- Several talented newcomers have contributed significantly in their first three weeks as Panthers: freshman KeShaun Thomas (14.0 ppg) has been a dominant force in the paint, scoring in double-figures in six of the Panthers' seven games, including a pair of double-doubles; fellow rookie Keion Epps is averaging 8.5 points as the Panthers' fourth-leading scorer, in addition to a GLVC-best 5.5 assist-per-game average; finally, redshirt freshman Isaiah Otyaluk has chipped in with 6.2 points per outing.

NOTEWORTHY

ROOKIE NO MORE

- Drury sophomore guard Colin Hardrick will look to make an even bigger splash in his second year on the court for the Panthers, despite a standout rookie campaign that netted the Milwaukee native GLVC All-Freshman and All-Defensive Team honors.
- Hardrick led the GLVC in steals (2.0 spg), while pacing the Panthers in rebounding (6.7 rpg) and assists (2.7 apg), in addition to scoring at a 10.2 ppg clip.
- The Milwaukee native picked up right where he left off in DU's season-opening trip to Illinois, logging 21 points and seven rebounds in the opening game, before posting a 14-point, 15-rebound double-double against Thomas More in game two.

A FINE HOW-ELL DO YOU DO

- The other multi-faceted half of Drury's potent 1-2 punch, junior guard/forward Zach Howell, also turned in a memorable debut season in Scarlet and Gray last winter.
- Like Hardrick, Howell hit the ground running in the first three weeks of the new season, bringing an average of 15.1 points per outing into Thursday's game.
- Howell tallied a season-best 21-point performance vs. Ecclesia (Nov. 19), then added a game-high 19 points in DU's win over Ozark Christian (Nov. 22), going 5-of-9 from three-point range.
- So far in 2025-26, Howell ranks among the GLVC leaders in scoring, assists (2.9), steals (2.1), assist-turnover ratio (1.5), three-point field goals made (22) and three-point shooting percentage (.440).
- Last season the Springfield native averaged 13.2 points and 4.6 rebounds per outing following his return home after competing for two seasons at Division-I Milwaukee.
- Howell was not only the Panthers' top long-distance threat with his team-best 72 3-point field goal makes, but also DU's No. 2 rebounder to go along with the team's fourth-best steal (23) total.

NEW PANTHERS PROVIDE A LIFT

- Drury's talented eight-man 2025 recruiting class has made an immediate impact for the Panthers over the first seven games.
- Freshman forward KeShaun Thomas has asserted himself early in the season as well, starting his DU career with five-straight double-digit point totals; the Quincy, Ill., native logged back-to-back double-doubles vs. Ozark Christian (Nov. 22) and Concordia-St. Paul (Nov. 25).
- Additionally, the freshman duo of Isaiah Otyaluk and Kevin Sargeant have each turned in memorable contributions over the first three weeks of their Drury careers; Otyaluk scored 19 points on 7-of-10 shooting vs. Ecclesia (Nov. 19), while Sargeant is averaging 5.0 rebounds, 1.5 steals and 1.0 blocks to date.

OFF AND RUNNING

- Drury is off to a 4-3 start, including its first 4-0 start since 2019-20, thanks in large part to a balanced and consistent offensive attack that averaged 78.3 points per game.
- DU picked up wins in its first two games at the GLVC/G-MAC Conference Challenge (Nov. 14-15), marking the third time in four years under head coach Chris Foster the Panthers have accomplished the feat.
- The Panthers have enjoyed balanced contributions from up and down its roster, highlighted by a combined total of 23 different double-digit scoring performances through seven games.
- Additionally, seven different newcomers have combined to score 249 points through seven games, led by freshman KeShaun Thomas's 14.0 ppg average.

PANTHERS CENTURY CLUB

- Drury topped the century mark in scoring with its 108-68 win over Ecclesia (Nov. 19), marking the first time the Panthers have done so since a 106-point effort vs. University of the Ozarks on Dec. 5, 2023.
- DU's 108 points marked its best offensive output since a 118-74 win over Missouri S&T on Jan. 13, 2018.
- The victory also marked the third 100+ point total for the Panthers under Chris Foster.

ROLLING IN NOVEMBER

- The Panthers logged a 4-2 month of November, giving them their third consecutive winning November.
- DU's 4-0 start to the season continued a recent string of success in the season's first month, with the Panthers going a combined 13-5 in November since the start of the 2023-24 season.
- Since becoming a full member at the Division II level in 1994, Drury has compiled a 113-54 record in the month of November.
- DU's last 4-0 start came in 2019-20, when it won its first seven contests en route to a 20-9 season.
- The Panthers have now started 4-0 a total of nine times as a Division II program (since 1994).

GLVC GAINS

- Drury has produced positive gains in the Great Lakes Valley Conference regular season over the past two seasons, including a nine-win league season a year ago that gave the Panthers their top GLVC total in four years.
- The Panthers have increased their conference win total in each of the last two seasons, improving from a 5-15 slate and a 12th place finish in 2022-23 to a 10th-place showing and an 8-12 record in 2023-24 to last year's 9-11 mark and ninth-place effort.
- Overall, the Panthers won a total of 29 games with their back-to-back winning seasons, marking their best two-year stretch since 2019-20 and 2020-21 (31-19).

