DELAWARE STATE VS. NC CENTRAL

Delaware State: 0-7; 0-4 MEAC

NCCU: 3-3; 2-1 MEAC

Location: Dover, Del. - Alumni Stadium (6,838) - (Surface - Artificial/Astro Turf)

National Rankings: Delaware State or is not ranked in any major Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) or HBCU weekly polls. North Carolina Central also is unranked in any major FCS national polls, but is 10th in the BoxToRow Black College coaches poll, and received votes, but not enough to crack the top 10 in the BoxToRow HBCU media poll.

The Series: NCCU leads 18-6

Delaware State Head Coach Rod Milstead (Delaware State, '92): The former Hornet All-America offensive lineman and National Football League standout is in his first season as head coach at his alma mater. This is his first collegiate head coach position. Milstead served as Delaware State's offensive line coach in 2014 and held the same position at DSU's Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference rival North Carolina Central in 2013. Following his playing career with the Hornets, Milstead competed for the NFL's Dallas Cowboys, Cleveland Browns, San Francisco 49ers and Washington Redskins.

NCCU Head Coach Granville Eastman: (St. Mary's University, '92): Eastman was appointed as interim head coach of the Eagles on Dec. 8, 2017. Prior to the appointment, he served as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and safeties coach at NCCU. Since Eastman has been on the staff, the Eagles earned a share of MEAC titles in 2014 and 2015, and claimed the outright championship in 2016. Before coming to North Carolina Central, Eastman spent nine seasons as defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tenn. His coaching career also includes stops at Tiffin University in Ohio and York University in his hometown of Toronto, Canada. This is his first meeting against Delaware State.

THE GAME

After playing six of its first seven games on the road, including the last two, Delaware State returns to Alumni Stadium to face Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference rival North Carolina Central in the annual homecoming contest. The Hornets (0-7; 0-4 MEAC) are seeking their first win of the season. DSU is coming off a 30-19 loss to South Carolina State last Saturday. SC State scored two touchdowns shortly after blocking Hornet punts and returned an interception for a touchdown in the game. North Carolina Central has won its last two contests, including a 36-6 victory at Norfolk State last week. The Eagles forced five turnovers and allowed held the Spartans scoreless until there was 16 seconds left to play.

THE HORNETS

The Hornets racked up a season-best 410 yards of total offense in last week's loss to South Carolina State. DSU passed for 217 yards and rushed for 193 in the game. The Hornets rank seventh in the MEAC in total offense at 297.7 yards per game, highlighted by the leagues' second-best rushing attack with a 170 yard-per-game average. Jack McDaniels (so.) and Keenan Black (jr.) have split time at quarterback this season. McDaniels has started three games, including last week at SC State, completing 47-of-95 passes (49.5%) for 462 yards with two touchdowns and three interceptions. He was 18-for-36 for a career-high 217 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions, while rushing for a personal best 53 yards last week. Black has started four games this season, connecting on 38-of-84 throws (45.2%) for 432 yards with two touchdowns and two picks. He's also third on the Hornets with 154 yards rushing on 42 attempts (3.7 ypc). Black threw for a career-high 247 yards, completing 17-of-29 passes (2 TDs; 1 INT), vs. Norfolk State on Sep. 29. Brycen Alleyne (sr.) is fourth in the MEAC in rushing at 55.0 yards per game (330 total). Alleyne is also second in the league in all-purpose yards (124.8 per game) and averages 28.8 yards per kickoff return this season. Mike Waters (jr.) is DSU's leader with 338 rushing yards (67.6 ypg), but does not qualify in the MEAC rankings because he has missed the last two games due to injury. Trey Gross is tops on the Hornets and fifth in the conference in receiving yards at 54.3 per game (380 total). Gross is also eighth in the league at 3.4 catches per game (24 total). Defensively, the Hornets also rank seventh in the MEAC in yards allowed at 419.1 per game. Linebacker Brian Cavicante (jr.) leads all MEAC players in tackles at 9.1 per game (64 total). He's also tops in the conference with 11 solo tackles-for-loss. Hornet defensive backs Jahad Niebauer (jr.) and David Bowman (fr.) are tied for 13th in the MEAC with 6.1 tackles per game.

