The Series: Series tied 19-19

Delaware State Head Coach Kenny Carter (The Citadel, '90): Carter is in his second season as head coach of the Hornets. He is 1-13 at DSU. This is his first head coaching job. He most recently served as an assistant coach at Youngstown University during the 2014 season. From 2010 to 2014, Carter was an assistant coach under Charlie Strong at the University of Louisville, helping lead the Cardinals to two Big East championships and four bowl appearances. During the 2008 and '09 seasons Carter was running backs coach under Urban Meyer at the University of Florida. He helped guide the Gators to the 2009 BCS National Championship. Florida also competed in the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl and captured the 2008 Southeast Conference championship during his time on the coaching staff. Carter has also served as an assistant at Vanderbilt, Penn State, Pittsburgh and LSU. This is his first game against Missouri. Carter is 0-1 against BCU, falling to the Wildcats in 2015

BCU Head Coach Terry Sims (Knoxville, '94): Sims is in his second season as head coach of the Wildcats. He served the previous five years as a BCU assistant coach. This is his first head coaching job. In 2014, Sims helped guide Bethune-Cookman to its fourth MEAC title in his five years with the program. Before joining the Wildcats, Sims spent four seasons as recruiting coordinator, special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach at Howard University. The Jessup, Ga., native has also served as an assistant coach at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, Prairie View A&M, Texas Southern, Austin Peay and Knoxville College, his alma mater. Sims is 1-0 vs. Delaware State, defeating the Hornets 49-21 in 2015

THE GAME

Delaware State (0-7; 0-4 MEAC) wraps up a two-game road swing with a visit to Bethune-Cookman in a MEAC contest. The Hornets are coming off a 30-3 road loss to South Carolina State last week. DSU totaled just 151 yards in the contest. The Hornets trailed 27-0 before scoring their only points on a field goal by Wisdom Nzidee just before halftime. The loss overshadowed a career performance by DSU freshman line-backer Brian Cavicante, who led all players with 13 tackles, including seven solo stops. Fellow linebacker Malik Harris had 12 tackles, four behind the line-of-scrimmage. For the season, the Hornets are averaging 252.1 yards per game, 132.4 by the pass and 119.7 on the ground. Daniel Epperson has started the last five games at quarterback for the Hornets. He has completed 73-of-140 passes (52.1%) for 785 yards with five touchdowns and nine interceptions. DSU has two of the MEAC's top six rushers. Brycen Alleyne (so.) is fifth in the league with 452 rushing yards (64.6 pg) and three touchdowns, while Mike Waters (fr.) is sixth with 381 yards and two TDs. Defensively, DSU is allowing 470.4 yards per contest. Opponents are rushing for 238.7 yards per game and passing for 231.7 yards against the Hornet defense. Harris is tops on the team with 54 tackles (31 solo), including 6.5 behind the line-of-scrimmage and a team-high two sacks.

Bethune-Cookman (1-5; 1-3 MEAC) notched its first win of the season, 21-14, at Norfolk State last week. The Wildcat defense led the way, holding the Spartans to 222 yards of total offense, highlighted by five quarterback sacks. Bethune-Cookman scored two second-quarter touchdowns to take a 21-7 lead and held on in the second half. For the season, BCU is averaging 301.5 yards per game to rank sixth in the MEAC. The Cats average 133.8 yards per game rushing (fifth in MEAC) and 167.7 yards by the pass (sixth in MEAC) this season. Defensively, BCU is allowing 396.2 yards per game to rank seventh in the league. Wildcat quarterback Larry Brihm has completed 50-of-97 throws (51.5%) for 696 yards this season. He has thrown seven touchdowns and three interceptions. Brihm ranks third in MEAC in pass efficiency (129.4 rating) and is seventh in the league at 139.2 passing yards per game. Jawil Davis leads the team with 19 receptions for 314 yards, while Frank Brown has 17 catches for 319 yards and is tied for the MEAC lead with five touchdown grabs. Safety Diquan Richardson tops the Wildcats with 46 tackles (seventh in MEAC), while linebacker Trenton Bridges has a team-high 5.5 tackles for loss.