DRURY TABBED FIFTH IN GLVC PRESEASON POLL

- Drury was tabbed fifth in the GLVC 2025-26 Men's Basketball Preseason Coaches' Poll.
- Sophomore guard Colin Hardrick is Drury's lone returning All-GLVC performer after the Milwaukee native averaged 10.2 points, 6.7 rebounds and a league-best 2.0 steals per outing in 2024-25 to earn All-Freshman and All-Defensive Team honors.
- The Panthers went 9-11 to tie for ninth in the GLVC regular-season standings last season.
- Drury received 121 points in the poll, finishing behind preseason favorite Missouri S&T (196), Lincoln (174), UMSL (161) and Rockhurst (141).

Chris Foster begins his fifth season at the helm of the Drury men's program and his 12th year overall as a collegiate head coach in 2025-26. Foster's rebuilding efforts at Drury have taken root over the past two seasons, as the Panthers posted their second consecutive winning season in 2024-25.

DU's growth over the past two winters has been evident on the court, as four different Panthers have earned All-Great Lakes Valley Conference honors, including sophomore guard Colin Hardrick. One of the conference's top all-around talents, Hardrick led the GLVC in steals while averaging 10.2 points and ranking among the league's top 10 players in rebounding to earn All-Freshman and All-Defensive Team honors.

The Panthers' 14-win season last year followed a breakthrough 2023-24 campaign that saw Drury post a 15-13 record, marking a six-game improvement from the previous year. The Panthers featured All-Great Lakes Valley Conference selection Logan Applegate, while Brock Wakefield was named to the All-Defensive team, and Juok Riak was selected for the All-Freshman squad.

Foster was named Drury's head coach on March 23, 2021, and arrived from McKendree, where he led the fellow GLVC program for three years. In 2020-21, he guided the Bearcats to their best finish ever in the GLVC as McKendree went 10-8 in the conference and ended the year in fourth place overall. The previous season, Foster put together the program's first-ever above .500 season at the NCAA-II level as the Bearcats went 15-13 and 10-10 in the conference.

Before his stint at McKendree, he was the head coach at Truman State, also a GLVC member, where he not only turned the Bulldogs around, but also laid the foundation for a program that has been one the best in Division II, as Truman advanced to the Elite Eight and was ranked as high as No. 2 in the nation in 2021.

Foster spent four seasons as Truman State's head coach putting together a record of 83-40. His team reached the NCAA-II tournament in 2017 and 2018, and their 2017 trip was their first national tourney berth in 11 years. While at Truman State, Foster recruited and signed four-time All-GLVC selection Brodrick Thomas, who reached the NBA with the Boston Celtics, Cleveland Cavaliers, and Houston Rockets.

Foster is the 20th head coach in Drury's 118-year history as a men's basketball program, and he is only the eighth man to fill the role since 1965.

Prior to becoming head coach at Truman State, Foster was the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator for the Bulldogs.

Originally from Ironton, Mo., Foster played college basketball for Northern Iowa, was an All-Freshman selection in the Missouri Valley Conference, and scored more than 1,000 points in his collegiate career. He was a part of NCAA tournament teams in 2004 and 2005, and currently ranks 44th on Northern Iowa's all-time scoring list.

Foster stayed at UNI to serve as a graduate assistant, then transitioned to director of basketball operations for the Panthers. After coaching at the high school level, he returned to his alma mater to rejoin the coaching staff as video coordinator in 2011.

Foster is 169-144 in 12 seasons as a collegiate head coach. His 2018 Truman State squad was the GLVC's co-West Division champion, and three of his teams have won the conference's Sportsmanship Award.

He and his wife, Kylie, have three children – son Jase, and daughters Avery and Riley.

NEW LOOK STAFF FOR 2025-26

- Drury's bench will have a bit of a different look this winter with the addition of two new assistant coaches for the upcoming season.
- Foster turned to a familiar face to fill one of those spots, hiring former DU assistant Sam Briscoe in May.
- Briscoe returns to the program after serving as an assistant under Foster in 2021-22 and two years as a graduate assistant for Steve Hesser from 2019-21.
- Briscoe will replace assistant Marc Sonnen, who resigned for an assistant coaching position at his alma mater, UNI.
- For the last three years, Briscoe has been a head coach at the high school level in the St. Louis area and, for the last two seasons, led the prestigious Christian Brothers College (CBC) program.
- The Panthers also welcomed former Iowa State staffer Brian Pearson to Springfield over the summer to fill the final assistant post on his bench.
- Pearson arrives at Drury after spending the past four seasons with the Iowa State men's program, where he contributed to four NCAA Tournament appearances and two trips to the Sweet 16 under head coach T.J. Otzelberger.
- During his tenure in Ames, the Cyclones amassed 95 wins, and Pearson played a role in the development of eight All-Big 12 selections.
