Media Guidelines

To The Media

We hope you will find this publication useful while covering the East Carolina Pirates in 2016. Every effort has been made to include timely and pertinent information.

If you cannot find the information you need in this book, please do not hesitate to call me at (252) 737-1274 or the athletics communications office at (252) 737-4522.

Additional requests by accredited media representatives such as feature materials, photographs, background clips, video and audio should be directed to our office.

We urge all media personnel to take a moment and read the guidelines which will aid you in covering ECU football.

Tom McClellan

Assistant AD/Communications

Credential Requests

Credentials for East Carolina home football games are for working media only and are issued on a priority basis. Requests for single-game credentials should be made no later than three days in advance of a game via email (with a company signature) or standard mail (on company stationery) and directed to ECU Assistant AD/Communications Tom McClellan (mcclellan@ecu.edu; 321 Ward Building, Greenville, NC 27858). For additional questions for more information, contact the Athletics Communications Office at (252) 737-1274.

Children, spouses, dates or other non-workers are not permitted in the press box. No one under the age of 17, regardless of affiliation or in possession of an apparent non-communications issued credential, will be permitted in working media area(s) on the playing field or sidelines during the game.

Requests are honored from sports editors of daily and weekly newspapers, editors of sports periodicals, and sports directors of radio and television stations who cover East Carolina or its opponent on a consistent basis. All non-originating radio personnel will not be granted sideline access during the game, but are eligible for a maximum of two credentials which will allow the staffing all post-game interview sessions, providing the outlet broadcasts regularly scheduled daily sports reports and talk shows, and has a devoted sports director position.

All passes and credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to any other person, including non-working members of a media organization.

Online entities will not be granted requests for credentials, access and/or interviews with the exception of web sites that are officially affiliated with East Carolina, its opponent, conferences, the NCAA or an accredited, established and recognized traditional national or regional media organization. Web sites which promote or house anonymous "message boards" as its sole source of content will be expressly prohibited from obtaining working credentials. Credentials may also be issued to other online entities, on a space available basis, that:

- are a legal and corporate entity;
- provides consistent regular coverage of ECU intercollegiate athletics or the visiting team with its own staff of reporters, photographers and equipment. Reporter(s) must write a substantial majority of all material posted on the site. An online entity that is an outlet primarily devoted to the recruitment of students athletes will not qualify for credentials, and/or;
- covers all football away games and all major post-season events.

The ECU Athletics Communications Office reserves the right to deny or revoke credentials for non-compliance with all guidelines included in this section, including interview and access protocol listed below; violations of University, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, NCAA, or AAC policies; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics.

In addition, the ECU Athletics Communications Office requests credentialed members of the media covering games to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects respect for their colleagues, the institutions and student-athletes they are covering. The pressbox, interview room and sidelines are working areas, and ECU expects media to adhere to a comfortable, but business casual dress code.

Real-Time Internet Policy

The East Carolina University Department of Athletics retains the rights to the distribution of play-by-play, drive-by-drive, statistical material and photographs of East Carolina football during and following game action, just as it retains the rights to the video and audio description of game action. All rights to the dissemination of audio, video and real-time material is granted on a contractual basis only. Failure to abide by these restrictions may result in revocation of press credentials.

Photographers

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and television reporters/camera operators on assignment. East Carolina University follows guidelines established by the NCAA Communications Committee, the Football Writer's Association of America and AAC regarding sideline control which ensures the sideline as a working media area.

- Each photographer is required to wear a photo vest at all times. Any other working media who are present on the sideline must also display visual identification. Photo vests must be secured via the display of a valid credential inside the photo work room, located inside Scales Fieldhouse adjacent to Gate 3 of Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium. Both the credential and photo vest must be worn on the field.
- No photographers are permitted in the bench area, on the playing field, or in the 12-foot area between the limit line and sideline after kickoff.
- Outline writers, messengers and equipment carriers are not permitted in the sideline photo vest area. Photo assistants or others holding a "sideline" pass must remain out of the photo area immediately adjacent to the playing field. This will ensure that photographers/videographers have the appropriate working area.
- The areas behind the team benches are considered "bench areas" and are to be used only for the passage between the east and west sidelines. This area may not be used as a photo zone.
- Tripods are not permitted in the sideline photo vest area. Monopods are permissible.
- Freelance and amateur photographers, not on assignment, are not eligible for sideline credentials, except by prior approval from the ECU Athletics Communications Office.

Parking

Media parking passes may also be requested through the communications office. A limited number of parking spaces will be available in the Media Lot, located at First Presbyterian Church (1400 South Elm Street off 14th Street). Complimentary game-day shuttle service from the lot to the media entrance is available beginning two hours prior to kickoff.

Will Call

Media and general will-call windows are located at the Minges Coliseum Ticket Box Office, which is on the east side of Minges Coliseum, facing Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.

Media Services

- The working media ("writers") area is located on Level B of the press box, on the south side of Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium. Access to the press box may be obtained via the south elevator.
- The working photo area is located inside Scales Fieldhouse, adjacent to Gate 3 on the southwest side of Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.
- The ECU Athletics Communications Office will provide working media and photographers with game notes, season stats, depth charts, flip cards, programs and media guides (if applicable) for both ECU and the visiting team prior to the game in both locations. Additional information, such as lineup, roster, or jersey number changes, will be distributed as the information becomes available.
- An official statistics package complete with individual and team stats, play-by-play, scoring summaries, quotes, notes, end-of-quarter stats and defensive stats will be distributed following the game. "Quickie" stats will be available at the end of each quarter.

High-Speed Connections

- The Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium Press Box and Scales Fieldhouse Photo Workroom are both equipped with high-speed cables and wireless internet access for general use by writers and photographers.
- Log-on and password information will be distributed by the ECU Athletics Communications Office prior to the game.

Post-Game Interviews

- ECU Head Coach Scottie Montgomery and requested players will be available for post-game interviews in Harvey Hall (second floor of the Murphy Center, which is located above the west endzone). Interviews with players and/or coaches may not be conducted until the NCAA-mandated 10-minute cooling off period has expired.
- With 5:00 remaining on the game clock, media are encouraged to take the south elevator to ground level in preparation for the post-game press conference.
- Access to Harvey Hall can be gained via the Maynard Entrance, located directly below the skywalk that connects the Murphy Center and Minges Coliseum. All media are encouraged to exit the stadium via Gate 4 in the southwest corner as that will serve as the quickest route to the interview area.
- The ECU locker room is closed to media.
- Pre-game interviews with players and/or coaches on the day of the game will not be permitted under any circumstances.

Practices

- All practices are conducted at the Cliff Moore Complex (located adjacent to the Ward Sports Medicine Building) with the exception of scrimmages at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.
- All practices at both locations are generally closed to the media and public. Television crews and photographers may shoot the first 30 minutes of practice on Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday only.
- The media may conduct in-person interviews with players and coaches immediately following practices on Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday (see Coach Montgomery and player access opportunities below) by making arrangements in advance with the ECU Athletics Communications Office.

Weekly Press Conference

- Coach Montgomery will conduct a weekly press conference each Monday beginning at 12 noon during the season in the team meeting room complex on the first floor of the Ward Sports Medicine Building.
- Players will be in full observance of a devoted "academic day" on campus, thus cannot be made available. Media outlets desiring player interviews early during the week are encouraged to conduct those Sunday evening at the conclusion of practice.
- A complete text transcript of the press conference will be posted on www.ECUPirates.com by 3:00 p.m. In addition, a video and audio stream of the press conference will be posted by 3:00 p.m. and available to media members via CollegePressBox.com (see below).

In-Season Access To Coach Montgomery

- Coach Montgomery is also available for brief in-person, post-practice interviews Sunday (approximately 8:00 p.m.) and on Tuesday and Wednesdays (approximately 6:00 p.m.) at the Cliff Moore Practice Complex.

- “Out-of-town” telephone interviews can also be arranged during the hours of 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Please contact Tom McClellan in the ECU Athletics Communications Office to request and set up a phone interview with Coach Montgomery.
- Coach Montgomery participates in the AAC conference call on Monday at 11:30 a.m. (ET). Media representatives wishing to participate in the teleconference should contact the communications office at ECU or AAC to obtain the access phone number. The teleconference schedule for the 2016 season is as follows:

Ken Niumatalolo, Navy	11:00 a.m.
Chad Morris, SMU	11:10 a.m.
Bob Diaco, Connecticut	11:20 a.m.
Scottie Montgomery, East Carolina	11:30 a.m.
Philip Montgomery, Tulsa	11:40 a.m.
Tom Herman, Houston	11:50 a.m.
Tommy Tuberville, Cincinnati	12 noon
Willie Taggart, USF	12:10 p.m.
Matt Rhule, Temple	12:20 p.m.
Matt Norvell, Memphis	12:30 p.m.
Scott Frost, UCF	12:40 p.m.
Willie Fritz, Tulane	12:50 p.m.

For those who are not able to participate during the live teleconference, an archive of each call will be available on the American Athletic Conference website at www.TheAmerican.org, shortly after the call's completion.

In-Season Access To ECU Players

- All interview requests for Pirate players must be coordinated through the ECU Athletics Communications Office. Failure to comply with this policy will result in a revocation of working credentials for the entire season.
- Players will be available for in-person interviews at the Cliff Moore Practice Complex following workouts Sunday, Tuesday (offensive players only) and Wednesday (defensive players only) evenings.
- Brief phone interviews will also be conducted at that time and can be arranged by contacting Tom McClellan in the ECU Athletics Communications Office before 1:00 p.m. the day of the request. Players will conduct all phone interviews from the athletics communications office or football practice facility via cell phone.

- ECU Athletics Communications will not supply the media cellular telephone numbers for Pirate players. Likewise, training room, locker room and apartment/dormitory areas are considered private player areas and are off-limits to the media.
- Gaining access (for the purpose of one-on-one interviews) via player personal social media accounts is considered a breach of policy, thus prohibited.
- No freshmen will be available to media unless cleared by Coach Montgomery.
- Players are prohibited from participating on live radio broadcasts or webcasts.

On-Line Services

- East Carolina's weekly game notes package can also be downloaded at www.ECUPirates.com beginning at 3:00 p.m. Monday. In addition, media guides, statistics (cumulative/game books), depth charts, rosters, press conference and post-game text transcripts, audio/video files, links to live statistics and social media channels can be accessed through ECU's official website.
- American Athletic Conference, releases and statistics are available at www.theamerican.org.
- CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for AAC football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, action photos, logos and more for the conference and each of its member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

Injury Reports

Per university policy, athletic training room personnel are not allowed to publicly comment on player injuries. All requests for player injury reports should be directed to the communications office, which will publish a written injury report twice a week — on Monday in conjunction with the weekly press conference and on Saturday prior to the game. Federal policy (HIPAA) prohibits information other than listing the injured “body part” and “game status” from being released.

The ESPN College Football Thursday Primetime crew of David Pollack, Jesse Palmer and Rece Davis called the action from Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium in 2014.

100,000-Watt Flagship Steers Pirate IMG Radio Network

The East Carolina University Athletics Department and IMG College, the multimedia rights-holder for Pirate sports, are in the ninth year of a partnership with 107.9 WNCT-FM which enables the 100,000-watt station to serve as the football flagship for the Pirate IMG Radio Network each fall.

WNCT-FM's powerful signal provides expanded coverage for ECU sports, extending to Raleigh (to the west), southern Virginia (to the north) and up and down the North Carolina coastline.

All ECU football games, along with the weekly Scottie Montgomery Call-In Show, will be included in the programming on WNCT-FM.

The East Carolina Department of Athletics and IMG College, the national leader in the collegiate sports marketing industry, entered into an agreement during the spring of 2006 that provides the company with the exclusive multimedia rights to Pirate Athletics.

The partnership, which now runs through 2023 and continues to guarantee the university an annual rights fee plus additional considerations based upon revenue generated by IMG College, encompasses all sales and marketing opportunities associated with ECU sports, including radio and television programming, game programs and other athletics publications, signage in all campus athletic venues, and at-event corporate promotions and hospitality functions.

"East Carolina places a high value on its partnership with IMG College and I'm extremely pleased with the value IMG is bringing to the university and our partners," ECU Director of Athletics Jeff Compher said. "As the national leader in the collegiate marketplace, IMG has proven to be both professional and innovative in working with our local and regional sponsors. They have also assisted us in establishing a licensing program that has grown significantly in the last several years."

East Carolina is one of an impressive group of NCAA member institutions, conferences, bowl games and venues that are aligned with IMG College, the leading multimedia, marketing and licensing/brand management company in America. Headquartered in Winston-Salem, N.C., IMG College employs more than 700 people in nearly 100 offices throughout the U.S.

Pirate Football On The Radio

Pirate Football may be heard throughout North Carolina as well as portions of South Carolina and Virginia via the Pirate IMG Radio Network.

Jeff Charles is in his 29th year handling the play-by-play duties on the network after previously serving in the same capacity at Virginia Tech, Illinois, and Furman prior to becoming the "Voice of the Pirates." The two-time North Carolina Sportscaster-of-the-Year also served as sports director at WSB in Atlanta where he was the night-time host of a sports talk show heard throughout 38 states and Canada on the 50,000-watt clear channel station.

Former Pirate defensive standout Kevin Monroe, while in his 14th overall season on the network broadcast team, joins Charles in the booth for the 10th-straight year as lead analyst after serving a previous role as sideline reporter. The four-year letterman and All-Conference USA performer was a key member of Pirates' secondary beginning in 1996, topping the program in interceptions as a junior and senior, and currently shares a school record for the longest interception return with a 100-yarder against Louisville Nov. 14, 1998.

Rounding out the broadcast team are sideline reporter Marty Feurer and network engineer/producer David Horn. Feurer, who will begin his 24th year on the network this fall, serves as director of development for Battleship North Carolina. The 2016 campaign will mark Horn's 11th year with the Pirate IMG Radio Network. Horn will also serve as booth host in addition to his engineering and production responsibilities.

East Carolina University

East Carolina University is a 109-year-old public university nationally recognized for preparing educators and primary care physicians and for its cultural and performing arts programs.

It enrolls more than 28,000 undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students and is North Carolina's largest preparer of initially licensed teachers and baccalaureate nurses, and the state's most influential preparer of primary care physicians who practice in rural and underserved communities. Among the college and schools, East Carolina operates the Brody School of Medicine, School of Dental Medicine, College of Engineering and Technology, and a growing undergraduate Honors College.

Our motto is Servire, or To Serve.

Quick Facts

- Military Ties: ECU is located near four major military bases, including Camp Lejeune and Fort Bragg, and in 2010 won the Freedom Award from the United States Department of Defense for its support of military families and service men and women.
- Economic Muscle: East Carolina's economic impact is estimated at $2.8 billion statewide, with more than $1.8 billion in eastern North Carolina.
- Primary Care: The Brody School of Medicine has consistently been ranked by the American Academy of Family Physicians among the top five (often No. 1) in the nation for the percentage of graduates who choose residencies in family medicine each year. The school is a national model for producing family physicians who practice in rural and underserved communities. Nearly 60 percent of Brody graduates remain in primary care five years after graduation – the highest percentage of any medical school in North Carolina.
- Dental Medicine: ECU dental students spend their fourth year training and serving patients at community service learning centers located in eight underserved areas across the state. The method prepares them to practice and also encourages engagement with rural communities. Our second class of graduates headed into practice or residency in 2016.
- Leading in Preparing Teachers: ECU's Partnership East program, funded by a private sector grant, helps fill an urgent need for teachers in North Carolina's rural classrooms by providing scholarships allowing residents of rural communities to complete their senior year teaching internships without leaving home. Seventy-five percent of Partnership East graduates are teaching in North Carolina and 94 percent of those are teaching in eastern North Carolina.
- National Recognition for Engagement and Public Service: East Carolina received the prestigious C. Peter Magrath Award for University/Community Engagement in 2012 from the Association of Public and Land Grant Universities for its partnership with and service to the citizens of West Greenville through the Lucille W. Gorham Intergenerational Center.
- Improving Lives: Dr. Sam Sears, a psychologist and researcher who is the world's authority on cardiac psychology, performs groundbreaking work to help cardiac patients improve their quality of life. His work toward the welfare of the human race won him the highest faculty honor in the UNC system, the O. Max Gardner Award, in 2013.

- East Carolina again has been named one of four national finalists for the 2016 Magrath Award, this time for the Brody School of Medicine's MATCH Wellness program – an interdisciplinary, community-university partnership created to combat childhood obesity.
- Dr. Carmen Russoniello, director of ECU's Center for Applied Psychophysiology, was awarded the 2015 James E. Holshouser Jr. Award for Excellence in Public Service for his work using biofeedback in the treatment of wounded warriors with PTSD.

Other Notables

East Carolina nurtures a culture of high academic achievement on campus; the Honors College received nine times the number of applications over the number of open slots this year.

In addition, we integrate public service into the custom learning experience of our highest performing students, immersing them in leadership and learning that requires service projects as part of the Honors College curriculum.

We are a highly diverse campus, with minorities making up 32 percent of our undergraduate, 36 percent of our medical and 26 percent of our dental students.

ECU students, faculty, and staff engage in 238 campus-community partnerships.

More than 70 percent of ECU seniors have participated in a community-based service-learning project.

Chancellor

Cecil P. Staton (Furman '80)

Dr. Cecil P. Staton is East Carolina University's 11th chancellor after formally being elected to the position by the University of North Carolina Board of Governors on April 27, 2016.

From 2014-2016, Staton served as vice chancellor for extended education for the University System of Georgia. In that role, he was responsible for strategic initiatives related to international education, continuing and professional education, entrepreneurial education and military affairs. He was also USG's liaison with the Georgia Research Alliance and supported USG's economic development initiatives and efforts to match the resources of USG institutions with Georgia's evolving workforce needs.

From 2015-2016, Staton also served as interim president of Valdosta State, a regional USG institution with 11,300 students. In that role, he focused on retention, improving student success and better marketing and branding to reverse recent enrollment declines and associated budget shortfalls.

Staton also served as associate provost at Mercer University in Macon, Georgia, a multi-campus institution with professional programs including medicine, law, business, education, pharmacy, engineering and nursing. In addition to teaching in the College of Liberal Arts and serving as an administrator, he led Mercer's University Press and secured more than $4.5 million to help endow the academic publishing program.

Staton began his academic career at Brewton-Parker College in Mount Vernon, Georgia, where he was an assistant professor of religion from 1989-91.

Staton's private-sector experience includes founding and leading three communications companies: Smyth & Helwys Publishing, a publisher of books and curriculum products; Stroud and Hall Publishers, a publisher of books on politics and current events; and Georgia Eagle Media, a holding company for broadcasting, newspaper and media properties.

In 2004, Staton was elected as a Georgia state senator representing the state's 18th District. He served five terms before retiring in 2014. While in the legislature, he was recognized as a leader on health care and higher education matters.

Active in professional and civic organizations, Staton has been recognized numerous times for his service and leadership. His awards and honors include the Georgia Independent College Association's 2014 Miller-Deal Award for significant public service in higher education; Legislator of the Year awards from the Georgia Hospital Association, Georgia Technology Association and Georgia Rural Health Care Association; and the Georgia Ambulance Association Star of Life Award.

Staton, a first-generation college student, is a native of Greenville, South Carolina. He has a bachelor's degree in religion from Furman University in Greenville, South Carolina, master of theology and master of divinity degrees from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest and a doctorate in Old Testament, Hebrew and ancient Near Eastern studies from the University of Oxford in England.

Staton, who began his duties at ECU on July 1, has written or edited numerous books and articles.

He and his wife, Catherine, have two children: Cecil P. Staton III, a financial planner in Atlanta, and William Davidson Staton, a student at DePaul University in Chicago.

Director of Athletics

Jeff Compher
(James Madison '80)

Jeff Compher, a veteran collegiate athletics administrator with a documented history of developing champions in the classroom, in competition and in life, is in his fourth year instilling that vision of unparalleled broad-based success in a leadership role at East Carolina University.

Beginning with his first day on campus as ECU's Director of Athletics in April, 2013, Compher engaged student-athletes, coaches, staff and the Pirate Nation to embrace the role of moving forward and proactively plan for the challenges of the future. His return to the state of North Carolina has already delivered a foundation centered around the student-athlete experience, a deliberate focus on winning with integrity and an aggressive plan to promote the ECU Pirate brand and its values.

The final fundraising phase of the Smith-Williams Basketball Practice Facility and the initial launch of the department's Undaunted Strategic Plan were all completed under his direction during the 2013-14 academic year. In addition, Compher's first season of competition in Greenville was notable as the Pirate football program rolled to their second-highest victory total in school history, both basketball teams advanced to postseason play and the track and field squad captured Conference USA indoor and outdoor titles.

A year later he provided a guiding and supportive hand during East Carolina's inaugural campaign in the American Athletic Conference, which was highlighted by league championships in men's swimming and baseball. Cliff Godwin, who was Compher's first ECU head coaching hire, brought a high level of intensity and excitement back to Clark-LeClair Stadium during his debut as the Pirates' skipper – capping a 40-win season with a NCAA Regional appearance in 2015.