THE SERIES

This will be the 39th contest between the teams. Bethune-Cookman has won the last five meetings to tie the series at 19-19. The Wildcats won last year's contest 49-21 at Delaware State's Alumni Stadium. BCU racked up 489 yards of total offense, including 353 rushing, in the contest. The last time the teams met at Bethune-Cookman, the Cats posted a 27-7 victory in 2014. Bethune-Cookman took advantage of three special teams shortcomings by the Hornets to open up a 21-0 lead in the first quarter and never looked back. The Hornets won six straight in the series from 1992-to-'97; and four in a row from 2005-to-'08. DSU's last win over Bethune-Cookman was in 2008 (26-20) in Daytona Beach, Fla

HORNETS IN THE MEAC

A charter member of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference, Delaware State is in its 46th year of league play. The Hornets have an all-time record of 132-167-1 in MEAC contests. DSU is one of two teams yet to record a league win this season. The Hornets are tied with Norfolk State at the bottom of the league standings at 0-4. DSU has won or shared six MEAC championships. The Hornets claimed outright MEC titles in 1985, 1989 and 2007, while sharing the crown in 1987, 1988 and 1991. Delaware State was tied with Howard, Florida A&M and Savannah State for eighth in the MEAC with a 1-7 league mark in 2015. The Hornets have been picked to finish ninth in this year's race, according to a poll of league head coaches and sports information representatives.

EPPERSON TAKES CONTROL OF QUARTERBACK JOB

After using two quarterbacks in each of the first three contests, Delaware State head coach Kenny Carter has stayed with starter Daniel Epperson (jr.) for much of the last four games. His season stats include 73 completions on 140 pass attempts (52.1%) for 785 yards, with five touchdowns and nine interceptions.

His best outing of the year against was on Oct. 8 against Hampton, when he connected on 18-of-30 passes for a season-high 245 yards and a touchdown. Epperson completed 17-of-29 passes for 185 yards against Florida A&M on Oct. 15, but threw three interceptions, one returned 100 yards for a touchdown to give Florida A&M a 21-point fourth quarter lead. The Wrightwood, Cal., native is eighth in the MEAC in passing yards per game at 113.6.

Epperson (right) is in his first season at Delaware State after competing at San Bernardino (Cal.) JC where he passed for 2,767 yards and 27 touchdowns, and rushed for 254 yards and four scores in two seasons. He helped lead the team to 2015 Mountain League Championship.

Kobie Lain (so.) shared QB duties with Epperson in the Hornets' first three outings.

Lain (right) most recently took a few snaps last week at South Carolina State and on Oct. 8 vs. Hampton. He saw more playing time at Missouri on Sep. 24, coming off the bench to connect on seven-of-15 passes for 82 yards (long 21). Lain started the Monmouth contest this season, completing six-of-12 passes for just 20 yards. He was two-for-two for 31 yards in the opener at Delaware.

Lain played in five games, starting the finale, as a true freshman in 2015. He completed 25-of-50 passes for 329 yards with two touchdowns and three interceptions for the season. Lain was selected as the MEAC Rookie-of-the-Week after completing 14-of-27 passes for 181 yards and two touchdowns, and rushing for 52 yards and a score on 15 attempts, in the Hornets' 32-31 win over Howard in his lone start.

ALLEYNE AMONG MEAC ALL-PURPOSE YARDAGE LEADERS

Brycen Alleyne (so.) continues to carry a heavy load for the Hornets this season. Entering this week's action Alleyne is No. 4 in the MEAC in all-purpose yardage at 123.7 per game. His career-best 174 yards rushing vs. Florida A&M on Oct. 15 helped catapult him to fifth in the league in rushing yards (452) and rushing yards per game (64.6). He's also third in the MEAC in kickoff returns with a 20.7 yard average. Alleyne has returned 15 kickoffs for 310 yards, highlighted by returns of 50 and 47 yards this season.

His rushing total vs. Florida A&M was the most by a Hornet since 2008. His previous single-game high was 94 yards, highlighted by a 64-yard touchdown, vs. Monmouth on Sep. 10. He had rushing touchdowns of 42 and 13 yards vs. Florida A&M last week.

