National Rankings: Delaware State is not ranked in any national Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) poll, while Kent State is unranked in any Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) national polls.

The Series: Kent State leads 2-0

Delaware State Head Coach Kenny Carter (The Citadel, '90): Carter is in his first season as head coach of the Hornets. This is his first head coaching job. He most recently served as an assistant coach at Youngstown University during the 2014 season. From 2010 to 2014, Carter was an assistant coach under Charlie Strong at the University of Louisville, helping lead the Cardinals to two Big East championships and four bowl appearances. During the 2008 and '09 seasons Carter was running backs coach under Urban Meyer at the University of Florida. He helped guide the Gators to the 2009 BCS National Championship. Florida also competed in the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl and captured the 2008 Southeast Conference championship during his time on the coaching staff. Carter has also served as an assistant at Vanderbilt, Penn State, Pittsburgh and LSU.

Kent State Head Coach Paul Haynes (Kent State, '93) is in the third season as head coach at his alma mater. This is his first head coaching job. He has a 6-18 overall record. Prior to accepting the Kent State post, Haynes was defensive coordinator at the University of Arkansas in 2012 and secondary coach of the Razorbacks the previous year. He previously served seven season as an assistant at Ohio State, helping lead the Buckeyes to six Big Ten title and six BCS bowl game appearance. Haynes was a defensive standout at Kent State for four seasons. This is his first meeting against Delaware State.

THE GAME

Delaware State visits Kent State of the FBS Mid-America Conference in a week-two contest. The Hornets are coming off a 32-13 loss at FCS #14/15 Liberty in the season opener last Saturday. The contest also marked the debut of Delaware State first-year head coach Kenny Carter, who served as an assistant at several major programs, including Florida, Louisville, Penn State, LSU and Vanderbilt before accepting the DSU job last January.

Delaware State trailed 14-6 at Liberty after a touchdown midway through the second quarter and was down 25-13 after a third quarter score.

The Hornets scored their first touchdowns on a well-executed eight-play, 75-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The three-minute-27-second march was highlighted by a long pass play and a gutsy fourth down call by Carter to keep the possession alive. The Hornets were facing a fourth-and-one at the DSU 34 when quarterback Esayah Obado (r-jr.) connected with Malik Golson (r-jr.) on an 11-yard pass to the 45. On the next play, Obado found Aris Scott (jr.) downfield for a 47-yard pass to the Liberty 8. On third-and-goal from the two, Obado rushed up the middle for a touchdown to complete the drive.

Obado completed 16-of-27 passes for 227 yards and rushed for a two-yard touchdown in his first action since the 2013 season. He was intercepted twice and sacked five times in the opener. Golson had seven catches for 74 yards. Including a long of 27, last week. His seven receptions tied for first among MEAC pass-catcher in the opening weekend. Kamal Abrams (gr.) hauled in three passes for 51 yards in his first game with the Hornets after three seasons at Connecticut. Jamaal Jackson (sr.) had the bulk of the carries for DSU last week, rushing for 37 yards and a touchdown (two yards) on 15 carries. He also caught three passes for 44 yards.

On defense, lineman Gabe Sherrod (jr.) and linebacker Malik Harris (so.) turned in solid performances at Liberty. Sherrod, a former tight end, had seven tackles (five unassisted), including 3.5 behind the line-of-scrimmage, a sack and a blocked kick. Harris had a game-and-career-high 12 tackles in the opener, including six solo stops. Safety Kevin Jocelyn (jr.) picked off a Liberty pass in the red zone last week.

Kent State opened the 2015 season with a mistake-filled 52-3 loss to Big 10 Illinois last weekend. The game was originally scheduled for Sep. 4, but re-scheduled for the next day due to severe lightning in the Champaign, Ill., area. The Illini took advantage of three interceptions and a muffed punt by the Golden Flashes to build a 38-0 halftime lead. Three of the four Illinois scores off turnovers followed one-play Kent State possessions lasting fewer than seven seconds each. The Kent State defense held the Illini to 342 total yards and just three-of-13 on third down conversions in the contest. The Kent State offense totaled 59 rushing yards and 186 by the pass in the opener. KSU quarterback Colin Reardon connected on 15-of-34 passes for 156 yards, including a 58-yard strike to Miles Hibbler. Kent State returned 44 letter winners, including 19 starters, from its 2014 squad, which posted a 2-9 overall record and 1-7 mark in the MAC East Division.