In November of 2015, Compher coordinated and then announced a 10-year exclusive partnership with the sports brand adidas (beginning July 1, 2016). The top-tier all-sport, multi-year agreement allows the department to reallocate money previously spent on apparel to other areas, including the cost of attendance and enables East Carolina to take the next step in terms of brand recognition and national exposure.

Men's swimming captured another conference title in the winter of 2016, while the Pirates' baseball program captured its first-ever NCAA Super Regional victory after winning the Charlottesville Regional in thrilling fashion.

Additionally, Compher's executive leadership qualities were quickly recognized and valued by his colleagues in the American Athletic Conference who elected him as Chairman of the Athletic Directors Committee for 2016.

Compher's appointment at East Carolina ended a five-year tenure as associate vice president and director of athletics at Northern Illinois University.

Under Compher's direction, Huskie student-athletes excelled academically as all 17 of NIU's intercollegiate programs surpassed the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate every year during his stay at the DeKalb school that featured an enrollment of 22,000. His department also had seven Academic All-America selections, two National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, an NCAA Woman-of-the-Year finalist and three NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners.

The Northern Illinois football team won its second-straight MAC crown in 2012 and became the first Mid-American Conference team to play in the Bowl Championship Series by gaining a berth in the Discover Orange Bowl.

An emphasis on long-range planning and the ability to work with constituencies within and outside the university community have become well-known staples of Compher's administrative and leadership skills over the past 15 years.

His administrative efforts were recognized with his selection as one of four FBS Athletics Director-of-the-Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) in the summer of 2013.

Compher arrived at NIU after nearly four years at the University of Washington, where he served as executive associate athletic director and was responsible for the general management and daily operations of the department. Prior to his move to the Pacific Northwest, Compher led the athletics program at Southern Conference member Western Carolina University from 2000 to 2004.

While he put his own distinct fingerprint on capital projects, facility renovations and fundraising at NIU with the construction of the school's new indoor training center and record-breaking annual gift levels, Compher was directly involved with successful similar entities at both UW and WCU.

As associate and then senior associate athletic director at Vanderbilt University for four years, Compher directed nearly every area of the department, including external affairs from 1998 to 2000. Prior to that, he oversaw NCAA compliance, academic support, strength and conditioning, equipment and CHAMPS/Life Skills areas for the Commodores.

Compher spent 13 years in several different positions at North Carolina State University. As the Wolfpack's assistant athletic director from 1986 to 1992, he managed the student-athlete support services units, established the first life skills program and handled scheduling for the football and men's basketball teams. He was the assistant to the chancellor at NC State before moving back into athletics administration after relocating to Nashville.

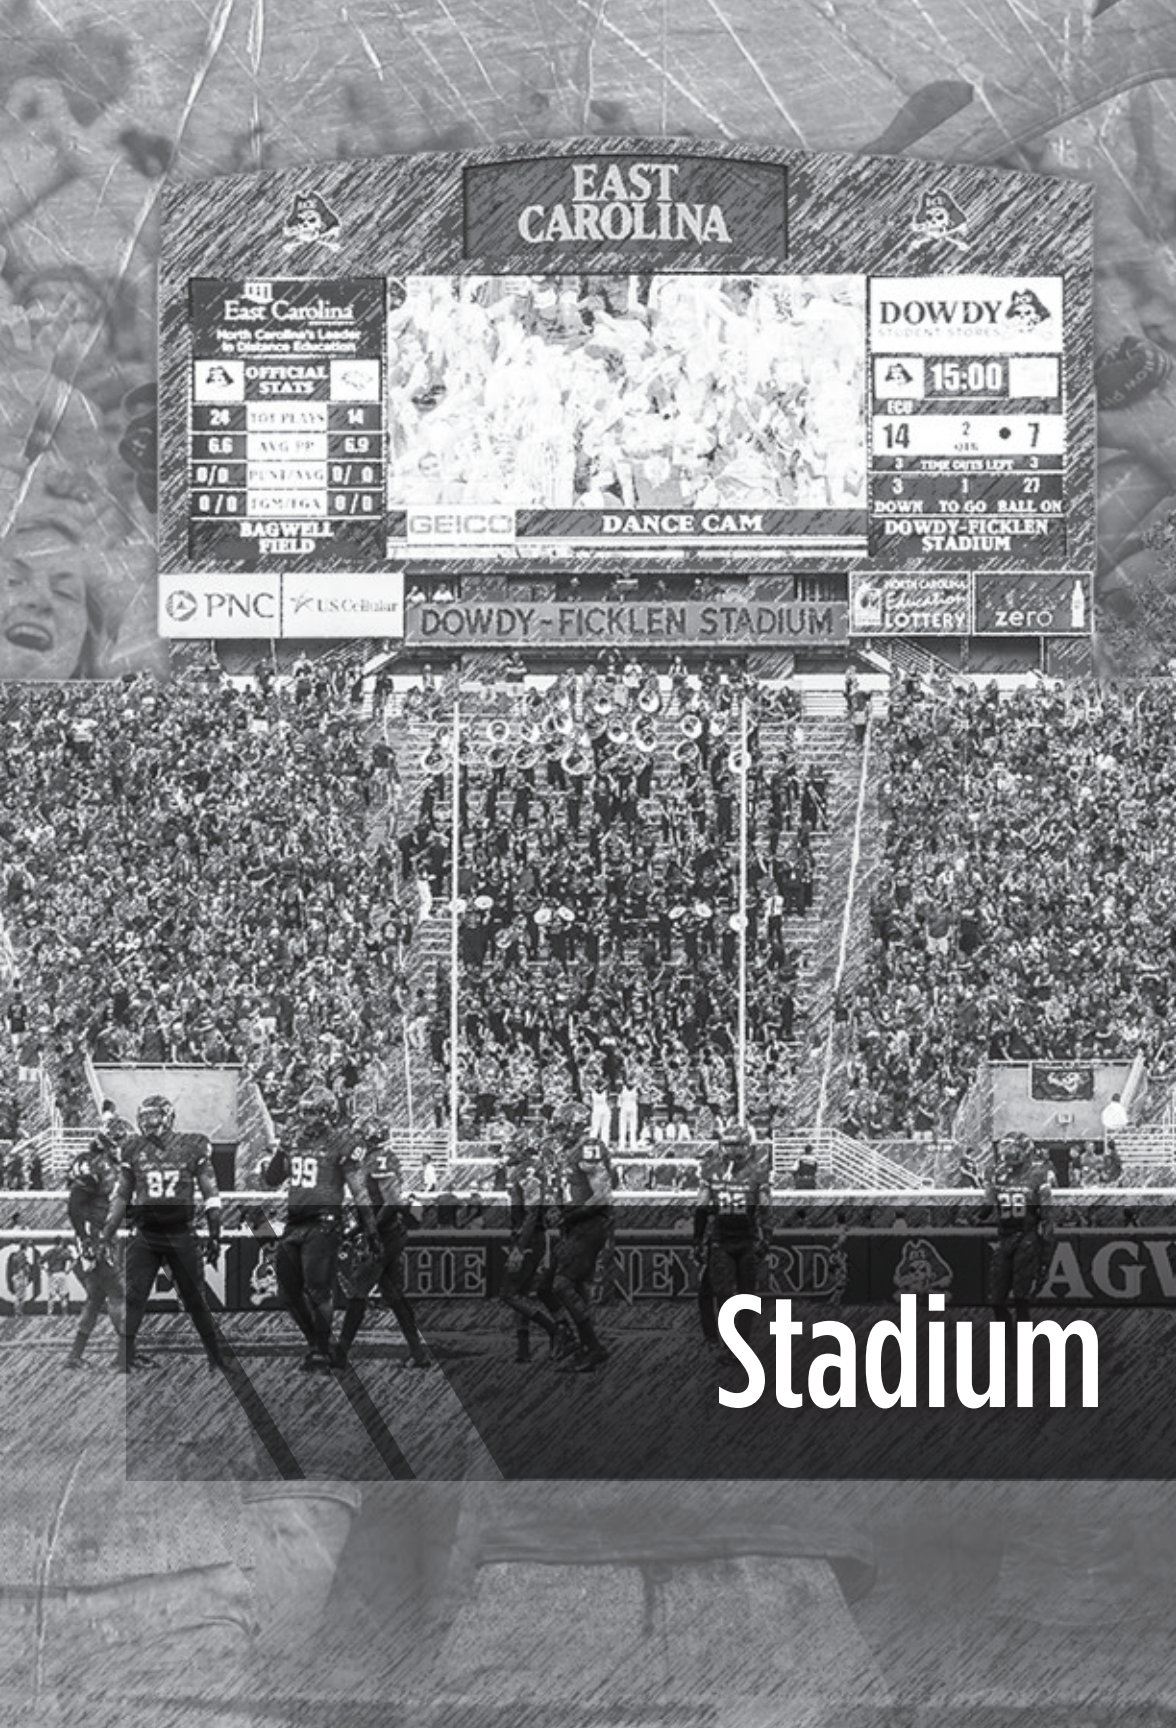

His first position in collegiate administration was at NC State, where he was the assistant director of Housing and Residence Life from 1982 to 1986.

Throughout his career, Compher has continued his education, participating in the NACDA Management Institute (1998), the Sports Management Institute Executive Program (1998-99) and the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Institute (2005 and 2006). Most recently, he attended the U.S. Marine Corps Executive Forum at the Pentagon and participated in the Senior Leader Engagement Program (SLEP) sponsored by United States Secretary of Defense Ashton Carter in the late summer of 2015.

Compher, 58, earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from James Madison (Va.) University, where he was a football student-athlete, in 1980, and graduated with a master's degree in counseling and student personnel services from Shippensburg (Pa.) University in 1982.

He and his wife Cathy have two sons – C.J. and David.

Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium

The Early Years

The original plan for ECU's current football facility was announced Oct. 7, 1961, by Dr. Leo Jenkins, Chancellor of the College, at a meeting of the Society of Buccaneers. Within a year, $283,387 had been raised, although the goal had been only $200,000. With the funds in hand, Ficklen Stadium was built.

The James Skinner Ficklen Memorial Stadium was dedicated Sept. 21, 1963, as East Carolina defeated Wake Forest, 20-10.

The original stadium consisted of the permanent stands on the south side, a small press box, and the old lighting system which was removed after the 1974 season. Total cost was $300,000.

The north side permanent seating was constructed in 1968, increasing the stadium seating capacity to 20,000.

The Namesakes

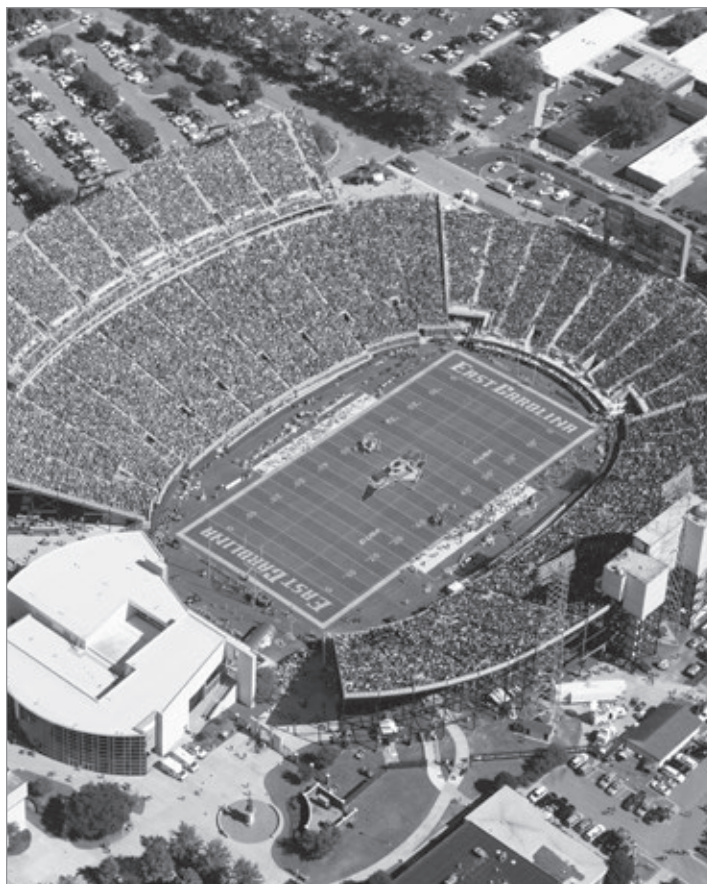

In April 1994, Ron and Mary Ellen Dowdy, of Orlando, Fla., announced a $1 million gift to the ECU Educational Foundation. The gift would go toward the ongoing expansion of ECU's football stadium, which was renamed Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.

Ron Dowdy, who was a member of the school's Board of Trustees, currently oversees commercial leases, residential apartments, and several other enterprises as part of Dowdy Properties in Orlando. Dowdy, a 1966 graduate of ECU, has been involved with many civic organizations, including the Executive Committee of the Florida Citrus Sports Association, the Board of Directors for the Florida Citrus Bowl, the Board of Directors at Humana Hospital Lucerne in Orlando and the Senior Citizen Advisory Committee in Orange County.

The late James Skinner Ficklen, a Greenville resident, distinguished himself as one of America's leading tobaccoists. At the time of his death in 1955, Ficklen was President and Chairman of the Board of the E.B. Ficklen Tobacco Company of Greenville. He was a close friend of the college and established a financial aid foundation, the Ficklen Foundation, to aid students of the college.

Bagwell Field

Since graduating in the early 1970s, Al and Debby Bagwell have been gracious friends of the university with Al serving on the Pirate Club's Executive Committee in 1994-95 and being appointed to the University's Board of Visitors in 1998. The couple from Lake Gaston, Va., was honored in 1997 for their gift to the Pirate Club's Shared Visions Campaign. For their contributions on behalf of the University and to the ECU

Educational Foundation, the Bagwells had their name become a permanent mark on the ECU landscape as the field is now recognized as Bagwell Field at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.

Stadium Lighting

The first major renovation in Ficklen Stadium was the lighting system, a change that occurred just before the 1975 season opened. The old inner stadium lights on six poles were removed and replaced with six towers outside the stadium. The system is a combination of metallic and incandescent lights. There are 288 fixtures of 1500 watts each on six 162-foot towers. Cost of the system was $450,000.

Early Expansion

A radical change greeted fans as the 1978 season opened. An expansion on all four corners boosted the stadium's seating capacity from 20,000 to 35,000, the third-largest stadium in North Carolina. The expansion was made possible with $2.5 million through a drive in the spring of 1977.

In addition to more seats, the current press box with three levels and an elevator for access was built. The press box has space for 60 writers and an entire floor for broadcast media.

Last Expansion

After additions on the north side (upper deck in 1998 and club-level seating in 1999) increased the stadium's capacity to 43,000, East Carolina completed a 7,000-seat expansion project in the east endzone that pushed the seating availability to 50,000 in time for the 2010 season opener. In addition, Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium received an aesthetic enhancement the same year when 10,200 purple chairback seats replaced existing bleachers inside the 35-yard lines on both sides of the facility.

Playing Surface

During the summer of 1983, a complete renovation was done on the playing surface. A new drainage system, a new base of gravel and sand, new treated topsoil, and a new grass (Tifton 419 Hybrid Bermuda). Most recently, the facility was completely re-sodded during the late spring of 2014.

Scoreboard

A 84'-wide x 28'-tall high definition-rated score/video board accompanied the 7,000-seat endzone expansion in the summer of 2010. The board features state-of-the-art video capabilities for fan enjoyment. In addition, a new auxiliary scoreboard was added to the Murphy Center on the west side to give spectators easy visibility access from all viewing locations.

Stadium, Pirate Traditions

Cannon

A tradition that dates back to at least 1967, the cannon in Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium's endzone is fired at the end of the National Anthem, when the team runs onto the field, when the Pirates score and at the conclusion of all games.

Purple Haze

The classic Jimi Hendrix tune is played prior to the start of every home football game as the Pirates take to the field through a cloud of purple smoke. The team entrance was enhanced in 2010 with an inflatable pirate head the team runs through to reach the west endzone.

Mascot

The costumed Pirate mascot became associated with East Carolina in 1983. Other team mascots through the years have been a dog, "Pete," which accompanied the team in the 1970s, students dressed as parrots or pirates, and even a live wildcat, which served as the mascot in 1930-31.

First Down Pirates!

The "First Down ... Pirates" cheer was initiated by former public dress announcer Jon Moore. The cheer follows a key ECU first down play when the announcer gives the spot of the ball and saying, "Where it is a first down ..." followed by the crowd's yell of "Pirates!"

No Quarter

The Pirates adopted a new set of flag raising ceremonies at home football games in 2007, and perhaps the most popular one has been the "No Quarter." Hoisted prior to the fourth quarter to replace the traditional black skull and crossbones Jolly Roger symbol, the red "No Quarter" flag signifies the Pirates will now take no prisoners and give no quarter to their enemy.

Alma Mater

The ECU Alma Mater is "Hail to Thy Name So Fair." It first appeared in the 1940-41 ECTC Student Handbook where it was attributed to a student by the name of Harold A. McDougale ('44). McDougale later became a part-time instructor in the Music Department at ECTC (1946-47) and a music teacher at Greenville High School (1947-48).

School Colors

The school colors for East Carolina University - purple and gold - go back to the time when the first students arrived on campus in 1909. ECU historian Dr. Mary Jo Bratton, the author of "East Carolina University The Formative Years 1907-1982," said the selection of school colors represented one of the first traditions established by the students. In the early fall of 1909 the administration asked students for their suggestions on school colors. Old gold and royal purple won the vote.

In the following year, the colors carried over to the school's first baseball team, a club team that won most of its games. According to Bratton, the opening game produced a 6-2 win for East Carolina against a local Greenville team. The newspaper account of the game credited the effective cheering of the young ladies of the school for "winning the victory for the purple and gold."

Strength & Conditioning

The Murphy Center, still considered one of the athletic department's newest facilities, is located between Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium and Minges Coliseum. It's one of the largest and best-equipped strength and conditioning centers in the country.

ECU's Board of Trustees approved the project in the spring 1997, thus putting it into the athletics department staff's hands to make this 52,475-square-foot, two-story strength and conditioning/Pirate Club multipurpose center a reality.

ECU's strength and conditioning programs for its student-athletes are based out of the 22,000-square-foot first floor of the $13 million facility. The weight room has revolutionized the Pirates' strength and conditioning efforts.

The center opened for workouts in June, 2002 and was dedicated at ECU's home football game on September 14, 2002.

The second floor of the building features a private dining area for recruits as well as a 9,000-square-foot banquet hall and a large terrace with a view of the football stadium for Pirate Club functions.

Because of its location behind the Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium endzone, its connection to Minges Coliseum and the Smith-Williams Center (ECU Athletics Hall of Fame), the Murphy Center is an ideal place for Pirate Club members to socialize at both football and basketball games.

East Carolina University's student-athletes train for competition under the direct supervision of Assistant Athletics Director for Strength and Conditioning Jeff Connors. The 2016-17 full-time strength staff consists of assistants Blaine Kinsley, Justin McClelland, Dan Millington, Robert Tate and Katelyn Woolfolk.

Athletic Training

The student-athlete at East Carolina University has the luxury of having one of the most dedicated health care teams in the Southeast. Directed by Mike Hanley, Associate Director of Athletics for Student Services, along with trainers Krista Carano, Nate Clark, Ben Crawford, Christopher D'Errico, Jake Moore (head football athletic trainer), Daniele Petty, Sharon Rogers, Zac Womack and team physician Dr. Joe Armen, the ECU Athletic Training program provides every Pirate student-athlete the best available care for their injuries. Hanley, the 2009 National Athletic Trainer's Association (NATA) Trainer-of-the-Year, and his staff are assisted by a wide array of community-based physicians and other health care providers.

