NC CENTRAL VS. DELAWARE STATE

Delaware State: 1-6; 1-4 MEAC

NCCU: 5-2; 3-1 MEAC

Location: Durham, N.C. - O'Kelly-Riddick Stadium (10,600) - (Surface - Artificial/Field Turf)

National Rankings: Delaware State is not ranked in any major Football Championship Subdivision or HBCU national poll. North Carolina Central was ranked among the top FCS teams before last week's loss to Norfolk State. The Eagles received votes in the latest Stats, Inc. and ESPN Coaches polls, but not enough to crack the top 25 in either. NCCU is No. 4 in the weekly BoxToRow media poll of top 10 HBCU teams and No. 5 in the BoxToRow coaches poll.

The Series: NCCU leads 17-6

Delaware State Head Coach Kenny Carter (The Citadel, '90): Carter is in his third season as head coach of the Hornets. This is his first head coaching job. Before coming to DSU, he served as an assistant coach at Youngstown University during the 2014 season. From 2010 to 2014, Carter was an assistant coach under Charlie Strong at the University of Louisville, helping lead the Cardinals to two Big East championships and four bowl appearances. During the 2008 and '09 seasons Carter was running backs coach under Urban Meyer at the University of Florida. He helped guide the Gators to the 2009 BCS National Championship. Florida also competed in the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl and captured the 2008 Southeast Conference championship during his time on the coaching staff. Carter has also served as an assistant at Vanderbilt, Penn State, Pittsburgh and LSU. Carter is 0-2 vs. NCCU.

NCCU Head Coach Jerry Mack (Arkansas State, '03) is in his fourth year as head coach of the Eagles. Since taking the job, Mack has a 28-14 overall record and led NCCU to the outright MEAC championship and Celebration Bowl in 2016, and a share of the 2014 and '15 league titles. Prior to joining the Eagles, he was an assistant coach at the University of South Alabama for two seasons. He also served as an assistant at Memphis, Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Central Arkansas and Jackson State. Mack is 2-0 vs. Delaware State

THE GAME

Delaware State, coming off its first win since 2015, visits defending MEAC champ North Carolina Central, which is trying to rebound from its first conference loss of the season. The Hornets snapped a 17-game overall losing streak and 12 straight MEAC defeats with a 17-14 victory over South Carolina State last week. Wisdom Nzidee (sr.) kicked the go-ahead field goal with 10 minutes left and the defense highlighted a solid effort with two fourth quarter interceptions to key the win. The Hornets used two first quarter touchdowns to open up a 14-0 lead. South Carolina State scored a second quarter touchdown and another early in the fourth quarter to tie the game. Sophomore quarterback Keenan Black completed 14-of-27 throws for a career-high 218 yards and touchdown passes to Taronn Selby (jr.) and Fatu Sua-Godinet (so.) in his first start. The touchdown catch was the first of Selby's career. Sua-Godinet hauled in four passes for 65 yards. He has a touchdown catch in each of the last two games and four for his career. Freshman wideout Trey Gross had four catches for 66 yards in the contest, giving him nine receptions for 220 yards in the last two games. The Hornets had three interceptions for the first time since Oct. 11, 2014 at Norfolk State in last week's game. Freshmen Devin Smith (DB) and Devin Adams (LB) recorded their first career interceptions in the game. Delaware State has 619 passing yards in the last two contests. Black and freshman Jack McDaniels have shared the quarterback duties the last few games. For the season, Black has completed 34-of-70 passes (48.6%) for 502 yards. He has a team-high five touchdowns and three interceptions. McDaniels, who started the first six games this season, has connected on 75-of-138 throws for 873 yards with two touchdowns and five picks. Brycen Alleyne (jr.) is the Hornet's leading rusher with 216 yards (4.2 ypc). He's also third in the MEAC in all-purpose yards at 106.9 per game and fourth in the league with a 21.0 kickoff return average. Nzidee is 7-for-7 on field goal attempts this season to lead all FCS kickers with a 1.000 conversion percentage. DSU punter Fidel Romo-Martinez is tops in the MEAC and fourth among all FCS players with a 45.8 yard average. The Hornets have been crippled by injuries this season. Among the long-term injured are RB Mike Waters, LB Malik Harris and OL Cade Pedro, each a preseason All-MEAC Second Team selection.

