The Series: First meeting

Delaware State Head Coach Kenny Carter (The Citadel, 90): Carter is in his first season as head coach of the Hornets. This is his first head coaching job. He most recently served as an assistant coach at Youngstown University during the 2014 season. From 2010 to 2014, Carter was an assistant coach under Charlie Strong at the University of Louisville, helping lead the Cardinals to two Big East championships and four bowl appearances. During the 2008 and '09 seasons Carter was running backs coach under Urban Meyer at the University of Florida. He helped guide the Gators to the 2009 BCS National Championship. Florida also competed in the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl and captured the 2008 Southeast Conference championship during his time on the coaching staff. Carter has also served as an assistant at Vanderbilt, Penn State, Pittsburgh and LSU.

Chowan Head Coach Tom Place (Washington & Lee, '90) is in his eighth year as head coach of the Hawks. He has a 23-49 overall record with the team and a 34-60 career mark in 10 seasons as a collegiate head coach. In 2012, Place led the Hawks to a 6-4 overall record and 5-2 mark in the CIAA, the school's most successful season since becoming a four-year program in 1992. Prior to accepting the Chowan job, Place was head coach at Urbana University in Ohio, where he posted an 11-11 overall record in two seasons. He also served on the coaching staffs at Western Carolina, Eureka College (Ill.) and Hartwick College (N.Y.).

THE GAME

Delaware State welcomes Chowan University of the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) to Alumni Stadium for the Hornets' 2015 home opener. DSU (0-2; 0-0 MEAC) is trying to bounce back from a 45-13 loss to FBS Kent State last Saturday. The Hornet offense was unable to get on track in the contest, recording negative total yardage in the game. The Hornets were credited with minus-38 yards rushing on 28 attempts. The figure included negative 46 yards on seven sacks by the Kent State defense. DSU completed just three-of-10 passes for a total of five yards. The Hornets scored each of their two touchdowns on defense. Safety Kevin Jocelyn forced a fumble on a run and DSU cornerback William Burton picked the ball out of the air and ran 35 yards to the endzone for a touchdown to cut the Golden Flashes' lead to 22-6. Kent State led 45-6 when the Hornet defense scored for the second time in the game. Free safety Terrick Colston scooped up a KSU fumble and darted 72 yards to the endzone with 7:18 left to play. It was the fourth career touchdown for Colston, who has also returned two interceptions and a blocked punt for scores. Linebacker Malik Harris led the Hornets in tackles for the second straight week, recording a career-high 15 (eight solo), including 2.5 behind the line-of-scrimmage. Colston also had 15 tackles (seven unassisted), a forced fumble and pass break-up, to go along with his return for a touchdown. He was selected as the MEAC's Defensive Player-of-the-Week for the performance. Jocelyn was credited with eight tackles, including two for lost yardage, a forced fumble and fumble recovery. For the season, Harris is tops on the Hornets and second among all MEAC with 26 tackles in the season's first two weeks. Colston is second on the team and fourth in the league with 21 tackles. Offensively, Jamaal Jackson leads the Hornets with 60 yards rushing on 29 attempts. Quarterback Esayah Obado has completed 19-of-35 passes for 232 yards. He has thrown three interceptions and still seeking his first career touchdown pass. Malik Golson is DSU's leading receiver with seven catches for 74 yards.

Chowan (1-1; 0-0 CIAA) is coming off a 35-3 loss to Campbell last Saturday. The Hawks opened the season with a 41-31 victory over Fayetteville State. Chowan quarterback Randall Dixon is off to a hot start to the season, connecting on 38-of-55 passes (69.1%) for 376 yards. He has thrown four touchdowns and two interceptions. Dixon completed 27 passes for 249 yards and four touchdowns in 33 attempts in the season-opening win at Fayetteville State. Tyree Lee is the top rusher for the Hawks, collecting 137 yards and a touchdown on 42 carries this season. He's also tied for the team lead with nine receptions (77 yards) and two touchdown catches. Wide receiver Kaine Lombard also has nine catches and leads the team with 104 receiving yards. On the other side of the ball, defensive back Cornell Duncan leads the Hawks with 16 total tackles (10 solo), including two backfield stops. Fellow defensive back Roderick Lindsey has 13 tackles (eight unassisted) and a team-high three pass break-ups. Vincente' Stafford has 12 tackles, including two behind the line-of-scrimmage, and an interception.