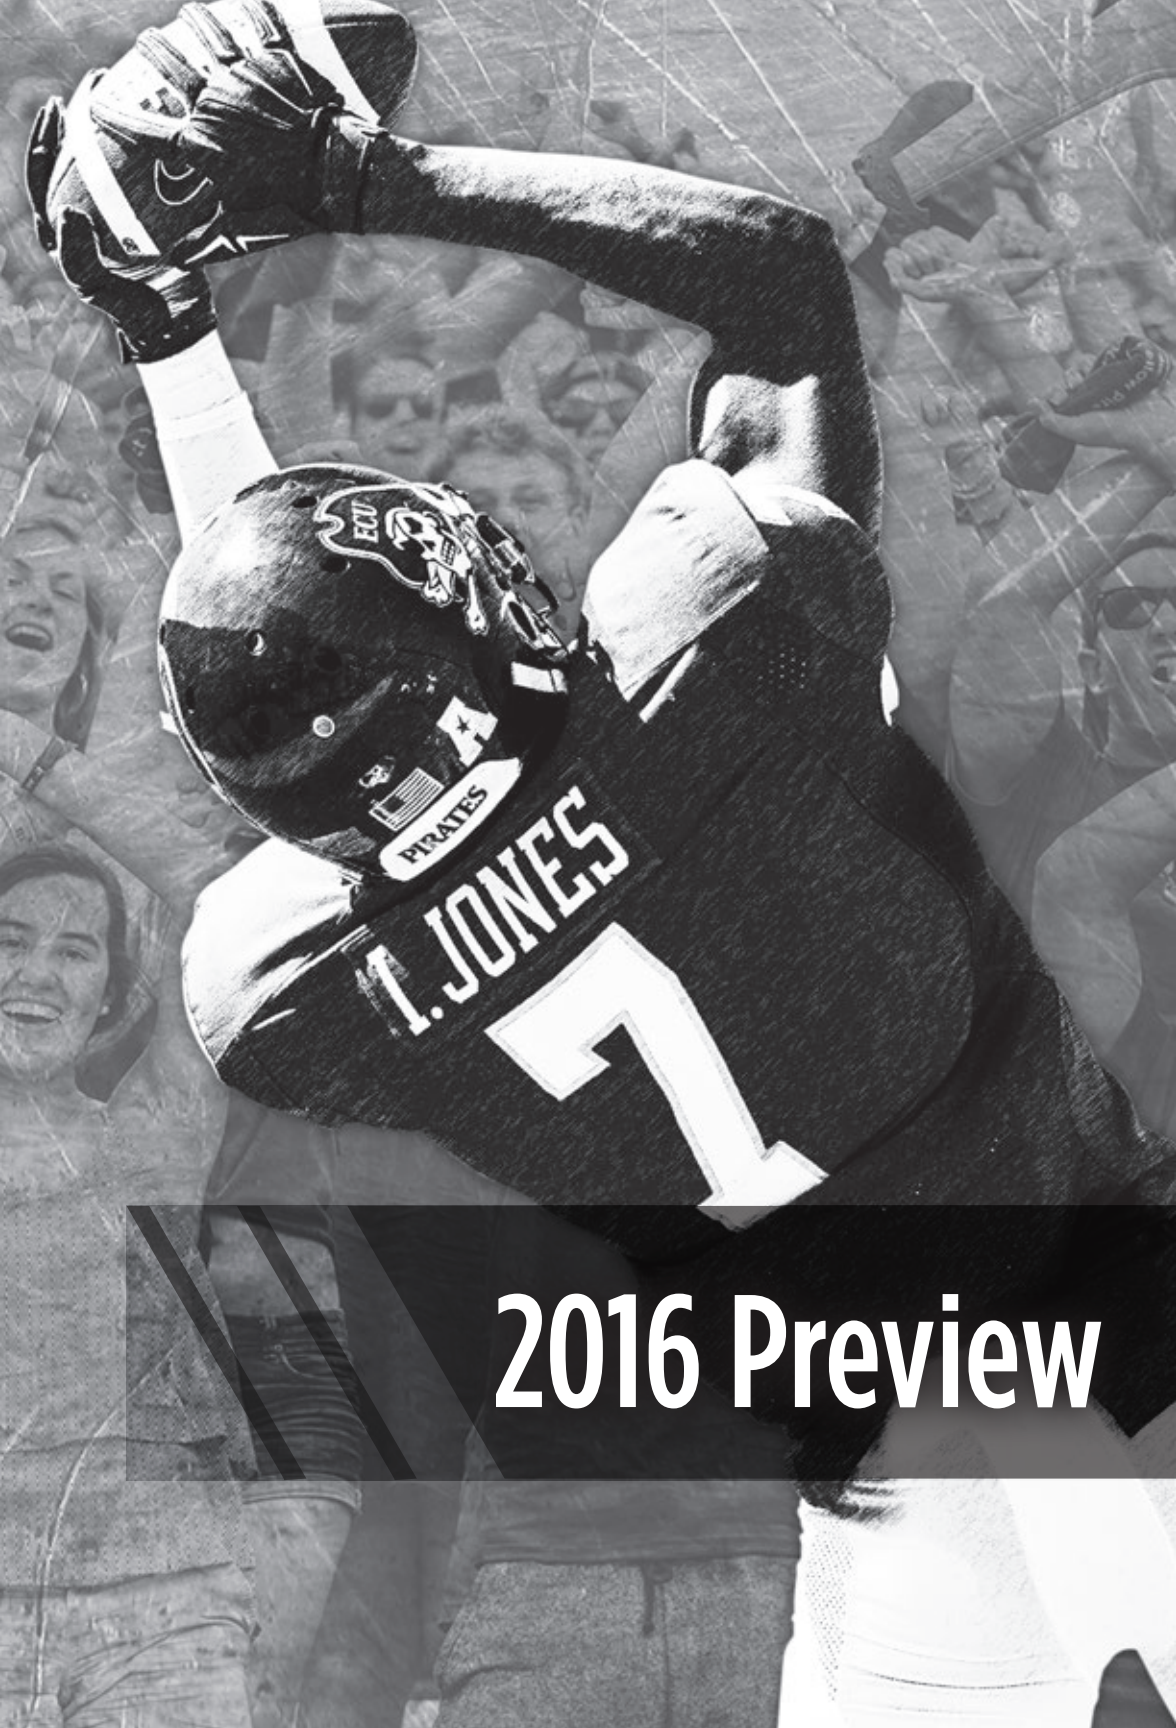

Housed in the Ward Sports Medicine Building adjacent to Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium and Minges Coliseum, the main athletic training room is a modern facility complete with the latest equipment. Satellite athletic training rooms are located in Minges Coliseum, Murphy Strength and Conditioning Center, Clark-LeClair Stadium, Smith-Williams Basketball Facility and the Williams-Harvey Teams Building (Terry Holland Sports Complex).

Coaches

Head Coach

Scottie Montgomery

(Duke '00)

Scottie Montgomery, who played an integral role leading Duke and the Pittsburgh Steelers to divisional championships and postseason play, is in his first season as head football coach at East Carolina University.

Montgomery, a North Carolina native with a documented history of balanced success on the offensive side of the ball, was formally introduced as the Pirates' 21st head coach on December 14, 2015.

His acceptance of the ECU position officially ended a two-year tenure as the Blue Devils' associate head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Overall, Montgomery served on the Duke staff for seven seasons under head coaches Ted Roof (2006-07) and David Cutcliffe (2008-09, 2013-15) - five as receivers coach. He helped guide Duke to three-straight bowl appearances, including an exciting 44-41 overtime victory against Indiana in the 2015 New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium.

Montgomery's coaching experience in the National Football League spanned three seasons under Mike Tomlin's leadership. His work with the Steelers' receivers in 2010, 2011 and 2012 resulted in two playoff appearances, the 2010 AFC North Division championship and a spot in Super Bowl XLV.

The 2015 campaign marked Montgomery's second as both primary offensive play-caller and quarterbacks coach at Duke, a program in which he starred as an All-Atlantic Coast Conference wide receiver from 1996 to 1999. Tasked with grooming a new starting quarterback following the graduation of the school's all-time winningest signal-caller and All-ACC selection Anthony Boone, Montgomery encouraged balance to a unit that continued to display a consistent level of production.

Behind protégé quarterback Thomas Sirk, the Blue Devils ranked among the nation's top 45 squads in rushing offense (192.9 ypg), passing offense (246.5) and total offense (439.4). Its 31.5 points-per-game clip and 5,712 yards of total offense marked the fourth-straight season Duke matched or eclipsed a 30.0 scoring average and surpassed the 5,000-yard milestone - a first in school history for both categories. The Blue Devils also stood fourth in the ACC and 33rd at the FBS level with a 43.3 third-down conversion percentage and suffered only seven interceptions during the regular season, a number which ranked 17th in the country.

Sirk was one of only four Power 5 quarterbacks to lead his team in both rushing and passing during his first full-time season orchestrating the Duke offense.

Montgomery was recognized for his efforts as a one of three finalists for the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) National Assistant Coach-of-the-Year Award in 2015h. In addition, he was listed by Athlon as one of "College Football's 20 Best Coaches Under 40" - ranking among the top 13 coordinators in the country.

During his first year as offensive coordinator in 2014, Montgomery had oversight of an attack that tallied 421 points, the second-highest single-season total in program history. Only the 2013 squad, which Montgomery served as Duke's wide receivers coach, owns a better point total. In addition to a 32.4 scoring average, the Blue Devil offense also racked up 5,178 yards of total offense on the way to a 9-4 overall record and an appearance in the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

Over Montgomery's two-year stint as Duke's offensive coordinator, the Blue Devils featured two All-America selections along the offensive line (guard Laken Tomlinson in 2014, center Matt Skura in 2015), the ACC's all-time leader in pass receptions (Jamison Crowder) and record-setting running back Shaun Wilson, who, in 2014, rushed for a school single-game record 245 yards against Kansas and finished the season with the highest yards per rushing attempt average (7.67) in school history. In the 2015 NFL Draft, Tomlinson was selected in the first round by the Detroit Lions while Crowder was a fourth-round choice of the Washington Redskins. Crowder currently ranks third among rookies in pass receptions.

In 2013, Montgomery guided a Duke receiving unit that included Crowder, a first-team All-ACC pick, who set a conference single-season record with 108 pass receptions for 1,330 yards and eight touchdowns. The Blue Devils rolled to a 10-4 mark and captured the ACC's Coastal Division championship with a 6-2 ledger before falling to Texas A&M in a 52-48 shootout at the Chick-fil-A Bowl. Duke stood 22nd and 23rd in the final USA Today/Coaches and Associated Press polls, respectively, while ranking 24th in the last BCS listing.

Montgomery helped the Steelers to a three-year regular season record of 32-16, mentoring receivers such as Hines Ward, Mike Wallace and Antonio Brown. A four-time NFL Pro Bowl selection, Ward finished his career as the organization's all-time leader in receptions (1,000), receiving yardage (12,083) and receiving touchdowns (85). Wallace earned a Pro Bowl bid in 2011 after catching 72 passes for 1,193 yards and eight touchdowns while Brown was the Steelers' team MVP in 2011 after becoming the first player in NFL history to amass 1,000-plus yards both receiving and on kick returns.

During his earlier four-year coaching stay at Duke, Montgomery directed several of the finest pass-catchers in school and ACC history. Eron Riley was a two-time All-ACC selection in 2006-07 and caught 144 career passes for 2,413 yards and 22 touchdowns. Donovan Varner and Conner Vernon both were recruited to Duke by Montgomery out of Miami and enjoyed outstanding careers in Durham. A first-team All-ACC pick in 2009, Varner caught 207 passes for 2,660 yards from 2008-11, while Vernon, a three-time (2010-12) all-league selection, became the ACC's career leader in both catches (283) and receiving yardage (3,749).

As a wide receiver for the Blue Devils from 1996 to 1999, Montgomery paced Duke in receiving three-straight seasons as a sophomore, junior and senior, and was a two-time winner of the program's Carmen Falcone Award as the Most Valuable Player in 1998 and 1999. He became just the third player in school history to lead the team in receptions in three straight years and was only the sixth Blue Devil to earn multiple team MVP honors.

Montgomery closed his collegiate career with 171 catches for 2,379 yards and 13 touchdowns. He caught 51 passes in both 1997 and 1999, and registered a career-high 60 receptions as a junior in 1998.

Montgomery's name is etched into the Duke record book for longest plays with an 88-yard pass from Bobby Campbell against Vanderbilt in 1998 and a 99-yard kickoff return versus Wake Forest in 1999. Montgomery finished his career ranking among Duke's all-time leaders in kickoff returns (63) and kickoff return yards (1,515) and all-purpose yardage (4,188).

During his senior campaign in 1999, Montgomery established the school standard for all-purpose yards in a season with 1,565 and he still holds two of Duke's top single-game totals for all-purpose yardage with 262 versus Vanderbilt in 1998 and 250 against Virginia in 1999. In the Vanderbilt contest, he registered 243 receiving yards, a total that at the time, marked the fourth-highest single-game performance in school history.

He played professionally with the NFL's Denver Broncos (2000-02) and Oakland Raiders (2003).

Montgomery, 38, was born in Shelby, N.C., and graduated from Burns High School before earning a bachelor's degree in cultural anthropology from Duke in 2000.

He is married to the former Ebony McDuffie of Detroit, Mich., and the couple has three sons - Cassius (6), Moses (3) and Magnus (1).

Defensive Line Coach (Southern Miss '95)

Deke Adams, who has played a key role in the development of six National Football League draft picks since 2013, including two first-round selections, will direct the Pirates' defensive line following a three-year tenure on the South Carolina staff.

olina staff.

Following his appointment as the Gamecocks' defensive line coach in 2013, tackle Kelcy Quarles and end Jadeveon Clowney each earned first-team All-America honors under Adams' tutelage. In addition, both players garnered First-Team All-Southeastern Conference selection by the Associated Press and the league's 14 coaches. Quarles led the team with 13.5 tackles for loss, including 9.5 sacks, while Clowney was the first overall pick by the Houston Texans in the 2014 NFL Draft.

One of Adams' top 2015 performers, tackle Gerald Dixon Jr., accepted an invitation to participate in the East-West Shrine Game after completing an 84-tackle career.

Before helping Steve Spurrier's South Carolina program to a pair of bowl wins in 2013 and 2014, Adams spent the 2012 season as Larry Fedora's defensive line coach at North Carolina after serving the three previous seasons in the same capacity under Fedora at Southern Miss.

During his one-year stint in Chapel Hill, Adams had the opportunity to coach All-America tackle Sylvester Williams, a first-round selection in the 2013 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos.

In his final year in Hattiesburg, Adams, a former Southern Miss letterman, provided leadership for a front four that allowed just 112.6 rushing yards per game in 2011, which ranked 22nd nationally. He helped the Golden Eagles to the Conference USA title and an eventual 12-win season after a Hawai'i Bowl win over Nevada.

Among the players he mentored at USM were First-Team All-Conference USA end Cordarro Law and 2013 second-round NFL draft pick Jamie Collins.

In his initial campaign at Southern Miss in 2009, Adams inherited a young, but talented unit that progressively improved as the season continued. The Golden Eagle defense finished the year No. 18 nationally in sacks and No. 24 in tackles for loss after standing 93rd and 68th, respectively, in those two defensive categories a season earlier.

Adams came to Southern Miss after spending the previous year as linebackers coach and coordinator of player development at Louisiana-Monroe. Prior to his stint at ULM, he worked for two seasons at North Carolina A&T.

During his first season in Greensboro, Adams was elevated to interim defensive coordinator status after two games before earning the job on a permanent basis following the final contest. He coached the Aggies' defensive line in 2006 and had responsibility for the linebackers in 2007 in addition to his coordinator duties.

Adams spent the previous four years at Ouachita Baptist (Ark.) University, coordinating the defense and coaching the defensive line in his last season (2005).

He began his career in 1997 as the defensive line coach at Jacksonville (Ala.) State before moving on to Pearl River (Miss.) Community College, where he first served as the linebackers coach and later was named co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. In 2001, he became the defensive coordinator and continued his duties as recruiting coordinator.

A three-year letterman, Adams was a pivotal part of the Golden Eagles' "Nasty Bunch" defense who wrapped up his linebacking career in 1994 with 76 tackles, five tackles for loss, one sack and one interception.

In the classroom, Adams was a four-year member of the Southern Miss Dean's List during his time as a student-athlete. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology and sports administration in 1995 before following with a master's degree, also from USM, in 1996.

He is married to the former Alexis Hall, a member of the 1,000-point club and four-year letterwinner for the Southern Miss women's basketball team. The couple has two boys, Jaylen and Jordyn.

Ryan Anderson

Inside Linebackers Coach (Presbyterian '09)

Ryan Anderson is in his first year as East Carolina's inside linebackers coach after officially accepting the position on the Pirates' staff on Jan. 8, 2016.

The beginning of his ECU tenure concluded three years of service as a defensive assistant at Southeastern Conference member Vanderbilt from 2013 to 2015. During his last two seasons in Nashville, Anderson worked alongside Kenwick Thompson and helped build the Commodore linebackers into one of the SEC's more notable units.

Coaching primarily the inside linebackers and defensive ends, Anderson assisted a unit that statistically ranked among the NCAA's top 25 in fourth down defense (4th), first down defense (5th), redzone defense (6th), third down defense (7th), most fumbles recovered (20th) and scoring defense (23rd) by allowing only 21.0 points per game. One of his top players, Zach Cunningham, earned Associated Press First-Team All-SEC honors after ranking among league leaders in tackles for loss (16.5), solo tackles (69) and overall stops (103), forced fumbles (4) and recovered fumbles (3).

In 2014, Anderson played a key role developing inside linebacker Nigel Bowden into a Freshman All-Southeastern Conference performer. Bowden topped all SEC first-year players in total tackles (78) and became the first rookie to pace Vanderbilt in stops since 1998.

The Commodore defense stood among the nation's best in several categories during Anderson's first campaign in Nashville in 2013, including passes intercepted (13th), turnovers gained (13th), pass defense (23rd) and total defense (23rd).

Anderson joined the Vanderbilt staff after serving as defensive line coach at Reinhardt (Ga.) University in 2012. During the 2010 and 2011 seasons, he worked at Cumberland (Tenn.) University as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator, guiding the Phoenix to No. 1 and No. 9 NAIA rankings in third down defense and total defense, respectively.

His first coaching role came at E.C. Glass High School in Lynchburg, Va., where he mentored linebackers and tight ends in 2009.

Anderson was a standout linebacker at Presbyterian (S.C.) College, earning letters in 2006, 2007 and 2008. He received a bachelor's degree in psychology from PC in 2009 before adding a master's of education in community development & action from Vanderbilt in 2015.

He is married to the former Ashley Cook.

Antonio King

Running Backs Coach
(North Carolina Central '05)

Antonio King is in his first season as running backs coach at East Carolina after formally joining Scottie Montgomery's staff on Jan. 8, 2016.

The appointment at ECU concludes an illustrious prep coaching career for King, who guided Durham Hillside High School to a run of six-straight PAC-6 titles and the 2010 North Carolina

High School Athletic Association (NCHSAA) 4A State Championship with a perfect 16-0 record.

He also captured PAC-6 Coach-of-the-Year honors in 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015, while earning Durham Herald-Sun top coaching accolades twice.

After joining the football staff at Hillside in 2005 as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, King was promoted to the head coaching position prior to the 2009 campaign and produced a 72-20 (.783) overall mark and a PAC-6 ledger of 40-1 in seven seasons. He developed a total of 60 all-conference selections, including the league's offensive back, offensive lineman, defensive lineman and defensive back of the year who helped the Hornets to a 10-3 record in 2015.

King directed Hillside to 40-straight PAC-6 victories after falling to then-conference rival Southern Durham during his first year as head coach.

Recently, he was invited to serve as a coach in both the 2014 Semper Fidelis All-American Game and the 2015 Shrine Bowl of the Carolinas, where King helped the North Carolina all-star squad to a 54-39 win over South Carolina.

While working as an assistant at HHS under Ray Harrison, King played a key role in the turnaround of a Hillside program, that in 2006, posted its first winning season since 2000. In all, the Hornets were 33-8-1 from 2006 to 2008 and advanced to the playoffs each year. As quarterbacks coach, he tutored three unanimous All-PAC-6 signal-callers.

King began his collegiate playing career in 1993 as a quarterback at Howard before transferring to North Carolina Central in 1996. He earned his bachelor's degree in parks and recreation management from NCCU in 2005.

He holds memberships in the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and North Carolina Coaches Association (NCCA).

Phil McGeoghan

Wide Receivers Coach (Maine '08)

Phil McGeoghan (pronounced muh-GAY-gehn), who spent the last four seasons in the National Football League with the Miami Dolphins, was appointed East Carolina's wide receivers coach on Dec. 23, 2015.

McGeoghan initially joined the storied franchise's offensive staff as assistant wide receivers coach in 2012 before earning a promotion to wide receivers coach in November, 2015.

Under McGeoghan's direct leadership, standout second-year pass-catcher Jarvis Landry set a single-season franchise record with 110 receptions in 2015 to easily surpass O.J. McDuffie's mark of 90 set in 1998.

Working with receivers coach Ken O'Keefe, he helped the LSU product headline a unit in 2014 with 84 catches, which not only ranked fourth overall in club history, but set a Dolphins standard for most by a rookie and stood as the sixth-highest total in the NFL annals for a first-year player. McGeoghan helped Landry hit his stride in December with 35 receptions, the second-most catches in any month in Miami history.

In 2013, McGeoghan assisted in guiding a receiving corps that featured a pair of players with 70-plus receptions in Brian Hartline (76 for 1,016 yards) and Mike Wallace (73 for 930). Additionally, Hartline became the fifth receiver in team history to tally consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, while Wallace finished third in both receptions and receiving yards for a Dolphins player in his first season with the team.

McGeoghan helped coach a young group of wide receivers in 2012 that included a breakout performance from Hartline, who set career highs at the time in receptions (74), reception yards (1,083) and 100-yard receiving games (three). The former Ohio State star also had one of the most prolific games for a receiver in club history, tallying 12 receptions for 253 yards and one touchdown against the Arizona Cardinals on September 30. The 12 grabs served as the second-highest single-game total in the storied franchise's history, while the 253 yards established a new Dolphins standard.