THE SERIES (Kent State leads 2-0)

The Hornets and Golden Flashes are meeting for third time. The teams met during the 2007 and '08 seasons, also at Dix Stadium. Kent State won the 2007 contest 38-7, handing Delaware State its only regular season loss that year, which was highlighted by DSU's first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference championship in 16 years and inaugural NCAA Tournament appearance.

Julian Edelman, now with the defending NFL champion New England Patriots, was Kent State's starting quarterback in each of the previous meetings with Hornets. Edelman completed 18-of-33 passes for 267 yards, with three touchdowns and an interception in the 2007 contest. He was held to minus-seven yards rushing in the game, mainly due to three Delaware State sacks for minus-19 yards.

Kent State won the 2008 contest 24-3. The Hornets scored their only points on a field goal with 3:16 left to play. Edelman was also the starting signal-caller for the Golden Flashes in the 2008 DSU/Kent State meeting.

He completed 10-of-20 throws for 113 yards, and intercepted twice; and had 11 rushing attempts for 71 yards and a touchdown, in the '08 contest.

COLSTON EARNS PRESEASON ALL-MEAC HONORS

Hornet defensive back Terrick Colston (sr.; Lakeland, Fla.) looks to live up his billing as one of the top defensive players in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference this season. Colston was selected to the 2015 Preseason All-MEAC First Team by league head coaches and sports information directors. He opened the season with six tackles (two solo) at Liberty last week. A 2014 All-MEAC Third Team pick, he was second on the Hornets with 75 tackles, and tied for fourth in the conference with four interceptions. Also last season, Colston became the first Delaware State player with interceptions in four straight games since the Hornets joined the MEAC in 1971. In addition, he had a forced fumble, fumble recovery, punt block and pass break-up last season. Amazingly, he was tied for second on the team with two touchdowns in 2014. Colston returned an interception to the endzone for the Hornets' lone touchdown in their 27-7 loss to Bethune-Cookman on Oct. 4, 2014. The following week, he blocked a punt, recovered the ball and ran to the endzone for DSU's only touchdown for the second straight week in its 13-10 overtime victory at Norfolk State. Colston was selected as the MEAC's Special Teams Player-of-the-Week for his performance in the Norfolk State contest. He also tallied seven tackles (four solo) and returned an interception 28 yards in that game. It was Colston's second MEAC honor in a three-game stretch. He was the league's Defensive Player-of-the-Week for his performance in the Hornets' 35-10 win over Savannah State on Sep. 27, when he collected nine tackles (seven unassisted), an interception, forced fumble and fumble recovery. For his career, Colston has seven interceptions, including two returned for touchdowns, and six fumble recoveries. He has 259 tackles, including 136 unassisted in his three seasons with the Hornets.

OBADO EARNS HIGH MARKS IN RETURN TO ACTION

Delaware State head coach Kenny Carter gave high marks to starting quarterback Esayah Obado for his play in last week's season opener at Liberty.

"Esayah played quite well for a guy seeing his first action in two years, especially considering the pressure he was under from a veteran Liberty defense," said Carter. "He made some great throws downfield and was able to make plays in pressure situations." Obado completed 16-of-27 passes for a career-best 227 yards. He also rushed for a two-yard touchdown. Obado threw two interceptions and was sacked five times in his first full game as a Hornet. After sitting out the 2012 season as a redshirt freshman and serving as the No. 2 quarterback the following year, Obado was set to begin the 2014 campaign as the Hornets' starting QB. However, a lower back injury derailed the team's and Obado's plans, forcing him to miss the entire '14 season. Obado played in four contests as a redshirt freshman in 2013, completing 21-of-40 passes (52.5%) for 168 yards. He did not have a touchdown pass and threw two interceptions. With the change in head coaches following the 2014 season and an uncertain injury situation, there was no guarantee that Obado would be a shoe-in for the starting job this year. But, he earned the respect of the coaching staff and his teammates with a solid spring camp. Obado beat out 2014 opening day starter Gil Rivera (jr.) and newcomer Kobie Lain (fr.), a former Georgia high school standout, for the No. 1 spot this season. A native of Hamilton, N.J., Obado passed for 3,690 yards and 42 touchdowns, while rushing for 615 yards and 11 scores at Nottingham High School. He was named to 2010 12th Man TD Club, WJFL/CVC and All-Area First Team after passing for 2075 yards and 24 touchdowns during junior season; and was also named to 2010 Super 100 Junior Football Players in New Jersey by the N.J. Football Coaches Association. Obado was the third player in Mercer County history to pass for more than 2000 yards in a season. He passed for 1545 yards and 17 touchdowns as a senior and completed school-record 62.4% of his passes during 2011 season. He also rushed for 525 yards and eight scores as a senior.