THE EAGLES

The Eagles feature one of top offenses in the MEAC, averaging 29.7 points per game to rank third in the league and 363.8 yards per outing to stand at No. 4 entering this week's action. NCCU quarterback Chauncy Caldwell (so.) has completed 70-of-127 passes (55.1%) for 877 yards with eight touchdowns and just one interception. Caldwell is fifth in the MEAC in passing efficiency (132.3 rating) and sixth in the league in yards per game at 146.2. He's also an adept runner, ranking 10th in the MEAC in rushing at 48.8 yards per game (293 total). Isaiah Totten (so.) is the team leader and third in the conference in rushing with a 57.5 yard-per-game average (345 total). Totten has three rushing touchdowns this season. Nique Martin (so) and E.J. Hicks (so.) are tied for the NCCU lead with 18 receptions each. Martin has a team-high 187 receiving yards, while Sherman McLeod (r-fr.) leads the Eagles with three touchdown receptions, including a 93-yard catch and run last week. The Eagles are seventh in the MEAC in scoring defense (34.2 ppg) and 10th in yards allowed (485.2 ypg). DB Devanta Reynolds (r-sr.), the 2018 MEAC Preseason Defensive Player-of-the-Year, is tops on the Eagles and third in the MEAC at 8.2 tackles per game (49 total). Linebacker Branden Bailey (so.) has 39 tackles to tie for seventh in the league at 6.5 per game. Lineman Darius Royster (sr.) is third in the MEAC in tackles-for-loss with 10 and tied for fifth in the league with three sacks. NCCU placekicker Adam Lippy (fr.) is one of the MEAC's best. Lippy is seven-for-seven on field goal tries (long 40) and 19-of-21 on extra-point kicks to rank second in the league among kickers with 40 points.

THE SERIES (NCCU LEADS 18-6)

This will be the 25th contest between the Hornets and Eagles. NC Central has won five straight and nine of the last 10 meetings to open up an 18-6 series lead. NCCU won last year's contest 42-14 in Durham, N.C. Eagle quarterback Chauncy Caldwell completed 17-of-29 passes for 242 yards and two touchdowns, and rushed for two scores, while wide receiver Jacen Murphy had 10 receptions for 189 yards and two TDs. Kwannah Kolie caught three passes for 107 yards and a touchdown for the Hornets. The last time the teams met at Delaware State, NC Central posted a 38-19 victory in 2016. The Eagles scored touchdowns on offense, defense and special teams in the contest. The teams met six times from 1945 to 1950 as members of the Central Intercollegiate Association (CIAA), and nine times from 1971 to '79 during NCCU's first stint in the MEAC.

McDANIELS BIDDING FOR SECOND STRAIGHT START AT QB

The Hornets have essentially split time between two quarterbacks this season. Keenan Black (jr.) has started four games and Jack McDaniels (so.) has opened the game under center in three, including last week at South Carolina State. McDaniels has completed 47-of-95 passes (49.5%) for 462 yards with two touchdowns and three interceptions this season. He was 18-for-36 for a career-high 217 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions, while rushing for a personal best 53 yards last week. Black has started four games this season, connecting on 38-of-84 throws (45.2%) for 432 yards with two touchdowns and two picks. He's also third on the Hornets with 154 yards rushing on 42 attempts (3.7 ypc). Black threw for a career-high 247 yards, completing 17-of-29 passes (2 TDs; 1 INT), vs. Norfolk State on Sep. 29.

The duo split time under center in 2017 and waged a battle throughout 2018 summer camp. Black was ninth in the MEAC in passing average (129.9 ypg) and pass efficiency (116.2 rating) after completing 82-of-173 passes (47.4%) for 1169 yards and 11 touchdowns in 2017. McDaniels connected on 95-of-175 throws (54.3%) for 1139 yards and three TDs a year ago.

HORNETS CLIMB MEAC RUSHING CHART

Despite its record, Delaware State has emerged as one of the MEAC's running teams this season. Entering this weekend's play, the Hornets are second in the league in rushing at 170.0 yards per game, trailing only Howard's 190.8 in the conference ranking. Although he's missed the last two games, DSU junior Mike Waters is sixth among MEAC rushers with 338 yards (67.6). Waters would be third in the league in per-game average, but has fallen short of the qualifying standard after sitting out the last two weeks. His status for Saturday's NC Central contest is up in the air. The Phila., Pa., native rushed for a season-high 107 yards vs. Saint Francis on Sep. 8. It was the third 100-yard game of his career and first since rushing for a DSU freshman record 220 yards in the Hornets' 2016 finale at Howard. Waters opened the season with a 92-yard performance at Buffalo on Sep. 1. He enters this week's Howard with 1,269 career rushing yards on 279 carries (4.5 ypc). The Philadelphia, Pa., native rushed for a DSU freshman record 820 yards in 2016, but was held to just 111 during an injury-plagued sophomore season in 2017.

Brycen Alleyne (sr.) is fourth in the MEAC is rushing at 55.0 yards per game (330 total). Alleyne opened the season with a team-high 97 yards rushing at FBS Buffalo on Sep. 1 and led the Hornets with 96 yards at South Carolina State last week.

FRESHMAN LIKELY TO SEE MORE ACTION

The absence of Mike Waters at Howard on Oct. 13 presented an opportunity for freshman RB Michael Chris-Ike to see his first collegiate action. Chris-Ike made the most of the opportunity, rushing for 56 yards on 10 carries (5.6 ypc), with a long of 12. He also scored the Hornets' lone touchdown on a one-yard run in the fourth quarter. Chris-Ike did not appear in last week's contest at South Carolina State, but is expected to see action in one or both of the next two games. The Hamilton, Ontario, Can., native was a standout at St. Thomas More Secondary School and the Hamilton Hurricanes club team before enrolling at DSU

HORNETS MAKING THE MOST OFF KICKOFF RETURNS

Delaware State achieved a milestone on Sep. 29 when two players returned a kickoff for a touchdown in the same game for the first time in recorded team history. Kwannah Kollie returned a Norfolk State kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter and Brycen Alleyne followed suit with a 95-yard touchdown later in the quarter. Alleyne is averaging 28.8 yards on 11 returns this season, which would lead the MEAC but he is short of the required number of returns to qualify.

