Retired Jersey Numbers

16 Robert Farris

ECU jersey number 16 was last worn by Robert Farris, a kicker from Falls Church, Va. Farris was killed in an automobile accident while returning to campus for fall practice prior to his senior season in 1967.

18 Norman Swindell

Jersey number 18 was last worn by Norman Swindell, a blocking back from New Bern, N.C. The most valuable player on the 1965 team, Swindell drowned near his home during the Christmas holidays following the 1965 season.

29 James Speight

Jersey number 29 was worn by James Speight, a running back from Greenville, N.C. The MVP of the 1957 and 1959 squads, Speight once held the school record for most points in a game with 26 and accounted for over 2,700 career rushing yards.

36 Roger Thrift

Jersey number 36 was worn by Roger Thrift, a record-setting quarterback from New Bern, N.C., that starred during the 1949 and 1950 seasons. He earned all-conference, all-state, and honorable mention Little All-America honors.

Lions Bowl

December 13, 1952

Salisbury, N.C.

Clarion 13, East Carolina 6

After a successful season of six wins, two defeats, and two ties, the Pirates were invited to play in the Lions Bowl game at Salisbury, N.C. Their opponent was Clarion State Teachers College of Clarion, Pa.

Sandy Siler scored the first touchdown of his college career and the score was tied 6-6 at halftime.

Clarion State took the second-half kickoff and marched downfield to get the only other score of the game as the Pirates were defeated 13-6.

The Pirates finished second in the North State Conference standings in 1952 with a 4-1-1 conference record. East Carolina placed three players on the all-conference team—Dwight Shoe, Willie Holland, and Dick Cherry. Pirate coach Jack Boone was named the league's coach of the year.

Elks Bowl

January 2, 1954

Greenville, N.C.

Morris-Harvey 12, East Carolina 0

The 1953 Pirate football team put together one of the most successful seasons in school history up to that point, but ended the campaign on a bitter note with a 12-0 loss to Morris-Harvey in the 1954 Elks Bowl.

East Carolina College won the North State Conference championship in 1953 with a perfect 6-0 conference record, but its lone regular-season loss to Tampa cost the Pirates a bid to the Tangerine Bowl in Florida.

Quarterback Dick Cherry and end Bobby Hodges received honorable mention Little All-America by the Associated Press, and Cherry, Hodges, and Paul Gay were named to the Greensboro Daily News all-state team.

The loss to Morris-Harvey left the Pirates with a final record of 8-2.

December 14, 1963

Allentown, Pa.

East Carolina 27, Northeastern 6

Despite intense cold and a frozen field, East Carolina proved victorious over Northeastern University, 27-6, in the 1963 Eastern Bowl.

Tom Michel scored the first Pirate touchdown on a 15-yard run in the first period.

Two field goals by Northeastern tied the game at 6-6, but from then on, the game belonged to the Pirates.

In the second half, Michel took a lateral and ran 82 yards for the go-ahead score.

In less than three minutes, Larry Rudisill scored on an 81-yard pass play from Bill Cline.

A 17-yard pass from Buddy Bovender to Maurice Allen gave the Pirates their final touchdown of the day.

Michel was voted as the game's best back and Frankie Galloway was voted as the most valuable player of the game.

Tangerine Bowl

December 12, 1964

Orlando, Fla.

East Carolina 14, Massachusetts 13

East Carolina College and the University of Massachusetts were invited to play in the 1964 Tangerine Bowl, billed annually as the NCAA Atlantic Coast Small College Championship.

The Redmen of Massachusetts scored in the second quarter for a 7-0 halftime lead. They scored again in the third on a 61-yard pass play and it appeared that the Pirates were in for a long trip back to North Carolina. When the kick for the extra point was wide and the Redmen held a 13-0 lead, few realized how costly the missed extra point would be.

After the kickoff and an exchange of punts, the Pirates drove to the 3-yard line with George Richardson going in for the touchdown from there. The Pirates decided to try for a two-point conversion and the referee ruled that Dave Bumgarner had trapped Bill Cline's pass and the score remained 13-6.

In the fourth period, the Pirates climaxed a 90-yard drive with Cline going around end for nine yards and the touchdown. Trailing 13-12, the Pirates again elected to go for the two-point conversion. This time, Cline's pass to Pete Crane was successful and the Pirates won, 14-13. Cline was named the outstanding player of the game.

Tangerine Bowl

December 11, 1965

Orlando, Fla.

East Carolina 31, Maine 0

The Pirates successfully defended their Tangerine Bowl title by defeating the University of Maine, 31-0.

Dave Alexander, a Little All-America and All-Southern Conference pick, ended his collegiate career by scoring two touchdowns, gaining 206 yards in total offense, and winning the trophy for the best offensive player of the game.

The first score of the game was a 24-yard field goal by Pete Kriz and the first touchdown was a 35-yard pass from George Richardson to Jim Abernathy. The Pirates led 10-0 at halftime.

After the second-half kickoff, the Pirates drove 67 yards with Alexander going over from the 1-yard line.

Just minutes later, Todd Hicks intercepted a Maine pass to set up another touchdown. This time, it was a five-yard scoring pass from Alexander to Churchill Grimes.

For the final touchdown of the day and of his collegiate career, Alexander broke through the right side of the line and ran 55 yards to score.

