National Rankings: Delaware State is not ranked in any major Football Championship Subdivision or HBCU polls. Missouri is unranked in major Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) national polls.

The Series: First meeting

Delaware State Head Coach Kenny Carter (The Citadel, 90): Carter is in his second season as head coach of the Hornets. He is 1-12 at DSU. This is his first head coaching job. He most recently served as an assistant coach at Youngstown University during the 2014 season. From 2010 to 2014, Carter was an assistant coach under Charlie Strong at the University of Louisville, helping lead the Cardinals to two Big East championships and four bowl appearances. During the 2008 and '09 seasons Carter was running backs coach under Urban Meyer at the University of Florida. He helped guide the Gators to the 2009 BCS National Championship. Florida also competed in the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl and captured the 2008 Southeast Conference championship during his time on the coaching staff. Carter has also served as an assistant at Vanderbilt, Penn State, Pittsburgh and LSU. This is his first game against Missouri.

Missouri Head Coach Barry Odom (Missouri, '99) was named head coach of the Tigers last December. Odom played at the University of Missouri as a linebacker from 1996 to 1999. In 2003, he returned to Missouri as an administrative graduate assistant. Odom stayed at Missouri until 2012, serving in numerous coaching and administrative positions. In 2012, Odom left Missouri to become defensive coordinator of the Memphis Tigers football team under head coach Justin Fuente. In 2015, Odom again returned to Missouri, this time to serve as defensive coordinator. This is his first meeting against Delaware State.

THE GAME

Delaware State (0-2) travels to SEC country to face the Missouri Tigers. The Hornets have been idle since a 34-20 home-opening loss to FCS Monmouth on Sep. 10. DSU trailed 27-0 before scoring the next 20 points to get back into the game. Monmouth answered with a nearly eight minute touchdown drive in the fourth quarter to seal the win. The Hornets scored their first touchdown on a career-best 64-yard run by Brycen Alleyne (so.) in the third quarter. It was DSU's first rushing touchdown of the season. The Hornets also scored touchdowns on a 46-yard pass from Daniel Epperson (jr.) to wide receiver Jerimiah Williams (jr.) and on a blocked punt return by Brock Nichols (fr.). Alleyne rushed for a career-high 94 yards in the contest. He ranks fourth in the MEAC in rushing yards per game (60.5) and seventh in total rushing yards (121). Delaware State head coach Kenny Carter again used Epperson and Kobie Lain at quarterback in the Monmouth contest. Lain was the starter, completing six-of-12 passes for just 20 yards (long 10), while Epperson was three-of-seven for 77 yards and the touchdown to Williams. He also threw his fifth interception of the season in the game. Hornet receiver Aris Scott (sr.) was held to one catch for 19 yards vs. Monmouth. Defensively, Delaware State allowed 206 yards rushing in the game, down from the 395 surrendered in the opener at Delaware on Sep. 1. DSU is averaging 202.5 yards per game in its two outings, 79.5 pg on the ground and 123.0 by the pass. Opponents have averaged 464.0 yards per game on the Hornet defense so far this season, including 300.5 pg rushing.

Missouri (1-2) is trying to bounce back from a tough-luck 28-27 loss to #20 Georgia in its SEC opener last Saturday. The Tigers led 27-21 before the Bulldogs scored a touchdown and kicked the game-winning extra point with 89 seconds left to play. Missouri advanced to the 50-yard line on its final possession, but turned the ball over on a fumble with 1:10 left. The Tigers outgained the Bulldogs 471-409 in total yardage, including a 376-308 advantage in passing yards. The Missouri defense held Georgia All-America candidate running back Nick Chubb to just 63 yards rushing on 19 carries (3.3 ypc) in the game. Mizzou quarterback Drew Lock (so.) completed 23-of-38 passes for 376 yards (long 79) and three touchdowns, although he was also intercepted three times in the contest. Tiger wideout J'Mon Moore had eight catches for 196 yards and two touchdowns vs. Georgia. For the season, Lock has connected on 70-of-126 passes (55.6%) for 1,106 yards and nine touchdowns (three INTs) in three games. He is first in the SEC and fourth among all FBS quarterbacks in passing yards and passing yards per game (368.7). He's also tops in the league and 10th in the nation in passing yards per completion (15.8) Ish Witter is the team's leading rusher with 169 yards on 48 carries (56.3 ypg). Moore has a team-high 18 catches for 320 yards (106.7 ypg) and two touchdowns entering this week's action. He is the SEC leader in receiving yards and receiving yards per game.