Kollie is second in the league in kickoff returns at 23.2 yards per return (16 for 372 yards).

Alleyne has 80 career kickoff returns for 1816 yards. Travis Tarpley is DSU's all-time leader with 97 returns, while DaShane Dennis is tops in team history with 2,224 career return yards. Alleyne's kick return numbers have also helped him move into second place in the MEAC in all-purpose yards at 124.8 yards per game. He has 330 rushing yards, 59 receiving and 43 on punt returns to go along with his kickoff return yards this season. Howard's Jequez Ezzard is the league leader in all-purpose yards at 139.8 per game, highlighted by 772 as a receiver.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

Delaware State's 2018 opening roster included a total of 14 in-state players, tops among states. The Hornets' Delaware products are: Brycen Alleyne (Wilmington), Karim Beatty (Dover), Tyreek Booker (Newark), David Bowman (Milford), Dwight Chavis (Newark), Sequan Daniels (Woodside), Shareef Flowers (Bear), Jawain Granger (New Castle), Brooks Parker (Laurel), Keyjuan Selby (Bear), Taronn Selby (Bear), Kyle Taylor (Wilmington), Taj Washington (Newark), and Shawn Wood (New Castle). New York and New Jersey are tied for second among states with 12 players on the Hornets' 2018 roster.

LOCAL STAR SHINES IN HORNET DEBUT SEASON

No first year jitters for Delaware State freshman defensive back David Bowman, a former star at Milford (Del.) High School. Bowman, a two-way standout at Milford (RB/DB), led all players with 11 tackles, including seven solo stops, in his collegiate debut at Buffalo on Sep. 1. He currently ranks third on the Hornets and tied for 14th in the MEAC in tackles at 6.1 per game (43 total) after seven games. Before enrolling at DSU, Bowman helped lead Milford HS to the state Division II championship during senior year. He's also the school's all-time record holder in yards from scrimmage (6,068), rushing yards (5,600), touchdowns (74) and tackles (376). As a senior, Bowman was the 2017 Delaware Defensive Player-of-the-Year, All-State First Team as a running back and defensive back, All-Henlopen Conference First Team (RB & DB), Delaware Blue/Gold All-Star selection and Delaware SportsZone Star Health Athlete-of-the-Week.

STINGERS

Delaware State has 24 freshmen (including redshirts) on its 2018 opening day roster ... Delaware State has seven road games and just four home contests during the 2018 season ... Hornets are currently riding a 27-game road losing streak ... DSU's last road win was at Norfolk State on 10/11/14 (13-10 ot) ... Delaware State has just one interception this season, by Keyjuan Selby, at Howard on Oct. 13.

HORNETS' AIR ATTACK TAKES FLIGHT IN LAST OUTING

Delaware State had its second-best passing output of the season with 217 yards at South Carolina State last week. The Hornets threw for a season-best 247 yards at Norfolk State on Sep. 29. DSU has struggled in the passing game in its other five contests. The Hornets are eighth in the MEAC in passing offense at 127.7 yards per game entering this week's action. DSU was fourth in the MEAC in passing at 213.0 yards per game in 2017, the Hornets' top conference ranking since leading the league at 257.1 in 2012. Trey Gross (so.) is the team leader with 24 catches for 380 yards this season. Gross is fifth in the MEAC in receiving yards (54.3 pg) and eighth in receptions (3.4 pg). He had nine catches for 162 yards, each a career-high, and two touchdowns vs. Norfolk State on Sep. 29. DSU's top receiver last year, Taronn Selby (sr.) has 22 catches for 215 yards in seven games this season. He caught 35 passes for 521 yards, each a team-high, in 2017. Kwannah Kollie (sr.) is third on the Hornets with 13 receptions for 122 yards this season.

FOUR HORNETS EARN PRESEASON ALL-MEAC NOD

Delaware State has four players on the 2018 Preseason All-MEAC Teams, including three first team selections. Hornet defensive back Keyjuan Selby (sr.), punter Fidel Romo-Martinez (jr.) and linebacker Brian Cavicante (jr.) were named to the preseason first team, while running back Brian Alleyne (sr.) was a second team pick in voting by league head coaches and sports information directors. Selby, a 2017 All-MEAC Second Team honoree, was second in the MEAC in passes defended (1.18 pg) and the team leader with two interceptions last season. Romo-Martinez, also a 2017 All-MEAC Second Team selection, was tops in the league and fourth among all FCS punters with a 44.8-yard average last season. He had 24 kicks of 50-or-more yards and 17 that landed inside the opponents' 20-yard line. Cavicante was second on the Hornets and 13th in the MEAC in tackles at 6.7 per games (74 total) a year ago. Alleyne has more than a thousand yards rushing in his career and is also one of the MEAC's top kickoff returners.