It was the third consecutive bowl victory in as many years for the Pirates and the second straight Eastern Regional NCAA championship. It was also the third straight season that Coach Clarence Stasavich's Pirates had finished 9-1.

Independence Bowl

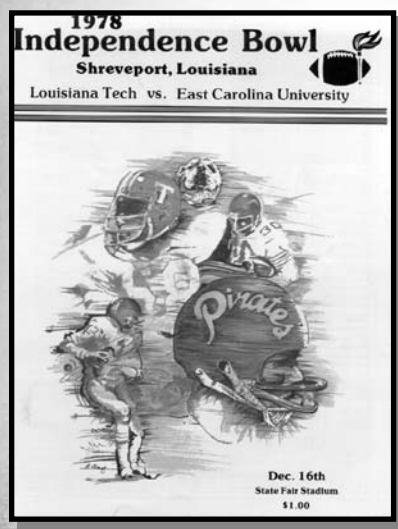

December 16, 1978

Shreveport, La.

Attendance: 18,200

East Carolina 35, Louisiana Tech 13

By Jim Kyle, Daily Reflector

SHREVEPORT, La. — East Carolina's football team made the most of its first postseason opportunity in 15 years by crushing Louisiana Tech, 35-13, in the third annual Independence Bowl.

It was the Pirates' first bowl appearance since they defeated Maine, 31-0, in the Tangerine Bowl in 1965. After the game, ECU coach Pat Dye expressed hope of bigger and better bowls in the Bucs' future. The victory wasn't the only honor ECU garnered in the game. Fullback Theodore Sutton set an Independence Bowl record with 143 yards on 17 carries and was named the game's outstanding offensive player by the press. End

Zack Valentine, who led the ECU defense with seven tackles, received the award as the top defensive player.

"That's the way to have fun playing the game," Dye told his team in the locker room. "We may not have been the most polished team in the world, but we really got after them."

The Pirates certainly did that. More than one Bulldog had to be helped from the field after a bone-crushing hit, and quarterback Keith Thibodeaux, who directed all three Tech scoring drives, had to be taken to the hospital after ECU linebacker Jeffrey Warren buried his helmet in the quarterback's chin.

The East Carolina defense completely shut down the Bulldog rushing attack, limiting the Southland Conference champions to just 12 yards on the ground. The host Bulldogs were more successful through the air, passing a record 52 times for 263 yards.

"We knew Tech was going to throw the football against us," Dye said, "and they got a lot of yards. They really had enough yards to score more points than they did. But our defense played well, especially inside the 20, and we came up with the big play when we needed it."

Dye also has praise for his offensive unit. "I'm particularly proud of the offensive line. The offensive line has made tremendous progress and [quarterback Leander] Green is executing our offense as well as it can be executed."

Sutton, who had the best day of his career, gave credit to the Pirate defense. "Our defense kept us in good field position all game," the Kinston junior said. It was his 45-yard TD scamper in the third quarter that ended a Tech comeback bid by putting ECU up, 28-13.

Sutton said the bowl trip "means a great deal to us. We finally got a chance to prove to people that we can play football."

His record-breaking performance was a result of taking what the Bulldog defense would allow. "In our offense, one person might get a lot of yardage in a certain game. Tonight, the inside veer was really open and I just took advantage of it," Sutton explained.

It was an afternoon of frustration for Louisiana Tech as the Bulldogs left the football on the ground almost as many times as they put it in the air. Three Tech turnovers in the first half led to Pirate touchdowns and a 21-0 ECU lead early in the second quarter. The Bulldogs turned the ball over seven times in the game, six times before halftime.

The lopsided outcome of the game, despite only a 332-275 Pirate advantage in total yardage, was the result of the Bucs being able to capitalize on Bulldog mistakes, while Tech was unable to take advantage of all of its opportunities. A goalline stand inside the ECU 5 late in the third quarter closed the door on the Bulldog hopes.

Neither team was able to generate any offense early in the game; there wasn't even a first down in the first five possessions. But the Pirates finally got away on their first scoring drive after defensive end Cliff Williams recovered a fumbled pitch at the Tech 16.

Sutton broke loose for 13 yards on first down to put the ball at the 3 and, two plays later, Anthony Collins took a pitch over the right side for the score. Bill Lamm, who kicked PATs after all five ECU TDs, made it 7-0. The Pirates set a number of records in the young bowl, including fewest yards allowed on the ground (12), most touchdowns (five), most points scored (35), most rushing first downs (15), most fumble recoveries (four), and most interceptions (three).

Peach Bowl

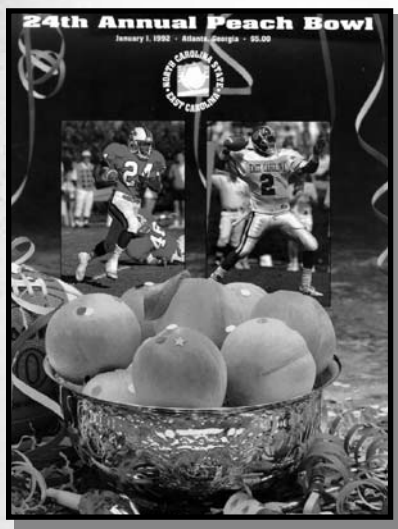

January 2, 1992

Atlanta, Ga.