Before accepting a position in the NFL, McGeoghan spent three seasons as wide receivers coach at South Florida beginning in 2009 under head coach Jim Leavitt before working two years with former East Carolina coach Skip Holtz.

During his final season at USF in 2011, three Bulls' receivers - Sterling Griffin (43), Victor Marc (33) and Deonte Welch (31) - each tallied more than 30 receptions. A year earlier in 2010, senior Dontavia Bogan produced one of the best seasons in school history with 685 yards and six touchdowns on 47 receptions to earn All-Big East honors.

In his first season with the Bulls, USF wide receivers were constant big play threats, as both Carlton Mitchell and A.J. Love each averaged more than 17 yards per catch, with Love's 18.8 clip ranking third all-time at USF. McGeoghan also played a key recruiting role for signing classes that earned Top 25 rankings by various publications during his time in Tampa.

In 2008, McGeoghan worked as the offensive coordinator for the Naval Academy Prep School, which oversees the professional and athletic development of midshipmen and cadet candidates. He began his coaching career at alma mater Maine in 2007 as wide receivers and tight ends coach after a four-year playing career in the NFL that included roster positions with the New Orleans Saints, Denver Broncos, Oakland Raiders and the New York Jets, in addition to playing in NFL Europe for the Berlin Thunder.

McGeoghan earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from Maine and starred as a wide receiver for the Black Bears, standing fourth in career receiving yards and fifth in receptions. In the classroom, he earned Academic All-America honors and was recognized as an Arthur Ashe Jr. and Dean Smith Sport Scholar. McGeoghan also served in a leadership capacity as UM's student-athlete president.

Shannon Moore

Special Teams Coordinator/Tight Ends Coach
(Black Hills State '00)

Shannon Moore is in his first season as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at East Carolina University, officially joining the Pirate Staff on Jan. 2, 2016.

Moore will direct ECU's punt, field goal, kickoff, return and coverage units after orchestrating the overhaul of one of the most improved special teams squads in Conference USA, if not nationally, during his two recent years of work at Florida International.

His 2015 edition topped the league and ranked among the country's best in punt return average (10.8 ypr), most blocked kicks (four) and fewest blocks suffered (zero). Moore's efforts at FIU followed eight seasons on the South Dakota State staff where he directed special teams play and worked with quarterbacks, tight ends and running backs.

His work rejuvenating the Golden Panthers' specialists were reflected in a No. 14 national rank in overall efficiency. In addition, his kickoff return coverage squad stood 30th among all FBS programs by allowing only 19.2 yards per attempt.

Individually, All-Conference USA performer Richard Leonard topped the league and ranked 23rd nationally with a punt return average of 10.7, while also rating 18th in the country in combined kick returns (787 yards) under Moore's leadership.

In 2014, Moore's punt return unit established a school record with an 18.2 average for a No. 2 national rank and his kickoff return team was 23rd after netting 23.0 per attempt. Leonard, who earned first-team all-conference honors and was a three-time C-USA Special Teams Player-of-the-Week selection, set a FIU single-season standard with a 23.8 yards-per-return clip.

Prior to his move to Miami, Moore spent the previous eight seasons in a variety of roles at South Dakota State under head coach John Stiegelmeier, coordinating special teams and coaching tight ends from 2010 to 2013 before his departure.

Moore coached the running backs and tight ends in 2006, 2007 and 2008, before taking on the duties of special teams coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2009 campaign. In 2010, Moore returned to coaching the tight ends, while retaining special teams responsibilities.

During his tenure with the Jackrabbits, Moore coached four all-conference running backs and a pair of all-conference tight ends. At running back, Kyle Minett developed into a two-time All-America honoree while ranking second in career rushing with 4,277 yards. Anthony Watson and Cory Koenig also ended their careers in the top five on SDSU's career rushing chart.

Moore played an instrumental role in the development of two-time All-Great West Football Conference tight end Chris Wagner, who later signed as a free agent with the Oakland Raiders. He also served as a mentor to tight end Colin Cochart, who earned first-team All-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors in 2010 and later signed with the Cincinnati Bengals.

The Jackrabbits consistently ranked among the top teams in the Missouri Valley Football Conference in several special teams categories under Moore's direction. SDSU ranked first or second in kickoff coverage in 2010 and 2011, while ranking among the Top 20 nationally for net punting in those respective campaigns as well. The Jackrabbits also stood ninth nationally for kickoff returns with an average of 23.86 yards per attempt in 2010.

In addition to his coaching duties, Moore performed a key role in the academic success of the South Dakota State football program, which led its league in the number of academic all-league selections in each of the eight seasons. In addition, six Jackrabbits earned Capital One Academic All-America honors, two received Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Athletic Directors Association Postgraduate Scholarships and another pair were bestowed with NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships.

Moore previously served as a graduate assistant at SDSU during the 2003 and 2004 seasons, working with the running backs, tight ends and special teams while pursuing a master's degree in education administration. He later added a master's degree in sports administration from South Dakota State in 2007.

Before returning to Brookings, he served as head coach of the Wyoming Cavalry of the National Indoor Football League, where he compiled an 18-11 record over two seasons. In 2005, Moore led the Casper-based Cavalry to a franchise-best 10-5 record and a playoff berth, while also serving as the team's offensive coordinator.

A native of Gordon, Neb., Moore played three seasons at Black Hills (S.D.) State, where he earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education in 2000.

Tony Petersen

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks Coach
(Marshall '90)

Tony Petersen, who has directed some of the nation's most exciting and prolific offenses that have paved the way for championships and bowl victories, is in his first year as East Carolina's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after accepting the position on Dec. 31, 2015.

Petersen brings over 25 years of experience to the ECU program, including success as a coordinator in the Big Ten Conference and recent record-setting tenures guiding units at both Marshall and Louisiana Tech. His arrival at East Carolina ends a three-year stay in Ruston where he played a pivotal role in the Bulldogs' 18 combined victories and consecutive bowl titles in 2014 and 2015.

He recently helped Louisiana Tech to a 9-4 record, which included a 47-28 win over Arkansas State in the 2015 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl. Petersen's last contest under (former ECU) head coach Skip Holtz was a fitting conclusion as the Bulldogs racked up 458 passing yards, 687 total yards and set or tied 17 New Orleans Bowl records at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on Dec. 19.

A record-setting quarterback at Marshall, Petersen joined the Bulldog staff in January, 2013 after serving as the Thundering Herd's co-offensive coordinator for three seasons in the second of two stints at his alma mater.

Petersen led a 2015 Louisiana Tech offensive attack that ended the regular season ranked in the top 10 in school history in five different offensive categories, including total yards, points scored, rushing touchdowns, touchdown passes and passing yards. For his efforts, he was formally named a nominee for the Broyles Award - an annual honor that recognizes the nation's top assistant coach.

As the Bulldogs' quarterbacks coach, Petersen molded senior Jeff Driskel into one of the nation's top signal-callers who earned top 25 statistical ratings in eight different offensive categories in 2015, including total offense (335.1 ypg), passing yards (4,033), passing yards per completion (14.4 ypc) and passing touchdowns (27). Louisiana Tech completed the regular season ranked 14th in the NCAA in passing offense and 17th in scoring offense with 37.5 points per game.

A year earlier in 2014, Petersen directed an offense that stood fifth at the FBS level in most improved scoring offense (37.4 ppg) as the Bulldogs powered their way to a 9-5 overall record that included a C-USA West Division title and a 35-18 win over Illinois in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl. Transfer quarterback Cody Sokol helped the Bulldogs become the 13th-highest scoring offense in the country, while Petersen's guidance resulted in No. 11 and No. 20 national ranks in passing touchdowns and passing yards, respectively, for the senior standout.

In his first season at Tech, Petersen inherited an offensive unit that lost eight starters to graduation with a quarterbacks group that had never taken a collegiate snap. That 2013 season saw four wins with another three games decided by 10 or less points.

Petersen's third season on Doc Holliday's staff at Marshall proved to be his best as he mentored sophomore quarterback Rakeem Cato to an impressive 2012 campaign. The Herd's signal-caller became the first Marshall player and underclassman in C-USA history to earn MVP honors. Cato led the nation in completions per game (33.83) and passing yards per game (350.08) and finished third in TD passes (37), fourth in completion percentage (69.5) and fifth in total offense per game (352.67). He also led the league in pass efficiency (147.1).

As co-coordinator, Petersen's unit led the league in scoring offense, passing offense, total offense, pass efficiency, third down conversions and first downs. In the latter two categories, Marshall ranked second nationally.

Prior to his second stint at Marshall, Petersen spent the 2009 season as the assistant head coach and wide receivers coach at the University of South Dakota. He served the previous two seasons as quarterbacks coach at Iowa State University.

Under Petersen's leadership, Iowa State quarterback Bret Meyer finished his Cyclone career in 2007 with school record totals for passing yards and total offense.

Prior to serving Iowa State, Petersen coached at the University of Minnesota from 1999 to 2006. He was co-offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach and eventually the passing coordinator for the Golden Gophers, where quarterback Bryan Cupito set an all-time passing mark under Petersen. He also played a critical role in the development of Asad Abdul-Khaliq, a quarterback who rewrote UM's record books.

In Petersen's eight seasons during his first stint at Marshall, the Thundering Herd qualified for the postseason eight straight times, winning Football Championship Subdivision (formerly NCAA Division I-AA) national championships in 1992 and 1996, and Mid-American Conference titles in both 1997 and 1998 when the school moved up to the FBS level.

Petersen served as wide receivers coach in 1992 and directly worked with eventual three-time Super Bowl Champion Troy Brown. Peterson served as quarterbacks coach for five of his previous eight years at Marshall and was offensive coordinator in 1998, coaching future NFL quarterbacks Chad Pennington and Byron Leftwich in that capacity.

As a player at Marshall, Petersen was named the 1988 Southern Conference Athlete-of-the-Year and the SoCon Offensive Player-of-the-Year in 1987 after leading the Herd to the NCAA Division I-AA National Championship Game with a school-record 35 touchdown passes.

A free agent signee of the Minnesota Vikings in 1989, Petersen set 16 Southern Conference single-season and career standards in passing and total offense, to go along with six Marshall single-season school marks. He also established NCAA records for most passes in a game without an interception (68) and for most regular season games (11) with more than 200 yards passing.

Petersen went to Marshall after a stellar career at Delta Community College in Stockton, Calif. He was drafted by the Kansas City Royals after his first season at Delta CC.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sports management and marketing in 1990 and master's degree in administration in 1995, both from Marshall.

Petersen and his wife Beth have three children - Andy, Nikki Nelson and Taylor.

Rick Smith

Assistant Head Coach/Secondary Coach
(Florida State '71)

Rick Smith, who possesses 35 years of collegiate coaching experience - eight at East Carolina alone - and has directed defenses at the FBS level for nine seasons was immediately retained as secondary coach by first-year head coach Scottie Montgomery on Dec. 23, 2015.

Additionally, he was elevated to assistant head coach status on Feb. 3, 2016.

His second tour of duty at ECU, which began in January of 2013, followed a five-year tenure guiding defensive backs from 2005 to 2009 - an era which produced two Conference USA championships, back-to-back league scoring defense statistical titles and a run of four-straight bowl appearances.

Despite inheriting a unit that ranked 75th nationally in passes intercepted, 87th in total defense, 88th in scoring defense and 107th in pass defense a year earlier, Smith exceeded the first-year success he enjoyed in 2005 during his first Pirate tenure with a foundation-building, impact-producing, bowl-winning second initial campaign in 2013.

In addition to developing 10 All-Conference USA performers, including second-team selections in outside linebacker Derrell Johnson, free safety Damon Magazu and end Lee Pegues, Smith's defense ranked among the nation's top 50 units in four of five major categories and stood 13th at the FBS level against both the pass (18 interceptions) and run (116.7 yards per game allowed).

Under Smith's direction as defensive coordinator, the Pirates surrendered less than 100 rushing yards in six contests alone during the 2013 season, a feat last accomplished in 2009 -- ironically, Smith's final year at ECU during his first stop in Greenville. After giving up a combined 185.6 rushing yards per game, 430.0 total yards per game and 36.1 points per game during Ruffin McNeill's first three years (2010-12), the Pirates promptly responded to Smith's tutelage by significantly trimming the numbers down to 116.7, 368.8 and 24.8 in just one year of work.

Smith offered an encore in 2014 by ranking 11th nationally against the run (111.8 ypg) and 13th in defensive third-down percentage (34.2), while also standing among the country's top 40 units in interceptions (29th/14), pass efficiency defense (37th/120.21) and total defense (37th/367.3 ypg).

The Pirates held seven opponents under triple-digit yardage totals on the ground and featured the nation's ninth-leading tackler in junior linebacker Zeek Bigger, who became the first ECU defender to reach 140 stops since 2003. Nose tackle Terry Williams, linebacker Brandon Williams joined Bigger on the All-American Athletic Conference squad, while cornerback Josh Hawkins was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award after topping the secondary with five interceptions and 11 pass breakups.

Before re-joining the East Carolina program, Smith served as assistant head coach with oversight of cornerbacks and safeties at South Florida for three seasons beginning in 2010. His efforts aided a defensive unit that ranked 17th nationally in total defense (317.9 ypg), 22nd in scoring defense (20.0 ppg) and 24th in pass defense (192.3 ypg).

After joining Skip Holtz' initial Pirate staff, Smith quickly provided the revamped ECU defensive backfield with an immediate lift, molding a unit that finished the 2005 campaign ranked among the nation's top 20 in pass defense, allowing only 184.9 yard a game. His schematic preparation also allowed for 15 interceptions during the year before topping that mark in 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009 with 16, 17, 22 and 17, respectively - figures which ranked 21st, 25th, fifth and 16th nationally.

Smith directed the efforts of two all-conference selections in first-year safety and top team tackler Van Eskridge (104) along with veteran cornerback Travis Williams in 2007 before developing cornerback Emanuel Davis into a five-time all-freshman honoree in 2008, one of which was an All-America designation from Rivals.com. Of the 22 interceptions, which were the most for a Pirate squad since 1994, five came against Tulsa in the C-USA Championship Game victory against the nation's top-ranked offense.

Smith's secondary helped East Carolina to a No. 2 pass defense rank that year in the explosive and offensive-heavy C-USA statistical standings with a 197.2 ypg mark.

In 2009, the Pirate backfield played a key role in ECU's No. 5 FBS standing with 34 forced turnovers and a conference-best 21.9 defensive scoring average, and turned in another notable title game performance by intercepting Houston quarterback Case Keenum three times, including the game-clincher with 42 seconds remaining.

Prior to arriving at East Carolina, Smith served a one-year stint as a defensive backs coach for Berlin in NFL Europe, where he helped lead the Thunder to a league-high 15 pass thefts, a 9-1 record and a 30-24 World Bowl victory over the Frankfurt Galaxy in June, 2004.

Before heading overseas, Smith spent two seasons as co-defensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech in 2002 and 2003 after handling recruiting coordinator, assistant head coach and secondary duties at Southeastern Conference member Kentucky during the previous season.

While Cincinnati's defensive coordinator, Smith's unit stood fourth nationally in turnovers gained (34) in 2000 to help the Bearcats to a 7-5 record and an appearance in the Motor City Bowl. Before his two-year tenure at UC, he headed the Tulane defense where he played a pivotal role in the Green Wave's No. 7 national rank and undefeated (12-0) campaign in 1998 which was capped by a win over BYU in the Liberty Bowl. In 1997, he helped Tulane to a 7-4 mark while topping the nation in interceptions with 26.

Smith, 68, enjoyed an earlier seven-year stay at Kentucky, and from 1987 to 1989, he worked under legendary College Football Hall of Fame inductee Grant Teaff at Baylor. His appointment as the Bears' secondary coach followed a season on Ray Perkins' staff at Alabama.

In all, he has played an integral role helping squads reach 12 bowl games during his career, which includes post-season showings as defensive coordinator at Tulane, Cincinnati and ECU, along with other invitations while at Georgia Tech, Alabama, Kentucky and USF.

Smith, who earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida State in 1971, is married to the former Barbara Reddick and they are the parents of three grown children - Beth, Steve and Billy -- and three grandchildren.

Kenwick Thompson

Defensive Coordinator/Outside Linebackers Coach
(Harding '92)

Kenwick Thompson will take over the ECU defense after two seasons at Vanderbilt where he served as associate head coach and mentored all Commodore linebackers in 2015 after directing outside linebackers a year earlier during his first campaign in Nashville.

Last fall he helped Vanderbilt to Top 25 FBS statistical rankings in fourth down defense (4th), first down defense (5th), redzone defense (6th), third down defense (7th), most fumbles recovered (20th) and scoring defense (23rd) by allowing only 21.0 points per game. His star pupil Zach Cunningham earned Associated Press First-Team All-SEC honors - a first for a Commodore linebacker since 2005 - after ranking among league leaders in tackles for loss (16.5), solo tackles (69), overall stops (103), forced fumbles (4) and recovered fumbles (3).

A year earlier, Thompson was responsible for developing Stephen Weatherly into one of the team's most productive defenders. Moving from defensive end to outside linebacker, Weatherly finished the 2014 season by racking up a team-leading 12.5 tackles for loss.

Thompson joined the Vanderbilt staff after spending the 2013 season as defensive coordinator at San Jose State in the Mountain West Conference and the six preceding years as an assistant at the University of California in the Pac-12 Conference under Jeff Tedford.

While coaching the Spartan linebackers at San Jose State, Thompson helped senior captain Keith Smith to become just the second player in school history to earn All-MWC honors for four years after leading the nation in total tackles with 159.

In addition to Smith, Thompson also tutored First-Team All-MWC defensive back Bene Benwikere at SJSU. Benwikere matched the Spartan career record with 14 interceptions, including five picks as a senior. He also ranked among NCAA leaders with 16 passes defended.

From 2007 to 2012, Thompson worked as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at California, playing a key role assisting the Golden Bears to four bowl appearances. In 2012, he was elevated to associate head coach status.

In 2011, Thompson's linebacker corps helped the Golden Bears lead the Pac-12 in both total defense (332.9 yards) and pass defense (204.2 yards) during a 7-6 regular season that concluded with a Holiday Bowl appearance. Cal also topped the Pac-12 in total defense during the 2010 season.

Several of Thompson's linebackers at California earned all-conference accolades. Among his top players was Mychal Kendricks, who earned All-America honors and was selected as the Pac-12 Defensive Player-of-the-Year in 2011 before starring for the Philadelphia Eagles.

During his first tour of duty at San Jose State from 2001 until 2006, Thompson served in a variety of coaching roles under head coaches Fitz Hill and Dick Tomey. His positions included linebackers coach (2001-03), defensive line coach (2004), defensive tackles coach (2006), recruiting coordinator (2001-2004) and head strength and conditioning coach (2005).

From 1994 to 2000, Thompson was on the coaching staff at Texas Southern University, including the last five seasons as defensive coordinator. During the summer of 2000, he was a participant in the prestigious National Football League Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Oakland Raiders, working with the linebackers and defensive line.

As a collegiate player, he was a defensive standout and team captain at Harding (Ark.) University, earning all-conference honors as a senior and finishing his career as the school's all-time sack leader. Thompson earned his undergraduate degree in marketing and sales from Harding in 1992.

Thompson's first coaching position came in a player-coach capacity in the Italian-American Professional Football League in 1990. The following season, Thompson was named as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Thompson and his wife, Monica, have two sons, Jaxson and Jacob.

Geep Wade
Offensive Line Coach
(Tennessee-Chattanooga '02)

Geep Wade, who played a pivotal role helping Middle Tennessee rank among the nation's leaders in both rushing and passing for the past three seasons, is in first year as offensive line coach at East Carolina after officially joining the Pirate staff on Jan. 5, 2016.

Wade recently concluded his tenure with the Blue Raiders with an appearance in the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl, capping a stellar 2015 offensive performance which included 5,946 total yards and school records for passing yardage and touchdowns. Last fall, his line paved the way for an aerial attack that ranked 15th nationally with an average of 311.7 yards per game, a year after his group opened holes for a unit that stood 30th among all FBS programs in rushing.

Three members of the Blue Raiders' offensive line - Jaylen Hunter (first team), Maurquice Shakir (honorable mention) and Chandler Brewer (freshman team) - were honored by Conference USA and gave quarterback Brent Stockstill ample time to produce a school-record 4,005 passing yards, which ranked 11th in the country. In addition, his crew was among the nation's toughest to penetrate, rating 15th in fewest tackles for loss allowed and 22nd in fewest sacks surrendered.

Led by all-conference linemen Isaiah Anderson and Darius Johnson in 2014, Middle Tennessee had four different players rush for more than 100 yards in a game, while quarterback Austin Grammer became the first quarterback in school history to throw for over 200 yards in each of his first seven games.

In 2013, Wade helped develop all-league performer Josh Walker while engineering a group that helped five different players eclipse the 100-yard rushing milestone in a contest. The unit also played an integral role for an offense that ranked 31st nationally in rushing and topped Conference USA in ground yards during MT's eight-game league schedule on the way to an Armed Forces Bowl showing against Navy.