Alleyne is also DSU's leading receiver with 21 receptions for 99 yards and one touchdown.

Alleyne had a career-best 235 all-purpose yards vs. Florida A&M on Oct. 15, topping his previous high of 194 in the season opener at Delaware on Sep. 1.

As a true freshman in 2015, he ranked second on the Hornets in rushing yards (249) and rushing yards per game (22.6) and finishing second on the team in all-purpose yards at 78.4 per game (862 total) in 2015. Alleyne was also third on the Hornets with 16 receptions and 132 receiving yards, and was team leader with 481 kickoff return yards (25.3 ypr) last season. He returned a kick-off 88 yards for a touchdown, rushed for 37 yards and had three receptions in 32-31 victory over Howard to help key the Hornets' lone win in their 2015 finale.

HORNETS HOPE TO GET SCOTT BACK ON TRACK

With the 2016 season more than half over for the Hornets, wide receiver Aris Scott will need a big finish to match his junior season or predictions for this, his senior year. Six games into the season, Scott is third on the team with just 19 catches for 202 yards. He had a season-high five receptions vs. Florida A&M on Oct. 15, but only 25 receiving yards in the contest. His season-high yardage is 45 vs. Hampton on Oct. 8. A preseason All-MEAC Third Team selection, Scott turned in his best season at DSU as a junior in 2015. Starting in all 11 games, he was tops on the Hornets with 46 receptions for 683 yards. Scott ranked fourth in the MEAC in receiving yards per game (62.1) and fifth in the league in receptions (4.2 pg) a year ago. He surpassed the 1000-yard mark for career receiving yards in the season opener at Delaware on Sep. 1. He currently stands at 1,190 receiving yards at DSU to rank in the top 20 in team history.

DSU LB HARRIS NAMED TO COLLEGE SCOUTING NEWS PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA TEAM

The experts at College Football Scouting News believe Delaware State linebacker Malik Harris (jr.; Washington, D.C.) is a good bet to have a standout 2016 season.

Harris has been named to the first-ever College Football Scouting News FCS Preseason All-America First Team for the upcoming campaign.

He is tops on the Hornets and 14th in the MEAC in tackles at 7.7 per game this season (54 total).

Harris had a season-high 12 tackles, including four behind the line-of-scrimmage, last week vs. South Carolina State.

He recorded 11 tackles (four solo) vs. Monmouth on Sep. 10 and opened the season with nine tackles, including four unassisted in the opener. He returned a fumble 23 yards vs. Morgan State on Oct. 1.

A 2016 Preseason All-MEAC Second Team pick, Harris was tops on the Hornets and second among all MEAC players in tackles-per-game (9.5) and total tackles (104) last season. He also ranked second on the team and sixth in the league with 14.5 tackles-for-loss, in addition to recording 1.5 sacks, an interception, two pass break-ups and a fumble recovery in 2015. Harris reached double-figures in tackles in seven games, and had 12-or-more stops in five contests during his sophomore season.

He is one of three Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference players on the College Sporting News Pre-season All-America First Team, joining running back Tarik Cohen and return specialist Kris Gardin, each from North Carolina A&T.

The booklet contains information on the 2016 Hornets, a 2015 season review, DSU football records and historical data.

RUTHERFORD EMERGES AS HORNETS' TOP RECEIVER

Newcomer Mason Rutherford (jr.) has stepped up as the Hornets' top wide receiver this season. Rutherford is tops on the team with 273 receiving yards (13.6 ypr) and is second on the club with 20 catches. He had a season-high six catches and led all players with 83 yards in his Delaware State debut at Delaware on Sep. 1 and tied for the DSU lead with five receptions for a team-best 89 yards vs. Hampton on Oct. 8. The San Bernardino, Cal., native is in his first season with the Hornets transferring from San Bernardino Junior College. His six-yard TD catch from his San Bernardino teammate Daniel Epperson in the Delaware contest accounted for the Hornets' first score of the season. Rutherford had 58 receptions for 1,038 yards and nine touchdowns, and helped lead the team to a conference championship, in two seasons at San Bernardino.