Attendance: 59,332

East Carolina 37, N.C. State 34

By Mike Grizzard, Daily Reflector

ATLANTA, Ga. — The perfect script now has the perfect ending. And a team that always believed it could did something truly unbelievable. It was done with thrills and chills, suspense to the very end. But what did you expect?

Down 34-17 with 8:41 to go and its never-say-die fans chanting "We believe," East Carolina mustered an incredible rally to overcome North Carolina State, 37-34, in the 24th Annual Peach Bowl. The fitting end to a storybook season leaves the Pirates 11-1.

"When we were behind 17 points you couldn't help but hear the people dressed in purple chanting that they believe," ECU head coach Bill Lewis said. "I think we've added a special meaning to 'I believe' or 'We believe' or however you want to say it because I think that we truly captured the spirit of that."

The frenzied bowl-record crowd of 59,322 and the final Peach Bowl to be played in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium nearly settled for a tie, but Damon Hartman's 49-yard field goal attempt as time expired was short and wide right. College football's Cinderella had beaten the clock again.

"We've been called a Cinderella story all year," ECU center Keith Arnold said. "Cinderella went to a ball tonight and got married. She's queen now. The feeling's unbelievable ... now I guess we know who's best in North Carolina."

East Carolina, with its second straight win in a series that was discontinued in 1987, can make that claim. But for three-plus quarters, the Wolfpack was better. Muscle and speed in the running game enabled the Pack to do what it wanted coming in—keep the ball out of the hands of Pirate quarterback Jeff Blake and put a lot of points on the board.

Anthony Barbour was a danger on the corners and finished with 90 yards on 23 carries. Greg Manior and Gary Downs banged inside and combined for 117 more yards. The Pack ran the ball 56 times for 186 yards. But when the time was an ally and first downs were critical, ECU's defense got tough and State wilted.

State's collapse down the stretch included a shanked punt that gave the Pirates a shot in the arm. The Wolfpack also could find no solution to a red-hot Blake, who completed 31 of 51 passes for 378 yards, threw four touchdowns, and was intercepted three times.

Blake was particularly uncanny in the fourth quarter, hitting on 17 of 26 passes, 15 of 21 for 148 yards on the final three scoring drives in which the Pirates unveiled a shotgun formation.

Tight end Luke Fisher was unstoppable, catching a bowl-record 12 passes for 144 yards. Fisher had six catches for 63 yards in the fourth period, including the game-winner with 1:32 left.

The Wolfpack fumbled with just over a minute to go then lost to Maryland on a last-second field goal two years ago. The Cavs routed State, 42-10, this season.

The Wolfpack appeared to have the Pirates primed for the kill after Shad

Santee recovered Dion Johnson's fumble of a punt and Ledel George hit Charles Davenport with a 52-yard TD pass two plays later to make it 34-17. Mike Reid picked off a Blake pass at the Wolfpack 5 on the next series, but ECU got the ball back at State's 32 after Kilpatrick's 10-yard muffed punt with 8:41 to go.

Then Blake took over. From the 32, the Pirates needed seven plays and just 1:15 to get in the end zone. Blake got the score, slipping in from the 2 on a third-down option to the left.

Kilpatrick got off a 50-yard punt into the end zone after the Wolfpack failed to pick up a first down on the next series. Blake promptly marched ECU 80 yards in 11 plays, hitting eight of 10 passes and burning just 2:06 to get within 34-30. Blake hit Johnson with a 17-yard pass for the score at the 4:18 mark. The Pirates opted to go for a two-point conversion, but Tyler Lawrence pressured Blake and forced a fumble.

By A.J. Carr, News & Observer

MEMPHIS, Tenn. —

Somebody dubbed them "Thrillinois" because of the excitement they create on the football field.

That name fit perfectly because Illinois provided all the thrills and chills with a 30-0 domination of East Carolina in the St. Jude Liberty Bowl.

Quarterback Johnny Johnson had said his team would be ready, and he wasn't kidding. He threw for 250 yards and four touchdowns to stroll away with the MVP trophy.

And the Fighting Illini's heralded defense lived up to its No. 9 ranking, creating five turnovers that translated into 24 points. It was a flat-out skunking, a rarity for ECU's proud and explosive offense.

"I'm very stunned," said leading receiver Jason Nichols, one of many Pirates walking around in a postgame daze.

"I thought we would score," said linebacker Mark Libiano. "But it was a total team loss. They came out on fire."

Illinois coach Lou Tepper said he was also shocked his team could hold ECU scoreless. And Pirates' boss Steve Logan was apologetic to about 12,000 fans who had traveled so far only to see so little.

"We missed on some early opportunities to make it competitive," Logan said. "It's the only game we haven't been competitive in. But all the mistakes we made were due to the pressure they put on us. That team played great."

The Pirates (7-5) had come seeking more prestige, a final top 25 ranking and extra glitz to take into next season. They got none of that.

Instead, the Bucs just got a load of big, strong, bully boy Illinois, which took a 24-0 lead and virtually all the suspense out of the game by intermission.

When Johnson wasn't directing the offense, the Dana Howard/Simeon Rice-propelled defense was creating havoc.

It forced Marcus Crandell into an uncharacteristic four interceptions. And, it jumped all over Junior Smith, holding ECU's career rushing leader to 46 yards on 15 carries.

Before the game, some people wondered if this Illini team could get excited about playing in the Liberty Bowl.

The tone was set early.