In all, the Blue Raiders amassed over 5,000 yards of offense in each of Wade's three seasons at Middle Tennessee.

Wade made his way to Murfreesboro from Marshall where he coached the offensive line in 2012. His 2012 squad helped Marshall register 365.0 passing yards per game (first in FBS), 534.2 yards of total offense (sixth) and 40.9 points a game (seventh), all C-USA highs. His line also withstood the pounding of an FBS-high 90.6 plays per game that generated 24 rushing touchdowns. The offense also produced just over 20 plays of 10 yards or longer per game to lead the nation.

He spent two seasons leading the offensive line at alma mater Tennessee-Chattanooga, while also serving as the recruiting coordinator. He returned to the sidelines for his second stint as an assistant coach at UTC after serving on the Mocs' staff in 2002 following his graduation.

Wade was in charge of the tackles and tight ends during the 2010 campaign, helping Chris Harr (OT) and Garrett Hughes (TE) to first team All-Southern Conference honors. The play of the offensive line allowed the Mocs to finish 11th among all FCS programs in total offense (430 ypg), while the unit threw for an average of 277 yards, second in the SoCon and eighth nationally.

Wade spent the previous four seasons as an assistant coach at Tennessee-Martin, serving as the offensive coordinator in 2009. In 2008, the Skyhawks posted an 8-4 overall record, ranking fourth in the country in scoring offense (37.33).

In 2007, Wade and the Skyhawk offense ranked No. 1 in the Ohio Valley Conference in total offense (433 ypg) and points scored per game (33.36). The team finished first in rushing offense (218.5 ypg) in the OVC, 12th in the nation.

Before coming to UT Martin in 2006 with head coach Jason Simpson, Wade was an offensive line coach at Western Carolina and Midwestern (Texas) State. He also enjoyed a stint at Tennessee where he was an offensive line graduate assistant for the Volunteers in 2004, the same year the team won the Southeastern Conference East Division title and the Cotton Bowl. In 2003, Wade coached the offensive line and served as the recruiting coordinator at Mars Hill College.

Wade was a team captain and an offensive lineman at UTC from 1998 to 2001, earning his bachelor's degree in business management in 2002.

He is married to the former Amy Howell of McKenzie, Tenn. The couple has two children - Emma Kate and Jackson.

Chris Cook

Quality Control Coordinator/Offense
(Tennessee-Chattanooga '09)

Chris Cook is in his first year as the offensive quality control coordinator at East Carolina.

In 2015, Cook served as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach for Independence High School in Charlotte, where he helped the Patriots to an 8-5 record and a second round NCHSAA playoff appearance. His defensive unit held opposing offenses to seven points or less six times in 2015, including two shutouts.

Cook co-founded the Gamechangers Football Academy - located in Charlotte - in 2008 with the goal of developing community youth on academics, personal conduct, and sportsmanship. As a coach, Cook delivered speeches to reinforce the value of high standards for personal behavior on and off the field. He also had oversight of summer camps for older elementary and middle school students, and conducted testing of high school athletes in preparation for college recruiting.

Cook graduated from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in communications. Prior to completing his degree, Cook pursued a professional football career, attending workouts with the Chicago Bears, Philadelphia Eagles, Buffalo Bills and Indianapolis Colts.

David Mackie

Quality Control Coordinator/Defense
(Georgia '05)

After helping direct East Carolina's record-setting special teams squad in 2015, David Mackie was retained on the Pirates' staff as first-year head coach Scottie Montgomery's defensive quality control coordinator this fall.

With Mackie's assistance, ECU punter Worth Gregory and kickoff specialist Caleb Pratt established new school single-season standards for most boots inside the 20-yard line (32) and touchbacks (31), respectively.

Prior to his arrival in Greenville, Mackie served as wide receivers coach, defensive backs coach, director of strength and conditioning, and special teams coordinator for Hardaway (Ga.) High School from 2010 to 2014. While directing Hardaway's strength program, he earned his USA Weightlifting certification.

During his tenure at both HHS and Georgia Military College, Mackie helped develop 18 players who later went on to play collegiate football at the Division I level.

Mackie graduated from the University of Georgia in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in history and followed with master's in business administration from Troy University in 2010. He also earned secondary history education certification from Columbus State (Ga.) University.

Damon Magazu

Defensive Graduate Assistant Coach
(East Carolina '13)

Damon Magazu, one of the most highly-regarded secondary performers in East Carolina history, rejoined the Pirate football family in 2016 as a defensive graduate assistant coach.

After completing his ECU playing career in 2013 and working out with several NFL organizations, Magazu opted to formally get into the coaching profession after working as a business development manager for Wells Fargo in Charlotte since 2015.

His distinguished playing career, which began in 2010, included appearance in 50 games, 37 starts, 265 tackles and 11 interceptions – none perhaps any bigger than his rookie-year pick against NC State's Russell Wilson in the Pirate endzone which preserved ECU's 33-27 overtime win at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.

The oft-elected team captain was a two-time All-Conference USA selection who was earned the program's defensive player-of-the-year award in 2013, was a Rock Roggeman Heart-of-the-Pirate Award honoree and recipient of the 2014 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Bill Dooley Chapter Outstanding Scholar Athlete Award.

Magazu graduated from ECU in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While an undergraduate student, he was a multiple Dean's List selection before completing his education with an overall grade point average of 3.3.

Phillip Mitchell

Offensive Graduate Assistant Coach
(East Carolina '14)

Phillip Mitchell is in his second season with the Pirates' offense as a graduate assistant coach.

Mitchell assisted East Carolina's full-time staff during the 2015 campaign with practice sessions, game plan meetings, recruiting, video analysis and opponent scouting.

Before joining the Pirate staff, Mitchell served as defensive backs coach for Princeton (N.C.) High School in 2014 and in the spring of 2015. He worked hand-in-hand with the defensive coordinator to break down film, assisted in the weekly opponent preparation and created offensive play cards for the scout team.

As an undergraduate at ECU, Mitchell was a student assistant coach on Ruffin McNeill's staff and worked directly with former defensive coordinator Brian Mitchell and former special teams coordinator Kirk Doll. Additionally, he contributed valuable efforts during summer football camps.

Mitchell earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from ECU in 2014, graduating with a 3.5 grade point average.

Donovan Varner

Offensive Graduate Assistant Coach
(Duke '11)

Donovan Varner begins his first season on Scottie Montgomery's East Carolina staff as an offensive graduate assistant coach.

Varner accepted the offer to return to the collegiate game after spending four years as a football coach and teacher at Gulliver Preparatory School in Miami, Fla. He was charged with facilitating workouts for over 40 student-athletes, enhance player techniques and performance, and motivating students both in the classroom and on the field. In addition, Varner served as a fitness coach and trainer for all of Gulliver Prep's athletes, focusing on increasing speed, strength and conditioning.

Varner enjoyed an illustrious playing career as a wide receiver at Duke, earning First-Team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 2009 before also being cited as the Blue Devils' top pass catcher in 2011. He was selected to the ACC Academic Honor Roll for three consecutive years and ultimately graduated from Duke in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in sociology, markets and management certificate.

After completing his collegiate career, Varner earned a roster position with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats in the Canadian Football League as a wide receiver during the 2013 season.

Brandon Williams

Defensive Graduate Assistant Coach
(East Carolina '15)

After keying East Carolina's defense from the inside linebacker position as a junior and senior, Brandon Williams will continue to help guide Pirate tacklers as a defensive graduate assistant coach on Scottie Montgomery's staff in 2016.

The 2016 campaign marks Williams' second as a coach after assisting former defensive line coach Marc Yellock as a quality control aide and contributing efforts during ECU's on-campus recruiting activities.

A four-year letterman from 2011 to 2014, Williams turned in his best season as a senior by standing second on the squad (and fifth in the American Athletic Conference) with 124 tackles – 54 of those coming as solo hits. He was a nine-time team captain selection before earning All-AAC honors after leading the Pirates to the Birmingham Bowl.

Williams played in all 13 contests and delivered 69 tackles as a junior to earn the program's most improved defensive player-of-the-year accolades.

He graduated from East Carolina in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice.

Terrell Smith

Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations (Duke '04)

Prior to his appointment at East Carolina, Terrell Smith served as director of football operations at Duke under head coach David Cutcliffe during the 2015 season. His latest tenure at his alma mater also followed a combined five years in player development and recruiting roles under Cutcliffe and Ted Roof spanning from 2006 to 2011.

Smith was the Blue Devils' top liaison with the school's academic support, admissions, financial aid and housing departments, while also managing program budgets for meals and recruiting. He also coordinated all logistical facets of Duke's team travel operation, serving as the key contact regarding air and bus transportation as well as the establishment of road lodging headquarters.

Before rejoining the Blue Devils' staff in July, 2015, Smith was in Chapel Hill as North Carolina's assistant director of player personnel for five months after spending two years at Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts where he served as the assistant director of admission for multicultural recruitment.

In addition to his earlier stay at Duke, he worked in various football administrative and coaching capacities at Oklahoma State and Lenoir-Rhyne.

Smith was assistant director of football recruiting for head coach Mike Gundy and the Cowboys in 2011 and 2012, which followed player development and football relations positions in Durham beginning in 2006.

Smith earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Duke in 2004 before adding a master's in humanities in 2006.

A native of Wingate, N.C., Smith co-captained the Blue Devils as a senior in the fall of 2003 and earned co-team MVP and second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors after recording 140 tackles from his safety position. In 40 career games, Smith racked up 321 stops and netted three interceptions.

After completing his undergraduate work, Smith worked one year on the coaching staff at Lenoir-Rhyne before returning to his alma mater. He initially served as a graduate assistant coach in 2005 before making the move to the player development office.

Brian Overton

Director of Player Development (Elizabeth City State '04)

Brian Overton is in his fifth overall season at East Carolina and first as director of player development on Scottie Montgomery's staff. He initially joined the Pirate family as director of football operations and player personnel on January 3, 2012.

Overton has oversight of the program's life skills, leadership and community relations initiatives in addition to assisting with recruiting activities.

Prior to his appointment at East Carolina, Overton served as a football operations assistant at the University of North Carolina for three years. He played a pivotal role in the Tar Heels' on-campus recruiting efforts in addition to providing ancillary support with team travel, high school summer camps, video maintenance and office management.

While Overton developed and coordinated UNC's game day operations effort for recruiting visits, his contributions reached far beyond establishing detailed weekend itineraries. As a recruiting liaison to the department's compliance office, he helped administer a program that documented all official visits, evaluations, contacts and phone calls. Overton also provided direct oversight of the Tar Heels' entire prospect video database, a duty that ranged from an initial screening to a final written coaches' evaluation.

Before accepting a position on the North Carolina staff, Overton spent nine years coaching at the high school level. He earned his first assignment as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at alma mater Hertford County (N.C.) High School in 2001. In addition to traditional in-season responsibilities, Overton supervised academic progress, coordinated unofficial college visits, conducted fundraisers for team and individual summer camp participation and organized community service activities until his departure in 2007.

He spent one season at Greene Central (N.C.) High School where he was the Rams' co-offensive coordinator. He also served as the Shrine Bowl Combine Co-Coordinator, a job which involved host site selection and set up, film evaluation and on-site logistical organization.

Overton returned to the Bears' program at Hertford County High School for the 2008 and 2009 campaigns as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach before moving to Chapel Hill.

During his tenure at North Carolina, Overton was active in community relations activities such as Habitat For Humanity, 911 Tribute (for local fire stations), UNC Blood Drive and the school's "Share Your Holiday" effort - a shopping, wrapping and gift delivery endeavor for the needy during Christmas.

He completed his bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Elizabeth City (N.C.) State University in 2004.

Overton, 35, is married to the former Tania Denise Williams of Edenton, N.C., and the couple are the parents of two boys -- Malachi (12) and Lucas (10).

Ethan Johnson

Director of Player Personnel
(Liberty '05)

Ethan Johnson is in his first year as director of player personnel at East Carolina, formally accepting the position on Jan. 5, 2016.

Johnson's arrival in Greenville follows 10 years of service as assistant director of player personnel at Duke, where he contributed a key role in all phases of the Blue Devils' recruiting efforts.

His primary responsibility was the organization of campus visits for prospects, which included travel arrangements, campus tours and catered meals as well as the coordination of one-on-one meetings with coaches, academic leadership and faculty members.

Johnson also cultivated relationships with student-athletes and assisted in the evaluation of their academic development potential based on previous performance, career interests and personal goals.

While at Duke, Johnson assisted current ECU Assistant AD for Football Operations Terrell Smith (2006 to 2011) and offered ancillary support with camps and clinics, administrative management, walk-on and tryout programs, budgeting, on-field recruiting evaluation and the enhancement of various video, software and social media platforms.

Johnson earned his bachelor's degree in sport management from Liberty in 2005.

He owns NCAA (recruiting) and American Sport Education Program (ASEP) certification in addition to active membership and participation in Big Brother Mentoring, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the American Football Coaches Association.

Johnson and his wife Sarit are the parents of two children - Noah and Cooper Wing.

Sedrick Irvin

Coordinator of Football Administration
(Alabama '09)

Sedrick Irvin, who owns over 22 years of playing and coaching experience at the high school, collegiate and professional levels, is in his first year as coordinator of football administration at East Carolina after officially filling the position on April 4, 2016.

Prior to accepting an offer to join head coach Scottie Montgomery's Pirate staff, Irving served as head football coach at Westminster Christian School in Miami, Fla. After taking over the varsity program in 2011, it only took three years for the Warriors to establish themselves as a perennial football power in south Florida with a state semifinals appearance in Class 3A. While at WCS, he mentored and developed prep All-America performers QB David Thompson (Miami), CB Timothy Irvin (Auburn) and RB Jordan Cronkrite (Florida).

Irvin's one-year tenure as running backs coach at Memphis in 2010 followed a two-year appointment as an intern on Nick Saban's staff at Alabama in 2008 and 2009.

Working primarily with the Tide's running backs, he helped Glenn Coffee rush for 1,383 yards and 10 touchdowns on the way to earning All-Southeastern Conference honors in 2008. A year later Irvin had the opportunity to tutor Mark Ingram, who won the Heisman Trophy and was named Sporting News National Player-of-the-Year after racking up 1,658 ground yards and 17 TDs to lead Alabama to the BCS title with a win over Texas.

Irvin, cousin of NFL Hall-of-Famer Michael Irvin, began his coaching career as offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and running backs coach at Gulliver Preparatory School in Miami in 2006 and spent two seasons directing the Raiders' passing attack and overseeing the school's strength and conditioning program.

Irvin's relationship with Saban began as a player at Michigan State from 1996 to 1998 where he became only the second rusher in Spartan history to record three-straight 1,000-yard seasons. He was a two-time All-Big Ten Conference selection and participated in the 1996 Sun Bowl and the 1997 Aloha Bowl. In three seasons of action, Irvin eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark on 15 occasions, including a career-best 238 against Penn State in 1997.

He left MSU after his junior campaign to enter the NFL Draft and was selected in the fourth round (103rd overall pick) by the Detroit Lions. As a rookie in 1999, he logged 133 yards and four touchdowns on 36 carries and also tallied 233 receiving yards on 25 catches.

Irvin, who graduated from Alabama in December 2009 with a degree in human environmental science, was a three-sport athlete at Miami Senior High School and a USA Today All-America choice as a running back in 1995.

Jeff Connors

Assistant Athletics Director/Strength and Conditioning (Salem, W.Va. '80)

Jeff Connors enters the sixth year of his second tour of duty as assistant athletics director for strength and conditioning at East Carolina after rejoining the Pirates' staff Jan. 21, 2011.

Connors took over ECU's top athletic performance position after spending 10 seasons on the University of North Carolina staff as strength and conditioning coordinator and assistant athletics director, a title he was elevated to a year after his arrival in 2001.

His current assignment at East Carolina marks his second stint with the Pirate program after an earlier 10-year strength and conditioning leadership tenure with head football coaches Bill Lewis (1991 season) and Steve Logan (1992-2000). In all, Connors' efforts helped produce eight bowl appearances, four post-season victories, 16 National Football League draft selections and representation in two final Top 25 polls (9/1991, 23/1995).

He is also credited for playing an integral role in the design and development of the Pirates' 22,000-square-foot strength and conditioning facility inside the Murphy Center, which opened in 2002 after his departure.

Connors has been honored as a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA). He reached the pinnacle of his profession by getting inducted into the USA Strength & Conditioning Coaches Hall of Fame in 2016.

Another one of Connors' highest personal accomplishments was his induction into the Washington-Greene Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 2011. Fittingly, his entry came on the 15th anniversary of the selection of his father and former high school coach, William D. Connors, into the same Hall. Additionally, Connors' place in the Washington-Greene Chapter of the PSHOF puts him alongside distinguished names such as Barry Alvarez, Marvin Lewis, Ralph Cindrich, John Banaszak, Hal Hunter and Cary Kolat to name a few.

Three years later, in 2014, Connors was one of only 25 invitees nationally to attend the United States Marine Corps Executive Forum (MCEF) at the Pentagon in Arlington, Va.

In addition to helping develop some of the top players in UNC's program, including Julius Peppers, Jason Brown, Ronald Curry, David Thornton, Kentwan Balmer and Hakeem Nicks, 73 of 77 all-time football strength and conditioning records were bettered during Connors' stay in Chapel Hill.

Connors also maintained department-wide responsibilities for the Tar Heels, conducting the strength and conditioning program for the four-time Atlantic Coast Conference champion and two-time Final Four participant women's basketball team, while also training the wrestling squad.

Before accepting the East Carolina position prior to the 1991 campaign, Connors was the head strength and conditioning coach at Bucknell from 1987 to 1990.

Connors, 60, is a frequently requested speaker asked to present his strength and conditioning program and philosophies to clinics and conferences across the country. He was also a competitive powerlifter who won four state titles in powerlifting and held a ranking as high as fourth nationally. Connors holds Level I certification in Olympic Weight Lifting by the U.S. Weight Lifting Federation and has had numerous articles published in Wrestling USA, NSCA Journal, Training and Conditioning Magazine and Bigger Faster Stronger Journal.

In 2013, Connors authored his first book - Strength Coach, A Call To Serve - which not only chronicles his illustrious career, but outlines a distinctive philosophy he has crafted during his calling in the profession. The part-memoir, part-training manual offers readers inspirational and spiritual insight into both his heart and head.

A 1980 graduate of Salem (W.Va.) College, Connors was a four-year starter at cornerback and was team captain as a senior. He led Salem in interceptions as a sophomore and junior.

After college, Connors served as a police officer in Palm Beach County (Fla.) for two years. Prior to becoming a strength coach, he coached high school football and wrestling at The Benjamin School in North Palm Beach, Fla., and coached linebackers at the Tennessee Military Institute in Sweetwater, Tenn.

Connors and wife Michele are the parents of two children - daughter Kaitlin and son Beau.

Matt Ater
*Director of Athletics Equipment
(Marshall '05)*

Matt Ater returned to East Carolina University as director of athletic equipment in August of 2014.

Prior to serving as equipment manager at the University of Oregon, a position he held for two years, Ater was the Pirates' assistant athletic equipment manager from 2008 to 2012.

At Oregon, Ater worked inside Matthew Knight Arena where he provided oversight for the daily equipment operations for men's and women's golf, men's and women's basketball, and volleyball programs. During his time with the Ducks, he worked closely with Nike, Nike Golf and other third party vendors to offer student-athletes the most contemporary and safest equipment and apparel.

During Ater's first stint with East Carolina, he handled daily equipment needs for the football, men's and women's golf, men's and women's basketball and swimming and diving teams. In his role, he was also in charge of operational budgets and supervising student managers during those four years.

Ater was an assistant athletic equipment manager at Princeton University for three years prior to his initial arrival in Greenville and also completed internships with the National Football League's Jacksonville Jaguars and UCLA.

A four-year student manager during his undergraduate studies, Ater earned his bachelor's degree in sports management and marketing at Marshall University in 2005. He is also a certified by the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and has been a member of the organization since 2002.

Will Davis
*Football Video Coordinator
(Winston-Salem State '99)*

Will Davis begins his 11th season as the football video coordinator at East Carolina University in the fall, a newly-created position he accepted in the summer of 2006.

The New Bern native returned to North Carolina after spending four years as Tulane's Director of Video Operations. He and his staff provided videography and editing services for practices and games, and produced highlight and recruiting videos for the Green Wave's 16-sport athletics program.

Davis came to Tulane from the University of Wisconsin, where he spent 2001-2002 as assistant video coordinator. The previous year, Davis worked as both assistant and interim video director for the Memphis Maniax of the XFL. Prior to his brief stay in western Tennessee, he was a graduate assistant at the University of Houston in 2000.

The four-time conference video coordinator-of-the-year began his career as a student at Winston-Salem State, where he ran the football video operations as a full-time student while also assisting at nearby Wake Forest. He worked at the on-campus radio station where he was an audio technician and late-night DJ. Following graduation, he worked with the Greensboro Prowlers of the Arena Football League for one year.

