The Series: First meeting

Delaware State Head Coach Rod Milstead (Delaware State, 92): The former Hornet All-America offensive lineman and National Football League standout is in his first season as head coach at his alma mater. This is his first collegiate head coach position. Milstead served as Delaware State's offensive line coach in 2014 and held the same position at DSU's Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference rival North Carolina Central in 2013. Following his playing career with the Hornets, Milstead competed for the NFL's Dallas Cowboys, Cleveland Browns, San Francisco 49ers and Washington Redskins.

Western Michigan Head Coach Tim Lester (Western Michigan) is in his second season with the Broncos. In 2017, he led his alma mater to a 6-6 overall record and 4-4 mark in the Mid-America Conference. Prior to his current post, he was head coach for five seasons at NCAA Div. III Elmhurst and one year at Div. II Saint Joseph's (Ind.). As a quarterback at Western Michigan, he threw for more than 11,000 thousand yards and 87 touchdowns. In 2011, he was inducted into the WMU Athletics Hall of Fame.

THE GAME

Delaware State travels to Mid-America Conference country for the second time in its three-week-old season to take on the Western Michigan Broncos. The Hornets (0-2) are coming off a 45-14 loss to Saint Francis (Pa.) last weekend. DSU scored first when Brian Cavicante scooped up a fumble on a punt return and ran 14 yards to the endzone to give the Hornets their first lead of the season. The Red Flash answered with 28 unanswered points in the first quarter and never looked back. DSU scored its other touchdown on a 16-yard run by quarterback Keenan Black to pull to within 28-14 in the second quarter. Saint Francis led 31-14 at the half and outscored the Hornets 14-0 in the final 30 minutes. DSU's Mike Waters had a game-high 107 yards rushing on 28 carries, the third 100-yard game of his career and first since Nov. 19, 2016. Defensively, Cavicante led all players with 12 tackles (eight solo), including five behind the line-of-scrimmage (-14). Black, who relieved starter Jack McDaniels in the second quarter, completed 10-of-22 passes for 75 yards (long 19) and also rushed for 27 yards. Hornet cornerback Keyjuan Selby, a 2018 Preseason All-MEAC First Team selection, had six tackles (five unassisted) and a pass break-up in the contest. Delaware State opened the season with a 48-10 loss to Buffalo, also a member of the Mid-America Conference, on Sep. 1.

SCOUTING THE BRONCOS

Western Michigan is trying to bounce back from a 49-3 loss to Michigan last Saturday. The Wolverines led 21-0 after the first quarter and 35-0 at the half. Junior running back LeVante Bellamy led all Broncos (0-2) with 65 yards on 11 carries. Graduate transfer cornerback Juwan Dowels and junior linebacker Alex Grace each had six tackles to lead the defense. Grace had three tackles for loss and a sack. Placekicker Josh Grant accounted for the Broncos' points on a 35-yard field goal in the fourth quarter. Western Michigan lost a shootout to Syracuse 55-42 in its opener on Sep. 1.

THE SERIES (FIRST MEETING)

This is the first meeting between the Hornets and Broncos. Delaware State is 1-4 all-time vs. current members of the MAC (1-0 vs. Akron; 0-3 vs. Kent State; 0-1 vs. Buffalo).

CAVICANTE EARNS MEAC HONOR

Delaware State linebacker Brian Cavicante (jr.) has been honored by the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference for his performance in last week's contest at Saint Francis (Pa.). Cavicante was selected as the MEAC Defensive Player-of-the-Week after recording 12 tackles, including eight unassisted, in the contest. Among the tackles, five were in the Saint Francis backfield, accounting for 14 lost yards. In addition, Cavicante scooped up a fumble on a Saint Francis punt return and ran 14 yards to the end zone for the first touchdown of the game and his career. The Portsmouth, Va., native is currently tops in the MEAC in tackles at 11.0 per game (22 total). Cavicante is also second in the league in tackles-for-loss (5) and tied for second with 13 solo stops in the latest conference statistical rankings.

LOCAL STAR SHINES IN HORNET DEBUT

No sign of first game jitters for Delaware State freshman defensive back David Bowman, a former star at Milford (Del.) High School. Bowman, a two-way standout at Milford (RB/DB), led all players with 11 tackles, including seven solo stops, in his collegiate debut at Buffalo on Sep. 1. He currently ranks second on the Hornets with 16 tackles after two games.

