Covering the Hornets

Media Credentials

All requests for press, broadcast and photo credentials for DSU home basketball games should be directed to Dennis Jones (assistant media relations director) by calling (302-857-6068), faxing (302) 857-6034 or e-mailing djones@desu.edu. Requests should be made one week before the game.

As a general rule, working space is allocated on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper and wire-service writers covering for next-day publications; (2) radio and television personnel for broadcast origination; (3) newspaper and television photographers. Limited space is available for weekly representatives, nationally accredited internet news services and non-originating radio representatives on a game-by-game basis.

Interviews

ALL INTERVIEWS should be scheduled at least 24 hours in advance through the DSU Athletic Media Relations Office (302-857-6068). The best time for in-season interview Head Coach Greg Jackson is at practice.

The best time to interview players is before or after practice. DSU practice usually begins at 8:00 p.m. and end a 10:30 p.m. Call the Media Relations Office to confirm practice times for that week.

Please call at least one day in advance for all phone interviews. The DSU Athletic Media Relations Office will not distribute home/cell numbers for players or coaches. All phone interviews should be conducted during those times reserved for general media interview sessions.

Calling players at their homes or on their cell phones will NOT be tolerated.

THE DSU DORMITORIES, LOCKER ROOM, WEIGHT ROOM AND TRAINING ROOM ARE OFF LIMITS TO THE MEDIA AT ALL TIMES.

Post-game Interviews

The athletic staff at Delaware State University is aware of the importance of media coverage and places great importance on the role of the media insofar as it interacts with their respective duties. To ensure the most workable situation for members of both entities, the following procedures must be observed.

- 1) Delaware State University men's basketball program will observe a customary 10-minute cooling off period before beginning post-game interviews.
- 2) Interviews will be conducted following Coach Jackson's post-game radio interview (1290 The Ticket/1410 WDOV).
- 3) Players will be made available following a brief team meeting in DSU's locker room.

Each visiting team will set its own post-game interview policy. Check with the opposing team's sports information staff if you have further questions.

Statistics and Services

Complete statistics, play-by-play and post-game quotes will be available at all DSU home games. Game notes, game programs and media guides will also be available. Telephone and fax transmissions will be available after the game. A game recap/story along with statistics will be sent to media outlets and others requested by the visiting sports information director.

Internet Access

Memorial Hall is a wireless internet facility. Please feel free to contact a member of the DSU Sports Information staff for access information.

Scouting

All requests for scouting must be made through the DSU Athletic Media Relations Office in advance of game day. Press row seating will be arranged upon availability.

HORNETS MAKE STATEMENT IN LOSS TO FIRST PLACE BEARS

Baltimore, Md. (Jan. 23, 2010) --- The Delaware State men's basketball team sent a message to first place Morgan State, despite coughing up a 15-point second half lead in a 72-62 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) loss to the league-leading Bears at Hill Field House this afternoon.

The loss snapped a four-game winning streak for the Hornets, who fell to 8-8 overall and 3-2 in the MEAC. The defending champion Bears won their fifth straight to improve to 13-7 and 5-0. Delaware State also lost its sixth straight to Morgan dating back to the 2007-08 season.

Delaware State led 39-26 at the break, and opened up a 41-26 lead after scoring the first basket of the second half with 18:36 left to play. Morgan State rallied to outscore the Hornets 26-6 in the final 7:14 of the game.

"I thought we played extremely well for the first 35 minutes, but suffered some mental lapses down the stretch," said Delaware State head coach Greg Jackson. "You have to play a complete game to defeat a championship team like Morgan State. We will use this effort as a learning experience as we prepare for Coppin State on Monday."

Morgan State outscored DSU 46-23 in the second half. The Bears enjoyed a big advantage at the free throw line. MSU was 29-for-38 at the stripe, including 22-of-28 in the second half. The Hornets were 8-for-12 at the line for the game; and just one-of-three in the final 20 minutes.

Morgan State's Reggie Holmes, the MEAC's top scorer, led all players with 28 points. Holmes was 4-for-9 from the field, including two three-pointers, and 18-of-20 at the free throw line. Freshmen DeWayne Jackson added 19 for the Bears.

Frisco Sandidge was high scorer for the Hornets with 24 points. He was nine-for-12 from the field and nailed each of his six free throws. Marcus Neal tallied a career-high 21 for DSU. His performance included three three-pointers and 4-of-4 shooting at the free throw line. Neal also led all players with eight rebounds.

Morgan State led by as many as eight points in the early going before the Hornets stormed back. Sandidge capped off a 9-0 run with a lay up to give DSU an 18-17 lead with 7:58 left in the first half.

The teams traded baskets over the next three minutes before the Hornets took control to close out the half.