MENGONI LEADS VETERAN OFFENSIVE LINE

For the first time in several years, veterans outnumber new faces on the Delaware State offensive line entering the 2015 football season. There are nine offensive linemen with at least two years of experience, including four with extensive minutes as starters on the squad. DSU was last among all Football Championship Subdivision teams in total offense and near the bottom in rushing, passing and scoring in 2014. However, a new coaching staff and offensive system, combined with a veteran front, depth at running back and more stability at quarterback is raising hope for more success when the Hornets have the ball this season. Anchoring the Hornets' front line is three-year starting center Ernest Mengoni (jr.), a 2015 Preseason All-MEAC Third Team selection. "Ernest has everything we look for in a center: physically strong, quick and a good leader," Sprague said. "He has a high football IQ; and that's important because he has to direct traffic before the play starts. The center is the quarterback of the line." At the tackle position, Dimitri Hill (sr.), Jerron Searles (jr.) and Clark McCready (sr.) have multiple starts. Hill and McCready have been mainstays on the line since contributing to Delaware State's last winning season (6-5) as true freshmen in 2012. Searles started all 12 games for the Hornets last season. The Hornet offensive line also features veteran guards Darren Helwig (jr.) and Keon Williams (jr.), each a starter since freshmen. Patrick Phillips (jr.) is an experienced back-up at center, while Justin Cook (jr.), Keevon Prather (sr.) and Lamont Bradford (so.) add depth to the interior line.

FORMER TIGHT END GABE SHERROD

HEADLINES DEFENSIVE FRONT

If the first game is any indication, Gabe Sherrod (jr.) has emerged as the leader of the Hornets' defensive front. One of the issues facing the team this season was uncertainty surrounding its new-look defensive line. The Hornets' defensive front features just one returning starter from last season, some players in new positions and six freshmen. The biggest shoes the Hornets must fill from a year ago are those of tackle Rodney Gunter, now with the Arizona Cardinals after being selected in the fourth round (116th overall pick) of the 2015 National Football League draft. Sherrod, who lined up at tight end just two seasons ago, is off to an impressive start to the season. He recorded seven tackles, including 3.5 behind the line-of-scrimmage, a sack and a blocked kick in last week's opener. Sherrod (right) was moved to defensive end during spring 2014 camp. In 10 games last season, Sherrod was seventh on the Hornets with 46 total tackles and ranked second on the team with 7.5 tackles-for-loss and five sacks. He has been named to the 2015 Preseason All-MEAC Third Team.

NAGEE JACKSON MAKES SWITCH TO TIGHT END

Nagee Jackson (sr.) rushed for 238 yards and a team-high seven touchdowns as a freshman halfback in 2012, but his playing time has declined each year since. The slim chance of Jackson getting much work at running back in his final season, along with the new coaching staff's goal of getting the tight end more involved in the offense this year, prompted a change in positions for the Gainesville, Va., native. He had two balls thrown his way in the opener at Liberty last week, catching one for two yards. Jackson was switched to tight end during the second week of summer camp, a move the staff believes will allow for better use of his skills. Although Jackson has just nine career receptions for 45 yards at DSU, head coach Kenny Carter stated, "Nagee has good hands and can make things happen after the catch. We expect him to have a big impact on our offense this season."

DSU MEDIA GUIDE ONLINE

The 2015 Delaware State University football media guide/yearbook can be viewed online by logging onto DSUHornets.com.

The cover features the University's new athletics motto, "Go Big Go Bold Go Hornets!"

The booklet contains information on the 2015

Hornets, a 2014 season review, DSU football records and historical data.