Chowan is the first non-historically Black institution to join the CIAA, the nation's oldest HBCU conference (established in 1912). The Hawks joined the league in 2008.

THE SERIES (First meeting)

This will be the first meeting between the teams. Chowan is Delaware State's first Div. II and CIAA opponent since a win over Shaw in 2011.

HOME OPENERS

Since 1980, Delaware State is 23-12 in home openers. The Hornets are trying to snap a two-game losing streak in home openers, falling to Bethune-Cookman (2013) and Towson (2014) the last two years. DSU won six straight home opening games from 1982 to '87.

CAPTAINS UP FOR GRABS

Rather than select captains for the season, the Delaware State coaching staff plans to appoint captains for each game this year. We will name captains for each contest, based on game and practice performance, attitude, classroom and off-the-field activities,. said DSU head coach Kenny Carter. QB Esayah Obado and DL Gabe Sherrod were captains vs. Kent State last week.

COLSTON EARNS WEEKLY MEAC HONOR

Delaware State defensive back Terrick Colston (sr.; Lakeland, Fla.) has been honored by the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference on Sep. 15 for his performance in the Hornets' last contest. Colston was selected as the MEAC's Defensive Player-of-the-Week after recording 15 tackles, including seven solo stops, a 72-yard fumble return for a touchdown, forced fumble and pass break-up in DSU's 45-13 loss to Kent State last Saturday. The touchdown was the fourth of Colston's career. He's also returned two interceptions and a blocked punt for scores at DSU. The weekly conference honor is also the fifth of his career. Colston was selected to the 2015 Preseason All-MEAC First Team by league head coaches and sports information directors.

He opened the season with six tackles (two solo) at Liberty last week. A 2014 All-MEAC Third Team pick, he was second on the Hornets with 75 tackles, and tied for fourth in the conference with four interceptions. Also last season, Colston became the first Delaware State player with interceptions in four straight games since the Hornets joined the MEAC in 1971. In addition, he had a forced fumble, fumble recovery, punt block and pass break-up last season. Colston returned an interception to the endzone for the Hornets' lone touchdown in their 27-7 loss to Bethune-Cookman on Oct. 4, 2014. The following week, he blocked a punt, recovered the ball and ran to the endzone for DSU's only touchdown for the second straight week in its 13-10 overtime victory at Norfolk State. For his career, Colston has seven interceptions, including two returned for touchdowns, and seven fumble recoveries.

OBADO WORKING HIS WAY BACK AFTER YEAR OFF

Delaware State starting quarterback has proven he can take a hit in his return to action this season after sitting out the 2014 season due to injury. Heavy pressure by Kent State's defense forced Obado into three-of-eight passing for just five yards last week. The DSU signal caller was sacked six times and knocked to the ground on several others. Obado has been sacked 11 times in two games this season. His two-game stats include 19 completions on 35 pass attempts for a 54.3 completion percentage. He has yet to throw a touchdown pass, while tossing three interceptions. In the season opener at Liberty, Obado completed 16-of-27 passes for a career-best 227 yards. He also rushed for a two-yard touchdown. Obado threw two interceptions and was sacked five times in his first full game as a Hornet. After sitting out the 2012 season as a redshirt freshman and serving as the No. 2 quarterback the following year, Obado was set to begin the 2014 campaign as the Hornets' starting QB. However, a lower back injury derailed the team's and Obado's plans, forcing him to miss the entire '14 season. Obado played in four contests as a redshirt freshman in 2013, completing 21-of-40 passes (52.5%) for 168 yards. He did not have a touchdown pass and threw two interceptions. A native of Hamilton, N.J., Obado passed for 3,690 yards and 42 touchdowns, while rushing for 615 yards and 11 scores at Nottingham High School. He was named to 2010 12th Man TD Club, WJFL/CVC and All-Area First Team after passing for 2075 yards and 24 touchdowns during junior season; and was also named to 2010 Super 100 Junior Football Players in New Jersey by the N.J. Football Coaches Association. Obado was the third player in Mercer County history to pass for more than 2000 yards in a season. He passed for 1545 yards and 17 touchdowns as a senior and completed school-record 62.4% of his passes during 2011 season. He also rushed for 525 yards and eight scores as a senior.