The Big Ten team recovered an ECU fumble at the Illini 32 and struck for a quick six. Johnson hit Ken Dilger, who made a snazzy catch, on a 17-yard TD across the middle.

Then, with 10 seconds left in the first quarter, Jasper Strong turned a Johnson pass into a 73-yard score with the help of two downfield blocks by Dilger and Jim Klein. Logan saw that as a back-breaker.

But perhaps the play that dashed the Pirates' hopes more than any other came early in the second quarter.

Down 14-0, Crandell lofted a pass to Allen Williams running a fade route in the end zone. Williams and Robert Crumpton went up for the ball—and Crumpton came down with it, wresting it away from the Pirate receiver.

"We just didn't get anything going after that," said Crandell, who completed 20 of 41 passes for 179 yards. "It was a tough day. They got us out of our game."

Howard, the Butkus Award-winning linebacker, intended to make it just that way for ECU, saying the Illini's goal was a shutout.

And, on offense, Johnson kept the Pirates off balance mixing the run and pass.

By the day's end, Johnson also had hit Jason Dulick and Ty Douthard on short scoring passes.

"We're not just a defensive team, we're a quality team," Tepper said. "We had a sharp day."

The Illini (7-5) did.

Attendance: 47,398

East Carolina 19, Stanford 13

By Mike Grizzard, Daily Reflector

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Consider the business finished. East Carolina returned to the Liberty Bowl. And this time it won.

A 19-13 victory over Stanford on a Saturday that started cool and sunny and quickly turned cold and wet culminated the Pirates' quest for vindication from last year's debacle against Illinois. That game ended 30-0, but also started a mission to take care of "Unfinished Business."

And though it will not go down as one of the more picturesque wins in ECU history, it was quite satisfying for the many purple-clad fans in the crowd of around 30,000 (47,398 tickets were sold) who had to grit their teeth to the exasperating end.

Despite clamping down on the high-scoring Cardinal offense all day, the Pirates could never create a comfort zone and had to make one last stand to escape. Stanford, down just six despite a day full of frustration, suddenly found itself with a chance to win in the final minute.

A 40-yard kickoff return by Damon Dunn gave Stanford life. Quarterback Mark Butterfield then completed two passes and scrambled three yards to move the ball to the 26.

Stanford burned its last timeout after a six-yard pass to Mark Harris. Twenty seconds remained.

Could the Cardinal, left for dead, possibly pull this out? Not quite.

Butterfield's pass on third and one was incomplete, then his fourth-down pass to Brian Manning on a slant pattern was dropped.

ECU limited Stanford to a season-low 211 yards, including just 72 on the ground. The Pirates also forced four turnovers—two interceptions and two fumbles—and converted those into 10 points.

"We knew we had a good defense and we just wanted to prove it today," said Daren Hart, who had a 39-yard interception return for a score and 10 tackles and was named the Pirates' defensive player of the game.

These Pirates looked like imposters, too. They won not by Marcus Crandell's arm or Jerris McPhail's legs but with defense and field goals.

Yes, field goals.

Junior Chad Holcomb, named ECU's offensive MVP, set Liberty Bowl and personal single-game records with four field goals. He had three in the second period, including a career-best 46 yarder to help the Pirates to a 16-7 lead. He then added a 34-yarder with 1:50 left.

But no offensive touchdowns. None.

"It's been a long, long time since that's happened," ECU head coach Steve Logan said of winning without an offensive touchdown. "That's a first in the seven years I've been at East Carolina."

Crandell completed just 19 of 46 passes for 218 yards. He was intercepted once and sacked twice. McPhail rushed for 92 yards on 27 carries.

The Cardinal cracked ECU's defense only once, driving 69 yards in 13 plays to get within 10-7. Butterfield kept the drive alive by zipping a 31-yard pass to Manning on third and 23, moving the ball to the ECU 7.

Adam Salina scored the touchdown on a one-yard run.

ECU resorted to a bit of trickery on its next possession, getting a 23-yard run from Morris Foreman on a fake punt. The Pirates reached the 7 but had to settle for a 26-yard Holcomb field goal.

Holcomb added a 41-yarder with three seconds left in the half as ECU cashed in on a fumble recovery by Travis Darden.

Kwame Ellis had Stanford back in it in a flash. First, he scooped up a blocked punt by Nicodemous Watts and ran two yards for a score to make it 16-13. The PAT kick sailed wide.

Two plays later, Ellis picked off a Crandell pass intended for Troy Smith at the Stanford 49. The Cardinal reached the ECU 39 but had to punt.

Mobile Alabama Bowl

December 22, 1999

Mobile, Ala.

Attendance: 34,200

TCU 28, East Carolina 14

By Alan Wooten, Daily Reflector

MOBILE, Ala. — East Carolina's dramatic change on defense this season involved changing into an attack mode highlighting speed and quickness.

But as head coach Steve Logan had forewarned, the opponent in the inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl was loaded with East Texas speed. And TCU eventually won the race, getting a 32-yard interception return for a touchdown by Russell Gary early in the fourth quarter that helped hand the Pirates a 28-14 loss in front of 34,200 in Ladd-Peebles Stadium.

East Carolina (9-3), bidding for only the second 10-win season in school history, was held to a season-low minus-16 yards rushing.

"They were a decent front," Pirates senior center Sherwin Lacewell said. "They were real good. I don't know what happened to us."