NC Central

The Eagles are coming off a 28-21 loss to Norfolk State last Saturday, snapping a streak of 18 consecutive MEAC wins since the 2015 season. NCCU amassed 501 yards of total offense, but was plagued by 15 penalties for 146 lost yards and four turnovers in the contest, which also snapped a 11-game home win streak. The Eagles trailed 21-0 before cutting the deficit to seven points following an early fourth quarter touchdown, but could get no closer. NCCU is fourth in the MEAC in total offense and total defense, tallying 328.6 yards per game, while allowing 325.7 per game. The Eagles are allowing 22.0 points per game to rank third in the league, while placing fourth in the conference in scoring at 22.9 points per contest. NC first-year RB Isaiah Totten is fourth in the MEAC in rushing at 75.0 yards per game (525 yards total). He's averaging a league-best 6.0 yards per carry and has four rushing touchdowns. The Eagles feature four preseason All-MEAC players on its defense, led by senior linebacker Reggie Hunter, who is tops on the team and tied for 10th in the league in tackles at 7.1 per game (50 total).

THE SERIES

This will be the 24th meeting between the Hornets and Eagles. NC Central has won four straight and eight of the last nine meetings to open up a 17-6 series lead. NCCU won last year's contest 38-19 at Delaware State. The Eagles scored touchdowns on offense, defense and special teams in the 2016 contest. The last time the teams met at North Carolina Central, the Eagles posted a 43-10 victory in 2015. The Hornets only trailed 17-10 at the break, but were outscored 26-0 in the second half of the 2015 contest. The teams met six times from 1945 to 1950 as members of the Central Intercollegiate Association (CIAA), and nine times from 1971 to '79 during North Carolina Central's first stint in the MEAC.

HORNETS STUNG BY INJURY BUG

The Hornets hobble into this week's contest with a growing injury list. Among the wounded is starting running back Mike Waters (so.), a preseason All-MEAC Second Team selection. Waters (left), out indefinitely with a knee injury, was tops on the Hornets with a DSU freshman record 820 rushing yards in 2016. He is second on the Hornets with 111 yards on 27 carries this season (4.1 ypc). The Hornets' injury list also includes starting inside linebacker Malik Harris (sr.), also a 2017 MEAC Preseason All-MEAC Second Team pick. Harris (right) suffered a knee injury in the Norfolk State contest on Sep. 23 and is also out indefinitely. He is third on the Hornets with 23 tackles after leading the team entering the Norfolk State contest. Harris was DSU's top tackler with 82 stops (51 solo) as a junior in 2016. Delaware State starting center Cade Pedro (so.) is also out indefinitely with a knee injury. Pedro, a preseason All-MEAC Second Team selection, was injured in the Hornets' Sep. 23 contest against Norfolk State. Delaware State's offensive line is also crippled by knee injuries to key members Kaiden Crawford (r-fr.) and Kaydence Jackson (fr.). Crawford is out indefinitely, while Jackson's status is week-to-week.

TWO QBs LIKELY TO SEE ACTION AGAIN THIS WEEK

There's a good chance Hornet quarterbacks Keenan Black (so.) and Jack McDaniels (fr.) will again see action this week. Black (left) led DSU to its first win since 2015 last week, completing 14-of-27 passes for a career-high 218 yards and two touchdowns in his first career start. He is 24-for-49 for 393 yards and four touchdowns in the last two games, and 30-of-73 for 502 yards and five TDs (3 int.) for the season. McDaniels (right) started the Hornets' first six games, but played sparingly last week. For the season, he has connected on 75-of-138 passes for 873 yards and two touchdowns (5 int.). Entering this week, he ranks ninth in the MEAC in passing average at 124.7 yards per game. The Lorton, Va., native completed 13 of 20 passes (65.0%) for a career-best 191 yards and a touchdown the previous week against Howard last week. He completed 7-of-12 throws for 114 yards, including an 81 yard touchdown to redshirt freshman Nyfease West on the Hornets' third play from scrimmage for his first career touchdown at FBS West Virginia on Sep. 17. He joined the Hornets this season after a stellar high school career in Virginia. McDaniels completed 224 of 331 passes (68%) for 2,956 yards and 36 touchdowns, while rushing for 450 yards and four scores during his senior season at So. County (Va.) HS. He threw for more than 4,000 yards during his scholastic career and holds the school's single-season and career records for passing yards, completions and passing touchdowns. Prior to joining the Hornets, Black was a conference Offensive Player-of-the Year and combined to complete 283-of-493 passes (57.4%) for 4,140 yards and 35 touchdowns during his junior and senior years at Concord (N.C.) High School. He also rushed for 483 yards and 10 TDs on 123 carries as a senior in 2015.