Malcolm Gray
*Director of Athletics Communications
(East Carolina, '96)*

Malcolm Gray is in his 12th year as a full-time member of the East Carolina Athletics Communications Staff, serving as the secondary football publicist and primary media contact for the baseball program.

Gray enters his ninth season working with the football team (2004-09, 2012-present), assisting in all aspects of public relations for a Pirate program that won back-to-back Conference USA titles (2008-09) and appeared in seven bowl games. He was instrumental in helping East Carolina earn a pair of Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) "Super 11" Awards for media relations services in 2009 and 2014.

The Greenville, N.C. native and 1996 ECU graduate worked as the summer press officer with USA Baseball in 2010 where the Collegiate National Team (CNT) posted a 16-3 record and finished second at the V FISU World University Championships in Tokyo, Japan. A year later, he ran the press services at the USA Baseball National Training Complex in Cary, N.C. for the 2011 Tournament of Stars and 18U National Team Trials, which captured gold at the COPABE 18U/AAA Pan American Championships in Cartagena, Columbia.

Gray, who completed his master's degree in sports management in 2004, has also worked on the media relations committees at the 2002 and 2003 NCAA Women's Soccer College Cup (Cary, N.C.), 2004 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament (Raleigh, N.C.), 2009 BCS National Championship Game (Miami, Fla.) and most recently at the 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016 College World Series (Omaha, Neb.).

He is a member of the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) where he serves as the president, is on the Board of Directors and acts as the AAC's national voting member.

Gray is also a long time member of College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), FWAA and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association (USBWA).

Addison Harvey

Football Video Operations Coordinator
(East Carolina '11)

A member of East Carolina University's video production team since his arrival in 2007, Addison Harvey is the coordinator of football video operations – a position he was elevated into in July of 2014.

Harvey handles video editing and organization of film for ECU's football program, while producing recruiting tapes and managing student workers in the department.

Harvey was a four-year undergraduate student assistant with the video department from 2007-11, before being hired as a graduate assistant from 2011-14 and eventually promoted to his current position.

A Greenville, N.C. native, Harvey earned his bachelor's degree in communication at East Carolina in 2011, before completing his master's degree in recreational services and interventions at his alma mater in 2014. He is a member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association.

Harvey married his wife Lauren in June of 2012 and the couple are the parents of a son, Logan, who was born in April, 2016.

Tom McClellan

Assistant Athletics Director for Communications (Sam Houston State '87)

Tom McClellan is in his 13th year heading the East Carolina athletics communications division after an eight-year tenure as Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations at Georgia Southern University.

His efforts at ECU were publicly recognized in 2009 and 2014 as a Super 11 Team Member (top 11 FBS sports information offices for outstanding services provided) by the Football Writers Association of America after working primarily with the Eagles' six-time national champion football program while at GSU.

McClellan spent four years as Sports Information Director at Stetson (Fla.) University from 1992 to 1996 where he served as media coordinator for the First and Second Rounds of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Southeast Regional at Orlando Arena in 1993 and 1996.

McClellan, 51, earned his B.A. in journalism/public relations from Sam Houston State University in 1987. In 1997, he was the recipient of SHSU's Distinguished Journalism Alumni Award.

McClellan is married to the former Joanne Langseth of Deer Park, Texas, and the couple are the parents of daughter Jessica – a sophomore at UNC Wilmington.

Jake Moore

Head Football Athletic Trainer
(Iowa State '04)

Jake Moore is in his fifth season as head football athletic trainer after returning to the East Carolina Sports Medicine Staff in a full-time role in 2010.

Prior to coming back to Greenville, where he earned his master's degree in 2007, Moore spent two years as an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Kansas. He originally went to Lawrence as an intern for the 2007-08 season and was elevated to full-time status.

While with the Jayhawks, Moore assisted with the day-to-day operations of the athletic training room as well as helping with treatments, rehabilitation and the preparation of practice. He worked directly with the KU football program and provided sports medicine supervisory duties for women's rowing.

During his time at East Carolina as a graduate student, Moore was responsible for men's soccer in 2005, off-season baseball in 2005, 2006 and 2007, and assisted with in-season football during the 2006 campaign.

He also served as a mentor for undergraduate athletic training students.

Moore gained additional experience working as an intern with the Minnesota Vikings (2004-05) and Indianapolis Colts (2003) of the National Football League.

The National Athletic Trainers' Association member is a 2004 graduate of Iowa State University with a bachelor of science in exercise sport science. As a clinical athletic training student, Moore worked primarily with the women's swimming and diving and volleyball programs as well as assisting with football. He also earned a letter on the Cyclones' wrestling team.

Moore is married to the former Kate Gordon, who currently serves as an assistant coach on ECU's swimming and diving staff.

Vienna, Va. (Oakton)

Expected to contend for a starting role for the second-straight campaign, likely at the "rush" outside linebacking position in the Pirates' tweaked 3-4 scheme ... Work ethic and assignment-sound approach continues to fuel rapid development after earning initial roster slot as a walk-on in the fall of 2013 ... Made most of early opportunity by impressing coaching staff as an award-winning scout team performer before contributing significantly to the defensive unit as a top reserve in 2014 and ultimately winning starting job during sophomore season in 2015 ... Also handled top-tier special teams role as a redshirt freshman to earn additional reps ... Efforts and dedication were rewarded by "promotion" to full-scholarship status during the summer of 2015 ... In all, has appeared in 24 career games (nine starts) and recorded 59 tackles (22 solo) ... Has booked at least one stop in 19 contests and tallied multiple tackles on 14 occasions (six in 2014, 8 in 2015) ... Opened spring scrimmage schedule with three hits on April 9 ... Added another stop during the Purple-Gold Game on April 16 ... Stellar work in strength and conditioning program earned "Iron Pirate" rating at the conclusion of spring testing ... Owns some of the top strength numbers among all linebackers, recording lifts of 365 pounds (bench), 510 (squat), 300 (push jerk) and 275 (power clean) ... Turned in a 4.34 pro shuttle clip and possesses one of the top three-cone drill times in unit at 7.0. 2015: Was among Pirates' top 10 tacklers with 38 (14 solo) ... Played in 11 games with nine starts ... Did not experience action at BYU (concussion) and came off the bench in back-to-back contests against Tulsa and Temple in mid-October ... Made first collegiate start in opener vs. Towson and booked five stops ... Also tallied 2.0 TFLs, 1.5 sacks (Connecticut, UCF), a forced fumble (UCF), QB hurry (USF) and batted pass (Navy) ... Produced five or more tackles in first four outings, which included a career-best eight during ECU's 35-28 win vs. Virginia Tech at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium ... Followed Towson performance with another five hits at Florida before logging seven at Navy in American Conference opener ... Once fully recovered from concussion injury, closed campaign with 12 tackles in final four contests (four each vs. Connecticut and USF, two each vs. UCF and Cincinnati) ... Contributed first career sack vs. Huskies and first career forced fumble at UCF ... Added second QB drop against Knights which produced initial ball strip ... Splits include a 32-tackle total on rushing plays (six on passing plays) ... Chosen as one of four game captains against Midshipmen in Annapolis and responded by establishing personal-best with five solo hits ... Did not record statistics in contests vs. SMU and Temple. 2014: Appeared in all 13 games as a member of special teams unit and a reserve linebacker ... Booked 21 total stops (eight solo) ... Stood seventh among all special teams tacklers with four (3/KO, 1/PR) ... Registered multiple stops six times with a career-best four against North Carolina and Tulane ... Tallied at least one tackle in 10 of 13 contests ... Made collegiate debut against N.C. Central, booking a solo tackle and recovering a fumble on Johnathon White's hit in the second quarter at the Eagles' two-yard line (which set up Justin Hardy's one-yard TD grab) ... Named one of five game captains at South Carolina where he posted a pair of stops ... Three of four tackles against *the Tar Heels at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium came in the second quarter (in the same series) ... Recorded first career TFL by dropping UNC's Jack Tabb for a three-yard loss ... All four hits against Green Wave came as assisted stops ... Credited with three tackles and one of ECU's five quarterback hurries at Cincinnati ... Experienced significant action in a reserve linebacking role in the Pirates' final five games (Cincinnati, Tulane, Tulsa, UCF, Florida) ... Logged solo hit and an assist against the Gators at Legion Field during the Birmingham Bowl ... Returned first career kickoff (14 yards) just before halftime at USF on a squib kick ... Did not record any stats against SMU, Tulsa or UCF. 2013: Redshirted during true rookie campaign ... Selected as the program's defensive scout team player-of-the-year (Rick Bankston Memorial Award) during ECU's annual awards banquet. High School: Earned three letters for coach Jason Rowley at Oakton ... Also served as a team captain ... Ranked fifth among all state of Virginia pass rushers in sacks as a senior ... Helped lead OHS to a regional title in 2012. Personal: Full name is Joseph Bayard Allely ... Born May 21, 1995 at Washington, D.C. ... Major is psychology ... Henderson (Northern Vance)

A compact and powerful ball-carrier who opened the eyes of ECU's new coaching staff during the spring after an introductory redshirt freshman campaign in 2015 ... In addition to experiencing action on an array of special teams squads, should also compete for added repetitions in a crowded backfield – especially in short-yardage and/or goal line situations ... Rushed five times (one yard) in first spring scrimmage on April 9 before following with an eight-carry, 46-yard ground performance in the Purple-Gold Game on April 16 ... Also caught one pass for 14 yards during the spring finale ... Turned in impressive strength and conditioning testing numbers to earn both "Super Pirate" status and a "freak" rating in coach Jeff Connor's power quotient ... Ranked among top 10 percent of program in the bench press (410 pounds), back squat (545), power clean (352), vertical jump (33"), 40 time (4.40) and three-cone drill (6.89) ... Additionally, turned in a push jerk of 333, completed 21 reps of 225 pounds on the bench and clocked 4.18 and 11.56 clips in the pro shuttle and long shuttle, respectively. 2015: Played in 11 games, primarily as a special teams contributor during first active campaign in ECU program ... Experienced additional action in backfield as running back, most notably in American Athletic Conference tilts against Navy and SMU ... In all, averaged 9.0 yards per carry after picking up 45 yards on five attempts ... Established a season-high with 32 yards on just two runs vs. Midshipmen (16.0 ypr), with a long of 17 ... Set a personal-best in carries with three against Mustangs in Dallas two weeks later ... Had two six-yard runs and a one-yarder during fourth-quarter action vs. SMU ... Made collegiate debut against Towson in the opener, but did not record any statistics ... Did not play in season finale vs. Cincinnati. 2014: Earned initial roster position as an invited walk-on ... Turned in a noteworthy performance as a reliable scout squad member as a true freshman, but did experience game-day action. High School: A three-year letterman and all-conference (3-A Big) selection for coach Eric Watkins at Northern Vance High School ... Could also make significant contributions as a member of the special teams unit ... Officially enrolled early at ECU in January of 2014 after signing a grant-in-aid with the program (instead of a letter-of-intent per NCAA policy) ... Tallied a four-yard catch during the first spring scrimmage of 2016 (April 9), yet did not record a reception in the Purple-Gold Game on April 16 ... Earned "good" rating (via power quotient) during spring strength and conditioning testing period ... Recorded a bench press of 325 pounds, a front squat of 335 and a power clean of 294 ... Ran a 4.44 in the 40-yard dash, owns a 31" vertical jump and a flex rating of 13. 2015: Played in seven games during first season on Pirates' active roster, but did not record any receiving or special teams statistics ... Appeared in contests against SMU, BYU, Tulsa, Temple, Connecticut, USF and UCF. 2014: Redshirted during initial season in ECU program and contributed efforts on scout team ... Signed with the Pirates in February, but reported early as previously mentioned to allow participation in spring drills. High School: A three-year letterman for Coach Mike Castellano at Middle Creek High School ... Played in a similar offensive scheme and package during prep career that East Carolina previously utilized ... Experienced limited action as a senior because of a lower leg injury, but still made 40 receptions for 759 yards and 13 TDs in just seven games ... Selected to play in the prestigious Shrine Bowl and represented North Carolina (vs. South Carolina) ... Recorded 45 catches for 850 yards and eight touchdowns as a junior in 2012 to help guide the Mustangs to an 11-2 overall record and a perfect 8-0 Tri-Nine 4-A Conference ledger ... A first-team all-conference honoree after junior campaign ... Earned scout grade of 73 and was ranked among the top 55 players in the state by ESPN.com ... Also recruited by Boston College ... "Acceleration ability despite size" was cited in numerous recruiting publications ... Officially committed to*

East Carolina on Aug. 18, 2013 ... Picked up additional varsity letters in basketball. Personal: Full name is Curtis Tysim Burston ... Major is criminal justice ... A strong academic performer, earning ECU Honor Roll inclusion on multiple occasions.

Ponte Vedra, Fla. (Ponte Vedra)

Expected to return to the Pirates' depth chart in 2016 following a non-traditional redshirt campaign that was precipitated by a nagging left leg injury ... Appears to have bounced back in strong fashion under new coaching staff and should be in a position to compete for two-deep status at one of the inside linebacking spots or as a top-tier member of various special teams units ... A fundamentally-sound and intense tackler who was thrown into the fire as a true freshman in 2014 when he provided ECU with additional depth at linebacker and as a special teams stalwart ... Enjoyed active spring scrimmage performances, booking five stops during the first outing on April 9 before following with four hits in the Purple-Gold Game (April 16) ... Turned in an award-winning effort in the strength and conditioning program's spring testing phase, earning MVP honors, an "excellent" rating (power quotient) and "Super Pirate" status ... Ranked among top 10 percent of position in the bench press (435 pounds), back squat (600), 40-yard dash (4.54), vertical jump (36"), broad jump (10"), three-cone drill (6.98) and flex rating (14) ... Other numbers of note include a 318-pound power clean, a push jerk of 318, 25 reps of 225 pounds on the bench and a pro shuttle clip of 4.2. 2015: Suffered through an injury-plagued season, which actually began in the spring with a left leg ailment that prevented full scrimmage competition ... Decision for redshirt year was made during fall camp when recovery remained delayed and not progressing as team medical personnel had anticipated ... Did not appear in any game day action and contributions on scout team were limited, if not non-existent. 2014: Played 12 games as a member of special teams units (DNP vs. North Carolina) ... Made collegiate debut against N.C. Central in the Pirates' season opener ... Booked nine tackles (three solo), all on special teams (eight on kickoff returns, one on a punt return) ... Nine tackle total ranked second among all special teams players ... Recorded at least one tackle in four contests ... Booked multiple-stops on three occasions ... Credited with a career-best three hits twice (at Cincinnati, at Tulsa) ... Other multi-tackle game was against Connecticut at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium ... Finished year on a high note, racking up seven stops in the last five games (only two in first seven outings) ... Officially inked with ECU during the traditional signing day (period) in February. High School: Racked up 75 total tackles (36 solo) during senior season at Ponte Vedra High School ... Also credited with one sack, one fumble recovery, two pass breakups and one blocked punt for veteran coach Mike Lloyd in 2013 ... Netted 56 stops, an interception (vs. Palatka), two sacks and another blocked punt (vs. Orange Park) as a junior to help the Sharks post a 9-2 record and cap a run of back-to-back district titles ... Top effort of 2012 was an eight-tackle performance against Orange Park and also produced a pair of seven-stop outings vs. rivals Nease and Matanzas ... Started six games as a sophomore and totaled 45 tackles, a pick and a punt block ... In all, picked up three football letters and was a team captain ... Also recruited by Air Force and Virginia before committing to the Pirates on June 28 ... Transferred to Ponte Vedra after opening his prep career at Warsaw (Ind.) Community High School ... Was PVHS's representative for the Pursuing Victory with Honor program in St. John's (Fla.) County and maintained a grade point average over 3.0. Personal: Full name is Josiah Michael Carter ... Born July 4, 1995 at Lewisville, Texas ... Son of Michael and Abigail Carter ... A marketing major who has earned ECU Honor Roll status for work in the classroom ... Hobbies include music (playing the drums) and hunting.

District Heights, Md. (Iowa Western CC)

A savvy and physical lineman whose remarkable progress during the spring practice period has provided new coaching staff with optimism about production on defensive line of scrimmage ... Closed drills penciled in as the projected starter at one of the end positions (opposite of Fred Presley) ... Developing strength numbers, acclimation to scheme and retention of on-field instruction have all been cited as reasons for rapid climb on unit's depth chart ... Booked three tackles in the first spring scrimmage (April 9) ... Tallied a stop for lost yardage (~3 yards) during the Purple-Gold Game on April 16 ... Named team's most improved defensive player by coaching staff at the conclusion of spring workouts ... Growth in strength and conditioning program remains a steady work in progress, but did produce notables such as a 345-pound bench press, a 510-pound back squat, a 5.14 time in the 40, a 54" shot put toss, a 13 flex rating, 4.60 and 7.47 clips in the pro shuttle and three-cone drill, respectively. 2015: Played in 10 games off the bench as a top reserve on the defensive line during first year on ECU roster ... Recorded 10 tackles (four solo) and a batted pass (Towson) ... Produced at least one stop in seven contests with a season-high four during the Pirates' 35-28 triumph over Virginia Tech at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium ... Posted single hits against Florida, SMU, Tulsa, Temple, Connecticut and Cincinnati ... Eight of 10 tackles were on rushing attempts (two vs. the pass) ... Not credited with a tackle in outings vs. Towson, BYU and UCF ... Did not experience action at Navy and against USF ... Was a late newcomer to ECU's 2015 signing class, officially inking with the Pirate program on February 27. Junior College: Tallied 63 tackles, three sacks and an interception to help Iowa Western to an 11-1 record in 2014 ... Performance of note was a 13-tackle, two-sack outing against Coffeyville (Kan.) CC during a 57-35 victory ... Also reportedly offered by Iowa State at conclusion of junior college career ... Initially signed with Georgia Tech and was redshirted during the 2013 campaign before leaving the Yellow Jacket program in July, 2014. High School: Rated a three-star defensive lineman out of Bishop McNamara by several recruiting publications ... Earned selection to the PrepStar All-Atlantic Region squad ... Invited to play in the 2012 Chesapeake Bowl ... Reportedly had over 20 scholarship offers after high school career before signing with Georgia Tech. Personal: Born Jan. 14, 1995 ... Son of Darrell Commissiong and the late Darice Stanback ... Has one sibling, sister Dianni ... A university studies major.

Fayetteville (Jack Britt)

A return to good health and arrival of new coaching staff should pave the way for a productive sophomore season, primarily as a top contributor on the offensive line and as a potential special teams blocker (kicking squads) ... Earlier development was delayed by a seven month hiatus because of a heel injury during rookie campaign ... Has had three different line coaches during three years in program, but appears to have responded most favorably to new mentor Geep Wade ... Officially listed on the preseason depth chart as a backup to all-conference performer J.T. Boyd at right guard, but versatility could allow for snaps at center position as well ... Effort and subsequent progress in strength and conditioning program during the spring was rivaled by few ... Earned "Iron Pirate" designation for accomplishments during testing phase ... Produced lifts of 380 pounds (bench press), 605 (back squat), 284 (power clean), 286 (push jerk) ... The 605-pound squat total alone marked an improvement of 220 pounds from the previous spring ... Also completed 20 reps of 225 pounds on the bench press ... Additionally, turned in a 7.91 three-cone drill and a 54" shot put toss ... Flex rating of 15 ranks among top percent of position mates. 2015: Played in 11 of 12 games as a reserve on offensive line and on special teams during redshirt freshman campaign ... Did not experience action vs. Temple ... Held out of spring drills because of heel injury, but resumed full workout schedule once cleared by sports medicine staff on April 20. 2014: Redshirted during true freshman season ... Made valuable contributions to the scout squad until suffering a right heel injury on Sept. 24 (which kept him out of action for the remainder of the year) ... Signed with ECU in February. High School: A three-time all-conference and a two-time all-region selection at Jack Britt High School ... Also earned all-state honors as a senior team captain for coach Brian Rimpf, who was a three-year All-Conference USA lineman at East Carolina and former NFL (Baltimore Ravens) performer ... Helped Buccaneers capture regional (2012) and conference (2013) titles ... Was chosen to represent North Carolina in the prestigious Shrine Bowl after his senior campaign ... Lettered a total of four seasons as a tackle, experiencing action with the varsity squad as a freshman ... Pair of all-region accolades came from the Fayetteville Observer ... An integral member of a Britt offensive unit that generated a Cumberland County-best 5,422 yards of total offense ... Picked up additional letters in track and basketball ... A member of the Jack Britt High School's A-B Honor Roll as a freshman, sophomore and junior. Personal: Full name is Kyle Morgan

Erickson ... Born May 26, 1996 at Watertown, N.Y. ... Son of Kevin and Brenda Erickson ... A criminal justice major who has earned ECU Honor Roll status for work in the classroom ... Chose East Carolina because of the players in the program, the emphasis on academics and the game-day atmosphere of Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium ... Older sister Heather is a two-time Paralympic Silver Medalist (sitting volleyball) ... Lists hunting and fishing as top hobbies.