Delaware State outscored the Bears 17-3 in the final 4:31 of the first half. The Hornets hit six their last eight shots in the half, including two three pointers. DSU also forced the Bears to miss each of their three shots and commit four turnovers during the stretch

Double-Doubles

Freshman Terron Stowe has been a revelation for the Hornets on the front line this season. With the absence of injured senior forward Frisco Sandidge on Jan. 9th against Winston-Salem State, Stowe made his first career start, and picked up 12 points and 10 rebounds to become the second Hornet to achieve a 2 x 2 this season. On Dec 30th, Frisco Sandidge recorded the sixth double-double of his career, and second of the season, scoring 17 points and grabbing 10 rebounds in an overtime loss to Lehigh.

Threatt - Master Thief

Jay Threatt comes into Monday's game as one of the nation's leaders in steals-per-game. As of Thursday, January 7th, the Richmond, Va., was 9th in the nation with 2.9 pilfers per contest. Threatt has recorded 43 steals to start the season, and tied the school record for steals in a game with nine versus Wilmington this year (11/16).

Defense Wins Championships

Defense Wins Championships DSU entered this week as the nation's 18th best team in scoring defense, allowing a paltry 59.6 points per game in their first 14 contests. The Hornets also stand 9th in the nation in turnover margin (+4.9), and are able to force turnovers fouling, and 3rd in personal fouls per game (14.1).

A Star In The Making

Hornets color analyst Greg Jackson Jr. will be making his national television debut during today's live telecast on ESPNU.

Jackson, a former Hornet player through last season and son of head coach Greg Jackson, has provided insightful commentary all season alongside play-by-play partner Scott Klatzkin. Jackson Jr. will graduate from Delaware State this spring with a degree in communications.

This will be the second appearance for the Hornets on ESPNU this season. DSU fell to current #21/25 Ohio State 60-44 on Dec. 19th in Columbus, Ohio.

Eagles Last Time Out

From coppinstatesports.com

BALTIMORE -- Tim Burns scored 20 points and Neal Pitt had 17 points and 10 rebounds leading Maryland Eastern Shore to a 70-62 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference victory over Coppin State on Saturday in the Physical Education Complex.

Burns was 7-of-9 from the floor, while Pitt was 6-of-11 from the field as the Hawks snapped a six-game losing streak to the Eagles.

With the loss, Coppin State dropped its ninth consecutive game and fell to 5-12 overall and 0-5 in the MEAC.

Kareem Brown and Branden Doughty led Coppin State with 14 points each and Michael Harper added 11 for the Eagles.

Maryland Eastern Shore (5-13, 3-2 MEAC) shot 57.7 percent from the floor in the second half.

The Eagles took a 38-34 lead with 14:14 to go when Doughty converted a short jumper in the lane.

Maryland Eastern Shore regained the lead for good when Hillary Haley hit a layup with 12:11 to play.

Leading by three with 9:32 to play, the Hawks reeled off a 10-3 run to take a 56-47 lead with 6:03 left in the game.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Calvin Thompson (Howard) averaged 24 points, 8.5 rebounds and 2.5 assists in two conference wins last week. He recorded a double-double of 15 points and 12 rebounds in 31 minutes in a 59-53 win against Coppin State. He followed that performance with a career-high 33 points while also grabbing seven rebounds in a 82-77 win against North Carolina A&T. In the two wins, Thompson shot 50-percent (13-of-26) from the field, connected on 4-of-8 from 3-point range and 85 percent (18-of-21) from the free-throw line.

Co-ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Dadrian Collins (Howard) averaged 16.5 points, 4.0 rebounds, and 2.0 steals in two conference victories over Coppin State and North Carolina A&T. He recorded 18 points, shooting 7-of-16 from the floor, against the CSU Eagles.

DeWayne Jackson (Morgan State) averaged 14.5 points, 6.0 rebounds, 1.5 steals and 1.0 blocked shots in two conference victories over Hampton and S.C. State. He scored a game-high 19 points, connecting on 5-of-10 (50-percent) from the floor with five rebounds and two steals in 28 minutes of play.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Kevin Thompson (Morgan State) collected his 11th double-double rebounding game of the season finishing with 20 boards along with 14 points and two blocks in a win over S.C. State. He also hauled down a game-high nine boards with 11 points earlier last week against Hampton.

Head Coach Greg Jackson

Jackson is in his 10th season as head coach of the Hornets. Since his arrival, the program has been at or near the top of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) standings each year.

Now in his 19th season as a collegiate head coach, the Augusta, Ga., native holds a career record of 311-221, earning his 300th-career victory with a 64-58 win over Florida A&M on January 26, 2009. For his career, Jackson has coached 522 games, leading his squad to four NCAA post-season tournaments (both Division I & II), including DSU's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance (2005).

He is 148-144 at DSU, ranking second on the Hornets' list for career wins and owns DSU's best career-winning percentage (.511). With 292 contests under his belt, Jackson will coach his 300th game at Delaware State this season.