Meanwhile, national rushing leader LaDainian Tomlinson ran 36 times, mostly on lead option plays, and gained 124 yards with a pair of touchdowns. Nothing about that was unexpected, and the Pirates' plan was basically to get away with using nine players close to the interior line as much as possible.

"It was just enough," senior cornerback Forrest Foster said of TCU's option attack. "It was kind of like Southern Miss did—they didn't kill us, but they just kept coming and coming."

Pass plays by game most valuable player and true freshman Casey Printers—both completed and not completed—loosened the Pirates just enough to keep the option working. TCU (8-4) went into the Pirates' territory on each of their first four drives and only came away with a 7-7 deadlock, but put together scoring drives of 58 and 61 yards in the final 11 1/2 minutes of the first half to pull ahead 21-7 at intermission.

"When you get behind two touchdowns, there's not going to be a lot of chances to having a running game, either," ECU offensive coordinator Doug Martin said.

The Pirates pulled within 21-14 in the second half, but Gary's interception return with 14:04 to go regained a two-touchdown lead and set the stage for Tomlinson to make time-killing runs. He ran 13 times for 58 yards in the fourth quarter.

"They didn't have any surprises, really, maybe a couple of plays where we were not sure we had seen something before," said ECU defensive coordinator Tim Rose. "They were a good running team. We saw a lot of play-action passes and they ran the option."

The Horned Frogs got 174 yards passing from Printers, with four of the catches going for 29 yards to Tomlinson on screen plays. East Carolina senior Jeff Kerr finished his final game as a Pirate with 12 of his 13 tackles solos, and five for losses. Redshirt freshman Anthony Adams added 10 tackles.

East Carolina sophomore quarterback David Garrard threw 35 times, completing 19 for 191 yards and a touchdown. He was sacked three times. His 58-yard catch-and-run pass play to sophomore Arnie Powell gave the Pirates a 7-0 lead with less than two minutes gone.

"They got a lot of pressure with their front four," said junior tight end Rashon Burns. "We never got started. We did have a couple of explosion plays, but we never revved up."

Tomlinson only gained 20 yards on nine carries in the first half, consistently met by a swarm of Pirates. The Horned Frogs started drives at their 35 and ECU's 45, 45, and 37, but were denied by Foster's interception and Devone Claybrooks' block of a field goal around a punt.

Two plays ignited the Frogs and loosened the Pirates' defense in the second quarter. The first came on second-and-9 from the TCU 44 with just over 10 minutes left in the half, with Printers completing a 23-yard pass to Tim Maiden.

The second was a touchdown strike from Printers to Mike Scarborough, going away to the backside of the secondary to haul in a 21-yarder in the end zone for a 14-7 lead.

The Pirates managed just their third first down on the next series. But eventually Andrew Bayes punted 33 yards and the Frogs moved 61 yards efficiently on the strength of Patrick Batteaux's 35-yard option keeper to the ECU 19 on third-and-three followed by four Tomlinson runs, the last of three yards for a 21-7 cushion.

Attendance: 33,899

East Carolina 40, Texas Tech 27

By Alan Wooten, The Daily Reflector

HOUSTON, Texas —

Senior return specialist Keith Stokes had the lightening-quick ignitions, including a 71-yard punt return for a touchdown.

Junior quarterback David Garrard, with two touchdowns, and the defense of coordinator Tim Rose, with two interceptions by Kinston sophomore Kelly Hardy and five sacks, had the sustaining backbone.

Combined, Texas Tech of the mighty Big 12 Conference didn't have much of a chance after halftime against East Carolina.

The Conference USA runner-up Pirates raced ahead by 34 points and held off a second-half rally Wednesday night, defeating the Red Raiders 40-27 in front of 33,899 at the inaugural galleryfurniture.com Bowl in the Astrodome.

"I knew they tried to angle the kicks, and my men back there, they made good blocks," Stokes said. "I catch the ball and follow my blockers, and next thing you know I'm in the end zone. That was the spark we needed."

The Pirates (8-4), who had never played the Red Raiders (7-6) previously, led 34-7 after a first half in which they out-gained Tech 304-116 in total yards. In addition to Stokes' fireworks, Garrard ran 6 yards for a score and threw a touchdown pass of 44 yards to junior Derek Collier; and junior Leonard Henry ran for two scores of 1 yard each.

"It was a good victory," Henry said. "We came into this game knowing that we had to make a statement for losing a bowl game last year. It seems like it's been a total distraction with everything going on outside. But I felt like we as a team came together when times were rough and what we did was sent out and did what we had to do, which is win ball games."

Kevin Miller kicked third-quarter field goals of 36 and 35 yards as the Pirates carried a 40-14 lead into the fourth quarter, a period in which they outscored opponents 94-57 during the regular season.

Texas Tech, which didn't beat a team with a winning record all season, got as close as the final margin with the final two of Kliff Kingsbury's four touchdown passes. Kingsbury threw 17 yards to Cole Roberts and 3 yards to Derek Dorris, the latter with 6:44 to go.

"The moment that game was over last year, it was very bitter for the kids," ECU head coach Steve Logan said of a 28-14 loss to Texas Christian in the Mobile Alabama Bowl. "They were on a mission to come and win a bowl game. We did have great focus."

Stokes was a one-man wrecking crew in the first half, even though the Red Raiders were more than aware of his exploits. Eventually, Texas Tech head coach Mike Leach instructed punter Clinton Greathouse not to kick it to him.

