Among NCCU's five takeaways was a red-zone interception by NCCU senior safety Jaquell Taylor midway through the third quarter, keeping the Spartans off the scoreboard. Two plays later, Eagles quarterback Chauncey Caldwell connected with tight end Sherman McLeod for a 93-yard touchdown reception, the second-longest pass play in school history, to push the Eagles ahead 19-0. NCCU recorded 388 yards of total offense, including 200 yards rushing, to average 5.7 yards per play, while Norfolk State managed 301 total yards for an average of 3.8 yards per play. Caldwell accounted for 241 yards of total offense for the Eagles with 188 passing yards and 53 yards rushing, including a 5-yard touchdown scamper in the second quarter. NCCU interceptions were recorded by Taylor, senior safety Davanta Reynolds and redshirt freshman linebacker Patrick Connor, who also recovered a fumble. In addition to the blocked punts and interception return for touchdown, the Hornets were set back by another interception that went in and out of a receiver's hands and two holding penalties that negated 30-plus-yard passing gains.