Jackson's tenure is highlighted by the school's only MEAC Tournament championship and NCAA tournament berth, three regular season conference titles and only national post-season win. In addition, he is a two-time MEAC Coach-of-the-Year.

Jackson led the Hornets to three consecutive MEAC regular season titles from 2004 to '07. Following the 2004-05 regular season crown, the Hornets captured the first MEAC Tournament championship in team history. DSU won the tournament with a nationally-televised, last-second victory over Hampton (55-53).

He earned further acclaim for his coaching skill in the Hornets' 57-46 loss to number one seeded Duke in the 2005 NCAA Tournament. DSU entered the contest as a 26-point underdog. Jackson was praised by legendary Duke Head Coach Mike Krzyzewski during the nationwide broadcast.

Following Delaware State's 2006 MEAC regular season, the Hornets were upset by Hampton in the conference tournament championship game. Following the heartbreaking loss, Jackson had less than three days to prepare his team for a trip to Flagstaff, Arizona and the opening round of the National Invitation Tournament. All he did was lead the Hornets to a 58-53 triumph of the Lumberjacks for the first national tournament win in team history.

The 2005-06 Hornets also set school records for overall wins (21), MEAC wins (16) and regular season wins (18). In addition, Delaware State posted a team-record nine-game winning streak that season. The 16 MEAC wins tied for second best in the history of the league.

Jackson was selected by his peers as the 2005-06 MEAC Coach-of-the-Year, the first Delaware State coach to earn the award since 1977. Delaware State's 2006-07 squad also posted a 16-2 MEAC record (21-13 overall) to capture its third straight regular season title. Jackson was rewarded with his second straight MEAC Coach-of-the-Year award.

During the three-year MEAC regular season "three-peat," the Hornets posted a league record of 46-8 (.850). Jackson is 109-49 vs. MEAC opponents as head coach of the Hornets (.690).

Delaware State was 30-78 in the four years prior to Jackson's arrival. He inherited a team that was 6-22 the previous season.

On January 28, 2006, Jackson was presented with the Tubby Raymond Award as the most outstanding coach in the state of Delaware, the first time a DSU coach has received the honor.

In September 2006, Jackson was presented with the "Unsung Hero Award" by the William E. Proudford Sickle Cell Fund, Inc. in recognition of his dedication to improving the lives of individuals with sickle cell disease through his personal testimony. He has shared publicly the story of his son Greg, Jr.'s fight against sickle cell, their religious faith that helped them through it, as well as his role as a father caring for his son.

Prior to accepting the Delaware State job in May 2000, Jackson spent the previous 16 years at Division II North Carolina Central University, the last nine as head coach of the Eagles.

Under Jackson's leadership, NCCU did not have a losing season and posted an overall record of 163-77. He led the Eagles to five Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) division titles, and three trips to the NCAA playoffs. He also earned three CIAA Coach-of-the-Year awards. He is one of two coaches in the history of the NCCU men's basketball program to compile 20 or more victories in four seasons, joining NBA Coaches Hall of Fame inductee John McLendon.

In his first year as head coach of the Eagles, Jackson earned his first CIAA Coach of the Year award after posting a 13-13 record with a team of new players. The following year, NCCU posted a 26-4 record, captured the CIAA Southern Division championship and advanced to the quarterfinals of the 1993 NCAA Tournament.

In 1994, Jackson led the Eagles to a 20-5 overall record and a second consecutive CIAA Southern Division title. In 1995-96, the Eagles won 18 of their first 19 games, including 16 straight, while earning a third CIAA Southern title in four years, and another trip to the NCAA playoffs. That season, NCCU was ranked as high as number 12 in the Division II national poll.

In 1996-97, Jackson led the Eagles to a 20-6 record, a fourth CIAA Southern crown in five years and the number one seed in the NCAA Tournament South Atlantic Regional. The following year, NCCU posted a 12-0 home record en route to an 18-8 overall mark. In 1998-99, Jackson led a team with nine new players to a 15-13 overall record and an appearance in the CIAA Tournament semifinals.

Prior to becoming head coach at North Carolina Central, Jackson was an Eagles assistant under Mike Bernard for seven years. He was on the staff when NCCU captured the NCAA Division II national championship in 1989.

During his playing days at St. Paul's, Jackson was a four-year starter and a three-time All-CIAA selection. His 2,249 career points is tops in school history, and rank 12th on the all-time CIAA scoring list. As a junior (1979-80), he led all collegiate players in scoring, averaging 30.5 points-per-game. That season, he earned All-America Honorable Mention and CIAA Co-player-of-the-Year honors.

St. Paul's retired Jackson's number 23 jersey in 1991.

Jackson earned a bachelor's in Elementary Education from St. Paul's in 1980 and a master's in Educational Technology from North Carolina Central in 1994.

