Lady Panthers vs Lubbock Christian for the National Championship in NCAA-II

The Drury women's basketball program is in its 21st season, and in that time, they have established an all-time record of 544-110, and their .832 winning percentage is the best mark in all of Division II women's basketball.

The biggest prize of all, the National Championship, has eluded the Lady Panthers. On Friday, they get the second chance in program history to win the title.

Drury, ranked second in the nation and the number three seed in the Elite Eight, enters the championship game 24-1. The lone loss for the Lady Panthers came on Feb. 2 in a home setback to Rockhurst, 75-69, and since, Drury has won 14 straight. The Lady Panthers were an automatic qualifier to the NCAA-II tournament, winning their fifth straight Great Lakes Valley Conference championship, and they advanced to the Elite Eight by taking down Ashland 88-69 on March 15.

In the Elite Eight, Drury has trailed throughout the first half of both games but advanced through the national quarterfinals 74-66 over Charleston (WV), then reached the championship game with a 74-65 victory over Lander.

Lubbock Christian has been ranked number one nationally since Feb. 9, the first coaches' poll following Drury's Feb. 2 loss. The Chaparrals are undefeated at 22-0; they won the Lone Star Conference, then got to the Elite Eight with a 78-65 win over Southwestern Oklahoma St. in the South Central Regional championship game.

Lubbock Christian defeated Daemen in the quarterfinals, 66-49, then rallied from 10 points behind in the first half to edge Central Missouri, 63-61, in the semifinals.

Lady Panthers NCAA-II tournament history

The Drury Lady Panthers are in the NCAA-II tournament for the 18th time in their 21 seasons. Drury qualified for the event last year, but the event was canceled due to the coronavirus pandemic.

The Lady Panthers are 34-16 all-time in the national event with five regional championships, two national semifinal appearances, and one national Runner-Up finish (2004). This year, Drury reached the regional championship game for the fifth straight tournament and for the 11th time in program history.

The Lady Panthers are making their fifth Elite Eight appearance as they have won regional championships in 2021, 2019, 2014, 2007, and 2004.

Drury is in the National Championship game for the first time since 2004. The Lady Panthers lost their lone trip to the title game in a 75-72 loss to California (Pa.).

During their Elite Eight run, the Lady Panthers improved to 3-2 in the national quarterfinal round, and they improved to 2-1 in the semifinals with their win on Wednesday.