This marks the sixth year in a row that Delaware State had a new opening day starter at quarterback. Since Nick Elko began 2011 & 2012 as starting quarterback, the Hornets have used Corey Murphy (2013), Gilbert Rivera (2014), Esayah Obado (2015), Daniel Epperson (2016) and now McDaniels (2017) under center to open the season.

HORNETS IN THE MEAC

A charter member of the MEAC, DSU is in its 47th year of league play. The Hornets have an all-time record of 133-175-1 in MEAC contests. DSU has won or shared six league championships. The Hornets claimed outright MEAC titles in 1985, 1989 and 2007, while sharing the crown in 1987, 1988 and 1991. Delaware State was at the bottom of the 2016 MEAC standings with a 0-8 league mark. The Hornets are hoping to prove their doubters wrong this year. DSU has been picked to finish last in the race again in 2017, according to a poll of league head coaches and sports information representatives.

HORNET RECEIVERS CATCHING ON

Delaware State has developed a "triple-threat" in its receiving corps. The Hornets have averaged 264.3 passing yards in the last three games, up from 154.3 in their first four contests. DSU passed for 401 yards vs. Howard on Oct. 14, the second-best single game total in team history. The improved passing attack is due in large part to the play of wide receivers Fatu Sua-Godinet (so.), Taronn Selby (jr.) and Trey Gross (fr.). Sua-Godinet is tops on the Hornets with 23 receptions to rank ninth in the MEAC at 3.3 catches per game. He's also 10th in the league at 46.4 receiving yards per contest (325 total). Sua-Godinet has touchdown catches in each of the last two games.

Selby is second on the team in receptions (21) and receiving yards (312). He has 14 catches for 238 yards and a touchdown in the last three games, highlighted by a career-high 110 yards vs. Howard on Oct. 14 and a personal-best seven catches at NCA&T on Oct. 7.

Gross, who did not have a catch in the Hornets' first five games, had a breakout performance in the week six loss to Howard, catching six passes for a game-high 154 yards and two touchdowns. His yardage was the most by a DSU freshman since Darnerian McCants totaled 170 on six receptions vs. Buffalo in 1997. Gross tied for the team lead with four catches, accounting for 66 yards vs. SC State last week, giving him 10 receptions for 220 yards in the last two games. He leads the Hornets with a 22.0 yard per catch average.

DSU KICKERS IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Delaware State's Fidel Romo-Martinez (so.) has established himself as one of the elite punters in the nation. Romo-Martinez is tops in the MEAC and fourth among all FCS punters with a 45.8 yard average. The DSU punter was named MEAC Special Teams Player-of-the-Week after averaging 48.0 yards on seven kicks vs. FBS West Virginia on Sep. 16. He had four punts of 50-yards-or-more yards in the game, including a long of 57 that was fielded at the WVU nine yard line. Romo-Martinez has 19 kicks of 50-or-more yards, including a long of 62 at North Carolina A&T on Oct. 7. He's also placed 13 kicks inside the opponents' 20-yard line. As a freshman in 2016, Romo-Martinez was fifth in the MEAC with a 40.0 yard average. He was named to the 2017 Preseason All-MEAC Third Team.

Delaware State placekicker Wisdom Nzidee (sr.) tops the national FCS list with a perfect field goal percentage this season. Nzidee is 7-for-7 on field goal attempts to lead the nation with a 1.000 percentage. He nailed a career-best 47-yard field goal at North Carolina A&T on Oct. 7. Nzidee kicked the go-ahead field goal with 10 minutes left in the Hornets' 17-14 victory over South Carolina State last week.

Nzidee, whose 7-for-7 on extra-point kicks this year, was also named to the 2017 Preseason All-MEAC Third Team.