Jackson has three sons, Greg Jr. (21), Justin (9) and Jaylen (4).

Despite double-digit scoring by three players and 50.0 percent shooting from the field, the Delaware State Hornets (2-1) fell to the Maine Black Bears (2-1), 59-56 on Wednesday, Nov. 18 at Memorial Hall.

The Hornets had their chance to tie the game with time winding down however, a missed jumper by Frisco Sandidge as time expired handed DSU its first loss of the season.

Delaware State converted 23-of-46 from the floor and 7-of-15 from 3-point land (46.7 percent). The Hornets forced 12 turnovers resulting in 19 DSU points. The Black Bears shot 48.1 percent (25-of-52) from the field and 33.3 percent (6-of-18) from downtown.

The Hornets held Maine to just 19 points in the first half. The Black Bears converted just nine shots in the first half and was 0-for-5 from 3-point range. In the second half, Maine shot 6-of-13 from beyond the arc and out-scored the Hornets, 40-27.

Sophomore Jay Threatt led all Hornets with 13 points on 4-of-9 shooting. Threatt also led all players with five steals to increase his season total to 17. The Richmond, Va., native also registered a game-high five assists.

Sandidge dropped 11 points on 5-of-11 shooting and grabbed a team-high seven rebounds. The 11-point performance was the 27th of his career.

Marcus Neal shot 4-of-9 (3-of-7 from beyond the arc) to record 11 points versus the Black Bears.

Defensively, the Hornets forced 15-or-more turnovers for the third-straight game. DSU used its full-court press for much of the second half, looking to regain the lead. Unfortunately, the Hornets could not score a buck in the final 2:47.

The Black Bears out-rebounded the Hornets, 28-23 and held a 13-6 advantage on the offensive boards. Maine scored 14 second-chance points to just DSU's 4.

Marcus Neal drained five 3-pointers in the second half to lead Delaware State to a 59-43 win over Mary Washington on Tuesday, Nov. 24 at Memorial Hall.

Neal finished the night with a team-high 17 points on 5-of-11 shooting from the floor. The five 3-pointers were a career high for the Trenton, N.J., native. Tuesday's contest was the 24th double-digit performance by Neal during his Delaware State career. Two other Hornets reached double-digits in scoring versus the Eagles. Alibaba Odd registered his third double-digit outing of the season, scoring 10 points while Frisco Sandidge tallied 11 points on 4-of-7 shooting from the field. Sandidge also finished the night with a game-high eight rebounds.

The Hornets (3-1) shot just 41.7 percent from the field (11-of-25) and 76.5 percent (13-of-17). The Eagles converted 37.8 percent (14-of-37) of their shots and committed 22 turnovers.

The Delaware State defense held Mary Washington to 2-of-17 shooting in the first half as the Eagles scored 11 points. Mary Washington did not reach double-digit on the scoreboard until the 1:58 mark at the end of the first half when Brandon Altmann made his first of two free-throws.

Altmann scored a game-high 27 points for the Eagles, shooting 8-of-16 from the floor and 11-of-14 from the "charity stripe". Altmann also grabbed five rebounds. No other Mary Washington player scored more than six points on the night.

Senior Frisco Sandidge led three players in double figures with a career-high 26 points in Delaware State's 75-67 win over the Delaware Blue Hens in the first meeting between the state's two Division I men's basketball programs since 2000 in Memorial Hall Tuesday evening. The Hornets won their second straight to improve to 4-1 on the season, while Delaware dropped its third in a row to fall to 1-5.

The Hornets also snapped an eight-game losing streak against the Hens. Delaware had won each meeting since Delaware State prevailed in the first contest between the schools in 1991.

Sandidge was seven-for-13 from the field, and 12-of-16 at the free throw line. His previous DSU high was 21 points in three games.

The Hens pulled to within three on three occasions, the last time after a three-pointer by D.J. Boney made it a 57-54 game with 2:42 left to play. Odd and Sandidge hit two free throws each during the next 80 seconds to stretch DSU's lead to 61-54.

Delaware State opened up its biggest lead on two free throws by Neal with 20 seconds left. The Hornets hit 18 of 21 free throws in the final 2:57 of the game.

Neal added 16 points for the Hornets to notch his fifth-straight double-figure game of the season. Odd matched his career-high with 15 points. He was 3-for-3 from the field and 8-of-10 at the free throw line. Jay Threatt led the Hornets with six assists and four steals.