HORNET WR NAMED MEAC ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Delaware State wide receiver Fatu Sua-Godinet (fr.; Honolulu, HI) was honored by the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference for his play in the Hornets' 27-17 loss to Hampton on Oct. 8.

Sua-Godinet was named MEAC Rookie-of-the-Week after catching five passes for 84 yards, including his first career touchdown on a 23-yard pass from Daniel Epperson to tie the score at 14 late in the second quarter.

For the season, Sua-Godinet is second on the Hornets with 223 receiving yards and fourth on the team with 15 receptions.

He was a three-sport star at Kamahameha High School in Hawai'i (football, basketball, track & field) before enrolling at Delaware State this year.

FRESHMAN RB MAKING HIS MARK FOR THE HORNETS

Hornet first-year running back Mike Waters has introduced himself to the MEAC in a big way. Waters was named MEAC Co-Rookie-of-the-Week on Oct. 17 after rushing for a career-best 150 yards vs. Florida A&M. The rushing total was the most by a Hornet freshman since 1984, and put him among the top runners in the MEAC this season. Entering this week's action, Waters is second on the Hornets and sixth in the league in rushing yards (381), and rushing yards per game (54.4). His previous high game was 96 yards rushing, highlighted by a 44-yard run and a touchdown, vs. Morgan State on Oct. 1. Waters led the Hornets with 31 yards rushing on seven carries (4.4 avg.) at Missouri on Sep. 24, highlighted by a run of 12 yards for a first down. Waters tallied nearly 3,000 yards and 51 touchdowns in his scholastic career, and helped lead Imhotep Charter (Pa.) to a 15-0 record and its first Pennsylvania State Championship during his senior season in 2015.

STAYING HOME

Delaware State's 2016 roster includes a total of 16 in-state players, tops among the states. The Hornets' Delaware products are: Brycen Alleyne (Wilmington), Kyle Bailey (Camden); Sika Bendolph (Dover), Tecumseh Bendolph (Dover), Denzel Burgette (Middletown), Nigel Bynum (Claymont); Dominique Drewery (Bear), Chuka Ezeuzoh (Wilmington), Daniel Johnson (Middletown), Donte Newell (Newark), Keyjuan Selby (Bear), Taronn Selby (Bear); Kyle Taylor (Wilmington), Brandon Wallace (Wilmington), Logan Wescott (Bridgeville), and Nyree Williamson (New Castle).

New York Jersey is second with the most players on the Hornets' 2016 roster at 12, followed by New Jersey and Pennsylvania with 10 each.

SEEING "DOUBLE-DOUBLE"

The 2016 DSU roster features the rarest of rare combinations. The Hornets have not one, but two sets of twins on the squad. It's also worth noting that each set of twins hails from the First State. Running backs Sika (left) and Tecumseh Bendolph (right) joined the Hornets in 2015 after excelling primarily in track and field at Caesar Rodney High School near Dover.

Twins Taronn (left) and Keyjuan Selby (right) also joined the Hornets last season after standout football careers at St. George's Vo-Tech in New Castle County, Del. Taronn, a wide receiver at DSU, was Delaware's 2014 Gatorade High School Player-of-the-Year after rushing for more than 1,300 yards and 23 touchdowns as a senior. Keyjuan, a defensive back for the Hornets, also rushed for more than 1,000 yards as a senior at St. George's, and is the school's career interception leader. It's believed to be the first time in team history that two sets of twins have suited up for the Hornets in the same season.

E KOMO MAI (Welcome!)

The nation's 50th state is also represented on the 2016 Delaware State roster. Freshmen Fatu Sua-Godinet (WR) and Cade Pedro (OL) are Hawai'i natives who signed with the Hornets on National Letter of Intent Day last February. Each attended Kamehameha High School. They are recognized as the first Hawai'i natives to compete for the Hornets. Another Delaware State freshman, Joshua Fala, is Samoan, although he was born and raised in California.

Also adding to the diversity on the Hornets' 2016 roster are three players of Nigerian descent: PK Wisdom Nzidee (jr.), DL Abdul-Kamal Ajelero (so.) and OL Chuka Ezeuzoh (so.).