HORNET PUNTER IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Despite missing last week's game, Delaware State punter Fidel Romo-Martinez (jr.), a FCS All-America candidate, ranks third in the MEAC with a 41.3 yard average entering this week's games. Romo-Martinez has nine kicks of 50-or-more yards, including a long of 70 yards at Western Michigan on Sep. 15, and seven that have landed inside the opponents' 20-yard line. He punted 72 times for 3,224 yards, both school records, last season. His average of 44.8 yards per kick was tops in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and fourth among all FCS punters in 2017. He had 24 kicks of 50-or-more yards and 17 that landed inside the opponents' 20-yard line. His talents have certainly not gone unnoticed. Romo-Martinez is a 2018 HERO Sports Preseason FCS All-America Third Team and PHIL STEELE Preseason FCS All-America Fourth Team selection, in addition to being a Preseason All-MEAC First Team pick.

SEEING "DOUBLE"

You're not seeing double. Delaware State's "Selby twins" Keyjuan and Taronn have been causing folks on campus to do double-takes since joining the team in 2015. Keyjuan is a defensive back and Taronn a wide receiver, so they often go head-to-head in practice. Keyjuan is a 2018 preseason All-MEAC First Team selection, and ranked among the league leaders in passes defended the last two seasons. Taronn was the Hornets' leader in receptions (35) and receiving yards (512) in 2017. The Selbys were standout players at St. George's Vo-Tech in New Castle County, Del., before enrolling at Delaware State. Taronn was Delaware's 2014 Gatorade High School Player-of-the-Year after rushing for more than 1,300 yards and 23 touchdowns as a senior. Keyjuan also rushed for more than 1,000 yards as a senior at St. George's, and is the school's career interception leader.

The 2018 Hornets also feature the "kicking Romo-Martinez brothers." Junior punter Fidel Romo-Martinez joined the team in 2016, while his younger brother Jose Romo-Martinez, a redshirt freshman, is expected to handle placekicking duties this season.

HORNETS IN THE MEAC

A charter member of the MEAC, Delaware State is in its 48th year of league play. The Hornets have an all-time record of 136-187-1 in MEAC contests. DSU has won or shared six league championships. The Hornets claimed outright MEAC titles in 1985, 1989 and 2007, while sharing the crown in 1987, 1988 and 1991. Delaware State was 10th in the MEAC standings with a 2-6 league mark in 2017.

PLAYING WITH THE BIG BOYS

DSU's 68-0 loss at Western Michigan on Sep. 15 was the second of two vs. FBS opponents on the Hornets' 2018 schedule. DSU opened the season with a 48-10 loss at Buffalo, along with WMU a member of the Mid-America Conference. This is the second year in a row that Delaware State has faced multiple major college foes. In 2017, the Hornets suffered a week three loss to West Virginia (59-16) and were routed by Florida A&M (77-6) to close out the season.

TRANSFER STATION

Delaware State's 2018 roster is bolstered by the addition of players who started their college careers at other schools. The Hornet defense is the biggest beneficiary with the help of Division I FBS transfers Jason Smith (Marshall), Keisean Wilson (Old Dominion), Carrington Jones (Temple) and Shawn Wood (Pittsburgh). Smith and Jones are defensive linemen, while Wilson and Wood join the linebacker corps.

Junior college transfers RB Richard Harris (Dean College), OT Anetelea "RJ" Moli (DeAnza College), DL Corey St. John (Ellsworth CC), DB La Vonte Wilson (San Bernardino CC) and OL Michael Wood (Compton College) also signed with the Hornets this season.

BACK TO THE FUTURE

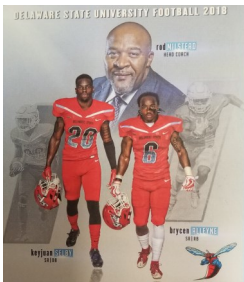

Delaware State head coach and former Hornet great Rod Milstead did not overlook the talented football minds his alma mater has produced when putting together his staff. In addition to Milstead, the 2018 Hornet coaching staff consists of DSU alums Tyrone Greenwood (cornerbacks), Cordie Greenlea (linebackers) and Ollie Taylor (wide receivers).

Greenlea and Milstead first crossed paths at Delaware State and were members of the Hornets' 1988 MEAC championship squad. Greenlea was most recently a football coach consultant and previously a successful Delaware high school head coach.

Greenwood has been on the DSU staff since 2015 and retained by Milstead when he took the job this year. Prior to returning to his alma mater, Greenwood was a member of the University of Kansas football staff. He played with the Hornets from 2000 to 2003.

Before entering the coaching ranks, Taylor was a member of the Hornets' 2007 MEAC championship squad. He most recently served as receivers coach at Saginaw Valley State (Mich.) before returning to Delaware State.

DSU 2018 FOOTBALL YEARBOOK ONLINE

The 2018 Delaware State Football Yearbook can be viewed online on the Hornets' athletics webpage (DSUHornets.com). The book features profiles on Hornet players and coaches, a 2018 season preview, recap of the 2017 campaign, along with historical information on the DSU football program.

