 4.53, 4.73, 5.72, and 7.42 transfer, leading to roughly 45-50 players being coached over that same time period.

In the Community

Drexel has been very active over the last few years in the West Philadelphia community. Head coach Zach Spiker has been involved since he arrived on campus. He was named the 2021 Lindy Center for Civic Engagement Award winner. He was given the Staff Award for Campus and Community Engagement by the Lindy Center and became the only Drexel coach to win the award. It goes to one staff member each year that exhibits the tenets of good campus or community partnership in their efforts regardless of their university role. Spiker has been a vocal supporter and helped raise funds for the creation of the Center for Black Culture.

Xfinity Mobile Arena

Drexel's game against La Salle was the second of two games played by the Dragons at the Xfinity Mobile Arena this season. This is the third straight year that Drexel has played there. The Dragons are 2-3 at the Xfinity Mobile Arena, with wins over Villanova and Penn and losses to Penn State, Syracuse and La Salle.

International Dragons

There are Dragons from five different countries this season. Victor Panov is from Russia, Clem Edomwonyin is from England, Martin de LaPorterie is from France, Villiam Garcia Adsten is from Sweden, and Ignacio Campoy Galvez is from Spain.

Players in the Pros

Since 2000-01, the Dragons have had more than 30 players sign professional contracts. Former Dragon Amari Williams was selected in the second round of the 2025 NBA Draft. Williams was selected by the Boston Celtics with the 46th pick overall.

Williams, who graduated in 2024, was the first player in CAA history to be named the Defensive Player of the Year three times. He was a two-time All-CAA First Team selection and was twice named the team's Most Valuable Player. He finished his career with 186 blocked shots, which ranks fifth in program history. Williams also grabbed 732 rebounds, good for 13th all-time at Drexel.

Other players who have played over the last few years include Damion Lee, Luke House, Samme Givens, Tramaine Isabell, Melik Martin, Dartaye Ruffin, Chaz Crawford, Frank Elegar, Zach Walton and Trevor John.

All-Time Series

Drexel is 46-29 against Northeastern. The Dragons won their most recent matchup earlier this season, 83-78.

Looking Ahead

The Dragons return home to host the Towson Tigers on Sunday, January 22. Tip-off is scheduled for 2 p.m. and will be covered by CBS Sports Network.

Zach Spiker is now in his 10th season as the head coach of the Drexel Men's Basketball program. Spiker and his staff have led the Dragons to five straight winning seasons for the first time since the 1996-97 season. Last season the Dragons were 18-15 overall and narrowly missed defeating the top seed in the Coastal Athletic Association quarterfinals. Spiker has continued to rebuild the roster and keep Drexel as a major player in the Coastal Athletic Association despite the changing environment in college athletics.

Spiker was named the 26th head coach in Drexel history on March 25, 2016 and just the sixth since the school became a Division I member. Spiker, the 2023-24 Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year, has had 14 All-Colonial Athletic Association selections and two CAA All-Rookie Team selections since taking over at the school. He has also recruited a CAA Rookie of the Year (Camren Wynter) as well as a three-time CAA Defensive Player of the Year (Amari Williams). Two of his recruits have been named to the CAA All-Rookie Team.

Drexel had one of its best seasons under Spiker in 2023-24. The Dragons won 20 games for the first time in more than a decade and for only the 11th time in school history. Spiker's squad earned a two-seed in the CAA Championships after a 13-5 regular season record in conference play after winning seven straight games to start conference play. It was their best start since joining the CAA. Spiker's team played well in the Daskalakis Athletic Center, closing the year with a 13-game home winning streak, the longest home winning streak since 2012. The Dragons were also undefeated at home in CAA games (9-0). With the 12 league wins, Drexel recorded its third straight 10-win season in the CAA, something that hadn't happened at Drexel in more than a decade. Prior to the 2023-24 season, the Dragons became part of the fabled Philadelphia Big 5. After suffering narrow losses in their first two Big 5 games, the Dragons defeated No. 18 Villanova in front of a crowd of 15,215 at the Wells Fargo Center. It was Drexel's first win against a top 25 team since 2010 and only the fifth win against a nationally-ranked team in Drexel's Division I history. It was also only the second time in school history the Dragons defeated their rivals from the Main Line. In addition, Drexel's Amari Williams became the first player in CAA history to win the CAA Defensive Player of the Year in three straight seasons. He also led the league in blocks for the third straight year.