Stokes finished with an ECU bowl-record 187 yards in total kick returns. He also had 33 yards rushing and 46 yards passing, finishing with 266 all-purpose yards.

Garrard had 262 total yards, throwing for 229 yards (17-of-27, two interceptions) and rushing for 33.

In the post-game celebration, Garrard was awarded the game's MVP and offensive player awards, Stokes got the special teams award and junior Bernard Williams the defensive player award.

Williams made three of his five tackles for losses totaling 30 yards, including two sacks. Junior Pernell Griffin led the team with seven tackles, junior linebacker Greg LeFever added a sack and senior Devone Claybrooks, senior Mbayo Ahmadu, sophomore Damane Duckett and redshirt freshman Kent Nealy each were credited with one-half sack.

The Pirates silenced the heralded passing game of Kingsbury and the Red Raiders in the opening 30 minutes, sacking him three times and limiting him to 99 yards on 14-of-22 accuracy.

Stokes' 37-yard kickoff return gave ECU a jolt of momentum from the opening kick. Garrard capped a 10-play march with a 6-yard run. Stokes added his 71-yard punt return with 7:51 to go for a 13-0 cushion.

Henry scored his two touchdowns sandwiching a 44-yard TD bomb from Garrard to Derek Collier as the lead escalated to 34-0.

"This is one that I wanted to get, winning a bowl," Garrard said. "This is a big step going into next season and spring ball. The guys are going to be excited all the way into next season."

Marshall 64, East Carolina 61 (2OT)

By Jim Gentry, The Daily Reflector

MOBILE, Ala. — East Carolina's habit of playing close games came back to bite the Pirates at the 2001 GMAC Bowl, as Marshall battled back from a 30-point deficit to score a 64-61 victory in the second overtime.

It was the highest scoring bowl game in college football history.

Marshall quarterback Byron Leftwich connected to Josh Davis on an 8-yard strike to seal the victory and send Marshall players pouring onto the field in celebration.

Both teams scored in the first overtime on running plays. After Franklin Wallace ran into the end zone for the Thundering Herd, ECU's Leonard Henry bolted 25 yards into the end zone on the Pirates' first play of overtime.

The Pirates had to settle for a 37-yard field goal in the second overtime before Marshall claimed the win on Davis' catch in the end zone.

That catch capped off a wild comeback by the Thundering Herd.

East Carolina appeared to have a comfortable 38-8 lead at halftime.

But the Thundering Herd galloped back into the game by scoring a pair of touchdowns in the first three minutes of the third quarter.

On just the second play from scrimmage in the second half, Ralph Street picked off a pass by ECU quarterback David Garrard and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown.

After a four-and-out by the Pirates, Marshall's Leftwich threw a 48-yard pass to Darius Watts. Leftwich ran in from nine yards out on the next play to cut the lead to 38-21 with 12:23 left in the third.

Kicker Kevin Miller tallied the Pirates' first points of the second half with a 32-yard field goal.

But ECU's next drive was cut short when Terence Tarpley picked off Garrard's swing pass intended for Richard Alston and waltzed 25 yards for a touchdown.

The Thundering Herd took advantage of another ECU turnover on the next drive when Alston bobbled a lateral from Garrard, and Larry Davis snatched the ball out of the air.

Seven plays later, Wallace cruised 15 yards up the middle to pull Marshall to within 41-36 with a minute left in the third quarter.

The Pirates appeared to put the ball in the end zone on their next drive when Garrard fought his way into the end zone from nine yards out. But a holding penalty called the touchdown back, forcing the Pirates to settle for Miller's 32-yard field goal.

Leftwich responded with a 30-yard touchdown strike to Denaro Marriott to cut the margin to 44-42, but the attempt for the two-point conversion failed.

ECU's Leonard Henry appeared to seal the victory when he rambled 55 yards for a touchdown with five minutes left to play.

However, the Herd got a 27-yard field goal from Curtis Head before Leftwich found Watts in the corner of the end zone with seven seconds left in regulation to tie the game at 51-51.

Head had a chance to win the game at that point, but his extra point kick sailed wide left, forcing overtime.

Papajohns.com Bowl

December 23, 2006

Birmingham, Ala.

Attendance: 32,023

South Florida 24, East Carolina 7

By Nathan Summers, The Daily Reflector

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. —

An attractive season for the East Carolina Pirates came to an ugly end at the Papajohns.com Bowl Saturday.

The Pirates fumbled the ball away on the second play of the game to set the standard for the rest of the day in a 24-7 loss to South Florida at Legion Field.

For the first time all season, the Pirates (7-6) allowed a team to wound them with a comfortable lead early. The Bulls (9-4) took the same 17-point lead with 6:31 left in the second quarter which stood as the final score. A botched exchange between quarterback James Pinkney and running back Brandon Fractious on the Pirates' first possession sent the football to the turf and off Fractious' foot.

The ball was covered by USF's Ben Moffitt, setting up a one-play touchdown drive — Benjamin Williams' 16-yard run — to make it 7-0 Bulls less than two minutes in.

"We really struggled early in the game. We kind of settled down in the second half from an offensive standpoint, but it was too little too late," said second-year coach Skip Holtz. "We didn't make the most of our red zone chances. We were down there three times and never got a point out of it. When you look at that, it's hard to be successful."