CAVICANTE EARNS MEAC HONOR

Delaware State linebacker Brian Cavicante (jr.) was honored by the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference for his performance in the Hornets' Sep. 8 contest at Saint Francis (Pa.). Cavicante was selected as the MEAC Defensive Player-of-the-Week after recording 12 tackles, including eight unassisted, in the contest. Among the tackles, five were in the Saint Francis backfield, accounting for 14 lost yards. In addition, Cavicante scooped up a fumble on a Saint Francis punt return and ran 14 yards to the end zone for the first touchdown of the game and his career. The Portsmouth, Va., native is currently No. 1 in the MEAC in tackles at 9.1 per game (64 total). Cavicante is also second in the league in tackles-for-loss (12) and is second with 36 solo stops in the latest conference statistical rankings.

JOSE! JOSE! JOSE!

Delaware State placekicker Jose Romo-Martinez (r-fr.) is apparently gaining more confidence from the Hornet coaching staff. Romo-Martinez has kicked two field goals in two of the last three games and is 5-for-8 for the season. He accounted for all the DSU scoring with two field goals vs. North Carolina A&T on Oct. 6. He opened the scoring with a 38-yard field goal in the first quarter and pulled the Hornets to within 20-6 with a career-best 49-yard kick with plenty room to spare late in the second quarter.

The Banning, Cal., native attempted a 50-yard field goal on the last play of the first half vs. NCA&T. The kick was straight on, but hit the cross bar and back into the end zone.

Romo-Martinez was just 1-for-3 on field goal attempts, the only make a 23-yarder in the opener at Buffalo, prior to the last three weeks. He is also 9-of-9 on extra point kicks to lead the Hornets in scoring with 24 points this season.

THIS DAY IN HORNET FOOTBALL HISTORY (Oct. 27, 2007)

Peter Gaertner kicked a 38-yard field with two seconds left to give Delaware State a 17-16 victory over South Carolina State in Orangeburg, S.C. The Hornets trailed 16-7 entering the fourth quarter, but outscored the Bulldogs 10-0 in the final 15 minutes. DSU's Ryan Robinson recovered a South Carolina State fumble at the Bulldog 43-yard line with 3:45 left in the fourth quarter to set up the winning drive. The Hornets used seven plays to advance to the S.C. State 17 before Gaertner's heroics. Delaware State improved to 6-0 in the MEAC en route to winning the 2007 conference championship with an 8-0 record.

DSU's ALUMNI STADIUM FITTED WITH NEW TURF

It's out with the old and in with the new at Delaware State's Alumni Stadium. Fans attending Hornet home games will notice the new playing surface at the 39-year old stadium. The old A-Turf that was installed in 2006 has been replaced by new AstroTurf. The stadium improvement project also includes a new track surrounding the field. Alumni Stadium is also home to the Hornets' women's soccer and women's lacrosse teams.

BACK TO THE FUTURE 2

Rod Milstead's return to his alma also marks the return of familiar headgear for the Hornets. For the fourth straight year, there's a new look to the helmets worn by the Hornets ...only this year, it's a more familiar look. DSU will return to the red helmets with "Delaware State" written on each side. each side. From the early 1980s to 2015, the Hornets wore red helmets with the familiar "State" logo on each side. In 2010, the word Delaware, in smaller type, was placed above the State logo.

DELAWARE STATE HEAD COACH ROD MILSTEAD

One of the most decorated players in the history of the Delaware State University football program was appointed as head coach at his alma mater on Jan. 30. 2018.

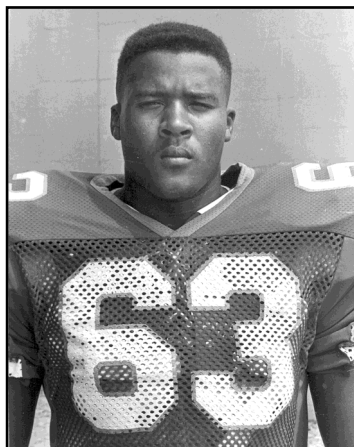

Milstead was a standout offensive lineman for the Hornets from 1988 to '91 before an eight-year career in the National Football League.

During his tenure with the Hornets, Milstead was a three-time All-MEAC First Team selection (1989, '90, 91); and a 1991 Associated Press, Walter Camp and Sheridan Black College All-America First Team pick.

He helped lead Delaware State to the 1989 MEAC championship and a share of the conference title in 1988 and '91.

In addition, he helped pave the way to the Hornets' No. 1 ranking among all Division I-AA (now FCS) teams in rushing at 300.2 yards per game in 1990.

Delaware State named Milstead as its Male Athlete-of-the-Year and Senior Male Athlete-of-the-Year in 1992. He was inducted into the Hornets' Athletics Hall-of-Fame in 2003.

Milstead was a Div. I-AA All-America offensive lineman at Delaware State

Milstead earned a bachelor's in Sociology/Criminal Justice from Delaware State in 1992.