BLOCK PARTY

Delaware State has given opposing special teams coaches something to worry about during the Kenny Carter era. Since Carter became head coach in 2015, the Hornets have blocked 15 kicks (punts, field goal & extra point kicks), including two this season. Among the blocks was a field goal attempt that was returned for a touchdown vs. Bethune-Cookman in 2015. DSU blocks have led to 10 points this season, including the team's lone touchdown vs. Norfolk State in the Hornets' last outing on Sep. 23.

BY THE NUMBERS

You'll need a program to recognize several members of the 2017 Hornets. Six players will sport different numbers than during the 2016 season:

LB Brian Cavicante from 43 to 7
DB Jahad Niebauer from 34 to 2
DB Brock Nichols from 14 to 11
TE Isaih Williams from 35 to 8
WR Fatu Sua Godinet from 10 to 4
P Fidel Romo-Martinez from 32 to 9

CAPTAINS

Juniors Brycen Alleyne (RB/KR) and Caleb Hebron (DL) have been voted by their teammates as Delaware State captains for the 2017 season. Alleyne is in his third season with the Hornets, while Hebron is in his first year with the team after transferring from Towson (Md.) University. Also, senior LB Kevin Perry (currently injured) is the "Ex-Officio" Captain by virtue of his position as Delaware State University's "Mr. DSU."

STAYING HOME

Delaware State's 2017 roster includes a total of 12 in-state players, second among the states. The Hornets' Delaware products are: Brycen Alleyne (Wilmington), Sika Bendolph (Dover), Tyreek Booker (Newark); Nigel Bynum (Claymont); Michael Credele (Glasgow); Dominique Drewery (Bear), Donte Newell (Newark), Keyjuan Selby (Bear), Taronn Selby (Bear); Kyle Taylor (Wilmington), Brandon Wallace (Wilmington), and Nyree Williamson (New Castle). New York is the state with the most players on the Hornets' 2017 roster at 14. New Jersey is third with eight.

BLUE-GOLD LEGEND

2017 newcomer Michael Credele's (Glasgow, Del.) last high school appearance was one for the record books. Credele set a Delaware Blue-Gold All-Star Game record with 10 receptions in the 2017 contest. He had 116 receiving yards and two touchdown catches (36, 10 yards) in the All-Star game.

SEEING "DOUBLE"

You're not seeing double. Delaware State's "Selby twins" Keyjuan and Taronn have been causing folks on campus to do a double-take since joining the team in 2015. Keyjuan is a defensive back Taronn a wide receiver, so they often go head-to-head during practices. Keyjuan is a 2017 preseason All-MEAC Third Team selection, and ranked among the league leaders in passes defended last season. Taronn is expected to play a key role in the Hornets' passing game this season.

The Selbys were standout players at St. George's Vo-Tech in New Castle County, Del., before enrolling at Delaware State. Taronn was Delaware's 2014 Gatorade High School Player-of-the-Year after rushing for more than 1,300 yards and 23 touchdowns as a senior.

Keyjuan, a defensive back for the Hornets, also rushed for more than 1,000 yards as a senior at St. George's, and is the school's career interception leader.

The 2017 Hornets also feature the "kicking Romo-Martinez brothers." Sophomore punter Fidel Romo-Martinez joined the team last season, while his younger brother Jose Romo-Martinez is a freshman punter/placekicker on the squad. Fidel, a 2017 preseason All-MEAC Third Team selection, was fifth in the league with a 40.0 yard punting average last season. He is also the Hornets' No. 1 holder this year.

ALL ARE WELCOME

Delaware State's 2017 roster is among the most diverse in team history. Sophomores Fatu Sua-Godinet (WR) and Cade Pedro (OL) are Polynesian Hawai'i natives who signed with the Hornets in 2016. Each attended Kamehameha High School in Honolulu. Another Delaware State sophomore, Joshua Fala (OL), is Samoan, although he was born and raised in California. Freshman offensive lineman Liki Seu, also of Polynesian descent, joined the team this year. He comes to the Hornets by way of Bellflower, Cal. (Lutheran HS).

Adding to the diversity on the Hornets' 2017 roster are two players of Nigerian descent: PK Wisdom Nzidee (sr.) and DL Abdul-Kamal Ajelero (so.), along with Canadian Matthew Derks (fr., OL; Brantford, ONT).