Before enrolling at DSU, he helped lead Milford HS to the state Division II championship during senior year. He's also the school's all-time record holder in yards from scrimmage (6,068), rushing yards (5,600), touchdowns (74) and tackles (376). As a senior, Bowman was the 2017 Delaware Defensive Player-of-the-Year, All-State First Team as a running back and defensive back, All-Henlopen Conference First Team (RB & DB), Delaware Blue/Gold All-Star selection and Delaware SportsZone Star Health Athlete-of-the-Week.

DSU'S QUARTERBACK CAROUSEL

Delaware State has used its top two quarterbacks in each of its two games. Jack McDaniels (so.) has started both games, but Keenan Black (jr.) has appeared in each contest as well. McDaniels played the entire second half of the Buffalo contest, completing 8 of 15 passes for 76 yards, including a 41-yard strike to Kwannah Kollie. Black was 0-for-3 with an interception and lost fumble in the opener. McDaniels was relieved by Black in the second quarter and did not return vs. Saint Francis last week. Black completed 10-of-20 passes for 75 yards and scored a touchdown on a 16-yard scramble last week.

So far this season, McDaniels has completed 12 of 25 passes (48.0%) for 95 yards. He has one interception and has yet to throw a touchdown. Black has completed 10 of 25 passes (40.0%) for 75 yards. He also has an INT and zero touchdowns. The duo split time under center in 2017 and waged a battle throughout 2018 summer camp. Black was ninth in the MEAC in passing average (129.9 ypg) and pass efficiency (116.2 rating) after completing 82-of-173 passes (47.4%) for 1169 yards and 11 touchdowns in 2017. McDaniels connected on 95-of-175 throws (54.3%) for 1139 yards and three TDs a year ago.

FOUR HORNETS EARN PRESEASON ALL-MEAC NOD

Delaware State has four players on the 2018 Preseason All-MEAC Teams, including three first team selections. Hornet defensive back Keyjuan Selby (sr.), punter Fidel Romo-Martinez (jr.) and linebacker Brian Cavicante (jr.) were named to the preseason first team, while running back Brian Alleyne (sr.) was a second team pick in voting by league head coaches and sports information directors. Selby, a 2017 All-MEAC Second Team honoree, was second in the MEAC in passes defensed (1.18 pg) and the team leader with two interceptions last season. Romo-Martinez, also a 2017 All-MEAC Second Team selection, was tops in the league and fourth among all FCS punters with a 44.8-yard average last season. He had 24 kicks of 50-or-more yards and 17 that landed inside the opponents' 20-yard line. Cavicante was second on the Hornets and 13th in the MEAC in tackles at 6.7 per games (74 total) a year ago. Alleyne has more than a thousand yards rushing in his career and is also one of the MEAC's top kickoff returners. North Carolina A&T quarterback Lamar Raynard, the 2017 MEAC Offensive Player-of-the-Year, is the voters' choice to win the award for the second straight year, while North Carolina Central defensive back Davanta Reynolds has been selected as the league's 2018 Preseason Defensive Player-of-the-Year. North Carolina Central led all schools with nine preseason All-MEAC players, while NCA&T had a league-high seven first team picks.

Delaware State's 2018 opening roster includes a total of 14 in-state players, tops among states. The Hornets' Delaware products are: Brycen Alleyne (Wilmington), Karim Beatty (Dover), Tyreek Booker (Newark), David Bowman (Milford), Dwight Chavis (Newark), Sequan Daniels (Woodside), Shareef Flowers (Bear), Jawain Granger (New Castle), Brooks Parker (Laurel), Keyjuan Selby (Bear), Taronn Selby (Bear); Kyle Taylor (Wilmington), Taj Washington (Newark), and Shawn Wood (New Castle). New York and New Jersey are tied for second among states with 12 players on the Hornets' 2018 roster.