Following his collegiate career, Milstead was selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the fifth round of the 1992 National Football League draft. After several weeks in the Cowboys' training camp, he was traded to the Cleveland Browns, where he played two seasons.

In 1994, Milstead signed with the San Francisco 49ers, where he joined former Hornet star wide receiver John Taylor.

Milstead was a member of San Francisco's 1995 Super Bowl champion squad. The Niners captured the title with a 49-26 win over the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX in Miami, Fla. In four seasons with the 49ers (1994-97), Milstead competed in 36 games, including 12 starts.

He completed his professional playing career after two seasons with the Washington Redskins (1998-99), during which he appeared in 20 games, starting 11.

In 2013, Milstead was offensive line coach at Delaware State's Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference rival North Carolina Central University.

During the 2014 season, he returned to Delaware State as offensive line coach.

From 2000 to '06, Milstead was the assistant head coach/offensive line coach at his high school alma mater, Lackey High in Indian Head, Md.

He was head football coach at La Plata High School in Maryland from 2015 to 2018.

DELAWARE STATE ASSISTANT COACH BIO BRIEFS

ERIC DAY - OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QBs
FROSTBURG STATE, '94
FOURTH SEASON AT DSU

Day is in his second stint on the Delaware State coaching staff. He previously served under head coach Al Lavan as quarterbacks coach, then offensive coordinator with the Hornets for three seasons from 2004 to '06. During the 2004 to '05 seasons, Delaware State compiled a 15-7 overall record and 11-4 mark in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference. In 2006, with Day as offensive coordinator, the Hornets were 8-3 overall and 6-2 in the MEAC, their best record in each since 1991. DSU's 2006 squad ranked second in the MEAC in scoring offense at 30.5 points per game and in rushing 191.3 yards per game. The Hornets topped the 60-point mark in two games that season. That season, senior running back Emmanuel Marc was second in the MEAC with 1,230 yards rushing the 4th best single season total in team history.

MARK JAMES - DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR /
DEFENSIVE LINE
VIRGINIA UNION, '00
FIRST SEASON AT DSU

Prior to joining the Hornets, James served four years as head football coach at Virginia Union University from 2014 to 2017. While at Virginia Union, he led the Panthers to an overall record of 26-14, highlighted by the school's first NCAA playoff appearance in more than two decades in 2015. That season, VUU was No. 1 among all NCAA Div. II schools in total defense. During James' tenure at Virginia Union, the team produced five Div. II

All-Americans and two players earned National Football League opportunities. In addition, he was the recipient of the 2016 Fritz Pollard Coach-of-the-Year Award, presented by the Black Coaches Alliance and Brown University. Pollard was the first African-American head coach in the National Football League. He and Bobby Marshall were the first African-Americans to compete in the NFL. James' college coaching experience also includes one season (2011) as offensive coordinator at St. Paul's College (Va.) and a year as linebackers coach at Norfolk State University (2003).

JEFF BRAXTON - / RUN GAME COORDINATOR/ TIGHT ENDS/ SPECIAL TEAMS
SALISBURY STATE, '87
12th SEASON AT DSU

Braxton returns to Delaware State after a three-year stint (2015-17) as an assistant at NCAA Division III power Wesley College in Dover, Del., under the late legendary head coach Mike Drass. The Wolverines reached the NCAA Div. III playoff quarterfinals in 2015 and the second round in 2016 and '17. Also at Wesley, Braxton was the position coach of 2018 National Football League signee Matt Gono, currently with the Atlanta Falcons. This is Braxton's fifth stint with the Hornets. In addition to his duties as tight ends coach, he also oversees special teams. He previously served as the Hornets' defensive line coach from 2012-14, offensive line coach during the 2006 and '07 seasons, and offensive coordinator from 2000 to 2003. In addition, he was a Delaware State assistant in 1995 (offensive line) and '96 (linebackers).

TY GREENWOOD - CORNERBACKS
DELAWARE STATE, '04
FOURTH SEASON AT DSU

Before returning to his alma mater, the former Hornet star defensive back most recently served two years with the University of Kansas football program as the quality control coach for defense. Greenwood spent the previous six seasons on the staff at Pierce College in Los Angeles, where he served as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. Greenwood is a 2004 graduate of Delaware State where he was a three-year starter at defensive back. While at DSU, Greenwood earned All-MEAC honors and was named the team's defensive MVP in 2003.

ANTHONY MISSICK - SAFETIES
KENTUCKY, '99
FIRST SEASON AT DSU

The former University of Kentucky and Canadian Football League standout joined the Delaware State staff in March 2018. He most recently served as defensive backs for the Canadian Football League Blue Bombers since June 2016. During the 2015 CFL season, Missick was defensive backs coach for the Saskatchewan Roughriders. Prior to joining the Riders, he spent four seasons in the same capacity with the Calgary Stampeders. Missick won his first Grey Cup (CFL Championship) with the Stamps that season. Prior to joining the Stampeders, Missick spent nine seasons coaching in the Arena Football League. He was named head coach of the Cincinnati Jungle Kats in 2007.