In 2022-23, Drexel finished 17-15 overall and advanced to the CAA quarterfinals. The Dragons went 10-8 in CAA play, including a come from behind win against Charleston, a team receiving votes nationally, at the DAC for the second consecutive year. Williams picked up his second straight CAA Defensive Player of the Year.

The 2020-21 season was an unforgettable year. Games were canceled on numerous occasions by the pandemic, but the Dragons stayed discipline the entire year. The Dragons played just five home games due to other teams testing protocols, but that didn't deter them from their ultimate goal. Drexel knocked off James Madison in the final regular season game to earn the CAA's sixth-seed. The Dragons then returned to Harrisonburg for the Championships and proceeded to beat the College of Charleston, Northeastern and Elon on consecutive nights to win their first-ever CAA title and a bid to the NCAA Tournament. Spiker returned the Dragons to the tournament for the first time in 25 years. Spiker's team shot a blistering 58 percent from long-range during the CAA tournament as the Dragons advanced to the Indianapolis Bubble for their first appearance in March Madness since 1996. Camren Wynter was named the CAA's Most Outstanding Player, while Zach Walton and James Butler were named to the All-Tournament team. The Dragons had their magical run end at the hands of Illinois in the NCAA Tournament.

The Dragons followed that season up with a 15-14 mark during the 2021-22 campaign. Spiker's squad finished the year with a 10-8 record in the CAA, the most conference wins by a Drexel team in 10 years. The Dragons were 5-4 in league road games. Spiker's team became just the second Drexel men's basketball team to finish above .500 in back-to-back seasons in the last 17 years. Wynter was a First Team All-CAA pick, while Williams was named the CAA's Defensive Player of the Year and a Third Team selection. Matej Juric became just the second Drexel men's basketball player to earn the CAA's prestigious Dean Ehlers Award.

During the 2019-20 season, the Dragons picked up their first in-season tournament victory in 17 years by winning the Boardwalk Battle in Atlantic City, N.J. The Dragons defeated Quinnipiac and Norfolk State at Boardwalk Hall. Those were two of Drexel's seven non-conference wins, the most for the school in six years. In addition, Drexel won 10 games at the Daskalakis Athletic Center, marking the first time the team won 10 or more games at the DAC since the 2011-12 team won 15. Off the court, the Dragons compiled a 3.25 grade-point average during the winter quarter.

Spiker picked up his first victory at Drexel against Hartford in his first game at the DAC on Nov. 18, 2016. The Dragons have had some memorable wins in his time in University City. Drexel knocked off Houston, an NCAA Tournament team, at the Paradise Jam in 2017. The team made national headlines as it rallied from a 34-point deficit to defeat Delaware at the DAC on Feb. 22, 2018. That marked the biggest come-from-behind win in NCAA history.

The Dragons increased their conference win total for the second straight year and averaged 75.8 points per game in 2018-19, their highest average since joining the CAA. Drexel picked up a 79-78 win at the College of Charleston, which snapped the Cougars' 22-game home winning streak, which was the second longest in the nation at that time. Wynter won the CAA Rookie of the Year Award, joining Chris Fouch and Damion Lee as the only Drexel players to earn the award. Graduate student Trevor John set a school record by making 103 three-pointers as Drexel finished the year with 237 treys, the third-highest total in school history. Spiker's first team at Drexel made 256 three-pointers, breaking the mark set by the 1995-96 team.

