Before The Tip

Having dropped two-straight American Athletic Conference contests after a 3-0 start to league play, East Carolina looks to return to the winning side of things Wednesday evening when it hosts UCF. The Pirates were set to travel to Wichita State for a Saturday afternoon matchup last weekend, but the Shockers paused team activities due to COVID-19 issues within the program. ECU fell to Temple 66-57 last time out as the Owls pulled away after entering the fourth quarter with a one-point advantage. Lashonda Monk paced the Pirates with 17 points while Taniyah Thompson posted 12 and Justice Gee contributed a season-best nine. Monk (15.3), Thompson (12.3) and Sierra DaCosta (10.9) are all averaging double figures in the scoring column and Tiara Chambers, who has missed the last two games with an injury, still tops the squad in rebounding average (6.3 rpg). Monk and Dominique Claytor have collected a team-high 25 steals apiece.

East Carolina/ECU Please

Feel free to call us East Carolina or ECU. However, we respectfully ask that the erroneous designation of Eastern Carolina or flawed abbreviations such as E-Carolina, East Caro, ECaro, or EC never be used.

Scouting UCF

UCF brings a 5-2 overall record and 3-1 mark to Greenville for Wednesday's affair. The Knights lost their first American Athletic Conference game of the year by a 61-58 margin Saturday at Temple. Like East Carolina, UCF boasts a trio of double-digit scorers on average in Courtajia Sanders (13.0), Diamond Battles (11.0) and Brittney Smith (10.0) while Masseny Kaba leads the squad in rebounding average (6.0). As a team, the Knights are putting up 58.1 points, 35.7 rebounds, 13.1 assists, 19.9 turnovers, 9.1 steals and 3.4 blocks per game and are shooting the ball at a 43-percent clip from the field. UCF is limiting its opposition to just 51.9 points a contest and ranks ninth in the nation in the statistic. Katie Abrahamson-Henderson is in her fifth season as the Knights' head coach.

The UCF Series

East Carolina owns a 13-10 advantage in the series with UCF dating back to 2006 when the Pirates and Knights were members of Conference USA. UCF has won the last five meetings, including a 91-55 decision in the teams' lone meeting of the 2019-20 campaign. The Pirates are 9-2 against the Knights at Minges Coliseum.

1K Club

DaCosta is just eight points shy of reaching 1,000 scored for her career. She spent three years with head coach Kim McNeill at Hartford, earning America East Conference Rookie of the Year accolades in 2016-17 before garnering third-team all-conference laurels as a junior. DaCosta has averaged no less than 9.8 points per game in any season of her collegiate career.

Back-To-Back Congrats

Monk and Thompson earned American Athletic Conference Player of the Week honors Dec. 21 and 28, marking the first time in program history two Pirate players have garnered the accolade two consecutive times.

Instant Impact

East Carolina received a boost Dec. 16 when the NCAA granted immediate eligibility to all Division I transfers. Junior Maddie Moore, a 6-3 forward who joined the squad after two years at UNC Charlotte, suited up for the Purple and Gold for the first time in the win at Cincinnati and made an impact - scoring 10 points. She followed that up with a 10-point outburst in the victory over Tulane.

Low Points

The Pirates limited Virginia to just two points in the first quarter Nov. 29. That marks the second time under head coach Kim McNeill that East Carolina has held an opponent to two points in a quarter - the other was the second stanza in a 59-42 win over Tulsa Feb. 19, 2020 at Minges Coliseum.

Record Book Rewrite

Monk turned in a season to remember in 2019-20. Along with earning American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year laurels, she also garnered a spot on the AAC All-Conference Second Team. Monk is not only the first-ever ECU player to be named Defensive Player of the Year, regardless of conference, but is also the first non-UConn player to receive the award. She also became the third Pirate player to be named Second-Team All-AAC, joining I'Tiana Taylor (2015) and Jada Payne (2016), as well as the third East Carolina player to be named to multiple American all-conference teams (Taylor and Payne). Monk set numerous records last season with her prowess on the defensive end, ranking third in the country in both steals (121) and steals per game (4.17) as well as leading the AAC in both. She is the first ECU player with multiple nine-steal games in the same season, accomplishing the feat in wins over Tulsa and Tulane. Monk also not only broke the East Carolina career record for steals, but also the AAC standard, and now owns 316 for her career. Monk surpassed Toina Coley for the ECU single-season steals record (125) by swiping four in the conference tournament first-round loss to Temple. Her contributions were not limited just to the defensive side of the ball as she led ECU in scoring (14.9 points per game) while ranking ninth in the league. She increased her scoring average to 15.3 in conference contests while finishing tenth in the league in assists per game (3.6) and free throw percentage (.761).