Maryland-Eastern Shore ended more than five years of men's basketball frustration against Delaware State at the Hytche Center this afternoon. The Hawks held off a late DSU rally to defeat the Hornets 53-50 in the 2009-10 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) opener for each team. The Hornets had the final possession, but Marcus Neal missed an off-balanced three-point attempt as time expired. The victory snapped a 10-game UMES losing streak to Delaware State, dating back to the 2003-04 season. Delaware State also lost at the Hytche Center for the first time since Jan. 6, 2001, a string of five games. UMES has won its last two games to improve to 2-5 overall and 1-0 in the MEAC. The loss snapped a two-game winning streak for the Hornets, who fell to 4-2 overall. Hillary Haley led UMES with a game-high 14 points, while Kevin White added 12. Frisco Sandidge was the only Delaware State player in double-figures with 10 points. The Hornets led 23-16 at the half, but UMES rallied to take a 10-point lead with eight minutes left to play. Delaware State will return to action on Monday at Arkansas.

Marshawn Powell led all players with 21 points and nine rebounds, and teammate Rotnei Clarke added 14 points to lead the Arkansas Razorbacks to a 71-53 win over Delaware State in a men's basketball contest at Bud Walton Arena Monday evening. The Razorbacks won their second straight to improve to 4-5 on the season, while the DSU lost its second in a row to fall to 4-3. Delaware State trailed 40-33 after a three-pointer by Jay Threatt with 12:51 left to play, but Arkansas scored 14 of the game's 16 points over the next six minutes to pull away for good. Marcus Neal was high scorer for Delaware State with 18 points. He was seven-for-14 from the field, including two-of-five from three-point territory. Neal also led the Hornets with seven rebounds. Threatt had a season-high 13 points on five-of-nine shooting from the field, including two three-pointers on five attempts. He also had a team-high three assists. The Razorbacks led 15-6 in the early going, but the Hornets pulled to within 18-15 after a jumper by Greg Smith with 6:05 left in the half. Arkansas outscored DSU 16-8 during the remainder of the half to hold a 34-23 lead the break. The Hornets hit just seven of 24 first half shots, but outrebounded the Razorbacks 16-14 in the opening frame. Delaware State pulled to within 34-26 when Neal hit a three-pointer for the first basket of the second half, and only trailed 36-30 when he hit a lay up with 14:38 left to play. Powell scored six points and Marcus Brit four during Arkansas' 14-2 second half run. The Razorbacks opened up their biggest lead, 60-38, on a dunk by Mike Washington with 4:23 remaining in the game.

Arizona State scored 23 unanswered first half points en route to a 76-34 men's basketball win over Delaware State at Wells Fargo Arena Saturday afternoon. The Sun Devils snapped a two-game losing streak to improve to 7-3 on the season, while the Hornets dropped their third in a row to fall to 4-4. Victor Rudd came off the bench to lead three Arizona State players in double figures with 15 points. He was six-for-seven from the field, including three-of-four from three-point territory. Derek Glasser had 14 points and a game-high nine assists, while Trent Lockett added 10 points for the Sun Devils. Frisco Sandidge was high scorer for Delaware State with 12 points, while Marcus Neal had 11 for the Hornets. Neal's performance included three three-point field goals. Jay Threatt led the Hornets with five assists. With 14:07 left in the first half, the Sun Devils scored the next 23 points, and opened up a 32-8 lead on a jumper by Lockett with 5:48 left in the half. Glasser hit a driving lay up as the first half clock expired to give Arizona State a 42-12 lead at the break. Delaware State was 4-for-22 from the field (18.2%) in the first half. The Sun Devils opened up a 69-29 lead on a three-pointer by Rudd with 4:51 left to play. Arizona State shot 57.1% from the field (28-for-49), and 47.6% from three-point territory (10-for-21).

Columbus, Ohio (Dec. 19, 2009) --- Delaware State held the No. 18 Ohio State Buckeyes to a season-low 60 points, but could not muster up enough offense in a 60-44 men's basketball loss before 12,159 fans at Value City Arena Saturday afternoon.

The Hornets dropped their fourth straight to fall to 4-5 on the season. Ohio State has won two in a row, and seven of its last eight, to improve to 9-2.

The Buckeyes entered the contest averaging 84.7 points-per-game. OSU had three games of 100-or-more points in its first 10 games.

"I was extremely pleased with our effort against a Top 20 team in its building," said Delaware State head coach Greg Jackson. "We knew that our best chance to win was to limit Ohio State's possessions, and play sound defense. For the most part, our execution was sound, but their athleticism was the difference in the game."

Ohio State was limited to 37 shots from the floor after averaging nearly 60 per-game in its first 10 contests. The Buckeyes, however, hit 22 of their shots against the Hornets (59.5%), including 12-of-16 in the second half (75%).

Delaware State half court offense set the pace of the game early in the contest. A jumper by Marcus Neal gave the Hornets a 7-5 lead eight minutes into the game.

Ohio State responded with an 11-4 run, and opened up a 16-11 lead on a free throw by Jeremie Simmons with 5:29 left in the half. A lay up off an offensive rebound by Frisco Sandidge pulled the Hornets to within 16-13 a minute later.

The Buckeyes stretched their lead to 25-17 at the break.