THE SERIES (First meeting)

This is the first meeting between the teams. It's also Delaware State football's first trip to the state of Missouri.

PLAYING WITH THE BIG BOYS

The Missouri contest will mark the third time in four years that Delaware State is stepping up a competition level in a game. This will be the first meeting between the Hornets and FBS Tigers. This is also Delaware State's first contest against a team from the Southeast Conference (SEC), arguably the top league in major college football.

Since 2012, the Hornets have suffered a 45-13 setback to FBS Kent State (2013), a 59-0 loss to Temple at Lincoln Financial Field, home of the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles (2014); and a 38-14 defeat at the hands of Cincinnati (2012). Prior to 2013, a 2009 visit to Michigan was the Hornets' most recent contest against a FBS foe. The Wolverines won 63-6 before a crowd of more than 106 thousand at the "Big House."

Delaware State is 1-6 all-time vs. FBS/Div. I-A opponents. The only win was a 52-26 upset of Akron in 1987.

QUARTERBACK “NON-CONTROVERSY”

Delaware State head coach Kenny Carter continues to use a “two quarterback system” in the early going this season. As Carter promised, lefties Daniel Epperson (jr.) and Kobie Lain (so.) each appeared in the Hornets’ first two outings.

Epperson (left), a transfer from San Bernardino (Cal.) JC, started in the season opener at Delaware. So far this season, he has completed 16-of-33 passes (48.5%) for 195 yards and three touchdowns, although he thrown five interceptions, including four at Delaware. He came off the bench against Monmouth in the Hornets’ last outing, completing three-of-seven passes for 77 yards, highlighted by a 46-yard touchdown to Jeremiah Williams. Epperson also threw his fifth INT of the season in the Monmouth contest. He completed 13-of-26 throws for 118 yards and two touchdowns in his DSU debut at Delaware, but threw four interceptions, including one that was returned for a touchdown.

Lain (right) started the Monmouth contest, completing six-of-12 passes for just 20 yards. He was two-for-two for 31 yards in the opener at Delaware.

Lain played in five games, starting the finale, as a true freshman in 2015. He completed 25-of-50 passes for 329 yards with two touchdowns and three interceptions for the season. Lain was selected as the MEAC Rookie-of-the-Week after completing 14-of-27 passes for 181 yards and two touchdowns, and rushing for 52 yards and a score on 15 attempts, in the Hornets’ 32-31 win over Howard in his lone start.

Epperson (right) is new to the team after competing at San Bernardino (Cal.) JC where he passed for 2,767 yards and 27 touchdowns, and rushed for 254 yards and four scores in two seasons. He helped lead the team to 2015 Mountain League Championship.

Veteran Gilbert Rivera (sr.) is also ready if needed. Rivera has appeared in 19 games (10 starts) the past two years, completing 176-of-342 passes (51.5%) for 1773 yards. He has nine career touchdowns and 15 interceptions.

ALLEYNE STEPS UP AS HORNETS’ FEATURED WEAPON

If the first two games are indication, Brycen Alleyne (so.) is going to get plenty of opportunities to tote the ball this season. Alleyne rushed for a career-high 94 yards, including a 64-yard touchdown, in DSU’s last outing to give him a team-high 121 yards on 17 carries this season. He’s also the Hornets’ leading receiver with seven catches for 41 yards and one touchdown. Alleyne has also returned five kickoffs for 141 yards, highlighted by returns of 50 and 47 yards. He is tops in the MEAC and 13th among all FCS players in all-purpose yards at 151.5 per game. Alleyne had 194 all-purpose yards in the season opener at Delaware on Sep. 1.

Alleyne showed flashes of his potential as a true freshman in 2015. He was second on the Hornets in rushing yards (249) and rushing yards per game (22.6) and ranked second on the team in all-purpose yards at 78.4 per game (862 total) last season. He was also third on the Hornets with 16 receptions and 132 receiving yards, and was team leader with 481 kickoff return yards (25.3 ypr) last season.

Alleyne returned a kick-off 88 yards for a touchdown, rushed for 37 yards and had three receptions in 32-31 victory over Howard to help key the Hornets’ lone win in their 2015 finale.