STINGERS

Delaware State has 24 freshmen (including redshirts) on its 2018 opening day roster ... the Western Michigan marks the Hornets' first visit to the state since a 2009 contest at Michigan (L, 66 -3) ... Delaware State has seven road games and just four home contests during the 2018 season ... Hornets are trying to snap a 23-game road losing streak ... DSU's last road win was at Norfolk State on 10/11/14 (13-10 ot) (13-10, OT)

WATERS OFF TO FLYING START IN RETURN

Hornet junior Mike Waters is showing no ill effects from the knee injury that forced him to miss the last eight games of the 2017 season. After running for a game-high 107 yards in last week's loss to Saint Francis, Waters has climbed to the MEAC lead in rushing at 99.5 yards per game (199 yards total) as of last week. It was the third 100-yard game of his career and first since rushing for a DSU freshman record 220 yards in the Hornets' 2016 finale at Howard. Waters opened the season with a 92-yard performance at Buffalo on Sep. 1. He enters the Western Michigan contest with 1,130 career rushing yards on 247 carries (4.6 ypc). The Philadelphia, Pa., native rushed for a DSU freshman record 820 yards in 2016, but was held to just 111 during an injury-plagued sophomore season in 2017.

SEEING "DOUBLE"

You're not seeing double. Delaware State's "Selby twins" Keyjuan and Taronn have been causing folks on campus to do double-takes since joining the team in 2015. Keyjuan is a defensive back and Taronn a wide receiver, so they often go head-to-head in practice. Keyjuan is a 2018 preseason All-MEAC First Team selection, and ranked among the league leaders in passes defended the last two seasons. Taronn was the Hornets' leader in receptions (35) and receiving yards (512) in 2017. The Selbys were standout players at St. George's Vo-Tech in New Castle County, Del., before enrolling at Delaware State. Taronn was Delaware's 2014 Gatorade High School Player-of-the-Year after rushing for more than 1,300 yards and 23 touchdowns as a senior. Keyjuan also rushed for more than 1,000 yards as a senior at St. George's, and is the school's career interception leader.

The 2017 Hornets also feature the "kicking Romo-Martinez brothers." Junior punter Fidel Romo-Martinez joined the team in 2016, while his younger brother Jose Romo-Martinez, a redshirt freshman, is expected to handle placekicking duties this season.

HORNET PUNTER IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Delaware State punter Fidel Romo-Martinez (jr.), a FCS All-America candidate, ranks 24th among in the nation with a 42.2 yard average through last week's action. Romo-Martinez has three kicks of 50-or-more yards, including a long of 52, and three that landed inside the opponents' 20-yard line. He punted 72 times for 3,224 yards, both school records, last season. His average of 44.8 yards per kick was tops in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and fourth among all FCS punters in 2017. He had 24 kicks of 50-or-more yards and 17 that landed inside the opponents' 20-yard line. His talents have certainly not gone unnoticed. Romo-Martinez is a 2018 HERO Sports Preseason FCS All-America Third Team and PHIL STEELE Preseason FCS All-America Fourth Team selection, in addition, to being a Preseason All-MEAC First Team pick.

HIGH HOPES FOR HORNETS' AIR ATTACK

Despite throwing for just 170 yards in the first two weeks, Delaware State's return as a top passing team in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference last season has keyed optimism for the Hornets' 2018 air attack. DSU was fourth in the MEAC in passing at 213.0 yards per game in 2017, the Hornets' top conference ranking since leading the league at 257.1 in 2012. Four of Delaware State's top five wide receivers from 2017 return this season, along with two one thousand yard quarterbacks.

The Hornets' leading 2017 pass catcher Taronn Selby (sr.) is back this season. He had team highs of 35 receptions and 521 yards last year. Selby had two touchdown catches and tallied a career-best 110 yards on five receptions vs. Howard to highlight his junior season. Two returners also emerged as key contributors to the pass game as true freshmen last season. Trey Gross (so.) hauled in 27 passes for 428 yards and was tied for second in the MEAC with seven touchdowns after being inserted into the starting line-up in week six last season. Gross (right) had six catches for 154 yards and two touchdowns in his break-out game against Howard. The receiving yards were the most by a DSU freshman since Darnerian McCants tallied 170 vs. Buffalo in 1997. DSU's 401 passing yards in the Howard contest marked the third-highest total in team history. Kwannah Kollie (so.) also shined in his first college season in 2017, averaging 20.1 yards on 16 catches and collecting three touchdowns. Kollie had three receptions for 107 yards and a touchdown vs. North Carolina Central and scored his first collegiate touchdown vs. FBS West Virginia last season.

HORNETS IN THE MEAC

A charter member of the MEAC, Delaware State is in its 48th year of league play. The Hornets have an all-time record of 136-183-1 in MEAC contests. DSU has won or shared six league championships. The Hornets claimed outright MEAC titles in 1985, 1989 and 2007, while sharing the crown in 1987, 1988 and 1991. Delaware State was 10th in the MEAC standings with a 2-6 league mark in 2017.