Ohio State opened up a 30-19 lead on a lay up by David Lighty with 18:43 left to play. The Buckeyes could not add to their lead over the next 11 minutes, although the Hornets could get to no closer than nine.

Delaware State cut the Buckeye's lead to nine for the final time, 45-36, on a three-pointer by Neal with 6:38 remaining in the game.

Ohio State answered by scoring 11 of the next 14 points, and opened up its biggest lead, 56-39, on two free throws by P.J. Hill with 2:36 left.

William Buford led three Ohio State players in double figures with a game-high 18 points. Lighty added 12 and Dallas Lauderdale 11 for the Buckeyes.

Sandidge was the only Delaware State player in double figures with 13 points. He also tied for game-high honors with seven rebounds. Greg Smith added nine points, while Neal and Alibaba Odd added seven each for the Hornets.

Delaware State played even on the boards with the Buckeyes as each team collected 19 rebounds.

"If we play with this kind of intensity the rest of the season, I'm confident we will do well in our conference schedule," said Jackson.

Delaware State men's basketball came across the country and into one of college basketball's great cathedrals, but were unable to pull the upset falling 66-49 to UCLA on Sunday afternoon at Pauley Pavilion in Los Angeles, California.

"We started off well, but when we went to the bench, we weren't able to keep it going when our starters checked back in," said head coach Greg Jackson, whose team took on the Bruins for the second time in his tenure at DSU. "I think we got out of rhythm, and in our system we have to possess the ball, but some bad shot selection and some quick shots didn't help us."

The Hornets senior combination of shooting guard Marcus Neal and forward Frisco Sandidge led the charge once again for the red and blue. Neal posted 15 points on 6-13 shooting, including 2-5 from three point range. Sandidge aided a Hornets run in the second half, notching 10 of his 12 points in the closing stanza, including eight in a row.

It was also a breakout day for freshman forward Terron Stowe, who had career highs with both nine points and five rebounds in just 12 minutes of action. The five boards were the most by any Hornet on the day. "Terron Stowe did a nice job for us today," said Jackson. "Once he gets in shape, I think he'll be a great fit in our system and what we're trying to do."

Freshman forward Reeves Nelson led the Bruins with 21 points on 7-8 shooting. UCLA was able to beat DSU on the glass 35-25, and converted 26-50 field goal attempts to keep the Hornets from getting any closer than 15 in the second half.

Jackson's charges get back to Memorial Hall for the first time in nearly a month on Wednesday when they take on Lehigh at 7:30 pm for the final non-conference tilt of the season. Check back with DSUHornets.com for all the information on Delaware State basketball this season.

Dover, Del. (Dec. 30, 2009) --- It was a thrilling finish down the stretch, but not the result the home team was looking for as a duel of furious comebacks went to the visitors as Delaware State fell 73-66 in overtime to the Lehigh Mountain Hawks at Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening. The loss spoiled the second double-double of the season for senior forward Frisco Sandidge, who had 17 points and 10 boards to lead all Hornets in both categories. Fellow senior shooting guard Marcus Neal chipped in 15 points and nine rebounds as well. It was also an excellent performance for point guard Jay Threatt, who picked five assists and four steals to add to his 3.0 steals per game average, which placed him 5th in the country entering today's game.

DSU (4-7) played to their strengths in the first half, winning the possession battle by forcing eight Lehigh (7-6) turnovers while only conceding three themselves. Sandidge would lead all scorers with six points on 3-4 shooting, and also was the high man with six boards in the opening period. With five minutes left in the second half, the Hornets would lead at 56-49 and seemed to be in control, but a 10-0 run by Lehigh would swing the momentum in the other direction. The scoring binge was capped off by a Dave Buchberger three pointer that gave Lehigh their first lead of the second half at 57-56, and he followed with a layup off a Hornet turnover to give Lehigh a 59-56 advantage with a minute remaining.

But Jay Threatt ensured the Hornets would not go down quietly. After the teams exchanged possessions and Lehigh called timeout, Threatt stuck a clutch three pointer off a baseline inbound play to tie the score at 59 with 9.2 seconds remaining. After another Lehigh TO, Threatt forced a steal in the Lehigh backcourt and had a path to the basket, but couldn't finish the contested layup, and Neal's follow attempt went wide as well to send both teams to bonus basketball.

In overtime Greg Smith would keep the Hornets in the game by making two big threes, his only six points of the contest, to keep the pressure on the Mountain Hawks. But after a DSU press down by one with under a minute left, Zahir Carrington would be all alone under the basket with the ball and no one near him. The crowd was stunned when he missed three straight opportunities under the rim, but he was able to convert the fourth attempt and get fouled by Trevor Welcher for the crucial old fashioned three point play and a four point advantage with 23 seconds left. From there a Threatt jumper would be rebounded by Lehigh, and with the Hornets forced to foul Lehigh would pull away.