SCOTT LOOKS TO GET MORE INVOLVED

Whichever quarterback is on field for the Hornets, they're hoping to get wide receiver Aris Scott (sr.) more opportunities. A 2016 Preseason All-MEAC Third Team selection, Scott has just three catches for 50 yards in the first two games. He caught two balls for 31 yards in the opener at Delaware to surpass the 1000-yard mark for receiving yards. Scott turned in his best season at DSU as a junior in 2015. Starting in all 11 games, he was tops on the Hornets with 46 receptions for 683 yards. Scott ranked fourth in the MEAC in receiving yards per game (62.1) and fifth in the league in receptions (4.2 pg) a year ago. He had his best performances during back-to-back weeks last season, tallying a career-high 12 receptions, one shy of the school's single-game record, for 89 yards at Florida A&M on Oct. 17; and hauled in seven passes catches for a career-best 140 yards (long 36) vs. Hampton the prior week (Oct. 10). Scott also caught five passes for 104 yards, including a 32-yard touchdown and a 41-yard grab, in 32-31 win over Howard in the 2015 finale on Nov. 21. The 6-4 Scott had three catches of 40-or-more yards and nine of at least 20 yards. He recorded at least one reception in 10 games and returned 10 kickoffs for 175 yards (long 27) last season.

DSU LB HARRIS NAMED TO COLLEGE SCOUTING NEWS PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA TEAM

The experts at College Football Scouting News believe Delaware State linebacker Malik Harris (jr.; Washington, D.C.) is a good bet to have a standout 2016 season.

Harris has been named to the first-ever College Football Scouting News FCS Preseason All-America First Team for the upcoming campaign.

He is coming off an 11-tackle performance (four solo) vs. Monmouth in DSU's last outing. Harris opened the season with nine tackles, including four unassisted in the opener.

A 2016 Preseason All-MEAC Second Team pick, Harris was tops on the Hornets and second among all MEAC players in tackles-per-game (9.5) and total tackles (104) last season. He also ranked second on the team and sixth in the league with 14.5 tackles-for-loss, in addition to recording 1.5 sacks, an interception, two pass break-ups and a fumble recovery in 2015.

Harris reached double-figures in tackles in seven games, and had 12-or-more stops in five contests during his sophomore season.

He is one of three Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference players on the College Sporting News Preseason All-America First Team, joining running back Tarik Cohen and return specialist Kris Gardin, each from North Carolina A&T.

The booklet contains information on the 2016 Hornets, a 2015 season review, DSU football records and historical data.

RUTHERFORD RETURNS TO

ACTION AFTER IS

BREAKOUTOPENER

Wide receiver Mason Rutherford (jr.) due to be back on the field at Missouri after sitting out the Monmouth contest due to a head injury. A transfer from San Bernardino (Cal) JC, the first-year Hornet had the top performance among team newcomers in the season opening loss at Delaware. Rutherford caught six passes for a game-high 83 yards and a touchdown in his DSU debut. His six-yard TD catch from his San Bernardino teammate Daniel Epperson in the third quarter accounted for the Hornets' first score of the season last week. Rutherford had 58 receptions for 1,038 yards and nine touchdowns, and helped lead the team to a conference championship, in two seasons at San Bernardino.

Mason Rutherford

BY THE NUMBERS

You'll need a program to recognize several members of the 2016 Hornets. Three players will sport different numbers than during the 2015 season. Linebacker Malik Harris has switched to #24 (from 42), tight end Dominic Floyd is #33 (from 11) and wide receiver Taronn Selby has changed to #12 (from 28).

FRESHMAN STANDS READY IN THE BACKFIELD

When Alleyne gets a breather, or the Hornets are in a two-back set, freshman Mike Waters is expected to get the call. Waters made his collegiate debut at Delaware last week, collecting 15 yards rushing on four carries (long eight). He tallied nearly 3,000 yards and 51 touchdowns in his scholastic career, and helped lead Imhotep Charter (Pa.) to a 15-0 record and its first Pennsylvania State Championship during his senior season in 2015. "Mike is also a big-time runner who can also make plays in the passing game," said Carter. "He definitely gives us a solid second option in the backfield."

STAYING HOME

Delaware State's 2016 roster includes a total of 16 in-state players, tops among the states. The Hornets' Delaware products are: Brycen Alleyne (Wilmington), Kyle Bailey (Camden); Sika Bendolph (Dover), Tecumseh Bendolph (Dover), Denzel Burgette (Middletown), Nigel Bynum (Claymont); Dominique Drewery (Bear), Chuka Ezeuzoh (Wilmington), Daniel Johnson (Middletown), Donte Newell (Newark), Keyjuan Selby (Bear), Taronn Selby (Bear); Kyle Taylor (Wilmington), Brandon Wallace (Wilmington), Logan Wescott (Bridgeville), and Nyree Williamson (New Castle).