Freshman Sensation

Taniyah Thompson exploded onto the collegiate women's basketball scene during the 2019-20 campaign, earning unanimous selection to the American Athletic Conference All-Freshman Team. She was one of the most productive scorers in the league regardless of class, finishing the regular season averaging 13.7 points per contest - good for 11th among the conference circuit and first in terms of AAC rookies. Thompson also led league freshmen in steals per game (1.9) and average minutes played per contest (34.7) while increasing her scoring average to 14.8 versus league opponents. Overall, she produced 19 double-digit scoring games and hit the 20-point mark on seven different occasions. Additionally, Thompson represented one of just three AAC freshmen to record a double-double, scoring 16 points to go along with 10 rebounds at Tulsa. She also became just the ninth ECU player to convert at least six three-pointers in a single game when she connected on six of eight attempts beyond the arc against Dayton.

Experience All Over

It's no secret that East Carolina was a young basketball squad in 2019-20. The Pirate starting lineup in a 55-47 setback to SMU on Jan. 8 featured four freshmen (Thompson, Josephs, Evans and Tsineke), marking the first time that has happened at ECU since 2001. This season, however, the roster is much more balanced as East Carolina boasts four graduate students, one senior, three juniors, four sophomores and four freshmen.

Clutch Against The Commonwealth

East Carolina played a pair of close contests with teams from the state of Virginia in non-conference action, picking up three-point victories over Virginia (54-51) and VCU (58-55).

Challenge Yourself

East Carolina's run of three-straight games against "Power Five" opponents was the first for the program since the 1994-95 season when the Pirates tussled with then No. 4 North Carolina, Clemson and NC State. ECU would go on to lose all three of those contests.

Dazzling Debuts

DaCosta put together a huge debut in the Purple and Gold after sitting out last year due to NCAA student-athlete transfer rules. She scored 25 points and pulled down seven rebounds, both team highs, while hitting 10 of 12 shots at the free throw line. Freshman Synia Johnson also reached double figures in her first collegiate contest, notching 10 points to go along with three steals in 29 minutes.

Claytor Steps Up

In the last nine games of the 2019-20 regular season, Dominique Claytor was a force as she averaged 10.8 and 8.4 rebounds per contest while producing three double-doubles. In six victories during the stretch, Claytor was even better - putting up 12.5 points and 9.3 boards a game. All told, the Pirates were 7-1 when she scored in double figures.

What's Back For The Pirates?

Below is a numerical breakdown of what is coming back for the Pirates this season:

Category	Returning/2019-20 Total	Percentage
Points	1,496/1,675	89.3%
Rebounds	737/916	80.5%
Assists	302/318	94.9%
Steals	367/407	90.2%
Blocks	56/57	98.2%
3-Point FG Made	107/117	91.5%
Free Throws Made	233/252	92.5%

Seventh Season In The American

East Carolina is in its seventh season as a member of the American Athletic Conference after spending 13 years as part of Conference USA. The AAC has seen a shift in its membership with national powerhouse Connecticut opting to re-join the Big East Conference just prior to the 2020-21 campaign. That said, the Pirates look for their highest finish in the league since taking fifth place during their debut season (2014-15). ECU advanced all the way to the conference tournament semifinals that year before bowing out to UConn.

Season	League Record	Standing	Tournament
2014-15	11-7	Fifth	Semifinals
2015-16	6-12	Eighth	Quarterfinals
2016-17	2-14	11th	First Round
2017-18	7-9	7th	Quarterfinals
2018-19	6-10	T-7th	Quarterfinals
2019-20	6-10	9th	First Round

American Athletic Conference Women's Basketball Championship

The 2021 and 2022 American Women's Basketball Championships will be held at Dickies Arena in Fort Worth, Texas. The 14,000-seat arena, which opened in the Fall of 2019, features two premium club spaces, 40 suites, 32 loge boxes and a warmup arena that can stage a full practice court. The American basketball tournaments are scheduled to be held in the same city and venue for the first time in conference history. The 2021 women's tournament will feature each of the league's 11 teams in a single-elimination tournament. Three first-round games will take place on Monday, March 8, followed by four quarterfinal matchups on Tuesday, March 9. The semifinal contests will be played on Wednesday, March 10, with the championship game slated for Thursday, March 11.