DSU UNVEILS NEW MULTI-MEDIA BOARD AT ALUMNI STADIUM

Delaware State has taken a giant step to enhance the fan experience at Alumni Stadium. Hornet fans attending Saturday's contest will be treated to a new state-of-the-art Daktronics multi-media display system, featuring a high definition screen and scoreboard. The 18 x 24-foot board's video screen is 360 lines by 480 columns with an innovative pixel arrangement that's designed to "take contrast and color to bold new levels."

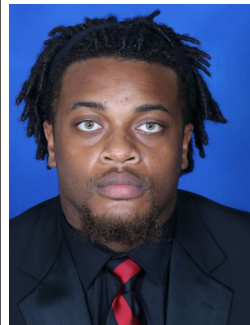

We are thrilled to partner with Daktronics to bring a new level of fun and excitement for our fans at Alumni Stadium," said Louis "Skip" Perkins, Delaware State Interim Associate Vice President and Director of Athletics. "In addition to enhancing Hornet sporting events, the multi-media board will allow the university to offer attractions on the big screen for the entire campus community to enjoy."

The new multi-media board is the centerpiece of improvements at the stadium this school year. Other upgrades include new screening and signage, along with more diverse food offerings.

FORMER TIGHT END GABE SHERROD LEADS DEFENSIVE FRONT

Gabe Sherrod (jr.) has emerged as the leader of the Hornets' defensive front. One of the issues facing the team this season was uncertainty surrounding its new-look defensive line. The Hornets' defensive front features just one returning starter from last season, some players in new positions and six freshmen. The biggest shoes the Hornets must fill from a year ago are those of tackle Rodney Gunter, now with the Arizona Cardinals after being selected in the fourth round (116th overall pick) of the 2015 National Football League draft. Sherrod, who lined up at tight end just two seasons ago, is off to an impressive start to the season. He leads all Hornet linemen with 10 tackles (seven unassisted), including 4.5 for lost yardage. In the Sep. 5 opener at Liberty, Sherrod recorded seven tackles, including 3.5 behind the line-of-scrimmage, a sack and a blocked kick. He was moved to defensive end during spring 2014 camp. In 10 games last season, Sherrod was seventh on the Hornets with 46 total tackles and ranked second on the team with 7.5 tackles-for-loss and five sacks. He has been named to the 2015 Preseason All-MEAC Third Team.

NAGEE JACKSON MAKES SWITCH TO TIGHT END

Nagee Jackson (sr.) rushed for 238 yards and a team-high seven touchdowns as a freshman halfback in 2012, but his playing time has declined each year since. The slim chance of Jackson getting much work at running back in his final season, along with the new coaching staff's goal of getting the tight end more involved in the offense this year, prompted a change in positions for the Gainesville, Va., native. He's had two balls thrown his way so far this season, catching one for two yards. Jackson was switched to tight end during the second week of summer camp, a move the staff believes will allow for better use of his skills. Although Jackson has just nine career receptions for 45 yards at DSU, head coach Kenny Carter stated, "Nagee has good hands and can make things happen after the catch. We expect him to have a big impact on our offense this season."

DSU MEDIA GUIDE ONLINE

The 2015 Delaware State University football media guide/yearbook can be viewed online by logging onto DSUHornets.com.

The cover features the University's new athletics motto, "Go Big Go Bold Go Hornets!"

The booklet contains information on the 2015

Hornets, a 2014 season review, DSU football records and historical data.