There was never any reply from East Carolina after Bobby Good's 48-yard touchdown reception late in the first quarter that pulled the Pirates within a touchdown at 14-7.

USF continued to roll from there, even after starting quarterback Matt Grothe (81 pass yards, touchdown) was felled by a lower leg injury and came out from the halftime intermission wearing a cast on the sideline.

Pinkney didn't need a cast, but he was dizzy time and again by the Bulls' stampeding pass rush. After he was sent to the sideline for smelling salts late in the first half, he took a full-blast shot to the chops from Louis Gachette soon after.

Pinkney finished his final game on the sideline with a possible concussion, but still managed 125 yards passing.

"I hate that the season ended this way because there are so many positive things we can build on as a program," Holtz said.

Before Grothe made his exit, however, he upped the USF edge to 21-7 when he zipped a 37-yard touchdown pass to Amarri Jackson early in the second quarter.

The Bulls and Williams had cashed in their second touchdown, a 1-yard run, following an earlier nine-play, 56-yard drive.

With the lead, the Bulls' confidence steadily surged. They dared to extend drives on fourth down five times and succeeded on all five of them. On the other side, the Bulls were ferocious in piling up six sacks and limiting the Pirates to just a single scoring play.

"They won the battle up front, especially early," said Holtz. "It was a combination of speed and the way they run to the ball. The first play of the game for our defense, they go right up the middle for 16 yards and a touchdown. Every time they ran the ball, they were getting four or five yards."

Williams led the Bull rush with 67 yards and a couple of touchdowns, followed by Grothe's replacement, Pat Julmiste, who added 53.

According to senior offensive lineman Eric Graham, USF brought one of the fastest defenses at the Pirates he saw all season, but also felt like ECU could have helped its own cause a lot more.

"If we would have executed a little bit better on our own part, we could have handled it a little bit better than what we did," said Graham, who added it was an effort on his part to keep his emotions in check while walking away from his final collegiate game.

USF tacked on some insurance in the third quarter, capping an 8-play drive with Delbert Alvarado's 38-yard field goal that widened the Bulls' lead to 24-7.

The Pirates tried to rally at the end of the third, driving to the USF 29-yard line, but Ben Hartman's 46-yard field goal attempt fell short of its mark.

Again in the fourth quarter, the Pirates seemed headed for the end zone.

After Pinkney made his way to the sideline for good following a final serious lick from the Bulls' defense, backup Rob Kass' first play from scrimmage was a completed to pass to Fractious, who rambled deep into USF territory. But one play later, Fractious fumbled the ball back to the Bulls.

Pinkney, meanwhile, was forced to call it a day, leaving the field for the dressing room with more than 11 minutes to play in the game.

Good, who was voted the Pirates' MVP for the game, was solid in his final outing, making a game-high five catches for 115 yards. The senior said being able to return for one last game after suffering a fractured bone in his foot mid-season was a blessing for him.

"It means a lot to me because this team means everything to me," said Good, one of 22 seniors who finished their ECU careers Saturday. "I've had a long road with some unfortunate injuries, and I just tried to be positive and do everything I could to get back and play at least one more game."

Dominique Lindsay was the Pirates' other bright spot, rolling up 85 rush yards on 12 carries, part of ECU's edge in total offense, 317 yards to the Bulls' 286.

Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl

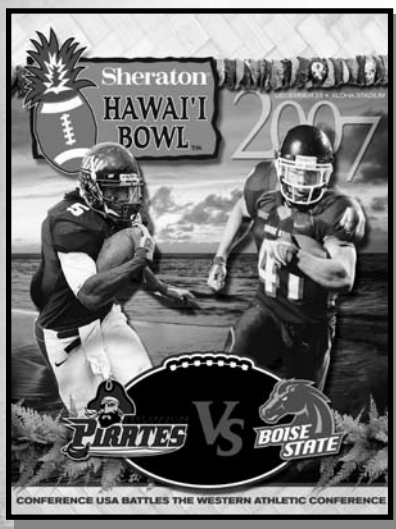

December 23, 2007

Honolulu, Hawai'i

Attendance: 30,467

East Carolina 41, Boise State 38

By Nathan Summers, The Daily Reflector

HONOLULU, Hawai'i —

An East Carolina team bent on doing something big at Sunday's Hawai'i Bowl did the unthinkable.

With four ticks left and the Pirates tied with Boise State 38-38, placekicker Ben Hartman kicked a 34-yard field goal to complete a shocking bowl victory over the No. 22 Broncos.

The Pirates (8-5) had built a seemingly insurmountable lead against the Broncos in the first half at Aloha Stadium, then tried desperately to ward off a Boise barrage in the second.

A 38-14 ECU lead disappeared in frantic fashion when ECU tailback Chris Johnson — having a dream game for most of the evening — lost a fumble with 1:25 to play with ECU clinging to a 38-31 lead.

Boise corner Orlando Scandrick forced Johnson into the rare fumble that landed in the hands of safety Marty Tadman, who meandered through traffic 47 yards for a game-tying touchdown. It marked a 24-point onslaught by Boise.

With the game deadlocked and ECU back in possession of the ball, sophomore quarterback Rob Kass — who replaced starter Patrick Pinkney late in the fourth quarter — helped drive his team into field goal range, setting up Hartman's winning kick.

The Broncos (10-3) could do no wrong during their second-half rally, evening a game that seemed over at halftime.