SOLID STABLE OF BACKS RAISE HOPES FOR IMPROVED RUNNING GAME

Delaware State is hoping that an experienced offensive line and a solid stable of running backs will reverse its rushing woes of the past several years. The Hornets were 10th in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and 114th nationally among 121 FCS teams in rushing at 96.7 yards per game in 2014. Last week at Liberty, the Hornets gained 83 positive yards rushing, but totaled just 42 for the game due to lost yardage on five quarterback sacks (-27). The last time DSU averaged better than 100 yards per game on the ground was 2009 at 114.6 per outing. Halfback Jamaal Jackson (sr.) led the Hornets' with 37 yards on 15 carries in last week's opener. Jackson is the team's top returning rusher from last season, tallying 493 yards (4.1 ypc) and one touchdown. Dae-Hon Cheung (sr.) also hopes to return to his freshman form after an injury-plagued 2014 season. Cheung was limited to just three games and 61 yards last year. He rushed for 410 yards and three touchdowns as a freshman and led the Hornets with 361 yards in his sophomore season. The addition of hard-charging freshman Kesselly Tyler, a former Georgia high school standout; and Indiana University transfer Laray Smith (jr.) has also raised hopes for the Hornet running game this year. Tyler averaged 115 rushing yards per game as a junior and led Benjamin Mays High School in Atlanta to the Georgia 5A state championship game during his senior season. The speedy Smith played sparingly in two years at Indiana, but was rated as the No. 2 prospect in New York and the No. 12 all-purpose back nationally by 247Sports.com as a high school senior. The Hornets have also added former Hodgson Vo-Tech (Del.) High School standout Kyle Taylor (fr.) to the fullback position. Taylor helped lead Hodgson to two Delaware Division II football championships and another championship game appearance in his four seasons.