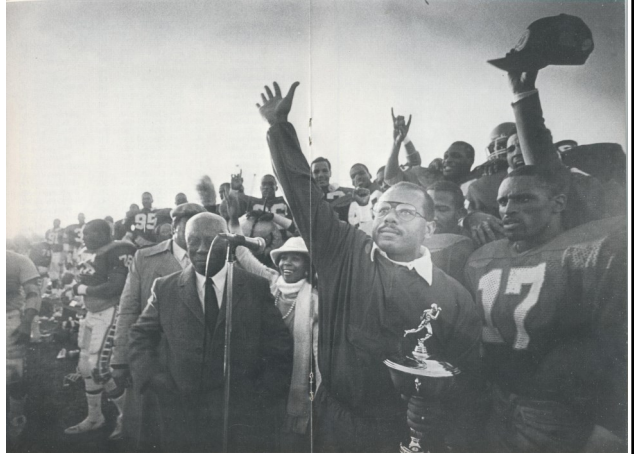

HORNETS TO HONOR 1985 MEAC CHAMPS, 1970 DEFENSIVE GIANTS

This season marks the 30th anniversary of Delaware State's first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference football championship. The 1985 Hornets won the title with a 5-0 league record (9-2 overall). The team, headed by first-year head coach Bill Collick, featured nine All-MEAC First Team players, including the Offensive Player-of-the-Year John Taylor and Defensive Player-of-the-Year Dan Candeloro. Collick was also selected as the MEAC Coach-of-the-Year that season.

The 1985 Hornets will be honored during Delaware State's annual Athletics Hall-of-Fame Banquet and Induction Ceremony on Friday, Sep. 18 at the Martin Luther King, Jr. Student Center on campus; and at halftime of DSU's 2015 home football opener against Chowan the following day.

A leading member of the '85 Hornets, defensive lineman Robert Presbury, is among the inductees in this year's DSU Hall-of-Fame class.

The 1970 Delaware State football team will also be recognized during the Sep. 18 hall-of-fame ceremony. The '70 Hornets posted 6-2 overall record and 4-1 mark in CIAA, but is most noted for having the greatest defensive season in team history. That year, Delaware State led all NCAA Div. II teams in rushing defense (-4.9 ypg) and total defense (103.5 ypg) and outscored opponents 172-83. The 1970 Hornets allowed 15 points or less in seven of eight games, including three consecutive shutouts (vs. Hampton; Howard; St. Paul's)

HARRIS MAKING HIS MARK ON HORNET DEFENSE

DSU inside linebacker Malik Harris (so.) is getting plenty of work so far this season, Harris had a career-high 15 tackles (eight solo) in the Hornets' 45-13 loss to Kent State last week. He opened the season with a team-high 12 tackles at Liberty on Sep. 5. Through two games, Harris is second in the MEAC with in tackles at 13.5 per game (26 total tackles). He's also credited with three tackles-for-loss (-11) and a sack. As a freshman in 2014, Harris had 32 tackles, including 15 unassisted, in 12 games.

STAYING HOME

Delaware State's 2015 roster includes a total of 20 in-state players, tops among the states. The Hornets' Delaware products are: Kamal Abrams (Dover), Brycen Alleyne (Wilmington), Sika Bendolph (Dover), Tecumseh Bendolph (Dover), Denzek Burgette (Middletown), Stewart Carey (Newark), Chuka Ezeuzoh (Wilmington), Mark Flakes (Wilmington); Morris Frasier (Felton); Malik Golson (Dover); John Griffin (Middletown), Darren Helwig (Dover); Jamaal Jackson (Wilmington); Keyjuan Selby (Bear), Taronn Selby (Bear); DaShawn Smith (New Castle); Kyle Taylor (Wilmington), Ameer Watson (Smyrna); Logan Wescott (Bridgeville); and Eric Wright (Bear). New Jersey, Maryland and Georgia are tied for second with the most players on the Hornets' 2015 roster at 11.

SEEING "DOUBLE-DOUBLE"

The 2015 DSU roster features the rarest of rare combinations. The Hornets have, not one, but two sets of twins on the squad. It's also worth noting that each set of twins hails from the First State. Running backs Sika (left) and Tecumseh Bendolph (right) joined the Hornets this summer after excelling primarily in track and field at Caesar Rodney High School near Dover.

Twins Taronn (left) and Keyjuan Selby (right) also joined the Hornets this summer after standout football careers at St. George's Vo-Tech in New Castle County, Del. Taronn, a wide receiver at DSU, was Delaware's 2014 Gatorade High School Player-of-the-Year after rushing for more than 1,300 yards and 23 touchdowns as a senior. Keyjuan also rushed for more than 1,000 yards as a senior at St. George's, and is the school's career interception leader.

It's believed to be the first time in team history that two sets of twins have suited up for the Hornets in the same season.

It's been suggested that the coaching staff allow the twins to wear their jerseys at all times. Much easier to identify them that way.