Spiker came to the Dragons from Army West Point, where he spent seven seasons as the head coach of the Black Knights. He led Army West Point to its most win in more than 30 years in his final season. Spiker won 102 games during his time at West Point, which is tied with Naismith Hall of Fame coach Bob Knight for second all-time at the Academy. In his final season, Spiker led the Black Knights to a 19-14 record and tied for the best overall mark in the Patriot League. They earned Army's first postseason appearance since another Hall of Famer, Mike Krzyzewski, led them to the National Invitation Tournament in 1978. He is the only coach in Army history to win 15 or more games in four consecutive seasons, a mark the program has not achieved — even under multiple coaches — since 1920-24.

Spiker was selected as the 2016 Skip Prosser Man of the Year. He was named the 2013 Patriot League Coach of the Year award and was a finalist for the Hugh Durham Award, presented annually to the nation's top mid-major coach. Spiker was one of only seven coaches in the country to receive at least one vote for the Associated Press National Coach of the Year honor that season.

The 2015-16 Black Knights squad was one of the best in recent memory at West Point. The team's 19 wins were the most by Army since the 1977-78 season. Spiker's team also set a school record with 11 road wins. Army led the Patriot League in three-pointers and rebounding, and was second in scoring offense, putting up 76.9 points per game. It had top-30 national rankings in rebounds per game (40.58), defensive rebounds (28.21) and three-pointers made per game (8.9), as its high-powered offense was one of the quickest in the nation with 75.4 possessions per contest. Its 294 three-pointers made set a program record, surpassing the previous high-water mark by 30. The Black Knights hosted quarterfinal and semifinal games in the Patriot League Tournament before falling to eventual champion Holy Cross.

The 2015-16 Black Knights featured some of the most successful players ever to come through the Academy, all recruited and mentored by Spiker. Kyle Wilson finished his career with 2,001 points, becoming the fourth Black Knight and sixth Patriot League player ever to reach the 2,000-point milestone. Wilson's 100 three-pointers this year were second-most all-time in program history. Tanner Plomb finished as the 11th-leading scorer in program annals, netting 1,359 points. Kevin Ferguson, whose 205 career blocked shots are fifth in Patriot League history, concluded his career with 1,059 points. Dylan Cox netted 1,030 points in his career, making the Black Knights the first team in Patriot League history to feature four 1,000-point scorers on the same roster. Over his last four seasons, Spiker's team had 11 All-Patriot League selections, the most in a four-year span in program history.

Spiker's success at West Point did not happen overnight. As a rookie head coach in 2009-10, Spiker's squad won 14 games, the most for any first-year head man with the Academy since Knight's 18-win campaign in 1965-66. The growth continued for the Army program under Spiker's watch, and he joined Knight and Krzyzewski as the only coaches in the program's history to win 65 or more games in their first five seasons.

The Black Knights also excelled in the classroom during Spiker's tenure. Nate Hedgecock, who graduated in 2011, was that year's Patriot League Scholar Athlete of the Year and the first Army Academic All-America selection in 22 years.

Prior to his arrival in West Point, Spiker was one of the architects of the resurgent men's basketball program at Cornell University. He served as an assistant under Steve Donahue with the Big Red from 2004-09 and was instrumental in helping Cornell's recruiting efforts that culminated in three consecutive Ivy League titles from 2008-10. With those titles, Cornell became the first Ivy League institution other than Penn or Princeton to win consecutive league crowns.

Spiker joined the Cornell staff after spending the 2002-04 seasons at West Virginia University under Head Coach John Beilein. He helped the Mountaineers to an NIT bid in 2004. While in Morgantown, Spiker was responsible for managing on-campus recruiting visits, assisted with opponent scouting, postgame film breakdown and daily schedules. Spiker earned a master's degree in sport management from West Virginia in 2004.

After earning his bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca College in 2000, Spiker's first collegiate coaching opportunity came at Winthrop University, where he served as a graduate assistant under Gregg Marshall from 2000-02. Both years, the Eagles advanced to the NCAA Tournament after winning the Big South Tournament.