STINGERS

Delaware State has six interceptions this season after recording just two during the 2016 season ... DSU's Caleb Hebron (jr.) is third in the MEAC and fourth among all FCS players with two blocked kicks this season ... Hebron was credited with blocked punts vs. Hampton on Sep. 8 and Norfolk State on Sep. 23 ... The Hornets have 31 freshmen (including redshirts) on its 2017 roster.

THIS DAY IN HORNET FOOTBALL HISTORY (Oct. 28, 1989)

Delaware State won its fourth straight game with a 21-13 come-from-behind victory at South Carolina State. With the win, the Hornets clinched at least a tie for the 1989 MEAC title. DSU won the title outright with a victory over North Carolina A&T the following week.

PLAYING WITH THE BIG REALLY BOYS

For the fifth time in six years, Delaware State is stepping up a competition level in a game. Only this year, the Hornets will play two such games. The first was played on Sep. 16, resulting in a 59-16 loss to FBS West Virginia of the Big 12 Conference at Puskar Stadium in Morgantown, WV. Despite the score, the Hornets recorded (then) season highs in touchdowns (2), rushing yards (161) and total offense (301 yards) in the contest.

The Mountaineers were No. 23 in the preseason Associated Press poll and No. 20 in the Coaches poll of top 25 FBS teams. West Virginia was 10-3 overall and 7-2 in the Big 12 in 2016. The Mountaineers fell to Miami in the Russell Athletic Bowl, and were ranked 17th in the final FBS coach's poll and 18th in the media poll last season.

The Hornets will close out the 2017 regular season at FBS powerhouse Florida State on Nov. 18 at Doak Campbell Stadium in Tallahassee, Fla. The Seminoles entered the 2017 season ranked third in each of the major FBS top 25 polls and could rise to the top in the first regular season poll if they defeat No. 1 Alabama in their season opener on Sep. 3. FSU was No. 8 in the final national polls after finishing with a 10-3 overall record and 5-3 mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2016, which ended with a dramatic 33-32 victory over Michigan in the Orange Bowl.

The upcoming contest at Florida State contests will be DSU's 10th all-time against FBS opponents. Delaware State is 1-8 all-time vs. FBS/Div. I-A opponents. The only win was a 52-26 upset of Akron in 1987.

HORNETS HONOR 2007 MEAC CHAMPION TEAM

The 2017 season marks the 10-year anniversary of Delaware State's last MEAC championship squad. The 2007 Hornets posted a school-best 10-1 overall regular season record and a perfect 8-0 mark in the MEAC to capture the sixth league title in team history.

The '07 Hornets, under head coach Al Lavan, were honored during Delaware State's annual Hall-of-Fame ceremony on Sep. 22 and the following day during the 2017 football home opener against Norfolk State.

In addition, the leader of the 2007 Hornet offense, quarterback Vashon Winton, is among this year's individual DSU Hall-of-Fame inductees.

The 2007 Hornets were ranked as high as No. 10 in the national Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) weekly polls and ended the season as Black College National Champions.

2007 Delaware State MEAC Football champions

The team was the first in DSU history to compete in the NCAA FCS playoffs, falling to Delaware, led by current Baltimore Raven quarterback Joe Flacco, in the opening round. The historic contest was the first ever between the state's two NCAA Division I programs.

DELAWARE STATE HEAD COACH KENNY CARTER

Delaware State University introduced Kenneth Carter as the Hornets' head football coach in January 2015.

Carter has spearheaded a cultural shift in the football program, highlighted by significant changes in academic, conditioning, recruiting and community service.

Highlighting the Hornets' academic successes under Carter are top grade-point-average among DSU male teams, five players with 4.0 GPAs, 17 earning Dean's List honors and 13 with 3.0-to-3.24 GPAs for the 2016-17 school year.

In addition, Carter's first Delaware State signee class posted a cumulative grade-point-average of 3.0 for the 2015-16 academic year.

Carter's first Hornet team also featured 22 former Delaware high school players, the most at the school in two decades.

Prior to accepting the Delaware State post, Carter was passing game/co-special teams coordinator/wide receivers coach at Youngstown State University during the 2014 season.

From 2010 to 2014, Carter played a key role in the success of the University of Louisville program under Charlie Strong, now the head coach at the University of Texas.

While at Louisville, Carter helped lead the Cardinals to two Big East Conference championships and four bowl appearances, including a 33-23 victory over No. 4 Florida in the 2013 Allstate Sugar Bowl in New Orleans.