HOLD THOSE FLAGS

Delaware State will have to come-from-behind to maintain its recent standard as the MEAC's least penalized team. The Hornets are currently seventh in the MEAC with 72.5 penalty yards per game. DSU is 10th in the league with 18 total penalties. The Hornets have been the MEAC's least penalized team in four of the last five seasons. In 2014, DSU committed 71 committed penalties for 575 yards in 12 games, fewest in the league in each category.

DSU did not commit a single penalty in its 2014 season opening loss to Monmouth, marking the first time in recorded team history that the Hornets were not assessed a penalty in a game.

The Hornets were also the MEAC's least penalized team in 2013, ranking eighth among all NCAA FCS teams in fewest penalty yards per game at 39.3 that season.

DSU's CARTER AMONG SIX FIRST-TIME FCS COACHES

Delaware State's Kenny Carter is one of six first-time head coaches in FCS football this season, and one of 15 in the first season at their current school. Carter is one of two new head coaches in the MEAC, joining Bethune-Cookman's Terry Sims. Delaware State is one of four league teams with new head coaches this season.

The last first-time head coach hired at Delaware State was Al Lavan in 2004. Lavan lost his debut to Massachusetts 50-0 and was 4-7 in his first season, but went on to post a 43-38 overall record in seven seasons, highlighted by the 2007 MEAC championship and the school's first NCAA Tournament berth.

HORNETS UNVEIL NEW LOOK FOR 2015

For the first time in more than 30 years, there's a major new look to the helmets worn by the Hornets. The familiar "State" logo on each side of the helmet has been replaced by the Hornet logo on the left and the player's number on the right.

The last major design change to DSU's head gear was in 1982, when the State logo was added, the first of any kind on the helmet.

In 2010, the word Delaware, in smaller type, was placed above the State logo.

PLAYING WITH THE BIG BOYS

Delaware State's Sep. 12 visit to FBS Kent State marked the second year in a row that Delaware State stepped up a competition level in a game. Last week's loss was the third in three meetings between the teams. Kent State, a member of the Mid-America Conference (MAC) won the previous two meetings in 2007 and '08 in Kent, Ohio.

In 2014, Delaware State lost to FBS Temple 59-0 at Lincoln Financial Field, home of the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles.

Prior to last season, a 2009 visit to Michigan was the Hornets' most recent contest against a FBS foe. The Wolverines won 63-6 before a crowd of more than 106-thousand at the "Big House."

Delaware State is 1-5 all-time vs. FBS/Div. I-A opponents. The only win was a 52-26 upset of Akron in 1987.

The Hornets are scheduled to visit Southeast Conference (SEC) power Missouri on Sep. 24, 2016. Missouri announced its 2016 non-conference opponents on Aug. 26.

DSU/NCA&T CONTEST TO AIR ON ESPN NETWORKS

Delaware State's Nov. 14 football contest at North Carolina A&T will have a world-wide audience. The key Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference battle at Aggie Stadium in Greensboro, N.C., will be televised live on ESPN3, and rebroadcast on ESPNU later in the day. Game time is scheduled for 1 p.m. The ESPN rebroadcast is set for 4 p.m. The broadcast is part of the MEAC's eight-game 2015 ESPN television package. This will be Delaware State's first MEAC Television Game-of-the-Week appearance since a 28-23 victory at Morgan State in 2012.

DELAWARE STATE HEAD COACH KENNY CARTER

Delaware State University introduced Kenneth A. Carter as the Hornets' 19th head coach on Jan. 21, 2015. This is his first head coaching position.

Carter most recently served as passing game/co-special teams coordinator/wide receivers coach at Youngstown State University during the 2014 season.

From 2010 to 2014, Carter played a key role in the success of the University of Louisville program under Charlie Strong, serving as running backs coach and special teams coordinator.

In 2013, Louisville was 12-1 and concluded the campaign with an impressive 36-9 win over Miami (Fla.) in the Russell Athletic Bowl. On special teams, the Cardinals had two punt blocks and a kickoff return for a score. Placekicker John Wallace made 20-of-24 field-goal attempts and 52 PATs while punter Ryan Johnson averaged 41.2 yards a punt. The Cardinals led the nation in punt-return defense yielding 15 total yards for the year.