PLAYING WITH THE BIG BOYS

The Western Michigan contest is the second of two vs. FBS opponents on the Hornets' 2018 schedule. DSU opened the season with a 48-10 loss at Buffalo, along with WMU a member of the Mid-America Conference. This is the second year in a row that Delaware State has faced multiple major college foes. In 2017, the Hornets suffered a week three loss to West Virginia (59-16) and were routed by Florida A&M (77-6) to close out the season.

The Western Michigan contest will be DSU's 12th against a FBS/Div. I-A opponent. Delaware State is 1-10 all-time vs. FBS opponents. The only win was a 52-26 upset of Akron, also a current MAC member, in 1987.

TRANSFER STATION

Delaware State's 2018 roster is bolstered by the addition of players who started their college careers at other schools. The Hornet defense is the biggest beneficiary with the help of Division I FBS transfers Jason Smith (Marshall), Keisean Wilson (Old Dominion), Carrington Jones (Temple) and Shawn Wood (Pittsburgh). Smith and Jones are defensive linemen, while Wilson and Wood join the linebacker corps.

Junior college transfers RB Richard Harris (Dean College), OT Anetelea "RJ" Moli (DeAnza College), DL Corey St. John (Ellsworth CC), DB La Vonte Wilson (San Bernardino CC) and OL Michael Wood (Compton College) also signed with the Hornets this season.

BACK TO THE FUTURE

Delaware State head coach and former Hornet great Rod Milstead did not overlook the talented football minds his alma mater has produced when putting together his staff. In addition to Milstead, the 2018 Hornet coaching staff consists of DSU alums Tyrone Greenwood (cornerbacks), Cordie Greenlea (linebackers) and Ollie Taylor (wide receivers).

Greenlea and Milstead first crossed paths at Delaware State and were members of the Hornets' 1988 MEAC championship squad. Greenlea was most recently a football coach consultant and previously a successful Delaware high school head coach.

Greenwood has been on the DSU staff since 2015 and retained by Milstead when he took the job this year. Prior to returning to his alma mater, Greenwood was a member of the University of Kansas football staff. He played with the Hornets from 2000 to 2003.

Before entering the coaching ranks, Taylor was a member of the Hornets' 2007 MEAC championship squad. He most recently served as receivers coach at Saginaw Valley State (Mich.) before returning to Delaware State.

DSU's ALUMNI STADIUM FITTED WITH NEW TURF

It's out with the old and in with the new at Delaware State's Alumni Stadium. Fans attending Hornet home games will notice the new playing surface at the 39-year old stadium. The old A-Turf that was installed in 2006 has been replaced by new AstroTurf. The stadium improvement project also includes a new track surrounding the field. Alumni Stadium is also home to the Hornets' women's soccer and women's lacrosse teams.

BACK TO THE FUTURE 2

Rod Milstead's return to his alma also marks the return of familiar headgear for the Hornets. For the fourth straight year, there's a new look to the helmets worn by the Hornets ...only this year, it's a more familiar look. DSU will return to the red helmets with "Delaware State" written on each side, each side. From the early 1980s to 2015, the Hornets wore red helmets with the familiar "State" logo on each side. In 2010, the word Delaware, in smaller type, was placed above the State logo.

DELAWARE STATE HEAD COACH ROD MILSTEAD

One of the most decorated players in the history of the Delaware State University football program was appointed as head coach at his alma mater on Jan. 30, 2018.

Milstead was a standout offensive lineman for the Hornets from 1988 to '91 before an eight-year career in the National Football League.

During his tenure with the Hornets, Milstead was a three-time All-MEAC First Team selection (1989, '90, 91); and a 1991 Associated Press, Walter Camp and Sheridan Black College All-America First Team pick.

He helped lead Delaware State to the 1989 MEAC championship and a share of the conference title in 1988 and '91.

In addition, he helped pave the way to the Hornets' No. 1 ranking among all Division I-AA (now FCS) teams in rushing at 300.2 yards per game in 1990.

Delaware State named Milstead as its Male Athlete-of-the-Year and Senior Male Athlete-of-the-Year in 1992. He was inducted into the Hornets' Athletics Hall-of-Fame in 2003.

Milstead was a Div. I-AA All-America offensive lineman at Delaware State

Milstead earned a bachelor's in Sociology/Criminal Justice from Delaware State in 1992.