CARTER LOOKS TO RETURN "SPECIAL" TO HORNETS' SPECIAL TEAMS

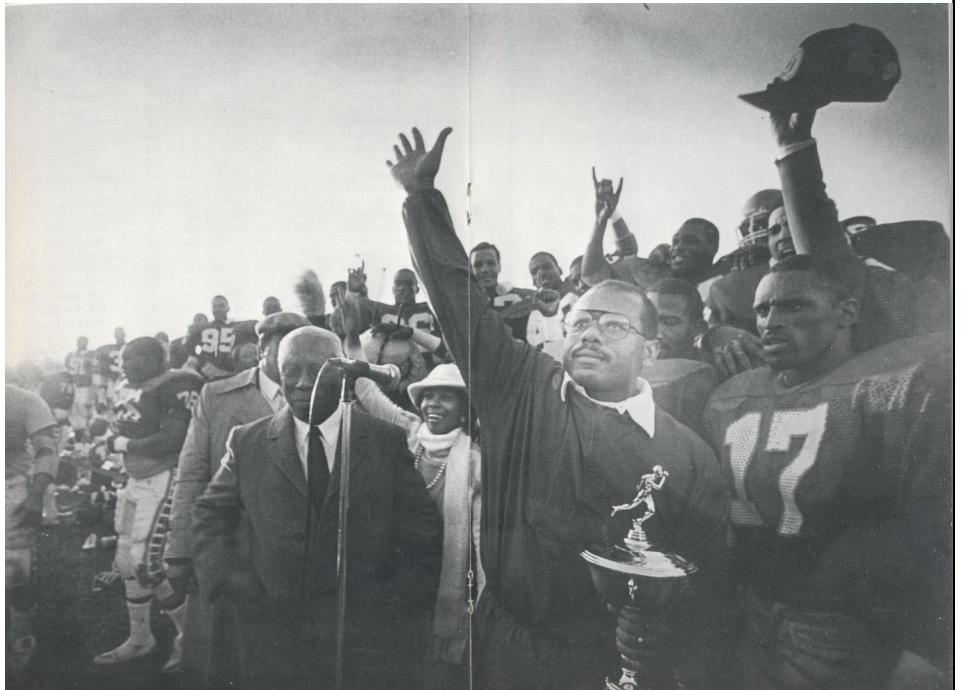

The Hornet special teams received mixed grades in last week's season opening loss to Liberty. DSU allowed just 30 combined punt and kickoff return yards, but some poor kicks gave Liberty good field position on several possessions. New DSU head coach Kenny Carter brings years of experience at the FBS level as a top-flight special teams coach to the Hornets. His skill as a special teams guru will be put to the test this season. Carter inherited a Delaware State team that experienced more than its share of struggles on special teams in 2014. Hornet opponents scored seven special teams touchdowns last season, four on blocked punts and three on punt returns. In addition, a bad punt snap resulted in the Hornets' turning over the ball at their three-yard-line. DSU surrendered a touchdown on the next play. The Hornets were 120th among all FCS teams in punt return defense, allowing 20.04 yards per return last season. DSU ranked 119th in the nation in blocked punts allowed (4) and was 104th in kickoff return defense (22.7 per return) in the 2014 season.

Ironically, Delaware State's 2014 campaign began with a special teams "high" when Aris Scott returned the opening kick 98 yards for a touchdown to start the season at Monmouth. One other special teams positive last season was Terrick Colston's blocked punt and recovery for a touchdown in an overtime win against Norfolk State.

HORNETS TO HONOR 1985 ME-AC CHAMPS

This season marks the 30th anniversary of Delaware State's first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference football championship. The 1985 Hornets won the title with a 5-0 league record (9-2 overall). The team, headed by first-year head coach Bill Collick, featured nine All-MEAC First Team players, including the Offensive Player-of-the-Year John Taylor and Defensive Player-of-the-Year Dan Candello-ro. Collick was also selected as the MEAC Coach-of-the-Year that season.

The 1985 Hornets will be honored during Delaware State's annual Athletics Hall-of-Fame Banquet and Induction Ceremony on Friday, Sep. 18 at the Martin Luther King, Jr. Student Center on campus; and at halftime of DSU's 2015 home football opener against Chowan the following day.

A leading member of the '85 Hornets, defensive lineman Robert Presbury, is among the inductees in this year's DSU Hall-of-Fame class.

STINGERS

The 12 tackles by DSU linebacker Malik Harris (so.) at Liberty was tied for second among all MEAC players during last week's opening weekend ... freshman Brycen Alleyne (Wilmington, Del.) returned two kickoffs for 49 yards, had a nine-yard reception and one carry for five yards in his Hornet debut last week.

STAYING HOME

Delaware State's 2015 roster includes a total of 20 in-state players, tops among the states. The Hornets' Delaware products are: Kamal Abrams (Dover), Brycen Alleyne (Wilmington), Sika Bendolph (Dover), Tecumseh Bendolph (Dover), Denzek Burgette (Middletown), Stewart Carey (Newark), Chuka Ezeuzoh (Wilmington), Mark Flakes (Wilmington); Morris Frasier (Felton); Malik Golson (Dover); John Griffin (Middletown), Darren Helwig (Dover); Jamaal Jackson (Wilmington); Keyjuan Selby (Bear), Taronn Selby (Bear); DaShawn Smith (New Castle); Kyle Taylor (Wilmington), Ameer Watson (Smyrna); Logan Wescott (Bridgeville); and Eric Wright (Bear). New Jersey, Maryland and Georgia are tied for second with the most players on the Hornets' 2015 roster at 11.

SEEING "DOUBLE-DOUBLE"

The 2015 DSU roster features the rarest of rare combinations. The Hornets have, not one, but two sets of twins on the squad. It's also worth noting that each set of twins hails from the First State. Running backs Sika and Tecumseh Bendolph joined the Hornets this summer after excelling primarily in track and field at Caesar Rodney High School near Dover.

Twins Taronn and Keyjuan Selby also joined the Hornets this summer after standout football careers at St. George's Vo-Tech in New Castle County, Del. Taronn, a wide receiver at DSU, was Delaware's 2014 Gatorade High School Player-of-the-Year after rushing for more than 1,300 yards and 23 touchdowns as a senior. Keyjuan also rushed for more than 1,000 yards as a senior at St. George's, and is the school's career interception leader.

It's believed to be the first time in team history that two sets of twins have suited up for the Hornets in the same season.

It's been suggested that the coaching staff allow the twins to wear their jerseys at all times. Much easier to identify them that way.