STINGERS

The visit to Bethune-Cookman will be a homecoming for Delaware State's Florida natives Brock Nichols (Naples), Issiah Small (Miami) and Ernest Sellars (Fort Lauderdale) ... Delaware State had 42 freshmen on its 2016 opening day roster ... DSU has yet to intercept a pass this season and has faced 261 opponent throws since its last pick on Nov. 7, 2015 vs. NC Central.

HORNETS UNVEIL NEW LOOK FOR 2016

For the second straight year, there's a major new look to the helmets worn by the Hornets. DSU will sport white head gear for the first time in team history this season. The design is similar to the red helmets the team wore in 2015, with the Hornet logo on the left side and player's number on the right. From the early 1980s to 2015, the Hornets wore red helmets with the familiar "State" logo on each side. In 2010, the word Delaware, in smaller type, was placed above the State logo.

Thanks to the upcoming Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference agreement with NIKE, the Hornets will also sport new uniforms this season. The MEAC currently has a conference-wide footwear agreement for its 13 member institutions with NIKE, also until 2020. The MEAC/NIKE apparel, accessory and equipment agreement will begin Sep. 1, 2016. In addition to Delaware State, MEAC members Bethune-Cookman, Coppin State, Florida A&M, Maryland-Eastern Shore, Norfolk State, North Carolina A&T, North Carolina Central, Savannah State and South Carolina State will benefit from the partnership. "Both Nike and the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference have a rich, storied history and progressive mindset," said Kit Morris Senior Director of Sports Marketing. "The continuation of this partnership builds on that legacy to drive the future of student-athletes at these historic institutions." The company will also continue to provide summer internships to deserving MEAC student-athletes at the NIKE World Headquarters in Beaverton, Ore., and provide two (2) graduate scholarships annually for MEAC student-athletes attending graduate school.

PLAYING WITH THE BIG BOYS

Delaware State's visit to Missouri on Sep.24 marked the third time in four years that Delaware State stepped up a competition level in a game. DSU's 79-0 loss to the FBS Tigers was also the Hornets' first contest against a team from the Southeast Conference (SEC), arguably the top league in major college football. Since 2012, the Hornets have suffered a 45-13 setback to FBS Kent State (2015), a 59-0 loss to Temple at Lincoln Financial Field, home of the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles (2014); and a 38-14 defeat at the hands of Cincinnati (2012). Prior to 2012, a 2009 visit to Michigan was the Hornets' most recent contest against a FBS foe. The Wolverines won 63-6 before a crowd of more than 106 thousand at the "Big House." Delaware State is 1-7 all-time vs. FBS/Div. I-A opponents. The only win was a 52-26 upset of Akron in 1987.

DELAWARE STATE HEAD COACH KENNY CARTER

Delaware State University introduced Kenneth Carter as the Hornets' head football coach in 2015.

Carter has spearheaded a cultural shift in the football program, highlighted by significant changes in academic, conditioning, recruiting and community service.

Highlighting the Hornets' academic successes under Carter are top grade-point-average among DSU male teams, five players with 4.0 GPAs, 17 earning Dean's List honors and 13 with 3.0-to-3.24 GPAs for the 2015-16 school year.

In addition, Carter's first Delaware State signee class posted a cumulative grade-point-average of 3.0 for the 2015-16 academic year.

Carter's first Hornet team also featured 22 former Delaware high school players, the most at the school in two decades.

Prior to accepting the Delaware State post, Carter was passing game/co-special teams coordinator/wide receivers coach at Youngstown State University during the 2014 season.

From 2010 to 2014, Carter played a key role in the success of the University of Louisville program under Charlie Strong, now the head coach at the University of Texas.

While at Louisville, Carter helped lead the Cardinals to two Big East Conference championships and four bowl appearances, including a 33-23 victory over No. 4 Florida in the 2013 Allstate Sugar Bowl in New Orleans. Louisville also appeared in the Beef O'Brady's Bowl (2010) and Belk Bowl (2011) during Carter's tenure.