CORDIE GREENLEA - LINEBACKERS
DELAWARE STATE, '89
FIRST SEASON AT DSU

The former Delaware State offensive line standout and teammate of Hornet head coach Rod Milstead returns to his alma mater as a new member of the coaching staff. Greenlea was a member of the Hornet football team from 1985 to '89, helping to lead the program to three Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) championships. Prior to joining the DSU coaching staff, he served as a Football Coach Consultant for various high schools. His services included scouting and film analysis, designing game plans, planning and operation of off-season camps, assisting with college placement of prospective student-athletes.

ANTHONY VITALE - OFFENSIVE LINE
UNIVERSITY OF REDLANDS (CAL.), '13
FIRST SEASON AT DSU

Vitale most recently served as offensive line coach at Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar, Mo. During his four years at Southwest Baptist (2014-17), Vitale helped transform the Bearcats from a team that posted a 1-10 overall record before he arrived to a 10-2 Great Lakes Valley Conference championship squad. In addition, he coached one All-America and eight All-GLVC offensive linemen while at SBU. Prior to his tenure at Southwest Baptist, Vitale coached at Lindenwood University, where he served as an offensive graduate assistant and assistant offensive line coach. He helped guide the Lions to a successful transition into NCAA Division II football and the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association.

OLLIE TAYLOR - WIDE RECEIVERS
DELAWARE STATE, '08
FIRST SEASON AT DSU

Taylor returns to his alma mater from Saginaw Valley State University (Mich.), where he served as wide receivers coach since 2016. Prior to joining Saginaw Valley, Taylor was the wide receivers coach at Widener University (Pa.). In 2015, the Widener offense was the conference leader in passing yards per game (316.0), while three earned all-conference recognition. Taylor was running backs coach at Widener in 2012. That season, the Pride reached the NCAA Div. III national quarterfinals and ranked eighth in the country in the final season poll.

KEKE MISAPEAKA - RUNNING BACKS
SE MISSOURI STATE, '96
FIRST SEASON AT DSU

Prior to joining the Hornets, Misipeaka was a member of the Garden City Community College (Kan.) football staff as Running Backs Coach and International Recruiting Coordinator. In 2017, Garden City posted an 8-4 overall record and 5-2 mark in the Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference. The Bronxbusters also competed in the Heart of Texas Bowl last season. Garden City running back Charles West was a 2017 all-conference selection. Before his tenure at Garden City, Misipeaka joined the coaching staff at Silverado High School in Las Vegas Nev., under former National Football League quarterback Randall Cunningham in

HORNETS LOOK TO PROVE DOUBTERS WRONG IN 2018 MEAC RACE

The Delaware State football team should have plenty of motivation for the 2018 season. Voters in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference poll give the Hornets little or no chance to win the league championship. DSU has been picked to finish 10th in the 10-team MEAC race, according to the poll of league head coaches and sports information directors. Defending MEAC champ North Carolina A&T is the voters' choice to repeat this season. The Aggies were 12-0 in 2017 (8-0 MEAC), and capped off the season with a 21-14 victory over Grambling State in the Celebration Bowl to capture their second HBCU National Championship in the last three years. NCA&T garnered 19 of 20 first place votes in the 2018 MEAC poll. Howard (7-4; 6-2) has been picked to finish second in the upcoming MEAC race, while North Carolina Central (7-4; 5-3), Bethune-Cookman (7-4; 6-2) and Florida A&M (3-8; 2-6) round out the top five in the poll.

MEAC CHAMPION TO COMPETE IN CELEBRATION BOWL

The quest for the 2018 MEAC championship will again have an added incentive for Delaware State and its fellow conference members.

This year's MEAC champion will also have the honor of representing the conference against the champ of the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) in the Fourth Annual Celebration Bowl Atlanta, Ga..

The MEAC holds a 2-1 lead in the Celebration Bowl after North Carolina A&T defeated Grambling State in the 2017 contest.

NCA&T also claimed the first Celebration Bowl championship with its victory over Alcorn State in 2015. Grambling State defeated North Carolina Central in 2016 for the SWAC's lone victory in the post-season bowl.

ESPN Events, a subsidiary of ESPN, has announced that the fourth Celebration Bowl will again be televised live on ABC. The 2018 post-season college football bowl game will kick off at noon ET on Saturday, Dec. 15, at Mercedes Benz Stadium in Atlanta.

HORNET FOOTBALL STREAMING LIVE ON ESPN NETWORKS

Each of Delaware State's 2018 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference football contests will be streamed live on either ESPN3 or ESPN+, the result of a multi-year agreement between the conference and the Worldwide Leader in Sports. The MEAC and ESPN recently announced the plan to stream the conference's football contests on ESPN3 and ESPN+, the new multi-sport, direct-to-consumer subscription streaming service from The Walt Disney Company Direct-to-Consumer & International segment and ESPN. The agreement is effective immediately. A total of 35 MEAC football contests will be available on ESPN3 and ESPN+ this season in addition to 10 televised contests on either ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPN.