Dover, Del. (Jan. 9, 2010) --- A dramatic layup from freshman guard Alibaba Odd layup with 0.9 seconds to go for his only basket of the night was the game winner as the Delaware State Hornets beat the Winston-Salem State Rams 49-48 on Saturday afternoon at Memorial Hall on the campus of Delaware State.

With starting forward leading rebounder, and second leading scorer Frisco Sandidge sidelined by injury, the Hornets (5-7, 0-1 MEAC) needed other players to step up, and got stand-out performances and career highs at multiple positions. Senior guard Marcus Neal had a career high 20 points, including 6-13 from 3 point range, and freshman Terron Stowe picked up career highs with 12 points, 10 rebounds for the first double-double by a Hornet that wasn't Sandidge this season.

"That says a lot about our character," said head coach Greg Jackson, who picked up his 145th win as the leader of the Hornets. "I tell our team all the time when you fight to the end, you give yourself a chance to win ball games like this. I thought our kids did an excellent job in not giving up."

With a charged up Memorial Hall crowd behind them, Greg Jackson's charges would not go down quietly. Down 37-30 with 10 minutes to go, DSU would cut the advantage to one behind four straight points from freshman point guard Jay Threatt and a jumper from Marcus Neal. But a mini run from the Rams extended their advantage back to six. The Hornets finally pulled even for the first time all day with a Neal three pointer with 2:43 remaining. It appeared to be for naught however when WSSU's Paul Davis found the right end of a wild tip-in with 35 seconds left off a missed perimeter jumper for a four point Ram advantage.

Following a Winston-Salem timeout and down 48-44, point guard Chad Wilson, playing double digit minutes for the first time all season, fired up a three pointer for his first points of 2009-10 and to cut the lead to one with 28.4 to go. With DSU forced to foul, Andrew Jackson stepped to the line and missed the front end of a one and one to give DSU the ball back with 9.6 to go, and 94 feet from victory.

Wilson brought the ball up and used his speed to get to the lane off the left wing, and found Alibaba Odd cutting baseline for an almost uncontested layup with 0.9 to go. The last second heave from the Rams would go wanting, giving DSU their first victory since beating Delaware on Dec. 1st.

Dover, Del. (Jan. 11, 2010) --- Chad Wilson had scored just three points all season, and Brandon Baylor was playing in his first ever game for the Hornets, having just been declared eligible this weekend. But they combined to score 30 points on 11-17 shooting to lead Delaware State to a 67-58 win over South Carolina State on Monday night at Memorial Hall.

Wilson entered the contest averaging 0.4 points per contest. The first time in his career he had played double-digit minutes was on Saturday night against Winston-Salem State. But in his first career start at DSU he led all scorers with 19 points on 7-11 shooting, including 3 three pointers that got the Hornet crowd up and out of their seats.

"Coach told me to look for my shot if it was there," said Wilson, who set a career high in every measurable statistical category. "I was lucky to feed off the momentum of my teammates. The coaches have said just wait for your opportunity, so I tried to do that today."

The sophomore transfer Baylor picked up 11 in his first game in red and blue, including a perfect 3-3 from three-point range. His layup with 13:50 to go cut the Hornet deficit to one, which he followed with back-to-back three-pointers that give the home team their first lead since the opening minutes at 41-38. From there the Hornets wouldn't trail again, leading by as much as 14 with just over a minute remaining.

"We knew Brandon could do that," said head coach Greg Jackson, who moves to 10-7 career against the Bulldogs while coaching at DSU. "He can score, and once he understands our offense and defense we'll be expecting big things from him."

The MEAC's #1 defense continued to play with authority, forcing 22 Bulldog turnovers, including seven from SCSU star Darnell Porter, while committing only 11 themselves. Jay Threatt added to his total steals with four, which places him in the Division I's top ten entering tonight's play. The Hornets were also to defend without fouling, shooting 22-34 free throws while keeping the Bulldogs to just 5-8 from the stripe.

Frisco Sandidge had 11 points and a game high seven rebounds to lead both teams. DSU also held a 19-10 advantage on the offensive glass, thanks in part to attention garnered by the senior forward from Lynchburg, Va.

Daytona Beach, Fla. (Jan. 16, 2010) --- Delaware State hit 17-of-29 second half shots, including seven three-pointers, en route to a 77-60 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) men's basketball win over Bethune-Cookman at Moore Gymnasium Saturday afternoon.

The Hornets won their third straight game to improve to 7-7 overall and 2-1 in the MEAC. The loss snapped a three-game win streak for the Wildcats, who fell to 10-7 and 3-1. Bethune-Cookman was tied with Morgan State for first place in the MEAC standings entering the contest. Delaware State was seven-of-13 from beyond the arc in the second half, and outscored BCU 46-29 in the final 20 minutes.