Following his collegiate career, Milstead was selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the fifth round of the 1992 National Football League draft. After several weeks in the Cowboys' training camp, he was traded to the Cleveland Browns, where he played two seasons.

In 1994, Milstead signed with the San Francisco 49ers, where he joined former Hornet star wide receiver John Taylor.

Milstead was a member of San Francisco's 1995 Super Bowl champion squad. The Niners captured the title with a 49-26 win over the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX in Miami, Fla. In four seasons with the 49ers (1994-97), Milstead competed in 36 games, including 12 starts.

He completed his professional playing career after two seasons with the Washington Redskins (1998-99), during which he appeared in 20 games, starting 11.

In 2013, Milstead was offensive line coach at Delaware State's Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference rival North Carolina Central University.

During the 2014 season, he returned to Delaware State as offensive line coach.

From 2000 to '06, Milstead was the assistant head coach/offensive line coach at his high school alma mater, Lackey High in Indian Head, Md.

He was head football coach at La Plata High School in Maryland from 2015 to 2018.

DELAWARE STATE ASSISTANT COACH BIO BRIEFS

ERIC DAY - OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QBs
FROSTBURG STATE, '94
FOURTH SEASON AT DSU

Day is in his second stint on the Delaware State coaching staff. He previously served under head coach Al Lavan as quarterbacks coach, then offensive coordinator with the Hornets for three seasons from 2004 to '06. During the 2004 to '05 seasons, Delaware State compiled a 15-7 overall record and 11-4 mark in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference. In 2006, with Day as offensive coordinator, the Hornets were 8-3 overall and 6-2 in the MEAC, their best record in each since 1991. DSU's 2006 squad ranked second in the MEAC in scoring offense at 30.5 points per game and in rushing 191.3 yards per game. The Hornets topped the 60-point mark in two games that season. That season, senior running back Emmanuel Marc was second in the MEAC with 1,230 yards rushing the 4th best single season total in team history.

MARK JAMES - DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / DEFENSIVE LINE
VIRGINIA UNION, '00
FIRST SEASON AT DSU

Prior to joining the Hornets, James served four years as head football coach at Virginia Union University from 2014 to 2017. While at Virginia Union, he led the Panthers to an overall record of 26-14, highlighted by the school's first NCAA playoff appearance in more than two decades in 2015. That season, VUU was No. 1 among all NCAA Div. II schools in total defense. During James' tenure at Virginia Union, the team produced five Div. II

All-Americans and two players earned National Football League opportunities. In addition, he was the recipient of the 2016 Fritz Pollard Coach-of-the-Year Award, presented by the Black Coaches Alliance and Brown University. Pollard was the first African-American head coach in the National Football League. He and Bobby Marshall were the first African-Americans to compete in the NFL. James' college coaching experience also includes one season (2011) as offensive coordinator at St. Paul's College (Va.) and a year as linebackers coach at Norfolk State University (2003).

JEFF BRAXTON - / RUN GAME COORDINATOR/ TIGHT ENDS/ SPECIAL TEAMS
SALISBURY STATE, '87
12th SEASON AT DSU

Braxton returns to Delaware State after a three-year stint (2015-17) as an assistant at NCAA Division III power Wesley College in Dover, Del., under the late legendary head coach Mike Drass. The Wolverines reached the NCAA Div. III playoff quarterfinals in 2015 and the second round in 2016 and '17. Also at Wesley, Braxton was the position coach of 2018 National Football League signee Matt Gono, currently with the Atlanta Falcons. This is Braxton's fifth stint with the Hornets. In addition to his duties as tight ends coach, he also oversees special teams. He previously served as the Hornets' defensive line coach from 2012-14, offensive line coach during the 2006 and '07 seasons, and offensive coordinator from 2000 to 2003. In addition, he was a Delaware State assistant in 1995 (offensive line) and '96 (linebackers).

TY GREENWOOD - CORNERBACKS
DELAWARE STATE, '04
FOURTH SEASON AT DSU

Before returning to his alma mater, the former Hornet star defensive back most recently served two years with the University of Kansas football program as the quality control coach for defense. Greenwood spent the previous six seasons on the staff at Pierce College in Los Angeles, where he served as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. Greenwood is a 2004 graduate of Delaware State where he was a three-year starter at defensive back. While at DSU, Greenwood earned All-MEAC honors and was named the team's defensive MVP in 2003.