HOLD THOSE FLAGS

Delaware State will have to come-from-behind to maintain its recent standard as the MEAC's least penalized team. The Hornets topped all MEAC teams with 12 penalties for 98 yards in the league's opening weekend games. The Hornets have been the MEAC's least penalized team in four of the last five seasons. In 2014, DSU committed 71 committed penalties for 575 yards in 12 games, fewest in the league in each category.

DSU did not commit a single penalty in its 2014 season opening loss to Monmouth, marking the first time in recorded team history that the Hornets were not assessed a penalty in a game.

The Hornets were also the MEAC's least penalized team in 2013, ranking eighth among all NCAA FCS teams in fewest penalty yards per game at 39.3 that season.

DSU's CARTER AMONG SIX FIRST-TIME FCS COACHES

Delaware State's Kenny Carter is one of six first-time head coaches in FCS football this season, and one of 15 in the first season at their current school. Carter is one of two new head coaches in the MEAC, joining Bethune-Cookman's Terry Sims. Delaware State is one of four league teams with new head coaches this season.

The last first-time head coach hired at Delaware State was Al Lavan in 2004. Lavan lost his debut to Massachusetts 50-0 and was 4-7 in his first season, but went on to post a 43-38 overall record in seven seasons, highlighted by the 2007 MEAC championship and the school's first NCAA Tournament berth.

HORNETS UNVEIL NEW LOOK FOR 2015

For the first time in more than 30 years, there's a major new look to the helmets worn by the Hornets. The familiar "State" logo on each side of the helmet has been replaced by the Hornet logo on the left and the player's number on the right.

The last major design change to DSU's head gear was in 1982, when the State logo was added, the first of any kind on the helmet.

In 2010, the word Delaware, in smaller type, was placed above the State logo.

PLAYING WITH THE BIG BOYS

The visit to FBS Kent State marks the second year in a row that Delaware State is stepping up a competition level in a game. This will be the third meeting between the Hornets and Golden Flashes. Kent State, a member of the Mid-America Conference (MAC) won the previous two meetings in 2007 and '08 in Kent, Ohio.

In 2014, Delaware State lost to FBS Temple 59-0 at Lincoln Financial Field, home of the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles.

Prior to last season, a 2009 visit to Michigan was the Hornets' most recent contest against a FBS foe. The Wolverines won 63-6 before a crowd of more than 106-thousand at the "Big House."

Delaware State is 1-4 all-time vs. FBS/Div. I-A opponents. The only win was a 52-26 upset of Akron in 1987.

The Hornets are scheduled to visit Southeast Conference (SEC) power Missouri on Sep. 24, 2016. Missouri announced its 2016 non-conference opponents on Aug. 26.

DSU/NCA&T CONTEST TO AIR ON ESPN NETWORKS

Delaware State's Nov. 14 football contest at North Carolina A&T will have a world-wide audience. The key Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference battle at Aggie Stadium in Greensboro, N.C., will be televised live on ESPN3, and rebroadcast on ESPNU later in the day. Game time is scheduled for 1 p.m. The ESPN rebroadcast is set for 4 p.m. The broadcast is part of the MEAC's eight-game 2015 ESPN television package. This will be Delaware State's first MEAC Television Game-of-the-Week appearance since a 28-23 victory at Morgan State in 2012.

DELAWARE STATE HEAD COACH KENNY CARTER

Delaware State University introduced Kenneth A. Carter as the Hornets' 19th head coach on Jan. 21, 2015. This is his first head coaching position.

Carter most recently served as passing game/co-special teams coordinator/wide receivers coach at Youngstown State University during the 2014 season.

From 2010 to 2014, Carter played a key role in the success of the University of Louisville program under Charlie Strong, serving as running backs coach and special teams coordinator.

In 2013, Louisville was 12-1 and concluded the campaign with an impressive 36-9 win over Miami (Fla.) in the Russell Athletic Bowl. On special teams, the Cardinals had two punt blocks and a kickoff return for a score. Placekicker John Wallace made 20-of-24 field-goal attempts and 52 PATs while punter Ryan Johnson averaged 41.2 yards a punt. The Cardinals led the nation in punt-return defense yielding 15 total yards for the year.

While at Louisville, Carter helped lead the Cardinals to two Big East Conference championships and four bowl appearances, including a 33-23 victory over No. 4 Florida in the 2013 Allstate Sugar Bowl in New Orleans.