Louisville also appeared in the Beef O'Brady's Bowl (2010) and Belk Bowl (2011) during Carter's tenure.

Also at Louisville, Carter was the position coach of New York Jets running back Bilal Powell, an All-Big East selection and Doak Walker Award semi-finalist as the nation's top rusher with the Cardinals.

During the 2008 and '09 seasons Carter was running backs coach under Urban Meyer at the University of Florida. He helped guide the Gators to the 2009 BCS National Championship with a 24-14 victory over Oklahoma.

Florida also competed in the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl and captured the 2008 Southeast Conference championship during his time on the coaching staff.

The Gators led the Southeast Conference in rushing at 231 yards per game and posted a school-record 42 rushing touchdowns during the 2008 season. Florida running back Jeff Demps was also a Doak Walker award nominee during Carter's tenure with the Gators.

Carter also served as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Vanderbilt from 2004-to-'07.

He served under the late Joe Paterno from 2001-to-03 as assistant receivers coach at Penn State University.

Among the highlights of Carter's tenure at Penn State were an appearance in 2003 Capital One Bowl; and the selection of All Big Ten receiver Bryant Johnson in the first round of the NFL draft by Arizona Cardinals.

During the 2000 season, Carter was running backs coach at the University of Pittsburgh. The Panthers competed in the Insight.com Bowl; and running back Kevin Barlow was a third round selection of the NFL's San Francisco 49ers following that season.

In 1999, Carter was an assistant coach (strong safeties/linebackers/nickel backs) at Louisiana State University.

He began his coaching career in 1993 as an assistant at Furman (tight ends).

The following year, Carter was hired as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator at his alma mater, The Citadel, where he served until 1998.

Carter was a four-year letterman as an inside linebacker for The Citadel. He was the Bulldogs' 1989 Special Teams Player-of-the-Year.

He earned a bachelor of science in Health and Exercise Science from The Citadel in 1990.

The last fifteen years he has coached in the Delaware high school ranks, nine with The Tatnall School and six at Thomas McKean H.S. (his alma mater), both in Wilmington. In 2013 Conley and his family were inducted into the Thomas McKean High School Hall of Fame.

FORMER HORNETS MAKING THEIR MARK IN THE PROS AND BEYOND

RODNEY GUNTER LONE HORNET ACTIVE IN NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Former Hornet defensive lineman Rodney Gunter ('14) is making an impact in professional football. Gunter was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the fourth round (116h overall pick) of the 2015 National Football League draft, making him the third highest NFL selection in Hornet football history. He was also the first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference player chosen in the 2015 NFL draft. Gunter has 45 tackles (34 solo), including 2.5 sacks, in two seasons the Cards (2015 & 2016).

Gunter was a four-year starter for the Hornets from 2011 to 2014, competing in each of the Hornets' 45 games during the span. He was an All-MEAC First Team selection in 2013; and second team pick in 2012 and 2014.

DSU REMEMBERS FORMER HORNET, 9/11 HERO KEITH GLASCOE

Delaware State football also honors the memory of former Hornet defensive lineman Keith Glascoe ('85), who died in the Sep. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks at the World Trade Center while serving as a New York City firefighter.

Glascoe played with the Hornets in the early 1980s. He was given a try out by the NFL's New York Jets following his college career.

JOHN TAYLOR TOPS LIST OF FORMER HORNET PROS

Rodney Gunter may one day be recognized as the former Hornet with the greatest professional football career, but right now that distinction belongs to John Taylor, who played nine seasons with the great San Francisco 49er teams of the late 1980s to mid-90s. Taylor is most famous for catching the winning touchdown on a 10-yard pass from Joe Montana with 34 seconds left in the 49ers' 20-16 win over the Cincinnati Bengals in Super Bowl XXIII in Miami, Fla. It was his first of three Super Bowls championships with the Niners. Taylor was also a two-time NFL All-Pro selection, competed in two Pro Bowls and was named as to the NFL's 1980s All-

Decade Team as the second team punt returner. In a Monday night game against the Rams, Taylor scored touchdowns on two receptions of over 90 yards (92 and 96), an NFL first. He recorded 347 receptions for 5,589 yards (16.1 ypr) and 43 touchdowns in his NFL career.