ANTHONY MISSICK - SAFETIES
KENTUCKY, '99
FIRST SEASON AT DSU

The former University of Kentucky and Canadian Football League standout joined the Delaware State staff in March 2018. He most recently served as defensive backs for the Canadian Football League Blue Bombers since June 2016. During the 2015 CFL season, Missick was defensive backs coach for the Saskatchewan Roughriders. Prior to joining the Riders, he spent four seasons in the same capacity with the Calgary Stampeders. Missick won his first Grey Cup (CFL Championship) with the Stamps that season. Prior to joining the Stampeders, Missick spent nine seasons coaching in the Arena Football League. He was named head coach of the Cincinnati Jungle Kats in 2007.

CORDIE GREENLEA - LINEBACKERS
DELAWARE STATE, '89
FIRST SEASON AT DSU

The former Delaware State offensive line standout and teammate of Hornet head coach Rod Milstead returns to his alma mater as a new member of the coaching staff. Greenlea was a member of the Hornet football team from 1985 to '89, helping to lead the program to three Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) championships. Prior to joining the DSU coaching staff, he served as a Football Coach Consultant for various high schools. His services included scouting and film analysis, designing game plans, planning and operation of off-season camps, assisting with college placement of prospective student-athletes.

ANTHONY VITALE - OFFENSIVE LINE
UNIVERSITY OF REDLANDS (CAL.), '13
FIRST SEASON AT DSU

Vitale most recently served as offensive line coach at Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar, Mo. During his four years at Southwest Baptist (2014-17), Vitale helped transform the Bearcats from a team that posted a 1-10 overall record before he arrived to a 10-2 Great Lakes Valley Conference championship squad. In addition, he coached one All-America and eight All-GLVC offensive linemen while at SBU. Prior to his tenure at Southwest Baptist, Vitale coached at Lindenwood University, where he served as an offensive graduate assistant and assistant offensive line coach. He helped guide the Lions to a successful transition into NCAA Division II football and the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association.

OLLIE TAYLOR - WIDE RECEIVERS
DELAWARE STATE, '08
FIRST SEASON AT DSU

Taylor returns to his alma mater from Saginaw Valley State University (Mich.), where he served as wide receivers coach since 2016. Prior to joining Saginaw Valley, Taylor was the wide receivers coach at Widener University (Pa.). In 2015, the Widener offense was the conference leader in passing yards per game (316.0), while three earned all-conference recognition. Taylor was running backs coach at Widener in 2012. That season, the Pride reached the NCAA Div. III national quarterfinals and ranked eighth in the country in the final season poll.

KEKE MISIPEAKA - RUNNING BACKS
SE MISSOURI STATE, '96
FIRST SEASON AT DSU

Prior to joining the Hornets, Misipeaka was a member of the Garden City Community College (Kan.) football staff as Running Backs Coach and International Recruiting Coordinator. In 2017, Garden City posted an 8-4 overall record and 5-2 mark in the Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference. The Broncbusters also competed in the Heart of Texas Bowl last season. Garden City running back Charles West was a 2017 all-conference selection. Before his tenure at Garden

City, Misipeaka joined the coaching staff at Silverado High School in Las Vegas Nev., under former National Football League quarterback Randall Cunningham in 2015.

HORNETS LOOK TO PROVE DOUBTERS WRONG IN 2018 MEAC RACE

The Delaware State football team should have plenty of motivation for the 2018 season. Voters in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference poll give the Hornets little or no chance to win the league championship. DSU has been picked to finish 10th in the 10-team MEAC race, according to the poll of league head coaches and sports information directors. Defending MEAC champ North Carolina A&T is the voters' choice to repeat this season. The Aggies were 12-0 in 2017 (8-0 MEAC), and capped off the season with a 21-14 victory over Grambling State in the Celebration Bowl to capture their second HBCU National Championship in the last three years. NCA&T garnered 19 of 20 first place votes in the 2018 MEAC poll. Howard (7-4; 6-2) has been

MEAC CHAMPION TO COMPETE IN CELEBRATION BOWL

The quest for the 2018 MEAC championship will again have an added incentive for Delaware State and its fellow conference members.

This year's MEAC champion will also have the honor of representing the conference against the champ of the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) in the Fourth Annual Celebration Bowl Atlanta, Ga..

The MEAC holds a 2-1 lead in the Celebration Bowl after North Carolina A&T defeated Grambling State in the 2017 contest.

