ECU QUICK NOTES

► After enjoying a mid-week break, ECU returns to action Sunday against SMU inside Moody Coliseum, looking to end a seven-game losing streak to the Mustangs and earn its first win in Dallas since 2012.

► The Pirates are coming off an 86-60 loss at Cincinnati on Jan. 20. ECU trailed by just five early in the second half before the Bearcats used a 25-10 run over a 10-minute stretch to seize control of the games. Guards Isaac Fleming and Shawn Williams led the Pirates with 15 points apiece, while Kentrell Barkley added 10 points and grabbed eight rebounds.

► ECU senior B.J. Tyson continues his pursuit of The American career scoring record with 1,404 points. Former SMU guard Nic Moore holds the record with 1,462 points followed by former Temple star Quenton DeCosey (1,460) and current Houston guard Rob Gray (1,409). Tyson leads the Pirates in scoring with 14.8 points per game and minutes played (34.9). He had his eight-game double-digit scoring streak snapped at Cincinnati as the Bearcats limited to just seven points.

► Senior Jabari Craig has jumped center in all 19 games this and has won the tip 16 times, including against 7-foot-6 UCF center Tacko Fall.

► Junior Kentrell Barkley is close to averaging a double-double the last three games with 10.3 points and 9.0 rebounds per game. He posted his fourth double-double of the season with 18 points and 10 rebounds at home against USF on Jan. 17, while handing out a season-high seven assists and collecting an ECU and American conference record-tying seven steals. He's scored double figures in five of the last six games and grabbed seven or more rebounds in four of the past five contests.

► Junior Isaac Fleming ranks second in The American with 4.6 assists per game and has dropped 88 dimes this season.

► Freshman Dimitrije Spasojevic has the highest field goal percentage of all rookies in The American and ranks third overall (.581). He is 18-of-28 (.643) from the field the last five games and grabbed six rebounds in three of the last five games. He's posted double figure scoring games in three of the last five games, dropping 12 on UConn and 10 against Wichita State and USF.

► Freshman Shawn Williams made his third start of the season eight days ago against Cincinnati. He has led the Pirates in scoring in each of the last three games, averaging 18 points per game during that stretch. He is also shooting 44.4 percent (12-of-27) outside the 3-point arc over the past three games. He was named The American Rookie-of-the-Week for the second time this season on Monday.

► Dec. 4: In a 2-0 week for ECU, Williams came off the bench to average 13.5 ppg for the Pirates. In ECU's overtime win over UNCW, Williams posted 15 points in 21 minutes of action. The redshirt-freshman followed up the effort with 12 points, including the game-clinching free throws, against Delaware State.

Williams helped the Pirates to their largest margin of victory in a conference game since 1970, scoring a career-high 22 points against USF, knocking down 6 of 9 three-pointers. At No. 12 Cincinnati, Williams had a team high 15 points, hitting three triples.

← JEFF LEBO RESIGNS AS HEAD COACH →

ECU Head Men's Basketball Coach Jeff Lebo announced his resignation effective immediately on the afternoon of Nov. 29, 2017.

Lebo compiled 116 victories during his seven-plus seasons at the helm of the ECU program making him the winningest coach during the school's NCAA Division I era, which dates back to 1965, and second-most all-time. Under his guidance, the Pirates recorded their first-ever 20-win season as a Division I institution, received three postseason tournament invitations and captured the 2013 CIT postseason tournament title.

The Pirates won an ECU-record 23 games en route to their 2013 CIT championship.

Lebo is one of only three ECU coaches to have recorded multiple winning seasons in the school's Division I history. The Pirates won 56 games during his first three seasons, the second-most by any Pirate coach during any three-year period (Howard Porter, 57, 1952-55). His average of over 16 wins per season ranks first among all ECU basketball coaches.

The Carlisle, Pa. native produced six All-Conference USA selections, including the Pirates' only first-team selection and scoring champion Maurice Kemp in 2013. He also helped a trio of players earn American Athletic Conference All-Rookie team honors.

In addition to setting records for victories, Lebo's Pirates also established single-season marks for points, three-point field goals made, assists, blocks, steals and fewest turnovers per game. His teams own six of the top seven places on the ECU team season record list for 3-point field goals made and four of the best five assist campaigns.

Lebo departs as one of only three coaches in school history to lead the program for more than six seasons joining Howard Porter, who coached the team for 12 seasons (1947-59) and Tom Quinn, who led the Pirates' transition to Division I for eight years (1966-74).

SILVER ANNIVERSARY CHAMPIONSHIP

The 2017-18 season mark the silver anniversary of ECU's lone CAA championship and last trip to the NCAA Tournament in 1993. The seventh-seeded Pirates defeated No. 2 seed Old Dominion in the quarterfinals and then took down No. 6 seed UNCW in the semifinals the following night. In the championship game, ECU knocked off top-seeded James Madison, 54-49, to complete its improbable run and claim the conference's automatic bid to the tournament. Senior Lester Lyons was voted the tournament's Most Valuable Player, scoring 14 points in the title game. Fellow senior Isaac Copeland, who scored his only points of the championship tilt at the free throw line with 14.3 seconds to play, was also named to the all-tournament team.

MICHAEL PERRY

Interim Head Coach
11th Year at ECU
Richmond, 1981

A member of the ECU coaching staff for the previous 10 seasons, Michael Perry was named interim head coach on Nov. 29, 2017 following the resignation of coach Jeff Lebo.

Perry, now in his 11th season with the Pirates, served as acting head coaching for the final 14 games of the 2016-17 campaign while Lebo recovered from hip replacement surgery. The Pirates compiled a 6-8 record during those games which included a victory over UCONN and a win over Temple in the first round of the American Athletic Conference Basketball Championship tournament.

Prior to joining the East Carolina coaching staff, Perry spent five years (2003-07) as the head coach at Georgia State after serving as an assistant coach to "Lefty" Driesell for five years. During his 10 years, Perry was a major catalyst in the growth of the basketball program and helped lead the transition from the Atlantic Sun Conference into the Colonial Athletic Association.

During his tenure at Georgia State, the Panthers won 165 games (an average of 16.5 per year) and advanced to postseason play twice. Perry helped guide the Panthers to the Atlantic Sun Conference title in 2001 and a NCAA Tournament First Round upset of Wisconsin. Georgia State received a bid to the NIT the following year.

With Perry on the bench, Georgia State won three regular season conference championships and one tournament title. He also coached the team to back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time in school history, while helping direct a trio of 20-win campaigns. Perry guided the Panthers to a 20-9 record during his first full season as head coach in 2003-04.

He was promoted from associate head coach to head coach on Jan. 3, 2003, when Driesell announced his retirement. He had joined the staff as an assistant with Driesell in 1997.

Perry began his coaching career at Virginia Union in 1985. He then moved to his alma mater, University of Richmond, in 1986 where he remained until joining Driesell at Georgia State in 1997.

Perry was a four-year letterman at Richmond and was elected to the Richmond Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002. He started in all 108 of the Spiders' games from 1978-81. Perry was an all-conference player and honorable mention All-America. He averaged close to 20 points each season, including 22.8 points per game average as a senior. He was a 1981 draft pick of the Kansas City (now Sacramento) Kings.

Perry, a native of Richmond, Va., received his degree in real estate business from the University of Richmond. He and his wife Darlene have two daughters, Rashawna and Ashley, and one son, Michael, Jr.