Playing For A Century

Four Pirates are within striking distance of suiting up for their 100th career games in the Purple and Gold - Justice Gee (99), Dominique Claytor (99), Lashonda Monk (98) and Raven Johnson (93).

Kim McNeill begins her second season at the helm of the East Carolina women's basketball program after agreeing to contract terms to become the Pirates' head coach on March 28, 2019.

In McNeill's first season in Greenville, the Pirates made history on the defensive end. ECU finished second in the country in steals (407), steals per game (13.6) and turnovers forced (24.10) as well as third in turnover margin (+8.13). The 407 steals by ECU were both a school record and both Lashonda Monk (third) and Dominique Claytor (14th) finished in the top-14 of the nation in steals.

Under McNeill's guidance, Monk put together one of the best individual seasons in ECU history. The junior guard finished the season with 125 steals, breaking both the ECU and the AAC single-season record and finishing third in the NCAA. Monk became the first ECU player to win the AAC Defensive Player of the Year award and was named Second-Team All-AAC. Monk also made history by breaking the ECU career steals record as well as becoming the 23rd Pirate to reach the 1,000 career points plateau.

Along with Monk, Tanyiah Thompson also earned postseason honors, becoming a unanimous selection to the AAC All-Rookie team after leading all AAC freshmen in scoring, minutes and steals. It was just the third time that ECU has had multiple postseason honorees since moving to the AAC in 2014.

Prior to arriving at ECU, the Bassett, Va., native led Hartford to consecutive America East Conference Tournament championship game appearances and three-straight winning seasons. She owns a 59-38 (.608) record in three seasons directing the Hawks, producing a winning record in all three campaigns.

Coming off a successful three-year tenure at Hartford, McNeill led the Hawks back to the postseason for the first time since 2013. The Hawks made history when they became the first-ever No. 6 seed to reach the America East title contest in 2018 before returning as finalists in 2019. McNeill's last game on the Hartford bench was a first-round setback to Providence in the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT).

Defense has been a hallmark for McNeill's teams as the 2018-19 Hawks finished the year second in the NCAA in steals per game (13.0), turnovers forced (24.5) and turnover margin (9.35). It was the third-straight season that UHART had ranked in the top-10 in both steals and turnover margin.

Offensively, McNeill helped rewrite the school record books. In each of her final two seasons, the Hawks dished out more than 400 assists - including a school-record 441 in 2017-18. Its 66.8 scoring average topped all America East squads in 2016-17 and set a new program standard. In addition, Hartford led the America East in three-point shooting percentage (.345) and had the fewest turnovers in program history during McNeill's debut campaign.

McNeill mentored 12 America East All-Conference selections, including 2018 America East Scholar-Athlete Lindsey Abed and 2017 Rookie-of-the-Year Sierra Dacosta.

Prior to accepting the Hawks' top women's basketball position, McNeill spent 16 seasons as an assistant coach at the Division I level. She distinguished herself as an effective and successful recruiter and coach while working in some of the NCAA's top conferences, including the ACC, SEC, Pac-12 and Atlantic-10.

McNeill came to Hartford after spending five seasons on Joanne Boyle's staff at the University of Virginia, starting as an assistant coach before being elevated to associate head coach in 2013. She helped pilot the program to three WNIT appearances, including back-to-back berths in 2014-15 and 2015-16. The Cavaliers posted a 90-71 record during her five-year stint, which included the program's first 25-win season since 1999-00 (in 2011-12).

Virginia was the third stop in which McNeill had worked alongside Boyle, having previously served as an assistant on her staff at the University of Richmond (2004-05) and at the University of California (2005-07). Prior to rejoining Boyle's staff at Virginia, she spent four seasons under Andy Landers at the University of Georgia from 2007 to 2011.

McNeill started her career at James Madison where she worked for three overall seasons (2000-01 and 2002-04). Between the two stints at JMU, she served as an assistant at Howard University for one year.

McNeill was a three-year letterwinner and co-captain at Richmond, where she received her bachelor's degree in sport science in 2000.

On the court, she was named to the Colonial Athletic Association All-Defensive Team as a senior. Prior to transferring to Richmond, she earned 1996 Big South Conference Rookie-of-the-Year honors at Radford.

McNeill and her husband, Cory McNeill, are the parents of twins, Cayden and Gabrielle.