NCA&T also claimed the first Celebration Bowl championship with its victory over Alcorn State 2015.

Grambling State defeated North Carolina Central in 2016 for the SWAC's lone victory in the post-season bowl.

ESPN Events, a subsidiary of ESPN, has announced that the fourth Celebration Bowl will again be televised live on ABC.

The 2018 postseason college football bowl game will kick off at noon ET on Saturday, Dec. 15, at Mercedes Benz Stadium in Atlanta.

The Celebration Bowl, which showcases the legacy, values and traditions of Historically Black Colleges and Universities, will pit the conference champions from the MEAC and SWAC.

"We are excited to again collaborate with ESPN to launch the Celebration Bowl and continue our longstanding tradition of delivering an annual HBCU college football showdown to fans in Atlanta," said John Grant, Chief Executive Officer, 100 Black Men of Atlanta, Inc. "Having the game televised on ABC will showcase the best in HBCU football on a national stage."

FORMER HORNETS MAKING THEIR MARK IN THE PROS AND BEYOND

RODNEY GUNTER LONE HORNET ACTIVE IN NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Former Hornet defensive lineman Rodney Gunter ('14) is making an impact in professional football. Gunter was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the fourth round (116h overall pick) of the 2015 National Football League draft, making him the third highest NFL selection in Hornet football history. He was also the first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference player chosen in the 2015 NFL draft. Gunter has 51 tackles (34 solo), including 3.5 sacks, in three seasons the Cards (2015 - 2017).

Gunter was a four-year starter for the Hornets from 2011 to 2014, competing in each of the Hornets' 45 games during the span. He was an All-MEAC First Team selection in 2013; and second team pick in 2012 and 2014.

DSU REMEMBERS FORMER HORNET, 9/11 HERO KEITH GLASCOE

Delaware State football also honors the memory of former Hornet defensive lineman Keith Glascoe ('85), who died in the Sep. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks at the World Trade Center while serving as a New York City firefighter.

Glascoe played with the Hornets in the early 1980s. He was given a try out by the NFL's New York Jets following his college career.

JOHN TAYLOR TOPS LIST OF FORMER HORNET PROS

Rodney Gunter may one day be recognized as the former Hornet with the greatest professional football career, but right now that distinction belongs to John Taylor, who played nine seasons with the great San Francisco 49er teams of the late 1980s to mid-90s. Taylor is most famous for catching the winning touchdown on a 10-yard pass from Joe Montana with 34 seconds left in the 49ers' 20-16 win over the Cincinnati Bengals in Super Bowl XXIII in Miami, Fla. It was his first of three Super Bowls championships with the Niners. Taylor was also a two-time NFL All-Pro selection, competed in two Pro Bowls and was named as to the NFL's 1980s All-Decade Team as the second team punt returner. In a Monday night game against the Rams, Taylor scored touchdowns on two receptions of over 90 yards (92 and 96), an NFL first. He recorded 347 receptions for 5,589 yards (16.1 ypr) and 43 touchdowns in his NFL career.

OTHER FORMER HORNETS RAISE DSU PROFILE

Two other former DSU football standouts are making news these days. Regular cable news watchers likely know the name Matthew Horace, an offensive lineman for the Hornets from 1980 to '83. In 1983, he helped lead the team to a 7-3-1 record, its first winning season in six years. Horace is currently an internationally recognized law enforcement, homeland security and leadership expert. He is Senior Vice President and Chief Security Officer for FJC Security Services, a national security firm based in metropolitan New York City. A twenty-eight year veteran of federal, state and local law enforcement, he ascended to the Senior Executive Service (SES) rank in the United States Department of Justice where he managed local, regional, national, and international investigations. He is frequently featured in live broadcast news segments related to Homeland Security, Federal investigations and general law enforcement matters on CNN, Headline News, MSNBC, FOX and local affiliates throughout the United States and abroad.

Television and movie watchers may recognize former Hornet Aaron Spears (right), now a Hollywood actor. Spears was a running back for the Hornets during the 1992 and '93 seasons. In 1993, he was one of three Hornets to rush for 100 yards (133) in a 65-42 win over Morgan State. Today, Spears plays the character Mark Bradley in the BET series Being Mary Jane starring Gabrielle Union. He received a NAACP Image Award for his role as Justin Barber in the daytime soap Bold and the Beautiful. His television credits also include guest roles in Criminal Minds, Bones and Everybody Loves Raymond.