While at Louisville, Carter helped lead the Cardinals to two Big East Conference championships and four bowl appearances, including a 33-23 victory over No. 4 Florida in the 2013 Allstate Sugar Bowl in New Orleans.

Louisville also appeared in the Beef O'Brady's Bowl (2010) and Belk Bowl (2011) during Carter's tenure.

"Kenny is a high energy guy who brings a lot of passion to his job each and every day. I've known Kenny for a long time and he did a tremendous job handling our running backs and special teams at Louisville. He is a good coach and a good person. He'll do a great job at Delaware State."
Charlie Strong, University of Texas Head Coach (former Louisville Head Coach)

Also at Louisville, Carter was the position coach of New York Jets running back Bilal Powell, an All-Big East selection and Doak Walker Award semi-finalist as the nation's top rusher with the Cardinals.

During the 2008 and '09 seasons Carter was running backs coach under Urban Meyer at the University of Florida. He helped guide the Gators to the 2009 BCS National Championship with a 24-14 victory over Oklahoma.

Florida also competed in the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl and captured the 2008 Southeast Conference championship during his time on the coaching staff.

The Gators were 26-1 in his two seasons as running backs coach. In 2009, Florida was 13-1 losing only in the SEC Championship Game. The Gators capped the year with an impressive win over Cincinnati in the Sugar Bowl.

The Gators led the Southeast Conference in rushing at 231 yards per game and posted a school-record 42 rushing touchdowns during the 2008 season. Florida running back Jeff Demps was also a Doak Walker award nominee during Carter's tenure with the Gators.

Carter also served as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Vanderbilt from 2004-to-'07.

He served under the late Joe Paterno from 2001-to-03 as assistant receivers coach at Penn State University.

Among the highlights of Carter's tenure at Penn State were an appearance in 2003 Capital One Bowl; and the selection of All-Big Ten receiver Bryant Johnson in the first round of the NFL draft by Arizona Cardinals.

During the 2000 season, Carter was running backs coach at the University of Pittsburgh. The Panthers competed in the Insight.com Bowl; and running back Kevin Barlow was a third round selection of the NFL's San Francisco 49ers following that season.

In 1999, Carter was an assistant coach (strong safeties/linebackers/nickel backs) at Louisiana State University. He began his coaching career in 1993 as an assistant at Furman (tight ends).

The following year, Carter was hired as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator at his alma mater, The Citadel, where he served until 1998.

Carter was a four-year letterman as an inside linebacker for The Citadel. He was the Bulldogs' 1989 Special Teams Player-of-the-Year.

He earned a bachelor of science in Health and Exercise Science from The Citadel in 1990.

HORNETS 10th IN MEAC PRESEASON POLL

Delaware State has been picked to finish 10th in the 2015 conference standings, according to a poll of league head coaches and sports information directors.

North Carolina A&T, one of five teams to share the 2014 MEAC title, is the choice of voters to capture the crown this season. The Aggies collected nine of 22 first place votes and 425 total points in the balloting.

South Carolina State is a close second with four first place votes and 408 points. The Bulldogs also owned a share of the 2014 MEAC title. Bethune-Cookman (387 points), North Carolina Central (334) and Morgan State (318) round out the top five in the MEAC preseason poll. The Wildcats, Eagles and Bears also captured a share of the league championship last season.

Morgan State was awarded the MEAC's automatic bid for the 2014 NCAA FCS playoffs in a tie-breaker among five teams.

Delaware State has an all-time MEAC record of 131-153-1 since joining the league when it was formed in 1971. The Hornets have won or shared six MEAC championships (1985, '87, '88, '89, '91, 2007).

MEAC CHAMPION TO COMPETE IN INAUGURAL CELEBRATION BOWL

This year's MEAC champion will also have the honor of representing the conference against the champ of the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) in the inaugural Celebration Bowl in Atlanta, Ga..

The quest for the 2015 MEAC championship and Celebration Bowl berth will have an added incentive for Delaware State and its fellow conference members.

ESPN Events, a subsidiary of ESPN, has announced that the inaugural Celebration Bowl will be televised live on ABC. The new postseason college football bowl game will kick off at noon ET Saturday, Dec. 19, at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta.

The Celebration Bowl, which showcases the legacy, values and traditions of Historically Black Colleges and Universities, will pit the conference champions from the MEAC and SWAC.