"This was clearly our best effort of the season," said Delaware State head coach Greg Jackson, who improved to 14-4 vs. Bethune-Cookman and 111-50 in MEAC regular season games at DSU. "Bethune-Cookman is a tough, well-coached team, and we needed to play with a great deal of intensity to beat them. To win on the road against one of the top teams in our league says a lot about how far we've come this season."

Delaware State's Marcus Neal led four Hornets in double-figures with a game-high 19 points, one shy of the career-best he set against Winston-Salem State a week ago. Neal's performance included three three-point field goals, five rebounds and three assists. Freshman Marques Oliver came off the bench to have a career day for the Hornets. Oliver was eight-for-nine from the field en route to a season-high 16 points. He also set personal bests with eight rebounds and three blocks.

Chad Wilson continued his recent hot streak for DSU. Wilson knocked down four three-pointers (4-for-6) to highlight Tallahassee, Fla. (Jan. 18, 2010) --- Delaware State made the most of its first visit to Florida A&M's new Al Lawson Center, using a late surge to defeat the Rattlers 64-57 in a Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference match-up Monday evening. The Hornets have won their last four games, the team's longest streak since winning nine in a row during the 2006-07 season. DSU is now 8-7 overall and 3-1 in the MEAC. Florida A&M has lost three straight to fall to 3-14 and 1-4.

Marcus Neal and Chad Wilson led four Delaware State players in double figures with 13 points each. Jay Threatt and Frisco Sandidge added 10 each for the Hornets.

The game featured nine ties and seven lead changes. The Hornets led by as many as 10 points in the first half, and held a 35-28 lead at the break.

Florida A&M fought back in the early stages of the second half, and grabbed a 45-44 lead on a three-pointer by Brandon Bryant with 11:20 left to play. The Rattlers held their biggest lead, 49-46, after two free throws by Rasheem Jenkins with 7:46 left to play.

The Hornets responded with a 6-0 run, and opened up a 52-49 lead on two free throws by Neal with 4:56 remaining.

Threatt hit two free throws with 1:16 left to stretch DSU's lead to 58-53.

Florida A&M pulled to within 58-54 on the first of two free throws by Chris Walker with 1:02 left. His second free throw was rebounded by the Rattlers' Yannick Crowder, who fed Walker for a three-point basket to cut Delaware State's lead to 58-57 with 57 ticks on the clock.

On the ensuing possession, Neal scored on a driving lay up to give the Hornets a 60-57 lead with 27 seconds left.

Florida A&M had a chance to tie the score on its next possession, but Walker missed a three-point shot with 17 seconds left.

Thrett rebounded the miss, and fed Sandidge for a dunk to secure the win for the Hornets.

Baltimore, Md. (Jan. 23, 2010) --- The Delaware State men's basketball team sent a message to first place Morgan State, despite coughing up a 15-point second half lead in a 72-62 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) loss to the league-leading Bears at Hill Field House this afternoon.

The loss snapped a four-game winning streak for the Hornets, who fell to 8-8 overall and 3-2 in the MEAC. The defending champion Bears won their fifth straight to improve to 13-7 and 5-0. Delaware State also lost its sixth straight to Morgan dating back to the 2007-08 season. Delaware State led 39-26 at the break, and opened up a 41-26 lead after scoring the first basket of the second half with 18:36 left to play. Morgan State rallied to outscore the Hornets 26-6 in the final 7:14 of the game.

"I thought we played extremely well for the first 35 minutes, but suffered some mental lapses down the stretch," said Delaware State head coach Greg Jackson. "You have to play a complete game to defeat a championship team like Morgan State. We will use this effort as a learning experience as we prepare for Coppin State on Monday." Morgan State outscored DSU 46-23 in the second half. The Bears enjoyed a big advantage at the free throw line. MSU was 29-for-38 at the stripe, including 22-of-28 in the second half. The Hornets were 8-for-12 at the line for the game; and just one-of-three in the final 20 minutes.

Morgan State's Reggie Holmes, the MEAC's top scorer, led all players with 28 points. Holmes was 4-for-9 from the field, including two three-pointers, and 18-of-20 at the free throw line. Freshmen DeWayne Jackson added 19 for the Bears. Frisco Sandidge was high scorer for the Hornets with 24 points. He was nine-for-12 from the field and nailed each of his six free throws. Marcus Neal tallied a career-high 21 for DSU. His performance included three three-pointers and 4-of-4 shooting at the free throw line. Neal also led all players with eight rebounds.

Morgan State led by as many as eight points in the early going before the Hornets stormed back. Sandidge capped off a 9-0 run with a lay up to give DSU an 18-17 lead with 7:58 left in the first half.

Delaware State outscored the Bears 17-3 in the final 4:31 of the first half. The Hornets hit six their last eight shots in the half, including two three pointers. DSU also forced the Bears to miss each of their three shots and commit four turnovers during the stretch.