New York Jersey is second with the most players on the Hornets' 2016 roster at 12, followed by New Jersey and Pennsylvania with 10 each.

SEEING "DOUBLE-DOUBLE"

The 2016 DSU roster features the rarest of rare combinations. The Hornets have not one, but two sets of twins on the squad. It's also worth noting that each set of twins hails from the First State. Running backs Sika (left) and Tecumseh Bendolph (right) joined the Hornets in 2015 after excelling primarily in track and field at Caesar Rodney High School near Dover.

Twins Taronn (left) and Keyjuan Selby (right) also joined the Hornets last season after standout football careers at St. George's Vo-Tech in New Castle County, Del. Taronn, a wide receiver at DSU, was Delaware's 2014 Gatorade High School Player-of-the-Year after rushing for more than 1,300 yards and 23 touchdowns as a senior. Keyjuan, a defensive back for the Hornets, also rushed for more than 1,000 yards as a senior at St. George's, and is the school's career interception leader. It's believed to be the first time in team history that two sets of twins have suited up for the Hornets in the same season.

E KOMO MAI (Welcome!)

The nation's 50th state is also represented on the 2016 Delaware State roster. Freshmen Fatu Sua-Godinet (WR) and Cade Pedro (OL) are Hawai'i natives who signed with the Hornets on National Letter of Intent Day last February. Each attended Kamehameha High School. They are recognized as the first Hawai'i natives to compete for the Hornets. Another Delaware State freshman, Joshua Fala, is Samoan, although he was born and raised in California.

Also adding to the diversity on the Hornets' 2016 roster are three players of Nigerian descent: PK Wisdom Nzidee (jr.), DL Abdul-Kamal Ajelero (so.) and OL Chuka Ezeuzoh (so.).

STINGERS

Delaware State had 42 freshmen on its 2016 opening day roster ... the Hornets have dropped their last three home openers and are 20-15 in Alumni Stadium openers since 1981 ... DSU is trying to snap an nine-game slide against non-MEAC FCS opponents since defeating VMI (17-10) in 2012 ... The Hornets are 5-11 all-time against current Big South Conference teams (5-10 vs. Liberty; 0-1 vs. Monmouth).

HORNETS UNVEIL NEW LOOK FOR 2016

For the second straight year, there's a major new look to the helmets worn by the Hornets. DSU will sport white head gear for the first time in team history this season. The design is similar to the red helmets the team wore in 2015, with the Hornet logo on the left side and player's number on the right. From the early 1980s to 2015, the Hornets wore red helmets with the familiar "State" logo on each side. In 2010, the word Delaware, in smaller type, was placed above the State logo.

Thanks to the upcoming Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference agreement with NIKE, the Hornets will also sport new uniforms this season. The MEAC currently has a conference-wide footwear agreement for its 13 member institutions with NIKE, also until 2020. The MEAC/NIKE apparel, accessory and equipment agreement will begin Sep. 1, 2016. In addition to Delaware State, MEAC members Bethune-Cookman, Coppin State, Florida A&M, Maryland-Eastern Shore, Norfolk State, North Carolina A&T, North Carolina Central, Savannah State and South Carolina State will benefit from the partnership. "Both Nike and the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference have a rich, storied history and progressive mindset," said Kit Morris Senior Director of Sports Marketing. "The continuation of this partnership builds on that legacy to drive the future of student-athletes at these historic institutions." The company will also continue to provide summer internships to deserving MEAC student-athletes at the NIKE World Headquarters in Beaverton, Ore., and provide two (2) graduate scholarships annually for MEAC student-athletes attending graduate school.

DELAWARE STATE HEAD COACH KENNY CARTER

Delaware State University introduced Kenneth Carter as the Hornets' head football coach in 2015.

Carter has spearheaded a cultural shift in the football program, highlighted by significant changes in academic, conditioning, recruiting and community service.

Highlighting the Hornets' academic successes under Carter are top grade-point-average among DSU male teams, five players with 4.0 GPAs, 17 earning Dean's List honors and 13 with 3.0-to-3.24 GPAs for the 2015-16 school year.

In addition, Carter's first Delaware State signee class posted a cumulative grade-point-average of 3.0 for the 2015-16 academic year.

Carter's first Hornet team also featured 22 former Delaware high school players, the most at the school in two decades.

Prior to accepting the Delaware State post, Carter was passing game/co-special teams coordinator/wide receivers coach at Youngstown State University during the 2014 season.