Louisville also appeared in the Beef O'Brady's Bowl (2010) and Belk Bowl (2011) during Carter's tenure.

"Kenny is a high energy guy who brings a lot of passion to his job each and every day. I've known Kenny for a long time and he did a tremendous job handling our running backs and special teams at Louisville. He is a good coach and a good person. He'll do a great job at Delaware State."
Charlie Strong, University of Texas Head Coach (former Louisville Head Coach)

Also at Louisville, Carter was the position coach of New York Jets running back Bilal Powell, an All-Big East selection and Doak Walker Award semi-finalist as the nation's top rusher with the Cardinals.

During the 2008 and '09 seasons Carter was running backs coach under Urban Meyer at the University of Florida. He helped guide the Gators to the 2009 BCS National Championship with a 24-14 victory over Oklahoma.

Florida also competed in the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl and captured the 2008 Southeast Conference championship during his time on the coaching staff.

The Gators were 26-1 in his two seasons as running backs coach. In 2009, Florida was 13-1 losing only in the SEC Championship Game. The Gators capped the year with an impressive win over Cincinnati in the Sugar Bowl.

The Gators led the Southeast Conference in rushing at 231 yards per game and posted a school-record 42 rushing touchdowns during the 2008 season. Florida running back Jeff Demps was also a Doak Walker award nominee during Carter's tenure with the Gators.

Carter also served as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Vanderbilt from 2004-to-'07.

He served under the late Joe Paterno from 2001-to-03 as assistant receivers coach at Penn State University.

Among the highlights of Carter's tenure at Penn State were an appearance in 2003 Capital One Bowl; and the selection of All-Big Ten receiver Bryant Johnson in the first round of the NFL draft by Arizona Cardinals.

During the 2000 season, Carter was running backs coach at the University of Pittsburgh. The Panthers competed in the Insight.com Bowl; and running back Kevin Barlow was a third round selection of the NFL's San Francisco 49ers following that season.

In 1999, Carter was an assistant coach (strong safeties/linebackers/nickel backs) at Louisiana State University. He began his coaching career in 1993 as an assistant at Furman (tight ends).

The following year, Carter was hired as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator at his alma mater, The Citadel, where he served until 1998.

Carter was a four-year letterman as an inside linebacker for The Citadel. He was the Bulldogs' 1989 Special Teams Player-of-the-Year.

He earned a bachelor of science in Health and Exercise Science from The Citadel in 1990.

HORNETS 10th IN MEAC PRESEASON POLL

Delaware State has been picked to finish 10th in the 2015 conference standings, according to a poll of league head coaches and sports information directors.

North Carolina A&T, one of five teams to share the 2014 MEAC title, is the choice of voters to capture the crown this season. The Aggies collected nine of 22 first place votes and 425 total points in the balloting.

South Carolina State is a close second with four first place votes and 408 points. The Bulldogs also owned a share of the 2014 MEAC title. Bethune-Cookman (387 points), North Carolina Central (334) and Morgan State (318) round out the top five in the MEAC preseason poll. The Wildcats, Eagles and Bears also captured a share of the league championship last season.

Morgan State was awarded the MEAC's automatic bid for the 2014 NCAA FCS playoffs in a tie-breaker among five teams.

Delaware State has an all-time MEAC record of 131-153-1 since joining the league when it was formed in 1971. The Hornets have won or shared six MEAC championships (1985, '87, '88, '89, '91, 2007).

MEAC CHAMPION TO COMPETE IN INAUGURAL CELEBRATION BOWL

This year's MEAC champion will also have the honor of representing the conference against the champ of the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) in the inaugural Celebration Bowl in Atlanta, Ga..

The quest for the 2015 MEAC championship and Celebration Bowl berth will have an added incentive for Delaware State and its fellow conference members.

ESPN Events, a subsidiary of ESPN, has announced that the inaugural Celebration Bowl will be televised live on ABC. The new postseason college football bowl game will kick off at noon ET Saturday, Dec. 19, at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta.

The Celebration Bowl, which showcases the legacy, values and traditions of Historically Black Colleges and Universities, will pit the conference champions from the MEAC and SWAC.