ESPN 3

"I am elated to utilize ESPN3 and ESPN+ in continuing to grow the MEAC's relationship with ESPN," said MEAC Commissioner Dennis E. Thomas. "Both ESPN3 and ESPN+ are innovative digital platforms upon which we can better serve our member institutions and our fans, while also expanding our reach both from a conference perspective and at the institutional level. This is an exciting time for college sports, with the expansion of digital content, and I am pleased that the MEAC is on the forefront with ESPN3 and ESPN+."

"This agreement reflects another significant step in our relationship with the MEAC and for the opportunity to continue to enhance our already robust ESPN3 and ESPN+ offerings with quality HBCU competition," said Burke Magnus, ESPN executive vice president of programming and scheduling. ESPN3 is accessible on computers, smartphones, tablets and connected devices through the ESPN app. The network is currently available nationwide at no additional cost to fans who receive their high-speed Internet connection or video subscription from an affiliated service provider.

Fans can subscribe to ESPN+ on ESPN.com or through the ESPN App for just $4.99 a month (or $49.99 per year).

The agreement adds additional exposure to the MEAC, which has collaborated with ESPN since 2005. The ESPN+ football contests add to an already impressive lineup as the ESPN networks carry multiple men's basketball, baseball and softball regular-season contests. The men's and women's basketball tournament championship, volleyball and bowling finals are also televised on ESPN.

FORMER HORNETS MAKING THEIR MARK IN THE PROS AND BEYOND

RODNEY GUNTER LONE HORNET ACTIVE IN NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Former Hornet defensive lineman Rodney Gunter ('14) is making an impact in professional football. Gunter was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the fourth round (116h overall pick) of the 2015 National Football League draft, making him the third highest NFL selection in Hornet football history. He was also the first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference player chosen in the 2015 NFL draft. Gunter has 51 tackles (34 solo), including 3.5 sacks, in three seasons the Cards (2015 - 2017).

Gunter was a four-year starter for the Hornets from 2011 to 2014, competing in each of the Hornets' 45 games during the span. He was an All-MEAC First Team selection in 2013; and second team pick in 2012 and 2014.

DSU REMEMBERS FORMER HORNET, 9/11 HERO KEITH GLASCOE

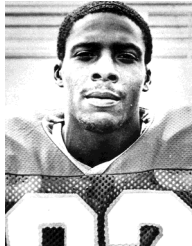

Delaware State football also honors the memory of former Hornet defensive lineman Keith Glascoe ('85), who died in the Sep. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks at the World Trade Center while serving as a New York City firefighter.

Glascoe played with the Hornets in the early 1980s. He was given a try out by the NFL's New York Jets following his college career.

JOHN TAYLOR TOPS LIST OF FORMER HORNET PROS

Rodney Gunter may one day be recognized as the former Hornet with the greatest professional football career, but right now that distinction belongs to John Taylor, who played nine seasons with the great San Francisco 49er teams of the late 1980s to mid-90s. Taylor is most famous for catching the winning touchdown on a 10-yard pass from Joe Montana with 34 seconds left in the 49ers' 20-16 win over the Cincinnati Bengals in Super Bowl XXIII in Miami, Fla. It was his first of three Super Bowls championships with the Niners. Taylor was also a two-time NFL All-Pro selection, competed in two Pro Bowls and was named as to the NFL's 1980s All-Decade Team as the second team punt returner. In a Monday night game against the Rams, Taylor scored touchdowns on two receptions of over 90 yards (92 and 96), an NFL first. He recorded 347 receptions for 5,589 yards (16.1 ypr) and 43 touchdowns in his NFL career.

OTHER FORMER HORNETS RAISE DSU PROFILE

Two other former DSU football standouts are making news these days. Regular cable news watchers likely know the name Matthew Horace, an offensive lineman for the Hornets from 1980 to '83. In 1983, he helped lead the team to a 7-3-1 record, its first winning season in six years. Horace is currently an internationally recognized law enforcement, homeland security and leadership expert. He is Senior Vice President and Chief Security Officer for FJC Security Services, a national security firm based in metropolitan New York City. A twenty-eight year veteran of federal, state and local law enforcement, he ascended to the Senior Executive Service (SES) rank in the United States Department of Justice where he managed local, regional, national, and international investigations. He is frequently featured in live broadcast news segments related to Homeland Security, Federal investigations and general law enforcement matters on CNN, Headline News, MSNBC, FOX and local affiliates throughout the United States and abroad.

Television and movie watchers may recognize former Hornet Aaron Spears (right), now a Hollywood actor. Spears was a running back for the Hornets during the 1992 and '93 seasons. In 1993, he was one of three Hornets to rush for 100 yards (133) in a 65-42 win over Morgan State. Today, Spears plays the character Mark Bradley in the BET series Being Mary Jane starring Gabrielle Union. He received a NAACP Image Award for his role as Justin Barber in the daytime soap Bold and the Beautiful. His television credits also include guest roles in Criminal Minds, Bones and Everybody Loves Raymond.