OTHER FORMER HORNETS RAISE DSU PROFILE

Two other former DSU football standouts are making news these days. Regular cable news watchers likely know the name Matthew Horace, an offensive lineman for the Hornets from 1980 to '83. In 1983, he helped lead the team to a 7-3-1 record, its first winning season in six years. Horace is currently an internationally recognized law enforcement, homeland security and leadership expert. He is Senior Vice President and Chief Security Officer for FJC Security Services, a national security firm based in metropolitan New York City. A twenty-eight year veteran of federal, state and local law enforcement, he ascended to the Senior Executive Service (SES) rank in the United States Department of Justice where he managed local, regional, national, and international investigations. He is frequently featured in live broadcast news segments related to Homeland Security, Federal investigations and general law enforcement matters on CNN, Headline News, MSNBC, FOX and local affiliates throughout the United States and abroad.

Television and movie watchers may recognize former Hornet Aaron Spears (right), now a Hollywood actor. Spears was a running back for the Hornets during the 1992 and '93 seasons. In 1993, he was one of three Hornets to rush for 100 yards (133) in a 65-42 win over Morgan State. Today, Spears plays the character Mark Bradley in the BET series Being Mary Jane starring Gabrielle Union. He received a NAACP Image Award for his role as Justin Barber in the daytime soap Bold and the Beautiful. His television credits also include guest roles in Criminal Minds, Bones and Everybody Loves Raymond.

HORNETS LOOK TO MAKE BELIEVERS IN 2017 SEASON

The Delaware State football team will have plenty to prove in the upcoming season. The Hornets have been picked to finish 11th in the 11-team 2017 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference football race, according to a poll of league head coaches and sports information representatives. Defending champ North Carolina Central is the voters' choice to capture the 2017 MEAC title. The Eagles have won or share the conference title in each of the last three years, and represented the MEAC in the second annual Celebration Bowl last December. North Carolina A&T is second to NC Central, while South Carolina State, Bethune-Cookman and Hampton round out the top five in the

MEAC CHAMPION TO COMPETE IN CELEBRATION BOWL

The quest for the 2017 MEAC championship will again have an added incentive for Delaware State and its fellow conference members.

This year's MEAC champion will also have the honor of representing the conference against the champ of the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) in the Third Annual Celebration Bowl Atlanta, Ga..

The MEAC & SWAC are tied 1-1 in the Celebration Bowl after Grambling State defeated North Carolina Central 10-9 in the 2016 contest.

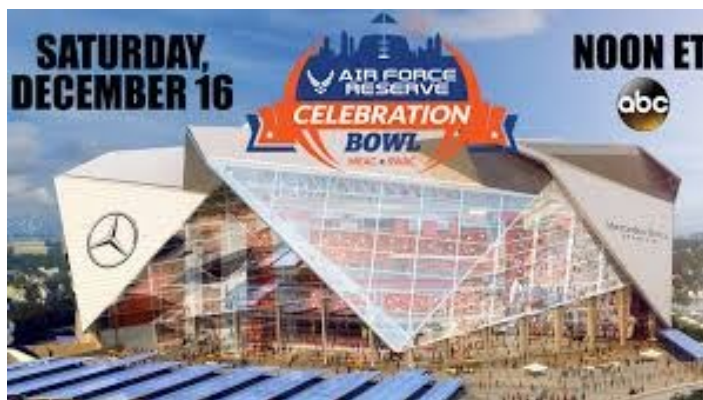

The MEAC claimed the first Celebration Bowl championship with North Carolina A&T's victory over Alcorn State last year.

ESPN Events, a subsidiary of ESPN, has announced that the third Celebration Bowl will again be televised live on ABC.

The 2017 postseason college football bowl game will kick off at noon ET on Saturday, Dec. 16, at the new Mercedes Benz Stadium in Atlanta.

The Celebration Bowl, which showcases the legacy, values and traditions of Historically Black Colleges and Universities, will pit the conference champions from the MEAC and SWAC.

"We are excited to again collaborate with ESPN to launch the Celebration Bowl and continue our longstanding tradition of delivering an annual HBCU college football showdown to fans in Atlanta," said John Grant, Chief Executive Officer, 100 Black Men of Atlanta, Inc. "Having the game televised on ABC will showcase the best in HBCU football on a national stage."