Red Springs (Red Springs)

A consummate "team-first" member of the Pirate program, who unfortunately had to deal with an abundance of physical setbacks – primarily a nagging left knee injury that has limited play to just six career games ... A two-time recipient of the defensive unit's Scout Team Player-of-the-Year Award (2012, 2014) ... Lost valuable development time after initially suffering the injury during spring practice in 2013, which was also extended throughout the regular season ... Recovered to experience action in five contests as a sophomore in 2014 and participated in drills the following spring before re-injuring same knee prior to the 2015 campaign, thus ending all hopes for action during junior season ... After remaining sidelined in the spring of 2016, sports medicine personnel are optimistic for another return this fall, and if so, will open preseason camp competing for a place on the two-deep at one of the inside linebacking positions and a role on special teams ... Despite ailments, has participated in both bowl games (2013, 2014) while on the active roster ... Participated in limited strength and conditioning testing during the spring, turning in a bench press of 360 pounds and posting 19 reps of 225 pounds ... Flex rating of 15 ranked among top 10 percent of linebacking corps ... Owned agility marks of 37.5" (vertical jump), 10'0.5" (broad jump) and a 4.10 clip in the pro shuttle before second injury. 2015: Spent entire season on disabled list after re-injuring left knee after completion of spring drills ... Posted seven tackles, including a TFL, and a fumble recovery in three spring scrimmages prior to injury. 2014: Played in five contests as a sophomore – Cincinnati, Tulane, Tulsa, UCF and Florida (Birmingham Bowl) ... Did not experience action in the first eight games of the season ... Was not credited with any statistics ... As previously mentioned, was the defensive winner of the 2014 Rick Bankston Memorial Award (symbolic of top scout team player) during the team's annual honors banquet. 2013: Missed entire regular season because of a left knee injury suffered during the spring ... Returned to experience action in the Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl at Tropicana Field, but did not record any statistics. 2012: Turned in an award-winning effort as a member of the Pirates' development squad during redshirt campaign as a true freshman, earning recognition as the Defensive Scout Team Player-of-the-Year by coaching staff ... Signed with Pirate program in February. High School: A three-year letterwinner at Red Springs who helped turn around the Red Devils' program and guide it to a 10-3 record and 4-1 mark in the Three Rivers Conference as a senior ... Team advanced to the quarterfinals of the North Carolina High School Athletic Association (NCHSAA) 1AA state championship after posting a 3-8 record as a junior and 1-10 ledger during sophomore season ... Helped Red Springs capture a pair of playoff victories as a senior, the school's first postseason wins since 2005 ... Played primarily as a defensive end first two years before moving to linebacker as a senior ... A First-Team All-Three Rivers Conference, The Robesonian All-Robeson County Team, NCPreps.com 1A All-State Team and Fayetteville Observer All-Cape Fear Region Second-Team honoree following final campaign ... Talled 132 tackles, including 17 stops for lost yardage and 13 sacks, during the 2011 season ... Also contributed six forced fumbles ... Prior to senior year, placed on the NCPreps.com Preseason 1A All-State Team ... Booked 78 tackles and a team-high six sacks as a junior, when the team went 3-2 in the league ... Earned All-Three Rivers Conference accolades after junior campaign ... During first year with Red Springs, earned defense's most valuable player award ... Spent freshman year at Scotland High School in the junior varsity program ... Played for head coach George Coltharp as a senior, Eric Puryear as a junior and John Harper as a sophomore ... Also was a member of the Red Devils' basketball program. Personal: Full name is Drayvon T. Fairley ... Born June 18, 1994 at Washington, D.C. ... Participated in ECU's Spring Commencement Exercises on May 6 after earning a bachelor's degree in criminal justice ... Enjoys playing the guitar, art and music.

1 Deondre Farrier

Wide Receiver
6-1 • 187 • Fr-RS
Orlando, Fla. (Lake Nona)

A highly-regarded receiver who is expected add another dynamic dimension to an already deep and talented pool of pass catchers ... Brings impressive prep credentials into first year on ECU's active roster ... Should initially contend for extensive playing time as a top reserve behind national honors candidate Zay Jones at the "Z" receiving position, but new coaching staff also feels additional contributions can be made at other slots, in specific per-game packages and as a member of various special teams unit ... Spring progress was slowed slightly after missing two weeks because of a concussion ... Did experience action in final scrimmage, making one catch for seven yards during the Purple-Gold Game on April 16 ... Strength and conditioning numbers are at its infancy, given only one spring testing period of experience ... Numbers of note include a 264-pound power clean, a 33" vertical jump, a 4.42 time in the 40-yard dash, a 7.02 clip in the three-cone drill and a 11.7 mark in the long shuttle ... Already has become one of the more popular Pirate players, thanks to personality and willingness to engage in frequent community relations activities (hospital visits most notably). 2015: Redshirted during true freshman season ... Contributed valuable role as a member of the offensive scout squad, helping prepare Pirate defensive backs on a weekly basis for many spread-based units in the American Athletic Conference ... Signed with ECU program during traditional February signing period. High School: A Parade All-America (honorable mention) choice after three illustrious seasons at Lake Nona ... Helped Lions to an 8-3 overall record and a 5-1 district mark as a senior ... Hauled in a state-record 118 receptions for an Orange County standard 1,850 yards and 22 touchdowns in 2014 for head coach Anthony Paradiso ... Averaged 16 yards per grab and nearly 170 yards per game during senior year ... Tallied a single-game career-best 18 catches for 205 yards against Lakeland, also as a senior ... Other games of note were a 13-reception, 291-yard, three-touchdown effort vs. Celebration and a 14-catch outing in the season finale against Emerald ... Earned Florida Class 7A All-State honors (third team) ... Logged 55 receptions for 939 yards and seven TDs as a junior after securing 43 receptions for 604 yards and three scores during sophomore campaign ... In all, amassed 3,393 yards and 32 touchdowns on 216 catches during varsity career ... Played key role in Lake Nona's 8-2 regular season record in 2013 ... Opened prep career at Edgewater (Fla.) High School in 2011-2012 before transferring to LNHS ... Scouting publications cited athleticism and play-making ability as top on-the-field qualities ... Listed as a Top 500 regional prospect by ESPN.com ... Ranked among the Top 20 receivers in Florida and 86th nationally by Scout.com ... Also a Top 10 member of the Orlando Sentinel's Central Florida Super 60 and stood No. 54 in the Sentinel's Florida Top 100 ... Earned receiver MVP honors at the Orlando Nike Football Training Camp ... Clocked at 4.48 in the 40-yard dash at the Under Armour All-American Combine ... Officially committed to the Pirates on December 9, 2014 after considering other reported offers from Southeastern Conference members Florida and Kentucky, along with Miami (Fla.) and Southern Cal. Personal: Full name is Deondre Rashad Farrier ... Son of Benita Foster ... Has not formally declared a major.

8 Bobby Fulp

Defensive Back
6-4 • 198 • Jr-2L
Midlothian, Va. (Clover Hill)

Continues to be an emerging performer in the defensive secondary who has climbed the two-deep since earning a roster position as a true freshman in the fall of 2013 ... Expected to bounce back from a shoulder injury and content for the starting strong safety position during preseason camp in 2016 ... Competed for a top designation at the boundary cornerback slot to open sophomore campaign, but versatility enabled move to safety ... Will also be counted on to possibly handle roles on various special teams, similar to first pair of seasons in program (which resulted in additional game-day reps) ... An agile and knowledgeable playmaker who possesses a stellar work ethic ... Was promoted to scholarship status during fall camp prior to the 2015 season opener ... Has played in 24 career contests, all off the bench (secondary reserve) or as a member of special teams ... Tallied 21 stops (14 solo) and picked off one pass ... Nine tackles have come during special teams action ... Held out of spring workouts because of a shoulder injury, yet sports medicine staff is confident for full clearance heading into the season ... Did not participate in strength and conditioning testing during the off-season because of the aforementioned injury, yet still owns one of the position's top pro shuttle and three-cone drill times with 4.01 and 6.89 clips, respectively, in addition to one of the top vertical leaps in the program (39.5") ... Earlier power numbers include a bench press of 295 pounds, a back squat of 400 and a power clean of 274. 2015: Played in all 12 contests as a full-time reserve at strong safety and as a top-tier member of the special teams unit ... Collected 18 tackles (13 solo) ... Logged stops in nine contests and was credited with multiple hits on four occasions ... Picked up 15 tackles in first six outings (2.5 tpg) before nagging shoulder injury limited effectiveness in final six games (three/0.5 tpg) ... Turned in a career-best four stops twice (Navy, BYU) ... Booked three hits vs. Virginia Tech, two vs. Florida and single tackles against Towson, SMU, Tulsa, Temple and UCF ... Credited with seven special teams stops (five on kickoff returns, two on punt returns) ... Of the 11 tackles on defense, eight came on rushing plays ... Picked off first career pass at Florida and returned it two yards (which helped set up an ECU touchdown in the third quarter) ... Did not record statistics in outings vs. Connecticut, USF and Cincinnati ... A two-time game captain (Florida, BYU). 2014: Appeared in 12 games as a member of the special teams unit and as a reserve in the Pirate secondary ... Overall, credited with three tackles (one solo) ... Two stops were made on special teams (one each on a kickoff and punt return) ... Experienced action in the ECU secondary at Tulsa following an injury to starter Lamar Ivey ... Recorded only defensive stop (solo) against the Golden Hurricane at Chapman Stadium ... Formally elevated to two-deep status prior to regular season finale against UCF and maintained standing for the Birmingham Bowl clash against Florida ... Did not play at South Carolina. 2013: Earned roster position as a walk-on ... Was redshirted during initial campaign in ECU program but was considered a valuable member of the developmental (scout) team. High School: Earned three varsity football letters at Clover Hill School ... Played on both sides of the ball during prep career (quarterback/wide receiver on offense, secondary on defense) ... Also lettered as a track standout. Personal: Full name is Edward Norris Fulp II, but prefers to be called Bobby ... Major is industrial distribution and logistics.

Washington, D.C. (Calvin Coolidge)

Expected to continue upward climb as a senior, moving from a full-time contributor off the bench into a possible starting position ...

Penciled in as a viable candidate to become ECU's top "rush" (outside) linebacker on the preseason two-deep if full comeback from back injury is completed ... Could also offer efforts on scout teams depending on final defensive assignment ... Paid early dues as a stalwart special teams catalyst after gaining respectable reps as a redshirt freshman in 2013 before earning tackle title as a specialist in 2014 ... Possesses a good mix of strength, speed and agility ... Has played in 27 career games and booked 49 tackles (28 solo) ... Registered multiple stops 14 times (two/2013, nine/2014, three/2015) ... Twenty (20) of 49 hits have come as a member of special teams unit ... Held out of contact during first two weeks of spring drills because of a back injury, but returned to lineup to produce impressive performances in each scrimmage ... Booked four stops, including two for lost yardage and a sack, during first contest on April 9 ... Added four more hits and TFL during Purple-Gold Game on April 16 ... Did not participate in spring strength and conditioning testing (injury) ... Displayed the most improvement among all linebackers during the spring testing period as a sophomore, owning a 330-pound bench press, 445-pound back squat, a 308-pound power clean, 32.5" vertical leap and a 101" broad jump ... Also trimmed times in the 40-yard dash (4.62 to 4.54), pro shuttle (4.46 to 4.09) and the three-cone drill (7.10 to 6.98).

2015: Experienced action in six contests and made one start ... Opened first career game at UCF and helped Pirates to a 44-7 road win ... Did not play in first six tilts, but returned to action as a reserve outside linebacker and member of special teams in the final six contests ... Credited with 10 tackles (four solo) ... Also had a fumble recovery (third quarter) and quarterback pressure (fourth quarter) against Knights ... Recorded a season-high four stops at Connecticut and followed with a three-hit outing vs. USF ... Made one tackle at UCF and tallied a pair of stops in season finale against Cincinnati ... Eight tackles came on rushing plays, one on a pass and one on kickoff coverage ... Selected as a team captain prior to the USF clash at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium. 2014: Appeared in 12 of 13 games (did not play against Connecticut) as a key linebacking reserve and valuable special teams performer ... Tallied 33 tackles (20 solo) with a team-best 18 stops coming as a member of special teams unit (eight/on kickoff returns, eight/on punt returns) ... Recorded multiple tackles nine times with a career-best five at Cincinnati (two solo) ... Booked solo tackles for lost yardage against Tulane (-1 yard) and Tulsa (-2 yards) ... Registered four or more stops five times (quartet of four-tackle performances came against N.C. Central, North Carolina, SMU and USF) ... Experienced significant action as a reserve linebacker at Temple and Cincinnati ... Enjoyed strong finish with two or more tackles in the last five consecutive contests ... In games played, helped a unit that held seven opponents to less than 100 yards rushing (N.C. Central/70, Virginia Tech/91, SMU/51, USF/93, Connecticut/84, Temple/65, Tulane/24) and ranked 11th nationally in rush defense (111.8 ypg) ... Part of a Pirate defense that allowed just 32 fourth quarter points in American Athletic Conference action (outscored opponents 109-32). 2013: Selected to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team ... Played in nine contests in a reserve linebacking role and as a member of the special teams unit ... Tallied six tackles (four solo) ... Had multiple stops against Southern Miss (season-high three) and UAB (two) ... Made collegiate debut against Florida Atlantic, while netting first career tackle at Middle Tennessee ... Three of six stops were on special teams (kickoff return coverage) ... Also forced fumble against UAB at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium. 2012: Redshirted during true freshman campaign in the Pirate program ... Contributed valuable efforts as a member of the scout team after signing with East Carolina in February. High School: A two-way standout for the Colts who experienced action at both defensive end and wide receiver/tight end ... Senior squad was 8-3 and earned a berth in the D.C. Interscholastic Athletic Association championship game before falling to Dunbar 33-21 ... Coolidge posted a 4-1 league mark during final campaign ... Named to the Washington Post All-Met Team (honorable mention) as a senior after hauling in 27 passes for 484 yards and nine touchdowns ... Caught three TD passes against Anacostia to lead CHS to a 52-0 triumph ... Defensively, booked 62 tackles, including a season high of 12 in a regular-season contest versus Dunbar, a 43-42 setback ... Totaled 6.5 sacks for 58 yards lost and a pair of two-sack contests as a team captain ... Also contributed six pass breakups and two fumble recoveries ... After dropping first five games of junior season, helped Colts turn around campaign with wins in four of their last six games (4-2) ... Played for head coach Natalie Randolph, a receiver for six years with the D.C. Divas of the National Women's Football Association, and reportedly, the only female varsity football coach in the nation at that time ... Defensive Back

Norfolk, Va. (Lake Taylor)

A highly-regarded secondary performer who is projected to experience significant action during first season on ECU's active roster ... Listed on the Pirates' preseason two-deep as a top reserve at strong safety ... Athleticism and intensity could also result in a top-tier standing on various special teams units to offer additional game-day repetitions ... Development has benefitted from two spring practice periods (enrolled early as a true freshman in 2015) ... Posted three tackles and a pass deflection during first spring scrimmage with new coaching staff (April 9), but was not credited with any defensive statistics in Purple-Gold Game (April 16) ... While strength and conditioning testing results are still in its infancy based on short time in program, there were credible signs of growth reflected with a bench press of 280 pounds, a back squat of 385, a power clean of 252 and a push jerk of 262 ... Owns a 33.5" vertical jump, a 13.5 flex rating and a 6.89 time in the three-cone drill - a clip that ranked among the top 10 percent of position mates. 2015: Was redshirted as a true freshman ... Contributed noteworthy performance as a member of both the defensive and special teams scout squads ... Inked with the Pirates during the tradition February signing day period, but enrolled early and participated in spring drills (recording five tackles and an interception during scrimmage action). High School: A key performer on Lake Taylor's 15-0 state championship team under head coach Hank Sawyer in 2014 ... Earned First-Team Class 4A All-State accolades as both a receiver and defensive back during junior and senior seasons ... Also selected as the state of Virginia's Defensive Player-of-the-Year in 2014, and additionally, was a two-time conference MVP (2013, 2014) ... A four-year letterman who served as a senior team captain ... Recorded eight receptions for 97 yards, logged seven tackles and added a an 82-yard punt return for a touchdown against Salem in the state championship game ... Other contest of note came against Hanover during junior campaign where he passed and rushed for a touchdown, and was on receiving end of another score ... Posted 56 tackles, 24 pass breakups and four interceptions as a sophomore to help lead Lake Taylor to another perfect 15-0 mark and state title in 2012 ... Was an all-region choice in the defensive backfield during sophomore campaign ... Ranked as the No. 34 overall prospect and No. 3 defensive back in the state of Virginia by Scout.com ... Also held ranks of 14th (regionally) and 55th nationally at position by Scout.com ... Rated No. 2 among secondary personnel in Virginia (56th nationally) according to MaxPreps.com ... Reportedly received other offers from Penn State and Wisconsin ... Also lettered in baseball ... Strong academic performer with a No. 25 class standing and selection to Lake Taylor's Honor Roll all four years. Personal: Full name is Nhyre Quinerly ... Born April 23, 1997 at Norfolk, Va. ... Son of John and Nikosha Quinerly ... Father John lettered as a running back at Maury High School and Norfolk State, and serves as an assistant football coach at Lake Taylor High School ... Lists playing video games as hobby of choice ... An exercise physiology major.

High School: A two-year, two-way standout for coach Dan Morgan at Blythewood High School ... Racked up a combined 458 yards on 36 receptions with five touchdowns as a junior and senior ... Significantly contributed to the Bengals' 9-4 record in 2015 and run through the Class 4A Division II playoffs, which was capped by an appearance in the quarterfinal round ... Had nine receptions for 168 yards and two touchdowns during senior campaign ... Both scoring catches came during a 55-22 road win at Clover HS ... Defensively, played end and tallied 64 tackles (14 solo) with seven resulting in lost yardage ... Added a sack and turned in the longest fumble return in program history, a 79-yard scamper against Westwood HS ... Cited as one of the top tight ends in the Midlands area by The State ... Pulled down 27 catches for 290 yards and three TDs during junior season in 2014 ... Played sophomore season (2013) at Jack Britt HS in Fayetteville, N.C. ... Played under head coach (and former ECU standout) Brian Rimpf, helping the Terriers to a 9-4 overall record and a perfect 6-0 league ledger ... Ranked among the nation's top 100 tight ends according to 247Sports.com ... Also recruited by NC State before officially committing to East Carolina on January 31, 2016. Personal: Son of April Rambert.

Conference

The American Athletic Conference

#AmericanRising

The American Athletic Conference consists of 12 prestigious institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, East Carolina University, the University of Connecticut, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, the U.S. Naval Academy (in football only), the University of South Florida, Southern Methodist University, Temple University, Tulane University and the University of Tulsa.

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, the American Athletic Conference has written an impressive list of accomplishments, both in the competitive arena and the classroom.

In the course of its first three seasons, the American Athletic Conference has taken its place at the forefront of intercollegiate athletics, with a collection of national team and individual championships and football and men's and women's basketball postseason victories that place The American among the elite Division I FBS conferences.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams – UConn men's basketball in 2014 and UConn women's basketball in 2014, 2015 and 2016 – two New Year's Six bowl champions, and two individuals who have won NCAA titles, most recently SMU's Bryson Dechambeau, who was the 2015 national champion in men's golf. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, reached the semifinal and final rounds of the NIT, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered a top-10 finish at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championship.

In football, three American Athletic Conference teams were in the final College Football Playoff rankings of 2015, while two teams from The American were ranked in the top 20 of the final national polls in both 2013 and 2015. Eight of The American's 12 football teams played in bowl games to cap the 2015 season as Houston defeated Florida State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and Navy beat Pittsburgh in the Military Bowl. Houston's finish at No. 8 nationally gave The American a top-10 team in the final national polls for the second time in the league's three seasons. UCF finished No. 10 in the 2013 rankings after the Knights' Fiesta Bowl win against Baylor.

That kind of success has led to an across-the-board increase in football attendance. The American Athletic Conference had four of the top six teams in average attendance gain from 2015 to 2016, while the conference as a whole realized a 9.1-percent increase at the turnstiles. Cincinnati, Houston and Temple all set single-game attendance records at their respective facilities.

Under The American's banner, SMU advanced to the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship for the first time since 1993. UCF and Houston have both achieved top-10 rankings in baseball in the past two years. USF finished the 2014-15 season at No. 8 in the final men's golf national ranking. The UConn women's basketball team won its NCAA-record ninth, 10th and 11th national championships.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting. UConn basketball standout Breanna Stewart finished her career as the most decorated player in college basketball history as she was chosen as the consensus national player of the year for the third time and became the first player to be named four times as the Most Outstanding Player at the Final Four.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional sports as well. UCF quarterback Blake Bortles was selected by the Jacksonville Jaguars with the No. 3 pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. More recently, a number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer. The American has had two first-round picks in football in each of the last three seasons, while the conference produced four first-round picks, including the top three selections, in the 2016 WNBA Draft.

The American Athletic Conference holds media rights partnerships with ESPN and CBS Sports which provide the conference with outstanding national exposure on the two industry leaders in sports television. The football portion of the contract calls for nearly 90 percent of conference-controlled games on national broadcast or national cable platforms. The first American Athletic Conference Football Championship, which was played in 2015, was carried ABC as part of Championship Saturday.

