#STRIKEOUTALS "MUSTACHE MARCH"

Annually, for the past 17 seasons, East Carolina hosts the "Keith LeClair Classic" a tournament put together to bring awareness to ALS through the Jim "Catfish" Hunter chapter, which is located in Raleigh, N.C.

The chapter finds the tournament as a way to continue awareness and fundraising in Coach LeClair's honor. The goal is to use the Keith LeClair Classic as a starting point for our own fundraiser to help Strikeout ALS.

For the fifth consecutive year, the ECU baseball team will be growing mustaches to raise money and awareness for ALS research. The Pirates will be teaming up with the Memphis and Michigan baseball programs as well as CoopStrong, Erik Bakich (Michigan Head Coach) and Cliff Godwin (ECU Head Coach) were teammates under Keith LeClair.

CoopStrong is a non-profit organization formed to honor the memory of Nelson Cooper, a beloved husband, father, professor, and friend who passed away from ALS in May 2017. He has a special place in the ECU Baseball program being a professor to numerous of our players in his tenure as well as being close friends with Hall of Fame Head Coach Keith LeClair. CoopStrong keeps the memory and legacy of Dr. Nelson Cooper alive through scholarships awarded to Recreation Sciences students at East Carolina University.

Last year, the Pirates along with the Tigers and Wolverines raised $10,836 for ALS research

In 2018, the ECU and Memphis baseball programs participated in "Mustache March" raising nearly $11,000 with donations going towards funding, supporting families and researching through local chapters.

The past two seasons, ECU Dowdy Student Stores has donated $10,500 from t-shirt sales during the year and has pushed ECU's four-year total (including '19) to $43,492 in donations.

FRANCISCO NAMED AAC PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK

Thomas Francisco hit at an impressive .625 clip (5-for-8) with four RBI and scored once during the Pirates' weekend sweep of William & Mary. He collected at least one hit and drove in a run in all three games, while tallying a pair of multi-hit and one multi-RBI game. Francisco reached base eight times on the weekend (five singles and three walks) and extended his current hit streak to eight games dating back to the Quinnipiac contest in the 2019 Greenville Regional on June 1st.

In the season opener, Francisco went 2-for-4 with an RBI sac fly in the Pirates 2-1 extra inning affair against the Tribe. He followed that with a 1-for-1 performance plating and scoring a run to go along with a pair of walks. In the series finale, he registered his second multi-hit contest of the young season (2-for-3) and drove in a pair of runs.

90-FEET AWAY FROM OMAHA & CWS BERTH

After capturing the Charlottesville Regional title, the ECU baseball team traveled to No. 5 National Seed Texas Tech for a three-game series in the Lubbock Super Regional in 2016.

The Pirates, who entered the weekend set having dropped all six previous super regional games, picked up their first win (8-6) on Friday, June 10 behind a pair of home runs from Travis Watkins. Evan Kruczynski notched his eighth win and became the first ECU pitcher to win a super regional contest.

One win away from advancing to its first-ever College World Series appearance, ECU came within 90-feet from going to Omaha leaving a runner stranded at third in both the 11th and 12th innings. TTU would win in 13 innings on a two-RBI single by Eric Gutierrez.

Texas Tech wasted little time in getting on the scoreboard in game three plating three runs in the home half of the first and cruised to its second CWS berth in the last three years with an 11-0 win over ECU.

CWS DROUGHT EXTENDED TO 30 TRIPS

When the 2019 NCAA Tournament came to an end at the Louisville Regional, ECU's streak of 30 regional trips without going to Omaha was extended - the longest active streak in baseball. In 2016, The Pirates came 90-feet away twice in Game 2 in the Lubbock Super Regional of making their first trip to the College World Series. Below is a look at the longest active streaks by teams that have never made a trip to Omaha (list updated through 2018).