From 2010 to 2014, Carter played a key role in the success of the University of Louisville program under Charlie Strong, now the head coach at the University of Texas.

While at Louisville, Carter helped lead the Cardinals to two Big East Conference championships and four bowl appearances, including a 33-23 victory over No. 4 Florida in the 2013 Allstate Sugar Bowl in New Orleans. Louisville also appeared in the Beef O'Brady's Bowl (2010) and Belk Bowl (2011) during Carter's tenure.

Also at Louisville, Carter was the position coach of New York Jets running back Bilal Powell, an All-Big East selection and Doak Walker Award semi-finalist as the nation's top rusher with the Cardinals.

"Kenny is a high energy guy who brings a lot of passion to the job each and every day. I've known Kenny for a long time and he did a tremendous job handling our running backs and special teams at Louisville. He is a good coach and a good person. He'll do a great job at Delaware State."
Charlie Strong, University of Texas Head Coach (former Louisville Head Coach)

During the 2008 and '09 seasons Carter was running backs coach under Urban Meyer at the University of Florida. He helped guide the Gators to the 2009 BCS National Championship with a 24-14 victory over Oklahoma.

Florida also competed in the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl and captured the 2008 Southeast Conference championship during his time on the coaching staff.

The Gators led the Southeast Conference in rushing at 231 yards per game and posted a school-record 42 rushing touchdowns during the 2008 season. Florida running back Jeff Demps was also a Doak Walker award nominee during Carter's tenure with the Gators.

Carter also served as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Vanderbilt from 2004-to-'07.

He served under the late Joe Paterno from 2001-to-03 as assistant receivers coach at Penn State University.

Among the highlights of Carter's tenure at Penn State were an appearance in 2003 Capital One Bowl; and the selection of All Big Ten receiver Bryant Johnson in the first round of the NFL draft by Arizona Cardinals. During the 2000 season, Carter was running backs coach at the University of Pittsburgh. The Panthers competed in the Insight.com Bowl; and running back Kevin Barlow was a third round selection of the NFL's San Francisco 49ers following that season.

In 1999, Carter was an assistant coach (strong safeties/linebackers/nickel backs) at Louisiana State University.

He began his coaching career in 1993 as an assistant at Furman (tight ends).

The following year, Carter was hired as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator at his alma mater, The Citadel, where he served until 1998.

Carter was a four-year letterman as an inside linebacker for The Citadel. He was the Bulldogs' 1989 Special Teams Player-of-the-Year.

He earned a bachelor of science in Health and Exercise Science from The Citadel in 1990.

The last fifteen years he has coached in the Delaware high school ranks, nine with The Tatnall School and six at Thomas McKean H.S. (his alma mater), both in Wilmington.

In 2013 Conley and his family were inducted into the Thomas McKean High School Hall of Fame.

FORMER HORNETS MAKING THEIR MARK IN THE PROS AND BEYOND

FORMER HORNET RODNEY GUNTER SELECTED IN FOURTH ROUND BY ARIZONA CARDINALS IN 2015 NFL DRAFT

Former Hornet defensive lineman Rodney Gunter ('14) is making an impact in professional football. Gunter was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the fourth round (116h overall pick) of the 2015 National Football League draft, making him the third highest NFL selection in Hornet football history. He was also the first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference player chosen in the 2015 NFL draft.

Gunter tallied 19 tackles (16 solo), including a sack, as a rookie in 2015.

Gunter was a four-year starter for the Hornets from 2011 to 2014, competing in each of the Hornets' 45 games during the span. He was an All-MEAC First Team selection in 2013; and second team pick in 2012 and 2014.

DSU REMEMBERS FORMER HORNET, 9/11 HERO KEITH GLASCOE

Delaware State football also honors the memory of former Hornet defensive lineman Keith Glascoe ('85), who died in the Sep. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks at the World Trade Center while serving as a New York City firefighter.

Glascoe played with the Hornets in the early 1908s. He was given a try out by the NFL's

New York Jets following his college career.