In men's basketball, the television deal calls for all conference-controlled games to be televised, with more than 63 percent slotted for national broadcast or national cable – a minimum of 107 games. The entire postseason tournament is televised, including the championship game, which is on ABC or ESPN. Sixty percent of the American's women's basketball games are carried on national cable, regional sports networks or ESPN3, while the conference has a multi-year agreement with CBS Sports Network for coverage of select baseball games.

American Athletic Conference teams have access to the pinnacle of college football's postseason structure. An American representative would be chosen for the College Football Playoff semifinals if it is among the top four teams in the CFP selection committee's final ranking. Otherwise, the league would place its champion in a New Year's Bowl if it is ranked higher than the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference and the Sun Belt Conference.

Additionally, The American holds primary or secondary partnerships with 12 bowls for the current six-year cycle, ensuring multiple annual matchups against the nation's top conferences and providing desirable postseason destinations to member institutions and their fans.

The American Athletic Conference serves its membership from a state-of-the-art office located in Providence, R.I. The location of the conference headquarters – just steps from the city's Amtrak station and 10 minutes from T.F. Green International Airport – gives the conference easy access to its member schools.

The conference headquarters is equipped with a complete video production studio, which serves as the home of The American Digital Network, and small- and large-scale meeting rooms to accommodate the many coaches' and administrators' meetings held on-site each year.

Game 1

September 5, 2015
Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium, Greenville, N.C.

Towson	20
East Carolina	28

Greenville, N.C. – Senior running back Chris Hairston rushed for a career-high 154 yards and four touchdowns on 18 carries to lead East Carolina to a 28-20 non-conference win over Towson in the season opener for both teams at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium ... Hairston, who also hauled in a personal-best five pass receptions, averaged nearly nine yards (8.6) per attempt and became the first Pirate back to eclipse the 100-yard mark in an opener since 2009 ... The four scores were also the most by an ECU ball-carrier since Chris Johnson tallied four at Memphis in 2007 ... Blake Kemp, making his first career start, used a short but effective passing game with a 29-of-37, 230-yard performance to offer ECU balance offensively ... Although the Pirates racked up 440 yards, victory wasn't certain until junior strong safety Terrell Richardson's bone-jarring hit on Tigers' receiver Sam Gallahan knocked the ball loose on what appeared to be an apparent fourth-down catch at the Pirate 16-yard line with only 1:55 remaining in the contest ... Towson never led, but kept in striking distance behind a relentless rushing attack by Darius Victor (28-137) ... After East Carolina opened its biggest advantage of the night, 28-13 with 12:21 remaining in the fourth quarter on Hairston's final ground score of the game, the Tigers immediately answered with an 11-play, 75-drive that was capped with a one-yard TD plunge by quarterback Connor Frazier with 7:53 left ... Towson forced a three-and-out on ECU's next possession and followed by marching 44 yards down to the 16 before Richardson's game-preserving hit ... Although the Pirates did not commit a turnover, they were flagged for 102 yards.

Game 2

September 12, 2015
Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, Gainesville, Fla.

East Carolina	24
Florida	31

Gainesville, Fla. – Junior quarterback Blake Kemp passed for 333 yards and three scores, but a costly fumble at the Gator 30-yard line with 12 seconds remaining preserved Florida's 31-24 non-conference victory over East Carolina at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium ... For the second time in as many games against UF within an eight-month span, the Pirates rallied late by driving deep into Gator territory trailing by a touchdown before a turnover ended any hopes of a comeback ... After Kemp connected with Bryce Williams on a seven-yard TD pass with 3:04 remaining to pull ECU within seven, the Pirate defense forced a Florida punt after a three-and-out ... Kemp drove East Carolina down to the Gator 13-yard line, but lost his grip on a pass attempt during a second-and-10 snap and UF's Alex McCalister recovered the loose ball ... After a defensive struggle produced a 10-7 Florida halftime edge, ECU took its last lead of the game on Zay Jones' 27-yard scoring catch early in the third period ... The Gators answered with a Will Grier touchdown strike and a 39-yard interception return for a score by Jalen Tabor to close out the quarter with a 24-14 cushion ... Davis Plowman's 30-yard field goal pulled the Pirates to within seven before Kelvin Taylor's seven-yard TD jaunt appeared to put the game out of reach with 6:57 remaining ... While Kemp enjoyed success through the air, the Gators clamped down on the run - limiting ECU to -13 yards - the program's third-lowest single-game ground total in history ... Jones (14-135) and Williams (9-83) each enjoyed personal-best outings to date.

Game 3 September 19, 2015 Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, Annapolis, Md.

East Carolina	21
Navy	45

Annapolis, Md. — Navy's triple-option rushing attack generated 415 yards and six touchdowns to help the Midshipmen roll to a convincing 45-21 American Athletic Conference victory over East Carolina at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium ... The historic win, Navy's first as a league member, was also aided by scores on the Mids' first four possessions of the game to build a 28-14 halftime lead ... The Pirates, who dropped their first conference opener since 2007, were nearly as impressive offensively with 405 yards of total offense - 325 coming through the air on 36-of-49 passing by junior Blake Kemp ... After surrendering 249 ground yards in the opening 30 minutes, ECU's defense made adjustments to hold Navy scoreless on its first two drives after intermission ... However, Kemp's fumble on a sack at the Pirate 17-yard line in the waning moments of the third period, shifted the momentum back to Navy who used the short field to push its edge to 35-14 early in the fourth quarter before tacking on another TD and field goal on its last two possessions to close out the game ... Quarterback Keenan Reynolds (24-142, 5 TD) and fullback Chris Swain (29-123, 1 TD) combined for 265 rushing yards and all six of the Mids' touchdowns ... The loss spoiled another strong effort by ECU inside receiver Zay Jones, who reached double-digit reception and triple-digit yardage totals with a 10-catch, 130-yard day ... Navy averaged 6.6 yards per carry in the first half and was a perfect six-of-six on third down plays to set the tone early ... Tight end Bryce Williams had two TD catches for the Pirates.

Game 4 September 26, 2015 Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium, Greenville, N.C.

Virginia Tech.	28
East Carolina	35

Greenville, N.C. — East Carolina's quarterback tandem of Blake Kemp and James Summers were responsible for a combined 412 yards and all five touchdowns to spark the Pirates to a 35-28 non-conference triumph over Virginia Tech at rain-soaked Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium ... The victory was the second-straight vs. the Hokies and pushed ECU's win streak against Atlantic Coast Conference members to five in a row ... After a pair of turnovers put the Pirates in an early 14-0 deficit, Kemp calmly engineered and capped successive scoring drives with a three-yard run and an 11-yard toss to Trevon Brown to close out the first quarter ... Summers gave East Carolina an additional spark to open the second period, rushing for 44 yards and connecting with Quay Johnson on a 30-yarder to highlight an eight-play, 77-yard march that gave the Pirates a 21-14 halftime lead ... Summers, who ended up turning in the second-highest rushing total ever by an ECU quarterback with 169 yards on 21 carries, also reached triple-digit passing totals with 110 yards on five-of-eight completions ... His 26-yard touchdown throw to a diving Zay Jones early in the third quarter extended the Pirates' lead to 28-14 before he promptly answered a Virginia Tech score with a 41-yard scamper for his second ground TD of the afternoon ... Kemp was nine-of-12 for 118 yards through the air ... ECU punter Worth Gregory played a key role staving off a Virginia Tech comeback bid in the fourth quarter, pinning the Hokies back at their own five, four and six-yard lines with three boots in the final 12 minutes of the contest.

Game 5 October 3, 2015
Gerald J. Ford Stadium, Dallas, Texas

East Carolina	49
SMU	23

Dallas, Texas – An inspired and swarming Pirate defense limited SMU to a paltry 67 second-half yards, while the East Carolina offense rallied back from an early 16-point deficit with 42 unanswered points on the way to a 49-23 American Athletic Conference victory over the Mustangs at Gerald J. Ford Stadium ... ECU turned up the heat in the final 30 minutes, posting seven sacks and stuffing the SMU rushing attack to a total of three yards after intermission ... After Chad Hedlund's 36-yard field goal pushed the Mustang lead to 23-7 with 10:08 left in the second quarter, quarterback James Summers came off the bench to spark the comeback effort by engineering touchdown drives on six of the Pirates' last nine possessions of the contest ... Summers (27-yarder) and Chris Hairston (34) each tallied long scoring runs to trim the deficit to 23-21 at halftime before ECU quickly took the lead for good with Trevon Brown's 47-yard TD catch on the third snap of the third period ... Summers added another touchdown run and pass in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach ... Defensively, Montese Overton set an AAC single-game record with 4.0 sacks that produced a loss of 35 yards, while freshman Yiannis Bowden added 2.5 (-29) ... The Pirates also limited SMU to just two third-down conversions in 14 attempts.

Game 6 October 10, 2015
LaVell Edwards Stadium, Provo, Utah

East Carolina	38
BYU	45

Provo, Utah – Algernon Brown's fourth touchdown of the contest, a nine-yard run with 19 seconds remaining, spoiled a valiant East Carolina comeback attempt and lifted BYU to a 45-38 victory over the Pirates at LaVell Edwards Stadium ... Trailing 38-21 early in the fourth quarter, ECU used a pair of touchdowns and a field goal on three of its first four possessions of the period to produce a 38-38 deadlock ... Cougar quarterback Tanner Mangum, who left the game with an apparent injury late in the third stanza, returned to engineer a 10-play, 75-yard game-winning drive that Brown capped ... Pirate signal-caller Blake Kemp came off the bench on East Carolina's last possession of the first half to snap a run of 28 BYU points with a one-yard scoring toss to Trevon Brown with 0:06 left ... However, ECU lost its momentum after intermission with turnovers on its first three drives, two of which reached the inside the Cougar 40 ... In all, Kemp completed 28-of-36 passes for a 371 yards and two TDs ... The Pirates racked up 349 of their 518 total yards in the final 30 minutes, but were slowed by the trio of giveaways and converted only three (of 12) third down snaps.

Game 7

October 17, 2015

Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium, Greenville, N.C.

Tulsa	17
East Carolina	30

Greenville, N.C. – Senior cornerback Josh Hawkins' 100-yard interception return for a touchdown on Tulsa's first offensive possession set the early tone for a notable defensive performance that sparked East Carolina to a 30-17 American Athletic Conference win over the Golden Hurricane at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium ... The Pirates sailed out to a 23-0 lead after three quarters before Tulsa spoiled ECU's bid for its first shutout since 2000 with Zack Langer's one-yard scoring run with 12:13 to play ... The Golden Hurricane, who entered the contest ranked seventh nationally in total offense, were also stymied after Hawkins' pick-six with another turnover (fumble), a fourth-down stop and eight punts on their next 10 possessions ... East Carolina's offense sputtered as well with only 382 yards, but it capitalized on two short-field scoring opportunities following a fumble recovery at the Tulsa 29-yard line and a fourth-down stuff at the four-yard line ... Davis Plowman booted a career-high three field goals, the last a 41-yarder late in the third quarter to push the Pirates' lead to 23-0 ... ECU's pass rush was effective for the third straight week, netting four more sacks and registering nine quarterback pressures to go along with forcing 22 incomplete passes ... Chris Hairston, in addition to hauling in his first career TD reception with a 12-yarder from James Summers in the first quarter, rushed for a game-high 82 yards on 18 carries ... Summers was 11-of-16 for 127 yards in relief, while on defense, Zeek Bigger tallied a season-best 13 stops and 1.5 sacks.

Game 8

October 22, 2015

Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium, Greenville, N.C.

No. 22 Temple	24
East Carolina	14

Greenville, N.C. – Temple's vaunted defense and special teams unit rose to the occasion with a dominating second-half effort to lift the No. 22 Owls to a 24-14 American Athletic Conference victory over East Carolina at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium ... The triumph pushed Temple's perfect record to 7-0 and created comfortable separation in the league's East Division race ... The Owls netted six sacks and 10.0 tackles for lost yardage to hold ECU to its lowest scoring total to date, while also blocking a pair of punts to earn optimal field position ... The Pirates, despite being shutout in the second half for the first time since 2012, still enjoyed a 14-10 lead late in the fourth quarter before P.J. Walker connected with Robby Anderson on two critical pass plays – a 51-yarder and 23-yard scoring toss – to fuel a seven-play, 71-yard drive that gave Temple the lead for good with 3:31 remaining ... After picking up 89 first-half rushing yards, East Carolina could only muster six on 16 carries (0.4 ypc) in the final 30 minutes ... In the fourth period alone, while trying to manage the clock holding a four-point edge, the Pirates were stuffed for –5 ground yards and fumbled once inside Owl territory ... ECU outgained Temple 218-120 in the first half and used an efficient 13-play, 75-yard scoring march in 2:41 that Blake Kemp successfully finished with a seven-yard TD throw to Quay Johnson with 18 seconds left that gave the Pirates a lead at intermission ... The East Carolina defense was nearly as impressive, holding AAC leading rusher Jahad Thomas to only 66 yards on 20 attempts – 60 under his per-game average entering the evening ... The contest was also marred by a myriad of flags as the Owls (12-114) and Pirates (9-99) combined for over 200 penalty yards.

Game 9

October 30, 2015

Pratt & Whitney Stadium, East Hartford, Conn.

East Carolina	13
Connecticut	31

East Hartford, Conn. – While Arkeel Newsome's 179-yard, two-touchdown rushing effort highlighted the offensive attack, it was the Huskies' defense that spearheaded Connecticut's 31-17 American Athletic Conference win over East Carolina at Pratt & Whitney Stadium ... The Pirates were held to their lowest passing total since 2012 after managing just 137 air yards, plus were intercepted a season-high four times - three inside the UConn 35-yardline ... Holding a slim 10-6 halftime lead, the Huskies clamped down on ECU's offense in a game-deciding third quarter by surrendering only 25 ground yards ... The Pirates did not complete a pass in eight attempts and were 0-of-5 on third down during the 15-minute stanza, while Connecticut got a 23-yard scoring pass from Bryant Shirreffs to Alec Bloom and a 90-yard TD scamper from Newsome to extend its cushion to 24-6 ... East Carolina got on the board first via safety DeShawn Benton's 32-yard interception return, but were held scoreless until quarterback Blake Kemp came off the bench to cap a four-play, 49-yard scoring drive with a two-yard run midway through the fourth quarter ... James Summers earned the start for ECU and experienced extended action through most of the third quarter, but only managed 87 yards on a 12-of-21 passing effort ... Kemp took his first snap of the contest with 1:51 remaining in the period and was seven-of-11 for 50 yards, but was also picked off three times ... In all, both Pirate quarterbacks accounted for 50 total air yards in the final 30 minutes which hampered comeback efforts ... One of the bright spots for ECU offensively was the return of Marquez Grayson, who rushed for a career-high 87 yards on nine carries (9.7 ypr) after missing the first seven games.

Game 10

November 7, 2015

Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium, Greenville, N.C.

USF	22
East Carolina	17

Greenville, N.C. – Quinton Flowers connected with a wide-open Rodney Adams on a 67-yard pass play with 4:40 remaining in the contest to lift USF to a 22-17 American Athletic Conference triumph over East Carolina on a damp night at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium ... For the second-straight week, an offensive highlight merely served as a side note to a stellar opponent defensive performance that surrendered a paltry 220 total yards - a season low for the Pirate offense ... In addition, ECU managed only eight first downs (none in the first half), which marked its lowest single-game tally since 2004 ... Despite the offensive woes, East Carolina was in position to nab an improbable win after Davis Plowman's 40-yard field goal with 9:53 left in the fourth quarter gave the Pirates a 17-15 lead ... After forcing a Bulls' three-and-out, ECU used Bryce Williams' 56-yard catch to move to the USF 29-yard line for a potential game-clinching score but lost nine yards on a pair of rushes before an incomplete pass ended the threat ... Following a punt, the Bulls took over at their 15-yard line, and three plays later, Flowers found Adams in-stride down the right sideline with the 67-yarder on a first-and-10 snap ... ECU had opportunities after USF's score, but managed only 19 yards on 11 plays during its last pair of possessions, the final of which ended on a 10-yard loss via a sack of James Summers at the Pirate 33-yard line as time expired ... East Carolina was held to just 29 first-half yards (six passing), but entered intermission only trailing 12-7 ... Summers, who rushed for a team-high 42 yards, capped an eight-play, 59-yard drive late in the third quarter to give ECU its first lead of the game, 14-12 ... The Bulls and Pirates then traded field goals, setting the stage for Flowers' heroics ... Marlon Mack led an efficient USF ground attack with 117 yards on 27 carries.

Game 11

November 19, 2015
Bright House Networks Stadium, Orlando, Fla.

East Carolina	44
UCF	7

Orlando, Fla. – Quarterback Blake Kemp passed for a career-high 465 yards and four touchdowns to highlight the Pirates' most complete offensive performance of the year as East Carolina posted a convincing 44-7 American Athletic Conference triumph over UCF at Bright House Networks Stadium ... The win was ECU's first in Orlando since 2008 and snapped a three-game losing skid ... The Pirates racked up a season-best 622 yards on 85 total plays - an average of 7.3 yards per snap - and had three additional touchdowns called back because of penalties ... Kemp's efforts were complemented by a 14-reception, 181-yard, two-touchdown outing by Zay Jones, a 123-yard rushing night by Chris Hairston and three field goals by Davis Plowman, including a career-long 45-yarder in the second quarter ... After spotting the Knights an early 7-0 lead, the Pirates stormed back by scoring on their first two offensive possessions to go ahead 14-7 and spark a run of 44 unanswered points ... Kemp was 20-of-30 for 260 yards and three TD strikes in the first half to help ECU build a 31-7 advantage at intermission ... The Pirates forced three turnovers, two coming on fumbles during special teams returns, and held UCF to just 232 total yards - the fewest tallied against East Carolina all season ... Hairston averaged 8.8 yards per carry and scored from 39 yards out, while Davon Grayson added 99 reception yards on four grabs.

Game 12

November 28, 2015
Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium, Greenville, N.C.

Cincinnati	19
East Carolina	16

Greenville, N.C. – Andrew Gantz kicked a 42-yard field goal with no time remaining to lift Cincinnati past East Carolina 19-16 in an American Athletic Conference battle at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium to close out the regular season ... Gantz' game-winner, which followed a miss from 44 yards two minutes earlier, capped a 12-play, 56-yard drive that began at the Bearcat 19-yard line with 2:34 remaining ... Cincinnati opted to go with a clock-killing rushing attack in a pivotal third quarter that generated 80 yards on 17 carries, but importantly kept the ball away from the Pirate offense for over 12 minutes ... Defensively, the Bearcats limited ECU to only 17 ground yards in the final three stanzas of play to overcome an early 10-0 deficit ... After Mike Boone's one-yard scoring run and a Gantz 50-yard field goal in the third quarter gave Cincinnati a 16-10 lead, East Carolina marched 78 yards on 15 plays and tied the game on a two-yard TD pass from James Summers to Bryce Williams with 10:36 left ... The Pirates' bid to enjoy a one-point edge was denied after Davis Plowman missed the extra-point attempt following an unsportsmanlike penalty that pushed the try back to a 34-yarder ... After Gantz' three-point miss from 44 yards, ECU got the ball back at its own 27 with 4:27 remaining hoping to drive into field goal range but netted just seven yards on three plays before punting it back and setting the stage for the Bearcats' game-deciding possession ... Pirate quarterback Blake Kemp completed 33-of-50 passes for 315 yards and led all East Carolina rushers with a career-best 33 yards ... Cincinnati was 15-of-22 on third-down conversions, including 5-of-6 in the third period ... ECU dropped its third-straight home game for the first time since 2003.

ECU Bowl Records

Chris Johnson rushed for an East Carolina bowl-record 223 yards against No. 24 Boise State to help the Pirates to a thrilling 41-38 victory in the 2007 Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl at Aloha Stadium in Honolulu. Johnson, who was selected by the Tennessee Titans in the first round of the NFL Draft four months later, also established a new NCAA bowl standard with 408 all-purpose yards after racking up 153 kickoff return and 32 reception yards against the Broncos.

Coming in 2018...

THE EAST CAROLINA UNIVERSITY Department of Athletics and Pirate Club unveiled the next chapter in ECU history during the spring of 2016, releasing plans for a Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium Southside Renovation project that is targeted for completion in the fall of 2018.

As part of a long-term facilities master plan, the $55 million endeavor includes:

- Construction of a southside tower resulting in the creation of 1,000 premium seats through the addition of a new Club Level, Loge Boxes, Standard Suites and Founder's Suites ...
- Game day experience enhancement with a new Pirate Club Level, Field Level Club and premium parking spaces ...
- A modern press level with additional space for media, including amended radio and television broadcast and production locations ...
- Improvements to the Ward Sports Medicine Building and Scales Field House to provide needed functional space for student-athletes ...

Construction is slated to begin following the final 2017 home football game with completion scheduled prior to the 2018 home opener.