Also at Louisville, Carter was the position coach of New York Jets running back Bilal Powell, an All-Big East selection and Doak Walker Award semi-finalist as the nation's top rusher with the Cardinals.

"Kenny is a high energy guy who brings a lot of passion to the job each and every day. I've known Kenny for a long time and he did a tremendous job handling our running backs and special teams at Louisville. He is a good coach and a good person. He'll do a great job at Delaware State."
Charlie Strong, University of Texas Head Coach (former Louisville Head Coach)

During the 2008 and '09 seasons Carter was running backs coach under Urban Meyer at the University of Florida. He helped guide the Gators to the 2009 BCS National Championship with a 24-14 victory over Oklahoma.

Florida also competed in the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl and captured the 2008 Southeast Conference championship during his time on the coaching staff.

The Gators led the Southeast Conference in rushing at 231 yards per game and posted a school-record 42 rushing touchdowns during the 2008 season. Florida running back Jeff Demps was also a Doak Walker award nominee during Carter's tenure with the Gators.

Carter also served as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Vanderbilt from 2004-to-'07.

He served under the late Joe Paterno from 2001-to-03 as assistant receivers coach at Penn State University.

Among the highlights of Carter's tenure at Penn State were an appearance in 2003 Capital One Bowl; and the selection of All Big Ten receiver Bryant Johnson in the first round of the NFL draft by Arizona Cardinals. During the 2000 season, Carter was running backs coach at the University of Pittsburgh. The Panthers competed in the Insight.com Bowl; and running back Kevin Barlow was a third round selection of the NFL's San Francisco 49ers following that season.

In 1999, Carter was an assistant coach (strong safeties/linebackers/nickel backs) at Louisiana State University.

He began his coaching career in 1993 as an assistant at Furman (tight ends).

The following year, Carter was hired as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator at his alma mater, The Citadel, where he served until 1998.

Carter was a four-year letterman as an inside linebacker for The Citadel. He was the Bulldogs' 1989 Special Teams Player-of-the-Year.

He earned a bachelor of science in Health and Exercise Science from The Citadel in 1990.

The last fifteen years he has coached in the Delaware high school ranks, nine with The Tatnall School and six at Thomas McKean H.S. (his alma mater), both in Wilmington. In 2013 Conley and his family were inducted into the Thomas McKean High School Hall of Fame.

FORMER HORNETS MAKING THEIR MARK IN THE PROS AND BEYOND

FORMER HORNET RODNEY GUNTER SELECTED IN FOURTH ROUND BY ARIZONA CARDINALS IN 2015 NFL DRAFT

Former Hornet defensive lineman Rodney Gunter ('14) is making an impact in professional football. Gunter was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the fourth round (116h overall pick) of the 2015 National Football League draft, making him the third highest NFL selection in Hornet football history. He was also the first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference player chosen in the 2015 NFL draft.

Gunter tallied 19 tackles (16 solo), including a sack, as a rookie in 2015.

Gunter was a four-year starter for the Hornets from 2011 to 2014, competing in each of the Hornets' 45 games during the span. He was an All-MEAC First Team selection in 2013; and second team pick in 2012 and 2014.

DSU REMEMBERS FORMER HORNET, 9/11 HERO KEITH GLASCOE

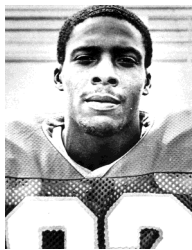

Delaware State football also honors the memory of former Hornet defensive lineman Keith Glascoe ('85), who died in the Sep. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks at the World Trade Center while serving as a New York City firefighter.

Glascoe played with the Hornets in the early 1980s. He was given a try out by the NFL's

New York Jets following his college career.

JOHN TAYLOR TOPS LIST OF FORMER HORNET PROS

Rodney Gunter may one day be recognized as the former Hornet with the greatest professional football career, but right now that distinction belongs to John Taylor, who played nine seasons with the great San Francisco 49er teams of the late 1980s to mid-90s. Taylor is most famous for catching the winning touchdown on a 10-yard pass from Joe Montana with 34 seconds left in the 49ers' 20-16 win over the Cincinnati Bengals in Super Bowl XXIII in Miami, Fla. It was his first of three Super Bowls championships with the Niners. Taylor was also a two-time NFL All-Pro selection, competed in two Pro Bowls and was named as to the NFL's 1980s All-

Decade Team as the second team punt returner. In a Monday night game against the Rams, Taylor scored touchdowns on two receptions of over 90 yards (92 and 96), an NFL first. He recorded 347 receptions for 5,589 yards (16.1 ypr) and 43 touchdowns in his NFL career.