JOHN TAYLOR TOPS LIST OF FORMER HORNET PROS

Rodney Gunter may one day be recognized as the former Hornet with the greatest professional football career, but right now that distinction belongs to John Taylor, who played nine seasons with the great San Francisco 49er teams of the late 1980s to mid-90s. Taylor is most famous for catching the winning touchdown on a 10-yard pass from Joe Montana with 34 seconds left in the 49ers' 20-16 win over the Cincinnati Bengals in Super Bowl XXIII in Miami, Fla. It was his first of three Super Bowls championships with the Niners. Taylor was also a two-time NFL All-Pro selection, competed in two Pro Bowls and was named as to the NFL's 1980s All-

Decade Team as the second team punt returner. In a Monday night game against the Rams, Taylor scored touchdowns on two receptions of over 90 yards (92 and 96), an NFL first. He recorded 347 receptions for 5,589 yards (16.1 ypr) and 43 touchdowns in his NFL career.

OTHER FORMER HORNETS RAISE DSU PROFILE

Two other former DSU football standouts are making news these days. Regular cable news watchers likely know the name Matthew Horace, an offensive lineman for the Hornets from 1980 to '83. In 1983, he helped lead the team to a 7-3-1 record, its first winning season in six years. Horace is currently an internationally recognized law enforcement, homeland security and leadership expert. He is Senior Vice President and Chief Security Officer for FJC Security Services, a national security firm based in metropolitan New York City. A twenty-eight year veteran of federal, state and local law enforcement, he ascended to the Senior Executive Service (SES) rank in the United States Department of Justice where he managed local, regional, national, and international investigations. He is frequently featured in live broadcast news segments related to Homeland Security, Federal investigations and general law enforcement matters on CNN, Headline News, MSNBC, FOX and local affiliates throughout the United States and abroad.

Television and movie watchers may recognize former Hornet Aaron Spears (right), now a Hollywood actor. Spears was a running back for the Hornets during the 1992 and '93 seasons. In 1993, he was one of three Hornets to rush for 100 yards (133) in a 65-42 win over Morgan State. Today, Spears plays the character Mark Bradley in the BET series Being Mary Jane starring Gabrielle Union. He received a NAACP Image Award for his role as Justin Barber in the daytime soap Bold and the Beautiful. His television credits also include guest roles in Criminal Minds, Bones and Everybody Loves Raymond.

HORNETS NINTH IN MEAC PRESEASON POLL

Delaware State has been picked to finish ninth in the 2016 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference football race, according to a poll of league head coaches and sports information directors.

The Hornets received one first place vote and 121 total points in the 11-team poll that's headed by North Carolina A&T, which shared the 2015 MEAC title with Bethune-Cookman and North Carolina Central. NCA&T, which received 13 of 22 first place votes and 498 total points, was declared Black College National Champs after defeating Southwestern Athletic Conference champion Alcorn State in the inaugural Celebration Bowl last season.

Rounding out the top five in the 2016 MEAC preseason poll are Bethune-Cookman, North Carolina Central, South Carolina State and Hampton. Norfolk State (sixth), Morgan State (seventh) and Florida A&M (eighth) are just ahead of the Hornets, while Howard (10th) and Savannah State round out the poll.

Delaware State was 1-7 in the MEAC (1-10) overall in Kenny Carter's first season as head coach in 2015. The Hornets were tied with Howard, Florida A&M and Savannah State in last year's MEAC race.

2016 MEAC Preseason Predicted Order of Finish

Team (1st pl votes)	Pts
1 North Carolina A&T State (13)	489
2. Bethune-Cookman (3)	447
3. North Carolina Central (4)	388
4. South Carolina State	351
5. Hampton (1)	265
6. Norfolk State	239
7. Morgan State	192
8. Florida A&M	164
9. Delaware State (1)	121
10. Howard	90
11. Savannah State	48

MEAC CHAMPION TO COMPETE IN CELEBRATION BOWL

The quest for the 2016 MEAC championship will again have an added incentive for Delaware State and its fellow conference members.

This year's MEAC champion will also have the honor of representing the conference against the champ of the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) in the Second Annual Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl in Atlanta, Ga..

The MEAC claimed the first Celebration Bowl championship with North Carolina A&T's victory over Alcorn State last year.

ESPN Events, a subsidiary of ESPN, has announced that the second Celebration Bowl will again be televised live on ABC.

The 2016 postseason college football bowl game will kick off at noon ET on Saturday, Dec. 17, at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta.

The Celebration Bowl, which showcases the legacy, values and traditions of Historically Black Colleges and Universities, will pit the conference champions from the MEAC and SWAC.

"We are excited to again collaborate with ESPN to launch the Celebration Bowl and continue our longstanding tradition of delivering an annual HBCU college football showdown to fans in Atlanta," said John Grant, Chief Executive Officer, 100 Black Men of Atlanta, Inc. "Having the game televised on ABC will showcase the best in HBCU football on a national stage."