On the opening drive of the second half, Johnson's 16-yard gain rolled him over the 200-yard rushing mark in the game, helping the Pirates add to their 31-14 first-half lead and pour on a little more.

Patrick Pinkney followed by zipping a pass to Jamar Bryant at the 3-yard line, setting up Brandon Simmons' score that extended the lead to blowout proportion, 38-14.

But Boise refused to die, immediately countering with a scoring drive capped by senior passer Taylor Tharp's quick throw to Jeremy Avery for a 25-yard score that pulled Boise within 17 points, 38-21, and finally the Broncos were up and running.

An ECU punt put BSU back on the field and driving late in the third quarter, and Tharp began finding his receivers and driving deep into ECU terrain. The methodical drive seemed headed for the end zone, but the Broncos took a field goal when they needed a touchdown.

With the ball back again, Tharp kept finding Avery and Austin Pettis, and Boise kept trying to cut into the ECU edge. It happened with 7:09 to play, when D.J. Harper rumbled into the end zone from close range to cap the drive and make it 38-31 ECU.

The Pirates spent the entire first half dictating the finer points of football to the Broncos, crafting a 31-14 lead and leaving mistake-ridden Boise scratching its collective head at the break.

Johnson spent that time running roughshod over the Boise defense, carrying the ball 18 times for 181 yards and touchdowns both on the ground and through the air.

On the other side, Tharp and the Broncos endured a 30-minute nightmare. The senior passer saw one of his passes picked off and one of his completions turn into a fumble, both at the hands of senior ECU cornerback Travis Williams.

Boise didn't register a first down in the game until less than six minutes remained in the half, and prior to that, Austin Smith's dazzling 89-yard kick return touchdown was the only pulse Boise showed.

While BSU running back Ian Johnson was mostly a no-show with a lingering injury, ECU's Johnson was visible all over the field.

His domineering mood and Pinkney's polished look under center early in the game left Boise's defense mystified, giving rise to a surprise 10-7 Pirate lead at the end of the first quarter and 17-7 early in the second.

In the first 15 minutes alone, Johnson cashed in a bombastic 105 yards and a 68-yard touchdown, the second-longest scoring run in Hawaii Bowl history.

That dash erased an early 7-3 Broncos lead and only seemed to start up the tailback's motor.

In the second, Johnson's 46-yard gain down the right sideline set up his own 18-yard touchdown pass from Pinkney and made the shocker seem possible at 24-7.

Sandwiched around the latter touchdown were a pair of short-yardage scores from backup Dominique Lindsay and Boise's lone offensive touchdown of the half, a 3-yard pass from Tharp to tight end Ryan Putnam that briefly pulled Boise within 10 points, 24-14.

Pirates On TV

With a long history of extensive live television coverage from local, regional and national telecasts, ECU football is one of the most televised programs in the country. Since its first regional television appearance in 1972, ECU has posted a 72-75 record while playing in front of a

TV audience, including a 26-30 mark on national television and a 14-21 clip on ESPN/ESPN2. Dating back to 1991, the Pirates have appeared on national television an average of over three times per season. East Carolina has played in five or more nationally-televised games in five of the past eight years, and during Skip Holtz' tenure, have arranged over four national appearances per season - including a combined 12 in 2006 and 2007. Over the past 10 seasons, 74 percent (88 of 119) of ECU's games have been live on a local, regional or national television basis - including all 13 in 2007.

Pirate Traditions

Cannon

A tradition that dates back to at least 1967, the cannon in Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium's end-zone is fired at the end of the National Anthem, when the team runs onto the field, when the Pirates score and at the conclusion of all games.

Purple Haze

The classic Jimi Hendrix tune is played prior to the start of every home football game as the Pirates take to the field through a cloud of purple smoke. The team entrance was enhanced in 2007 with the addition of a pirate ship's bow that leads from the Murphy Center to the west endzone.

Mascot

The costumed Pirate mascot became associated with East Carolina in 1983. Other team mascots through the years have been a dog, "Pete," which accompanied the team in the 1970s, students dressed as parrots or pirates, and even a live wildcat, which served as the mascot in 1930-31.

First Down Pirates!

The "First Down ... Pirates" cheer was initiated by former public dress announcer Jon Moore and has continued since his retirement. The cheer follows a key ECU first down play when the announcer gives the spot of the ball and saying, "Where it is a first down ..." followed by the crowd's yell of "Pirates!"

Alma Mater

The ECU Alma Mater is "Hail to Thy Name So Fair". It first appeared in the 1940-41 ECTC Student Handbook where it was attributed to a student by the name of Harold A. McDougle ('44). McDougle later became a part-time instructor in the Music Department at ECTC (1946-47) and a music teacher at Greenville High School (1947-48).

School Colors

The school colors for East Carolina University - purple and gold - go back to the time when the first students arrived on campus in 1909. ECU historian Dr. Mary Jo Bratton, the author of "East Carolina University The Formative Years 1907-1982," said the selection of school colors represented one of the first traditions established by the students. In the early fall of 1909 the administration asked students for their suggestions on school colors. Old gold and royal purple won the vote.

In the following year, the colors carried over to the school's first baseball team, a club team that won most of its games. According to Bratton, the opening game produced a 6-2 win for East Carolina against a local Greenville team. The newspaper account of the game credited the effective cheering of the young ladies of the school for "winning the victory for the purple and gold."