"We are excited to collaborate with ESPN to launch the Celebration Bowl and continue our longstanding tradition of delivering an annual HBCU college football showdown to fans in Atlanta," said John Grant, Chief Executive Officer, 100 Black Men of Atlanta, Inc. "Having the game televised on ABC will showcase the best in HBCU football on a national stage."

FORMER HORNETS MAKING THEIR MARK IN THE PROS AND BEYOND

FORMER HORNET RODNEY GUNTER SELECTED IN FOURTH ROUND BY ARIZONA CARDINALS IN 2015 NFL DRAFT

Former Hornet defensive lineman Rodney Gunter ('14) is already making an impact in professional football. Gunter was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the fourth round (116th overall pick) of the 2015 National Football League draft, making him the third highest NFL selection in Hornet football history. He was also the first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference player chosen in the 2015 NFL draft.

Gunter, who recorded a sack in the endzone for a safety in the Cardinals' 2015 preseason opener against the Kansas City Chiefs, is in line to be the team's starting nose guard when the regular season begins. He moved up the depth chart when Cardinals' tackle Corey Peters ruptured his Achilles in a preseason practice, likely sidelining him for the season.

Gunter was a four-year starter from 2011 to 2014, competing in each of the Hornets' 45 games during the span. He was an All-MEAC First Team selection in 2013; and second team pick in 2012 and 2014.

His career stats include 99 solo tackles and 89 assists, 37 tackles-for-loss and 18 sacks. He was the Hornets' sack leader in each of the last three seasons.

DSU's WILLIAMS IN RAIDERS CAMP

Former Hornet receiver Milton Williams III is in the Oakland Raiders camp this summer after being signed as a free agent by the team in April. Williams played with the Hornets from 2011 to 2014. His DSU career totals include 126 receptions for 1612 yards and 11 touchdowns. Williams ranks seventh on the Hornets' all-time list for receptions and 10th in receiving yards.

JOHN TAYLOR TOPS LIST OF FORMER HORNET PROS

Rodney Gunter may one day be recognized as the former Hornet with the greatest professional football career, but right now that distinction belongs to John Taylor, who played nine seasons with the great San Francisco 49er teams of the late 1980s to mid-90s.

Taylor is most famous for catching the winning touchdown on a 10-yard pass from Joe Montana with 34 seconds left in the 49ers' 20-16 win over the Cincinnati Bengals in Super Bowl XXIII in Miami, Fla. It was his first of three Super Bowl championships with the Niners. Taylor was also a two-time NFL All-Pro selection, competed in two Pro

Bowls and was named as to the NFL's 1980s All-Decade Team as the second team punt returner.

In a Monday night game against the Rams, Taylor scored touchdowns on two receptions of over 90 yards (92 and 96), an NFL first. He recorded 347 receptions for 5,589 yards (16.1 ypr) and 43 touchdowns in his NFL career.

OTHER FORMER HORNETS RAISE DSU PROFILE

Two other former DSU football standouts are making news these days. Regular cable news watchers likely know the name Matthew Horace, an offensive lineman for the Hornets from 1980 to '83. In 1983, he helped lead the team to a 7-3-1 record, its first winning season in six years. Horace is currently an internationally recognized law enforcement, homeland security and leadership expert. He is Senior Vice President and Chief Security Officer for FJC Security Services, a national security firm based in metropolitan New York City. A twenty-eight year veteran of federal, state and local law enforcement, he ascended to the Senior Executive Service (SES) rank in the United States Department of Justice where he managed local, regional, national, and international investigations. He is frequently featured in live broadcast news segments related to Homeland Security, Federal investigations and general law enforcement matters on CNN, Headline News, MSNBC, FOX and local affiliates throughout the United States and abroad.

Television and movie watchers may recognize former Hornet Aaron Spears (right), now a Hollywood actor. Spears was a running back for the Hornets during the 1992 and '93 seasons. In 1993, he was one of three Hornets to rush for 100 yards (133) in a 65-42 win over Morgan State. Today, Spears plays the character Mark Bradley in the BET series Being Mary Jane starring Gabrielle Union. He received a NAACP Image Award for his role as Justin Barber in the daytime soap Bold and the Beautiful. His television credits also include guest roles in Criminal Minds, Bones and Everybody Loves Raymond.