"We are excited to collaborate with ESPN to launch the Celebration Bowl and continue our longstanding tradition of delivering an annual HBCU college football showdown to fans in Atlanta," said John Grant, Chief Executive Officer, 100 Black Men of Atlanta, Inc. "Having the game televised on ABC will showcase the best in HBCU football on a national stage."

FORMER HORNETS MAKING THEIR MARK IN THE PROS AND BEYOND

FORMER HORNET RODNEY GUNTER SELECTED IN FOURTH ROUND BY ARIZONA CARDINALS IN 2015 NFL DRAFT

Former Hornet defensive lineman Rodney Gunter ('14) is already making an impact in professional football. Gunter was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the fourth round (116th overall pick) of the 2015 National Football League draft, making him the third highest NFL selection in Hornet football history. He was also the first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference player chosen in the 2015 NFL draft.

Gunter, who recorded a sack in the endzone for a safety in the Cardinals' 2015 preseason opener against the Kansas City Chiefs, is in line to be the team's starting nose guard when the regular season begins. He moved up the depth chart when Cardinals' tackle Corey Peters ruptured his Achilles in a preseason practice, likely sidelining him for the season.

Gunter was a four-year starter from 2011 to 2014, competing in each of the Hornets' 45 games during the span. He was an All-MEAC First Team selection in 2013; and second team pick in 2012 and 2014.

His career stats include 99 solo tackles and 89 assists, 37 tackles-for-loss and 18 sacks. He was the Hornets' sack leader in each of the last three seasons.

DSU's WILLIAMS IN RAIDERS CAMP

Former Hornet receiver Milton Williams III is in the Oakland Raiders camp this summer after being signed as a free agent by the team in April. Williams played with the Hornets from 2011 to 2014. His DSU career totals include 126 receptions for 1612 yards and 11 touchdowns. Williams ranks seventh on the Hornets' all-time list for receptions and 10th in receiving yards.

JOHN TAYLOR TOPS LIST OF FORMER HORNET PROS

Rodney Gunter may one day be recognized as the former Hornet with the greatest professional football career, but right now that distinction belongs to John Taylor, who played nine seasons with the great San Francisco 49er teams of the late 1980s to mid-90s.

Taylor is most famous for catching the winning touchdown on a 10-yard pass from Joe Montana with 34 seconds left in the 49ers' 20-16 win over the Cincinnati Bengals in Super Bowl XXIII in Miami, Fla. It was his first of three Super Bowl championships with the Niners. Taylor was also a two-time NFL All-Pro selection, competed in two Pro

Bowls and was named as to the NFL's 1980s All-Decade Team as the second team punt returner.

In a Monday night game against the Rams, Taylor scored touchdowns on two receptions of over 90 yards (92 and 96), an NFL first. He recorded 347 receptions for 5,589 yards (16.1 ypr) and 43 touchdowns in his NFL career.

OTHER FORMER HORNETS RAISE DSU PROFILE

Two other former DSU football standouts are making news these days. Regular cable news watchers likely know the name Matthew Horace, an offensive lineman for the Hornets from 1980 to '83. In 1983, he helped lead the team to a 7-3-1 record, its first winning season in six years. Horace is currently an internationally recognized law enforcement, homeland security and leadership expert. He is Senior Vice President and Chief Security Officer for FJC Security Services, a national security firm based in metropolitan New York City. A twenty-eight year veteran of federal, state and local law enforcement, he ascended to the Senior Executive Service (SES) rank in the United States Department of Justice where he managed local, regional, national, and international investigations. He is frequently featured in live broadcast news segments related to Homeland Security, Federal investigations and general law enforcement matters on CNN, Headline News, MSNBC, FOX and local affiliates throughout the United States and abroad.

Television and movie watchers may recognize former Hornet Aaron Spears (right), now a Hollywood actor. Spears was a running back for the Hornets during the 1992 and '93 seasons. In 1993, he was one of three Hornets to rush for 100 yards (133) in a 65-42 win over Morgan State. Today, Spears plays the character Mark Bradley in the BET series Being Mary Jane starring Gabrielle Union. He received a NAACP Image Award for his role as Justin Barber in the daytime soap Bold and the Beautiful. His television credits also include guest roles in Criminal Minds, Bones and Everybody Loves Raymond.