OTHER FORMER HORNETS RAISE DSU PROFILE

Two other former DSU football standouts are making news these days. Regular cable news watchers likely know the name Matthew Horace, an offensive lineman for the Hornets from 1980 to '83. In 1983, he helped lead the team to a 7-3-1 record, its first winning season in six years. Horace is currently an internationally recognized law enforcement, homeland security and leadership expert. He is Senior Vice President and Chief Security Officer for FJC Security Services, a national security firm based in metropolitan New York City. A twenty-eight year veteran of federal, state and local law enforcement, he ascended to the Senior Executive Service (SES) rank in the United States Department of Justice where he managed local, regional, national, and international investigations. He is frequently featured in live broadcast news segments related to Homeland Security, Federal investigations and general law enforcement matters on CNN, Headline News, MSNBC, FOX and local affiliates throughout the United States and abroad.

Television and movie watchers may recognize former Hornet Aaron Spears (right), now a Hollywood actor. Spears was a running back for the Hornets during the 1992 and '93 seasons. In 1993, he was one of three Hornets to rush for 100 yards (133) in a 65-42 win over Morgan State. Today, Spears plays the character Mark Bradley in the BET series Being Mary Jane starring Gabrielle Union. He received a NAACP Image Award for his role as Justin Barber in the daytime soap Bold and the Beautiful. His television credits also include guest roles in Criminal Minds, Bones and Everybody Loves Raymond.

HORNETS NINTH IN MEAC PRESEASON POLL

Delaware State has been picked to finish ninth in the 2016 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference football race, according to a poll of league head coaches and sports information directors.

Celebration Bowl last season.

The Hornets received one first place vote and 121 total points in the 11-team poll that's headed by North Carolina A&T, which shared the 2015 MEAC title with Bethune-Cookman and North Carolina Central. NCA&T, which received 13 of 22 first place votes and 498 total points, was declared Black College National Champs after defeating Southwestern Athletic Conference champion Alcorn State in the inaugural Rounding out the top five in the 2016 MEAC preseason poll are Bethune-Cookman, North Carolina Central, South Carolina State and Hampton. Norfolk State (sixth), Morgan State (seventh) and Florida A&M (eighth) are just ahead of the Hornets, while Howard (10th) and Savannah State round out the poll.

Delaware State was 1-7 in the MEAC (1-10) overall in Kenny Carter's first season as head coach in 2015. The Hornets were tied with Howard, Florida A&M and Savannah State in last year's MEAC race.

2016 MEAC Preseason Predicted Order of Finish

10. Howard	90
11. Savannah State	48

MEAC CHAMPION TO COMPETE IN CELEBRATION BOWL

The quest for the 2016 MEAC championship will again have an added incentive for Delaware State and its fellow conference members.

This year's MEAC champion will also have the honor of representing the conference against the champ of the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) in the Second Annual Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl in Atlanta, Ga..

The MEAC claimed the first Celebration Bowl championship with North Carolina A&T's victory over Alcorn State last year.

ESPN Events, a subsidiary of ESPN, has announced that the second Celebration Bowl will again be televised live on ABC.

The 2016 postseason college football bowl game will kick off at noon ET on Saturday, Dec. 17, at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta.

The Celebration Bowl, which showcases the legacy, values and traditions of Historically Black Colleges and Universities, will pit the conference champions from the MEAC and SWAC.

"We are excited to again collaborate with ESPN to launch the Celebration Bowl and continue our longstanding tradition of delivering an annual HBCU college football showdown to fans in Atlanta," said John Grant, Chief Executive Officer, 100 Black Men of Atlanta, Inc. "Having the game televised on ABC will showcase the best in HBCU football on a national stage."
